PREFACE.

THE unrepealed Acts of the Supreme Council as published in this edition are comprised in three volumes. The first volume contains Acts from 1834 to 1874; the second volume contains Acts from 1875 to 1882; while the third volume contains Acts from 1883 to 1893.

To enhance the usefulness of this volume, I have prefixed a Chronological Table, showing how far each Act from 1875 to 1882 is repealed, amended, or otherwise altered, and at what page each unrepealed Act is printed; and I have added a general index, which refers to the subject-matter of each Act.

The Merchant Seamen's Act (I. of 1859) and a few other Acts relating to seamen have been omitted, as a consolidating measure is now before the Indian Legislative Council.

D. E. CRANENBURGH.

April 5, 1894.

THE UNREPEALED ACTS OF
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

ACT V. OF 1875.*

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 9TH FEBRUARY 1875.

An Act to remove doubts as to the rights and liabilities of certain Native Soldiers.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen as to the rights and liabilities of certain Native Soldiers who have been enrolled without having been attested, and it is expedient to remove such doubts; It is hereby enacted as follows:— Preamble.

1. Every person who has, for the space of six months, been in the receipt of military pay, and been borne on the rolls of any Regiment, Corps, Depôt, Ordnance Establishment, or Department of Her Majesty's Indian Army (of which the last pay-statement, if produced, shall be evidence), shall be deemed to have been duly enlisted, enrolled, and attested, and shall not be entitled to claim his discharge on the ground of illegality or irregularity in his enlistment, enrolment, or attestation, or on any other ground, save such as may be recognized by the orders and customs of the service. Validation of enlistment of certain native soldiers.

ACT VII. OF 1875.

THE BURMA FISHERIES ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 23RD FEBRUARY 1875.

An Act to regulate Fisheries in British Burma.

WHEREAS the exclusive right of fishing in British Burma in such fisheries as are hereinafter mentioned belongs, by the custom of the country, to the Government; Preamble.

* Act V. of 1875 is framed on the model of the Mutiny Act, s. 59.

It has been declared, under the Scheduled Districts Act (XIV. of 1874), to be in force in the following Scheduled Districts: The Districts of Hazáribágh, Lohárdaga, and Mánbhum, and Pargana Dhálbhum, and the Kolhán in the District of Singbhum.—See Gazette of India, Oct. 22, 1881, Pt. I., p. 504.

It has been declared in force in Upper Burma generally.—See the First Part of the Second Schedule to Act XX. of 1886.

Act VII. of 1875.

And whereas it is expedient to provide for the protection of this right, and for conceding the enjoyment of it to the public or to individuals gratuitously, or in consideration of fees or rent, and subject to suitable restrictions and conditions;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

I.—Preliminary.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Burma Fisheries Act, 1875:"

Local extent,

It extends to the territories* for the time being under the administration of the Chief Commissioner of Lower Burma.

Commencement.

[Repealed by Act XII. of 1876, s. 1.]

Interpretation-clause.

2. In this Act—

"Fish."

"Fish" includes also shell-fish:

"Fishery" means any collection of water, running or still, tidal or non-tidal, which is itself of a permanent nature, or is connected with some waters of a permanent nature, and in which fish or turtle may be found. It includes the sea:

"To fish" includes to catch turtle or collect their eggs; and

"Fixed engine" means any fixed implement or engine for catching or for facilitating the catching of fish, and includes a net secured by anchors, or otherwise temporarily fixed to the soil.

II.—Rights of Fishery.

Right of fishery.

3. No right to fish in any fishery shall be deemed to have been acquired by the public or by any person, either previously to the passing of this Act or subsequently thereto, except in one of the modes hereinafter described:

Angling.

But nothing herein contained shall be held, nor shall the giving of any grant, lease, license, or permission under this Act be held, to prevent the public from angling with a rod and line only in any fishery:

Proviso.

Provided that such angling may, in any case, with the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner, be forbidden by a proclamation issued by the Deputy Commissioner of the district in which such fishery is situate for such time as may be fixed by such proclamation:

And nothing herein contained shall prejudice or derogate from any express grant of a right to fish heretofore made by the British Government.

Disposal of right of fishery.

4. The Deputy Commissioner of any district may, subject to such rules, conditions, and restrictions as may be prescribed by the Chief Commissioner in this behalf, dispose of the right of fishing in any fishery situate within his district, or specially placed under his charge by the Chief Commissioner, in any one of the following modes, that is to say, Act VII. of 1875.

* The territories are now known as Lower Burma.—See Act XX. of 1886, s. 2 (l) (b), infra. The Chief Commissioner is styled Chief Commissioner of Burma.—See Proclamation, dated Sep. 25, 1886, Gazette of India, 25th idem, Pt. I., p. 539.

(a) he may declare such fishery open to the public, or to the inhabitants of any town or village, or to any other class of persons;

(b) he may lease the exclusive right of fishing in such fishery to any person;* or

(c) he may, where he has not disposed of the right of fishing in any of the foregoing modes, grant licenses to any number of persons to use nets, traps, and other implements for fishing in such fishery, and (subject as aforesaid) he may declare that any fishery shall cease to be a fishery for the purposes of this Act.

Declarations made before 1st April 1875.

All such declarations, leases, and licenses made and granted by the British Government before this Act comes into operation, and then in force, shall be deemed to have been respectively made and granted under this section.

Recovery of fees, rents, &c.

5. All fees, rents, and other moneys due to Government in respect of any lease, license, or permission granted under this Act, may be recovered in the manner prescribed by the law for the time being in force for the recovery of arrears of revenue.†

III.—Erection of Weirs.

Weirs not to be erected without sanction of Deputy Commissioner.

6. No weir or other fixed obstruction, and no fixed engine tending to hinder the movements of fish, or to interfere with the flow of the water, or to impede navigation, shall be erected, placed, maintained, or used in any fishery, or in waters connected with any fishery, by a grantee or lessee, or by any other person whomsoever, without a special permission in that behalf under the hand of the Deputy Commissioner of the District in which such fishery is situate.

IV.—Penalties.

Penalties.

7. Any person who commits any of the following offences (namely)—

(a) fishes in any fishery not having a right to fish therein,

(b) erects, places, maintains, or uses any fixed obstruction or fixed engine in a fishery, or in waters connected therewith, without being specially permitted to do so under section 6,

(c) puts or knowingly permits to be put, or causes or knowingly permits to flow, into any fishery, any solid or liquid matter to such an extent as to poison or kill, or to cause the water to poison or kill, fish,

(d) interferes with, or makes any demand in consideration of, the lawful use of the water of any fishery for purposes unconnected with the taking of fish, shall be punished, for a first offence, with imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, or a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees, or both;

* Leases of fisheries granted under this Act are exempted from stamp-duty by Act I. of 1879, Sch. II.

† See Act II. of 1876, ss. 45-51, infra.

Act VII. of 1875.

and, for a second offence, with imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees, or both.

Forfeiture of obstructions.

And any obstruction or engine erected, placed, maintained, or used in contravention of section 6, and any fish taken by means of such obstruction or engine, or otherwise in contravention of this Act, or of any rules made hereunder and for the time being in force, shall be forfeited, Removal of obstructions.

And such obstruction or engine may be removed or taken possession of by the Deputy Commissioner or such person as he empowers in this behalf.

And the expense (if any) of such removal may be recovered from the person erecting, placing, maintaining, or using the obstruction or engine so removed, as if it was an arrear of revenue.*

V.—Subsidiary Rules.

Power to make rules.

8.† The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, make rules for all or any of the following purposes:—

(a) for the survey and demarcation of the limits of fisheries;

(b) for determining in which of the modes mentioned in section 4, the right to fish in each fishery shall be disposed of;

(c) for regulating the conditions on which, and the procedure by which, fisheries may be opened to the public, or granted or let on lease to individuals;

(d) for fixing the rates at which, and the conditions on which, licenses to use implements for fishing may be granted;

(e) for settling the terms and conditions on which permission to erect, place, maintain, or use fixed obstructions and engines in fisheries, or waters connected therewith, may be granted;

(f) for making and maintaining free gaps in weirs;

and generally to carry out the purposes of this Act.

Penalty for breach of rules.

9. The Chief Commissioner may, with the like sanction, in making any such rule, attach to the breach of it, in addition to any other consequences that would ensue from such breach, a punishment, on conviction before a Magistrate, not exceeding one month's imprisonment, or two hundred rupees fine, or both.

Publication of rules.

10. All such rules shall be published in the British Burma Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

* See Act II. of 1876, ss. 45-51, infra.

† For rules under s. 8, see Burma Gazette, Oct. 27, 1888, Pt. I., p. 486.

ACT IX. OF 1875.*

INDIAN MAJORITY ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 2ND MARCH 1875.

An Act to amend the Law respecting the Age of Majority.

Preamble. WHEREAS, in the case of persons domiciled in British India, it is expedient to prolong the period of nonage, and to attain more uniformity and certainty respecting the age of majority than now exists; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title. 1. This Act may be called "The Indian Majority Act, 1875:"

Local extent. It extends to the whole of British India, and, so far as regards subjects of Her Majesty, to the dominions of Princes and States in India in alliance with Her Majesty;

Commencement and operation. and it shall come into force and have effect only on the expiration of three months from the passing thereof.

Savings. 2. Nothing herein contained shall affect—

(a) the capacity of any person to act in the following matters (namely)—Marriage, Dower, Divorce, and Adoption;

(b) the religion or religious rites and usages of any class of Her Majesty's subjects in India; or

(c) the capacity of any person who, before this Act comes into force, has attained majority under the law applicable to him.

Age of majority of persons domiciled in British India. 3. Subject as aforesaid, "every minor of whose person or property, or both, a guardian, other than a guardian for a suit within the meaning of Chapter XXXI. of the Code of Civil Procedure, has been or shall be appointed or declared by any Court of Justice before the minor has attained the age of eighteen years, and every minor of whose property the superintendence has been or shall be assumed by any Court of Wards before the minor has attained that age,"† shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Succession Act (No. X. of 1865), or in any other enactment, be deemed to have attained his majority when he shall have completed his age of twenty-one years, and not before:

Subject as aforesaid, every other person domiciled in British India shall be deemed to have attained his majority when he shall have completed his age of eighteen years, and not before.

* Act IX. of 1875 has been declared, under the Scheduled Districts Act (XIV. of 1874), to be in force in the following Scheduled Districts:—

The Districts of Hazáribágh, Lohárdaga, and Mánbhum, and Pargana Dhálbhum, and the Kolhán in the District of Singbhum	... ...	See Gazette of India . Oct. 22, 1881, Pt. I., p. 504.
The North-Western Provinces Tarái	... ...	Ditto. . Sep. 23, 1873, Pt. I., p. 505.

It has been declared in force in Upper Burma generally.—See the First Part of the Second Schedule to Act XX. of 1886.

† The words quoted have been substituted for the original by the Guardians and Wards Act (VIII. of 1890), s. 52.

Act X. of 1875.

Age of majority how computed.

4. In computing the age of any person, the day on which he was born is to be included as a whole day, and he shall be deemed to have attained majority, if he falls within the first paragraph of section 3, at the beginning of the twenty-first anniversary of that day, and if he falls within the second paragraph of section 3, at the beginning of the eighteenth anniversary of that day.

Illustrations.

ACT X. OF 1875.*

HIGH COURTS' CRIMINAL PROCEDURE ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 9TH MARCH 1875.

An Act to regulate the Procedure of the High Courts in the exercise of their original criminal jurisdiction.

Advocate-General may exhibit informations.

144. The Advocate-General may, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council or the Local Government exhibit to the local High Court, against persons subject to the jurisdiction of the said Court, informations for all purposes for which Her Majesty's Attorney-General may exhibit informations on behalf of the Crown in the Court of Queen's Bench or Exchequer.

Such proceedings may be taken upon every such information as may lawfully be taken in case of similar informations filed by Her Majesty's Attorney-General in England, so far as the circumstances of the case and the course and practice of proceeding in the said High Courts, respectively, will admit.

All fines, penalties, forfeitures, debts, and sums of money recovered or levied under or by virtue of any such information, shall belong to the Government of India.

Power to enter Nolle prosequi.

146.† At any stage of any proceeding under this Act, before the return of the verdict, the Advocate-General may, if he think fit, inform the Court on behalf of Her Majesty that he will not further prosecute the defendant upon the information or charge; and thereupon all proceedings on such information or charge against the defendant shall be stayed, and he shall be discharged of and from the same. But such discharge shall not amount to an acquittal.

* The whole Act (except s. 144 and so much of s. 146 as relates to informations) has been repealed by Act X. of 1882.

† S. 146 (except so much as relates to informations) has been repealed by Act X. of 1882.

An Act for the Improvement of Law Reports.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to diminish the multitude and expense of the Law Reports published in British India, and to improve their quality: And whereas, with a view to furthering these objects, the Governor-General in Council proposes to authorize the publication of reports of cases decided by the High Courts of Judicature established under the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth of Victoria, chapter 104; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Indian Law Reports Act, 1875:"

Local extent.

It extends to the whole of British India;

Commencement.

And it shall come into force on such day as the Governor-General in Council notifies in this behalf in the Gazette of India.

2 [Repealed by Act XII. of 1876.]

Authority given only to authorized reports.

3. No Court shall be bound to hear cited, or shall receive or treat as an authority binding on it, the report of any case decided by any of the said High Courts on or after the said day, other than a report published under the authority of the Governor-General in Council.

Authority of judicial decisions.

4. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to give to any judicial decision any further or other authority than it would have had if this Act had not been passed.

ACT XX. OF 1875.

THE CENTRAL PROVINCES LAWS ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 9TH DECEMBER 1875.

An Act to declare and amend the Law in force in the Central Provinces.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to declare and amend certain portions of the law in force in the Central Provinces; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Central Provinces Laws Act, 1875;"

* Act XVIII. of 1875 has been declared, under the Scheduled Districts Act (XIV. of 1874), to be in force in the following Scheduled Districts: The Districts of Hazáribágh, Lohárdaga, and Mánbhum, and Pargana Dhálbhum, and the Kolhán in the District of Singbhum.—See Gazette of India, Oct. 22, 1881, Pt. I., p. 504.

Act XX. of 1875.

Local extent.

It extends to the territories now under the administration of the Chief Commissioner of the Central Provinces:

Commencement.

And it shall come into force on the passing thereof.

Repeal of enactments and rules.

2. On and from the date on which this Act comes into force, the following shall be repealed, that is to say,—

(a) all Bengal Regulations except the Regulations or parts of Regulations hereinafter declared to be in force;

(b) all Acts of the Governor-General in Council (except the Acts mentioned in the schedule hereto annexed), which do not expressly or by necessary implication extend to the said territories or any part thereof, and have not been extended thereto in exercise of a power conferred by an Act of the Governor-General in Council;

(c) all rules, regulations, and enactments not being Statutes, Bengal Regulations, Acts of the Governor-General in Council, or rules or regulations made in exercise of a power conferred by a Statute, Bengal Regulation, or Act of the Governor-General in Council.*

Certain enactments to be deemed to be in force.

3. On and from the said date the enactments specified in the schedule hereto annexed shall be deemed to be in force throughout the said territories, to the extent mentioned in the third column of the said schedule.

But the powers and duties incident to the operation of the same enactments, so far as such powers and duties are referred to in the fourth column of the said schedule, shall be exercised and performed by the authorities mentioned in that column.

Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect the operation of any enactment not mentioned in the said schedule.

Confirmation of existing Acts.

4. Every Act of the Governor-General in Council, which extends, or can by notification be extended, to the territories which were under the administration of the said Chief Commissioner at the time of the passing thereof, shall extend, or may by notification be extended, as the case may be, to all the territories now under the administration of the said Chief Commissioner.

Rules of decision in cases of certain classes.

5. In questions regarding inheritance, special property of females, betrothal, marriage, dower, adoption, guardianship, minority, bastardy, family-relations, wills, legacies, gifts, partitions, or any religious usage or institution, the rule of decision shall be the Muhammadan law in cases where the parties are Muhammadans, and the Hindu law in cases where the parties are Hindus, except in so far as such law has been, by legislative enactment, altered or abolished, or is opposed to the provisions of this Act:

Provided that, when, among any class or body of persons, or among the members of any family, any custom prevails which is inconsistent with the law applicable between such persons under this section, and which, if not inconsistent with such law, would have been given effect to as legally binding, such custom shall, notwithstanding anything herein contained, be given effect to.

* The proviso to s. 2, being repealed by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. I., has been omitted.

Act XX. of 1875.

6. In cases not provided for by section 5, or by any other law for the time being in force, the Court shall act according to justice, equity, and good conscience.

Rule in cases not expressly provided for.

7. Implements of husbandry and cattle for agricultural purposes, and implements of trade, are exempted from attachment and sale in execution of decrees of the Civil Courts.

Articles exempt from attachment.

8. The said Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, make rules consistent with this Act as to the following matters:—

Power to make subsidiary rules.

(a) the maintenance of watch and ward and the establishment of a proper system of conservancy and sanitation at fairs and other large public assemblies;

(b) the imposition of taxes for the purposes mentioned in clause (a) of this section on persons holding or joining any of the assemblies herein referred to;

(c) the custody of judicial records, civil and criminal;*

(d) the appointment, duties, punishment, suspension, and dismissal of all ministerial officers.

9. The Chief Commissioner may, in making any rules under this Act, attach to the breach of it, in addition to any other consequences that would ensue from such breach, a punishment, on conviction before a Magistrate, not exceeding one month's imprisonment, or two hundred rupees fine, or both.

Penalty for breach of rules.

10. All rules made under this Act shall, when sanctioned by the Governor-General in Council, be published in the Central Provinces Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

Publication of rules.

Force of rules.

11.† Sections 184, 185, and 189 of the Code of Civil Procedure‡ are hereby repealed.

Local repeal, in part, of Code of Civil Procedure.

12.† For sections 182, 190, 191 of the same Code‡ the following shall be substituted (namely):—

Sections substituted in same Code.

182. A note of the essential points of the evidence of each witness shall be made at the time, and in the course, of oral examination, by the Judge, in his own language, or in English if he is sufficiently acquainted with that language, and such note shall be filed with, and form part of, the record of the case.

Note of evidence to be taken.

190. If the Judge be prevented from making a note as above required, he shall record the reason of his inability to do so, and shall cause such note to be made in writing from his dictation in open Court, and shall sign the same, and such note shall form part of the record.

Judge unable to make note to record reason of his inability.

* The following 21 words, "and the destruction, from time to time, of such of the said records as it may be deemed unnecessary to keep," have been repealed by Act III. of 1879 (Destruction of Useless Records Act).

† Ss. 11 and 12 have been inserted by Act II of 1879, s. 2.

‡ These references to Act X. of 1877 should now be read as applying to Act XIV. of 1882.—See s. 3 of that Act.

Act XX. of 1875.

Power to use note made by Judge dying or removed before conclusion of suit.

191. When the Judge, making a note of the evidence, or causing one to be made as above required, dies or is removed from the Court before the conclusion of the suit, his successor may, if he thinks fit, deal with such note as if he himself had made it, or caused it to be made.

Act II. of 1876.

ACT II. OF 1876.

THE BURMA LAND AND REVENUE ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 18TH JANUARY 1876.

An Act to declare the Law relating to Interests in Land, and to regulate the Assessment and Collection of Land-revenue, Capitation-tax, and other Taxes in British Burma.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to declare the law relating to the acquisition by private persons of rights in land in the Province of British Burma;

And whereas it is expedient also to consolidate and amend the law relating to the assessment and collection of land-revenue, capitation-tax, and certain other taxes in the said Province; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

PART I.—PRELIMINARY.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Burma Land and Revenue Act, 1876:"

Local extent.

It extends to all the territories now under the administration of the Chief Commissioner of Lower Burma,* except the Hill District of Arakan, and except such other places as the said Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, by notification in the Burma Gazette, and with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, exempt from its operation;

Commencement.

And it shall come into force on such date as the Chief Commissioner, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, may direct by notification in the said Gazette.†

Repeal.

2. On and from the date on which this Act comes into force, Act XXXV. of 1852 (for the abolition of the Poll-tax within the towns of Akyab and Kyouk Phyoo in the province of Arakan, and for levying a tax on lands covered by dwelling-houses within those towns), and all regulations and rules (if any) relating to any of the matters provided for by this Act, and then having the force of law, shall ber epealed.

Interpretation-clause.

3. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context—

"Possession."

(a.) Land is said to be in the possession of a person under this Act—

(1) when it is occupied by him, or by his servant, agent, tenant, or mortgagee, or by some other person holding under him;

(2) when he, his servant, agent, tenant, mortgagee, or other person holding under him, has paid the revenue which fell due in respect of such land during the last preceding year of assessment as fixed under section 41;

* The territories are now known as Lower Burma.—See Act XX. of 1886, s. 2 (1) (b). The Chief Commissioner is styled Chief Commissioner of Burma.—See Proclamation, dated Sep. 25, 1886, Gazette of India, 25th idem, Pt. I., p. 539.

† The Act came into force on Feb. 1, 1879.—See Burma Gazette, Feb. 1, 1879, Pt. II., p. 29.

(3) if such land, left fallow in the ordinary course of husbandry, was, when last cultivated by him, his servant, tenant, agent, or mortgagee, or by some other person holding under him: Act II of 1876.

Provided that no person shall be deemed to be in possession, merely on the grounds mentioned in the second or third clause of this definition, of any land which is occupied by a person not holding under him, or of any land which he has relinquished by a notice in writing presented to a revenue-officer at such time of the year as the Chief Commissioner may, by rule from time to time, appoint in this behalf:

"Revenue-officer."

(b.) "Revenue-officer" means any person whom the Chief Commissioner may appoint, by name or as holding an office, to do—

(1) anything required by this Act to be done by a revenue-officer; *

(2) anything to be done by a Government officer under this Act or under any rule made under this Act, and for the doing of which no agency is specially provided by this Act:

"Notification."

(c.) "Notification" means a notification published in the British Burma Gazette.

PART II.—Of Rights over Land.

Lands excluded from the operation of Part II.—

4. Nothing contained in this Part shall apply to the following:—

Reserved forests:

(a.) Land included in any forest constituted 'a reserved forest' under the law for the time being in force:

Fisheries:

(b.) Land included in any fishery demarcated under the Burma Fisheries Act, 1875:

Public roads, &c.:

(c.) The soil of any public road, canal, drain, or embankment:

Towns:

(d.) Land included within the limits of any town:

Dwelling-places:

(e.) Land appropriated to the dwelling-places of any town or village:

Cantonments:

(f.) Land included in any military cantonment:

Civil stations:

(g.) Land included in any civil station:

Lands of religious and educational institutions.

(h.) Land belonging, when this Act comes into force, to the site of any monastery, pagoda, or other sacred building, or of any school, and continuing to be used for the purposes of such monastery, pagoda, building, or school.

Power to exclude other land.

The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, by notification, exclude any other land from the operation of this Part.

---

* As to classes of officers appointed under s. 3 (b) to do the acts required by this Act to be done by a revenue-officer, see Burma Gazette, June 23, 1888, Pt. I., p. 258.

Act II. of 1876.

Power to define boundaries of excluded lands.

5. When the boundaries of any lands exempt or excluded under section 4 from the operation of this Part need definition for the purposes of that section, and no other mode of defining them is provided by law, the Chief Commissioner shall cause them to be defined by the revenue-officer.

If, before they are defined, any question arises as to whether any land is included within them, such question shall be decided by the revenue-officer, whose decision, subject to appeal and review as hereinafter provided, shall be final.

Rights which may be acquired over land.

6. No right of any description shall be deemed to have been or shall be acquired by any person over any land to which this Part applies, except the following:—

(a) rights created by any grant or lease made by or on behalf of the British Government;

(b) rights acquired under sections 27 and 28 of the Indian Limitation Act, 1871;*

(c) rights created or originating in any of the modes hereinafter in that behalf specified;

(d) rights legally derived from any right mentioned in clauses (a), (b), and (c) of this section.

Status of landholder how acquired.

7. Except as provided in section 22, any person having been in possession of any culturable land for twelve years continuously, and having, during that period, regularly paid the revenue due thereon, or held the same under an express exemption from revenue, shall be deemed to have, upon the expiration of that period, acquired the status of a landholder in respect of such land:

Provided that such status shall not be deemed to have been acquired by any possession which terminated more than twelve years prior to the date on which this Act comes into force.

Explanation 1.—When land in the possession of one person comes immediately into the possession of another, by transfer or succession, the possession is deemed to be continuous, and the latter may, in reckoning his length of possession, add the possession of the former to his own.

Explanation 2.—When any revenue has been paid in respect of any land by any person holding such land under the person in possession thereof, such revenue shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to have been paid by the person so in possession.

Landholder's rights defined.

8. A landholder shall have a permanent heritable and transferable right of use and occupancy in his land, subject only—

(a) to the payment of all such revenue, taxes,† and rates as may, from time to time, be imposed in respect of such land under any law for the time being in force;

(b) to the reservation in favour of Government of all mines and mineral products, and of all buried treasure, with full liberty to work and search for the same, paying to the landholder only compensation for surface-damage as estimated by the revenue-officer. Act II. of 1876.

* See Act XV. of 1877, s. 2 and ss. 26 and 27.

† The word "cesses" has been repealed by Act II. of 1880.

9. First Clause.—Any person, having acquired the status of a landholder in respect of any land before the date of this Act coming into force, and having been out of possession of such land on the said date, may, within three years from the said date, or within twelve years from the date on which he was last in possession, whichever first expires, proceed to recover possession of the said land in the manner hereinafter provided, that is to say—

Landholders out of possession when Act comes into force.

(a) if no other person is in possession of the same, he may resume possession thereof;

(b) if any other person is in possession of the same, he may apply to the revenue-officer to be reinstated in possession thereof.

Second Clause.—Any person having the status of a landholder in respect of any land, and being in possession of such land on the date on which this Act comes into force, and (except as provided in section 12) voluntarily relinquishing possession of such land within the three years next following such date, may, at any time before the expiry of the said period of three years, proceed to recover possession of the same in manner provided in the first clause of this section:

Landholders relinquishing possession within three years from Act coming into force.

Third Clause.—All persons entitled to resume possession of lands, or to apply to the revenue-officer under the first or second clause of this section, and neglecting to resume possession or apply in manner aforesaid within the periods limited by the said clauses respectively, shall forfeit their status as landholders in respect of such lands.

Forfeiture of their status by neglect to assert it.

10. On receiving any application under section 9, it shall be in the discretion of the revenue-officer, after such enquiry as he thinks fit to make, either to reject such application, or to put the applicant in possession of the land comprised in his application.

Applications by them for possession how dealt with.

Any applicant whose application is rejected under this section may, within two months from the date of such rejection, institute a suit in the Civil Court to recover possession of the land comprised in his application.

Suits by them on application being rejected.

Any such applicant who neglects to institute such a suit within the said period of two months shall forfeit his status of landholder in respect of such land.

Forfeiture of their status by neglect to institute such suits.

11. Any landholder who, except as provided in section 12, voluntarily relinquishes the possession of any land after the expiry of three years from the date on which this Act comes into force, shall at once forfeit his status of landholder in respect of such land.

Landholders relinquishing possession after three years from Act coming into force.

12. Whenever any person in possession of land, and claiming the status of a landholder in respect thereof, desires temporarily to relinquish the possession of the same, he may present a petition to the revenue-officer, requesting him to take over such land.

Right of landholder to make over land temporarily to revenue-officer,

Act II. of 1876.

The revenue-officer on receipt of such petition, if it appears to him, on such enquiry as he thinks fit to make, that the petitioner is entitled to such status, shall cause a notice to be published in such manner as the Chief Commissioner may by rule prescribe, declaring that he has taken over the land, and the land shall thereupon be at his disposal to be let on lease or otherwise dealt with, subject to the rights of any third parties over the land and to the right of the petitioner next hereinafter reserved.

and to recover possession within twelve years.

13. The petitioner may, at any time within twelve years from the date on which the land has been taken over by the revenue-officer, apply to the revenue-officer to reinstate him in possession of the same.

On receiving such application, the revenue-officer shall, in such manner as may be provided by rules made under this Act and in force for the time being, give notice of the application to any person who may be in occupation under him, and shall in due time proceed to eject him, and shall put the applicant in possession of the land:

Provided that no person shall be ejected under this section from any land which, before receiving notice from the revenue-officer of the said application, such person or his predecessor in interest has in any way prepared for cultivation, until the person sought to be ejected has gathered in his crop:

Provided also that no person shall be so ejected from any land which he or his predecessor in interest has planted, drained, embanked, or otherwise permanently improved, until he has been paid by the applicant the value of such improvements at the date of ejectment, such value to be determined, in case the parties differ, by order of the revenue-officer.

Applications to recover possession by persons claiming as succeeding to the rights of the petitioner.

14. If any person applies for possession of land under section 13 alleging that he is the successor in interest of the petitioner from whom such land was taken over by the revenue-officer, the revenue-officer may, in his discretion, reject such application, or proceed thereon under section 13 as if it were an application by the said petitioner, and the person from whom such land has been taken, or any other person, may sue to establish his title to such land.

Declaration and record of original acquisition of landholder's status.

15. Any person being in possession of any land, and asserting that he himself, or any other person through whom he claims, acquired the status of a landholder in respect of such land in the manner provided by section 7, may apply to the revenue-officer to record, in a register to be provided for this purpose, a declaration of such status having been so acquired. And the revenue-officer, if it appears to him, after a notice of such application has been published for such period and in such manner as the Chief Commissioner may by rule prescribe, and after such enquiry as the revenue-officer may think fit to make, that such status was so acquired, shall record a declaration to that effect, and furnish the applicant with a certificate of the same having been recorded.

Cancellation of such declarations and records.

16. If, within five years from the date on which a declaration has been recorded under section 15, the revenue-officer is satisfied that it is erroneous, he may cancel it:

Provided that no such declaration shall be so cancelled until a notice of the intention to cancel it has been published for such period and in such manner as the Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, by rule direct.

While any such declaration remains on the register uncancelled, no fresh declaration, inconsistent therewith, shall be recorded in such register.

Fresh declarations.

17. Whenever a question arises in any proceeding before any Civil Court as to whether any person acquired the status of a landholder in respect of any land in the manner provided by section 7, and it appears that a declaration of the fact of such status having been acquired by him has been made under section 15 not less than five years before the commencement of such proceeding, and is still uncancelled, the Court shall decide in accordance therewith.

Questions as to original acquisition or as to the loss of landholder's status how to be dealt with by Civil Courts.

Whenever any such question arises in any such proceeding and it appears that no such declaration has been so made, or if made, that it has been cancelled, and whenever any question arises whether the status of a landholder, having been acquired, has been subsequently lost, the Court shall refer such question to the revenue-officer, and shall give judgment in accordance with his decision thereon:

Provided that, where any party desires to appeal from the decision of the revenue-officer on any question so referred to a revenue-officer of higher grade empowered to hear such appeal by the rules for the time being in force, the Court shall, on such conditions as to the furnishing of security or otherwise as it thinks fit, defer its judgment so as to admit of such appeal being preferred, and, in the event of a decision being given in appeal different from that given by the revenue-officer to whom the question was originally referred, shall give judgment in accordance with the decision pronounced in appeal.

18. The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, make rules for the disposal, by way of grant or otherwise, of any land over which no person has a right of either of the classes specified in clauses (a) and (c) of section 6.

Power to make rules for the disposal of available lands.

Such rules may provide, among other matters, for the following:—

(a) the amount or kind of interest to be created in such land, and the conditions (if any) subject to which such interest may be conferred;

(b) the mode in which grants and other dispositions of the land may be made;

(c) the total or partial exemption, either absolutely or subject to conditions, of the land from revenue for a term of years, or for any life or lives, or during the maintenance of any institution;

(d) the realization of any money payable in consideration of the grant or other disposition, or of any penalty payable on breach of a condition annexed to such grant or disposition, as if it were an arrear of revenue due in respect of the land by the person taking under the grant or disposition, his legal representatives, or assigns.

19. The Chief Commissioner may also, from time to time, make rules to regulate the temporary occupation of such land as last aforesaid, and may empower any revenue-officer to eject any person occupying, or continuing to occupy, such land in contravention of such rules.

Temporary occupation of available land.

Act II. of 1876.

Allotment of grazing grounds.

20. The Chief Commissioner shall from time to time, as occasion requires, make rules for the allotment, from the land referred to in section 18, of grazing grounds to the inhabitants of any village in the neighbourhood whom he considers to stand in need of such allotment, and for regulating and controlling the enjoyment of such grazing-grounds by persons permitted to resort thereto.

Allotments to Toungya-cutters.

21. The Chief Commissioner shall also make rules, from time to time and for different places as occasion requires—for the allotment, from the land referred to in section 18, for the use of tribes or families practising Toungya-cultivation, of areas suitable for such cultivation of sufficient extent, and situated in localities reasonably convenient for the purposes of the persons to whom they are allotted, and for regulating and controlling the enjoyment of land so allotted by persons permitted to resort to the same.

Bar to acquisition of rights over lands disposed of or allotted under sections 18, 20, and 21.

22. No person shall acquire, by length of possession or otherwise, any right over lands disposed of or allotted under section 18, section 20, or section 21, beyond that which is given by the rules made under the said sections respectively.

PART III.—Of Revenue and Taxes.

A.—Of Land-revenue.

Land liable to land-revenue-assessment.

23. All culturable land and all land which is culturable when this Act comes into force, but which subsequently becomes unculturable in consequence of the erection of buildings or otherwise by the act of man, and all land assessed to land-revenue when this Act comes into force, shall be liable to be assessed to land-revenue in manner hereinafter mentioned.

But nothing in this section shall apply to—

(a) land which, when this Act comes into force, belongs to the site of any monastery, pagoda, or other sacred building, or of any school, and which continues to be used for the purposes of such monastery, pagoda, building, or school;

(b) land exempt from assessment under the express terms of any grant made by, or on behalf of, the British Government;

(c) land in respect of which a Toungya-tax is imposed under section 33;

(d) land appropriated to the dwelling-places of any town or village, and exempted from the operation of the former part of this section by order of the Chief Commissioner, which order the Chief Commissioner is hereby empowered to make from time to time.

Mode and amount of assessment.

24. The assessment referred to in section 23 shall be either—

(a) by annual rates per acre or other superficial measure of the land, or

(b) by annual rates on trees growing on the land,

The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, make rules for fixing such rates and determining under what circumstances each description of rate is to be imposed. Act II. of 1876.

Subject to such rules, the nature and amount of such assessment shall be in the discretion of the revenue-officer:

Provided that no assessment shall be made in derogation of the terms of any grant made by, or on behalf of, the British Government.

Rates may be altered.

25. Subject to the rules made under section 24 and for the time being in force, and, except as provided in that section and in sections 28 and 42, the rates payable in respect of any land may be altered from time to time as the Chief Commissioner may direct.

Right to a settlement.

26. Any person in possession of any culturable land which is liable to be assessed to land-revenue may apply to the revenue-officer to make a settlement with him of such land.

If such person appears to have a permanent heritable and transferable right of use and occupancy in the land, the revenue-officer shall offer him a settlement of the nature hereinafter described.

If such person does not appear to have such a right, it shall be in the discretion of the revenue-officer to offer or refuse such settlement.

Nature of settlement.

27. The settlement offered to the applicant may be either—

(a) a settlement of a single annual sum payable in respect of the whole land, or

(b) a settlement of certain annual rates per acre or other superficial measure of land.

In either case the settlement may provide that, for any additional land situate within certain local limits which the applicant may cultivate (not being land acquired by him by transfer or succession), he shall not be required to pay, during the continuance of such settlement, any revenue whatever or any revenue in excess of rates fixed thereby for such additional land.

The Chief Commissioner shall by rules determine the cases in which each of the said descriptions of settlement shall be offered, and the general principles on which the amount or rate of the revenue payable thereunder shall be fixed.

Subject to such rules, the nature and stipulations of the settlement to be offered in each case shall be in the discretion of the revenue-officer.

Rights conferred by settlement.

28. When a settlement of any land offered under sections 26 and 27 has been accepted, neither the person on whose application such settlement has been made, nor any person succeeding him in possession of the land by transfer or succession, nor any person holding under him or under a person so succeeding him, shall, during the term of such settlement, be held liable to pay any revenue in respect of such land beyond that fixed by the settlement.

But no person shall be deemed to have acquired any right to or over any land, as against any other person claiming rights to or over the same land, merely on the ground that a settlement of such land has been made on his application, or on the application of some person through whom he claims.

Act II. of 1876.

Term of settlement.

29. The settlement shall be made for such term as the Chief Commissioner may from time to time by rule direct.

The settlement of any land shall terminate at the close of any year of assessment prescribed under section 41 if the person in possession of such land, and entitled under section 28 to the benefit of such settlement, not less than three months before the close of such year presents to the revenue-officer a notice in writing declaring that he desires to rescind the settlement, and at the same time pays to him all revenue payable in respect of the said land to the close of such year.

If any such person omits to give the notice and make the payment required by this section, he shall continue liable for the revenue payable from time to time under the settlement, although he may have relinquished possession of the land.

Continuance of expired settlement until new settlement is made.

30. If the term for which a settlement of any land has been made elapses before a new settlement thereof is made, any person who was entitled to the benefit of the expired settlement at the time of its expiration and continues in possession of such land, and any person holding under him, or claiming through him without an interruption of possession, shall be entitled to the benefit, and be bound by the stipulations, of the expired settlement, until a new settlement of such land is made:

Provided that the said stipulations shall cease to be in force at the close of any year of assessment as aforesaid, if the person in possession, not less than three months before the close of such year, presents to the revenue-officer a notice in writing requiring that they should so cease.

B.—Of the five per cent. cess.

31, 32. [Repealed by Act II. of 1880. s. 3.]

C.—Of the Toungya-tax.

Toungya-tax.

33. The Chief Commissioner may direct that, in lieu of the revenue assessable on any land under Toungya-cultivation, there shall be collected an annual tax either on each male person who has completed his age of eighteen years, or on each family of persons, taking part in the cultivation of such land at any time during the year of assessment as fixed under section 41.

The rates of such tax may be fixed from time to time by the Chief Commissioner, but shall not exceed the following, that is to say,— on each male cultivator, two rupees, on each family of cultivators, two rupees.

*D.—Of the Capitation-tax and the Land-rate in lieu thereof.

Capitation-tax.

34. A capitation-tax shall be payable by all males between the ages of eighteen and sixty years, at such rates as the Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, by notification direct:

* Persons liable to pay income-tax under Act II. of 1886 are exempt from payment of capitation-tax or land-rate inlieu thereof levied under this Act.—See Act II. of 1886, s. 48.

Provided that such rates shall not exceed the following, that is to say,— Act II. of 1876.

on married men, five rupees a year;

on men who have no wives, two rupees eight annas a year:

Provided also that this tax shall not be payable—

(a) by the residents of any of the towns mentioned in the schedule hereto annexed;

(b) by the residents of any other town on which the Chief Commissioner may impose a land-rate under section 35.

Land-rate in lieu of capitation-tax.

35. In the towns mentioned in the schedule hereto annexed, and in such other towns as the Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, by notification direct, there shall be levied, instead of the capitation-tax, an annual rate upon land to be fixed from time to time by the Chief Commissioner by notification, but not to exceed the following, that is to say,— on land covered with buildings, one pie and a half per square foot; on land not covered with buildings, three rupees per acre.

The boundaries of the towns in which such rate is leviable shall be fixed, from time to time, for the purposes of this section, by the Chief Commissioner by notification, and may be so fixed as to include any suburbs of such towns.

Explanation.—The rate leviable on any land under this section shall be in addition to any land-revenue payable thereon.

Exemption from capitation-tax and land-rate.

36. The Chief Commissioner may, by notification,—

(a) exempt any person or class of persons, or the residents of any particular locality, from the payment of capitation-tax;

(b) exempt any lands, or any class of lands, throughout the Province, or in any part thereof, from land-rate in lieu of capitation-tax;

(c) revoke any such exemption.

E.—Of Personal Liability for certain Revenue and Taxes.

Personal liability for land-revenue and land-rate in lieu of capitation-tax.

37. The amount payable on account of revenue* or land-rate in lieu of capitation-tax on any land for any year of assessment shall be due jointly and severally from all persons who have been in possession of such land at any time during such year, and all persons who have held under them as tenants, mortgagees, or conditional vendees.

Personal liability for tax on families.

38. When a tax per family of cultivators of any land is imposed, the amount due for any year of assessment from each family shall be due jointly and severally from all males of such family who, at any time during such year, being then above the age of eighteen years, took any part in the cultivation of such land.

Act II. of 1876.

F.—Of the Manufacture of Salt, and of Licenses to prepare and collect Cutch, Beeswax, &c.

Power to make rules for—

39. The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, make rules—licensing salt manufacture;

(a) for granting licenses to manufacture salt;

(b) [Repealed by Act XII. of 1882, s. 2;]

composition with licensees.

(c) for compounding with any holder of a license for the payment by him of an annual sum assessed upon the plant employed by him, in lieu of the duty which would be payable by him* on the salt produced with the aid of such plant.

Penalty for manufacturing or storing salt without a license.

Any person who, without a license for the time being in force,— (d) engages in the manufacture of salt;

(e) owns works for the manufacture of salt; or

(f) stores salt exceeding such quantity as the Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, by notification fix in this behalf; shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, and to a further fine of ten rupees for every day after a first conviction under this section in which he continues such manufacture or storage:

And all salt in respect of which a conviction under this section has taken place, and all materials and implements used for the purpose of manufacturing such salt, shall be liable to confiscation by order of the convicting Magistrate.

Power to make rules regarding collection and preparation of cutch, beeswax, &c.

40. The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, make rules—

(a) for granting licenses to prepare or collect, or farms of the right of preparing or collecting, cutch, beeswax, honey, lac, cardamoms, and other forest-produce, or edible birds' nests, upon land over which no person has a right of either of the classes specified in clauses (a) and (c) of section 6:

(b) for fixing the amount of fees to be charged in respect of such licenses or farms.

G.—Miscellaneous.

Year of assessment.

41. The year of assessment of any revenue,† rate, tax, or fee leviable under this Part, shall commence on such day of the calendar year as the Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, by rule prescribe.

When increase of rate takes effect.

42. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Part, no enhancement made in any such revenue, rate, tax, or fee, shall take effect until the commencement of the year of assessment following that in the course of which it is made.

† The word "cess," repealed by Act II. of 1880, s. 3, has here been omitted.

PART IV.--OF ARREARS AND THE MODE OF RECOVERING THEM. Act II. of 1876.

Revenue, &c., when due, where and to whom payable.

43. Every sum payable under this Act on account of any revenue, tax,* rate, fee, duty, or composition, shall fall due on such date, and shall be payable at such place and to such person, as the Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, by rule direct.

"Arrear" and "defaulter" defined.

44. When any such sum has fallen due, and a written notice of demand for it has been served on any one of the persons liable for it, or published in such manner as the Chief Commissioner may from time to time by rule direct, and ten days have elapsed from the service or publication of such notice without such sum having been paid, such sum shall be deemed to be an arrear; and every person liable for it shall be deemed to be a defaulter.

Proceedings against defaulters for recovery of arrear.

45. An arrear may be realized as if it were the amount of a decree for money passed against the defaulter in favour of any revenue-officer whom the Chief Commissioner may from time to time appoint in this behalf by name or as holding any office.

Proceedings with a view to the realization of such arrears may be instituted by such officer before any other revenue-officer whom the Chief Commissioner may from time to time appoint by name or as holding any office, and except in so far as the Chief Commissioner may otherwise by rule direct, such other officer may exercise all the powers conferred on, and shall conform to all rules of procedure prescribed for, a Court executing a decree by the Code of Civil Procedure† :

Provided that—except when execution is applied for against a defaulter who has absconded, or who is reasonably believed to be about to abscond, the officer before whom proceedings are instituted under this section shall, before issuing any process of execution against a defaulter, cause a notice to be served on him in the manner prescribed for the service of summons on defendants in civil suits, requiring him either to pay the amount of the arrear, or to appear on a day fixed in the notice, and show cause why such amount should not be realized from him.

If, on the day so fixed, such amount has not been paid, and the defaulter does not appear, or, appearing, fails to show cause as aforesaid, the said officer may order the process to issue forthwith.

Proceedings against the land.

46. Instead of, or in addition to, the proceedings which may be instituted under section 45, a revenue-officer empowered in this behalf by the Chief Commissioner may, when the arrear is one of land-revenue,‡ or land-rate in lieu of capitation-tax, proceed against the land on which such arrear has accrued as next hereinafter provided.

* The word "cess," repealed by Act II. of 1880, s. 3, has here been omitted.

† Now Act XIV. of 1882.—See s. 3, ibid.

‡ The words, "five per cent. cess," repealed by Act II. of 1880, s. 3, have here been omitted.

Act II. of 1876.

Where there is a permanent heritable and transferable right in such land.

47. If such officer finds on enquiry that there exists any permanent heritable and transferable right of use and occupancy in the land, he may sell by public auction such right in the whole of the land, or in such portion thereof, as he may deem sufficient for the realization of the arrear.

The proceeds of such sale shall be applied in the first place in liquidation of the arrear, and in the event of there being any surplus remaining, the revenue-officer shall, if he is satisfied as to the right of any person claiming such surplus, pay the amount thereof to such person, and, if he is not so satisfied, shall hold the amount in deposit for the person who may ultimately succeed in due course of law in establishing his title thereto.

Title conferred by purchase at sale under section 47.

48. The purchaser at a sale held under section 47 shall be deemed to have acquired the right offered for sale, free from all encumbrances created over it, and from all subordinate interests derived from it, except such as may be expressly reserved by the revenue-officer at the time of sale.

Proceedings against the land where no permanent heritable and transferable right exists.

49. If the revenue-officer proceeding against the land finds on enquiry that no permanent heritable and transferable right of use and occupancy exists therein, he may, by proclamation published on the land in such manner as the Chief Commissioner from time to time by rule directs, declare that he has taken possession of such land on behalf of the Government, and may summarily eject any person found in occupation thereof.

Effect of proclamation published under section 49.

50. When a proclamation is published under section 49 in respect of any land over which any private rights of any description exist, such land shall be deemed to have been, from the date of such proclamation, vested in the Government free from all such rights as have not been expressly reserved by the terms of such proclamation.

Costs of proceedings for recovery of arrears.

51. All costs of any proceeding under this Act for the recovery of an arrear may be recovered as if they formed part of such arrear.

Proceedings against defaulting revenue-officers.

52. If a revenue-officer has reason to believe that a revenue-officer subordinate to him, who has collected any sum due under this Act, has absconded or is about to abscond without accounting for such sum, he may issue a warrant for the apprehension of such subordinate officer, and proceed against him, or cause proceedings to be instituted against him, as if he were a defaulter in the amount so collected.

Proceedings against sureties of defaulters and revenue-officers.

53. Any person who has become liable for any amount as surety for a defaulter or revenue-officer may be proceeded against as if he himself were a defaulter in such amount.

PART V.—Miscellaneous.

Erection and repair of boundary-marks.

54. A revenue-officer may, by a notice in writing duly served in accordance with rules to be made under this Act, require any person liable for the revenue of any land, or entitled to hold such land free of revenue, to erect boundary-marks sufficient for defining the limits of such land, or to repair any such boundary-marks already existing; and if such person fails to comply with his requisition within a period to be specified in the notice, may cause the work to be done, and recover the cost thereof as if it were an arrear of revenue due in respect of the land. Act II. of 1876.

55. Appeals shall lie from orders and decisions given under any provision of this Act, in such cases, to such officers, and subject to such limitations as to time, and such other conditions, as the Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, by rule determine: Appeals.

Provided that decisions by an officer of a grade lower than that of a Commissioner of a division in or on the following matters, claims, and questions, shall not be final (namely):—

(a) matters disposed of by revenue-officers under section 5, section 10, and sections 12 to 17 inclusive, except orders as to the value of improvements;

(b) claims to occupy or resort to lands under sections 19, 20, and 21, and disputes as to the use or enjoyment of such lands between persons permitted to occupy or resort to the same;

(c) questions as to whether any land or any person is liable to be assessed to any revenue,* tax, or rate;

(d) questions as to the mode or principle of assessment of any revenue,* tax, or rate, or as to the amount assessed;

(e) questions as to the right to a settlement of land-revenue, or the nature or term of the settlement to be offered;

(f) questions as to the validity or effect of any settlement, or as to whether the conditions of any settlement are still in force;

(g) questions as to the liability of any person under sections 37 and 38;

(h) questions as to whether any revenue,* tax, or rate is in arrear;

(i) questions as to the legality of any process issued under section 45;

(j) questions as to the validity of a sale under section 47, or as to the effect of a proclamation under section 49:

Provided also that in all cases the Chief Commissioner shall have power to call for and review the proceedings, if he thinks fit to do so, and pass such order thereon consistent with the provisions of this Act as he thinks fit.

56. Except as hereinbefore expressly provided, no Civil Court shall exercise jurisdiction as to any of the following matters (namely):— Bar to jurisdiction of Civil Courts.

(a) matters, claims, and questions mentioned in the first proviso to section 55;

(b) claims to any office connected with the revenue-administration, or to any emolument appertaining to such office, or in respect of any injury caused by exclusion, suspension, or removal therefrom;

(c) claims to have allotments made under section 20 or section 21, and objections to the making of such allotments;

* The word "cess," repealed by Act II. of 1880, s. 3, has here been omitted.

Act II. of 1876.

(d) claims to a remission or refund of any revenue,* tax, rate, fee, duty, or composition payable or paid under this Act;

(e) questions as to the right to, or amount of, any compensation for improvements awardable under section 13.

Additional powers which may be conferred on revenue-officers.

57. The Chief Commissioner may, subject to any restrictions from time to time imposed by the Governor-General in Council, invest any revenue-officer by name or as holding any office with any of the following powers, in addition to the powers directly conferred on revenue-officers by this Act, to be exercised by him in any part of British Burma or in any class of cases in any such part:—

(a) power to enter upon any land, and to survey, demarcate, or make a map of the same;

(b) power to cut and thresh the crop of any land, and weigh the grain with a view to estimating the capabilities of the soil;

(c) any power exercised by a Civil Court in the trial of suits;

(d) power to delegate the exercise of any power, or the performance of any duty, to a subordinate revenue-officer;

(e) power to review any decision or order given by a revenue-officer which is not open to appeal, or from which, if open to appeal, no appeal has been preferred;

(f) power to call for the proceedings of any subordinate revenue-officer, and review any order or decision given therein which is not open to appeal, or from which, if open to appeal, no appeal has been preferred.

Additional powers to make rules.

58. In addition to the other matters for which the Chief Commissioner is empowered to make rules by this Act, he may, from time to time, make rules—

(a) for the assessment and collection of all revenue and of every* tax, rate, fee, duty, and composition leviable, under this Act;

(b) to determine the person by whom, and the time, place, and manner at or in which, anything to be done under this Act, and for which no express provision is made in these respects, shall be done; and generally to regulate the procedure of revenue-officers in all cases;

(c) to provide for the investigation by the higher revenue-officers of charges of misconduct preferred against revenue-officers of lower grade;

(d) to determine the fees to be charged for the service of process issued under this Act, and the mode in which such fees shall be realized;

(e) to regulate the costs in all proceedings before revenue-officers, and to provide for their realization as if they were arrears of land-revenue;

(f) as to making advances of money to agriculturists for the purchase of seed and cattle, for the construction, maintenance, and repair of dwelling-houses and other buildings, and for other such purposes not coming within the scope of the Land Improvement Act, 1871;

(g) for the recovery of advances made under clause (f) of this section, from the persons to whom they were made or their legal representatives; and (h) generally to carry out the provisions of this Act.

* The word "cess," repealed by Act II. of 1880, s. 3, has here been omitted.

Act V. of 1876.

Penalty for breach of rules.

59. The Chief Commissioner may, in making any rule under this Act, attach to the breach of it, in addition to any other consequences that would ensue from such breach, a punishment, on conviction before a Magistrate, not exceeding one month's imprisonment, or two hundred rupees fine, or both.

Publication of rules.

Force of rules.

60. All rules made by the Chief Commissioner under this Act shall, when sanctioned by the Governor-General in Council, be published in the Burma Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

Consolidation and re-publication of rules.

61. The Chief Commissioner shall, at least once in every three years, cause all rules for the time being in force under this Act to be arranged in some convenient order, according to their subject-matter, consolidated, and, where necessary, amended.*

The rules so arranged, consolidated, and amended, shall, after being sanctioned by the Governor-General in Council, be published in the Burma Gazette, and upon such publication all previous rules under this Act shall cease to be in force.

ACT V. OF 1876.†

THE REFORMATORY SCHOOLS ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 29TH FEBRUARY 1876.

An Act to provide Reformatory Schools.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide Reformatory Schools for male youthful offenders ; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

I.—Preliminary.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Reformatory Schools Act, 1876 ;"

* For consolidated rules under s. 61, see Burma Gazette, April 24, 1886, Pt. I., p. 151 ; and for amendments of the same, see Burma Gazette, June 23, 1888, Pt. I., p. 258, July 7, 1888, Pt. I., p. 274, Aug. 11, 1888, Pt. I., p. 366, Sep. 22, 1888, Pt. I., p. 426, and Oct. 6, 1888, Pt. I., p. 445.

† Act V. of 1876 is based on 29 & 30 Vic., c. 117.

It has been declared, under the Scheduled Districts Act (XIV. of 1874), to be in force in the following Scheduled Districts : The Districts of Hazáribágh, Lohárdaga, and Mánbhum, and Pargana Dhálbhum, and the Kolhán in the District of Singbhum.—See Gazette of India, Oct. 22, 1881, Pt. I., p 504.

For the purposes of this Act, the North-Western Provinces and Oudh are to be deemed to be subject to the same Local Government.—See Act XIV. of 1878, s. 6.

Act V. of 1876.

Local extent. It extends to the whole of British India;

Commencement. And it shall come into force in each Province of British India on such day as the Local Government by notification in the official Gazette directs in that behalf.

Section 399 of Code of Criminal Procedure repealed. 2. On and from that day section 399 of the Code of Criminal Procedure* shall be repealed therein.

Interpretation-clause. 3. In this Act—

"Youthful offender" means any boy who, being at the time under the age of sixteen years, has been convicted of any offence punishable with imprisonment or transportation:

"Inspector-General" includes any officer appointed by the Local Government to perform all or any of the duties imposed by this Act on the Inspector of Jails.

II.—Reformatory Schools.

Power to establish and discontinue Reformatory Schools. 4. With the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, the Local Government may—

(a) establish Reformatory Schools at such places as it thinks fit;

(b) use as Reformatory Schools kept by persons willing to act in conformity with such rules consistent with this act as the Local Government may, from time to time, prescribe in this behalf;

(c) direct that any school so established or used shall cease to exist as a Reformatory School or to be used as such.

Requisites of schools. 5. Every school so established or used must provide—(a) sufficient means of separating the inmates at night;

(b) proper sanitary arrangements, water-supply, food, clothing, and bedding for the youthful offenders detained therein;

(c) the means of giving such offenders industrial training;

(d) an infirmary or proper place for the reception of such offenders when sick.

Inspection of schools. 6. Every Reformatory School shall, before being used as such, be inspected by the Inspector-General of Jails; and, if he reports that the requirements of section 5 have been complied with, and that, in his opinion, such school is fitted for the reception of such youthful offenders as may be sent there under this Act, he shall certify to that effect, and such certificate shall be published in the local official Gazette, and the school shall thereupon be deemed a Reformatory School.

Every such school shall from time to time, and at least once in every year, be visited by the said Inspector-General, who shall send to the Local Government a report on the condition of the school in such form as the Local Government may from time to time prescribe.

Power of Courts to direct youthful offenders to be sent to Reformatories. 7. Whenever any youthful offender is sentenced to transportation or imprisonment, and is, in the judgment of the Court by which he is sentenced, (a) under the age of sixteen years, and (b) a proper person to be an inmate of a

* See Act X. of 1882, s. 3.

Reformatory School, the Court may direct that, instead of undergoing his sentence, he shall be sent to a Reformatory School, and be there detained for a period which shall be not less than two years, and not more than seven years, and which shall be in conformity with any rules made under section 22, and for the time being in force. Act V. of 1876

The powers so conferred on the Court shall be exercised only by (a) the High Court, (b) the Court of Session, (c) a Magistrate of the first class, and (d) a Magistrate of Police or Presidency Magistrate in the towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay.

Power of Magistrates to direct boys under sixteen sentenced to imprisonment to be sent to Reformatories.

8. Whenever any youthful offender under the age of sixteen years has been or shall be sentenced to imprisonment, the officer in charge of the jail in which such offender is confined may bring him before the Magistrate within whose jurisdiction such jail is situate; and the Magistrate, if he thinks the offender (a) under the age of sixteen years, and (b) a proper person to be an inmate of a Reformatory School, may direct him to be sent to a Reformatory School, and to be there detained for a period which shall be not less than two and not more than seven years, and which shall be in conformity with any rules made under section 22 and for the time being in force.

"Magistrate" defined.

In this section "Magistrate" means, in the towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, a Magistrate of Police or Presidency Magistrate, and eleswhere a Magistrate of the first class.

Government to determine Reformatory to which such offenders shall be sent.

9. Every youthful offender so directed by a Court or Magistrate to be sent to a Reformatory School shall be sent to such Reformatory School as the Local Government may, from time to time, appoint for the reception of youthful offenders so dealt with by such Court or Magistrate.

Boys above eighteen not to be detained in school.

10. Nothing contained in section 7, 8, or 9, shall be deeemed to authorize the detention in a Reformatory School of any person after he is proved to be above the age of eighteen years.

Discharge or removal by order of Government.

11. The Local Government may at any time order any youthful offender—

(a) to be discharged from a Reformatory School;

(b) if so discharged before the expiration of his sentence, to undergo the residue of such sentence at such place as the Local Government thinks fit; or

(c) to be removed from one Reformatory School to another, such school situate within the territories subject to such Government, but so that the whole period of his detention in a Reformatory School shall not be increased by such removal.

III.—Management of Reformatory Schools.

Appointment of Superintendent and Committee of Visitors or Board of Management.

12. For the control and management of every Reformatory School, the Local Government shall appoint either (a) a Superintendent and a Committee of Visitors, or (b) a Board of Management.

Every Committee and every Board so appointed must consist of not less than five persons, of whom two at least shall be natives of India.

The Local Government may, from time to time, suspend or remove any Superintendent or any Member of a Committee or Board so appointed.

Act V. of 1876.

Superintendent may license youthful offenders to employers of labour.

13. Every Superintendent so appointed may permit any youthful offender sent to a Reformatory School who has attained the age of fourteen years, by license under his hand, to live under the charge of any trustworthy and respectable person named in the license, or any officer of Government or of a municipality, being an employer of labour, and willing to receive and take charge of him, on the condition that the employer shall keep such offender employed at some trade, occupation, or calling.

The license shall be in force for three months and no longer, but may, at any time before the expiration of the period for which the offender has been directed to be detained, be renewed from time to time for three months.

Cancellation of license.

14. The license shall be cancelled at the desire of the employer named in the license;

If complaint of employers just, no fresh license until expiry of twelve months.

and, if it appears to the Superintendent that any complaint made by the employer of misconduct on the part of the youthful offender is just, no other license in respect of the same offender shall be given until twelve months after the expiration of the former license.

Determination of license.

15. If, during the term of the license, the employer named therein die, or cease from business, or the period for which the youthful offender has been directed to be detained in the Reformatory School expires, the license shall thereupon cease and determine.

Cancellation of license in case of ill-treatment.

16. If it appears to the Superintendent that the employer has ill-treated the offender, or has not adequately provided for his lodging and maintenance, the Superintendent may cancel the license.

Superintendent to be deemed guardian of youthful offenders.

17. The Superintendent of any Reformatory School shall be deemed to be the guardian of every youthful offender detained in such school, within the meaning of Act No. XIX. of 1850 (concerning the binding of apprentices); and if it appear to the Superintendent that any such offender licensed under section 13 has behaved well during one or more periods of his license, the Superintendent may apprentice him under the provisions of the said Act, and on such apprenticement the right to detain such offender in the school shall cease, and the unexpired term (if any) of his sentence shall be cancelled.

Power to apprentice youthful offender.

Duties of Committee of Visitors.

18. Every Committee of Visitors appointed under section 12 for any Reformatory School shall, at least once in every month—

(a) visit the school to hear complaints, and see that the requirements of section 5 have been complied with, and that the management of the school is proper in all respects;

(b) examine the punishment-book;

(c) bring any special cases to the notice of the Inspector-General; and (d) see that no person is illegally detained in the school.

Act V. of 1876.

Powers of Board of Management.

19. If, in exercise of the power conferred by section 12, the Local Government appoints a Board of Management for any Reformatory School, such Board shall have the powers and perform the functions of the Superintendent under sections 13 to 17, both inclusive; and the license mentioned in section 13 may be under the hand of their Chairman; and they shall be deemed to be the guardians of the youthful offenders detained in such school.

Power to appoint Trustees or other Managers of a school to be a Board of Management.

20. The Local Government may declare any body of Trustees or Managers of a school, who are willing to act in conformity with the rules referred to in section 4, clause (b), to be a Board of Management under this Act, and thereupon such body or managers shall have all the powers, and perform all the functions, of such Board of Management.

Power of Board to make rules.

21. With the previous sanction of the Local Government, every Board of Management of a Reformatory School may from time to time make rules consistent with this Act to regulate—

(a) the conduct of business of the Board;

(b) the management of the school;

(c) the education and industrial training of youthful offenders;

(d) visits to, and communication with, youthful offenders;

(e) punishments for offences committed by youthful offenders;

(f) the granting of licenses for employment of youthful offenders.

In the absence of a Board of Management, the Local Government may, from time to time, make rules consistent with this Act to regulate for any Reformatory School the matters mentioned in clauses (b), (c), (d), (e), and (f) of this section, and also the mode in which the Committee of Visitors shall conduct their business.

Power of Government of India to make rules.

22. The Governor-General in Council may, from time to time, make rules consistent with this Act for regulating the periods for which Courts and Magistrates may send youthful offenders to Reformatory Schools according to their ages, the nature of their respective offences, or other considerations.

All rules made under this section shall be published in the Gazette of India.

IV.—Offences in relation to Reformatory Schools.

Penalty for abetting escape of youthful offenders.

23. Whoever abets an escape, or an attempt to escape, on the part of a youthful offender from a Reformatory School, or from the employer of such offender, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or with both.

Arrest of escaped youthful offenders.

24. A police-officer may, without orders from a Magistrate, and without a warrant, arrest any youthful offender sent to a Reformatory School under this Act, who has escaped from such school, or from his employer, and take him back to such school or to his employer.

Act VI. of 1876.

ACT VI. OF 1876.*

THE CHUTIA NAGPUR ENCUMBERED ESTATES ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 14TH MARCH 1876.

An Act to relieve certain Landholders in Chutiá Nágpur.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the relief of holders of land in Chutiá Nágpur who may be in debt, and whose immoveable property may be subject to mortgages, charges, and liens; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

I.—PRELIMINARY.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Chutiá Nágpur Encumbered Estates Act, 1876."

II.—VESTING ORDER.

Power to vest management of property in an officer appointed by Commissioner.

2. Whenever any holder of immoveable property, or (when such holder is a minor, or of unsound mind, or an idiot) his guardian, committee, or other legal curator, or the person who would be heir to such holder if he died intestate, or (when such person is a minor, or of unsound mind, or an idiot) his guardian, committee, or other legal curator, or, when any such property belonging to such holder has been attached in execution of a decree of a Civil Court, the Deputy Commissioner within whose jurisdiction such property is situate, applies in writing to the Commissioner, stating that the holder of the said property is subject to, or that his said property is charged with, debts or liabilities other than debts due, or liabilities incurred, to Government, and requesting that the provisions of this Act be applied to his case, the Commissioner may, with the previous consent of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, by order published in the Calcutta Gazette, appoint an officer (hereinafter called the manager), and vest in him the management of the whole or any portion of the immoveable property of or to which the said holder is then possessed or entitled in his own right, or which he is entitled to redeem, or which may be acquired by or devolve on him or his heir, during the continuance of such management.

"Every application under this section must state—

"(a) the particulars of the debts and liabilities as aforesaid to which the said holder is subject, or with which his immoveable property is charged; and

"(b) the particulars of the immoveable property of or to which he is then possessed or entitled in his own right, or which he is entitled to redeem.

* Act VI. of 1876 (as amended by Act V. of 1884) has been applied, with certain modifications, to the Deo Estate in the Gya District by Act IX. of 1886.

"Every such application must, except when it is made by a Deputy Commissioner, be verified by the applicant or by some other competent person in the manner required by law for the verification of plaints; and if it contains any averment which the person making the verification knows or believes to be false, or does not know or believe to be true, he shall be deemed to have given false evidence within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code."* Act VI. of 1876.

Effect of order.

3. "On the publication of an order under section 2,"† the following consequences shall ensue:—

Bar of suits.

First, all proceedings, which may then be pending in any Civil Court in British India, in respect to such debts or liabilities, shall be barred; and all processes, executions, and attachments for or in respect of such debts and liabilities shall become null and void;

Freedom from arrest.

Secondly, so long as such management continues, the holder of the said property and his heir shall not be liable to arrest for or in respect of the debts and liabilities to which the said holder was, immediately before the said publication, subject, or with which the property so vested as aforesaid or any part thereof was, at the time of the said publication, charged, other than debts due, or liabilities incurred, to Government, Moveable property not attachable for prior debts.

nor shall their moveable property be liable to attachment or sale, under process of any Civil Court in British India, for or in respect of such debts and liabilities other than as aforesaid; and Cessation of power to alienate.

Thirdly, so long as such management continues,

(a) the holder of the said immoveable property and his heir shall be incompetent to mortgage, charge, lease, or alienate their immoveable property or any part thereof, or to grant valid receipts for the rents and profits arising or accruing therefrom,

Immoveable property freed from attachment.

(b) such property shall be exempt from attachment or sale under such process as aforesaid, except for or in respect of debts due, or liabilities incurred, to Government, and Cessation of power to contract.

(c) the holder of the same property and his heir shall be incapable of entering into any contract which may involve them, or either of them, in pecuniary liability.

III.—Duties of Manager.

Manager to receive rents and profits,

4. The manager shall, during his management of the said immoveable property, receive and recover all rents and profits due in respect thereof, and shall, upon receiving such rents and profits, give receipts for the same.

and pay therefrom—the Government demand,

From the sums so received, he shall pay—

First, the Government revenue, and all debts or liabilities for the time being due or incurred to Government:

* To s. 2, the paragraphs quoted have been added by Act V. of 1884, s. 2.

† In s. 3, the words and figure quoted have been substituted for the words "On such publication," by Act V. of 1884, s. 3.

Act VI. of 1876.

Secondly, in the case of under-tenures, the rent (if any) due to the superior landlord in respect of the said property :

rent due to superior landlord,

Thirdly, such annual sum as appears to the Commissioner requisite for the maintenance of the holder of the property, his heir, and their families :

for maintenance of holder and his heir,

Fourthly, the costs of such repairs and improvements of the property as appear necessary to the manager, and are approved by the Commissioner :

costs of repairs and improvements, and the residue shall be applied in discharge of the costs of the management, and in settlement of such debts and liabilities of the holder of the property and his heir as may be established under the provisions hereinafter contained, costs of management, and debts and liabilities,

"and also in or towards the repayment, either before or after the liquidation of such debts and liabilities, of any loan received from the Government by the Manager under this Act."*

and Government loan to himself.

IV.—Settlement of Debts.

5. On the publication of the order vesting in him the management of the said property, the manager shall publish a notice in English, Urdu, and Hindí, calling upon all persons having claims against the holder of the said property to notify the same in writing to such manager within three months from the date of the publication.

Notice to claimants against holder of property.

Such notice shall be published by being posted at the kachahrís in the district or districts in which the said property lies, and at such other places as the manager thinks fit.

Notice how published.

6. Every such claimant shall, along with his claim, present full particulars thereof.

Claim to contain full particulars.

Every document on which the claimant founds his claim, or on which he relies in support thereof, shall be delivered to the manager along with the claim.

Documents to be given up.

If the document be an entry in any book, the claimant shall produce the book to the manager, together with a copy of the entry on which he relies. The manager shall mark the book for the purpose of identification, and, after examining and comparing the copy with the original, shall return the book to the claimant.

Entries in books.

If any document in the possession or under the control of the claimant is not delivered or produced by him to the manager along with the claim, the manager may refuse to receive such document in evidence on the claimant's behalf at the investigation of the case.

Exclusion of documents not produced.

7. Every debt or liability other than debts due, or liabilities incurred, to Government, or (in the case of under-tenures) the rent due to the superior landlord, to which the holder of the property is subject, or with which the property is charged, and which Debt not duly notified to be barred.

* In s. 4, the clause quoted has been added by Act V. of 1884, s. 4.

is not duly notified to the manager within the time and in manner hereinbefore mentioned, shall be barred: Act VI. of 1876.

Admission of claim within further period.

Provided that, when proof is made to the manager that the claimant was unable to comply with the provisions of sections 5 and 6, the manager may admit his claim within the further period of "six months"* from the expiration of the said period of three months.

Determination of debts.

8. The manager shall, in accordance with the rules to be made under this Act, determine the amount of all principal debts and liabilities justly due to the several creditors of the holder of the property, and to persons holding mortgages, charges, or liens thereon, and the interest (if any) due at the date of such determination in respect of such debts and liabilities.

Power to inquire into consideration for leases.

9. If such property or any part thereof be in the possession of any person claiming to hold it under a lease dated within the three years immediately preceding the publication of the order mentioned in section 2, the manager, with the sanction of the Deputy Commissioner and Commissioner (or of the Commissioner only if the Deputy Commissioner be himself the manager), may inquire into the sufficiency of the consideration for which the lease was given; and, if such consideration appear to him insufficient, may, by order, either set aside the lease, or cause the person so in possession to pay such consideration for the said lease as the manager thinks fit, and in default of such payment the lease shall be cancelled.

Power to set aside leases.

Appeal to Deputy Commissioner.

10. An appeal against any refusal, admission, determination, or order under section 6, 7, 8, or 9, shall lie, if preferred within six weeks from the date thereof, to the Deputy Commissioner within whose jurisdiction the property is situate, and the decision of the manager, if no such appeal has been so preferred, shall be final:

Provided that, if the Deputy Commissioner be himself the manager, the appeal shall lie to the Commissioner.

Appeal to Commissioner.

An appeal shall lie from any decision of the Deputy Commissioner, if preferred within six weeks of the date of his decision, to the Commissioner, and the decision of such Commissioner, or of the Deputy Commissioner if no such appeal has been so preferred, shall be final.

Scheme for settlement of debts.

11. When the amount due in respect of the debts and liabilities mentioned in section 8 has been finally determined, the manager shall prepare and submit to the Commissioner a schedule of such debts and liabilities, and a scheme for the settlement thereof; and such scheme, when approved by the Commissioner, shall be carried into effect.

Power to return scheme for revision.

Until such approval is given, the Commissioner may, as often as he thinks fit, send back such scheme to the manager for revision, and direct him to make such further inquiry as may be requisite for the proper preparation of the scheme.

* In s. 7, the words quoted have been substituted for the words, "nine months," by Act V. of 1884, s. 5.

Act VI. of 1876.

Restoration of owner to his property.

12. "When all the debts and liabilities mentioned in the schedule referred to in section 11, and the amount of any loan received from Government under section 18, together with the interest (if any) due thereon, have been paid and discharged,"*

"or if the Commissioner, at any time before a scheme has been approved by him under section 11, thinks that the provisions of this Act should not continue to apply to the case of the holder of the said property or his heir,"†

"or if at any time an arrangement is made for the satisfaction of the debts and liabilities which is accepted by the creditors, and approved by the Commissioner,"‡ such holder or his heir shall be restored to the possession and enjoyment of the property, or of such part thereof as has not been sold by the manager under the power contained in section 18, but subject to the leases and mortgages (if any) granted and made by the manager under the powers hereinafter contained.

Restoration to be notified.

Where the holder of the property or his heir is so restored under the circumstances mentioned in the second clause of this section, such restoration shall be notified in the Calcutta Gazette, and thereupon the proceedings, processes, executions, and attachments mentioned in section 3 (so far as they relate to debts and liabilities which the manager has not paid off or compromised), and the debts and liabilities barred by section 7, shall be revived; and any mortgagee or conditional vendee dispossessed under section 16 shall be reinstated, unless his claim under the mortgage or conditional sale has been satisfied;

Revival of barred proceedings and debts.

Reinstatement of mortgagees.

Period of limitation as to revived proceedings and debts.

and in calculating the periods of limitation applicable to such revived proceedings, and to suits to recover and enforce such revived debts and liabilities, the time intervening between such restoration and the publication of the order mentioned in section 2 shall be excluded.

V.—Powers of Manager.

Power to call for further particulars.

13. The manager may, from time to time, call for further and more detailed particulars of any claim preferred before him under this Act, and may at his discretion refuse to proceed with the investigation of the claim until such particulars are supplied.

Power to summon witnesses, and compel production of documents.

14. For the purposes of this Act, the manager may summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses, and compel them to give evidence, and compel the production of documents by the same means, and, as far as possible, in the same manner, as is provided in the case of a Civil Court by the Code of Civil Procedure. * Act VI. of 1876

15. Every investigation conducted by the manager with reference to any claim preferred before him under this Act, or to any matter connected with any such claim, shall be taken to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code.

Investigation to be deemed a judicial proceeding.

And every statement made by any person examined by or before the manager with reference to such investigation, whether upon oath or otherwise, shall be taken to be evidence within the meaning of the same Code.

Statements of persons examined to be evidence.

16. The manager shall have, for the purpose of realizing and recovering the rents and profits of the said immoveable property, the same powers as the holder of the property would have had for such purpose if this Act had not been passed.

Manager to have powers of holder of estate.

And if such property, or any part thereof, be in the possession of any mortgagee or conditional vendee, the manager may apply to the Court of the Deputy Commissioner within whose jurisdiction the property is situate, and such Court shall cause the same to be delivered to the manager as if a decree therefor had been made in his favour, but without prejudice to the mortgagee or vendee preferring his claim under the provisions hereinbefore contained.

Power to remove mortgagee or conditional vendee in possession.

17. Subject to the rules made under section 19, the manager shall have power to demise all or any part of the property under his management for any term of years "or in perpetuity" † to take effect in possession, in consideration of any fine or fines, or without fine, and reserving such rents and under such conditions as may be agreed upon.

Power to lease.

18. The manager, with the previous assent of the Commissioner, shall have power to raise any money which may be required for the settlement of the debts and liabilities (other than as aforesaid) to which the holder of the property is subject, or with which such property or any part thereof is charged,

Power to raise money by mortgage or sale.

by demising by way of mortgage the whole or any part of such property for a term not exceeding twenty years from the said publication, or by selling, ‡ by public auction or by private contract, and upon such terms as the manager thinks fit, such portion of the same property as may appear expedient, "or by borrowing money from the Government at such rate of interest as appears reasonable to the Local Government." §

And no mortgagee advancing money upon any mortgage made under this section shall be bound to see that such money is wanted, or that no more than is wanted is raised.

And the receipt of the manager for any moneys paid to him as such shall discharge the person paying the same therefrom and from being concerned to see to the application thereof.

Manager's receipts.

* See Act XIV. of 1882, s. 3.

† In s. 17, the words quoted have been substituted for the words, "not exceeding twenty years absolute," by Act V. of 1884, s. 7.

‡ In s. 18, certain words repealed by Act V. of 1884, s. 8, have here been omitted.

§ In s. 18, the words quoted have been added by Act V. of 1884, s. 8 (b).

Act VI. of 1876.

The powers conferred by this section shall not be exercised until a scheme has been approved by the Commissioner under s. 11. *

VI.—MISCELLANEOUS.

Power to make rules.

19. The Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal may, from time to time, make rules consistent with this Act to regulate the following matters:—

(a) the security to be required from subordinate officers under this Act,

(a a) the classes of cases which may be submitted by the Commissioner for the consent of the Lieutenant-Governor under section 2, †

(b) the notices to be given under this Act and the publication of such notices,

(c) the procedure to be followed in determining under section 8 the debts and liabilities due to creditors and other persons, and in performing the other duties imposed on any officer by this Act,

(d) the allowance of interest on each of the principal debts and liabilities so determined, from the date on which it was incurred down to the date of the determination, and on the aggregate amount of such debts and liabilities from the date of the determination down to the date of payment, and generally for the guidance of officers in all matters connected with the enforcement of this Act.

(e) the order of paying debts and liabilities so determined;

Such rules, when approved by the Governor-General in Council, and published in the Calcutta Gazette, shall have the force of law.‡

Power to appoint new managers.

20. Whenever the Commissioner thinks fit, he may appoint any officer to be a manager in the stead of any manager appointed under this Act; and thereupon the property then vested under this Act in the former manager shall become vested in the new manager.

Every such new manager shall have the same powers as if he had been originally appointed.

Managers to be public servants.

21. Every manager appointed under this Act shall be deemed a public servant within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code.

Bar of suits.

22. No suit or other proceeding shall be maintained against any person in respect of anything done by him bonâ fide pursuant to this Act.

Saving of jurisdiction of Courts in Chutiá Nágpur in respect of certain suits.

23. Nothing in this Act precludes the Courts in Chutiá Nágpur having jurisdiction in suits relating to the succession to, or claims of maintenance from, any immoveable property brought under the operation of this Act, from entertaining and disposing of such suits; but to all such suits the manager of such property shall be made a party.

* Act VII. of 1876 has been declared, under s. 3 of the Scheduled Districts Act (XIV. of 1874), to be in force in the Districts of Hazáribágh, Lohárdaga, and Mánbhum, Pargana Dhálbhum, and the Kolhán.—See Notification No. 1394, dated Oct. 21, 1881, published in the Calcutta Gazette, Nov. 2, 1881, Pt. IA., p. 189, and in the Gazette of India, Oct. 22, 1881, Pt. I., p. 504.

Act IX. of 1876.

ACT IX. OF 1876.*

THE NATIVE COINAGE ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 28TH MARCH 1876.

An Act to enable the Government of India to declare certain coins of Native States to be a legal tender in British India.

WHEREAS it is expedient to enable the Governor-General in Council to declare that a tender of payment of money, if made in certain coins made for or issued by Native States, shall be a legal tender in British India; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Native Coinage Act, 1876:"

Local extent.

It extends to the whole of British India;

Commencement.

And it shall come into force at once.

Interpretation-clause.

2. In this Act "Native State" means any State in India which is under the protection or political control of Her Majesty, or of which the Government shall have acknowledged the supremacy of the British Crown.

Power to declare that the coins of a Native State shall be legal tender.

3. Subject to the provisions of section 4, the Governor-General in Council may, from time to time, by notification in the Gazette of India, declare that a tender of payment of money, if made in the coins, or the coins of any specified metal, made under this Act for any Native State, shall be a legal tender in British India; and the provisions of the Indian Coinage Act, 1870, shall apply to the coins to which such notification refers, so far as such provisions are applicable thereto, and save as expressly provided by such notification.

When such power may be exercised.

4. The power conferred by the first clause of section 3 shall be exercisable only when the coins referred to in such notification comply with the following conditions (that is to say)— in the case of coins of gold, silver, or bronze,

(a) their fineness is identical with that for the time being prescribed by law for coins of the Government of India of the same metal;

in the case of coins whether of gold, silver, bronze, or copper,

(b) they are identical in weight with some coins of the Government of India of the same metal, which may, for the time being, be legally coined at any Mint of the Government of India, or bear such relation thereto as is approved by the Governor-General in Council;

---

* Act IX. of 1876 has been declared, under the Scheduled Districts Act (XIV. of 1874), to be in force in the following Scheduled Districts: The Districts of Hazáribágh, Lohárdaga, and Mánbhum, and Pargana Dhálbhum, and the Kolhán in the District of Singbhum.—See Gazette of India, Oct. 22, 1881, Pt. I, p. 504.

(c) the devices upon their obverse and reverse differ from the devices on coins now made or issued by any such Native State, and have been approved by the Governor-General in Council;

(d) upon each of such coins its value in money of the Government of India is inscribed in the English language;

(e) the Native State for which they are coined has undertaken to abstain, during a term of not less than thirty years from the date of the notification, from coining in its own Mint gold, silver, bronze, or copper, as the case may be, and has also undertaken that no coins resembling coins for the time being a legal tender in British India shall, after the expiration of the said term, be struck under its authority or with its permission at any place within or without its jurisdiction;

(f) such State has formally declared that a tender of payment of money, if made in coins of the Government of India of the same metal, shall in the territories subject to such State, be a legal tender in the cases in which payment made in such coins would, under the law for the time being in force, be a legal tender in British India;

(g) such State has also agreed that the law and rules for the time being in force respecting the cutting and breaking of coin of the Government of India reduced in weight by reasonable wearing or otherwise, or counterfeit, or called in by proclamation, shall apply to the coins made for such State under this Act, and that it will defray the cost of cutting and breaking them; and

(h) such State has also agreed not to issue the same coins below their nominal value, and not to allow any discount or other advantage to any person in order to bring them into circulation.

Native States authorized to send metal to British India Mint for coinage.

5. It shall be lawful for any such State to send to any Mint in British India metal to be made into coin under this Act; and, subject to the Mint-rules for the time being in force, and to the provisions hereinafter contained, the Mint-Master shall receive such metal, and convert it into coin, provided that it be fit for coinage.

Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to entitle any such State to have coins made under this Act at any Mint of the Government of India of any metal which is not for the time being legally coined at such Mint.

Power to impose a charge for coinage.

6. The Governor-General in Council may impose on any metal sent to a Mint for coinage under this Act the duty (if any) leviable on the same metal under the Indian Coinage Act, 1870, and also a charge sufficient to defray the expenses of coinage over and above the expenses of assay and refining; and the Mint-Master shall coin such metal at the charge so imposed.

Power to limit number of coins to be made under this Act for any Native State.

7. The Governor-General in Council may, from time to time, with reference to the reasonable requirements of the population of any Native State, fix the maximum number of any coins of any particular metal that shall be coined under this Act.

Act X. of 1876.

ACT X. OF 1876.

THE BOMBAY REVENUE JURISDICTION ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 28TH MARCH 1876.

An Act to limit the jurisdiction of the Civil Courts throughout the Bombay Presidency in matters relating to the Land-revenue, and for other purposes.

Preamble.

WHEREAS in certain parts of the Presidency of Bombay, the jurisdiction of the Civil Courts in matters connected with the land-revenue is more extensive than it is in the rest of the said Presidency; and whereas it is expedient that the jurisdiction of all the Civil Courts in the said Presidency should be limited in manner hereinafter appearing;

and whereas it is also expedient to amend the Bombay Civil Courts Act, section 32, and to revive certain provisions of the thirteenth section of Regulation XVII. of 1827* of the Bombay Code, which was repealed by the Land Improvement Act, 1871, ~~and to provide for the recovery by the Local Government of advances made for purposes other than those specified in section 3 of the Land Improvement Act, 1871~~; Repealed by 4 of 1874

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Bombay Revenue Jurisdiction Act, 1876:"

Commencement.

So much of section 4 as relates to claims to set aside, on the ground of irregularity, mistake, or any other ground except fraud, sales for arrears of land-revenue shall come into force on such day as the Governor-General in Council directs in that behalf by notification in the Gazette of India. The rest of this Act shall come into force on the passing thereof:

Extent.

and it shall extend to all the territories for the time being under the government of the Governor of Bombay in Council, but not so as to affect—

(a) any suit regarding the assessment of revenue on land situate in the collectorate of Bombay, or the collection of such revenue;

(b) any of the provisions of Bombay Acts V. of 1862 and VI. of 1862, or of "Act XXI. of 1881," † or of Act XXIII. of 1871;

Interpretation-clause.

3. In this Act, unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context,—

"land" includes the sites of villages, towns, and cities: it also includes trees, growing crops, and grass, fruit upon, and juice in, trees, rights-of-way, ferries, fisheries, and all other benefits to arise out of land, and things attached to the earth or permanently fastened to things attached to the earth:

"land-revenue" means all sums and payments, in money or in kind, received or claimable by or on behalf of Government from any person on account of any land held by or vested in him, and any cess or rate authorized by Government under the provisions of any law for the time being in force : Act X. of 1876.

" revenue-officer " means any officer employed in or about the business of the land-revenue, or of the surveys, assessment, accounts, or records connected therewith.

Bar of certain suits.

4. Subject to the exceptions hereinafter appearing, no Civil Court shall exercise jurisdiction as to any of the following matters :

(a) claims against Government relating to any property appertaining to the office of any hereditary officer appointed or recognized under Bombay Act No. III. of 1874, or any other law for the time being in force, or of any other village-officer or servant, or claims to perform the duties of any such officer or servant, or in respect of any injury caused by exclusion from such office or service, or suits to set aside or avoid any order under the same Act or any other law relating to the same subject for the time being in force passed by Government or any officer duly authorized in that behalf, or claims against Government relating to lands held under treaty, or to lands granted or held as saranjám, or on other political tenure, or to lands declared by Government or any officer duly authorized in that behalf to be held for service ;

(b) objections—to the amount or incidence of any assessment of land-revenue authorized by Government, or to the mode of assessment, or to the principle on which such assessment is fixed, or to the validity or effect of the notification of survey or settlement, or of any notification determining the period of settlement ;

(c) claims connected with or arising out of any proceedings for the realization of land-revenue or the rendering of assistance by Government or any officer duly authorized in that behalf to superior holders or occupants for the recovery of their dues from inferior holders or tenants ;

claims to set aside, on account of irregularity, mistake, or any other ground except fraud, sales for arrears of land-revenue ;

(d) claims against Government—

(1) to be entered in the revenue-survey or settlement-records or village-papers as liable for the land-revenue, or as superior holder, inferior holder, occupant, or tenant, or

(2) to have any entry made in any record of a revenue-survey or settlement, or

(3) to have any such entry either omitted or amended ;

(e) the distribution of land or allotment of land-revenue on partition of any estate under Bombay Act IV. of 1868,* or any other law for the time being in force ;

(f) claims against Government—to hold land wholly or partially free from payment of land-revenue, or

Act X. of 1876.

to receive payments charged on or payable out of the land-revenue, or to set aside any cess or rate authorized by Government under the provisions of any law for the time being in force, or respecting the occupation of waste or vacant land belonging to Government;

(g) claims regarding boundaries fixed under Bombay Act No. I. of 1865,* or any other law for the time being in force, or to set aside any order passed by a competent officer under any such law with regard to boundary-marks:

Proviso.

Provided that, if any person claim to hold land wholly or partially exempt from payment of land-revenue under

(h) any enactment for the time being in force expressly creating an exemption not before existing in favour of an individual or of any class of persons, or expressly confirming such an exemption on the ground of its being shown in a public record, or of its having existed for a specified term of years, or

(i) an instrument or sanad given by or by order of the Governor of Bombay in Council under Bombay Act No. II. of 1863, section 1, clause first, or Bombay Act No. VII. of 1863, section 2, clause first, or

(j) any other written grant by the British Government expressly creating or confirming such exemption, or

(k) a judgment by a Court of law, or an adjudication duly passed by a competent officer under Bombay Regulation XVII. of 1827, † Chapter X., or under Act No. XI. of 1852, ‡ which declares the particular property in dispute to be exempt; such claim shall be cognizable in the Civil Courts.

Illustrations to (h).

(1.) It is enacted that, in the event of the proprietary right in lands, the property of Government, being transferred to individuals, they shall be permitted to hold the lands for ever at the assessment at which they are transferred. The proprietary right in certain lands is transferred to A at an assessment of Rs. 100. An exemption from higher assessment not before existing is expressly created in favour of A by enactment, and he may seek relief in the Civil Court against over-assessment.

(2.) It is enacted that, when a specific limit to assessment has been established and preserved, the assessment shall not exceed such specific limit. A is the owner of land worth Rs. 100 for assessment. He claims to be assessed at Rs. 50 only on the strength of a course of dealing with him and his predecessors under which his land has not been more highly assessed. There is no exemption not before existing created by enactment, and A's claim is not cognizable in a Civil Court.

(3.) It is enacted that land-revenue shall not be leviable from any land held and entered in the land-registers as exempt. A claims to hold certain land as exempt on the ground that it has been so held by him, and is so entered in the land-register. This is an exemption expressly confirmed by enactment on the ground of its being shown in a public record, and A's claim is cognizable in a Civil Court.

(4.) It is enacted that the Collector shall confirm existing exemptions of all lands shown in certain maps to be exempt. A claims exemption, alleging that his land is shown in the maps to be exempt. A's claim is cognizable in a Civil Court.

(5.) It is enacted that assessment shall be fixed with reference to certain considerations, and not with reference to others. This is not an enactment creating an exemption in favour of any individual or class, and no objection to an assessment under such an enactment is cognizable in a Civil Court.

Saving of certain suits.

5. Nothing in section 4 shall be held to prevent the Civil Courts from entertaining the following suits :— Act X. of 1876.

(a) suits against Government to contest the amount claimed, or paid under protest, or recovered, as land-revenue, on the ground that such amount is in excess of the amount authorized in that behalf by Government, or that such amount had, previous to such claim, payment, or recovery, been satisfied, in whole or in part, or that the plaintiff, or the person whom he represents, is not the person liable for such amount;

(b) suits between private parties for the purpose of establishing any private right, although it may be affected by any entry in any record of a revenue-survey or settlement in any village-papers;

(c) suits between superior holders or occupants and inferior holders or tenants regarding the dues claimed or recovered from the latter;

and nothing in section 4, clause (g), shall be held to prevent the Civil Courts from entertaining suits, other than suits against Government, for possession of any land being a whole survey-number or a recognized share of a survey-number;

and nothing in section 4 shall be held to prevent the Civil Courts in the districts mentioned in the second schedule hereto annexed from exercising such jurisdiction as, according to the terms of any law in force on the twenty-eighth day of March, 1876, they could have exercised over claims against Government—

(a) relating to any property appertaining to the office of any hereditary officer appointed or recognized under Bombay Act No. III. of 1874, or any other law for the time being in force, or of any other village-officer or servant;

(b) to hold land wholly or partially free from payment of land-revenue:

(c) to receive payments charged on, or payable out of, the land-revenue.*

Bar of certain suits against Revenue-officers.

6. Revenue-officers shall not be liable to be sued for damages in any Civil Court for any act bonâ fide done or ordered to be done by them as such in pursuance of the provisions of any law for the time being in force.

If any Revenue-officer absconds or does not attend when called on by his official superior, and if the Collector of the district proceeds against him or his sureties for public money, papers, or property according to the provisions of any law for the time being in force, such Collector shall not be liable to pay damages or costs in any suit brought against him by such officer or sureties, although it appears that a part only, or no part whatever, of the sum demanded, was due from the officer so absconding or failing to attend, or that he was not in possession of the papers or property demanded of him.

Punishment or prosecution of Revenue-officers no bar to civil remedies.

7. Nothing in any law for the time being in force which authorizes the punishment departmentally of any Revenue-officer for any offence or breach of duty, or which sanctions his prosecution criminally for such offence or breach, shall be held to bar any remedy which may be had in the Civil Court against such officer.

Suits not to be entertained unless plaintiff has exhausted right of appeal.

11. No Civil Court shall entertain any suit against Government on account of any act or omission of any Revenue-officer, unless the plaintiff first proves that, previously to bringing his suit, he has presented all such appeals allowed by the law for the time being in force, as, within the period of limitation allowed for bringing such suit, it was possible to present.

Power of Government to refer questions for decision of High Court.

12. If, in the trial or investigation of any suit, claim, or objection which, but for the passing of this Act, might have been tried or investigated by a Civil Court, there arises any question on which the Governor-General in Council, or the Local Government desires to have the decision of the High Court, the Governor-General in Council or the Local Government, as the case may be, may cause a statement of the question to be prepared, and may refer such question for the decision of the High Court of Judicature at Bombay.

The said High Court shall fix an early day for the hearing of the question referred, and cause notice of such day to be placed in the Court-house.

The parties to the case may appear and be heard in the High Court in person or by their advocates or pleaders.

The High Court, when it has heard and considered the case, shall send a copy of its decision, with the reasons therefor, under the seal of the Court, to the Government by which the reference was made, and, subject to any appeal which may be presented to Her Majesty in Council, the case shall be disposed of conformably to such decision.

If the High Court considers that any such statement is imperfectly framed, the High Court may return it for amendment.

The costs (if any) consequent on any such reference shall be dealt with as the High Court in each case directs.

Power of Civil Judge to refer questions of jurisdiction to High Court.

13. If, in any suit instituted, or in any appeal presented, in a Civil Court, the Judge doubts whether he is precluded by this Act from taking cognizance of the suit or appeal, he may refer the matter to the High Court.

The High Court may order the Judge making the reference either to proceed with the case or to return the plaint.

The order of the High Court on any such reference shall be subject to appeal to Her Majesty in Council, and, save as aforesaid, shall be final.

Composition of Bench.

14. Every reference under section 12 or section 13 shall be heard by a Bench consisting of such number of Judges, not less than three, as the Chief Justice from time to time directs.

Amendment of section 32, Act XIV. of 1869

15. For section 32 of the Bombay Civil Courts Act, No. XIV. of 1869, the following shall be substituted (namely):

[See Vol. I., p 793.]

Privileges of Government in suits defended by it.

16. Whenever any suit is brought in any District Court against Government, or against any revenue-officer, and the Local Government undertakes the defence thereof, it shall be lawful for the Local Government, by certificate signed by a Secretary thereto, to require—

(a) that such suit shall be tried by the District Judge himself, and shall not be transferred for trial to an Assistant Judge; and

(b) that the trial of any such suit shall have precedence over the trial of any other suit or other civil proceeding then pending in such Court; Act X. of 1876.

and the Court shall give effect to every such requirement.

The privilege conferred on the Local Government by the clause (b) of this section shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to any appeal or special appeal against any decree in any such suit as is described in this section.

Revival of Bombay Regulation XVII. of 1827, section 13.

17.* Notwithstanding any repeal effected by the Land Improvement Act, 1871, arrears of land-revenue of former years shall be recoverable by the Collector in the same way as current land-revenue, except that the preference given to demands for current land-revenue, as specified in section 5 of Bombay Regulation XVII. of 1827,† shall not extend to demands on account of the arrears for former years.

Operation of same Regulation in sites of villages and towns.

So much of the said Regulation as is for the time being in force in any part of the territories to which this Act extends shall be deemed to be in force, and to have always been in force, in the sites of all villages, towns, and cities in such part.

Recovery of certain advances made by Local Government.

All advances made by the Local Government for purposes other than those specified in the Land Improvement Act, 1871, section 3, may be recovered from the persons to whom such advances are made as if they were arrears of land-revenue.

Act XI. of 1876.

ACT XI. OF 1876.*

THE PRESIDENCY BANKS ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 11TH APRIL 1876.

An Act for constituting and regulating the Banks of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Bank of Bengal is now constituted and regulated by Act No. IV. of 1862, as amended by Acts No. VI. of 1862 and No. XIX. of 1870, and its capital consists of twenty-two millions of rupees, in shares of one thousand rupees each;

And whereas the Bank of Madras is now constituted and regulated by Madras Act No. VI. of 1866, as amended by Madras Act No. I. of 1871, and its capital consists of five millions six hundred and twenty-five thousand rupees, in shares of one thousand rupees each;

And whereas a Bank named the Bank of Bombay was constituted and regulated by Bombay Act No. X. of 1863, as amended by Bombay Acts No. XV. of 1866 and No. I. of 1867; but such Bank has been wound up, and the said Bombay Acts are now obsolete, and should be expressly repealed;

And whereas, on the tenth day of December 1867, a joint-stock Banking Company was registered and incorporated at Bombay, by virtue of the Indian Companies Act, 1866,† under the name of "The New Bank of Bombay, Limited," with a Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association then also registered, and prescribing the constitution and regulations for the management of such Bank;

And whereas the Government of India now holds two thousand two hundred shares in the said Bank of Bengal, and five hundred and sixty-two and a half shares in the said Bank of Madras; and, under the provisions of the said Act No. IV. of 1862 and Madras Act No. VI. of 1866, is bound to appoint, and has power to remove, certain of the directors of the said Banks of Bengal and Madras respectively, and has also power to give a proxy to any person whom the Governor-General in Council may appoint, to attend and vote at any meeting of the proprietors of each of the same Banks;

And whereas the Government of India has determined to sell its said shares and to surrender its said powers; and it is expedient to relieve the said Government from the said duty of appointing directors, and to repeal the said enactments and to consolidate such of them as relate to the said Banks of Bengal and Madras respectively with the changes rendered necessary or desirable by such sale, surrender, and relief;

And whereas it is expedient to reduce the said capital of the Bank of Bengal by two millions of rupees, and to reduce the said capital of the Bank of Madras by six hundred and twenty-five thousand rupees, and to divide the capital so reduced of each of the same Banks into shares of five hundred rupees each; Act XI. of 1876.

* Act XI. of 1876 has been declared, under the Scheduled Districts Act (XIV. of 1874), to be in force in the following Scheduled Districts: The Districts of Hazáribágh, Lohárdaga, and Mánbhum, and Pargana Dhálbhum, and the Kolhán in the District of Singbhum.—See Gazette of India, Oct. 22, 1881, Pt. I., p. 504.

† Repealed by Act VI. of 1882.

And whereas it is expedient that the said New Bank of Bombay, Limited, should be reconstituted and regulated, in manner in this Act provided, under the name of the Bank of Bombay;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I.—PRELIMINARY.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Presidency Banks Act, 1876;"

Commencement.

And it shall come into force on the first day of May 1876.

Repeal of enactments.

2. On and from that day the Statute specified in the first part of the schedule hereto annexed shall be repealed to the extent mentioned in the third column thereof, and the Acts specified in the second, third, and fourth parts of the same schedule shall be wholly repealed. But all bye-laws and regulations made under any such Act, and then in force, shall, so far as they are consistent with this Act, be deemed to have been made hereunder.

References in Act X. of 1866.

The references made in the Indian Companies Act, 1866, to the Bank of Bengal, the Bank of Madras, and the Bank of Bombay, shall be deemed to be made respectively to the Bank of Bengal, the Bank of Madras, and the Bank of Bombay as constituted by this Act.

Interpretation-clause.

3. In this Act, unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context—

"The Bank" means the Bank of Bengal, the Bank of Madras, or the Bank of Bombay (as the case may be), as constituted and regulated by this Act:

"Capital" means the capital for the time being of the Bank:

"Shares" means the shares for the time being of the capital, and includes also half shares:

"Presidency of Bombay" means the territories now under the government of the Governor of Bombay in Council; and "Presidency of Fort William" means all the territories in British India other than the Presidency of Fort St. George and the Presidency of Bombay.

CHAPTER II.—CONSTITUTION.

Proprietors and shareholders of present Banks to form bodies corporate:

4. The several persons who, when this Act comes into force, are respectively the proprietors and shareholders of the said Bank of Bengal, Bank of Madras, and New Bank of Bombay, Limited (hereinafter called the present Banks), or who shall, at any time thereafter, by virtue of this or any other Act regulating the Bank, become proprietors or shareholders, shall continue and constitute and be bodies corporate with perpetual succession under the name—in the case of the proprietors and shareholders of the said Bank of Bengal—of "The Bank of Bengal," in the case of the proprietors and shareholders of the said Bank of Madras—of "The Bank of Madras," and in the case of the shareholders and proprietors of the said New Bank of Bombay, Limited—of "The Bank of Bombay," and shall respectively possess and enjoy all the rights, powers, and immunities incident by law to a corporation aggregate; subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of this or any other Act for the time being in force regulating the Bank; and, in particular, the proprietors of the Bank shall not be liable for its debts and engagements, and the shareholders of the Bank shall be so liable only to the extent of their shares not fully paid up.

with limited liability.

Proprietors and shareholders of present Banks to be proprietors and shareholders of new Banks.

The several persons who are then proprietors and shareholders of each of the present Banks of Bengal and Madras, or the executors or administrators of such proprietors and shareholders respectively, shall be entitled to be registered as proprietors and holders of a like quantity of stock and a proportionate number of shares, as is or are then registered in their names respectively, or in the names of the persons whom they represent respectively, in the books of each of the said present Banks of Bengal and Madras, two shares in the Bank of Bengal as constituted by this Act being deemed equivalent to one share in the present Bank of Bengal, and two shares in the Bank of Madras as constituted by this Act being deemed equivalent to one share in the present Bank of Madras, Act XI of 1876.

and the several persons who are then shareholders of the said New Bank of Bombay, Limited, or the executors or administrators of such shareholders respectively, shall be registered as holders of a like number of shares of the Bank of Bombay as constituted by this Act as are then registered in their names respectively, or in the names of the persons whom they represent respectively in the books of the said New Bank of Bombay, Limited; and all such shares upon which the sum of five hundred rupees has then been paid, shall be deemed to have been fully paid up.

Property of present Banks to vest respectively in new Banks.

5. All the property, moveable and immoveable, and all the securities, claims, and demands, and the benefits of all agreements, of or to which the present Banks are or shall be respectively possessed or entitled, or which shall, or but for this Act might, be, on the said first day of May 1876, or might at any time thereafter have been, due to, or claimed by, the said Banks respectively, shall, by virtue of this Act, become vested in and devolve upon, and may be claimed, made, and recovered by—in the case of the said Bank of Bengal,—the Bank of Bengal as constituted by this Act, in the case of the said Bank of Madras,—the Bank of Madras as constituted by this Act, and in the case of the said New Bank of Bombay, Limited,—the Bank of Bombay as constituted by this Act;

Claims against present Banks.

and the Bank shall, from and after the said first day of May 1876, be liable and subject to all debts, claims, and demands which shall then be due or claimable from, or which, but for this Act, might be then, or might, at any time thereafter, have been, due or claimable from or made against the said Bank of Bengal, Bank of Madras, or New Bank of Bombay, Limited, as the case may be,

and no suit or legal proceeding then pending by or against the said Bank of Bengal, Bank of Madras, or New Bank of Bombay, Limited, shall cease, or abate, or become defective, in consequence of this Act, but may be continued and prosecuted by or against the Bank.

New Bank of Bombay, Limited, wound-up.

6. The transfer of the assets and liabilities of the said New Bank of Bombay, Limited, to the Bank of Bombay by virtue of this Act, shall operate as a winding-up and liquidation of the said New Bank of Bombay, Limited.

No shareholder or creditor of the said New Bank of Bombay, Limited, shall take any proceedings for winding up the same under the Indian Companies Act, 1866, or any Act for the time being in force relating to the winding-up of Companies; and no person shall make, assert, or take any claims, demands, or proceedings against the same Bank, or the directors or officers thereof, except so far as may be necessary for enforcing the provisions of this or any other Act for the time being in force regulating the Bank of Bombay.

Banks to sue and be sued in corporate name, and use corporate seals;

7. The Bank shall sue and be sued by its said corporate name; and shall use such corporate seal as the directors from time to time appoint;

Act XI. of 1876.

and may as such body corporate acquire and hold, either absolutely or conditionally, for a term or in perpetuity, any property whatsoever, moveable or immoveable, and transfer, assign, and convey the same.

and may hold and transfer property.

8. The seal of the Bank shall not be affixed to any instrument except in the presence of at least two directors and of the Secretary and Treasurer, who shall sign their names to the instrument in token of their presence, and such signing shall be independent of the signing of any person who may sign the instrument as a witness.

Seal how used.

Unless so signed as aforesaid, such instrument shall be of no validity.

9. Contracts may be made on behalf of the Bank as follows :—

Contracts how made.

(a) any contract, which, if made between private persons, would be by law required to be in writing, and, if made according to English law, to be under seal, may be made on behalf of the Bank in writing under its corporate seal, and such contract may be in the same manner varied or discharged;

(b) any contract, which, if made between private persons, would be by law required to be in writing signed by the parties to be charged therewith, may be made on behalf of the Bank by writing signed by any person acting under the express or implied authority of the Bank, and such contract may in the same manner be varied and discharged;

(c) any contract, which, if made between private persons, would by law be valid, although made by parol only and not reduced into writing, may be made by parol on behalf of the Bank by any person acting under the express or implied authority of the Bank, and such contract may in the same manner be varied and discharged; and all contracts made according to the provisions herein contained shall be effectual in law, and shall be binding upon the Bank and other parties thereto and their legal representatives.

CHAPTER III.—CAPITAL.

10. The capital of the Bank of Bengal shall consist of twenty millions of rupees in shares of five hundred rupees each, divisible into half shares, with power to increase the same, in manner hereinafter provided, to thirty millions of rupees.

Capital of Bank of Bengal.

The capital of the Bank of Madras shall consist of five millions of rupees, in shares of five hundred rupees each, divisible into half shares, with power to increase the same, in manner hereinafter provided, to twelve millions of rupees.

Capital of Bank of Madras.

The capital of the Bank of Bombay shall consist of ten millions of rupees in shares of five hundred rupees each, divisible into half shares, with power to increase the same, in manner hereinafter provided, to twenty millions of rupees.

Capital of Bank of Bombay.

11. The capital of the said New Bank of Bombay, Limited, already created, shall, on the first day of May 1876, constitute the capital of the Bank of Bombay, subject to be increased as aforesaid.

Capital of New Bank of Bombay, Limited, to be capital of Bank of Bombay.

12. Any shareholder may from time to time surrender his wholly paid-up shares, or any of them, to the directors, and demand and receive from the Bank, in lieu thereof, capital stock to the amount represented by the shares so surrendered; and any proprietor may from time to time surrender his stock, or any portion thereof, to the directors, and demand and receive from the Bank, in lieu thereof, shares to the like amount, or as near thereto as practicable.

Surrender of paid-up shares for stock.

Surrender of stock for shares.

13. The proprietors and shareholders of the Bank may from time to time, by special resolution, and with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, increase or reduce the capital of the Bank:

Power to increase or reduce capital.

Provided that no such special resolution shall be deemed to have been passed, unless at least one-third in number of the proprietors or shareholders holding at least one-half of the paid-up capital of the Bank for the time being, be present in person or by proxy, and a majority poll by open voting in favour of the said resolution.

14. When any such special resolution to increase the capital has been passed, the directors may, subject to the provisions of this or any other Act for the time being in force regulating such Bank, and to the special direction (if any) given in reference thereto by the meeting at which such resolution has been passed—

Procedure on resolution to increase capital.

(a) make such orders as they think fit for the opening of subscriptions towards such increase of capital by the proprietors and shareholders;

(b) allow to the proprietors and shareholders such period to fill up the subscription as to the directors seems fit;

(c) prescribe the manner in which the proprietors and shareholders shall subscribe and pay into the Bank the proportions of new capital which they may respectively desire to subscribe; and

(d) make such orders as the directors think fit for the disposal and allotment of the amount of new capital that may not be subscribed for and paid up in manner aforesaid:

Provided that the capital shall not exceed, in the case of the Bank of Bengal, thirty millions of rupees, in the case of the Bank of Madras, twelve millions of rupees, and in the case of the Bank of Bombay, twenty millions of rupees.

15. When any such special resolution to reduce the capital has been passed, the directors may (subject as aforesaid) prescribe the manner in which the reduction shall be carried into effect.

Procedure on resolution to reduce capital.

16. Any new capital created under the provisions of section 13 shall be subject to the provisions of this or any other Act regulating the Bank in force for the time being.

New capital to be subject to provisions of Act.

Act XI. of 1876.

CHAPTER IV.—Forfeiture of Stock and Shares.

17. If any proprietor or shareholder is indebted to the Bank, the Bank may withhold payment of the dividends on the stock or shares of such proprietor or shareholder not being registered as held in trust, or as executor or administrator, and apply them in payment of the debt;

Powers in regard to proprietors or shareholders indebted to Bank.

and the Bank may refuse to register the transfer of any such stock or shares until payment of such debt;

and after demand and default of payment, and notice in that behalf given to such proprietor or shareholder, or his constituted agent, or by public advertisement in the local official gazette, if the debt remain unpaid for the space of three months after such notice, the Bank may advertise in the local official gazette such stock or shares for sale on a day not less than fifteen days from the publication of such advertisement;

and may, on such day, sell by public auction, and subject to such conditions, if any, as the Bank thinks fit, such stock or shares, or so much or so many thereof as may be necessary, and apply the proceeds thereof in or towards payment of the said debt, with interest, from the day appointed for the payment of such debt to the time of actual payment, at such rate as may have been agreed upon, or, in the absence of such agreement, at the highest rate current for advances by way of local discounts by the Bank; and shall pay over the surplus, if any, to such proprietor or shareholder or to his lawful representative.

CHAPTER V.—Certificates, Transfer, and Transmission of Shares and Stock.

18. Every shareholder shall be entitled, to a certificate, under the corporate seal of the Bank, and signed by two directors and the Secretary and Treasurer, specifying the shares held by him, and in the case of shares which are not wholly paid up, the amount paid thereon;

Certificates for shares.

and any holder of more than one half share may, at his option, demand a certificate for each such half share, or one or more certificates for all or any of such half shares, and such certificate or certificates shall be delivered to him accordingly: Provided that the number of such certificates shall in no case exceed the number of half shares in respect of which they are so delivered.

Every proprietor of capital stock shall be entitled to a receipt signed by two directors and the Secretary and Treasurer, and specifying the amount of stock held by him, and any such proprietor may, at his option, demand one receipt for the whole of the stock, or separate receipts for any portions of the stock, so held by him, and such receipt or receipts shall be delivered to him accordingly: Provided that no receipt shall be delivered for a portion of stock less than two hundred and fifty rupees.

Receipts for stock.

For every certificate and receipt delivered under this section there shall be paid such fee as may for the time being be prescribed under section 63, clause (k): Provided that no fee shall be payable for certificates or receipts delivered to the persons referred to in section 4 for shares in or stock of the Bank.

Fees for certificates and receipts.

Every such certificate and receipt shall be primâ-facie evidence of the title of the shareholder or proprietor to the shares or stock therein specified. Act IX of 1876.

Certificates and receipts to be evidence.

19. The stock and shares of every proprietor and shareholder shall be moveable property, capable of being transferred in manner provided by the regulations contained herein, or in any other Act regulating the Bank for the time being in force, and shall not be of the nature of immoveable property; and each share shall be distinguished by its appropriate number.

Stock and shares to be moveable property.

20. Every transfer of stock or shares may be by endorsement on the certificate or in such other form as the Board from time to time may approve, and shall be presented to the Bank accompanied by such evidence as the Board may require to prove the title of the transferors.

Form of transfer to be approved by Board.

Every such transfer shall be verified in such manner as the Board require, and the Board may refuse to register any such transfer until the same be so verified, and, in the case of shares not fully paid up, unless the transferee is approved by the Board.

Board may require evidence of transmission.

The transferor shall be deemed to remain the proprietor or holder of the stock or shares transferred until the name of the transferee is registered in respect thereof.

Transferor to remain proprietor till transfer registered.

21. The directors may from time to time close the register and transfer-books of the Bank for any period or periods no exceeding in the whole thirty days in any twelve consecutive months.

Power to close transfer-books.

22. The proprietors and shareholders for the time being, and no other persons, shall be members respectively of the bodies corporate hereby constituted;

Corporation to consist of registered proprietors or shareholders only.

and, except for the purpose of excluding the provisions of section 17, the Bank shall not be bound or affected by notice of any trust to which any stock or share may be subject in the hands of the proprietor or holder thereof;

Notice of trusts.

and when any stock or share is vested in more than one proprietor or holder, such proprietors or shareholders shall, as between themselves and the Bank, be considered as joint-owners with benefit of survivorship:

Shares vested in several holders.

Provided that, as regards voting at meetings, service of notices, and receipt of dividend, the person whose name stands first in the register as one of the proprietors or holders of such stock or shares shall be deemed the sole proprietor or holder thereof.

23. When, by the death of any proprietor or shareholder, his stock or shares shall devolve on his legal representative, the Bank shall not be bound to recognize any legal representative of such proprietor or shareholder other than a person who has taken out, from a Court having jurisdiction in this behalf, probate of the will or letters of administration to the estate of the deceased.

Transmission of stock or shares of deceased proprietors or shareholders.

Act XI. of 1876.

Transmission on insolvency or marriage.

Any person becoming entitled to stock or shares in consequence of the insolvency or bankruptcy of any proprietor or shareholder, or in consequence of the marriage of any female proprietor or shareholder, may be registered as a proprietor or shareholder upon such evidence being produced as the directors may from time to time require.

CHAPTER VI.—DIRECTORS.

Board.

24. The business of the Bank shall be managed by the Board, which shall in the first instance consist of six directors, and may subsequently consist of such number, not less than six, and not more than nine, as may be fixed by a special resolution.

Such directors shall be selected by vote of a general or special meeting.

Quorum.

Three of the directors shall form a quorum for the transaction of business.

Present directors to be continued.

25. The persons who, on the first day of May 1876, are respectively directors of the Bank of Bengal, the Bank of Madras, and the New Bank of Bombay, Limited, shall be respectively directors of the Bank of Bengal, the Bank of Madras, and the Bank of Bombay, as constituted by this Act, subject to removal as hereinafter provided, and to the other provisions herein contained.

Two directors to go out by rotation annually.

26. The two directors who have been longest in office shall go out of office at the general meeting.

Any director so retiring may be re-elected at such meeting; and if any question arise as to which of the directors who have been the same time in office shall retire, such question shall be decided by the directors by ballot.

Qualification of directors.

27. Clause 1.—No person shall be qualified to serve as a director of a Bank who is not a proprietor or holder in his own right of unencumbered stock or shares of such Bank, to the nominal amount of ten thousand rupees at the least.

Disqualification of directors.

Clause 2.—No person shall be qualified to serve as a director—

If he holds the office of director, provisional director, promoter, agent, or manager of any other joint-stock Bank established, or having a branch or agency, in British India, or advertised as about to be established, or to have a branch or agency, in British India; or

If he is a salaried officer of Government not specially authorized by the Governor-General in Council to serve as a director;

And the office of director shall be vacated—

If the person holding it resigns his office or dies;

If he accepts or holds any other office of profit under the Bank;

If he becomes insolvent or bankrupt, or compounds with his creditors;

If he is declared lunatic, or becomes of unsound mind;

If he is absent from the Board for more than three consecutive months;

If he ceases to hold in his own right the amount or number of unencumbered stock or shares required to qualify him for the office.

Clause 3.—No two persons who are partners of the same mercantile firm, or one of whom is the general agent of, or holds a power of procuration from, the other, or from a mercantile firm of which the other is a partner, shall be eligible or qualified to serve as directors at the same time.

Co-partners of same firm not to serve as directors at same time.

Clause 4.—The proprietors or shareholders may, by a special resolution passed by the votes of proprietors or shareholders holding in the aggregate not less than one-half of the capital, remove any director before the expiration of his period of office, and appoint, in his stead, a qualified person, who shall in all respects stand in his place.

Power to remove directors.

28. At the first meeting of the directors in every year, they shall choose a president and vice-president from among themselves, and whenever the office of president or vice-president becomes vacant, they shall, at their next meeting, choose a successor for the remainder of the current year: Provided that no person shall be chosen to be president or vice-president twice in succession.*

Directors to choose president and vice-president.

The president, or in his absence the vice-president, shall be chairman at all meetings, whether of directors or of proprietors or shareholders, or of proprietors and shareholders, and shall have an additional or casting vote in all cases of an equal division of votes: Provided that, if both the president and vice-president be absent at any meeting, the directors present shall elect a chairman for such meeting, from among themselves, and such chairman shall, in case of an equal division of votes, have an additional or casting vote.

Chairman.

Casting vote.

29. The Board shall have power at any time, and from time to time, to supply any vacancies in their number arising from the death, resignation, or disqualification, under section 27, of any director.

Vacancies among directors how filled up.

Any director so appointed shall, for the purposes of section 26, be considered to have held office from the date on which the director in whose place he is appointed was elected, or (where such director was appointed under this section) from the date on which his mediate or immediate predecessor was elected.

30. All acts done by any person acting in good faith as a director shall be as valid as if he was a director, notwithstanding it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in his appointment or qualification.

Acts of directors valid notwithstanding subsequent discovery of disqualification.

31. Every director shall be indemnified by the Bank against all losses and expenses incurred by him in or about the discharge of his duties, except such as happen from his own wilful act or default.

Indemnity of directors.

No director shall be responsible for any other director, or for any officer, clerk, or servant of the Bank, or for any loss or expense happening to the Bank by the insufficiency or deficiency of value of, or title to, any property or security acquired or taken on behalf of the Bank, or by the insolvency, bankruptcy, or wrongful act of any customer or debtor of the Bank, or by anything done in the execution of the duties of his office or in relation thereto, or otherwise than for his own wilful act or default.

---

* This proviso has been added by Act V. of 1879, s. 2.

Act XI. of 1876.

CHAPTER VII.—Officers of the Bank.

Appointment, salaries, suspension, and removal of officers.

32. The directors shall have power—to appoint such officers, clerks, and servants as may be necessary to conduct the business of the Bank, to grant salaries, pensions, and other emoluments to such officers, clerks, and servants, and to suspend or remove any officer, clerk, or servant of the Bank.

Accounts, receipts, and documents of Bank by whom to be signed.

33. The Secretary and such other officers of the Bank as the directors may by writing notify in the local official Gazette (and, in the case of the Bank of Bengal, also in the Gazette of India) are hereby severally empowered for and on behalf of the Bank to endorse and transfer promissory notes, stock-receipts, stock, debentures, shares, securities, and documents of title to goods, standing in the name of, or held by, the Bank, and to draw, accept, and endorse bills of exchange, bank-post-bills, and letters of credit, in the current and authorized business of the Bank, and to sign all other accounts, receipts, and documents connected with such business.

Officers forbidden to engage in other commercial business.

34. No Secretary, Inspector, Manager, or Accountant in the service of the Bank, and, "without the previous sanction of the Board,"* no Khazánchí Cashier, or Shroff in the service of the Bank at the principal office, and, without the previous sanction of the Board, no Agent, Khazánchí, Cashier, or Shroff at any branch or agency of the Bank, shall engage in any other banking or commercial business, either on his own account or as agent for any other person or persons, or shall act as broker or agent for the sale or purchase of Government or other securities.

Security from officers.

35. Every person appointed to hold, or act in, any one or more of the said offices, and every other officer from whom the directors may from time to time think fit to require it, shall give security to the directors, for the faithful discharge of his duty to the satisfaction of the directors, in such amount and in such manner as they think proper.

The security to be given as aforesaid by the person holding or acting in the office of Secretary shall not be in a less amount than fifty thousand rupees.

CHAPTER VIII.—Business.

Business which Banks may transact.

36. The Bank is authorized to carry on and transact the several kinds of business hereinafter specified (that is to say):—

(a) the advancing and lending money, and opening cash-credits, upon the security of—

(1) promissory notes, debentures, stock, and other securities of the Government of India, or of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland;

* In s. 34, the words quoted have been inserted by Act V. of 1879, s. 3.

(2) bonds, debentures, and annuities charged by the Imperial Parliament on the revenues of India; Act XI. of 1876.

(3) stock or debentures of, or shares in, Railway or other Companies, the interest whereon shall have been guaranteed by the Secretary of State for India in Council;

(4) debentures, or other securities for money issued by, or on behalf of, any municipal body "or any body of Commissioners for making improvements in any port, or of trustees of any port,"* under the authority of any Act of a legislature established in British India;

(5) bullion or other goods which, or the documents of title to which, are deposited with, or assigned to, the Bank as security for such advances, loans, or credits; and

(6) accepted bills of exchange and promissory notes indorsed by the payees:

Provided that such advances and loans may be made, if the directors think fit, to the Secretary of State for India in Council, without any specific security;

(b) the selling and realization of the proceeds of sale of any such promissory notes, debentures, stock-receipts, bonds, annuities, stock, shares, securities, bullion, or goods which, or the documents of title to which, have been deposited with, or assigned to, the Bank as security for such advances, loans, or credits, or which are held by the Bank, or over which the Bank is entitled to any lien or charge in respect of any such loan or advance or credit or any debt or claim of the Bank, and which have not been redeemed in due time in accordance with the terms and conditions (if any) of such deposit or assignment;

(c) the drawing, discounting, buying and selling of bills of exchange and other negotiable securities payable in India, or† in Ceylon;

(d) the investing of the funds of the Bank upon any of the securities specified in paragraph (a) of this section, clauses (1), (2), (3), and (4), and converting the same into money when required, and from time to time altering, converting, and transposing such investments for or into others of the investments above specified;

(e) the making, issuing, and circulating of bank-post-bills and letters of credit made payable in India, or† in Ceylon, to order, or otherwise than to the bearer on demand;

(f) the buying and selling of gold and silver, whether coined or uncoined;

(g) the receiving of deposits and keeping cash-accounts on such terms as may be agreed on;

(h) the acceptance of the charge and management of plate, jewels, title-deeds, or other valuable goods on such terms as may be agreed upon;

(i) the selling and realizing of all property, whether moveable or immoveable, which may in any way come into the possession of the Bank in satisfaction or part satisfaction of any of its claims;

---

* In s. 36, cl. a, sub-cl. 4, the words quoted have been inserted by Act V. of 1879, s. 4.

† In cls. c and e, the words, "in the case of the Bank of Madras," being repealed by Act V. of 1879, s. 4, have been omitted.

Act XI. of 1876.

(j) the transacting of pecuniary agency business on commission;

(k) the acting as agent on commission in the transaction of the following kinds of business (namely):—

(1) the buying, selling, transferring, and taking charge of any securities or any shares in any public Company;

(2) the receiving of the proceeds, whether principal, interest, or dividends, of any securities or shares;

(3) the remittance of such proceeds at the risk of the principal by public or private bills of exchange, payable either in India or elsewhere;

(l) the drawing of bills of exchange, and the granting of letters of credit, payable out of India, for the use of principals for the purpose of the remittances mentioned in the last preceding clause of this section;

(m) the buying, for the purpose of meeting such bills or letters of credit, of bills of exchange payable out of India, at any usance not exceeding six months;

(mm) the borrowing of money in India for the purposes of the Bank's business, and the giving of security for money so borrowed by pledging assets or otherwise,*

(n) and, generally, the doing of all such matters and things as may be incidental or subsidiary to the transacting of the various kinds of business hereinbefore specified.

(o) It shall also be lawful for the Bank under any arrangement or agreement with the Secretary of State for India in Council—

(1) to act as banker for, and to pay, receive, collect, and remit money, bullion, and securities on behalf of, the Government;

(2) to undertake and transact any other business which the Government may from time to time entrust to the Bank.

And the directors shall have power from time to time to arrange and settle with the Governor-General in Council the terms of remuneration on which such business shall be undertaken by the Bank, and also as to the examination and audit from time to time of the accounts and affairs of the Bank by or on behalf of the Governor-General in Council.

Business which Banks may not transact.

37. The directors shall not transact any kind of banking business other than those above specified, and in particular they shall not make any loan or advance—

(a) for a longer period than three months; or

(b) upon the security of stock or shares of the Bank of which they are directors; or

(c) upon mortgage, or in any other manner upon the security, of any immoveable property, or the documents of title relating thereto.

(d) Nor shall they (except upon the security mentioned in section 36, paragraph a, Nos. 1 to 5 inclusive) discount bills for any individual or partnership-firm for an amount exceeding in the whole at any one time such sum as may be prescribed by the bye-laws for the time being in force, or lend or advance in any way to any individual or partnership-firm an amount exceeding in the whole at any one time such sum as may be so prescribed.* Act XI. of 1876.

* Cl. mm has been inserted by Act V. of 1879, s. 4.

(e) Nor shall they discount or buy, or advance and lend, or open cash-credits, on the security of any negotiable instrument of any individual or partnership-firm, payable in the town or at the place where it is presented for discount, which does not carry on it the several responsibilities of at least two persons or firms unconnected with each other in general partnership.

(f) Nor shall they discount or buy, or advance and lend, or open cash-credits, on the security of any negotiable security having at the date of the proposed transaction a longer period to run than three months, or if drawn after sight, drawn for a longer period than three months: Provided that, in the case of the Bank of Madras, the directors may discount negotiable securities payable in Ceylon having at the date of the transaction a period to run not exceeding four months.

Nothing contained in this Act shall be deemed to prevent the directors from allowing any person who keeps an account with the Bank from overdrawing such account, without security, to the extent of sums not exceeding at any one time two thousand rupees in the whole.

Overdrawing.

38. Until the expiration of at least fourteen days after notice has been given by notification of the Governor-General in Council published, in the case of the Bank of Bengal, in the Gazette of India and the Calcutta Gazette, and in the cases of the Bank of Madras and the Bank of Bombay, in the local official Gazette, that the Bank will no longer act as banker for, or pay, receive, collect, or remit money, bullion, and securities on behalf of, the Government, Sums payable by or to Government to be payable at Banks.

all sums payable by or to the Secretary of State for India in Council, or by or to the Governor-General in Council, or the Government of Bengal or the Governor of Fort St. George in Council, or the Governor of Bombay in Council, on behalf of the Secretary of State for India in Council, at the General Treasury of Fort William in Bengal, or at the General Treasury at Madras, or at the General Treasury at Bombay, shall be payable—in the case of the Secretary of State for India in Council, or the Governor-General in Council—at the office of the Bank of Bengal, the Bank of Madras, or the Bank of Bombay, as the case may be, in the case of the Government of Bengal—at the office of the Bank of Bengal; in the case of the Governor of Fort St. George in Council—at the office of the Bank of Madras; and in the case of the Governor of Bombay in Council—at the office of the Bank of Bombay.

39. Whenever presentment of any promissory note, bond, or other security for payment or any other purpose at any of the said General Treasuries would heretofore have been necessary or sufficient, presentment for such purpose shall be necessary or Presentment of promissory notes at Banks.

Act XI. of 1876.

sufficient (as the case may be) until the expiration of fourteen days after the giving of the notice mentioned in section 38—in the case of the General Treasury of Fort William—at the office of the Bank of Bengal; in the case of the General Treasury at Madras—at the office of the Bank of Madras; and in the case of the General Treasury at Bombay—at the office of the Bank of Bombay.

Place of business.

40. The office of the Bank of Bengal shall be at Calcutta, that of the Bank of Madras shall be at Madras, and that of the Bank of Bombay shall be in the Island of Bombay; and the business of the Bank shall be carried on at its office, and at such other place or places in India as the Board may deem advisable, under the provisions of section 42.

Acquisition of business-premises.

41. For the purpose of providing offices and places in and at which to carry on and manage the business of the Bank, and proper residences for its agents, the directors may—

(a) acquire any interest in immoveable property, and

(b) sell, buy in, re-sell, exchange, let, furnish, repair, insure against fire, and otherwise deal with all or any part of the same as they may consider most conducive to the interest of the Bank.

Establishment of branches and agencies.

42. It shall be lawful for the directors to maintain as branches or agencies of the Bank, any branches or agencies of the present Banks, which may be in existence on the first day of May 1876, and, from time to time, to establish branches or agencies at such places within the Presidency in which the Bank is situate as they deem advantageous to the interest of the Bank, and, with the previous consent of the Governor-General in Council, and subject to such restrictions as to the business to be transacted as he thinks fit in each case to impose (such consent and restrictions being notified in the Gazette of India), to establish branches or agencies at such places outside the Presidency in which the Bank is situate, as the directors deem advantageous for the interests of the Bank:

Proviso.

Provided that no agency of the Bank now or hereafter established in Bombay, Calcutta, or Madras shall advance, or lend money, or open cash-credits on securities, or receive deposits and keep cash-accounts, or discount bills of exchange drawn and payable in the Presidency in which it is so established, or shall act as agent on commission, or transact any business except as agent of its principal Bank, or any of its branches or other agencies.

The directors may discontinue any branch or agency maintained or established under this section.

CHAPTER IX.—Accounts and Dividends.

Books to be balanced twice a year.

43. The directors shall cause the books of the Bank to be balanced on every thirty-first day of December and every thirtieth day of June.

A statement of the balance at every such period, signed by a majority of the directors, shall be forthwith sent to a Secretary to the Government of India, and in the cases of the Bank of Madras and the Bank of Bombay, also to a Secretary to the Local Government. Act XI. of 1876.

The Governor-General in Council in the case of each of the said Banks, and the Local Government in the case of the Bank of Madras and the Bank of Bombay, shall (so long as any such arrangement with the Government as aforesaid, which has already been, or shall hereafter be, entered into, remains in force) at all times be entitled to require of the directors any information touching the affairs of the Bank and the production of any document of the Bank; and in the case of each of the said Banks, the Governor-General in Council may require the publication of such statements of its assets and liabilities at such intervals and in such form and manner as the Governor-General in Council thinks fit.

Every requisition under this section shall be signified in writing under the hand of a Secretary to the Government of India or to the Local Government (as the case may be), and the directors shall comply with every such requisition.

Dividends to be determined half-yearly.

44. An account of the profits of the Bank during the previous half-year shall be taken on or immediately after every thirty-first day of December and every thirtieth day of June, and a dividend shall be made as soon thereafter as conveniently may be, and the amount of such dividend shall be determined by the directors, subject to the provisions of section 45.

No unpaid dividend shall bear interest as against the Bank.

Reserve-fund.

45. The directors, before declaring any dividend, may set aside, out of the profits of the Bank, such a sum as they think proper as a reserve-fund, and invest the same upon any of the securities specified in section 36, paragraph (a), clauses (1), (2), (3), and (4).

Application of reserve-fund.

46. The directors may from time to time apply such portion as they think fit of the reserve-fund to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for any other purposes of the Bank, which they from time to time deem expedient.

CHAPTER X.—AUDIT.

Election of auditors.

47. Two auditors shall be elected, and their remuneration fixed, at the annual general meeting.

Who may be auditors.

The auditors may be proprietors or shareholders; but no director or other officer of the Bank is eligible during his continuance in office.

Auditors re-eligible.

Any auditor shall be re-eligible on his quitting office.

Auditors' tenure of office.

The persons who shall be auditors on the first day of May 1876, and all auditors elected under this section, shall severally be, and continue to act as, auditors until the first general meeting after their respective elections:

Act XI. of 1876.

Provided that if any casual vacancy occurs in the office of any auditor, the directors shall forthwith call a special meeting for the purpose of supplying the same.

Supply of casual vacancy in office.

48. Every auditor shall be supplied with a copy of the half-yearly balance-sheet, and it shall be his duty to examine the same, with the accounts and vouchers relating thereto.

Rights and duties of auditors.

Every auditor shall have a list delivered to him of all books kept by the Bank, and shall at all reasonable times have access to the books, accounts, and other documents of the Bank, and may (at the expense of the Bank) employ accountants or other persons to assist him in investigating such accounts, and may, in relation to such accounts, examine the directors or any other officer of the Bank.

The auditors shall make a report to the proprietors and shareholders upon the annual balance-sheet and accounts; and in every such report they shall state whether, in their opinion, the balance-sheet is a full and fair balance-sheet containing the particulars required by the bye-laws made under this Act, and properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of the Bank's affairs, and in case they have called for any explanation or information from the directors, whether it has been given by the directors and whether it has been satisfactory.

Such report shall be read together with the report of the directors at the annual general meeting.

CHAPTER XI.—MEETINGS.

49. On the first Monday of the month of August in every year, or as soon after such day as is convenient, a general meeting shall be held, at which the directors shall submit to the proprietors and shareholders a statement of the affairs of the Bank made up to the preceding thirtieth day of June.

Annual general meeting.

A notice convening such meeting, signed by the Secretary, shall be published in the local official Gazette, and in the case of the Bank of Bengal also in the Gazette of India, at least fifteen days before the meeting is held.

50. Any ten or more proprietors or shareholders holding stock or shares, or both, to the aggregate amount of fifty thousand rupees, or any three directors, may convene a special meeting upon giving fifteen days' previous notice of such meeting, and of the purpose for which the same is convened, as well to the directors as also by public advertisement in the local official Gazette, and in two of the English daily newspapers and one of the vernacular newspapers:

Special meetings.

Provided that three months' previous notice shall be thus given of any special meeting held for the purpose of increasing or reducing the capital of the Bank, and shall also be served on every proprietor and shareholder.

51. No business shall be transacted at any meeting, whether general or special, unless a quorum of twenty proprietors or shareholders, or both, in person or by proxy, is present at the commencement of such business.

Quorum.

If within one hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened by proprietors or shareholders not being directors, shall be dissolved: in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the following week at the same time and place, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present, it shall be adjourned sine die.

Decision by majority of votes.

52. At meetings, whether general or special, every election and other matter submitted to the meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes, except as in section 13 and in section 27, clause 4, is specially provided;

Persons not allowed to vote.

and no person shall be allowed to vote at any such meeting in respect of any stock or share acquired by transfer, unless such transfer shall have been completed and registered at least three months before the time of such meeting.

Shareholders in arrear as to calls.

And no shareholder shall be entitled to vote at any meeting in respect of any shares held by him alone or jointly, whilst any call due from him alone or jointly remains unpaid.

Power to declare resolution carried by show of hands.

53. A declaration by the chairman of any meeting, except a special meeting held under section 13, that a resolution has been carried thereat upon a show of hands, shall be conclusive, and an entry to that effect in the book of proceedings of the Bank shall be sufficient evidence of that fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, such resolution, unless, immediately on such declaration, a poll be demanded in writing by five proprietors or shareholders present and entitled to vote at such meeting.

Poll to be taken, if demanded.

54. If a poll be demanded, it shall be taken at such time and place, and (except at the special meeting last aforesaid) either by open voting or by ballot, as the chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

Proceedings and resolutions at meetings to be binding.

55. The proceedings at any meeting, and all resolutions and decisions of such meeting, shall be valid and binding on the Bank, so far as such proceedings, resolutions, and decisions are consistent with the provisions of this or any other Act for the time being in force and regulating the Bank.

Scale of votes.

56. At all such meetings, the proprietors or shareholders shall vote according to the following scale:—

The proprietor of capital stock amounting to Rs. 2,000, or the holder of shares of which the total nominal amounts are equal to Rs. 2,000, shall be entitled to	1 Vote.

Where a person is both a proprietor of stock and a holder of shares, his shares shall, for the purpose of this section, be deemed to be stock.

No proprietor or shareholder shall be entitled to more than twelve votes at any such meeting.

Proxies of proprietors or shareholders.

57. Any proprietor or shareholder entitled to vote at any meeting under this Act may give a proxy in writing, either general or special, under his hand or the hand of his attorney duly authorized, to any other proprietor or shareholder.

Such proxy shall be produced at the time of voting, and shall entitle the person to whom it is given to vote on such matters as shall be authorized by the tenor of such proxy.

But no person shall be permitted to vote in virtue of such proxy unless it has been left for registration at the office of the Bank at least three clear days before the time for holding the meeting at which it is intended to be used:

Provided that a general proxy which has been registered at such office need not be again left for registration previous to any subsequent meeting.

Existing proxies.

Proxies existing and in force with reference to any of the present Banks, on the first day of May 1876, shall continue in force, and be available at meetings under this Act, anything herein contained notwithstanding.

A general power-of-attorney shall be deemed a proxy within the meaning of this section.

Act XI of 1876.

Voting by lunatic and minor shareholders.

58. If any proprietor or shareholder is a lunatic or idiot, he may vote by his committee or other legal curator, and if any proprietor or shareholder is a minor, he may vote by his guardian, or any one of his guardians, if more than one.

CHAPTER XII.—NOTICES.

Service of notices by Bank.

59. Every notice or other document requiring to be served by the Bank upon any proprietor or shareholder may be served either personally, or by leaving it for, or sending it through the post by registered letter addressed to, him at his registered place of abode ; and every notice sent through the post shall be deemed to have been served at the time at which, in the usual course of post, it would have been delivered.

Notices by shareholders.

60. Any proprietor or shareholder who changes his name or place of abode, or being a female marries, and the husband of any such female, respectively, shall not be entitled to recover any dividend or to vote until notice of the change of name or abode or marriage be given to the Bank, in order that the same may be registered.

Every notice to be given on the part of any proprietor or shareholder shall be left at the office of the Bank, or sent through the post by registered letter addressed to the Secretary of the Bank at its principal office.

Shareholder bound by notices to previous holders.

61. Every person who, by operation of law, transfer, or otherwise, becomes entitled to any stock or shares, shall be bound by any and every notice or other document which, previously to his name and address being entered upon the register of the Bank in respect of such stock or shares, has been given to the person from whom he derives his title thereto.

Service of notices good notwithstanding shareholder's death.

62. When any notice or document is delivered or sent, in accordance with this Act, at or to the registered place of abode of a proprietor or shareholder, then, and notwithstanding he be then deceased, and whether or not the Bank have notice of his decease, such service of the notice or other document shall, for all purposes of this Act, be deemed service thereof on him, or, if dead, on his heirs, executors, administrators, and every of them.

CHAPTER XIII.—BYE-LAWS.

Power of directors to make bye-laws.

63. The directors shall, as soon as may be, make, and may from time to time alter, bye-laws regulating the following matters or any of them :—

(a) the maximum amount which may be advanced or "lent to, or for which bills may be discounted for,"* any individual or partnership, without the security mentioned in section 36, paragraph (a), Nos. (1) to (5) inclusive,

(b) the circumstances under which alone advances may be made to directors or officers of the Bank, or the relatives of such directors or officers, or to

* In s. 63 the words quoted have been substituted for the words, "lent by discount of bills or otherwise to," by Act V. of 1879, s. 6.

Act XI. of 1876.

companies, firms, or individuals with which or with whom such directors, officers, or relatives are connected as partners, directors, managers, servants, shareholders, or otherwise,

(c) the particulars to be contained in the half-yearly balance-sheet.

The directors may, from time to time, make bye-laws regulating the following matters or any of them:—

(d) the distribution of business amongst the directors,

(e) their remuneration,

(f) the delegation of any powers of the directors to committees consisting of members of their body,

(g) the procedure at the meetings of the Board or of any committee of the directors, (h) the books and accounts to be kept at the head and other offices respectively.

(i) the reports and statements to be prepared and made by the Chief Accountant, the heads of departments, and the other officers of the Bank,

(j) the management of the branches and agencies,

(k) the fees payable for certificates of shares or receipts for stock, or for registration of transfers of shares or stock,

(l) the renewal of certificates of shares and receipts for stock, which have been worn-out or lost,

(m) and, generally, for the conduct of the business of the Bank:

Proviso.

Provided that no bye-law, or alteration or rescission of any bye-law, shall be of any validity, except in so far as the same is consistent with the provisions of this Act, and has been previously approved by the Governor-General in Council, and such approval has been signified in writing under the hand of a Secretary to the Government of India.

CHAPTER XIV.—MISCELLANEOUS.

Power to institute and compromise suits.

64. The directors may institute, conduct, defend, compromise, refer to arbitration, and abandon legal and other proceedings and claims by or against the Bank or the directors or officers of the Bank, and otherwise concerning its affairs.

Evidence in legal proceedings against shareholders.

65. In any suit brought against any shareholder to recover any debt due for any call or other moneys due from him in his character of shareholder, it shall be sufficient to allege that the defendant is a shareholder of the Bank, and is indebted to the Bank in respect of a call made or other moneys due, whereby a right to sue has accrued to the Bank;

and, on the hearing of any suit brought by the Bank against any shareholder to recover any debt due for any call, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the defendant is on the register of shareholders of the Bank as the holder of the shares in respect of which such debt accrued, and that the call was made, and that notice of such call was duly given to the defendant in pursuance of this or any other Act for the time being in force regulating the Bank;

and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the directors who made such call, nor that a quorum of directors was present at the Board at which such call was made, nor that the meeting at which it was made was duly convened or constituted.

Modification of 33 Geo. III., sess. 2, cap. 52.

66. Nothing in the Thirty-third of George the Third, session two, chapter fifty-two, shall be deemed to render it unlawful for any servant of Government, or for any Judge of a High Court, to become a member of any corporation established under this Act.

Power to wind-up Bank under Indian Companies Act.

67. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in section 256 of Act No. VI. of 1882,* whenever the proprietors and shareholders have passed a special resolution that the Bank shall be wound up voluntarily under the Indian Companies Act, 1882,* the Bank shall be wound up accordingly, as if it were a Company under that Act:

Provided that no such special resolution shall be deemed to have been passed unless at least one-third of the proprietors and shareholders holding at least one-half of the paid-up capital of the Bank for the time being be present in person or by proxy, and a majority poll by open voting in favour of the said resolution, and such resolution has been confirmed by a majority of such proprietors and shareholders at a subsequent special meeting held at an interval of not less than one month, nor more than two months, from the date of the meeting at which such resolution was first passed.

Sale to Bank of Bengal and Madras of Government shares therein.

68. And whereas the Government of India has agreed to sell, and the directors of the present Bank of Bengal have agreed to purchase, at a premium of twenty-two-and-a-half per centum, the said two thousand two hundred shares of one thousand rupees each held by the Government of India in the same Bank; and it is intended that the directors of the Bank of Bengal, as constituted by this Act, shall cancel two thousand of such shares, and sell for the benefit of the Bank four hundred shares in the same Bank corresponding with the remaining two hundred shares so agreed to be sold and purchased;

And whereas the Government of India has agreed to sell, and the directors of the present Bank of Madras have agreed to purchase, at a premium of ten per centum, the said five hundred and sixty-two-and-a-half shares held by the Government of India in the same Bank, and it is intended that the directors of the Bank of Madras, as constituted by this Act, shall cancel the same shares;

Purchase and cancellation by directors of 62½ shares in present Bank of Madras.

And whereas the directors of the present Bank of Madras have purchased and cancelled other sixty-two-and-a-half shares in such Bank;

And whereas the said respective directors of the present Bank of Bengal and Bank of Madras had no power to enter into the said agreements with the Government of India, and the directors of the Bank of Bengal, as constituted by this Act, have no power to sell the four hundred shares referred to in this section, and the said directors of the present Bank of Madras had no power to purchase and cancel the said other sixty-two-and-a-half shares;

And whereas the directors of the Bank of Bengal as constituted by this Act have no power to cancel the said two thousand shares, and the said directors of the Bank of Madras, as constituted by this Act, have no power to cancel the said five hundred and sixty-two-and-a-half shares;

And whereas it is expedient to confirm the said agreements with the Government of India, and to indemnify the said respective directors of the present Bank of Bengal and Bank of Madras for entering into the same, and to confirm the said purchase of the said other sixty-two-and-a-half shares by the directors of the present Bank of Madras, and to indemnify the same directors for making the same, and for cancelling the same shares, and to empower the directors of the Bank of Bengal as constituted by this Act to sell the said four hundred shares, and to empower the respective directors of the Bank of Bengal and Bank of Madras as constituted by this Act to cancel the said shares so intended to be cancelled; It is hereby further enacted as follows:—

Confirmation of agreements with Government.

(a.)—The said agreements with the Government of India are hereby confirmed, and the said respective directors of the present Bank of Bengal and Bank of Madras are hereby indemnified for entering into the same; and no suit or other proceeding shall be maintained against any such director in respect of anything bonâ fide done in pursuance of either of such agreements.

Confirmation of purchase of the 62½ shares.

(b.)—The said purchase of the said other sixty-two-and-a-half shares is hereby confirmed, and the said directors of the present Bank of Madras are hereby indemnified for making the same, and for cancelling the same shares; and no suit or other proceeding shall be maintained against any such director in respect of anything bonâ fide done in effecting such purchase and cancellation.

Sale by directors of 400 shares in Bank of Bengal.

(c.)—The directors of the Bank of Bengal as constituted by this Act shall have power to sell, and shall, as soon as conveniently may be, sell, the said four hundred shares, either together or in parcels, and either by public auction or private contract, and shall apply the proceeds in or towards paying the price of the shares of the Government of India so agreed to be purchased by the directors of the present Bank as aforesaid, or otherwise for the benefit of the Bank of Bengal as constituted by this Act.

Cancellation of certain shares.

(d.)—The directors of the Bank of Bengal as constituted by this Act shall have power to cancel, and shall, as soon as conveniently may be, cancel, the said two thousand shares, and the directors of the Bank of Madras as constituted by this Act shall have power to cancel, and shall, as soon as conveniently may be, cancel, the said five hundred and sixty-two-and-a-half shares.

ACT XV. OF 1876.

THE BOMBAY MUNICIPAL DEBENTURES ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 14TH SEPTEMBER 1876.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the transfer of Bombay Municipal Debentures, and to provide for their consolidation.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, under the Bombay Municipal Act of 1865, the Justices of the Peace for the city of Bombay were empowered to mortgage for the purposes therein mentioned the rates and taxes imposed and levied under that Act;

and whereas, by section 255 of the same Act, it was enacted that any person entitled to any such mortgage might transfer his right and interest therein to any other person, and that every such transfer should be by deed duly stamped, wherein the consideration should be truly stated, and that every such transfer might be according to the form in Schedule K to the said Act annexed or to the like effect;

and whereas, in exercise of the said power, divers mortgages of the said rates and taxes have been made, and the mortgagees have purported to transfer their mortgages to other persons, but such transfers have been by simple indorsement, and not by deed duly stamped;

and whereas it is expedient to provide that such transfers may hereafter be made by indorsement, and to confirm the said transfers heretofore made, and to exempt the parties thereto from the penalties which they have incurred by reason of their failure to comply with the provisions of the said section and of the law relating to stamp-duties for the time being in force;

and whereas it is also expedient to provide for consolidating such mortgages in manner hereinafter mentioned, and for renewing and sub-dividing mortgages so consolidated;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Bombay Municipal Debentures Act, 1876."

Transfers of debentures to be by indorsement, and free from stamp-duty.

2. Every mortgage of rates and taxes, authorized to be made under the said Bombay Municipal Act of 1865, or any subsequent Act, shall be transferable by indorsement on the instrument of mortgage.*

Validation of former transfers by indorsement.

3. Every transfer of any such mortgage heretofore made by indorsement shall be, and be deemed to have been, as valid as if this Act had been in force at the date of such transfer; and no stamp-duty shall be, or be deemed to have been, chargeable in respect of any such transfer; and no penalty shall be deemed to have been incurred by reason of any failure to comply with the provisions of the said section 255, or of the law relating to stamp-duties for the time being in force.

Power to consolidate debentures.

4. Any holder of two or more such instruments of mortgage may surrender them to the municipal corporation of the city of Bombay, and such corporation shall accept the same, and shall (on receipt for each such instrument of such fee as the said corporation may from time to time prescribe) grant to such holder, under the seal of the said corporation, an instrument of mortgage in which the consideration stated shall be the aggregate amount of the considerations respectively stated in the instrument so surrendered.

Every instrument so granted may be in the form in the schedule hereto annexed or to the like effect.

Power to renew and sub-divide.

5. The said corporation shall, on the application of the holder of any instrument granted under the said Bombay Municipal Act of 1865 or under this Act, and on receipt of such fees as the said corporation may from time to time prescribe in this behalf, renew or sub-divide the same.

THE SCHEDULE ABOVE REFERRED TO.

WHEREAS A B of has surrendered to us, the Municipal Corporation of the city of Bombay, mortgages issued under the Bombay Municipal Act of 1865, bearing respectively the following numbers and dates (namely) [set them out], and securing sums amounting in the whole to Rs. . In consideration of the premises, we, the said Corporation, do hereby grant and assign unto the said A B, his representatives and assigns, such proportion of the rates and taxes comprised in the said mortgages as the said sum of Rs. bears to the whole sum for the time being borrowed upon the credit of the said rates and taxes. To HOLD to the said A B, his representatives and assigns, from this day, until the said sum of Rs. , with interest at the rate of per cent. per annum, shall be fully paid and satisfied.

Given under our corporate seal this day of 187 .

ACT XVI OF 1876.*

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 5TH OCTOBER 1876.

An Act to amend the Stage-carriages Act.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Act No. XVI. of 1861 (for licensing and regulating Stage Carriages) does not apply to carriages drawn by camels or oxen, and it is expedient to render it applicable to such carriages; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Amendment of Act XVI. of 1861, s. 21.

1. For the third sentence of section 21 of the said Act, the following shall be substituted (that is to say) :—

"All expressions and provisions which in this Act are applied to horses shall also apply to all other animals employed in drawing any carriage ordinarily used for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire to or from any place in British India."

Local extent of Act XVI. of 1861.

2. The said Act, as amended by this Act, applies to the whole of British India, but not so as to supersede or contravene the provisions of any local law dealing with the same subject.

Act XVII. of 1876.

ACT XVII. OF 1876.

THE OUDH LAND-REVENUE ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 10TH OCTOBER 1876.

An Act to consolidate and define the Law relating to Land-revenue in Oudh.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and define the law relating to land-revenue in Oudh; It is hereby enacted as follows:— Preamble.

CHAPTER I.—PRELIMINARY.

Short title. 1. This Act may be called "The Oudh Land-revenue Act, 1876:"

Local extent. It extends only to the territories now under the administration of the Chief Commissioner of Oudh;

Commencement. And it shall come into force on the passing thereof.

But all rules now in force, and relating to any of the matters hereinafter dealt with, shall, so far as they are consistent with this Act, continue in force until they are superseded by rules made in exercise of the powers hereinafter conferred.

Interpretation-clause. 2. In this Act, unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context—

"incumbrance" means a charge upon or claim against land arising out of contract between private persons:

"agricultural year" means a year commencing on the first day of July, and ending on the thirtieth day of June:

"revenue-officer" means any officer empowered by or under this Act to dispose of any matter connected with the land-revenue:

"revenue-free" or "free of revenue" applies to land whereof the revenue has been wholly or in part released, compounded for, redeemed, or assigned:

"Board" means the Board of Revenue.*

CHAPTER II.—REVENUE OFFICERS.

3. The Chief Controlling Revenue Authority in all matters connected with land-revenue in Oudh shall be "the Board, subject to the control of the Chief Commissioner."† Chief Controlling Revenue Authority.

Sections 6 to 10, both inclusive, of the North-Western Provinces Land-revenue Act, 1873, shall, so far as may be, apply to the Board when exercising jurisdiction with respect to Oudh.‡

Commissioners of Division. 4. §The Chief Commissioner shall—

* This definition has been added by Act XX. of 1890, s. 12.

† In s. 3, the words quoted have been substituted for the words, "the Chief Commissioner," by Act XX. of 1890, s. 13.

‡ In s. 3, the second paragraph has been added by Act XX. of 1890, s. 13.

§ In s. 4 (first and last clauses), the words, "Subject to such rules as the Governor-General in Council may, from time to time, prescribe in this behalf," repealed by Act XIV. of 1878, s. 4, have been omitted.

(a) appoint in each Division a Commissioner, who shall, subject to the control of the "Board,"* exercise authority over all the Revenue Officers in his Division : Act XVII. of 1876.

Deputy Commissioner of the district.

(b) appoint in each district an officer who shall be the Deputy Commissioner of the district :

Assistant Commissioner.

(c) appoint to each district as many other persons as he thinks fit to be Assistant Commissioners of the first or of the second class.

† The Chief Commissioner may suspend or remove any officer appointed under this section.

Appointment, powers, and duties of Additional Commissioners.

4A.‡ (1) The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, appoint an Additional Commissioner in a division.

(2) An Additional Commissioner shall hold his office during the pleasure of the Chief Commissioner.

(3) An Additional Commissioner shall exercise such powers, and perform such duties, of the Commissioner of a division under this Act, or under any other law for the time being in force, as the Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, prescribe, but only in such cases as the Commissioner of the division may direct.

(4) This Act and every other law for the time being applicable to the Commissioner of the division shall apply to the Additional Commissioner when exercising any powers or performing any duties under sub-section (3), as if he were the Commissioner of the division.

Power to create, alter, and abolish, divisions, districts, tahsils, and sub-divisions.

4B.‡ (1) The Chief Commissioner may from time to time create new, or abolish existing, tahsils, and alter the limits of any division, district, or tahsil, and may divide any district into sub-divisions, and from time to time alter the limits of the sub-divisions, and may from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, create new, or abolish existing, divisions or districts.

(2) All existing tahsils shall be deemed to be sub-divisions of districts.

Subordination of Assistant Commissioners and other Revenue Officers.

5. All such Assistant Commissioners, and all other persons employed in maintaining revenue-records or otherwise in or about the business of the land-revenue, shall be subordinate to the Deputy Commissioner of the district.

Assistant Commissioner in charge of sub-division of district.

6. The Chief Commissioner may place any Assistant Commissioner of the first class in charge of one or more sub-divisions of a district, and may at any time remove him therefrom.

Such Assistant Commissioner shall be called an Assistant Commissioner in charge of a sub-division of a district, and shall exercise the powers and discharge the duties conferred and imposed upon him by this Act or by any other

---

* In s. 4, cl. a, the word "Board" has been substituted for the words "Chief Commissioner" by Act XX. of 1890, s. 15.

law for the time being in force, subject to the control of the Deputy Commissioner of the district.

The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, delegate* his powers under this section to the Deputy Commissioner of the district, and may revoke such delegation.

Power to invest certain Assistant Commissioners with powers of Deputy Commissioner.

7. † The Chief Commissioner may confer on any Assistant Commissioner in charge of a sub-division of a district all or any of the powers of a Deputy Commissioner; and all powers so conferred shall be exercised subject to the control of the Deputy Commissioner of the district.

Subordination of Revenue Officers.

8. Every officer of a sub-division of a district employed in maintaining revenue-records or otherwise in or about the business of the land-revenue shall be subordinate to the Assistant Commissioner (if any) in charge of such sub-division, subject to the general control of the Deputy Commissioner of the district.

Conferring of powers.

9. †The Chief Commissioner may confer upon any person all or any of the powers of an Assistant Commissioner of the first or of the second class, and may, in conferring those or any other powers under this Act, empower persons by name, or classes of officials generally by their official titles, and may vary or cancel any order conferring powers under this Act.

Power to vary and cancel orders conferring powers.

Transfer of cases to subordinates.

10. The Deputy Commissioner of the district, or any Assistant Commissioner in charge of a sub-division of a district, may make over any case, or class of cases, arising under the provisions of this Act or otherwise, for enquiry or decision, from his own file to any of his subordinates competent to deal with such case or class, or may withdraw any such case or class of cases from any Revenue Officer subordinate to him, and may deal with such case or class himself, or refer the same for disposal to any other such Revenue Officer competent to deal therewith.

Power to withdraw cases from subordinates.

Deputy Commissioner of the district in case of temporary vacancy.

11. If the Deputy Commissioner of the district dies, or is disabled from performing his duties, the officer who succeeds temporarily to the chief executive administration of the district in revenue-matters shall be held to be the Deputy Commissioner of the district under this Act until the Chief Commissioner appoints a successor to the Deputy Commissioner so dying or disabled, and such successor takes charge of his appointment.

Powers of officers transferred to another district.

12. Whenever any person holding an office in the service of Government, who has been invested with any powers under this Act in any district, is transferred to an equal or higher office of the same nature within another district, he shall, unless the Chief Commissioner otherwise directs, be held to be invested with the same powers in the district to which he is so transferred.

* See Oudh Gazette, Oct. 28, 1876, p. 73.

† In ss. 7 and 9, the words, "Subject to such rules as the Governor-General in Council from time to time prescribes in this behalf," repealed by Act XIV. of 1878, s. 4, have been omitted.

Act XVII. of 1876.

Appointment of tahsildárs.

13.* Tahsildárs shall be appointed by the Board, subject to such rules as to qualification or otherwise as the Board, with the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner, may, from time to time, make under section 220.

CHAPTER III.—SETTLEMENT.

Notification as to settlement.

14. Whenever the Chief Commissioner thinks that any district or other local area liable to be brought under settlement should be so brought, he shall† publish a notification to that effect.

Notification as to settlement-record.

And if he thinks that a settlement-record should be prepared for any district or other local area, he shall‡ publish a notification to that effect.

Chief Commissioner to issue rules as to mode of assessment.

15. The Chief Commissioner shall, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, frame and issue rules regarding the mode in which the revenue-demand in respect of any local area is to be assessed, and may, from time to time, make rules prescribing the manner in which Settlement Officers shall report for sanction the rates and method of assessment and the amounts they propose to assess.

Settlement-record.

16. "The Board shall, with the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner,"§ determine what documents shall form the settlement-record, and frame and issue rules regarding (a) the mode in which such record is to be prepared, (b) the facts to be therein entered, and (c) the manner in which the entries shall be attested.

The "Board"‖ may, from time to time, with the same sanction, alter such rules.

Presumption as to entries in settlement-record.

17. Every entry in such settlement-record duly made and attested shall, until the contrary is proved, be presumed to be a correct record of the fact entered.

Settlement to be deemed in progress until closing notified.

18. Every local area shall be held to be under settlement from the date of any notification published under section 14, and relating thereto, until the issue of another notification declaring settlement-operations to be closed therein.

Settlements now in progress brought under operation of Act.

Every local area under settlement at the time of the passing of this Act shall be held to be under settlement within the meaning of this section without the issue of either of the notifications prescribed by section 14.

Act XVII. of 1876.

Appointment and powers of Settlement Officers.

19. The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time,* appoint an officer to be in charge of the settlement of any local area and as many Assistant Settlement Officers as the Chief Commissioner thinks fit; and such officers shall exercise the powers conferred on them respectively under this Act, so long as such area is under settlement.

Power to invest Settlement Officers with powers of Civil Courts in certain cases.

20. In any local area in which a settlement of the land-revenue is in progress, the Chief Commissioner* may, by order, confer, on any officer making or controlling such settlement, the powers of a Civil Court of any specified grade for the purpose of trying suits and appeals, or any specified class of suits and appeals, relating to property in land assessed or assessable to revenue, in such district, and may revoke any such order; and, so long as such order remains in force, the jurisdiction of the Civil Courts of the same grade shall be excluded in respect of such suits and appeals.

Power to transfer cases from Settlement Officers to Civil Courts.

21. Notwithstanding the existence of any such order, the Chief Commissioner may from time to time direct that any cases pending before the Settlement Officers invested with the powers mentioned in section 19 shall be transferred to the ordinary Civil Courts of the district if the state of business in his opinion requires such transfer.

Trial of suit relating to land and to other property.

22. If a suit relating as well to such land as other property be instituted before any officer so invested, he shall make a reference regarding the disposal of such suit to the Commissioner of the Division in which the district wherein the suit was instituted is included, who shall determine by what Court the suit shall be tried.

Powers of Settlement Officers as to erection of boundary-marks and decision of disputes.

23. When any local area is under settlement, the Settlement Officer shall have power to call upon all proprietors, by proclamation to be stuck up in some conspicuous place in each village, to erect, within fifteen days from a date to be fixed in the proclamation, such boundary-marks as he may think necessary to define the limits of that village, or the mahâls or fields contained therein; and, in default of their compliance within the time specified in the notice, he may cause such boundary-marks to be erected, and he shall recover the cost of such erection from the proprietors as if it were an arrear of land-revenue.

In case of dispute concerning any boundary-marks, the Settlement Officer shall decide such dispute on the basis of possession, or may refer it to arbitration, for decision on the merits as provided for in sections 191 to 292, both inclusive.

Power of Settlement and Survey Officers to do necessary acts.

24. All Settlement Officers and all officers in charge of a survey made in connection with the revenue, and their assistants, servants, agents, and workmen, may do all acts necessary for any purpose connected with the settlement or survey, as the case may be.

---

* In ss. 19 and 20 the words "with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council," repealed by Act XIV. of 1878, s. 4, have here been omitted.

Act XVII. of 1876.

Power to require attendance of persons concerned, and production of documents.

25. The Settlement Officer may order all persons whose presence is in his opinion necessary for any of the purposes of this chapter to attend at any specified time and place, and to produce any written document in their possession or power; and all such persons shall be legally bound to obey such order.

With whom settlement to be made.

26. The settlement shall be made

(a) in the case of a taluqdárí mahál, with the taluqdár;

(b) in the case of other mahals, with the proprietor of the mahál; or if in any such mahál there are two classes of proprietors, superior and inferior, with either of such classes as the Chief Commissioner directs;

or if the taluqdár or proprietor has transferred possession of his mahál to a mortgagee or conditional vendee, then with such mortgagee or vendee.

Settlement of estate in possession of lunatic or minor.

If, at the time of settlement, a mahál, or any share thereof, be in the possession of a lunatic, minor, or other person incapable of making a contract, the settlement shall be made on his behalf with his guardian or with the manager of his property.

Power to make joint settlement with several proprietors or their representatives.

27. When several persons are in possession of a mahál, not being a taluqdárí mahál, the Settlement Officer shall have power to make a joint settlement with all such persons or with their representatives.

Framing and reporting general proposals of assessment.

28. The Settlement Officer shall, in accordance with the rules made under section 15, frame general proposals of assessment for any local area or any portion thereof regarding which a notification has been published under the first clause of section 14, and shall report such proposals through the Commissioner of the Division to the "Board."*

Detailed assessment and declaration thereof to persons concerned.

29. After the receipt of the orders of the "Board"* thereon, and subject to such orders, the Settlement Officer shall ascertain the amount of the assessment proper for each mahál in such area, and shall declare the same to the person with whom the settlement of such mahál is to be made.

If any mahál in any such area comprise two or more villages, or portions of villages, the Settlement Officer shall declare the assessment due on each of such villages or portions of villages, together with the aggregate amount of the assessment proper in his opinion for the whole mahál.

Such declaration shall be made on a date to be notified by proclamation at the tahsil in which such mahál is situate.

Effect of agreement to assessment proposed.

30. If the persons with whom the settlement of such mahál is to be made agree to the assessment so proposed, they and those (if any) whom they represent in interest shall become liable from the date of such agreement, or from such subsequent date as the "Board"* directs, to pay such assessment in respect of such mahál;

Act XVII. of 1876.

and in a mahál in which the land, or part of the land, is held in severalty, the Settlement Officer shall distribute such assessment on the lands so held.

Distribution of assessment.

31. In any mahál where, by the established custom, the land or the amount of revenue payable by each co-sharer is subject to periodical re-distribution or re-adjustment, the Settlement Officer may, on application of one or more of the co-sharers, enforce such re-distribution or re-adjustment according to such custom.

Enforcement of custom as to re-distribution of land and adjustment of revenue of shares.

32. If the person to be settled with be a taluqdár, and such taluqdár refuse to accept the assessment offered by the Settlement Officer in respect of his entire taluqá, or in respect of any portion thereof, or if, within thirty days from the date of the declaration by the Settlement Officer under section 29, such taluqdár fail to accept such assessment, the Settlement Officer shall report the case through the Commissioner of the Division " and the Board " * to the Chief Commissioner.

Exclusion of taluqdár declining or failing to accept settlement.

The Chief Commissioner, after hearing and considering the reasons which the taluqdár may have to urge against the assessment, may direct that the taluqdár so refusing or failing be excluded from the settlement of his entire taluqá, or of any portion thereof, for such term, not exceeding fifteen years from the date of such direction, as the Chief Commissioner shall fix; and the Settlement Officer or Deputy Commissioner shall either farm the taluqá or any portion thereof, or hold it under direct management during such term, or any part thereof: provided that no taluqdár shall be excluded from the settlement of his entire taluqá without the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council.

33. If a taluqdár be excluded from the settlement of any portion of his taluqá, and if such portion be held in sub-settlement by an under-proprietor, the farm of such portion shall be offered to such under-proprietor, on such terms as the Chief Commissioner may in each case direct.

Offer of farm to under-proprietor.

34. If such under-proprietor accept the assessment so offered, the taluqdár so excluded shall be entitled to an allowance, out of the profits of such portion, to be fixed by the Chief Commissioner, not exceeding the share of the gross assets, if any, to which he would have been entitled had he accepted the assessment.

Allowance to excluded taluqdár.

In other cases, the taluqdár so excluded shall (subject to the orders of the Chief Commissioner) be entitled to an allowance out of the profits of such portion, of not less than five or more than fifteen per cent. on the amount proposed to be assessed thereon.

35. In a mahál other than a taluqdárí mahál, if the person to be settled with refuse to accept the assessment offered by the Settlement Officer, or fail to accept such assessment within thirty days from the date of the declaration by the Settlement Officer under section 29, the Settlement Officer shall report the case through the Commissioner of the Division to the "Board," * and the "Board"* may direct that the person so refusing or failing be excluded from the settlement for such term, not exceeding fifteen years from the date of such direction, as the "Board"* thinks fit, and the Settlement Officer or the Deputy Commissioner may, with the previous sanction of the "Board"* either farm the mahál, or hold it under direct management during such term or any part thereof.

Exclusion of person declining or failing to accept settlement in a mahál.

Allowance to person excluded.

In such case the person so excluded shall be entitled (subject to the orders of the "Board"*) to an allowance out of the profits of the mahál, of not less than five or more than fifteen per cent. on the amount proposed to be assessed thereon.

Procedure in case of some of several proprietors refusing assessment.

36. If, in a mahál held on a pattídárí or imperfect pattídárí tenure, any of the co-sharers refuse or fail within thirty days from the date of the declaration by the Settlement Officer under section 29 to accept the proposed assessment, the shares of such co-sharers shall be dealt with under the provisions of section 35, and they shall receive an allowance, as provided in that section, in proportion to their respective shares in the mahál.

Farm of shares of proprietors refusing.

If the Settlement Officer farms any share in such mahál, the farm of such share shall be offered in the first instance to those co-sharers who have accepted the proposed terms.

Adjustment of rent of the sír land of proprietors of mahál farmed under section 35 or 36.

37. Any proprietor excluded from settlement under sections 35 and 36 shall be entitled to hold as a tenant with a right of occupancy so much of the land in the mahál actually cultivated by him as the Settlement Officer may determine, and the rent to be paid by such proprietor for such land during such exclusion shall be fixed by the Settlement Officer at the rate which would have been paid by a tenant-at-will for the said land less four annas in the rupee.

Amount of allowance to excluded proprietor, and of difference between rent fixed and rent payable by him if he were tenant-at-will.

38. The aggregate amount of any allowance assigned under section 35 or section 36 to any proprietor of a mahal who has been excluded from settlement, and of the difference between the rent fixed under section 37 and the rent which he would be liable to pay if he were a tenant-at-will, shall not be less than five or more than fifteen per cent. on the amount proposed by the Settlement Officer to be assessed on such mahál.

Offer of settlement to excluded proprietor on expiry of term of exclusion.

39. On the expiration of the term fixed under section 32 or section 35, the settlement of such mahál, portion, or share comprised therein, shall be offered by the Deputy Commissioner to the person then entitled to be settled with in respect of such mahál, portion, or share, at such assessment for the remainder of the term of settlement of the district, "as the Board or, in the case of a taluqdár, the Chief Commissioner may direct."*

Procedure on refusal.

And if such person refuse to accept the offer, the Deputy Commissioner shall report such refusal through the Commissioner of the Division "to the Board"† and such person may be excluded from settlement for such period, not exceeding the term of the settlement of the district, "as the Board or, in the case of a taluqdár, the Chief Commissioner may direct,"* and the provisions of sections 32 to 38 (both inclusive) shall, so far as may be applicable, apply to his case.

Determination of rent payable to proprietor.

40. The Settlement Officer shall, in accordance with the provisions of the Oudh Sub-settlement Act, 1866,‡ so far as they are applicable, determine the rent to be paid to the proprietor by all under-proprietors in a mahál, and by all holders of heritable, non-transferable leases, whose rent has not been fixed by contract.

When the rent is so determined, the co-sharers may at their option agree with the Settlement Officer that the rent shall be paid either by them collectively or by one of them on behalf of himself and the others. Whenever, whether before or after the passing of this Act, rent payable by such under-proprietors or lessees has been determined by a Settlement Officer or other competent authority, all the co-sharers shall be jointly and severally responsible for the payment to the proprietor of the rent so determined.

Nothing in this section applies to rent payable by a tenant with a right of occupancy.

Saving of liability for Government revenue.

41. All land shall be deemed liable to be charged with the payment of revenue to Government, unless some competent authority has declared it exempt from such payment. And no length of occupancy of any land, nor any grant of land made by the proprietor, shall release such land from such liability.

Enquiry into cases of land released from payment of revenue.

42. The Settlement Officer shall enquire into the case of all lands released, conditionally or for a term, from the payment of revenue, and shall assess such lands if it appear to him that the conditions have been transgressed, or the term has expired.

Confirmation of settlement.

43 § Every settlement shall be made subject to confirmation by the Chief Commissioner:

Provided that, in the case of settlements of individual mahals or parts of mahals, undertaken at other times than at the general settlement, and sanctioned by the Board, such confirmation shall not be necessary.

Period for which settlement is to be made.

44. The "Chief Commissioner"‖ shall, at some time before confirming the settlement, fix the period for which the settlement is to be made. Such period shall be fixed with reference to the agricultural year.

45. The assessment of any mahál may be revised at any time before it is confirmed by the "Chief Commissioner,"* and in such case the revised assessment shall be proposed to the proprietors of such mahál, and the provisions of sections 23 to 40 (both inclusive) shall apply.

Revision of assessment before confirmation.

Alteration of Assessment during the Currency of a Settlement.

46. The Deputy Commissioner shall enquire annually into the cases of all land released from the payment of revenue conditionally, or for a term, or for the life of the grantee.

Annual enquiry as to revenue-free grants.

If the condition be broken, he shall report the case through the Commissioner of the Division to the "Board "† for orders, and if the term has expired, or (where the grant is for the life of the grantee) if the grantee has died, the Deputy Commissioner shall assess the land comprised therein, and shall report his proceedings through the Commissioner of the Division to the "Board "† for sanction.

47. All land added by alluvion to a mahál is liable to assessment. Such land may be assessed and settled under rules to be framed under section 220.

Assessment of land added by alluvion.

48. Where such land is held by an under-proprietor or lessee whose rent has been fixed by a Settlement Officer, such rent shall be increased proportionately to the increase of revenue effected by such assessment.

Proportionate increase of rent payable by under-proprietor.

49. Where the revenue assessed on a mahál has, by order of the Chief Commissioner, been reduced, or been wholly or in part remitted or suspended, and the land on account of which the revenue has been so reduced, remitted, or suspended, is in the possession of an under-proprietor or lessee whose rent has been fixed by a Settlement Officer or other competent authority, the Chief Commissioner may declare that such under-proprietor or lessee shall be entitled (where the revenue has been reduced or remitted) to a proportionate reduction or remission of the rent payable by him in respect of such land, or (where the revenue has been suspended) to a suspension of the payment of such rent for the time during which the revenue has been so suspended, and such under-proprietor or lessee shall thereupon be entitled accordingly.

Proportionate reduction or remission of rent payable by under-proprietor or lessee.

50. Assessments under sections 46 and 47 shall be made by the Deputy Commissioner in the same manner and with the same powers as if he were an officer in charge of a settlement.

Deputy Commissioner to have powers of officer in charge of settlement.

51. At any time during the currency of a settlement, the Chief Commissioner may‡ invest any officer with all or any of the powers of an officer in charge of a settlement under this Act, within such limits, and with such restrictions, and for such period, as he thinks fit;

Power to invest officer with Settlement Officer's powers.

but not so as to enable him to enhance the total amount of revenue payable on account of any mahál, except in respect of land added thereto or becoming liable to payment of revenue since the confirmation of the settlement.

Resumption of Rent-free Grants.

52. All grants (whether in writing or otherwise) by proprietors, or the persons whom they represent, of land to be held exempt from the payment of rent or at a favourable rate of rent, are hereby declared to be liable to resumption, unless such grants have been sanctioned or confirmed by the Governor-General in Council or the Chief Commissioner:

Liability of rent-free grants to resumption.

Provided that, if such grants are held under a written instrument (whether executed before or after the passing of this Act) by which the grantor expressly agrees that the grant shall not be resumed, they shall be held valid against him (but not as against his representatives after his death) during the continuance of the settlement of the district in which the land is situate which was current at the date of the grant.

Grants under certain instruments.

53. Proprietors wishing to resume any grants mentioned in section 52, and made by themselves or the persons whom they represent, shall apply by petition to the principal Court of original civil jurisdiction of the district in which the land is situate for a declaration of the liability of the grant to resumption.

Application for declaration of such liability.

The Court shall cause notice of such application to be served on the grantee, and shall fix a day for hearing his objections (if any) to the declaration; and thereupon, after considering such objections (if any), may either dismiss the application with or without costs to be paid by the applicant, or declare that the grant is liable, in whole or in part, to resumption.

54. If the Court find that the grant has been made in consideration of the loss or surrender of a right previously vested in the grantee, but has not been sanctioned or confirmed as mentioned in section 52, the Court shall refer the case to the Chief Commissioner, who shall make such order in the case as he thinks fit.

Procedure where grant made in lieu of right, but not sanctioned or confirmed.

55. Nothing in section 52 or section 53 applies to either of the following cases:—

Exemptions from sections 52 and 53.

(a) where land is held rent-free under a judicial decision;

(b) where, previously to the passing of this Act, land held rent-free has been acquired for a valuable consideration, and the right to resume it has been barred by the law of limitation.

CHAPTER IV.—Registration, including the Preparation and Maintenance of Revenue-records.

56. The Deputy Commissioner of the district shall, on the basis of the settlement-record, and, in accordance with such rules as the "Board, with the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner,"* from time to time, prescribes in this behalf, prepare the following lists and registers:—

Lists and registers to be prepared by Deputy Commissioner.

* In s. 56, the words quoted have been substituted for the words "Chief Commissioner" by Act XX. of 1890, s. 23.

The pargana-register. (a) a list of all the villages in each pargana or tahsil of his district;

(b) a list of all the revenue-paying maháls in each pargana or tahsil, showing the revenue assessed on each mahál, and the name of the person responsible for its payment, whether as sole proprietor or as lambardár;

The málguzári register.

The khewat. (c) a register of all the co-sharers in each mahál, with the nature and extent of the interest of each co-sharer;

Register of sub-settled maháls with khewat. (d) a register of all maháls in which the rent of any under-proprietor or lessee has been fixed by the Settlement Officer, the names of all the co-sharers in such maháls, together with the nature and extent of the interest of such co-sharers;

Register of under-proprietary and other tenures. (e) for each mahál a list—

(1) of all under-proprietors and lessees whose rent has been so fixed, and of all tenants with a right of occupancy, with the nature and extent of the interest of each such person, and the rent (if any) which he is liable to pay therefor,

(2) of all other persons (if any) holding land free of rent, or revenue-free;

Register of revenue-free tenures. (f) a register—

(1) of all land in his district held revenue-free, with the names of the holders and the conditions of the grant under which they hold,

(2) of all land declared by competent authority to be waqf or nazul, or the property of the State;

The málikána register. (g) a register of all maháls on which a málikána allowance has been sanctioned by competent authority, with the names of the persons entitled to such allowance, the amount of such allowance, and the conditions under which it was given;

Register of jungle-grants. (h) a register of all jungle-grants, the names of the grantees, and the conditions of the grants.

57. In the preparation of the said lists and registers, the Deputy Commissioner shall correct any errors in the settlement-record which the parties interested admit to have been made therein; and any dispute arising regarding any entry in such record shall be investigated and decided on the basis of actual possession; and all persons not in possession, but claiming the right to be so, shall be referred to a Court of competent jurisdiction: Provided that, if the claim is founded on a decree of such Court, and if, when the claim is made, the decree is capable of execution, the entry shall be made in accordance with such decree.

Correction of errors in settlement-record.

Deputy Commissioner to keep lists and registers. 58. The Deputy Commissioner shall keep and maintain the said lists and registers, and he shall from time to time cause to be registered all events and transactions affecting any of the rights or interests recorded in the said registers, to such extent as the "Board, with the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner,"* may from time to time prescribe.

Forms of lists and registers.

59. The "Board, with the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner,"* shall prescribe the forms in which the lists and registers mentioned in section 56 are to be prepared, and the manner in which, the persons by whom, and the occasions on which, the alterations referred to in section 57 and section 58 are to be prepared.

Power to prescribe fees for mutations.

60. The Chief Commissioner may prescribe proper fees for alteration in the lists and registers formed under the said rules: Provided that no fee for a single alteration shall exceed one hundred rupees.

Levy of fees.
Fees how spent.

Such fee shall be levied from the person in whose favour the mutation is made, and shall be expended in such manner as the Chief Commissioner thinks fit.

Notice of transfer of possession.

61. All persons obtaining the possession of land or the profits thereof, whether by succession, purchase, or other form of transfer, as proprietors or under-proprietors, or as lessees whose rents have been fixed by a Settlement Officer, or as mortgagees, shall give notice of the same immediately after it has taken place to the tahsildár of the tahsil in which the mahál to which such land belongs is situated, or to the Deputy Commissioner of the district.

If the notification be made to the tahsildár, that officer shall report such notice to the Deputy Commissioner.

Enquiry as to truth of transfer.

62. The Deputy Commissioner, on receiving such notice or report, shall make such enquiry as the "Board, with the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner,"* may from time to time prescribe, to ascertain the fact of the alleged transfer of the property, and if the transfer appears to have taken place, he shall, subject to the rules framed by the "Board, with the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner,"* under section 220, record the same in the appropriate register:

Provided that no such entry shall be held to affect the rights of any other person who may claim and establish in any Court of competent jurisdiction any interest in the land to which the entry has reference.

Notification in case of minority or other disqualification.

63. If the person so succeeding is a minor or otherwise under disability, the guardian or other person who has charge of his property shall give the notice required by section 61.

Fine for neglect to notify.

64. Any person neglecting to give the notice prescribed in section 61 within three months from the date of the occurrence of the fact to be notified, shall be liable, at the discretion of the Deputy Commissioner, to a fine not exceeding five times the amount of the fee which would otherwise have been payable under section 60.

* In ss. 58, 59, and 62, the words quoted have been substituted for the words, "Chief Commissioner," by Act XX. of 1890, s. 23.

65. If, in the course of enquiry made under section 62, a dispute regarding the possession of the property arises, and the Deputy Commissioner is unable to satisfy himself as to which party is in possession, he shall entertain by summary enquiry who is the person primâ facie entitled to the property, and shall put such person in possession, and make the necessary entry in the record accordingly, subject to any order that may be subsequently passed by the Civil Court.

Power to put one party in possession in certain cases of dispute.

66. When any person obtains possession of land, or of the profits thereof, for any interest other than those referred to in section 61, the transfer of such possession shall be recorded in such manner as the "Board, with the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner,"* from time to time directs;

Registry of transfers of interests in land other than those referred to in section 61.

and all disputed cases shall be reported to the Deputy Commissioner, who shall make such enquiry as may be necessary to ascertain the fact of the alleged transfer, and cause the record to be amended accordingly.

Enquiry in disputed cases.

67. All registers prepared under the preceding sections of this chapter shall be deemed to be public documents and the property of Government, and shall be open to public inspection at such hours, and on such conditions as to fees or otherwise, as the "Board, with the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner,"* may from time to time prescribe.

Inspection of registers.

CHAPTER V.—Partition and Union of Mahals.

Partitions.

68. Partition is either perfect or imperfect.

'Perfect partition' means the division of a mahál into two or more mahals, severally responsible for the revenue assessed on each.

'Perfect partition.'

'Imperfect partition' means the division of any mahál, or of any portion of a mahál, into two or more portions jointly responsible for the revenue assessed on the whole mahál.

'Imperfect partition.'

69. Any recorded co-sharer in a mahál and any person in whose favour a decree has been passed by any Civil Court, awarding to him the proprietary right in a portion of a mahál, whether such portion consists of a fractional share in the whole or a part of the mahál, or of specific lands, is entitled to claim perfect partition of his share.

Persons entitled to perfect partition.

Any two or more recorded co-sharers may claim that their shares be divided from the other shares by a perfect partition, and be held by them as a single mahál.

If any recorded co-sharer be under disability, the person in possession of his property shall, for the purpose of this section, be deemed to be a recorded co-sharer.

* In ss. 66 and 67 the words quoted have been substituted for the words, "Chief Commissioner," by Act XX. of 1890, s. 23.

Act XVII. of 1876.

Application for perfect partition.

70. Applications for perfect partition are to be made in writing to the Deputy Commissioner of the district in which the mahál is situated; and shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the record, showing the share held by the applicant in the mahál:

Provided that, if the mahál be situated in two or more districts, the application may be made in any one of those districts, and the partition shall be made by such one of the Deputy Commissioners of those districts as the "Board"* may direct.

Provision as to estates situated in more than one district.

Notification of application.

71. The Deputy Commissioner, on receiving an application for partition, shall, if the application be in order, and not open to objection on the face of it, publish a notification of the same at his office, and at some conspicuous place in the mahál to which the application relates, and shall serve a notice on all such of the recorded co-sharers in the mahál as have not joined in the application, requiring any co-sharer in possession who may object to the partition to appear before him to state his objection, either in person or by a duly authorized agent, on a day to be specified in the notice, not less than thirty, or more than sixty, days from the date on which such notice was issued.

Notice to co-sharers not joining.

Notification when alone sufficient.

72. Where, from any cause, notice cannot be personally served on any co-sharer, the notification so published shall be deemed sufficient notice.

Power to refuse partition when objection admitted.

73. If, on or before the day so specified, any objection is made to the partition by any co-sharer in possession, and the Deputy Commissioner, on a consideration of such objection, is of opinion that there is any good and sufficient reason why the partition should be absolutely disallowed, he may refuse the application, recording the grounds of his refusal.

Procedure if question of title be raised.

74. If the objection raises any question of title, or of proprietary right, which has not been already determined by a Court of competent jurisdiction, the Deputy Commissioner may either decline to grant the application until the question in dispute has been determined by a competent Court, or he may proceed to enquire into the merits of the objection.

In the latter case the Deputy Commissioner, after making the necessary inquiry, and taking such evidence as may be adduced, shall record a proceeding declaring the nature and extent of the interests of the party or parties applying for the partition, and any other party or parties who may be affected thereby.

Procedure in such cases.

The procedure to be observed by the Deputy Commissioner in trying such cases shall be that laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure† for the trial of original suits, and he may, with the consent of the parties, refer any question arising in such case to arbitration, and the provisions of Chapter XXXVII.* (relative to arbitrators) of the same Code shall apply to such references.

Reference to arbitration.

75. All orders and decisions passed by the Deputy Commissioner under the last preceding section, for declaring the rights of parties, shall be held to be decisions of a Court of civil judicature of first instance, and shall be open to appeal under the provisions of the Oudh Civil Courts Act.†

Deputy Commissioner's decision equivalent to decision of Civil Court.

Appeal thereupon.

Upon such appeal being made, the Appellate Court may issue a precept to the Deputy Commissioner, desiring him to stay the partition pending the decision of the appeal.

Appellate Court may stay partition.

76. When it has been decided to make a partition under this chapter, the Deputy Commissioner shall either give the parties the option of making the partition themselves, or of appointing arbitrators for the purpose; or he shall make the partition himself, or cause it to be made by any Assistant Commissioner subordinate to him, and when made by an Assistant Commissioner, it shall be reported to the Deputy Commissioner for his confirmation.

Option to make partition themselves, or to appoint arbitrators.

Partition by arbitrators.

77. If arbitrators are appointed, the provisions of sections 191 to 202, both inclusive, shall apply.

In making a partition, arbitrators shall not be bound by the provisions of sections 80 to 83, both inclusive; but they shall deliver a full and complete paper of partition, specifying the separate mahâls into which they propose that the mahâl shall be divided; the names of the parties to whom the several mahâls are proposed to be allotted, and the amount of land-revenue which, in the opinion of the arbitrators, should be assessed on each of such mahâls.

78. In making partitions, the Deputy Commissioner, and any person appointed by him, shall have the same powers to enter on the land under partition, for marking out the boundaries, surveying the mahâl, and other purposes, as are conferred on Settlement Officers under this Act.

Power to enter on land for purposes of partition.

79. When a Deputy Commissioner has decided that a partition shall be made, he may, with the sanction of the Commissioner, hold the mahâl under direct management pending the completion of the partition.

Power to hold mahâl under direct management pending partition.

The provisions of the law in force for the time being for the management of mahâls held under direct management under section 119 for arrears of revenue shall be applicable to mahâls the management of which is assumed under this section.

The collections of the mahâl shall be applied to the payment of the Government revenue, and, after defraying the expenses of management and any other expenses with which the mahál is chargeable, the residue shall be divided amongst the recorded co-sharers, in proportion to their respective shares, at such periods as the Deputy Commissioner may see fit.

Partition of lands held only in severalty.

80. Where there are no lands held in common, the lands held in severalty by the applicant for partition shall be declared a separate mahál, and shall be separately assessed to the Government revenue.

Partition of lands some of which are held in common.

81. Where some of the lands are held in common, the Deputy Commissioner shall allot to the applicant for partition his share of such lands in accordance with village-custom, if any such exist.

If no such custom exist, the Deputy Commissioner shall make such division as may secure to the applicant his fair portion of the common lands.

Formation of separate mahálś from shares allotted in partition.

82. The portion of the common lands falling by such partition to the share of the applicant shall be added to the land held by him in severalty, and the mahálś thus formed shall be assessed and declared separate mahálś.

Transfers to be effectuated in making partition.

83. In making partitions under this Act, the Deputy Commissioner shall give effect to any transfer of lands held in severalty and forming part of the mahál, which has been agreed to by the parties previous to the declaration of the partition.

Partition where all lands held in common.

84. Where all the lands are held in common, the Deputy Commissioner shall make such a partition as may secure to the applicant his fair share of the mahál.

Estate to be compact.

85. In all cases each mahál shall be made as compact as possible: Provided that, except with the sanction of the "Board,"* no partition be disallowed solely on the ground of incompactness.

Rule when dwelling-house of one sharer is included in mahál assigned to another.

86. If in making the partition it be necessary to include, in the mahál assigned to one sharer, the land occupied by a dwelling-house or other building in the possession of another co-sharer, such other co-sharer shall be allowed to retain it, with the buildings thereon (if any) on condition of his paying a reasonable ground-rent therefor to the sharer into whose portion it may fall.

The limits of such land, and the rent to be paid for it, shall be fixed by the Deputy Commissioner.

Rule as to tanks, wells, water-courses, and embankments.

87. Tanks, wells, water-courses, and embankments, shall be considered as attached to the land for the benefit of which they were originally made.

Where, from the extent, situation, or construction of such works, it is found necessary that they should continue the joint property of the proprietors of two or more of the mahálś into which the mahál may be divided, the Deputy Commissioner shall determine the extent to which the proprietors of each mahál may make use of the said works, and the proportion of the charges for repairs of such works to be borne by such proprietors respectively, and the manner in which the profits, if any, derived from such works, shall be divided.

* In s. 85 the word "Board" has been substituted for the words "Chief Commissioner," by Act XX. of 1890, s. 15.

Rules as to places of worship and burial-grounds.

88. Places of worship and burial-grounds, held in common previous to the partition of a mahál, shall continue to be so held, unless the persons who so held them otherwise agree among themselves.

In such cases they shall state in writing the agreement into which they have entered, and such writing shall be filed with the record.

Determination of revenue payable by each division of a mahál.

89. In all cases, whether partition has been made by arbitrators or otherwise, the amount of revenue to be paid in respect of each portion of a mahál partitioned under this chapter shall be determined by the Deputy Commissioner, provided that the aggregate revenue payable in respect of the new mahals shall not exceed the revenue assessed on the mahál immediately before partition;

Liability of proprietors.

and the proprietor of each new mahál shall be held liable for the portion of the revenue assessed on his mahál, whether a new engagement be taken from him or not.

Power to stay partition.

90. If, at any stage of any proceedings under this chapter, there appears to be any reason for stopping the partition, the Deputy Commissioner may of his own motion, or on the report of the Assistant Commissioner making the partition, stay the partition, and order the proceedings to be quashed.

Order confirming partition.

91. A partition, whether made by the Deputy Commissioner himself or otherwise, shall not be deemed to be complete unless the Deputy Commissioner has made an order confirming it.

Notification of order.

On making such order, he shall publish a notification of the fact at his office, and at some conspicuous place in each of the new mahals,

Partition when to take effect.

and the partition shall take effect on and from the first day of July next after the date of such notification.

Appeal to Commissioner from orders of Deputy Commissioner.

92. An appeal against the decision of the Deputy Commissioner confirming a partition shall lie to the Commissioner of the Division within one year from the date on which such partition takes effect.

Power to order new allotment of revenue on proof of fraud or error in first distribution.

93. Where the land-revenue is fraudulently or erroneously distributed at the time of the partition, the Chief Commissioner may, within twelve years from the time of discovery of the fraud or error, order a new allotment of the land-revenue upon the several mahals into which the mahál has been divided, on an estimate of the assets of each mahál at the time of the partition, to be made conformably to the best evidence and information procurable respecting the same.

Making of imperfect partitions.

94. Imperfect partition shall be carried out according to the provisions of sections 69 to 92 (both inclusive) so far as they are applicable; Provided that no application for imperfect partition shall be entertained unless the consent of recorded co-sharers, holding in the aggregate more than one moiety of the property of which partition is sought, be first obtained.

Act XVII. of 1876.

Civil Courts barred from entertaining applications for partitions.

95. No Civil Court shall entertain any suit or application for perfect or imperfect partition.

Previous imperfect partitions and partitions of under-proprietary mahâls.

96. All imperfect partitions, and all partitions, perfect or imperfect, of under-proprietary mahâls, hitherto made, shall be deemed to have been made under the provisions of this Act.

Union of mahâls originally part of same village.

97. If two or more revenue-paying mahâls have originally formed portions of the same village, the proprietor shall be entitled to have such mahâls united, and to hold them as a single mahâl.

Application for such union.

98. Every application for the union of such mahâls shall be made in writing to the Deputy Commissioner of the district in which the mahâls are situate.

Application how dealt with.

If the Deputy Commissioner see no objection, he shall comply with the application, and cause the necessary entries to be made in the register of his office, reporting the case to the Commissioner of the Division.

Partition or union of revenue-free mahâls.

99. The provisions of this chapter, so far as they are applicable, may be applied by order of the Deputy Commissioner to the partition or union of mahâls held free of revenue.

Partition of taluqdârî and under-proprietary mahâls.

100. The partition of taluqdârî and under-proprietary mahâls, and of mahâls held by lessees whose rent has been fixed by the Settlement Officer or other competent authority, shall be carried out according to the provisions of sections 69 to 93 (both inclusive), so far as they are applicable.

Assignment of inferior mahâls.

(a) In the partition of taluqdârî mahâls, all mahâls, whether under-proprietary or held by lessees whose rent has been fixed by the Settlement Officer or other competent authority, shall, if practicable, be assigned to one or other of the new taluqâs to be formed by the partition ;

(b) if any such mahâl cannot be assigned in whole, the assignment shall be made by thoks, pattîs, or other existent sub-divisions ;

(c) and if no other satisfactory arrangement can be made, such mahâl shall be partitioned ;

(d) in cases in which one portion of any such mahâl is assigned to one taluqâ and another portion to another taluqâ, each portion shall be deemed a separate mahâl, the joint responsibility of the co-sharers being limited to such portion.

Objection to distribution of rental.

101. Whenever a partition of a mahâl, whether under-proprietary or held by lessees whose rent has been fixed as aforesaid, is effected under this Act, the amount of rent to be paid in respect of each portion shall be determined by the Deputy Commissioner, and the person to whom such rent is payable may present an application in writing to the Deputy Commissioner objecting to the distribution of the rental over the several parts into which the mahál has been divided, and praying that such objection may be heard and determined; and his objection shall be heard and determined, and the Deputy Commissioner shall record his reasons for such determination.

CHAPTER VI.—MAINTENANCE OF BOUNDARIES.

102. The Deputy Commissioner and his subordinates shall have power to enter upon and survey land, and to demarcate the boundaries of maháls, villages, and fields.

Power of Deputy Commissioner to enter and survey.

103. All owners of maháls, villages, or fields, are bound to maintain and keep in repair, at their own cost, the boundary-marks lawfully erected thereon.

Obligations of owners as to boundary-marks.

104. Any person convicted before a Deputy Commissioner of wilfully erasing, removing, or damaging any such boundary-mark, may be ordered by the convicting officer to pay such sum, not exceeding fifty rupees for each mark so erased, removed, or damaged, as may be necessary to defray the expense of restoring such mark, and of rewarding the informer (if any) through whom the conviction was obtained.

Payment for erasing, removing, or injuring marks.

105. Whenever the person erasing, removing, or damaging any such mark cannot be discovered, or if, for any other reason, the sum which he has been so ordered to pay cannot be recovered, the mark shall be re-erected or repaired at the charge of the owner or owners of such one or more of the conterminous fields* or maháls as to the Deputy Commissioner seems fit.

Who is to be charged for re-erection and repair when offenders not discoverable.

106. The Deputy Commissioner may decide, on the basis of possession, all disputes concerning boundaries, and may at any time direct the owners of maháls, villages, or fields, by written notice served upon them—

Powers of Deputy Commissioner as to boundary-disputes and boundary-marks.

(a) to cause proper boundary-marks to be erected in such maháls, villages, or fields,

(b) to repair the boundary-marks lawfully erected in such maháls, villages, or fields.

107. In default of compliance with such direction within fifteen days from the date of the service of the notice, the Deputy Commissioner shall cause such boundary-marks to be erected or repaired, as the case may be, and shall charge the cost of such erections or repairs to the owners of the conterminous maháls, villages, or fields in such proportion as he thinks fit.

Power to erect or repair boundary-marks.

CHAPTER VII.—COLLECTION OF THE LAND-REVENUE.

108. In the case of every mahál the entire mahál shall be charged with, and all the proprietors jointly and severally shall be responsible to Government for, the revenue for the time being assessed on the mahál.

Responsibility of proprietors of mahál for land-revenue.

* In s. 105 the word "fields" has been substituted for the word "field" by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. II.

Act XVII. of 1876.

The term "proprietors" shall, for the purposes of this chapter, include all persons in possession for their own benefit.

Chief Commissioner may make rules as to payment of revenue.

109. The "Board, with the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner,"* may, from time to time, make rules as to the instalments in which, and the persons, places, and times to whom and at which, the revenue payable in respect of any land shall be paid.

Payment until issue of rules.

110. Until the issue of such rules the said revenue shall be paid in the instalments, to the persons, and at the times and places in which, to whom, and at which, it is now paid.

Effect of non-payment.

111. Any sum not so paid becomes thereupon an arrear of revenue, and the proprietor responsible for it becomes a defaulter.

No interest shall be demanded on any arrear of land-revenue.

Defaulters in case of settlements with lambardárs.

112. If the settlement of any land has been made with a lambardár, and if there be an arrear of revenue due in respect of such land, both the lambardár and the co-sharers of the mahál from which the arrear is due shall be deemed defaulters.

Evidence of arrear.

113. A statement of account certified by the tahsildár shall, for the purposes of this chapter, be conclusive evidence of the existence of the arrear, of its amount, and of the person who is the defaulter.

Writ of demand.

114. When an arrear of land-revenue has accrued, a writ of demand or summons to appear may issue, calling on the defaulter to pay the amount within a time therein stated.

Arrest and detention of defaulter.

115. At any time after an arrear of land-revenue becomes due, "such officer as the Board from time to time empowers in this behalf, either by name or by virtue of his office,"† may arrest the defaulter, and detain him in custody for fifteen days, unless the arrear, together with the costs of arrest, is sooner paid.

Imprisonment in civil jail.

116. If the arrear be not paid within fifteen days, and no good reason for the non-payment is shown, the Deputy Commissioner may issue an order to the jailor of the civil jail of the district, directing him to confine the defaulter therein as a civil prisoner until the arrear is paid, or until the expiration of such period, not exceeding six months from the date of the order, as the Deputy Commissioner thinks fit; and such person shall be confined according to the terms of such order:

Provided that no person exempted under the law‡ for the time being in force from personal attendance in the Civil Courts, no taluqdár, and no female, shall be subject to arrest or imprisonment under this and the preceding section. Act XVII. of 1876.

117. The Deputy Commissioner may, whether the defaulter has been arrested and imprisoned or not, order the attachment and sale of so much of his moveable property as will, as nearly as may be, defray the arrear.

Attachment and sale of moveables.

Nothing herein contained shall authorize the attachment and sale of articles set aside exclusively for the use of religious endowments; or, in the case of an agriculturist, of instruments of husbandry and of cattle bonâ fide kept for the cultivation of his land; or, in the case of an artisan, of his tools; nor of any other articles exempted, by the law* for the time being in force, from sale in execution of decrees of Civil Courts.

118. Every attachment and sale ordered under the preceding section shall be conducted according to the law† in force for the time being for the attachment and sale of moveable property under the decree of a Civil Court.

Conduct of sale.

119. When an arrear of land-revenue has become due in respect of a share, pattí, or mahál, the Deputy Commissioner may, in addition to, or instead of, the processes hereinbefore specified, cause such share, pattí, or mahál to be attached and taken under the direct management of any agent whom he appoints for that purpose.

Property may be attached and taken under direct management.

For the purpose of managing the property so attached, the agents so appointed shall have all the rights, and be subject to all the liabilities, with respect to such property, of the person for whose default it was attached, until the arrears of land-revenue due therefrom have been satisfied, or until the Deputy Commissioner directs him to restore the person whose interest has been attached to the management thereof.

Powers and obligations of agent.

120. All surplus profits of the property so attached, after defraying thereout any instalment of land-revenue that may become due during such management, and the cost of such attachment and direct management, shall be applied to discharging the arrear of revenue on account of which it was ordered.

Application of surplus profits.

And no such management shall continue after such arrear has been discharged as aforesaid, and any surplus remaining after payment of the charges mentioned in the first clause of this section shall be handed over to the proprietor.

Termination of management.

121. If an arrear of land-revenue has become due in respect of the share of any member of a village-community, such community, or any member thereof, may tender payment of such arrear, or may offer to pay such arrear by instalments.

Transfer of share of defaulter to solvent co-sharers.

If such tender be made, or if the Deputy Commissioner considers such offer satisfactory, the Deputy Commissioner may transfer the share of the defaulting member to the community or member making the tender or offer, on such terms as the Deputy Commissioner thinks fit, and either for a term of years, or until such arrear is paid.

* See Act XIV. of 1882, s. 266.

† See Act XIV. of 1882, Ch. XIX.

Act XVII. of 1876.

In case of conflicting tenders or offers under this section, the co-sharer, who, in case the share were sold, would have a right of pre-emption under section 9 of the Oudh Laws Act,* shall be preferred.

When transfer of share is to become absolute.

122. If such share is so transferred until the arrear is repaid, and if the arrear is not repaid within twelve years from the date of the transfer, the community or member to whom the share has been so transferred may apply in writing to the Deputy Commissioner to publish a notification that, if the arrear is not paid within one year from the date thereof, such transfer will become absolute.

The Deputy Commissioner shall publish such notification accordingly, and if the arrear is not repaid before the expiration of one year from the date of the notification, the transfer to such community or member shall become absolute.

Procedure not to affect joint liability of co-sharers.

123. The procedure prescribed in the two preceding sections shall not affect the joint liability of the co-sharers of the mahál.

When settlement may be annulled.

124. When any arrear of land-revenue has become due in respect of any pattí or mahál, and the Deputy Commissioner is of opinion that the processes hereinbefore provided are not sufficient for the recovery of such arrear, he may, in addition to, or instead of, any such process, report, through the Commissioner of the Division, the matter to the "Board, and the Board, or, in the case of a taluq or part of a taluq,† the Chief Commissioner," may thereupon order the existing settlement of such pattí or mahál to be annulled.

Exception of certain arrears.

The provisions of this section shall not be put in force for the recovery of any arrear of land-revenue which may have accrued on land—

(a) while attached under section 119, or

(b) while in charge of the Court of Wards.

When settlement annulled, Deputy Commissioner may manage land himself, or by agent, or let it in farm.

125. When the settlement of any pattí or mahál has been annulled under the last preceding section, the Deputy Commissioner may, with the previous sanction of "the Board or, in the case of a taluq or part of a taluq, the Chief Commissioner,"‡ either manage the land by himself or an agent, or let it in farm to any person willing to accept the same, for such term and on such conditions as may be approved by "the Board or, in the case of a taluq or part of a taluq, the Chief Commissioner:"‡

Provided that the term for which a pattí or mahál may be so managed or let be not longer than fifteen years from the first day of July next after the date of such annulment.

Suspension of contracts.

And no interest in or right to such pattí or mahál or any part thereof, created or assigned by any person who, immediately before the annulment of the settlement, was in possession of the whole or any part of the land comprised therein, or by any person through whom he claims, shall, during the continuance of such term, be binding on the Deputy Commissioner or his agent or lessee.

‡ In s. 125, the words quoted have been substituted for the words, "the Chief Commissioner," by Act XX. of 1890, s. 26.

126. When the Deputy Commissioner attaches any land under section 119, or when the settlement of any land has been annulled under section 124, he shall make public proclamation thereof on the mahál.

Proclamation of attachment or annulment of settlement.

And he may realize all arrears of rent becoming due in respect of such land by under-proprietors or by lessees whose rent has been fixed by a Settlement Officer, as if they were arrears of land-revenue.

127. No payment made after such proclamation on account of rent or other profit of the land so attached, or of which the settlement has been so annulled, to any person other than the Deputy Commissioner or his agent or lessee, shall be credited to the person making such payment, or relieve him from liability to payment to the Deputy Commissioner, his agent, or lessee.

Payments thereafter to defaulter not to discharge payer.

128. No payment made to the defaulter in anticipation of the usual period for the payment of rents shall, without the special sanction of the Deputy Commissioner, be credited to the person making the same in account with the Deputy Commissioner, or with his agent or lessee.

Payments to defaulter in anticipation of due date.

129. When any land has been let in farm under section 125, any balance due by the lessee as such may be recovered from him or his surety (if any) as if it were an arrear of revenue.

Recovery of balance due by farmer.

130. Whenever the settlement of any portion of a mahál is annulled under section 124, the joint responsibility of the co-sharers of the mahál for the revenue of such portion subsequently becoming due, shall be in abeyance until a new settlement of such portion is made under section 131.

Suspension of responsibility of co-sharers for revenue of portion of mahál as to which settlement is annulled.

131. After the expiration of the period for which any land has been managed or let in farm under section 125, the Deputy Commissioner shall offer to the person entitled to be settled with under section 26 a new settlement, on such conditions as "the Board or, in the case of a taluq or part of a taluq, the Chief Commissioner"* may direct, for the remainder of the term of the settlement of the district; and if such person refuse such offer, the Deputy Commissioner may (with the previous sanction of "the Board or, in the case of a taluq or part of a taluq, the Chief Commissioner"*) either manage the land by himself or an agent, or let the same in farm, under the provisions of sections 30 to 38, both inclusive.

Offer of settlement to proprietor on expiry of period for which land is managed or farmed.

132. When an arrear of land-revenue has become due in respect of any pattí or mahál, and the Deputy Commissioner of the district is of opinion that the other processes hereinbefore provided are not sufficient for the recovery of such arrear, he may, in addition to, or instead of, all or any such other processes, and subject to the provisions next hereinafter contained, and with the previous sanction of "the Board or, in the case of a taluq or part of a taluq, the Chief Commissioner,"* sell by auction the pattí or mahál in respect of which such arrear is due:

Power to sell land to recover revenue-arrears.

---

* In ss. 131 and 132 the words quoted have been substituted for the words "the Chief Commissioner," by Act XX. of 1890, s. 26.

Act XVII. of 1876.

Provided that no pattí or mahál shall be sold—

(a) for any arrears of land-revenue which may have become due in respect thereof while it was under the management of the Court of Wards, or held under the provisions of the Oudh Taluqdárs' Relief Act,* or when the proprietor or under-proprietor thereof was, at the time the arrear accrued, a female deemed by the Chief Commissioner incompetent to manage her estate, a minor, an idiot, or a lunatic;

(b) for any arrears of land-revenue which may have become due while it was under attachment under section 119; or

(c) for any arrears of land-revenue which may have become due while it was under direct management by the Deputy Commissioner, or in farm by any other person, under section 32, 35, 125, or 131.

Land to be sold free of incumbrances.

133. Land sold under the last preceding section shall be sold free of all incumbrances, Grants and contracts void against purchaser.

and all grants and contracts previously made by any person other than the purchaser in respect of such land shall become void as against the purchaser at the auction-sale.

Exceptions.

Nothing in the former part of this section applies to leases of lands at fair rents, for the erection of dwelling-houses or manufactories, or for mines, gardens, tanks, canals, places of worship, or burying-grounds.

Power to direct sale to be made subject to incumbrances.

134. The Chief Commissioner may, notwithstanding anything contained in section 133, at any time before a sale of land for arrears of revenue has been actually made, direct it to be made subject to such of the interests in or rights to such land created by the proprietor in possession thereof, or any person through whom he claims, as the Chief Commissioner thinks fit.

Power to cancel restricted sale, and re-sell under section 133.

When the proceeds of a sale so made are not equal to the arrears due at the time of sale, the Chief Commissioner may, at any time before the Commissioner of the Division has confirmed the sale, direct it to be cancelled, and a new sale of the land to be made under section 133.

Power to proceed against defaulter's other immoveable property.

135. If the arrear cannot be recovered by any of the above processes and the defaulter is in possession of any other immoveable property, the Deputy Commissioner may proceed against such other property, as if it were the land on account of which the revenue is due under the provisions of this Act:

Provided that no interest save those of the defaulter alone shall be so proceeded against, and no incumbrances created or contracts entered into by him in good faith shall be rendered invalid by such proceeding.

Procedure in effecting sale.

136. On the receipt of the sanction of "the Board or, in the case of a taluq or part of a taluq,† the Chief Commissioner" to the sale of any land, the Deputy Commissioner of the district shall issue a proclamation, in the vernacular language of the district, of the intended sale, specifying the time and place of sale,

---

* See Vol. I, p. 863.

† In s. 136, the words quoted have been substituted for the words "the Chief Commissioner," by Act XX. of 1890, s. 26.

and (when the land to be sold is a mahál or part of a mahál paying revenue to Government) the revenue assessed upon it, together with any other particulars he may think necessary.

137. When the land is sold for arrears of revenue due in respect thereof, the proclamation shall declare that the land is to be sold free of every incumbrance except the leases mentioned in section 133, and except the interests and rights, if any, referred to in the first paragraph of section 134.

Contents of proclamation.

The particulars of such leases, interests, and rights shall be given in the proclamation.

Such proclamation shall be made at the head-quarters of the tahsil in which the land is situate, and also in the village of which it is a part.

138. A written notice of the intended sale, and of the time and place thereof, shall be affixed in the office of the Deputy Commissioner of the district, and where the Assistant Commissioner in charge of the sub-division in which the land is situate has a separate office, then also in such office, and a copy of such notice shall be served on the defaulter.

Notification of sale.

139. Every sale under this chapter shall be made either by the Deputy Commissioner of the district in person or by an Assistant Commissioner specially appointed by him in this behalf.

Sale by whom to be made.

No such sale shall take place on a Sunday or other authorized holiday or until after the expiration of at least thirty days from the date on which the said notice thereof has been affixed in the office of the Deputy Commissioner of the district, and proclamation of the sale has been made in the village in which the land is situate.

Time when sale may be made.

The Deputy Commissioner of the district may, from time to time, postpone the sale, reporting such postponement to the Commissioner of the Division.

140. If the defaulter pay the arrear of revenue, in respect of which the land is to be sold at any time before the day fixed for the sale, to the person appointed by Government under section 109 to receive payment of the revenue assessed on such land, or to the Deputy Commissioner of the district, or the Assistant Commissioner in charge of the sub-division of the district, the sale shall be stayed.

When sale may be stayed.

141. The person declared to be the purchaser shall be required to deposit immediately twenty-five per cent. on the amount of his bid, and in default of such deposit the land shall forthwith be again put up and sold.

Deposit by purchaser.
Re-sale in default of deposit.

142. The full amount of purchase-money shall be paid by the purchaser before sunset of the fifteenth day from that on which the sale of the land took place, or, if the said fifteenth day be a Sunday or other authorized holiday, then on the first office-day after such fifteenth day;

Purchase-money when to be paid.

and in default of payment within such period, the deposit, after defraying thereout the expenses of the sale, shall be forfeited to Government, and the property shall be resold, and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claim to the property, or to any part of the sum for which it may be subsequently sold.

Re-sale in case of default.

Act XVII. of 1876.

143. If the proceeds of the sale which is eventually made be less than the price bid by such defaulting purchaser, the difference shall be leviable from him under the rules contained in the Code of Civil Procedure* for the execution of a decree for money.

Liability of purchaser for loss by re-sale.

144. No re-sale under section 142 in default of payment of the purchase-money shall be made unless and until a fresh notice has been issued in the manner prescribed for the original sale.

Notification before re-sale.

145. At any time within thirty days from the date of the sale, application in writing may be made to the Commissioner of the Division to set aside the sale on the ground of some material irregularity or mistake in publishing or conducting it.

Application to set aside sale.

146. No sale shall be set aside on such ground unless the applicant proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that he has sustained substantial injury by reason of the irregularity or mistake complained of.

When sale may be set aside.

147. After the expiration of the said thirty days, if no such application as is mentioned in section 145 has been made, or if such application has been made and rejected, the Commissioner of the Division shall make an order confirming the sale; and if such application be made and allowed, the Commissioner shall make an order setting aside the sale.

Every order made under this section shall be final.

Order confirming or setting aside.

148. If no such application be made within the time allowed by section 145, all claims founded on the irregularity or mistake complained of shall, as against the Government, be barred.

Bar of claims against Government.

Nothing herein contained shall preclude the institution of a suit in a Civil Court for the purpose of setting aside a sale on the ground of fraud.

149. Whenever the sale of any land is set aside, the purchaser shall be entitled to receive back his purchase-money, with or without interest, at such rate, not exceeding six per cent. per annum, as the Commissioner of the Division thinks fit.

Refund of purchase-money when sale set aside.

150. After a sale of land in respect of which an arrear of revenue is due has been confirmed in manner aforesaid, the Deputy Commissioner of the district shall, unless the purchase has been made subject to a right of some other person to possession, put the person declared to be the purchaser into possession of the land, and shall grant him a certificate, to the effect that he has purchased the land to which the certificate refers, and such certificate shall be deemed to be a valid transfer of such land, but need not be† registered as a conveyance.

On confirmation of sale, purchaser to be put in possession.

---

* This reference should now be read as applying to Act XIV. of 1882.—See s. 3 of that Act.

† In s. 150, the words, "stamped or," repealed by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. I., have here been omitted.

If the land has been sold on account of an arrear of revenue due in respect thereof, the certificate shall also either state that the purchaser has purchased the land to which the certificate refers free of every incumbrance other than the leases mentioned in section 133, or shall specify the incumbrances subject to which the land has been sold.

Bar of suit against certified purchaser.

151. The certificate shall state the name of the person declared at the time of sale to be the actual purchaser; and any suit brought in a Civil Court against the certified purchaser on the ground that the purchase was made on behalf of another person not the certified purchaser, though by agreement the name of the certified purchaser was used, shall be dismissed with costs.

Application of proceeds of sale.

152. When a sale of land has been confirmed under section 147, the proceeds of the sale shall be applied in the first place to defraying the expenses of sale and to the payment of any arrears due in respect of such land at the date of the confirmation of such sale and recoverable as an arrear of land-revenue, and the surplus (if any) shall be paid to the person whose land has been sold;

or, if the land sold were held in shares, then to the co-sharers collectively, or according to the amount of their recorded interests, at the discretion of the Deputy Commissioner of the district.

Surplus not to be paid to creditors, nor retained by Government, except under order of Court.

153. Such surplus shall not (except under an order of a Civil Court) be payable to any creditor of the person whose land has been sold, nor shall it (except under a like order) be retained in the Government treasury.

Liability of purchaser for revenue.

154. The person named in the certificate of title as purchaser of any land shall be liable for all instalments of land-revenue becoming due in respect of such land subsequently to the date of the confirmation of the sale.

Pre-emption by co-sharers when land sold is a pattí of a mahál.

155. Where any land sold under section 132 is a pattí of a mahál, any recorded co-sharer, not being himself in arrear with regard to the revenue due in respect of such land, may, if the lot has been knocked down to a stranger, claim to take the said land at the sum last bid:

Provided that such claim be made on the day of sale, and before the officer conducting the sale has left the office for the day, and provided that the claimant fulfil all the other conditions of the sale.

Payment under protest and suit for recovery.

156. Whenever proceedings are taken under this chapter against any person for the recovery of any arrear of revenue, he may pay the amount claimed under protest to the officer taking such proceedings, and upon such payment the proceedings shall be stayed, and (subject to the pecuniary limitations prescribed by law) the person against whom such proceedings were taken may sue the Government for the amount so paid in any Civil Court situate in the district where such proceedings were taken;

and in such suit, the plaintiff may, notwithstanding section 113, give evidence of the amount which he alleges to be due from him.

Act XVII. of 1876.

157. Any proprietor or under-proprietor of a mahál or portion of a mahál, that is attached, transferred, held under direct management, farmed, or sold under the provisions of this Act, who may, at the date of the order of such attachment, transfer, direct management, farm, or sale, hold any land within such mahál or portion of a mahál in his cultivating occupancy, shall be deemed to be a tenant with a right of occupancy in respect of so much of such land as the Deputy Commissioner may determine, and the rent to be paid by him for such land shall be fixed by the Deputy Commissioner under the provisions of the Oudh Rent Act, 1886.*

Proprietor of mahál when to be deemed a tenant with right of occupancy.

158. Whenever a mahál or pattí is held in sub-settlement, or under a heritable, non-transferable lease, the rent payable under which has been fixed by the Settlement Officer or other competent authority, and the rent of such mahál or pattí falls into arrear, the proprietor, instead of suing the defaulter under the Oudh Rent Act, 1886,* may, within the period limited for such a suit, apply in writing to the Deputy Commissioner requesting him to realize such arrear.

Assistance to recover rent of mahál held in sub-settlement.

The Deputy Commissioner shall, on receipt of such application, satisfy himself as to the existence of such arrear, and shall then, subject to such rules as may from time to time be made in this behalf "by the Board"† proceed to recover such arrear as if it was an arrear of revenue.

If, in addition to or in lieu of the other remedies applicable to the recovery of arrears of revenue, the Deputy Commissioner thinks it necessary or expedient to annul the sub-settlement of any such mahál or pattí, he shall refer the case with his opinion thereon "to the Board, and the Board may thereupon annul the existing sub-settlement of such mahál or pattí for such period (not exceeding fifteen years) as it thinks fit;"‡ and the new sub-settlement to be made on the expiration of such period shall be made in accordance with the provisions of section 40 and (so far as is practicable) with those of section 131.

159. If the term for which any settlement has been made expires before a new settlement is made, all persons with whom a settlement has been made, who continue after the expiration of such term to occupy the land comprised in the expired settlement, shall, until a new settlement is made, hold the said land upon the conditions of the expired settlement.

Tenure of land under expired settlement until new settlement is made.

160. The provisions of this Act with regard to the recovery of arrears of revenue shall apply to all arrears of land-revenue and sums of money recoverable as arrears of land-revenue and due when this Act comes into force.

Provisions applied to arrears due at commencement of Act.

CHAPTER VIII.—COURTS OF WARDS.

Act XVII. of 1876.

Board to be Court of Wards.

161. "The Board shall be the Court of Wards" * for the superintendence of the persons and property of all persons who may become entitled as proprietors or under-proprietors, or lessees whose rent has been fixed by a Settlement Officer, to any beneficial interest in a mahál or portion of a mahál assessed to the payment of land-revenue or held free of revenue, and who are either disqualified for the management of their own estates or are committed by a Civil Court to the care of the Deputy Commissioner:

Bar of jurisdiction in certain cases.

Provided that the Court of Wards shall not take charge of or administer any beneficial interest in an estate, in which more persons than one have a joint undivided interest, unless all such persons are so circumstanced as to be subject to the Court of Wards.

Persons when disqualified to manage their estates.

162 Persons shall be held to be disqualified to manage their own estates when they are—

(a) females deemed by the Chief Commissioner incompetent to manage their estates,

(b) minors,

(c) idiots,

(d) lunatics,

(e) persons who may, in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner, be otherwise rendered incapable by physical defects or infirmities from managing their estates,

(f) persons convicted of a non-bailable offence, and disqualified, in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner, by vice or bad character, from managing their estates, (g) persons declared by the Chief Commissioner on their own application to be disqualified from managing their estates.

Report by Deputy Commissioner as to disqualified proprietors.

163.† (1) The Deputy Commissioner shall, from time to time, inquire whether there are in his district any persons disqualified within the meaning of section 162, and shall report to the Court of Wards the case of any person who is, in his opinion, so disqualified.

(2) On receipt of the report the Court of Wards shall make such order in the case as it thinks fit.

(3) Nothing in this section shall prevent the Chief Commissioner or the Court of Wards from putting the provisions of this chapter in force without any report from the Deputy Commissioner.

Jurisdiction of Court of Wards.

164. The Court of Wards may assume or refrain from assuming the superintendence of the person or property of any disqualified person, and may at any time release any person or property from its superintendence: Provided that such person or property has not been placed under the Court of Wards by any competent authority whose order is necessary to his or its release.

† S. 163 has been substituted by Act XX. of 1890, s. 29.

Act XVII. of 1876.

Report to Chief Commissioner when right of Court of Wards is disputed by persons other than those specially provided for.

165. If, in any case not specially provided for by this or any other law for the time being in force, the right of the Court of Wards to assume or retain the superintendence of the estate of a disqualified person is disputed by such person, the case shall be reported to the Chief Commissioner, whose orders thereon shall be final.

Extent of jurisdiction.

166. The jurisdiction of the Court of Wards shall extend to the care and education, and to the management of the property, of the persons subject thereto.

Appointment, removal, and control of guardians.

167. The Court of Wards may appoint managers of the property of disqualified proprietors, and if such proprietors be minors, idiots, or lunatics, may appoint guardians for the care of their persons, and may remove and control such managers and guardians.

Power of proprietors to appoint guardians for disqualified heirs.

168. Proprietors may appoint guardians for their heirs, if disqualified, by will executed and attested in manner required in case of taluqdárs by Act No. I. of 1869,* and in case of other proprietors by the Indian Succession Act, 1865;† but the Court of Wards shall be competent to remove such guardian for any sufficient reason.

Power of Court of Wards as to residence of minors under its jurisdiction.

169. The Court of Wards may direct where all male minors under its jurisdiction shall reside for the purpose of education or otherwise.

Powers of manager.

170. The manager appointed by the Court of Wards shall have power to collect the rents of the land entrusted to him, as well as all other money due to the disqualified proprietor, and to grant receipts therefor; and he may, subject to the control of the Court, grant or renew such leases and farms, not being for a longer period than five years, as may be necessary for the good management of the property.

Duties of manager.

171. The manager shall manage the property committed to him diligently and faithfully for the benefit of the proprietor, and shall in every respect act to the best of his judgment for the proprietor's interest as if the property were his own.

Power of Court of Wards as to land under its charge.

172. The Court of Wards shall have power to give such leases or farms of the whole or parts of the immoveable property under its charge, and to mortgage or sell any part of such property, and to do all such other acts as it may judge to be most for the benefit of the property, and the advantage of the disqualified proprietors.

Disabilities of persons subject to Court of Wards.

173. Persons whose property is under the superintendence of the Court of Wards shall not be competent to create, without the sanction of the Court, any charge upon or interest in such property or any part thereof.

---

* See Vol. I., p. 710.

† See Vol. I., p. 521.

Act XVII. of 1876.

Their property exempt from being taken in execution of certain decrees.

174. No such property shall be liable to be taken in execution of a decree made in respect of any contract entered into by any such person while his property is under such superintendence.

Suits by and against disqualified proprietors in charge of Court of Wards.

175. All disqualified proprietors, whose property is in charge of the Court of Wards, shall sue and be sued by and in the name of their guardians where guardians have been appointed:

Provided that no such suit shall be maintained or defended by any guardian without the sanction of the Court of Wards.

Suits by such proprietors when no guardian appointed.

176. If no such guardian has been appointed, the disqualified proprietors shall sue and be sued by and in the name of "the Deputy Commissioner of the district, in which the suit is brought, or by and in the name of such officer as the Court of Wards may appoint in this behalf." *

Rules relating to managers.

177. Every manager appointed by the Court of Wards shall—

(a) give such security as the Court of Wards thinks fit, duly to account for what he shall receive in respect of the rents and profits of the property for which he is appointed;

(b) pass his accounts at such periods and in such form as the Court of Wards directs;

(c) pay the balance due from him thereon;

(d) apply for the sanction of the Court of Wards to any act which may involve the property in expense not previously sanctioned by such Court;

(e) be entitled to such allowance, as the Court of Wards thinks fit, for his care and pains in the execution of his duties;

(f) be responsible for any loss occasioned to the property by his wilful default or gross negligence.

Power for Court of Wards to exercise powers through Deputy Commissioners or others.

177A.† The Court of Wards may exercise all or any of the powers conferred on it by this Act through the Deputy Commissioners of the districts in which any part of the property of its wards may be situated or through any other person whom it may appoint for such purpose.

CHAPTER IX.—Powers of Officers.

A.—Powers of Assistant Commissioners.

Powers of Assistant Commissioners in charge of sub-divisions.

178. An Assistant Commissioner in charge of a sub-division shall as such have the following powers:—

(a) to refer cases for inquiry or decision to his subordinates,

(b) to withdraw cases from his subordinates, and to deal with them himself, or to refer them for disposal to any other subordinate officer competent to deal with them;

* In s. 176, the words quoted have been substituted for the words, "the Court of Wards," by Act XX. of 1890, s. 30.

† S. 177A has been inserted by Act XX. of 1890, s. 31.

Act XVII. of 1876.

(c) to order changes in the proprietary register;

(d) to levy fees for mutations;

(e) to receive notices of, and to enquire into, cases of reported transfers;

(f) to levy fines, under section 64;

(g) to declare the person best entitled to property, and put him in possession, under section 65;

(h) to enquire into and dispose of disputes under section 66;

(i) to report on revenue-free holdings, and to assess revenue on resumed grants;

(j) to assess alluvial lands;

(k) to receive applications for and make partitions under Chapter V. of this Act, subject to the confirmation of the Deputy Commissioner of the district;

(l) to impose fines for injuries to boundary-marks, and in certain cases apportion the charges of re-erecting and repairing boundary-marks;

(m) to call on owners to erect or repair boundaries, and, in default, to erect and repair, and charge the cost to owners, and to decide disputes regarding boundaries;

(n) to attach and sell moveable property of defaulters under section 117;

(o) to fix, under section 157, the area of the land to be held as a tenant with right of occupancy and the rent to be paid for it by proprietors of mahâls which have been attached, transferred, held under direct management, farmed, or sold, under the provisions of this Act, for land in their cultivating occupancy;

(p) [Repealed by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. I.]

Powers of Assistant Commissioners of first class not in charge of sub-divisions.

179. Assistant Commissioners of the first class, not in charge of sub-divisions of districts, shall exercise all or any of the powers conferred on Assistant Commissioners of the first class in charge of sub-divisions, in such cases or class of cases as the Deputy Commissioner of the district may, from time to time, refer to them for disposal.

Powers of Assistant Commissioners of second class.

180. All Assistant Commissioners of the second class shall have power to investigate and report on such cases as the Deputy Commissioner of the district or Assistant Commissioner in charge of a sub-division of a district may, from time to time, commit to them for investigation and report.

B.—Powers of Settlement Officers.

Powers of officers in charge of a settlement.

181. Officers in charge of a settlement may exercise all the powers conferred by or under this Act on Settlement Officers, and by section 10 on the Deputy Commissioner of the district, but none but an officer in charge of a settlement or an Assistant Settlement Officer especially empowered by the Chief Commissioner shall have power—

(a) to frame proposals for assessment;

(b) to distribute the assessment;

(c) to re-distribute land or revenue under section 31;

(d) to determine the rent payable under section 40 by under-proprietors or lessees;

(e) to exclude proprietors from settlement for refusal to engage;

(f) to adjust the rent of excluded proprietors;

(g) to resume and assess revenue-free land.

Powers of Assistant Settlement Officers.

182. All other powers conferred on Settlement Officers by this Act shall be exercised by Assistant Settlement Officers, under such restrictions as the officer in charge of a settlement may from time to time impose.

Investing of Settlement Officers with powers of Deputy Commissioner and Assistant Commissioner.

183. The Chief Commissioner may* invest any officer in charge of a settlement with all or any of the powers of a Deputy Commissioner under this Act, and any Assistant Settlement Officer with all or any of the powers conferable on an Assistant Commissioner under this Act, within such limits, and with such restrictions, and for such period, as he thinks fit.

CHAPTER X.—APPEALS.

Officers to whom appeals lie.

184. Appeals shall lie under this Act as follows:—

(a) to the "Board,"† from any order passed by a Commissioner, except such orders as are made on appeal from orders passed by Deputy Commissioners in the exercise of their appellate jurisdiction;

(b) to the Commissioner, from orders original or appellate, passed by Deputy Commissioners or officers in charge of a settlement in any proceeding held under the provisions of this Act;

(c) to the Deputy Commissioner, from orders passed by any Assistant Commissioner;

(d) to the officer in charge of a settlement, from orders passed by an Assistant Settlement Officer.

Limitation of appeals.

185. No appeal under section 184, clauses (c) and (d), shall be brought after the expiration of thirty days from the date of the order complained of.

No appeal under the same section, clause (b), shall be brought after the expiration of six weeks from the date of the order complained of, unless otherwise specially provided.

No appeal under the same section, clause (a), shall be brought after the expiration of two months from the date of the order complained of.

Time to be excluded.

186. In computing the period prescribed for an appeal under this chapter, the day on which the order complained of was passed, and the time requisite for obtaining a copy of such order, shall be excluded.

---

* In s. 183 the words "with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council," repealed by Act XIV. of 1878, s. 4, have here been omitted.

† In s. 184 the word "Board" has been substituted for the words, "Chief Commissioner," by Act XX. of 1890, s. 15.

Act XVII. of 1876.

Admission of appeal after period of limitation.

187. Any appeal under this chapter may be admitted after the period of limitation prescribed therefor, when the appellant satisfies the officer to whom he appeals that he had sufficient cause for not presenting the appeal within such period.

No appeal shall lie against an order under this section admitting an appeal.

Procedure on admitting appeal.

188. The officer to whom the appeal lies may either admit or summarily reject the appeal. If he admit the appeal, he may reverse, modify, or confirm the order appealed against, or he may direct such further investigation to be made, or such additional evidence to be taken, as he may think necessary, or he may himself take such additional evidence.

Suspension of order appealed against.

189. In every case in which an appeal is admitted, the execution of the order appealed may, pending the result of the appeal, be suspended.

Power to call for files of subordinate officers.

190.* The Board and every Commissioner may call for the file of any proceeding held by any officer subordinate to it or him respectively, and may pass such orders thereon as it or he thinks fit.

CHAPTER XI.—REFERENCE TO ARBITRATION.

Power to refer disputes to arbitration.

191. The "Board,"† a Commissioner of a Division, a Deputy Commissioner, an Assistant Commissioner of the first class, an officer in charge of a settlement, or an Assistant Settlement Officer, may, with the consent of the parties, by order, "refer any dispute before it or him"‡ to arbitration; and any officer acting under the provisions of sections 102 to 107, both inclusive, may, with the consent of the parties, refer to arbitration any dispute arising before him respecting the matters mentioned in the same sections.

What to be specified in order of reference.

192. In referring any such dispute to arbitration, the officer making the reference shall specify, in the order of reference, the precise matter submitted to the arbitrators, and such period as he may think reasonable for the delivery of the award; and he may from time to time extend such period.

Appointment of arbitrators.

193. The parties to the case may each nominate either one or two arbitrators, provided that each party shall nominate the same number;

and a third or fifth arbitrator (as the case may be) shall be appointed by the parties, or, in the event of their being unable to agree, by the officer making the reference.

Power to excuse arbitrator from serving, and to call for nomination of substitute.

194. Every officer making a reference under this chapter may, on good cause shown, excuse any person from serving as an arbitrator, and may call on the party who nominated such person to nominate another in the place of the person so excused.

---

* S. 190 has been substituted by Act XX. of 1890, s. 32.

† In s. 191, the word quoted has been substituted for the words, "Chief Commissioner," by Act XX. of 1890, s. 33.

‡ In s. 191, the words quoted have been substituted for the words, "refer any dispute before him," by Act XX. of 1890, s. 33.

Nomination of new arbitrator in place of one dying or failing to act.

195. If an arbitrator die, desire to be discharged, or refuse or become incapable to act, the party who nominated him shall nominate another person in his place.

Nomination by officer when parties fail.

196. If in any of the cases provided for by section 194, or section 195, any party fail for a week to nominate in manner aforesaid, the officer making the reference shall appoint some person to act as arbitrator.

Award.

The arbitrators shall determine and award concerning the matters referred to them for arbitration; and the parties disputing, and all persons claiming through them, respectively, shall abide by and perform the award of the arbitrators.

Summoning parties to give evidence.

197. If the arbitrators require the presence of the parties, or any other persons whose evidence may be necessary, they shall apply to the officer making the reference, who shall summon such parties or persons;

Obligation of persons summoned.

and all such parties or persons shall be bound to attend, either in person or by agent, as the arbitrators may require, and to state the truth as to the subject-matter of the reference, and to produce such documents and other things as may be required before the arbitrators.

Preparation and submission of award.

198. The award shall be made in writing under the hands of the arbitrators, and shall be submitted by them to the officer making the reference, who shall cause notice to be served on the parties to attend and hear the award.

In what cases award or subject of arbitration may be remitted to arbitrators.

199. The officer making the reference may remit the award or any of the matters referred to arbitration to the re-consideration of the same arbitrators,

(a) if the award has left undetermined some of the matters referred to arbitration, or if it determine matters not referred to arbitration;

(b) if the award is so indefinite as to be incapable of execution;

(c) if an objection to the legality of the award is apparent upon the face of the award.

Grounds on which award may be set aside.

200. No award shall be liable to be set aside except on the ground of corruption or misconduct of all or any of the arbitrators.

Application to set aside.

Any application to set aside an award shall be made within ten days after the day appointed for hearing the award.

Decision according to award.

201. If the officer making the reference does not see cause to remit the award or any of the matters referred to arbitration for re-consideration in the manner aforesaid; and if no application has been made to set aside the award, or if he has refused such application, he shall decide in accordance with the award of the majority of the arbitrators, and shall fix the amount to be allowed for the expenses of the arbitration, and direct by and to whom, and in what manner, the same shall be paid.

Act XVII. of 1876.

Bar to appeal any suit in Civil Court.

202. Such decision shall not be open to appeal, and shall be at once carried out; and no Civil Court shall entertain any suit for the purpose of setting it aside, or against the arbitrators on account of their award.

CHAPTER XII.—OF PATWARIS.

203 to 215. [Repealed by Act XIII. of 1882.]

CHAPTER XIII.—MISCELLANEOUS.

Place for holding Court.

216. Subject to the orders of the Chief Commissioner,

(a) a Commissioner may hold his Court at any place within his division that he thinks fit:

(b) a Deputy Commissioner, an Assistant Commissioner (whether in charge or not of a sub-division of a district), or an officer in charge of a settlement or Assistant Settlement Officer, may hold his Court at any place within the limits of the district to which he is appointed; and (c) a Tahsildár may hold his Court at any place within the limits of his tahsil.

Power to summon persons to give evidence and produce documents.

217.* The Board and any officer mentioned in the last preceding section may summon any person whose attendance it or he considers necessary for the purpose of any investigation, suit, or other business before it or him.

All persons so summoned shall be bound to attend, either in person or by authorized agent, as the Board or such officer may direct, and to state the truth upon any subject respecting which they are examined, and to produce such documents and other things as may be required.

Conduct of proceedings.

218. All proceedings held under the provisions of this Act shall be conducted according to the rules for the time being prescribed under section 220.

Matters excepted from cognizance of Civil Courts.

219. No Civil Court shall exercise jurisdiction over any of the following matters:—

(a) the claim of any person to be settled with, or the validity of any engagement with Government for the payment of revenue, or the amount of revenue, cess, or rate to be assessed on any mahál, or portion of a mahál, under this or any other Act for the time being in force, or the rent to be paid to a proprietor by an under-proprietor or a lessee whose rent has been fixed by the Settlement Officer:

(b) any claims connected with or arising out of any process enforced on account of neglect or refusal to accept the assessment or terms of sub-settlement proposed by the Settlement Officer:

* In s. 217, the first two paragraphs have been substituted by Act XX. of 1890, s. 34, for those originally enacted.

(c) the formation of the settlement-record, the preparation, signing, or attestation of any of the documents contained therein, or

Act XVII. of 1876.

the notification of settlement:

(d) the distribution, on partition, of the land or allotment of the revenue of a mahál, or of the rent of an under-proprietary tenure, or of rent payable by lessees whose rent has been fixed by a Settlement Officer:

(e) the determination of the rent to be paid by any person under section 86:

(f) claims connected with, or arising out of, the collection of revenue or any process enforced on account of an arrear of revenue, or on account of any sum which is by this or any other Act realizable as revenue, other than claims under section 156:

(g) claims to set aside a sale for arrear of revenue, other than claims under section 148.

In all the above cases, jurisdiction shall rest with the revenue officers only.

Power to make rules for purposes of Act.

220. The "Board, with the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner,"* may, from time to time,† make and issue rules consistent with this Act, and relating to the following matters:—

(a) the qualifications, appointment, duties, remuneration, punishment and dismissal of—

(1) tahsildárs,

(2) lambardárs or representatives of village-communities,

(3) kanúngos or superintendents of revenue-records;

(b) for regulating the assessment of land gained by alluvion or the reduction of the assessment of a mahál in consequence of diluvion;

(c) the procedure to be followed by any officer or other person who, under any provision of this Act, is required or empowered to take action in any matter;

(d) the person by whom, and the time and manner at or in which, anything, for the doing of which provision is hereinbefore made in this Act, shall be done;

(e) the form and contents of reports to be furnished by officers required or empowered to take action in any matter, and the period within which such reports shall be furnished;

(f) the form and contents of the registers and lists kept under this Act;

(g) the mode of recovering arrears of rent under section 158, the extent to which they may be recovered, and the amount which may be retained by the Deputy Commissioner to defray the expenses of such recovery;

(h) the cases in which taluqdárí mahals and mahals, whether under-proprietary or held by lessees whose rents have been fixed by the Settlement Officer or other competent authority, may be partitioned under this Act;

* In s. 220, the words quoted have been substituted for the words, "Chief Commissioner," by Act XX. of 1890, s. 23.

† In s. 220, the words, "with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council," repealed by Act XIV. of 1878, s. 4, have here been omitted.

Act XVIII. of 1876.

(i) the costs of partitions under this Act and the persons by whom they are to be paid, and the mode of enforcing such payment against such persons or their shares in the property of which partition has been made;

(j) the issue, under section 114, of writs of demand or summons to appear, and the costs recoverable from the defaulter, and the officer by whom such writs and summonses shall be issued;

(k) and generally to carry out the provisions of this Act.

Recovery of fines and costs.

221. All fees, fines, costs, and other moneys ordered to be paid under this Act shall be recoverable as if they were an arrear of land-revenue.

ACT XVIII. OF 1876.

THE OUDH LAWS ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 10TH OCTOBER 1876.

An Act to declare and amend the Laws to be administered in Oudh.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to declare and amend the laws to be administered in Oudh; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

PART I.

PRELIMINARY.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Oudh Laws Act, 1876:"

Local extent.

It extends only to the territories for the time being under the administration of the Chief Commissioner of Oudh;

Commencement.

And it shall come into force on the passing thereof.

Repeal of enactments.

2. The Regulations, Acts, Rules, and Orders mentioned or referred to in the first schedule hereto annexed shall be repealed to the extent mentioned in the third column of the said schedule.

PART II.

GENERAL LAWS TO BE ADMINISTERED IN OUDH.

Statutory law to be administered in Oudh.

3. The law to be administered by the Courts of Oudh shall be as follows:—

(a) the laws for the time being in force regulating the assessment and collection of land-revenue;

(b) in questions regarding succession, special property of females, betrothal, marriage, divorce, dower, adoption, guardianship, minority, bastardy, family-relations, wills, legacies, gifts, partitions, or any religious usage or institution, the rule of decision shall be—

(1) any custom applicable to the parties concerned which is not contrary to justice, equity, or good conscience, and has not been, by this or any other enactment, altered or abolished, and has not been declared to be void by any competent authority; Act XVIII. of 1876.

(2) the Muhammadan law in cases where the parties are Muhammadans, and the Hindu law in cases where the parties are Hindus, except in so far as such law has been, by this or any other enactment, altered or abolished, or has been modified by any such custom as is above referred to;

(c) the rules contained in this Act;

(d) the rules published in the local official Gazette as provided by section 40, or made under any other Act for the time being in force in Oudh;

(e) the Regulations and Acts, specified in the second schedule hereto annexed, subject to the provisions of section 4, and to the modifications mentioned in the third column of the same schedule;

(f) subject to the modifications hereinafter mentioned, all enactments for the time being in force, and expressly, or by necessary implication, applying to British India or Oudh, or some part of Oudh;

(g) in cases not provided for by the former part of this section, or by any other law for the time being in force, the Courts shall act according to justice, equity, and good conscience.

Validity of local customs and mercantile usages.

4. All local customs and mercantile usages shall be regarded as valid, unless they are contrary to justice, equity, or good conscience, or have, before the passing of this Act, been declared to be void by any competent authority.

PART III.

CHAPTER I.—Dower among Muhammadans.

Muhammadan dower-contracts how to be enforced.

5. Where the amount of dower stipulated for in any contract of dower by a Muhammadan is excessive with reference to the means of the husband, the entire sum provided in the contract shall not be awarded in any suit by decree in favour of the plaintiff, or by allowing it by way of set-off, lien, or otherwise to the defendant; but the amount of the dower to be allowed by the Court shall be reasonable with reference to the means of the husband and the status of the wife.

Rule applicable after husband's death.

This rule shall be applicable whether the suit to enforce the contract be brought in the husband's lifetime or after his death.

CHAPTER II.—Pre-emption.

Right of pre-emption.

6. The right of pre-emption is a right of the persons hereinafter mentioned or referred to to acquire, in the cases hereinafter specified, immoveable property in preference to all other persons.

Presumption as to its existence.

7. Unless the existence of any custom or contract to the contrary is proved, such right shall, whether recorded in the settlement-record or not, be presumed—

Act XVIII. of 1876.

(a) to exist in all village-communities, however constituted, and whether proprietary or under-proprietary, and in the cases referred to in section 40 of the Oudh Land-revenue Act, and

(b) to extend to the village-site, to the houses built upon it, to all lands and shares of lands within the village-boundary, and to all transferable rights affecting such lands.

Its existence in towns to be proved.

8. The right of pre-emption shall not be presumed to exist in any town or city, or any sub-division thereof, but may be shown to exist therein, and to be exercisable therein by such persons and under such circumstances as the local custom prescribes.

Devolution of right when property to be sold or foreclosed is a proprietary or under-proprietary tenure.

9. If the property to be sold or foreclosed is a proprietary or under-proprietary tenure, or a share of such a tenure, the right to buy or redeem such property belongs, in the absence of a custom to the contrary,

1st, to co-sharers of the sub-division (if any) of the tenure in which the property is comprised, in order of their relationship to the vendor or mortgagor;

2ndly, to co-sharers of the whole mahál in the same order;

3rdly, to any member of the village-community; and 4thly, if the property be an under-proprietary tenure, to the proprietor.

Where two or more persons are equally entitled to such right, the person to exercise the same shall be determined by lot.

Notice to pre-emptors.

10. When any person proposes to sell any property, or when he forecloses a mortgage upon any property, in respect of which any persons have a right of pre-emption, he shall give notice to the persons concerned of the price at which he is willing to sell such property, or of the amount due in respect of such mortgage, as the case may be.

Such notice shall be given through the Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the property or any part thereof is situate, and shall be deemed sufficiently given if it be stuck up on the chaupál, or other public place of the village or city in which the property is situate.

Loss of right of pre-emption.

11. Any person having a right of pre-emption in respect of any property proposed to be sold shall lose such right, unless, within three months from the date of such notice, he or his agent pays or tenders the price aforesaid to the person so proposing to sell.

Right of pre-emptor on foreclosure.

12. When the right of pre-emption arises in respect of the foreclosure of a mortgage, any person entitled to such right may, at any time within three months after the giving of the notice required by section 10, pay or tender, to the mortgagee or his successor in title, the amount specified in such notice, and shall thereupon acquire a right to purchase the property.

On completion of the purchase the person exercising the right of pre-emption shall be bound to pay to the mortgagee or his successor in title the amount specified in such notice, together with interest on the principal sum secured by the mortgage, at the rate specified by the instrument of mortgage, for any time which has elapsed since the date of the notice, and any additional costs which may have been properly incurred by the mortgagee or his successor in title. Act XVIII. of 1876.

13. Any person entitled to a right of pre-emption may bring a suit to enforce such right on any of the following grounds (namely) :—

Suit to enforce right of pre-emption.

(a) that no due notice was given as required by section 10;

(b) that tender was made under section 11 or section 12 and refused;

(c) in the case of a sale, that the price stated in the notice was not fixed in good faith;

(d) in the case of a mortgage, that the amount claimed by the mortgagee was not really due on the footing of the mortgage, and was not claimed in good faith, and that it exceeds the fair market-value of the property mortgaged.

If, in the case of a sale, the Court finds that the price was not fixed in good faith, the Court shall fix such price as appears to it to be the fair market-value of the property sold.

If, in the case of a mortgage, the Court finds that the amount claimed by the mortgagee was not really due on the footing of the mortgage, and that it was not claimed in good faith, and that it exceeds the fair market-value of the property mortgaged, the amount to be paid to the mortgagee shall not exceed what the Court finds to be such market-value.

14. If the Court find for the plaintiff, the decree shall specify a day on or before which the purchase-money or the amount to be paid to the mortgagee shall be paid.

Decree to fix time for payment.

15. If such purchase-money or amount is not paid into Court before it rises on that day, the decree shall become void and the plaintiff shall, so far only as relates to such sale or mortgage, lose his right of pre-emption over the property to which the decree relates.

Effect of non-payment of purchase-money.

CHAPTER III.—Procedure of the Courts.

16. The Judicial Commissioner's Circular No. 104 of July 1860 shall be held to have been a notification within the meaning of section 24 of Act No. XIV. of 1859; and such Act* shall be deemed to have been in force in Oudh from the fourth day of July 1862; and all orders and decrees passed under the rules contained in the said Circular, or under the said Act, shall be deemed to have been passed under a law in force for the time being.

Rule of limitation.

Nothing in this section affects the provisions of sections 102, 104, 105, 106, 107, and 108 of the Oudh Rent Act (XIX. of 1868)† with regard to the limitation of suits under that Act.

17, 18. [Repealed by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. I.]

---

* Act XIV. of 1859 has been repealed by Acts IX. of 1871 and I. of 1877.

† Act XIX. of 1868 has been repealed by Act XXII. of 1886, s. 2.

Act XVIII. of 1876.

Rules for taking evidence.

19. Sections 181 to 190 (both inclusive) of the Code of Civil Procedure* are hereby repealed, so far as the Province of Oudh is concerned, and the following section is substituted therefor:—

"On the day appointed for the hearing of the suit, or on some other day to which the hearing may be adjourned, the evidence of the witnesses in attendance shall be taken orally in open Court in the presence and hearing and under the personal direction and superintendence of the Judge.

"A note of the essential points of the evidence of each witness is to be taken at the time, and in the course of oral examination, by the officer who tries the case, in his own language, or in English if he is sufficiently acquainted with that language, and such note shall be filed, and shall form part of the record of the case.

"If the evidence be taken down in a different language from that in which it has been given, and the witness does not understand the language in which it is taken down, the witness may require his deposition as taken down to be interpreted to him in the language in which it was given.

"It shall be in the discretion of the Court to take down, or cause to be taken down, any particular question and answer, if there appear any special reason for so doing, or any party or his pleader requires it.

"If any question put to a witness be objected to by either of the parties or their pleaders, and the Court allow the same to be put, the question and the answer shall be taken down, and the objection and the name of the party making it shall be noticed in taking down the depositions, together with the decision of the Court upon the objection.

"The Court shall record such remarks as it may think material respecting the demeanour of the witness while under examination.

"If the Judge be prevented from making a note as above required, he shall record the reason of his inability to do so, and shall cause such note to be made in writing from his dictation in open Court, and shall sign the same, and such note shall form part of the record."

Execution-sale of ancestral and acquired property in land.

20. So much of section 266 of the Code of Civil Procedure† as renders land liable to sale in execution of a decree, shall be subject to the following restriction:—

No ancestral property in land shall be sold in satisfaction of a decree without the permission of the Chief Commissioner; no self-acquired property in land shall be so sold without the permission of the Commissioner.

Explanation.—In this section the words "ancestral property" include the immoveable property of persons admitted to engagement for the land-revenue at the summary settlement of 1858-59.

21. [Repealed by Act XIII. of 1879.]

† In s. 20 the reference to s. 205 of Act VIII. of 1859 has been altered in accordance with Act XIV. of 1882, s. 3.

22. Notwithstanding anything contained in the said Code* any Civil Court sitting within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Lakhnau Civil Court, but exercising jurisdiction beyond such limits, may cause summonses, warrants, notices, and other processes to be served within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Lakhnau Civil Court without causing the same processes to be served through such Court. Act XVIII. of 1876.

Service of process within jurisdiction of Lakhnau Civil Court.

23,24. [Repealed by Act XXII. of 1886.]

25. Any proprietor or under-proprietor of a mahál or portion of a mahál, which is attached, transferred, held under direct management, farmed, or sold under the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure,* who may, at the date of the order for such attachment, transfer, management, farm, or sale, hold any land within such mahál or portion of a mahál in his cultivating occupancy, shall be deemed to be a tenant with a right of occupancy in respect of so much of such land as the Deputy Commissioner shall determine, and the rent to be paid by him for land so determined shall be fixed by the Deputy Commissioner under the provisions of the Oudh Rent Act, 1886.†

Right of occupancy in judgment-debtor's sir-land.

26. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Legal Practitioners Act, 1879,‡ all persons duly admitted and enrolled as Revenue Agents under that Act in the territories for the time being under the administration of the Chief Commissioner of Oudh may appear, plead, and act in suits under the Oudh Rent Act, 1886,† in the Courts of officers exercising the powers of Assistant Collectors, Deputy Collectors, Collectors, and Commissioners under the same Act.

Revenue Agents authorized to appear, &c., in rent-suits.

27. With the sanction of the Chief Commissioner, the Judicial Commissioner may from time to time make rules consistent with this Act and with the Code of Civil Procedure,*

Power to make rules for custody and sale of attached property.

(a) for the custody and sale of moveable property attached in execution of decrees;

(b) for the levy of a fee or commission on the sale of attached property, and the disposal of the funds accruing from such fees;

(c) as to the appointment and remuneration of persons by whom property is to be attached, kept in custody, and sold; and

(d) as to the appointment and remuneration of persons by whom local investigations under section 392, and investigations and adjustments of accounts under section 394 of the Code of Civil Procedure,§ are to be made.

28. [Repealed by Act XIII. of 1879.]

* In ss. 22, 25, and 27, the references should now be read as applying to Act XIV. of 1882.—See s. 3 of that Act.

† In ss. 25 and 26, the references to Act XIX. of 1868 have been altered in accordance with Act XXII. of 1886, s. 2.

‡ The reference to Act XX. of 1865 has been altered in accordance with Act XVIII. of 1879, s. 2.

§ In s. 27, cl. d, the references to ss. 180 and 181 respectively of Act VIII. of 1859 have been altered in accordance with Act XIV. of 1882, s. 3.

Act XVIII. of 1876.

CHAPTER IV.—Village and Road Police

Right to nominate village-policemen.

29. The nomination to the post of village-policeman shall be made by the zemindar of the village, or, where there are more zamindárs than one, by the lambardár as their representative; and where there are more lambardárs than one, the opinion of the majority (unless there is some special provision to the contrary in the village-administration-paper) shall prevail.

Obligation to nominate.

30. Every person authorized to nominate to the office of village-policeman shall, within fifteen days after the occurrence of a vacancy in such office, nominate a proper person to the vacant post, and communicate the nomination to the Magistrate of the district.

Discretion to appoint or reject nominee.

31. The person so nominated shall, after due enquiry into his age, character, and ability, be appointed or rejected at discretion by such Magistrate, or by some officer authorized by him in that behalf.

Power to Magistrate to appoint.

32. In default of such nomination within the said fifteen days, the Magistrate of the district shall appoint such person as he thinks fit to the vacancy.

Procedure in case of rejection of nominee.

If the nomination has been made within the said fifteen days, but the nominee is rejected, the person authorized to nominate shall, within fifteen days from the date of such rejection, nominate another person to the vacant post; and in default of such nomination, or if such nomination has been made, but the nominee is again rejected, the Magistrate of the district shall appoint such person as he thinks fit to the vacancy.

Appointment of road-police.

33. Subject to the rules to be framed under section 39 and for the time being in force, the Magistrate of the district may from time to time appoint persons to be the road-police of his district.

Duties of village and road-policemen.

34. Every village-policeman and every road policeman shall perform the following duties:—

(a.)—He shall give immediate information to the officer in charge of the police-station appointed for his village or beat,—

(1) of every unnatural, suspicious, or sudden death occurring in the village of which he is chaukídár, or within his beat;

(2) of each of the following offences occurring in such village or on such beat (that is to say), murder, culpable homicide, rape, dacoity, theft, robbery, mischief by fire, house-breaking, counterfeiting coin, causing grievous hurt, riot, harbouring a proclaimed offender, exposure of a child, concealment of birth, administering stupefying drugs, kidnapping, lurking house-trespass, and

(3) of all attempts and preparations to commit, and abetments of, any of the said offences:

(b.)—He shall keep the police informed of all disputes which are likely to lead to any riot or serious affray:

(c.)—He shall arrest all proclaimed offenders, and all persons whom he may find in the act of committing any offence specified in paragraph (a), clause (2), of this section:

(d.)—He shall observe, and from time to time report to the officer in charge of the police-station within the jurisdiction of which his village or beat may be situate, the movements of all bad characters in or on such village or beat: Act XVIII. of 1876.

(e.)—He shall report to the officer in charge of such police-station the arrival of suspicious characters in the neighbourhood;

(f.)—He shall supply to the best of his ability any local information which a Magistrate or any officer of police may require, and shall promptly execute all orders issued to him by competent authority.

Procedure on arrest by village or road-policeman.

35. Whenever a village-policeman or road-policeman arrests any person, he shall take him as soon as possible to the police-station within the jurisdiction of which his village or beat is situate.

Dismissal of village and road-policemen.

36. The Magistrate of the district may dismiss any village-policeman or road-policeman for any misconduct or neglect of duty.

Where any village-policeman is guilty of neglect of duty or other misconduct, the person authorized to nominate to his office may report him for dismissal to the Magistrate of the district; and such Magistrate shall dismiss him accordingly, unless the Magistrate has reason to think that such dismissal would be improper.

Acts punishable.

37. Every village-policeman and road-policeman guilty of any wilful misconduct in his office, or of neglect of duty, such misconduct or neglect not being an offence within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code, or withdrawing from the duties of his office without permission, and without having given at least two months' notice of his intention to withdraw from such duties to the persons authorized to nominate or appoint under sections 29, 32, and 33 (as the case may be), or offering any unnecessary personal violence to any person in his custody, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to a penalty not exceeding three months' pay, or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months, or to both.

Penalty.

Fines to be credited to such fund as Government appoints.

38. All fines levied under this Act on village-policemen or road-policemen shall be credited to such fund as the Local Government from time to time appoints.

CHAPTER V.—SUBSIDIARY RULES.

Power to make rules.

39. The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time,* make rules consistent with this Act as to—

(a) the discipline and remuneration of the village and road-police, and the regulation of their number, location, and duties;

(b) the disposal of unclaimed property under Act No. V. of 1861 (for the regulation of Police), sections 25, 26, and 27;

* In s. 39, para. 1, certain words, repealed by Act XIV. of 1878, s. 5, have here been omitted.

Act XVIII. of 1876.

(c) public health and conservancy at fairs and other large public assemblies, and the maintenance of a proper watch and ward at such fairs and assemblies;

(d) imposing with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council taxes for those purposes only;

(e) the manner in which records, civil, criminal, and revenue, shall be kept; the appointment and removal of the persons entrusted with the custody of records, and all other matters connected with such custody;*

(f) the appointment, duties, punishment, and dismissal of all ministerial officers other than those employed in the Civil Courts and those in respect of whom provision is made in the "Oudh Land Revenue Act, 1876;" †

(g) the extent of land in respect of which a proprietor or under-proprietor is to be held, under section 25, to be a tenant with a right of occupancy.

40. All rules made by the Chief Commissioner under section 39, and all rules made by the Judicial Commissioner under section 27, shall be published in the local official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

Publication of rules.

41. [Repealed by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. I.]

42. Whoever breaks any rule made or continued under this Act, not being a rule made by the Judicial Commissioner, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with both.

Penalty for breach of rules.

CHAPTER VI.—MISCELLANEOUS.

Honorary Civil Jurisdiction.

43. [Repealed by Act XIII. of 1879.]

Honorary Police Officers.

44. The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, confer on any person whom he thinks fit any power which may be exercised by a police-officer under any Act for the time being in force, and withdraw any power so conferred.

Honorary police-officers.

Creation and Alteration of Districts and Sub-divisions.

45. [Repealed by Act XX. of 1890, s. 35.]

ACT XIX. OF 1876.†

THE DRAMATIC PERFORMANCES ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 16TH DECEMBER 1876.

An Act for the better control of Public Dramatic Performances.

WHEREAS it is expedient to empower the Government to prohibit public dramatic performances which are scandalous, defamatory, seditious, or obscene; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Dramatic Performances Act, 1876;"

Local extent.

It extends to the whole of British India;

Commencement.

And it shall come into force at once.

"Magistrate" defined.

2. In this Act "Magistrate" means, in the Presidency Towns, a Magistrate of Police, and elsewhere the Magistrate of the District.

* Here certain words, repealed by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. I., have been omitted.

† Act XIX. of 1876 has been declared, under the Scheduled Districts Act (XIV. of 1874), to be in force in the following Scheduled Districts: The Districts of Hazáribágh, Lohárdaga, and Mánbhum, and Pargana Dhálbhum, and the Kolhán in the District of Singbhum.—See Gazette of India, Oct. 22, 1886, Pt. I., p. 504. The Act has, with the exception of s. 12, been declared in force in Upper Burma generally.—See the First Part of the Second Schedule to Act XX, of 1886. But see also foot-note to s. 10 of this Act (XIX. of 1876).

Power to prohibit certain dramatic performances.

3. Whenever the Local Government is of opinion that any play, pantomime, or other drama performed or about to be performed in a public place is—

(a) of a scandalous or defamatory nature, or

(b) likely to excite feelings of disaffection to the Government established by law in British India, or

(c) likely to deprave and corrupt persons present at the performance, the Local Government, or outside the Presidency Towns and Rangoon, the Local Government or such Magistrate as it may empower in this behalf, may by order prohibit the performance.

Explanation.—Any building or enclosure to which the public are admitted to witness a performance on payment of money shall be deemed a "public place" within the meaning of this section.

Power to serve order of prohibition.

4. A copy of any such order may be served on any person about to take part in the performance so prohibited, or on the owner or occupier of any house, room, or place in which such performance is intended to take place; and any person on whom such copy is served, and who does, or willingly permits, any act in disobedience to such order, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine, or with both.

Penalty for disobeying order.

Power to notify order.

5. Any such order may be notified by proclamation, and a written or printed notice thereof may be stuck up at any place or places adapted for giving information of the order to the persons intending to take part in or to witness the performance so prohibited.

Penalty for disobeying prohibition.

6. Whoever, after the notification of any such order—

(a) takes part in the performance prohibited thereby, or in any performance substantially the same as the performance so prohibited, or

(b) in any manner assists in conducting any such performance, or

(c) is in wilful disobedience to such order present as a spectator during the whole or any part of any such performance, or

(d) being the owner or occupier, or having the use of, any house, room, or place, opens, keeps, or uses the same for any such performance, or permits the same to be opened, kept, or used for any such performance, shall be punishable, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine, or with both.

Power to call for information.

7. For the purpose of ascertaining the character of any intended public dramatic performance, the Local Government or such officer as it may specially empower in this behalf, may apply to the author, proprietor, or printer of the drama about to be performed, or to the owner or occupier of the place in which it is intended to be performed, for such information as the Local Government or such officer thinks necessary.

Every person so applied to shall be bound to furnish the same to the best of his ability, and whoever contravenes this section shall be deemed to have committed an offence under section 176 of the Indian Penal Code.

Act XIX. of 1876.

Power to grant warrant to police to enter and arrest and seize.

8. If any Magistrate has reason to believe that any house, room, or place is used, or is about to be used, for any performance prohibited under this Act, he may, by his warrant, authorize any officer of police to enter, with such assistance as may be requisite, by night or by day, and by force if necessary, any such house, room, or place, and to take into custody all persons whom he finds therein, and to seize all scenery, dresses, and other articles found therein, and reasonably suspected to have been used, or to be intended to be used, for the purpose of such performance.

Saving of prosecutions under Penal Code, sections 124A and 294.

9. No conviction under this Act shall bar a prosecution under section 124A or section 294 of the Indian Penal Code.

Power to prohibit dramatic performances in any local area, except under license.

10.* Whenever it appears to the Local Government that the provisions of this section are required in any local area, it may, with the sanction of the Governor-General in Council, declare, by notification in the local official Gazette, that such provisions are applied to such area from a day to be fixed in the notification.

On and after that day, the Local Government may order that no dramatic performance shall take place in any place of public entertainment within such area, except under a license to be granted by such Local Government, or such officer as it may specially empower in this behalf.

The Local Government may also order that no dramatic performance shall take place in any place of public entertainment "within such area"† unless a copy of the piece, if and so far as it is written, or some sufficient account of its purport, if and so far as it is in pantomime, has been furnished, not less than three days before the performance, to the Local Government, or to such officer as it may appoint in this behalf.

A copy of any order under this section may be served on any keeper of a place of public entertainment, and if thereafter he does, or willingly permits, any act in disobedience to such order, he shall be punishable, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine, or with both.

Powers exercisable by Governor-General.

11. The powers conferred by this Act on the Local Government may be exercised also by the Governor-General in Council.

Exclusion of performances at religious festivals.

12. Nothing in this Act applies to any jatras or performances of a like kind at religious festivals.

---

* In Upper Burma for the first two paragraphs of s. 10 the following are to be substituted:—

"No dramatic performance shall take place except under a license granted by the District Magistrate or such officer as the District Magistrate may appoint in this behalf.

"Any person who promotes or takes part in any dramatic performance in contravention of the foregoing portion of this section shall be punishable, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both."—See Act XX. of 1886, s. 7, cl. e.

† The words quoted are not applicable to Upper Burma.—See Act XX. of 1886, s. 7, cl. e.

ACT XX. OF 1876.

Act XX. of 1876.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 16TH DECEMBER 1876.

An Act to give better effect to certain Agreements with the Thákur of Bhaunagar.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the villages mentioned in the schedule hereto annexed (hereinafter called the scheduled villages) are the property of the Thákur of Bhaunagar, and were, by the Treaty of Bassein, dated the thirty-first day of December 1802, separated from the Native State or States known as the territory of Káthiáwád, and ceded to the British Government:

and whereas, by Regulation VI. of 1816* of the Governor of Bombay in Council, the Regulations in force throughout the Presidency of Bombay were extended to the said villages, and such villages thereby became subject to the jurisdiction of the Revenue, Civil, and Criminal Courts established in that Presidency:

and whereas the said Thákur of Bhaunagar is also the proprietor of divers villages forming part of the said territory, and hereinafter called the Káthiáwád villages:

and whereas the British Government have exercised certain powers of government over the said territory, but such territory has never been treated as being British territory, nor as having been vested in the East India Company, nor in Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland and Empress of India, and the said Káthiáwád villages have consequently never been subject to the laws in force in the Presidency of Bombay:

and whereas in the year 1820 the British Government established a Political Agency for the said territory of Káthiáwád:

and whereas in the year 1857 the said Thákur was, by an order of the British Government, invested in respect of the same villages with certain powers of sovereignty limited by and subject to the rules laid down for the government and conduct of the said Káthiáwád Political Agency:

and whereas, for divers reasons of State affecting the welfare of British India, the British Government became desirous of ceding to the Thákur of Bhaunagar the scheduled villages, to be held by him on the same conditions as those on which he holds the Káthiáwád villages, and for that purpose certain agreements were made and certain notifications published which were intended to operate as a cession of the scheduled villages:

and whereas on the twenty-ninth day of January 1866, the Governor of Bombay in Council published a notification declaring that, in accordance with the agreement last hereinbefore recited, the scheduled villages were, from and after the first day of February 1866, removed from the jurisdiction of the Revenue, Civil, and Criminal Courts of the Bombay Presidency, and transferred to the supervision of the said Political Agency in Káthiáwád on the same conditions as to jurisdiction as the said Káthiáwád villages:

and whereas the intention of the said agreements and notifications was that the villages comprised therein should be ceded to and vested in the Thákur of Bhaunagar, to be held by him on the terms on which he holds the Káthiáwád villages:

and whereas ever since the first day of February 1866, the scheduled villages have been governed according to the intention of the said agreements, and acts of executive authority have been done, proceedings taken, and decrees and sentences passed by the Thákur of Bhaunagar and his officers, and by the officers of the said Political Agency, and by the Courts of justice appointed to exercise jurisdiction within the limits of the said Political Agency:

* Repealed by Bom. Reg. I. of 1827.

Act XX. of 1876.

and whereas it now appears that such agreements and notifications were not worded so as to express their true intention, and that the scheduled villages did not thereby cease to be British territory, or to be subject to the laws in force in the Presidency of Bombay:

and whereas, by a notification, dated the fifth day of December 1876, after reciting to the effect above recited, and reciting that the Secretary of State for India had, on behalf of Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain and Empress of India, given his sanction to the cession intended to be thereby effected, the Governor-General in Council, with the sanction aforesaid, did thereby cede and grant to the said Thákur of Bhaunagar, his heirs, and successors, the said scheduled villages, to hold the same unto the said Thákur, his heirs, and successors, on the terms and subject to the rules on and subject to which he holds the said Káthiáwád villages; but it was thereby provided that, in case the said Thákur, his heirs, or successors, should commit any acts of misgovernment which, in the opinion of the Governor-General in Council, rendered it inexpedient that the said Thákur, his heirs, and successors should continue to hold the said scheduled villages, the Governor-General in Council might resume the villages thereby ceded, and re-annex the same to Her Majesty's dominions:

and whereas it is expedient (so far as relates to any past or future proceedings in British India) to ratify the aforesaid acts, proceedings, and sentences of the Thákur of Bhaunagar and the officers and Courts aforesaid, and to indemnify the said Thákur and officers against any liability in respect thereof, and to provide that no title to property shall be disturbed by any act, proceeding, or sentence of any other authority; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Bhaunagar Act, 1876:"

Local extent.

It extends only to British India;

Commencement.

And it shall come into force at once.

Scheduled villages excluded from jurisdiction of Bombay Courts.

2. The said scheduled villages shall be deemed to have been, on and after the said first day of February 1866, excluded from the jurisdiction of the Revenue, Civil, and Criminal Courts of the Bombay Presidency.

Validation of acts done after 1st February 1866.

3. All acts of executive authority, proceedings, decrees, and sentences which have been done, taken, or passed subsequently to the first day of February 1866, and which would have been valid if the scheduled villages had been ceded according to the intention of the said agreements and notifications, shall be as valid and operative in British India as if such cession had actually been effected; and no suit or other proceeding shall be maintained or continued against any person whatever on the ground that the scheduled villages did not cease to be British territory on the first day of February 1866.

Bar of suits.

Saving of personal jurisdiction of Courts of British India.

4. Nothing in this Act shall affect any jurisdiction which any Court of justice in British India may, for the time being, be entitled to exercise over persons resident or being beyond the limits of British India.

Act XXII. of 1876.

ACT XXII. OF 1876.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 17TH DECEMBER 1876.

An Act to provide for the Management of the Public Museum at Calcutta.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by Act No. XVII. of 1866, reciting that it was expedient to provide for the establishment of a Public Museum at Calcutta, to be called the Indian Museum, it was enacted that the Governor-General in Council should cause to be erected at the expense of the Government of India a suitable building in Calcutta, to be devoted in part to collections illustrative of Indian Archæology and of the several branches of Natural History, in part to the preservation and exhibition of other objects of interest, whether historical, physical, or economical, in part to the records and offices of the Geological Survey of India, and in part to the fit accommodation of the Asiatic Society of Bengal, and to the reception of their library, manuscripts, maps, coins, busts, pictures, engravings, and other property; and it was also enacted that the Government of India should keep the said building in repair, and pay and defray the salaries, allowances, and pensions of the officers and servants, and all other expenses, connected with the said Museum; and by the Act now in recital certain officials and other persons therein mentioned or referred to, to the number of thirteen, and their successors, were constituted a Body Corporate by the name of the Trustees of the Indian Museum, and the said trustees were empowered to receive bequests, donations, and subscriptions, and to deal with the same in the manner therein mentioned for the purposes of their trusts therein mentioned; and it was also enacted that the said trustees should have the exclusive possession, occupation, and control, for the purposes of such trusts, of the said building, other than those portions thereof which, upon its completion, should be set apart by the said trustees for the records and offices of the said Geological Survey and for the accommodation of the said Asiatic Society and the reception of their library, manuscripts, maps, coins, busts, pictures, engravings, and other property; and it was also enacted that all officers and servants, salaried or otherwise, employed in the care or management of the trust-property, should be appointed, and might be removed or suspended, by the said trustees, subject to such regulations and conditions as the said trustees should think proper; and it was also enacted that the Council of the said Asiatic Society should cause the collections belonging to such Society, and illustrative of Indian Archæology and the several branches of Natural History, and all additions that might be made thereto, to be removed to and deposited in the said building at the expense of the Government of India as soon as the same should be completed so far as to be in a condition to receive the said collections, and that an inventory of the articles in such collections should be made by the said Society, one copy whereof was to be signed by the said trustees and kept by the said Society, and another copy was to be signed by the said Society and kept by the said trustees, and that the said Society should continue to have the same exclusive property in and control over their said library, manuscripts, maps, coins, busts, pictures and engravings, which they then possessed, and that the Council of the said Society should have the exclusive possession, occupation, and control, for the purposes of the said Society, of those portions of the said building which should be set apart for the accommodation of the said Society and the reception of their library and other property thereinbefore mentioned;

And whereas the Government of India has caused the said building to be erected, and the Council of the said Society has caused the said collections belonging to the same Society to be removed to and deposited in the said building at the expense of the Government of India; and an inventory of the articles in such collections has been made by the said Society, one copy whereof has been signed by the said trustees, and delivered to the said Society, and another copy has been signed by the Council of the said Society and delivered to the said trustees;

And whereas the said trustees have, in pursuance of the said Act, set apart certain portions of the said building for the said records and offices of the Geological Survey of India;

And whereas, in consideration of a sum of one hundred and fifty thousand rupees paid to them by the Government of India, the Council of the said Society has relinquished the exclusive possession, occupation, and control secured to them by the said Act, of the portions of the said building which, under the said Act, were to be set apart for the accommodation of the said society and the reception of their said library and other property;

And whereas it is expedient to alter the constitution of the said Body Corporate, and to amend the law relating to the appointment and salaries of the said officers;

And whereas under the circumstances aforesaid it is expedient to repeal the said Act, and to re-enact it with the modifications hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Preliminary.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Indian Museum Act, 1876."

Repeal of Act No. XVII. of 1866.

2. Act No. XVII. of 1866 (to provide for the establishment of a Public Museum at Calcutta) shall be repealed. But all persons nominated under the said Act as trustees of the Indian Museum, and all officers and servants appointed under the same Act and now holding office shall be deemed to have been respectively nominated and appointed under this Act.

Incorporation of the Trustees. *

Constitution and incorporation of the Trustees of the Indian Museum.

3.† The Trustees of the said Indian Museum shall be—

(a) the person for the time being holding the office of Accountant-General of Bengal;

(b) five other persons to be appointed by the Governor-General in Council;

(c) five other persons to be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal;

(d) five other persons to be appointed by the Council of the Asiatic Society of Bengal; and (e) five other persons to be appointed by the Trustees; and the said Trustees shall be a body corporate, by the name of the Trustees of the Indian Museum, and shall have perpetual succession and a common seal.

---

* As to powers of trustees to keep collections not belonging to them, and to part with certain property in their possession, see Act IV. of 1887, ss. 5 and 6, Vol. III.

† S. 3 has been substituted by Act IV. of 1887, s. 3.

Act XXII. of 1876.

Number of corporators.

4.* All the powers of the said body corporate may be exercised so long and so often as there are nine members thereof.

Power to appoint new trustees.

5.* If a trustee appointed under section 3 dies, or is absent from the meetings of the trustees for more than twelve consecutive months, or desires to be discharged, or refuses or becomes incapable to act, or becomes Accountant-General of Bengal, then the authority which appointed the trustee may appoint a new trustee in his place.

Trustees empowered to receive bequests, donations, and subscriptions.

6. It shall be lawful for the said trustees (a) to receive bequests, donations, and subscriptions of land, buildings, money, and any such objects of interest as aforesaid, and (b) to hold the same and to lay out such money for the maintenance, improvement, and enlargement of the collections deposited in, presented to, or purchased for, the said Indian Museum, and otherwise for the purposes of the same Museum; and all such collections shall become the property of the said trustees for the purposes of their trusts herein mentioned; and the said trustees shall have the exclusive possession, occupation, and control, for the purposes of such trusts, of the whole of the said building, other than those portions thereof which have been set apart by the said trustees for the records and offices of the Geological Survey of India.

Power to trustees to make bye-laws.

7. The said trustees may, from time to time, make bye-laws consistent with this Act—

(a) for the management of the said Museum;

(b) for the summoning, holding, and adjournment of general and special meetings of the said trustees;

(c) for securing their attendance at such meetings;

(d) for the provision and keeping of minute-books and account-books;

(e) for the compiling of catalogues, and (f) for all other purposes necessary for the execution of their trusts.

Power to trustees to appoint officers and servants.

8. Subject to such regulations and conditions as the trustees think fit, they shall appoint, and may remove or suspend, all officers and servants, salaried or otherwise, employed in the care or management of the trust-property: provided—

(a) that no officer be appointed without the approval of the Governor-General in Council if such officer be, at the date of his appointment, in India, or without the approval of the Secretary of State for India in Council if such officer be not then in India;

(b) that no new office be created, and no salaries of officers be altered, without the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council.

Trustees may exchange or sell duplicates.

9. The said trustees may, from time to time, order any duplicates of printed books, medals, coins, specimens of Natural History, or other curiosities deposited in the Indian

* Ss. 4 and 5 have been substituted by Act IV. of 1887, s. 3.

Museum, to be exchanged for manuscripts, books, or other objects of interest, or direct any such duplicates to be sold, and the money to arise from such sale to be laid out in the purchase of manuscripts, books, maps, medals, coins, specimens of Natural History, or other curiosities that may be proper for the said Museum.

10. At all meetings of the said trustees there shall be a quorum for the transaction of business, and for the exercise of any of the powers conferred upon them by this Act.

Quorum.

Duties of the Trustees.

11. The said trustees shall furnish to the Government of India, on or before the first day of December in each year, a report of their several proceedings for the past twelve months, and further shall furnish, on or before the same day in each year, to such Auditor as the Governor-General in Council appoints in this behalf, accounts of all moneys expended by the trustees during the past twelve months supported by the necessary vouchers.

Trustees shall furnish annual reports and accounts.

The said trustees shall cause such report and accounts to be annually published for general information.

12. The said trustees shall cause every article in the said collections belonging to the Asiatic Society, and all additions that may hereafter be made thereto, otherwise than by purchase under section 6, to be marked and numbered, and (subject to the provisions contained in sections 9 and 15) to be kept and preserved in the said Indian Museum with such marks and numbers; and an inventory of such additions shall be made by the said Society, one copy whereof shall be signed by the said trustees and delivered to the said Society, and another copy shall be signed by the Council of the said Society and delivered to the said trustees, and shall be kept by them along with the inventory already delivered to the said trustees as aforesaid.

Collections of Asiatic Society to be kept distinguished in the Museum.

13. All objects taken in exchange under section 9 for, and all moneys payable on sale under the same section of, any of such articles, shall be held on trust, and subject to powers and declarations corresponding as nearly as may be with the trusts, powers, and declarations by this Act limited and declared concerning the same articles.

Articles received in exchange, and moneys paid on sale, to be held on trust.

Miscellaneous.

14. All officers and servants appointed under this Act shall be considered public servants within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code; and so far as regards their salaries, allowances, and pensions, and their leave of absence from duty, they shall be subject to the rules for the time being applicable to uncovenanted civil servants of the Government of India.

Officers under Act to be public servants.

Their salaries, pensions, and leave.

15. In the event of the trust hereby constituted being determined, all collections then in the said Indian Museum, other than those next hereinafter mentioned, shall become the property of the Government of India, and the collections and additions mentioned in section 12 shall become the property of the said Society or their assigns.

In case of determination of trust, Asiatic Society may reclaim their collections.

Act I. of 1877.

ACT I. OF 1877.*

SPECIFIC RELIEF ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 7TH FEBRUARY 1877.

An Act to define and amend the law relating to certain kinds of Specific Relief.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to define and amend the law relating to certain kinds of specific relief obtainable in civil suits; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

PART I.—PRELIMINARY.

Western Julpáigurí	Ditto	Dec. 16, 1882, Pt. I., p. 511.
The Districts of Hazáribágh, Lohárdaga, and Mánbhum, and Pargana Dhálbhum in the District of Singbhum	Ditto	Feb. 16, 1878 Pt. I., p. 82.
The Jhánsi Division	Ditto	Sep. 26, 1879, Pt. I., p. 592.
The Scheduled Districts of the Panjáb	Ditto	Sep. 22, 1877, Pt. I., p. 562.
The Scheduled Districts of the Central Provinces	Ditto	Dec. 13, 1879, Pt. I., p. 772.
Coorg	Ditto	June 3, 1882, Pt. I., p. 217.
The Districts of Kámrup, Naugong, Darrang, Sibságar, Lakhimpur, Goalpára (excluding the Eastern Duárs), Silhat, and Káchár (excluding the North Káchár Hills)	Ditto	Nov. 10, 1877, Pt. I., p. 662.
The Cantonment of Morár	Ditto	Sep. 7. 1878, Pt. I., p. 559.

Ss. 2 and 9 of the Act have been extended to the taluqs of Bhádráchalam and Rákapilli, and the Rampa Country.—See Gazette of India, Oct. 4, 1879, Pt. I., p. 630.

'trustee.' 'trustee' includes every person holding, expressly, by implication, or constructively, a fiduciary character:

Illustrations.

(a.) Z bequeaths land to A, not doubting that he will pay thereout an annuity of Rs. 1,000 to B for his life. A accepts the bequest. A is a trustee, within the meaning of this Act, for B, to the extent of the annuity.

(b.) A is the legal, medical, or spiritual adviser of B. By availing himself of his situation as such adviser, A gains some pecuniary advantage which might otherwise have accrued to B. A is a trustee, for B, within the meaning of this Act, of such advantage.

(c.) A, being B's banker, discloses for his own purpose the state of B's account. A is a trustee, within the meaning of this Act, for B, of the benefit gained by him by means of such disclosure.

(d.) A, the mortgagee of certain leaseholds, renews the lease in his own name. A is a trustee, within the meaning of this Act, of the renewed lease, for those interested in the original lease.

(e.) A, one of several partners, is employed to purchase goods for the firm. A, unknown to his co-partners, supplies them, at the market-price, with goods previously bought by himself when the price was lower, and thus makes a considerable profit. A is a trustee, for his co-partners, within the meaning of this Act, of the profit so made.

(f.) A, the manager of B's indigo-factory, becomes agent for C, a vendor of indigo-seed, and receives, without B's assent, commission on the seed purchased from C for the factory. A is a trustee, within the meaning of this Act, for B, of the commission so received.

(g.) A buys certain land with notice that B has already contracted to buy it. A is a trustee, within the meaning of this Act, for B, of the land so bought.

(h.) A buys land from B, having notice that C is in occupation of the land. A omits to make any inquiry as to the nature of C's interest therein. A is a trustee, within the meaning of this Act, of C, to the extent of that interest.

'settlement.' 'settlement' means any instrument (other than a will or codicil as defined by the Indian Succession Act) whereby the destination or devolution of successive interests in moveable or immoveable property is disposed of or is agreed to be disposed of:

Words defined in Contract Act. and all words occurring in this Act, which are defined in the Indian Contract Act, 1872, shall be deemed to have the meanings respectively assigned to them by that Act.

Savings. 4. Except where it is herein otherwise expressly enacted, nothing in this Act shall be deemed—

(a) to give any right to relief in respect of any agreement which is not a contract;

(b) to deprive any person of any right to relief, other than specific performance, which he may have under any contract; or

(c) to affect the operation of the Indian Registration Act* on documents.

Specific relief how given. 5. Specific relief is given—

(a) by taking possession of certain property, and delivering it to a claimant;

(b) by ordering a party to do the very act which he is under an obligation to do;

* See Act III. of 1877, s. 2.

Act I. of 1877.

(c) by preventing a party from doing that which he is under an obligation not to do;

(d) by determining and declaring the rights of parties otherwise than by an award of compensation; or (e) by appointing a Receiver.

Preventive relief.

6. Specific relief granted under clause (c) of section 5 is called preventive relief.

Relief not granted to enforce penal law.

7. Specific relief cannot be granted for the mere purpose of enforcing a penal law.

PART II.—Of Specific Relief.

CHAPTER I.—Of Recovering Possession of Property.

(a.) Possession of Immoveable Property.

Recovery of specific immoveable property.

8. A person entitled to the possession of specific immoveable property may recover it in the manner prescribed by the Code of Civil Procedure.*

Suit by person dispossessed of immoveable property.

9. If any person is dispossessed without his consent of immoveable property otherwise than in due course of law, he or any person claiming through him may, by suit,† recover possession thereof, notwithstanding any other title that may be set up in such suit.

Nothing in this section shall bar any person from suing to establish his title to such property and to recover possession thereof.

No suit under this section shall be brought against the Government.

No appeal shall lie from any order or decree passed in any suit instituted under this section, nor shall any review of any such order or decree be allowed.

(b.) Possession of Moveable Property.

Recovery of specific moveable property.

10. A person entitled to the possession of specific moveable property may recover the same in the manner prescribed by the Code of Civil Procedure.*

Explanation 1.—A trustee may sue under this section for the possession of property to the beneficial interest in which the person for whom he is trustee is entitled.

Explanation 2.—A special or temporary right to the present possession of property is sufficient to support a suit under this section.

Illustrations.

(a.) A bequeaths land to B for his life, with remainder to C. A dies. B enters on the land, but C, without B's consent, obtains possession of the title-deeds. B may recover them from C.

---

* See Act XIV. of 1882, s. 3.

† Here certain words, repealed by Act XII. of 1891, have been omitted.

(b.) A pledges certain jewels to B to secure a loan. B disposes of them before he is entitled to do so. A, without having paid or tendered the amount of the loan, sues B for possession of the jewels. The suit should be dismissed, as A is not entitled to their possession, whatever right he may have to secure their safe custody.

(c.) A receives a letter addressed to him by B. B gets back the letter without A's consent. A has such a property therein as entitles him to recover it from B.

(d.) A deposits books and papers for safe custody with B. B loses them, and C finds them, but refuses to deliver them to B when demanded. B may recover them from C, subject to C's right, if any, under section 168 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872.

(e.) A, a warehouse-keeper, is charged with the delivery of certain goods to Z, which B takes out of A's possession. A may sue B for the goods.

11. Any person having the possession or control of a particular article of moveable property, of which he is not the owner, may be compelled specifically to deliver it to the person entitled to its immediate possession, in any of the following cases :—

Liability of person in possession, not as owner, to deliver to person entitled to immediate possession.

(a) when the thing claimed is held by the defendant as the agent or trustee of the claimant ;

(b) when compensation in money would not afford the claimant adequate relief for the loss of the thing claimed ;

(c) when it would be extremely difficult to ascertain the actual damage caused by its loss ;

(d) when the possession of the thing claimed has been wrongfully transferred from the claimant.

Illustrations

of clause a.—A, proceeding to Europe, leaves his furniture in charge of B as his agent during his absence. B, without A's authority, pledges the furniture to C, and C, knowing that B had no right to pledge the furniture, advertises it for sale. C may be compelled to deliver the furniture to A, for he holds it as A's trustee.

of clause b.—Z has got possession of an idol belonging to A's family, and of which A is the proper custodian. Z may be compelled to deliver the idol to A.

of clause c.—A is entitled to a picture by a dead painter and a pair of rare china vases. B has possession of them. The articles are of too special a character to bear an ascertainable market-value. B may be compelled to deliver them to A.

CHAPTER II.—Of the Specific Performance of Contracts.

(a.) Contracts which may be specifically enforced.

12. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the specific performance of any contract may, in the discretion of the Court, be enforced—

Cases in which specific performance enforceable.

(a) when the act agreed to be done is in the performance, wholly or partly, of a trust ;

(b) when there exists no standard for ascertaining the actual damage caused by the non-performance of the act agreed to be done ;

(c) when the act agreed to be done is such that pecuniary compensation for its non-performance would not afford adequate relief ; or

Act I. of 1877.

(d) when it is probable that pecuniary compensation cannot be got for the non-performance of the act agreed to be done.

Explanation.—Unless and until the contrary is proved, the Court shall presume that the breach of a contract to transfer immoveable property cannot be adequately relieved by compensation in money, and that the breach of a contract to transfer moveable property can be thus relieved.

Illustrations

of clause a.—A holds certain stock in trust for B. A wrongfully disposes of the stock. The law creates an obligation on A to restore the same quantity of stock to B, and B may enforce specific performance of this obligation.*

of clause b.—A agrees to buy, and B agrees to sell, a picture by a dead painter and two rare China vases. A may compel B specifically to perform this contract, for there is no standard for ascertaining the actual damage which would be caused by its non-performance.

of clause c.—A contracts with B to sell him a house for Rs. 1,000. B is entitled to a decree directing A to convey the house to him, he paying the purchase-money.

In consideration of being released from certain obligations imposed on it by its Act of Incorporation, a railway-company contract with Z to make an archway through their railway to connect lands of Z severed by the railway, to construct a road between certain specified points, to pay a certain annual sum towards the maintenance of this road, and also to construct a siding and a wharf as specified in the contract. Z is entitled to have this contract specifically enforced, for his interest in its performance cannot be adequately compensated for by money; and the Court may appoint a proper person to superintend the construction of the archway, road, siding, and wharf.

A contracts to sell, and B contracts to buy, a certain number of railway-shares of a particular description. A refuses to complete the sale. B may compel A specifically to perform this agreement, for the shares are limited in number, and not always to be had in the market, and their possession carries with it the status of a shareholder, which cannot otherwise be procured.

A contracts with B to paint a picture for B, who agrees to pay therefor Rs. 1,000. The picture is painted. B is entitled to have it delivered to him on payment or tender of the Rs. 1,000.

of clause d.—A transfers without endorsement, but for valuable consideration, a promissory note to B. A becomes insolvent, and C is appointed his assignee. B may compel C to endorse the note, for C has succeeded to A's liabilities, and a decree for pecuniary compensation for not endorsing the note would be fruitless.

Contract of which the subject has partially ceased to exist.

13. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 56 of the Indian Contract Act, a contract is not wholly impossible of performance because a portion of its subject-matter, existing at its date, has ceased to exist at the time of the performance.

Illustrations.

(a.) A contracts to sell a house to B for a lakh of rupees. The day after the contract is made the house is destroyed by a cyclone. B may be compelled to perform his part of the contract by paying the purchase-money.

(b.) In consideration of a sum of money payable by B, A contracts to grant an annuity to B for B's life. The day after the contract has been made, B is thrown from his horse and killed. B's representative may be compelled to pay the purchase-money.

* The first illustration is repealed by Act II. of 1882 (The Indian Trusts Act) as to the territories respectively administered by the Governor of Madras in Council, the Lieutenant-Governors of the North-Western Provinces and the Panjáb, and the Chief Commissioners of Oudh, the Central Provinces, Coorg, and Assam. The said illustration will, when the said Act II. of 1882 is extended to other territories, be repealed in such territories.

14. Where a party to a contract is unable to perform the whole of his part of it, but the part which must be left unperformed bears only a small proportion to the whole in value, and admits of compensation in money, the Court may, at the suit of either party, direct the specific performance of so much of the contract as can be performed, and award compensation in money for the deficiency.

Specific performance of part of contract where part unperformed is small.

Illustrations.

(a.) A contracts to sell to B a piece of land consisting of 100 bighás. It turns out that 98 bighás of the land belong to A, and the two remaining bighás to a stranger who refuses to part with them. The two bighás are not necessary for the use or enjoyment of the 98 bighás, nor so important for such use or enjoyment that the loss of them may not be made good in money. A may be directed, at the suit of B, to convey to B the 98 bighás, and to make compensation to him for not conveying the two remaining bighás: or B may be directed, at the suit of A, to pay to A, on receiving the conveyance and possession of the land, the stipulated purchase-money, less a sum awarded as compensation for the deficiency.

(b.) In a contract for the sale and purchase of a house and lands for two lakhs of rupees, it is agreed that part of the furniture should be taken at a valuation. The Court may direct specific performance of the contract, notwithstanding the parties are unable to agree as to the valuation of the furniture, and may either have the furniture valued in the suit, and include it in the decree for specific performance, or may confine its decree to the house.

15. Where a party to a contract is unable to perform the whole of his part of it, and the part which must be left unperformed forms a considerable portion of the whole, or does not admit of compensation in money, he is not entitled to obtain a decree for specific performance. But the Court may, at the suit of the other party, direct the party in default to perform specifically so much of his part of the contract as he can perform provided that the plaintiff relinquishes all claim to further performance, and all right to compensation, either for the deficiency, or for the loss or damage sustained by him through the default of the defendant.

Specific performance of part of contract where part unperformed is large.

Illustrations.

(a.) A contracts to sell to B a piece of land consisting of 100 bighás. It turns out that 50 bighás of the land belong to A, and the other 50 bighás to a stranger, who refuses to part with them. A cannot obtain a decree against B for the specific performance of the contract; but, if B is willing to pay the price agreed upon, and to take the 50 bighás which belong to A, waiving all right to compensation either for the deficiency or for loss sustained by him through A's neglect or default, B is entitled to a decree directing A to convey those 50 bighás to him on payment of the purchase-money.

(b.) A contracts to sell to B an estate with a house and garden for a lakh of rupees. The garden is important for the enjoyment of the house. It turns out that A is unable to convey the garden. A cannot obtain a decree against B for the specific performance of the contract; but, if B is willing to pay the price agreed upon, and to take the estate and house without the garden, waiving all rights to compensation either for the deficiency or for loss sustained by him through A's neglect or default, B is entitled to a decree directing A to convey the house to him on payment of the purchase-money.

16. When a part of a contract, which, taken by itself, can and ought to be specifically performed, stands on a separate and independent footing from another part of the same contract which cannot or ought not to be specifically performed, the Court may direct specific performance of the former part.

Specific performance of independent part of contract.

Act I. of 1877.

Bar in other cases of specific performance of part of contract.

17. The Court shall not direct the specific performance of a part of a contract except in cases coming under one or other of the three last preceding sections.

Purchaser's rights against vendor with imperfect title.

18. Where a person contracts to sell or let certain property, having only an imperfect title thereto, the purchaser or lessee (except as otherwise provided by this chapter) has the following rights :—

(a) if the vendor or lessor has, subsequently to the sale or lease, acquired any interest in the property, the purchaser or lessee may compel him to make good the contract out of such interest ;

(b) where the concurrence of other persons is necessary to validate the title and they are bound to convey at the vendor's or lessor's request, the purchaser or lessee may compel him to procure such concurrence ;

(c) where the vendor professes to sell unincumbered property, but the property is mortgaged for an amount not exceeding the purchase-money, and the vendor has, in fact, only a right to redeem it, the purchaser may compel him to redeem the mortgage, and to obtain a conveyance from the mortgagee ;

(d) where the vendor or lessor sues for specific performance of the contract, and the suit is dismissed on the ground of his imperfect title, the defendant has a right to a return of his deposit (if any) with interest thereon, to his costs of the suit, and to a lien for such deposit, interest, and costs on the interest of the vendor or lessor in the property agreed to be sold or let.

Power to award compensation in certain cases.

19. Any person suing for the specific performance of a contract may also ask for compensation for its breach, either in addition to, or in substitution for, such performance.

If in any such suit the Court decides that specific performance ought not to be granted, but that there is a contract between the parties which has been broken by the defendant, and that the plaintiff is entitled to compensation for that breach, it shall award him compensation accordingly.

If in any such suit the Court decides that specific performance ought to be granted, but that it is not sufficient to satisfy the justice of the case, and that some compensation for breach of the contract should also be made to the plaintiff, it shall award him such compensation accordingly.

Compensation awarded under this section may be assessed in such manner as the Court may direct.

Explanation.—The circumstance that the contract has become incapable of specific performance does not preclude the Court from exercising the jurisdiction conferred by this section.

Illustrations

of the second paragraph :—A contracts to sell a hundred maunds of rice to B. B brings a suit to compel A to perform the contract or to pay compensation. The Court is of opinion that A has made a valid contract, and has broken it, without excuse, to the injury of B, but that specific performance is not the proper remedy. It shall award to B such compensation as it deems just.

of the third paragraph:—A contracts with B to sell him a house for Rs. 1,000, the price to be paid and the possession given on the 1st January 1877. A fails to perform his part of the contract, and B brings his suit for specific performance and compensation, which is decided in his favour on the 1st January 1878. The decree may, besides ordering specific performance, award to B compensation for any loss which he has sustained by A's refusal.

of the explanation:—A, a purchaser, sues B, his vendor, for specific performance of a contract for the sale of a patent. Before the hearing of the suit, the patent expires. The Court may award A compensation for the non-performance of the contract, and may, if necessary, amend the plaint for that purpose.

A sues for the specific performance of a resolution passed by the directors of a public company, under which he was entitled to have a certain number of shares allotted to him, and for compensation for the non-performance of the resolution. All the shares had been allotted before the institution of the suit. The Court may, under this section, award A compensation for the non-performance.

Liquidation of damages not a bar to specific performance.

20. A contract, otherwise proper to be specifically enforced, may be thus enforced, though a sum be named in it as the amount to be paid in case of its breach, and the party in default is willing to pay the same.

Illustration.

A contracts to grant B an underlease of property held by A under C, and that he will apply to C for a license necessary to the validity of the underlease, and that, if the license is not procured, A will pay B Rs. 10,000. A refuses to apply for the license, and offers to pay B the Rs. 10,000. B is nevertheless entitled to have the contract specifically enforced if C consents to give the license.

(b.) Contracts which cannot be specifically enforced.

Contracts not specifically enforceable.

21. The following contracts cannot be specifically enforced:—

(a) a contract for the non-performance of which compensation in money is an adequate relief;

(b) a contract which runs into such minute or numerous details, or which is so dependent on the personal qualifications or volition of the parties, or otherwise from its nature is such, that the Court cannot enforce specific performance of its material terms;

(c) a contract the terms of which the Court cannot find with reasonable certainty;

(d) a contract which is in its nature revocable;

(e) a contract made by trustees either in excess of their powers or in breach of their trust;

(f) a contract made by or on behalf of a corporation or public company created for special purposes, or by the promoters of such company, which is in excess of its powers;

(g) a contract the performance of which involves the performance of a continuous duty extending over a longer period than three years from its date;

(h) a contract of which a material part of the subject-matter, supposed by both parties to exist, has, before it has been made, ceased to exist.

And, save as provided by the Code of Civil Procedure,* no contract to refer a controversy to arbitration shall be specifically enforced; but if any person who

* See Act XIV. of 1882, s. 3.

Act I. of 1877. has made such a contract, and has refused to perform it, sues in respect of any subject which he has contracted to refer, the existence of such contract shall bar the suit.

Illustrations

to a.—A contracts to sell, and B contracts to buy, a lakh of rupees in the four per cent. loan of the Government of India:

A contracts to sell, and B contracts to buy, 40 chests of indigo at Rs. 1,000 per chest:

In consideration of certain property having been transferred by A to B, B contracts to open a credit in A's favour to the extent of Rs. 10,000, and to honour A's drafts to that amount.

The above contracts cannot be specifically enforced, for, in the first and the second, both A and B, and in the third A, would be reimbursed by compensation in money.

to b.—A contracts to render personal service to B:

A contracts to employ B on personal service:

A, an author, contracts with B, a publisher, to complete a literary work.

B cannot enforce specific performance of these contracts.

A contracts to buy B's business at the amount of a valuation to be made by two valuers, one to be named by A, and the other by B. A and B each name a valuer, but, before the valuation is made, A instructs his valuer not to proceed:

By a charter-party entered into in Calcutta between A, the owner of a ship, and B, the charterer, it is agreed that the ship shall proceed to Rangoon, and there load a cargo of rice, and thence proceed to London, freight to be paid, one-third on arrival at Rangoon, and two-thirds on delivery of the cargo in London:

A lets land to B, and B contracts to cultivate it in a particular manner for three years next after the date of the lease:

A and B contract that, in consideration of annual advances to be made by A, B will, for three years next after the date of the contract, grow particular crops on the land in his possession, and deliver them to A when cut and ready for delivery:

A contracts with B that, in consideration of Rs. 1,000 to be paid to him by B, he will paint a picture for B:

A contracts with B to execute certain works which the Court cannot superintend:

A contracts to supply B with all the goods of a certain class which B may require:

A contracts with B to take from B a lease of a certain house for a specified term, at a specified rent, "if the drawing-room is handsomely decorated," even if it is held to have so much certainty that compensation can be recovered for its breach:

A contracts to marry B:

The above contracts cannot be specifically enforced.

to c.—A, the owner of a refreshment-room, contracts with B to give him accommodation there for the sale of his goods, and to furnish him with the necessary appliances. A refuses to perform his contract. The case is one for compensation, and not for specific performance, the amount and nature of the accommodation and appliances being undefined.

to d.—A and B contract to become partners in a certain business, the contract not specifying the duration of the proposed partnership. This contract cannot be specifically performed, for, if it were so performed, either A or B might at once dissolve the partnership to e.—A is a trustee of land with power to lease it for seven years. He enters into a contract with B to grant a lease of the land for seven years, with a covenant to renew the lease at the expiry of the term. This contract cannot be specifically enforced.

The directors of a company have power to sell the concern with the sanction of a general meeting of the shareholders. They contract to sell it without any such sanction. This contract cannot be specifically enforced.

The trustees, A and B, empowered to sell trust-property worth a lakh of rupees, contract to sell it to C for Rs. 30,000. The contract is so disadvantageous as to be a breach of trust. C cannot enforce its specific performance.

The promoters of a company for working mines contract that the company, when formed, shall purchase certain mineral property. They take no proper precautions to ascertain the value of such property, and in fact agree to pay an extravagant price therefor. They also stipulate that the vendors shall give them a bonus out of the purchase-money. This contract cannot be specifically enforced.

to f.—A company, existing for the sole purpose of making and working a railway, contracts for the purchase of a piece of land for the purpose of erecting a cotton-mill thereon. This contract cannot be specifically enforced.

to g.—A contracts to let for twenty-one years to B the right to use such part of a certain railway made by A as was upon B's land, and that B should have a right of running carriages over the whole line on certain terms, and might require A to supply the necessary engine-power, and that A should, during the term, keep the whole railway in good repair. Specific performance of this contract must be refused to B.

to h.—A contracts to pay an annuity to B for the lives of C and D. It turns out that, at the date of the contract, C, though supposed by A and B to be alive, was dead. The contract cannot be specifically performed.

(c.) Of the Discretion of the Court.

22. The jurisdiction to decree specific performance is discretionary, and the Court is not bound to grant such relief, merely because it is lawful to do so; but the discretion of the Court is not arbitrary, but sound and reasonable, guided by judicial principles, and capable of correction by a Court of appeal.

Discretion as to decreeing specific performance.

The following are cases in which the Court may properly exercise a discretion not to decree specific performance:—

I. Where the circumstances under which the contract is made are such as to give the plaintiff an unfair advantage over the defendant, though there may be no fraud or misrepresentation on the plaintiff's part.

Illustrations.

(a.) A, a tenant for life of certain property, assigns his interest therein to B. C contracts to buy, and B contracts to sell, that interest. Before the contract is completed, A receives a mortal injury, from the effects of which he dies the day after the contract is executed. If B and C were equally ignorant or equally aware of the fact, B is entitled to specific performance of the contract. If B knew the fact, and C did not, specific performance of the contract should be refused to B.

(b.) A contracts to sell to B the interest of C in certain stock-in-trade. It is stipulated that the sale shall stand good, even though it should turn out that C's interest is worth nothing. In fact, the value of C's interest depends on the result of certain partnership-accounts, on which he is heavily in debt to his partners. This indebtedness is known to A, but not to B. Specific performance of the contract should be refused to A.

(c.) A contracts to sell, and B contracts to buy, certain land. To protect the land from floods, it is necessary for its owner to maintain an expensive embankment. B does not know of this circumstance, and A conceals it from him. Specific performance of the contract should be refused to A.

(d.) A's property is put up to auction. B requests C, A's attorney, to bid for him. C does this inadvertently and in good faith. The persons present, seeing the vendor's attorney bidding, think that he is a mere puffer, and cease to compete. The lot is knocked down to B at a low price. Specific performance of the contract should be refused to B.

II. Where the performance of the contract would involve some hardship on the defendant which he did not foresee, whereas its non-performance would involve no such hardship on the plaintiff.

Act 1. of 1877.

Illustrations.

(e.) A is entitled to some land under his father's will on condition that, if he sells it within twenty-five years, half the purchase-money shall go to B. A, forgetting the condition, contracts, before the expiration of the twenty-five years, to sell the land to C. Here the enforcement of the contract would operate so harshly on A that the Court will not compel its specific performance in favour of C.

(f.) A and B, trustees, join their beneficiary, C, in a contract to sell the trust-estate to D, and personally agree to exonerate the estate from heavy incumbrances to which it is subject. The purchase-money is not nearly enough to discharge those incumbrances, though, at the date of the contract, the vendors believed it to be sufficient. Specific performance of the contract should be refused to D.

(g.) A, the owner of an estate, contracts to sell it to B, and stipulates that he, A, shall not be obliged to define its boundary. The estate really comprises a valuable property not known to either to be part of it. Specific performance of the contract should be refused to B, unless he waives his claim to be unknown property.

(h.) A contracts with B to sell him certain land, and to make a road to it from a certain railway-station. It is found afterwards that A cannot make the road without exposing himself to litigation. Specific performance of the part of the contract relating to the road should be refused to B, even though it may be held that he is entitled to specific performance of the rest with compensation for loss of the road.

(i.) A, a lessee of mines, contracts with B, his lessor, that at any time during the continuance of the lease B may give notice of his desire to take the machinery and plant used in and about the mines, and that he shall have the articles specified in his notice delivered to him at a valuation on the expiry of the lease. Such a contract might be most injurious to the lessee's business, and specific performance of it should be refused to B.

(j.) A contracts to buy certain land from B. The contract is silent as to access to the land. No right of way to it can be shown to exist. Specific performance of the contract should be refused to B.

(k.) A contracts with B to buy from B's manufactory, and not elsewhere, all the goods of a certain class used by A in his trade. The Court cannot compel B to supply the goods; but, if he does not supply them, A may be ruined, unless he is allowed to buy them elsewhere. Specific performance of the contract should be refused to B.

The following is a case in which the Court may properly exercise a discretion to decree specific performance:—

III. Where the plaintiff has done substantial acts or suffered losses in consequence of a contract capable of specific performance.

Illustration.

A sells land to a railway-company, who contract to execute certain works for his convenience. The company take the land and use it for their railway. Specific performance of the contract to execute the works should be decreed in favour of A.

(d.) For whom Contracts may be specifically enforced.

Who may obtain specific performance.

23. Except as otherwise provided by this chapter, the specific performance of a contract may be obtained by—

(a) any party thereto;

(b) the representative in interest, or the principal, of any party thereto: provided that, where the learning, skill, solvency, or any personal quality of such party is a material ingredient in the contract, or where the contract provides that his interest shall not be assigned, his representative in interest or his principal shall not be entitled to specific performance of the contract, unless where his part thereof has already been performed;

(c) where the contract is a settlement on marriage, or a compromise of doubtful rights between members of the same family, any person beneficially entitled thereunder; Act I. of 1877.

(d) where the contract has been entered into by a tenant for life in due exercise of a power, the remainder-man;

(e) a reversioner in possession, where the agreement is a covenant entered into with his predecessor in title, and the reversioner is entitled to the benefit of such covenant;

(f) a reversioner in remainder, where the agreement is such a covenant, and the reversioner is entitled to the benefit thereof, and will sustain material injury by reason of its breach;

(g) when a public company has entered into a contract, and subsequently becomes amalgamated with another public company, the new company which arises out of the amalgamation;

(h) when the promoters of a public company have, before its incorporation, entered into a contract for the purposes of the company, and such contract is warranted by the terms of the incorporation, the company.

(e.) For whom Contracts cannot be specifically enforced.

Personal bars to the relief.

24. Specific performance of a contract cannot be enforced in favour of a person—

(a) who could not recover compensation for its breach;

(b) who has become incapable of performing, or violates, any essential term of the contract that on his part remains to be performed;

(c) who has already chosen his remedy, and obtained satisfaction for the alleged breach of contract; or (d) who, previously to the contract, had notice that a settlement of the subject-matter thereof (though not founded on any valuable consideration) had been made and was then in force.

Illustrations

to clause a.—A, in the character of agent for B, enters into an agreement with C to buy C's house. A is, in reality, acting, not as agent for B, but on his own account. A cannot enforce specific performance of this contract.

to clause b.—A contracts to sell B a house, and to become tenant thereof for a term of fourteen years from the date of the sale at a specified yearly rent. A becomes insolvent. Neither he nor his assignee can enforce specific performance of the contract.

A contracts to sell B a house and garden in which there are ornamental trees, a material element in the value of the property as a residence. A, without B's consent, fells the trees. A cannot enforce specific performance of the contract.

A, holding land under a contract with B for a lease, commits waste, or treats the land in an unhusbandlike manner. A cannot enforce specific performance of the contract.

A contracts to let, and B contracts to take, an unfinished house, B contracting to finish the house, and the lease to contain covenants on the part of A to keep the house in repair. B finishes the house in a very defective manner; he cannot enforce the contract specifically, though A and B may sue each other for compensation for breach of it.

to clause c.—A contracts to let, and B contracts to take, a house for a specified term at a specified rent. B refuses to perform the contract. A thereupon sues for, and obtains, compensation for the breach. A cannot obtain specific performance of the contract.

Act I. of 1877.

Contracts to sell property by one who has no title, or who is a voluntary settler.

25. A contract for the sale or letting of property, whether moveable or immoveable, cannot be specifically enforced in favour of a vendor or lessor—

(a) who, knowing himself not to have any title to the property, has contracted to sell or let the same;

(b) who, though he entered into the contract, believing that he had a good title to the property, cannot, at the time fixed by the parties or by the Court for the completion of the sale or letting, give the purchaser or lessee a title free from reasonable doubt;

(c) who, previous to entering into the contract, has made a settlement (though not founded on any valuable consideration) of the subject-matter of the contract.

Illustrations.

(a.) A, without C's authority, contracts to sell to B an estate which A knows to belong to C. A cannot enforce specific performance of this contract, even though C is willing to perform it.

(b.) A bequeaths his land to trustees, declaring that they may sell it with the consent in writing of B. B gives a general prospective assent in writing to any sale which the trustees may make. The trustees then enter into a contract with C to sell him the land. C refuses to carry out the contract. The trustees cannot specifically enforce this contract, as, in the absence of B's consent to the particular sale to C, the title which they can give C is, as the law stands, not free from reasonable doubt.

(c.) A, being in possession of certain land, contracts to sell it to Z. On enquiry it turns out that A claims the land as heir of B, who left the country several years before, and is generally believed to be dead, but of whose death there is no sufficient proof. A cannot compel Z specifically to perform the contract.

(d.) A, out of natural love and affection, makes a settlement of certain property on his brothers and their issue, and afterwards enters into a contract to sell the property to a stranger. A cannot enforce specific performance of this contract so as to override the settlement, and thus prejudice the interests of the persons claiming under it.

(f.) For whom Contracts cannot be specifically enforced except with a variation.

Non-enforcement except with variation.

26. Where a plaintiff seeks specific performance of a contract in writing, to which the defendant sets up a variation, the plaintiff cannot obtain the performance sought, except with the variation, so set up, in the following cases (namely):—

(a) where by fraud or mistake of fact the contract of which performance is sought is in terms different from that which the defendant supposed it to be when he entered into it;

(b) where, by fraud, mistake of fact, or surprise, the defendant entered into the contract under a reasonable misapprehension as to its effect as between himself and the plaintiff;

(c) where the defendant, knowing the terms of the contract and understanding its effect, has entered into it relying upon some misrepresentation by the plaintiff, or upon some stipulation on the plaintiff's part which adds to the contract, but which he refuses to fulfil;

(d) where the object of the parties was to produce a certain legal result, which the contract as framed is not calculated to produce;

(e) where the parties have, subsequently to the execution of the contract, contracted to vary it.

Illustrations.

(a.) A, B, and C sign a writing, by which they purport to contract each to enter into a bond to D for Rs. 1,000. In a suit by D, to make A, B, and C separately liable each to the extent of Rs. 1,000, they prove that the word 'each' was inserted by mistake; that the intention was that they should give a joint bond for Rs. 1,000. D can obtain the performance sought only with the variation thus set up.

(b.) A sues B to compel specific performance of a contract in writing to buy a dwelling-house. B proves that he assumed that the contract included an adjoining yard, and the contract was so framed as to leave it doubtful whether the yard was so included or not. The Court will refuse to enforce the contract, except with the variation set up by B.

(c.) A contracts in writing to let to B a wharf, together with a strip of A's land delineated in a map. Before signing the contract, B proposed orally that he should be at liberty to substitute for the strip mentioned in the contract another strip of A's land of the same dimensions, and to this A expressly assented. B then signed the written contract. A cannot obtain specific performance of the written contract, except with the variation set up by B.

(d.) A and B enter into negotiations for the purpose of securing land to B for his life, with remainder to his issue. They execute a contract, the terms of which are found to confer an absolute ownership on B. The contract so framed cannot be specifically enforced.

(e.) A contracts in writing to let a house to B, for a certain term, at the rent of Rs. 100 per month, putting it first into tenantable repair. The house turns out to be not worth repairing; so, with B's consent, A pulls it down, and erects a new house in its place; B contracting orally to pay rent at Rs. 120 per mensem. B then sues to enforce specific performance of the contract in writing. He cannot enforce it except with the variations made by the subsequent oral contract.

(g.) Against whom Contracts may be specifically enforced.

Relief against parties and persons claiming under them by subsequent title.

27. Except as otherwise provided by this chapter, specific performance of a contract may be enforced against—

(a) either party thereto;

(b) any other person claiming under him by a title arising subsequently to the contract, except a transferee for value who has paid his money in good faith and without notice of the original contract;

(c) any person claiming under a title which, though prior to the contract, and known to the plaintiff, might have been displaced by the defendant;

(d) when a public company has entered into a contract, and subsequently becomes amalgamated with another public company, the new company which arises out of the amalgamation;

(e) when the promoters of a public company have, before its incorporation, entered into a contract, the company: provided that the company has ratified and adopted the contract, and the contract is warranted by the terms of the incorporation.

Illustrations

to clause b.—A contracts to convey certain land to B by a particular day. A dies intestate before that day without having conveyed the land. B may compel A's heir or other representative in interest to perform the contract specifically.

A contracts to sell certain land to B for Rs. 5,000. A afterwards conveys the land for Rs. 6,000 to C, who has notice of the original contract. B may enforce specific performance of the contract as against C.

A contracts to sell land to B for Rs. 5,000. B takes possession of the land. Afterwards A sells it to C for Rs. 6,000. C makes no enquiry of B relating to his interest in the land. B's possession is sufficient to affect C with notice of his interest, and he may enforce specific performance of the contract against C.

Act I. of 1877.

A contracts, in consideration of Rs. 1,000, to bequeath certain of his lands to B. Immediately after the contract A dies intestate, and C takes out administration to his estate. B may enforce specific performance of the contract against C.

A contracts to sell certain land to B. Before the completion of the contract A becomes a lunatic, and C is appointed his committee. B may specifically enforce the contract against C.

to clause c.—A, the tenant for life of an estate, with remainder to B, in due exercise of a power conferred by the settlement under which he is tenant for life, contracts to sell the estate to C, who has notice of the settlement. Before the sale is completed, A dies. C may enforce specific performance of the contract against B.

A and B are joint tenants of land, his undivided moiety of which either may alien in his lifetime, but which, subject to that right, devolves on the survivor. A contracts to sell his moiety to C, and dies. C may enforce specific performance of the contract against B.

(h) Against whom Contracts cannot be specifically enforced.

What parties cannot be compelled to perform.

28. Specific performance of a contract cannot be enforced against a party thereto in any of the following cases:—

(a) if the consideration to be received by him is so grossly inadequate with reference to the state of things existing at the date of the contract, as to be, either by itself or coupled with other circumstances, evidence of fraud, or of undue advantage taken by the plaintiff;

(b) if his assent was obtained by the misrepresentation (whether wilful or innocent), concealment, circumvention, or unfair practices of any party to whom performance would become due under the contract, or by any promise of such party which has not been substantially fulfilled;

(c) if his assent was given under the influence of mistake of fact, misapprehension, or surprise: provided that, when the contract provides for compensation in case of mistake, compensation may be made for a mistake within the scope of such provision, and the contract may be specifically enforced in other respects if proper to be so enforced.

to clause c.—A, one of two executors, in the erroneous belief that he had the authority of his co-executor, enters into an agreement for the sale to B of his testator's property. B cannot insist on the sale being completed.

A directs an auctioneer to sell certain land. A afterwards revokes the auctioneer's authority as to 20 bighás of this land, but the auctioneer inadvertently sells the whole to B, who has not notice of the revocation. B cannot enforce specific performance of the agreement.

(i) The effect of dismissing a Suit for Specific Performance.

Bar of suit for breach after dismissal.

29. The dismissal of a suit for specific performance of a contract or part thereof shall bar the plaintiff's right to sue for compensation for the breach of such contract or part, as the case may be.

(j) Awards and directions to execute settlements.

Applications of preceding sections to awards and testamentary directions to execute settlements.

30. The provisions of this chapter as to contract shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to awards and to directions in a will or codicil to execute a particular settlement.

CHAPTER III.—Of the Rectification of Instruments.

When instrument may be rectified.

31. When, through fraud or a mutual mistake of the parties, a contract, or other instrument in writing, does not truly express their intention, either party or his representative in interest may institute a suit to have the instrument rectified; and if the Court find it clearly proved that there has been fraud or mistake in framing the instrument, and ascertain the real intention of the parties in executing the same, the Court may, in its discretion, rectify the instrument so as to express that intention, so far as this can be done without prejudice to rights acquired by third persons in good faith and for value.

Illustrations.

(a.) A, intending to sell to B his house and one of three godowns adjacent to it, executes a conveyance prepared by B, in which, through B's fraud, all three godowns are included. Of the two godowns which were fraudulently included, B gives one to C, and lets the other to D for a rent, neither C nor D having any knowledge of the fraud. The conveyance may, as against B and C, be rectified so as to exclude from it the godown given to C; but it cannot be rectified so as to affect D's lease.

(b.) By a marriage-settlement, A, the father of B, the intended wife, covenants with C, the intended husband, to pay to C, his executors, administrators, and assigns, during A's life, an annuity of Rs. 5,000. C dies insolvent, and the official assignee claims the annuity from A. The Court, on finding it clearly proved that the parties always intended that this annuity should be paid as a provision for B and her children, may rectify the settlement, and decree that the assignee has no right to any part of the annuity.

Presumption as to intent of parties.

32. For the purpose of rectifying a contract in writing, the Court must be satisfied that all the parties thereto intended to make an equitable and conscientious agreement.

Principles of rectification.

33. In rectifying a written instrument, the Court may inquire what the instrument was intended to mean, and what were intended to be its legal consequences, and is not confined to the inquiry what the language of the instrument was intended to be.

Specific enforcement of rectified contract.

34. A contract in writing may be first rectified, and then, if the plaintiff has so prayed in his plaint, and the Court thinks fit, specifically enforced.

Illustration.

A contracts in writing to pay his attorney, B, a fixed sum in lieu of costs. The contract contains mistakes as to the name and rights of the client, which, if construed strictly, would exclude B from all rights under it. B is entitled, if the Court thinks fit, to have it rectified, and to an order for payment of the sum, as if at the time of its execution it had expressed the intention of the parties.

CHAPTER IV.—Of the Rescission of Contracts.

When rescission may be adjudged.

35.* Any person interested in a contract in writing may sue to have it rescinded, and such rescission may be adjudged by the Court in any of the following cases, namely:—

(a) where the contract is voidable or terminable by the plaintiff;

---

* In ss. 35 and 36 the words "in writing" have been repealed by Act IV. of 1882 (Transfer of Property) in territories in which this Act is in force.

Act I of 1877.

(b) where the contract is unlawful for causes not apparent on its face, and the defendant is more to blame than the plaintiff;

(c) where a decree for specific performance of a contract of sale, or of a contract to take a lease, has been made, and the purchaser or lessee makes default in payment of the purchase-money or other sums, which the Court has ordered him to pay.

When the purchaser or lessee is in possession of the subject-matter, and the Court finds that such possession is wrongful, the Court may also order him to pay to the vendor or lessor the rents and profits, if any, received by him as such possessor.

In the same case, the Court may, by order in the suit in which the decree has been made and not complied with, rescind the contract either so far as regards the party in default, or altogether as the justice of the case may require.

to a.—A sells a field to B. There is a right of way over the field of which A has direct personal knowledge, but which he conceals from B. B is entitled to have the contract rescinded.

to b.—A, an attorney, induces his client B, a Hindu widow, to transfer property to him for the purpose of defrauding B's creditors. Here the parties are not equally in fault, and B is entitled to have the instrument of transfer rescinded.

Rescission for mistake.

36.* Rescission of a contract in writing cannot be adjudged for mere mistake, unless the party against whom it is adjudged can be restored to substantially the same position as if the contract had not been made.

Alternative prayer for rescission in suit for specific performance.

37. A plaintiff instituting a suit for the specific performance of a contract in writing may pray in the alternative that, if the contract cannot be specifically enforced, it may be rescinded and delivered up to be cancelled; and the Court, if it refuses to enforce the contract specifically, may direct it to be rescinded and delivered up accordingly.

Court may require party rescinding to do equity.

38. On adjudging the rescission of a contract, the Court may require the party to whom such relief is granted to make any compensation to the other which justice may require.

CHAPTER V.—OF THE CANCELLATION OF INSTRUMENTS.

When cancellation may be ordered.

39. Any person against whom a written instrument is void or voidable, who has reasonable apprehension that such instrument, if left outstanding, may cause him serious injury, may sue to have it adjudged void or voidable, and the Court may, in its discretion, so adjudge it, and order it to be delivered up and cancelled.

If the instrument has been registered under the Indian Registration Act,† the Court shall also send a copy of its decree to the officer in whose office the instrument has been so registered, and such officer shall note on the copy of the instrument contained in his books the fact of its cancellation.

---

* In ss. 35 and 36 the words "in writing" have been repealed by Act IV. of 1882 (Transfer of Property) in territories in which this Act is in force.

† See Act III. of 1877, s. 2.

Illustrations.

(a.) A, the owner of a ship, by fraudulently representing her to be seaworthy, induces B, an underwriter, to insure her. B may obtain the cancellation of the policy.

(b.) A conveys land to B, who bequeaths it to C, and dies. Thereupon D gets possession of the land, and produces a forged instrument, stating that the conveyance was made to B in trust for him. C may obtain the cancellation of the forged instrument.

(c.) A, representing that the tenants on his land were all at will, sells it to B, and conveys it to him by an instrument dated the 1st January 1877. Soon after that day, A fraudulently grants to C a lease of part of the lands, dated the 1st October 1876, and procures the lease to be registered under the Indian Registration Act.* B may obtain the cancellation of this lease.

(d.) A agrees to sell and deliver a ship to B, to be paid for by B's acceptances of four bills of exchange, for sums amounting to Rs. 30,000, to be drawn by A on B. The bills are drawn and accepted, but the ship is not delivered according to the agreement. A sues B on one of the bills. B may obtain the cancellation of all the bills.

40. Where an instrument is evidence of different rights or different obligations, the Court may, in a proper case, cancel it in part, and allow it to stand for the residue.

What instruments may be partially cancelled.

Illustration.

A draws a bill on B, who endorses it to C, by whom it appears to be endorsed to D, who endorses it to E. C's endorsement is forged. C is entitled to have such endorsement cancelled, leaving the bill to stand in other respects.

41. On adjudging the cancellation of an instrument, the Court may require the party to whom such relief is granted to make any compensation to the other which justice may require.

Power to require party for whom instrument is cancelled to make compensation.

CHAPTER VI.—Of Declaratory Decrees.

42. Any person entitled to any legal character, or to any right as to any property, may institute a suit against any person denying, or interested to deny, his title to such character or right, and the Court may, in its discretion, make therein a declaration that he is so entitled, and the plaintiff need not, in such suit, ask for any further relief:

Discretion of Court as to declarations of status or right.

Provided that no Court shall make any such declaration where the plaintiff, being able to seek further relief than a mere declaration of title, omits to do so.

Bar to such declaration.

Explanation.—A trustee of property is a person interested to deny a title adverse to the title of some one who is not in existence, and for whom, if in existence, he would be a trustee.

Illustrations.

(a.) A is lawfully in possession of certain land. The inhabitants of a neighbouring village claim a right of way across the land. A may sue for a declaration that they are not entitled to the right so claimed.

(b.) A bequeaths his property to B, C, and D, 'to be equally divided amongst all and each of them, if living at the time of my death, then amongst their surviving children.'

---

* See Act III. of 1877, s. 2.

Act I. of 1877.

No such children are in existence. In a suit against A's executor, the Court may declare whether B, C, and D, took the property absolutely, or only for their lives, and it may also declare the interests of the children before their rights are vested.

(c.) A covenants that, if he should at any time be entitled to property exceeding one lakh of rupees, he will settle it upon certain trusts. Before any such property accrues, or any persons entitled under the trusts are ascertained, he institutes a suit to obtain a declaration that the covenant is void for uncertainty. The Court may make the declaration.

(d.) A alienates to B property in which A has merely a life-interest. The alienation is invalid as against C, who is entitled as reversioner. The Court may, in a suit by C against A and B, declare that C is so entitled.

(e.) The widow of a sonless Hindu alienates part of the property of which she is in possession as such. The person presumptively entitled to possess the property if he survive her may, in a suit against the alienee, obtain a declaration that the alienation was made without legal necessity, and was therefore void beyond the widow's lifetime.

(f.) A Hindu widow in possession of property adopts a son to her deceased husband. The person presumptively entitled to possession of the property on her death without a son may, in a suit against the adopted son, obtain a declaration that the adoption was invalid.

(g.) A is in possession of certain property. B, alleging that he is the owner of the property, requires A to deliver it to him. A may obtain a declaration of his right to hold the property.

(h.) A bequeaths property to B for his life, with remainder to B's wife and her children, if any, by B, but if B die without any wife or children, to C. B has a putative wife, D, and children, but C denies that B and D were ever lawfully married. D and her children may, in B's lifetime, institute a suit against C, and obtain therein a declaration that they are truly the wife and children of B.

Effect of declaration.

48. A declaration made under this chapter is binding only on the parties to the suit, persons claiming through them respectively, and, where any of the parties are trustee, on the persons for whom, if in existence at the date of the declaration, such parties would be trustees.

Illustration.

A, a Hindu, in a suit to which B, his alleged wife, and her mother, are defendants, seeks a declaration that his marriage was duly solemnized, and an order for the restitution of his conjugal rights. The Court makes the declaration and order. C, claiming that B is his wife, then sues A for the recovery of B. The declaration made in the former suit is not binding upon C.

CHAPTER VII.—OF THE APPOINTMENT OF RECEIVERS.

Appointment of receivers discretionary.

44. The appointment of a receiver pending a suit is a matter resting in the discretion of the Court.

Reference to Code of Civil Procedure.

The mode and effect of his appointment, and his rights, powers, duties, and liabilities, are regulated by the Code of Civil Procedure.*

CHAPTER VIII.—OF THE ENFORCEMENT OF PUBLIC DUTIES.

Power to order public servants and others to do certain specific acts.

45. Any of the High Courts of Judicature at Fort William, Madras, and Bombay, may make an order requiring any specific act to be done or forborne, within the local limits of its ordinary original civil jurisdiction, by any person holding a public office, whether of a permanent or a temporary nature, or by any corporation or inferior Court of Judicature: provided— Act I. of 1877.

* See Act XIV. of 1882, s. 3.

(a) that an application for such order be made by some person whose property, franchise, or personal right, would be injured by the forbearing or doing (as the case may be) of the said specific act;

(b) that such doing or forbearing is, under any law for the time being in force, clearly incumbent on such person or Court in his or its public character, or on such corporation in its corporate character;

(c) that in the opinion of the High Court such doing or forbearing is consonant to right and justice;

(d) that the applicant has no other specific and adequate legal remedy; and (e) that the remedy given by the order applied for will be complete.

Exemptions from such power.

Nothing in this section shall be deemed to authorize any High Court—

(f) to make any order binding on the Secretary of State for India in Council, on the Governor-General in Council, on the Governor of Madras in Council, on the Governor of Bombay in Council, or on the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal;

(g) to make any order on any other servant of the Crown as such, merely to enforce the satisfaction of a claim upon the Crown; or

(h) to make any order which is otherwise expressly excluded by any law for the time being in force.

Application how made. Procedure thereon.

46. Every application under section 45 must be founded on an affidavit of the person injured, stating his right in the matter in question, his demand of justice, and the denial thereof; and the High Court may, in its discretion, make the order applied for absolute in the first instance, or refuse it, or grant a rule to show cause why the order applied for should not be made.

Order in alternative.

If in the last case the person, Court, or corporation complained of, shows no sufficient cause, the High Court may first make an order in the alternative, either to do or forbear the act mentioned in the order, or to signify some reason to the contrary, and make an answer thereto by such day as the High Court fixes in this behalf.

Peremptory order.

47. If the person, Court, or corporation, to whom or to which such order is directed, makes no answer, or makes an insufficient or a false answer, the High Court may then issue a peremptory order to do or forbear the act absolutely.

Execution of, and appeal from, orders.

48 Every order under this chapter shall be executed, and may be appealed from, as if it were a decree made in the exercise of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the High Court.

Costs.

49. The costs of all applications and orders under this chapter shall be in the discretion of the High Court.

Bar to issue of mandamus.

50. Neither the High Court nor any Judge thereof shall hereafter issue any writ of mandamus.

Act I. of 1877.

Power to frame rules.

51. Each of the said High Courts shall, as soon as conveniently may be, frame rules to regulate the procedure under this chapter; and, until such rules are framed, the practice of such Court as to applications for and grants of writs of mandamus shall apply, so far as may be practicable to applications and orders under this chapter.

PART III.—OF PREVENTIVE RELIEF.

CHAPTER IX.—OF INJUNCTIONS GENERALLY.

Preventive relief how granted.

52. Preventive relief is granted at the discretion of the Court by injunction, temporary or perpetual.

Temporary injunctions.

53. Temporary injunctions are such as are to continue until a specified time or until the further order of the Court. They may be granted at any period of a suit, and are regulated by the Code of Civil Procedure.*

Perpetual injunctions.

A perpetual injunction can only be granted by the decree made at the hearing and upon the merits of the suit: the defendant is thereby perpetually enjoined from the assertion of a right, or from the commission of an act, which would be contrary to the rights of the plaintiff.

CHAPTER X.—OF PERPETUAL INJUNCTIONS.

Perpetual injunctions when granted.

54. Subject to the other provisions contained in, or referred to by, this chapter, a perpetual injunction may be granted to prevent the breach of an obligation existing in favour of the applicant, whether expressly or by implication.

When such obligation arises from contract, the Court shall be guided by the rules and provisions contained in Chapter II. of this Act

When the defendant invades or threatens to invade the plaintiff's right to, or enjoyment of, property, the Court may grant a perpetual injunction in the following cases (namely):—

(a) where the defendant is trustee of the property for the plaintiff;

(b) where there exists no standard for ascertaining the actual damage caused, or likely to be caused, by the invasion;

(c) where the invasion is such that pecuniary compensation would not afford adequate relief;

(d) where it is probable that pecuniary compensation cannot be got for the invasion;

(e) where the injunction is necessary to prevent a multiplicity of judicial proceedings.

* See Act XIV. of 1882, ss. 492-497.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, trademark is property. Act I. of 1877.

Illustrations.

(a.) A lets certain land to B, and B contracts not to dig sand or gravel thereout. A may sue for an injunction to restrain B from digging in violation of his contract.

(b.) A trustee threatens a breach of trust. His co-trustees, if any, should, and the beneficial owners may, sue for an injunction to prevent the breach.

(c.) The directors of a public company are about to pay a dividend out of capital or borrowed money. Any of the shareholders may sue for an injunction to restrain them.

(d.) The directors of a fire and life insurance company are about to engage in marine insurances. Any of the shareholders may sue for an injunction to restrain them.

(e.) A, an executor, through misconduct or insolvency, is bringing the property of the deceased into danger. The Court may grant an injunction to restrain him from getting in the assets.

(f.) A, a trustee for B, is about to make an imprudent sale of a small part of the trust-property. B may sue for an injunction to restrain the sale, even though compensation in money would have afforded him adequate relief.

(g.) A makes a settlement (not founded on marriage or other valuable consideration) of an estate on B and his children. A then contracts to sell the estate to C. B or any of his children may sue for an injunction to restrain the sale.

(h.) In the course of A's employment as a vakil, certain papers belonging to his client, B, come into his possession. A threatens to make these papers public, or to communicate their contents to a stranger. B may sue for an injunction to restrain A from so doing.

(i.) A is B's medical adviser. He demands money of B, which B declines to pay. A then threatens to make known the effect of B's communications to him as a patient. This is contrary to A's duty, and B may sue for an injunction to restrain him from so doing.

(j.) A, the owner of two adjoining houses, lets one to B, and afterwards lets the other to C. A and C begin to make such alterations in the house let to C as will prevent the comfortable enjoyment of the house let to B. B may sue for an injunction to restrain them from so doing.

(k.) A lets certain arable lands to B for purposes of husbandry, but without any express contract as to the mode of cultivation. Contrary to the mode of cultivation customary in the district, B threatens to sow the lands with seed injurious thereto, and requiring many years to eradicate. A may sue for an injunction to restrain B from sowing the lands in contravention of his implied contract to use them in a husbandlike manner.

(l.) A, B, and C, are partners, the partnership being determinable at will. A threatens to do an act tending to the destruction of the partnership-property. B and C may, without seeking a dissolution of the partnership, sue for an injunction to restrain A from doing the act.

(m.) A, a Hindu widow in possession of her deceased husband's property, commits destruction of the property without any cause sufficient to justify her in so doing. The heir-expectant may sue for an injunction to restrain her.

(n.) A, B, and C, are members of an undivided Hindu family. A cuts timber growing on the family-property, and threatens to destroy part of the family-house, and to sell some of the family-utensils. B and C may sue for an injunction to restrain him.

(o.) A, the owner of certain houses in Calcutta, becomes insolvent. B buys them from the official assignee, and enters into possession. A persists in trespassing on and damaging the houses, and B is thereby compelled, at considerable expense, to employ men to protect the possession. B may sue for an injunction to restrain further acts of trespass.

(p.) The inhabitants of a village claim a right of way over A's land. In a suit against several of them, A obtains a declaratory decree that his land is subject to no such right. Afterwards each of the other villagers sues A for obstructing his alleged right of way over the land. A may sue for an injunction to restrain them.

Act I. of 1877.

(q.) A, in an administration-suit, to which a creditor, B, is not a party, obtains a decree for the administration of C's assets. B proceeds against C's estate for his debt. A may sue for an injunction to restrain B.

(r.) A and B are in possession of contiguous lands and of the mines underneath them. A works his mine so as to extend under B's mine, and threatens to remove certain pillars which help to support B's mine. B may sue for an injunction to restrain him from so doing.

(s.) A rings bells or makes some other unnecessary noise so near a house as to interfere materially and unreasonably with the physical comfort of the occupier, B. B may sue for an injunction restraining A from making the noise.

(t.) A pollutes the air with smoke so as to interfere materially with the physical comfort of B and C, who carry on business in a neighbouring house. B and C may sue for an injunction to restrain the pollution.

(u.) A infringes B's patent. If the Court is satisfied that the patent is valid, and has been infringed, B may obtain an injunction to restrain the infringement.

(v.) A pirates B's copyright. B may obtain an injunction to restrain the piracy, unless the work of which copyright is claimed is libellous or obscene.

(w.) A improperly uses the trademark of B. B may obtain an injunction to restrain the user, provided that B's use of the trademark is honest.

(x.) A, a tradesman, holds out B as his partner against the wish and without the authority of B. B may sue for an injunction to restrain A from so doing.

(y.) A, a very eminent man, writes letters on family-topics to B. After the death of A and B, C, who is B's residuary legatee, proposes to make money by publishing A's letters. D, who is A's executor, has a property in the letters, and may sue for an injunction to restrain C from publishing them.

(z.) A carries on a manufactory, and B is his assistant. In the course of his business, A imparts to B a secret process of value. B afterwards demands money of A, threatening, in case of refusal, to disclose the process to C, a rival manufacturer. A may sue for an injunction to restrain B from disclosing the process.

Mandatory injunctions.

55. When, to prevent the breach of an obligation, it is necessary to compel the performance of certain acts which the Court is capable of enforcing, the Court may in its discretion, grant an injunction to prevent the breach complained of, and also to compel performance of the requisite acts.

Illustrations.

(a.) A, by new buildings, obstructs lights, to the access and use of which B has acquired a right under the Indian Limitation Act, Part IV.* B may obtain an injunction, not only to restrain A from going on with the buildings, but also to pull down so much of them as obstructs B's lights.

(b.) A builds a house with eaves projecting over B's land. B may sue for an injunction to pull down so much of the eaves as so project.

(c.) In the case put as illustration (i) to section 54, the Court may also order all written communications made by B as patient to A, as medical adviser, to be destroyed.

(d.) In the case put as illustration (y) to section 54, the Court may also order A's letters to be destroyed.

(e.) A threatens to publish statements concerning B, which would be punishable under Chapter XXI. of the Indian Penal Code. The Court may grant an injunction to restrain the publication, even though it may be shown not to be injurious to B's property.

(f.) A, being B's medical adviser, threatens to publish B's written communications with him, showing that B has led an immoral life. B may obtain an injunction to restrain the publication.

* See Act XV. of 1877, s. 2.

(g.) In the cases put as illustrations (v) and (w) to section 54, and as illustrations (e) and (f) to this section, the Court may also order the copies produced by piracy, and the trademarks, statements, and communications, therein respectively mentioned, to be given up or destroyed.

Injunction when refused.

56. An injunction cannot be granted—

(a) to stay a judicial proceeding pending at the institution of the suit in which the injunction is sought, unless such restraint is necessary to prevent a multiplicity of proceedings;

(b) to stay proceedings in a Court not subordinate to that from which the injunction is sought;

(c) to restrain persons from applying to any legislative body;

(d) to interfere with the public duties of any department of the Government of India or the Local Government, or with the sovereign acts of a Foreign Government;

(e) to stay proceedings in any criminal matter;

(f) to prevent the breach of a contract, the performance of which would not be specifically enforced;

(g) to prevent, on ground of nuisance, an act of which it is not reasonably clear that it will be a nuisance;

(h) to prevent a continuing breach in which the applicant has acquiesced;

(i) when equally efficacious relief can certainly be obtained by any other usual mode of proceeding, except in case of breach of trust;

(j) when the conduct of the applicant or his agents has been such as to disentitle him to the assistance of the Court;

(k) where the applicant has no personal interest in the matter.

Illustrations.

(a.) A seeks an injunction to restrain his partner, B, from receiving the partnership-debts and effects. It appears that A had improperly possessed himself of the books of the firm, and refused B access to them. The Court will refuse the injunction.

(b.) A manufactures and sells crucibles, designating them as "patent plumbago crucibles," though, in fact, they have never been patented. B pirates the designation. A cannot obtain an injunction to restrain the piracy.

(c.) A sells an article called "Mexican Balm," stating that it is compounded of divers rare essences, and has sovereign medicinal qualities. B commences to sell a similar article to which he gives a name and description such as to lead people into the belief that they are buying A's Mexican Balm. A sues B for an injunction to restrain the sale. B shows that A's Mexican Balm consists of nothing but scented hog's lard. A's use of his description is not an honest one, and he cannot obtain an injunction.

Injunction to perform negative agreement.

57. Notwithstanding section 56, clause (f), where a contract comprises an affirmative agreement to do a certain act, coupled with a negative agreement, express or implied, not to do a certain act, the circumstance that the Court is unable to compel specific performance of the affirmative agreement shall not preclude it from granting an injunction to perform the negative agreement: provided that the applicant has not failed to perform the contract so far as it is binding on him.

Illustrations.

(a.) A contracts to sell to B for Rs. 1,000 the good-will of a certain business unconnected with business-premises, and further agrees not to carry on that business in Calcutta. B pays A the Rs. 1,000, but A carries on the business in Calcutta. The Court cannot compel A to send his customers to B, but B may obtain an injunction restraining A from carrying on the business in Calcutta.

Act II. of 1877.

(b.) A contracts to sell to B the good-will of a business. A then sets up a similar business close by B's shop, and solicits his old customers to deal with him. This is contrary to his implied contract, and B may obtain an injunction to restrain A from soliciting the customers, and from doing any act whereby their good-will may be withdrawn from B.

(c.) A contracts with B to sing for twelve months at B's theatre, and not to sing in public elsewhere. B cannot obtain specific performance of the contract to sing, but he is entitled to an injunction restraining A from singing at any other place of public entertainment.

(d.) B contracts with A that he will serve him faithfully for twelve months as a clerk. A is not entitled to a decree for specific performance of this contract. But he is entitled to an injunction restraining B from serving a rival house as clerk.

(e.) A contracts with B that, in consideration of Rs. 1,000 to be paid to him by B on a day fixed, he will not set up a certain business within a specified distance. B fails to pay the money. A cannot be restrained from carrying on the business within the specified distance.

SCHEDULE.—(See section 2.)

[Repealed by Act XII. of 1891.]

ACT II. OF 1877.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 14TH FEBRUARY 1877.

An Act to amend Act No. XIII. of 1875.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to define the expression 'High Court' as used in Act No. XIII. of 1875 (to amend the law relating to Probates and Letters of Administration), sections 2, 3, and 4; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

'High Court' defined in Act XIII. of 1875, sections 2, 3, and 4.

1. The expression 'High Court' in each of the said sections shall mean, and be deemed to have always meant—

(a) a High Court for the time being established under the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth of Victoria, chapter 104;

(b) the Chief Court of the Panjáb;

(c) the Court of the Recorder of Rangoon.

Saving of certain grants of probate and administration.

2. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to affect the validity of any grant of probate or letters of administration with effect throughout the whole of British India heretofore made by any Court other than the Courts specified in section 1.

ACT III. OF 1877.*

INDIAN REGISTRATION ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 14TH FEBRUARY 1877.

An Act for the Registration of Documents.†

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to the registration of documents; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

PART I.—PRELIMINARY.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Indian Registration Act, 1877:"

Local extent.

It extends to the whole of British India, except such districts or tracts of country as the Local Government may from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, exclude from its operation.‡

Commencement.

And it shall come into force on the first day of April 1877.

Power of Local Government.

The Local Government may, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, cancel any order excluding districts or tracts of country from the operation of this Act.§

Repeal of enactments.

2. On and from that day Act No. VIII. of 1871 shall be repealed.

But all appointments, notifications, rules, and orders made, and all districts and sub-districts formed, and all offices established, and all tables of fees prepared, under such Act or any of the enactments thereby repealed, shall be deemed to have been respectively made, formed, established, and prepared under this Act, except in so far as such rules and orders may be inconsistent herewith.

References made in Acts passed before the first day of April 1877 to the said Act, or to any enactment thereby repealed, shall be read as if made to the corresponding section of this Act.

* Act III. of 1877 has been declared, under the Scheduled Districts Act (XIV. of 1874), to be in force in the Districts of Hazáribágh, Lohárdaga, and Mánbhum, and Pargana Dhálbhum, and the Kolhán in the District of Singbhum.—See Gazette of India, Oct. 22, 1881, Pt. I., p. 504.

It has also, under the same Act, been extended to that part of the Khási and Jaintiá Hills District which is comprised within the limits of the Civil Station and Cantonment of Shillong, and declared to be not actually in force in the other parts of the Khási and Jaintiá Hills District, in the Garo Hills, or in the Nágá Hills District.—See Gazette of India, Nov. 16, 1878, Pt. I., p. 662.

† Ss. 54 (paras. 2 and 3), 59, 107, and 123 of the Transfer of Property Act (IV. of 1882) shall be read as supplemental to the Indian Registration Act, 1877.—See Transfer of Property Act (IV. of 1882), s. 4.

‡ The whole of the Scheduled Districts of the Madras Presidency have been excluded from the operation of the Act.—See Fort St. George Gazette, Oct. 4, 1881, Pt. I., p. 516.

§ The last para. of s. 1 has been added by Act XII. of 1891.

Act III. of 1877.

Interpretation-clause.

3. In this Act, unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context—

"Lease" includes a counterpart, kabuliyat, and undertaking to cultivate or occupy, and an agreement to lease:

"Signature" and "signed" include and apply to the affixing of a mark:

"Immoveable property" includes land, buildings, hereditary allowances, rights to ways, lights, ferries, fisheries, or any other benefit to arise out of land, and things attached to the earth or permanently fastened to anything which is attached to the earth, but not standing timber, growing crops, nor grass:

"Moveable property" includes standing timber, growing crops, and grass, fruit upon and juice in trees, and property of every other description, except immoveable property:

"Book" includes a portion of a book, and also any number of sheets connected together with a view of forming a book or portion of a book;

"Endorsement" and "endorsed" include and apply to an entry in writing by a registering officer on a rider or covering slip to any document tendered for registration under this Act:

"Minor" means a person who, according to the personal law to which he is subject, has not attained majority:*

"Representative" includes the guardian of a minor and the committee or other legal curator of a lunatic or idiot:

"Addition" means the place of residence, and the profession, trade, rank, and title (if any) of a person described, and, in the case of a native, his caste (if any) and his father's name, or, where he is usually described as the son of his mother, then his mother's name:

"District Court" includes the High Court in its ordinary original civil jurisdiction: and

"District" and "sub-district" respectively mean a district and sub-district formed under this Act.

PART II.—Of the Registration-establishment.

Inspector-General of Registration.

4. The Local Government shall appoint an officer to be the Inspector-General of Registration for the territories subject to such Government, or may, instead of making such appointment, direct that all or any of the powers and duties hereinafter conferred and imposed upon the Inspector-General shall be exercised and performed by such officer or officers, and within such local limits, as the Local Government from time to time appoints in this behalf.

Branch Inspector-General of Sindh.

The Governor of Bombay in Council may also, with the previous consent of the Governor-General in Council, appoint an officer to be Branch Inspector-General of Sindh, who shall have all the powers of an Inspector-General under this Act other than the power to frame rules hereinafter conferred.

---

* See Act IX. of 1875.

Any Inspector-General or the Branch Inspector-General of Sindh may hold simultaneously any other office under Government. Act III. of 1877.

5. For the purposes of this Act, the Local Government shall form districts and sub-districts, and shall prescribe, and may from time to time alter, the limits of such districts and sub-districts.

Districts and sub-districts.

The districts and sub-districts formed under this section, together with the limits thereof, and every alteration of such limits, shall be notified in the local official Gazette.

Every such alteration shall take effect on such day after the date of the notification as is therein mentioned.

6. The Local Government may appoint such persons, whether public officers or not, as it thinks proper to be registrars of the several districts, and to be sub-registrars of the several sub-districts, formed as aforesaid, respectively.

Registrars and sub-registrars.

7. The Local Government shall establish in every district an office to be styled the office of the registrar, and in every sub-district an office or offices to be styled the office of the sub-registrar, or the offices of the joint sub-registrars, and may amalgamate with any office of a registrar any office of a sub-registrar subordinate to such registrar,

Offices of registrar and sub-registrar.

and may authorize any sub-registrar whose office has been so amalgamated to exercise and perform, in addition to his own powers and duties, all or any of the powers and duties of the registrar to whom he is subordinate:

Provided that no such authorization shall enable a sub-registrar to hear an appeal against an order passed by himself under this Act.

8. The Local Government may also appoint officers to be called inspectors of registration-offices, and may from time to time prescribe the duties of such officers. Every such inspector shall be subordinate to the Inspector-General.

Inspectors of registration-offices.

9. Every military cantonment where there is a Cantonment Magistrate may (if the Local Government so directs) be, for the purposes of this Act, a sub-district or a district, and such Magistrate shall be the sub-registrar or the registrar of such sub-district or district, as the case may be.*

Military cantonments may be declared sub-districts or districts.

10. Whenever any registrar, other than the registrar of a district, including a presidency-town, is absent otherwise than on duty in his district, or when his office is temporarily vacant, Absence of registrar from his district or vacancy in his office.

any person whom the Inspector-General appoints in this behalf, or, in default of such appointment, the Judge of the District Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the registrar's office is situate, shall be the registrar during such absence, or until the Local Government fills up the vacancy.

---

* The second paragraph of s. 9 has been omitted, as it has been repealed by the Cantonments Act (XIII, of 1889), s. 2 and Sch.

Act III. of 1877.

Whenever the registrar of a district, including a presidency-town, is absent otherwise than on duty in his district, or when his office is temporarily vacant, any person whom the Inspector-General appoints in this behalf shall be the registrar during such absence, or until the Local Government fills up the vacancy.

Absence of registrar on duty in his district.

11. Whenever any registrar is absent from his office on duty in his district he may appoint any sub-registrar or other person in his district to perform, during such absence, all the duties of a registrar, except those mentioned in sections 68 and 72.

Absence of sub-registrar or vacancy in his office.

12. Whenever any sub-registrar is absent, or when his office is temporarily vacant, any person whom the registrar of the district appoints in this behalf shall be sub-registrar during such absence, or until the Local Government fills up the vacancy.

Appointments under section 10, 11, or 12, to be reported to Government.

13. All appointments made under section 10, section 11, or section 12 shall be reported to the Local Government by the Inspector-General. Such report shall be either special or general as the Local Government directs.

Suspension, removal, and dismissal of officers.

The Local Government may suspend, remove, or dismiss any person appointed under the provisions of this Act, and appoint another person in his stead.

Remuneration and establishments of registering officers.

14 Subject to the approval of the Governor-General in Council, the Local Government may assign such salaries as such Government from time to time deems proper to the registering officers appointed under this Act, or provide for their remuneration by fees, or partly by fees and partly by salaries.

The Local Government may allow proper establishments for the several offices under this Act.

Seals of registering officers.

15. The several registrars and sub-registrars shall use a seal bearing the following inscription in English and in such other language as the Local Government directs: "The seal of the registrar (or of the sub-registrar) of ."

Register-books.

16. The Local Government shall provide for the office of every registering officer the books necessary for the purposes of this Act.

Forms.

The books so provided shall contain the forms from time to time prescribed by the Inspector-General with the sanction of the Local Government, and the pages of such books shall be consecutively numbered in print, and the number of pages in each book shall be certified on the title-page by the officer by whom such books are issued.

Fire-proof boxes.

The Local Government shall supply the office of every registrar with a fire-proof box, and shall, in each district, make suitable provision for the safe custody of the records connected with the registration of documents in such district.

PART III.—Of Registrable Documents.

Documents of which registration is compulsory.

17. The documents next hereinafter mentioned shall be registered, if the property to which they relate is situate in a district in which, and if they have been executed on or after the date on which Act No. XVI. of 1864, * or Act No. XX. of 1866, † or Act No. VIII. of 1871, ‡ or this Act, came or comes into force (that is to say),— Act III. of 1877.

(a) instruments of gift of immoveable property;

(b) other non-testamentary instruments which purport or operate to create, declare, assign, limit, or extinguish, whether in present or in future, any right, title, or interest, whether vested or contingent, of the value of one hundred rupees and upwards, to or in immoveable property;

(c) non-testamentary instruments which acknowledge the receipt or payment of any consideration on account of the creation, declaration, assignment, limitation, or extinction of any such right, title, or interest; and

(d) leases of immoveable property from year to year, or for any term exceeding one year, or reserving a yearly rent:

Provided that the Local Government may, by order published in the official Gazette, exempt from the operation of the former part of this section any leases executed in any district, or part of a district, the terms granted by which do not exceed five years, and the annual rents reserved by which do not exceed fifty rupees.

Exception of composition-deeds; and of transfers of shares and debentures in land companies;

Nothing in clauses (b) and (c) of this section applies to—(e) any composition-deed;

(f) any instrument relating to shares in a joint-stock company, notwithstanding that the assets of such company consist in whole or in part of immoveable property; or

(f) any debenture issued by any such company, and not creating, declaring, assigning, limiting, or extinguishing any right, title, or interest to or in immoveable property, except in so far as it entitles the holder to the security afforded by a registered instrument, whereby the company has mortgaged, conveyed, or otherwise transferred the whole or part of its immoveable property, or any interest therein, to trustees upon trust for the benefit of the holders of such debentures; or §

(g) any endorsement upon or transfer of any debenture issued by any such company;

(h) any document not itself creating, declaring, assigning, limiting, or extinguishing any right, title, or interest of the value of one hundred rupees and upwards to or in immoveable property, but merely creating a right to obtain another document, which will, when executed, create, declare, assign, limit, or extinguish any such right, title, or interest; documents merely creating right to obtain other documents.

(i) decrees and orders of Courts and awards;

(j) grants of immoveable property by Government;

‡ Repealed by this Act, s. 2.
§ New clause inserted by Act VII. of 1886, s. 2.

Act III. of 1877.

(k) instruments of partition made by revenue-officers;

(l) certificates and instruments of collateral security granted under the Land Improvement Act, 1871;*

(m) orders granting loans under the Agriculturists' Loans Act, 1884, and instruments for securing the repayment of loans made under that Act; †

(n) any endorsement on a mortgage-deed acknowledging the payment of the whole or any part of the mortgage-money, and any other receipt for payment of money due under a mortgage when the receipt does not purport to extinguish the mortgage. ‡

(o) a certificate of sale granted to the purchaser of any property sold by public auction by a Civil or Revenue Officer. §

Authorities to adopt.

Authorities to adopt a son, executed after the first day of January 1872, and not conferred by a will, shall also be registered. ‖

Documents of which registration is optional.

18. Any of the documents next hereinafter mentioned may be registered under this Act (that is to say),—

(a) instruments (other than instruments of gift and wills) which purport or operate to create, declare, assign, limit, or extinguish, whether in present or in future, any right, title, or interest, whether vested or contingent, of a value less than one hundred rupees, to or in immoveable property;

(b) instruments acknowledging the receipt or payment of any consideration on account of the creation, declaration, assignment, limitation, or extinction of any such right, title, or interest;

(c) leases of immoveable property for any term not exceeding one year and leases exempted under section 17;

(d) instruments (other than wills) which purport or operate to create, declare, assign, limit, or extinguish any right, title, or interest to or in moveable property;

(e) wills;

(f) all other documents not required by section 17 to be registered.

Documents in language not understood by registering officer.

19. If any document duly presented for registration be in a language which the registering officer does not understand, and which is not commonly used in the district, he shall refuse to register the document, unless it be accompanied by a true translation into a language commonly used in the district, and also by a true copy.

---

* In this clause, for the word "certificates" the words "orders granting loans" shall be substituted in those parts of British India in which the Land Improvement Loans Act (XIX. of 1883) is in force.—See s. 12, Act XIX. of 1883.

§ New clause, added by Act VII. of 1888, s. 65.

‖ Also, memoranda appointing new trustees under the Religious Societies Act.—See Act I. of 1880, s. 3.

Documents containing interlineations, blanks, erasures, or alterations.

20. The registering officer may, in his discretion, refuse to accept for registration any document in which any interlineation, blank, erasure, or alteration appears, unless the persons executing the document attest with their signatures or initials such interlineation, blank, erasure, or alteration. If he register such document, he shall, at the time of registering the same, make a note in the register of such interlineation, blank, erasure, or alteration. Act III of 1877.

Description of parcels.

21. (a) No non-testamentary document relating to immoveable property shall be accepted for registration unless it contains a description of such property sufficient to identify the same.

(b) Houses in towns shall be described as situate on the north or other side of the street or road (mentioning it) to which they front, and by their existing and former occupancies, and by their numbers, if the houses in such street or road are numbered. Other houses and lands shall be described by their name, if any, and as being in the territorial division in which they are situate, and by their superficial contents, the roads and other properties on which they abut, and their existing occupancies, and also, whenever it is practicable, by reference to a Government map or survey.

Documents containing maps or plans.

(c) No non-testamentary document containing a map or plan of any property comprised therein shall be accepted for registration unless it be accompanied by a true copy of the map or plan, or, in case such property is situate in several districts, by such number of true copies of the map or plan as are equal to the number of such districts.

Failure to comply with rules as to description of houses and land.

22. Failure to comply with the provisions contained in section 21, clause (b), shall not disentitle a document to be registered if the description of the property to which it relates is sufficient to identify such property.

PART IV.—Of the Time of Presentation.

Time for presenting documents.

23. Subject to the provisions contained in sections 24, 25, and 26, no document other than a will shall be accepted for registration unless presented for that purpose to the proper officer within four months from the date of its execution, or, in the case of a copy of a decree or order, within four months from the day on which the decree or order was made, or, where it is appealable, within four months from the day on which it becomes final:

Provided that, where there are several persons executing a document at different times, such document may be presented for registration and re-registration within four months from the date of each execution.

Provision where delay in presentation is unavoidable.

24. If, owing to urgent necessity or unavoidable accident, any document executed, or copy of a decree or order made, in British India, is not presented for registration till after the expiration of the time hereinbefore prescribed in that behalf, the registrar, in cases where the delay in presentation does not exceed four months, may direct that, on payment of a fine not exceeding ten times the amount of the proper registration-fee, such document shall be accepted for registration.

Act III of 1877.

Any application for such direction may be lodged with a sub-registrar, who shall forthwith forward it to the registrar to whom he is subordinate.

Documents executed out of British India.

25. When a document purporting to have been executed by all or any of the parties out of British India is not presented for registration till after the expiration of the time hereinbefore prescribed in that behalf, the registering officer, if satisfied,

(a) that the instrument was so executed, and

(b) that it has been presented for registration within four months after its arrival in British India, may, on payment of the proper registration-fee, accept such document for registration.

Provision where office is closed on last day of period for presentation.

26. Whenever a registration-office is closed on the last day of any period provided in this Act for the presentation of any document, such last day shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be the day on which the office re-opens.

Wills may be presented or deposited at any time.

27. A will may at any time be presented for registration or deposited in manner hereinafter provided.

PART V.—Of the Place of Registration.

Place for registering documents relating to land.

28. Save as in this part otherwise provided, every document mentioned in section 17, clauses (a), (b), (c), and (d), and section 18, clauses (a), (b), and (c), shall be presented for registration in the office of a sub-registrar within whose sub-district the whole or some portion of the property to which such document relates is situate.

Place for registering other documents.

29. Every document other than a document referred to in section 28, and a copy of a decree or order, may be presented for registration either in the office of the sub-registrar in whose sub-district the document was executed, or in the office of any other sub-registrar under the Local Government at which all the persons executing and claiming under the document desire the same to be registered.

A copy of a decree or order may be presented for registration in the office of the sub-registrar in whose sub-district the original decree or order was made, or, where the decree or order does not affect immoveable property, in the office of any other sub-registrar under the Local Government at which all the persons claiming under the decree or order desire the copy to be registered.

Registration by registrar.

30. (a) Any registrar may, in his discretion, receive and register any document which might be registered by any sub-registrar subordinate to him.

Registration by registrar at presidency-town and Lahore.

(b) The registrar of a district including a presidency-town and the registrar of the Lahore district may receive and register any document referred to in section 28 without regard to the situation in any part of British India of the property to which the document relates.

31. In ordinary cases the registration or deposit of documents under this Act shall be made only at the office of the officer authorized to accept the same for registration or deposit. Act III of 1877.

Registration or acceptance for deposit at private residence.

But such officer may, on special cause being shown, attend at the residence of any person desiring to present a document for registration or to deposit a will, and accept for registration or deposit such will.

PART VI.—Of Presenting Documents for Registration.

32. Except in the cases mentioned in section 31 and section 89, every document to be registered under this Act, whether such registration be compulsory or optional, shall be presented at the proper registration-office,

Persons to present documents for registration.

by some person executing or claiming under the same, or, in the case of a copy of a decree or order, claiming under the decree or order, or by the representative or assign of such person, or by the agent of such person, representative, or assign, duly authorized by power-of-attorney executed and authenticated in manner hereinafter mentioned.

33. For the purposes of section 32, the powers-of-attorney next hereinafter mentioned shall alone be recognized (that is to say),—

Powers-of-attorney recognizable for purposes of section 32.

(a) if the principal, at the time of executing the power-of-attorney, resides in any part of British India in which this Act is for the time being in force, a power-of-attorney executed before and authenticated by the registrar or sub-registrar within whose district or sub-district the principal resides :

(b) if the principal at the time aforesaid resides in any other part of British India, a power-of-attorney executed before and authenticated by any Magistrate :

(c) if the principal at the time aforesaid does not reside in British India, a power-of-attorney executed before and authenticated by a Notary Public, or any Court, Judge, Magistrate, British Consul, or Vice-Consul, or representative of Her Majesty or of the Government of India :

Provided that the following persons shall not be required to attend at any registration-office or Court for the purpose of executing any such power-of-attorney as is mentioned in clauses (a) and (b) of this section :—

Proviso as to persons infirm or in jail, or exempt from appearing in Court.

persons who, by reason of bodily infirmity, are unable, without risk or serious inconvenience, so to attend ; persons who are in jail under civil or criminal process ; and persons exempt by law from personal appearance in Court.

In every such case the registrar or sub-registrar or magistrate (as the case may be), if satisfied that the power-of-attorney has been voluntarily executed by the person purporting to be the principal, may attest the same without requiring his personal attendance at the office or Court aforesaid.

Act III. of 1877.

To obtain evidence as to the voluntary nature of the execution, the registrar or sub-registrar or magistrate may either himself go to the house of the person purporting to be the principal, or to the jail in which he is confined, and examine him, or issue a commission for his examination.

Any power-of-attorney mentioned in this section may be proved by the production of it without further proof, when it purports on the face of it to have been executed [redacted] authenticated by, the person or Court hereinbefore mentioned in [redacted].

Enquiry before registration by registering officer.

34. Subject to the provisions contained in this part and in sections 41, 43, 45, 69, 75, 77, 88, and 89, no document shall be registered under this Act, unless the persons executing such document, or their representatives, assigns, or agents authorized as aforesaid, appear before the registering officer within the time allowed for presentation under sections 23, 24, 25, and 26:

Provided that, if, owing to urgent necessity or unavoidable accident, all such persons do not so appear, the registrar, in cases where the delay in appearing does not exceed four months, may direct that, on payment of a fine, not exceeding ten times the amount of the proper registration-fee, in addition to the fine, if any, payable under section 24, the document may be registered.

Such appearances may be simultaneous or at different times.

The registering officer shall thereupon—

(a) enquire whether or not such document was executed by the persons by whom it purports to have been executed,

(b) satisfy himself as to the identity of the persons appearing before him, and alleging that they have executed the document, and,

(c) in the case of any person appearing as a representative, assign, or agent, satisfy himself of the right of such person so to appear.

Any application for a direction under the proviso in this section may be lodged with a sub-registrar, who shall forthwith forward it to the registrar to whom he is subordinate.

Nothing in this section applies to copies of decrees or orders.

Procedure on admission of execution.

35. If all the persons executing the document appear personally before the registering officer, and are personally known to him, or if he be otherwise satisfied that they are the persons they represent themselves to be, and if they all admit the execution of the document; or, in the case of any person appearing by a representative, assign, or agent, if such representative, assign, or agent admits the execution; or, if the person executing the document is dead, and his representative or assign appears before the registering officer, and admits the execution, the registering officer shall register the document as directed in sections 58 to 61, inclusive.

Procedure on denial of execution, &c.

The registering officer may, in order to satisfy himself that the persons appearing before him are the persons they represent themselves to be, or for any other purpose contemplated by this Act, examine any one present in his office. If any of the persons by whom the document purports to be executed deny its execution, or if any such person appears to the registering officer* to be a minor, an idiot, or a lunatic, or if any person by whom the document purports to be executed is dead, and his representative or assign denies its execution, the registering officer shall refuse to register the document as to the person so denying, appearing, or dead:† Provided that, where such officer is a registrar, he shall follow the procedure prescribed in Part XII. of this Act.

PART VII.—Of Enforcing the Appearance of Executants and Witnesses.

Procedure where appearance of executant or witness is desired.

36. If any person presenting any document for registration, or claiming under any document which is capable of being so presented, desires the appearance of any person whose presence or testimony is necessary for the registration of such document, the registering officer may, in his discretion, call upon such officer or Court as the Local Government from time to time directs in this behalf to issue a summons requiring him to appear at the registration-office, either in person or by duly authorized agent as in the summons may be mentioned, and at a time named therein.

Officer or Court to issue and cause service of summons.

37. The officer or Court, upon receipt of the peon's fee payable in such cases, shall issue the summons accordingly, and cause it to be served upon the person whose appearance is so required.

Persons exempt from appearance at registration-office.

38. A person who, by reason of bodily infirmity, is unable, without risk or serious inconvenience, to appear at the registration-office, a person in jail under civil or criminal process, and persons exempt by law from personal appearance in Court, and who would, but for the provision next hereinafter contained, be required to appear in person at the registration-office, shall not be required so to appear.

In every such case, the registering officer shall either himself go to the house of such person, or to the jail in which he is confined, and examine him, or issue a commission for his examination.

Law as to summonses, commissions, and witnesses.

39. The law in force for the time being as to summonses, commissions, and compelling the attendance of witnesses, and for their remuneration in suits before Civil Courts, shall, save as aforesaid, and, mutatis mutandis, apply to any summons or commission issued, and any person summoned to appear, under the provisions of this Act.

---

* The words "to the registering officer" have been added by Act XII. of 1879, s. 104.

† The words "as to the person so denying, appearing, or dead" have been added by the same Act and section.

PART VIII.—Of Presenting Wills and Authorities to Adopt.

Persons entitled to present wills and authorities to adopt.

40. The testator, or after his death any person claiming as executor or otherwise under a will, may present it to any registrar or sub-registrar for registration, and the donor, or after his death the donee, of any authority to adopt, or the adoptive son, may present it to any registrar or sub-registrar for registration.

Registration of wills and authorities to adopt.

41. A will or an authority to adopt presented for registration by the testator or donor may be registered in the same manner as any other document.

A will or authority to adopt presented for registration by any other person entitled to present it shall be registered if the registering officer is satisfied—

(a) that the will or authority was executed by the testator or donor, as the case may be;

(b) that the testator or donor is dead; and

(c) that the person presenting the will or authority is, under section 40, entitled to present the same.

PART IX.—Of the Deposit of Wills.

Deposit of wills.

42. Any testator may, either personally or by duly-authorized agent, deposit with any registrar his will in a sealed cover, superscribed with the name of the testator and that of his agent (if any), and with a statement of the nature of the document.

Procedure on deposit of wills.

43. On receiving such cover, the registrar, if satisfied that the person presenting the same for deposit is the testator or his agent, shall transcribe in his Register-book No. 5 the superscription aforesaid, and shall note, in the same book and on the said cover, the year, month, day, and hour of such presentation and receipt, and the names of any persons who may testify to the identity of the testator or his agent, and any legible inscription which may be on the seal of the cover.

The registrar shall then place and retain the sealed cover in his fire-proof box.

Withdrawal of sealed cover deposited under section 42.

44. If the testator who has deposited such cover wishes to withdraw it, he may apply either personally or by duly-authorized agent to the registrar who holds it in deposit, and such registrar, if satisfied that the applicant is actually the testator or his agent, shall deliver the cover accordingly.

Proceedings on death of depositor.

45. If, on the death of a testator who has deposited a sealed cover under section 42, application be made to the registrar who holds it in deposit to open the same, and if the registrar is satisfied that the testator is dead, he shall, in the applicant's presence, open the cover, and, at the applicant's expense; cause the contents thereof to be copied into his Book No. 3.

Re-deposit.

When such copy has been made, the registrar shall re-deposit the original will.

Saving of Act X. of 1865, section 259.

46. Nothing hereinbefore contained shall affect the provisions of the Indian Succession Act, section 259, or the power of any Court by order to compel the production of any will. But whenever any such order is made, the registrar shall, unless the will has been already copied under section 45, open the cover, and cause the will to be copied into his Book No. 3, and make a note on such copy that the original has been removed into Court in pursuance of the order aforesaid. Act III. of 1877.

PART X.—OF THE EFFECTS OF REGISTRATION AND NON-REGISTRATION.

Time from which registered document operates.

47. A registered document shall operate from the time from which it would have commenced to operate if no registration thereof had been required or made, and not from the time of its registration.

Registered documents relating to property when to take effect against oral agreements.

48. All non-testamentary documents duly registered under this Act, and relating to any property, whether moveable or immoveable, shall take effect against any oral agreement or declaration relating to such property, unless where the agreement or declaration has been accompanied or followed by delivery of possession.

Effect of non-registration of documents required to be registered.

49. No document required by section 17 to be registered—shall affect any immoveable property comprised therein, or confer any power to adopt, or be received as evidence of any transaction affecting such property or conferring such power, unless it has been registered in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Registered documents relating to land, of which registration is optional, to take effect against unregistered documents.

50. Every document of the kinds mentioned in clauses (a), (b), (c), and (d) of section 17, and clauses (a) and (b) of section 18, shall, if duly registered, take effect, as regards the property comprised therein, against every unregistered document relating to the same property, and not being a decree or order, whether such unregistered document be of the same nature as the registered document or not.

Nothing in the former part of this section applies to leases exempted under the proviso in section 17, or to the documents mentioned in clauses (e), (f), (ff), (g), (h), (i), (j), (k), (l), (m), (n), and (o), of the same section.*

Explanation.—In cases where Act No. XVI. of 1864† or Act No. XX. of 1866‡ was in force in the place and at the time in and at which such unregistered document was executed, "unregistered" means not registered according to such Act, and, where the document is executed after the first day of July 1871, not registered under Act No. VIII. of 1871§ or this Act.

* As amended by Act VII. of 1886, s. 5, and Act VII. of 1888, s. 65.
† Repealed by Act XX. of 1866, s. 3.
‡ Repealed by Act VIII. of 1871, s. 2.
§ Repealed by this Act, s. 2.

Act III. of 1877.

PART XI.—Of the Duties and Powers of Registering Officers.

(A) As to the Register-books and Indexes.

Register-books to be kept in the several offices.

51. The following books shall be kept in the several offices hereinafter named (that is to say),—

In all registration-offices—

Book 1, "Register of non-testamentary documents relating to immoveable property;"

Book 2, "Record of reasons for refusal to register;"

Book 3, "Register of wills and authorities to adopt;" and Book 4, "Miscellaneous register."

In the offices of registrars—

Book 5, "Register of deposits of wills."

In Book 1 shall be entered or filed all documents or memoranda registered under sections 17, 18, and 89,* which relate to immoveable property and are not wills.

In Book 4 shall be entered all documents registered under clauses (d) and (f) of section 18, which do not relate to immoveable property.

Nothing in the former part of this section shall be deemed to require more than one set of books where the office of the registrar has been amalgamated with the office of a sub-registrar.

Endorsements on document presented.

52. The day, hour, and place of presentation, and the signature of every person presenting a document for registration, shall be endorsed on every such document at the time of presenting it: a receipt for such document shall be given by the registering officer to the person presenting the same; and subject to the provisions contained in section 62, every document admitted to registration shall, without unnecessary delay, be copied in the book appropriated therefor according to the order of its admission.

Receipt for document.

Documents admitted to registration to be copied.

And all such books shall be authenticated at such intervals and in such manner as is from time to time prescribed by the Inspector-General.

Entries to be numbered consecutively.

53. All entries in each book shall be numbered in a consecutive series, which shall commence and terminate with the year, a fresh series being commenced at the beginning of each year.

Current indexes and entries therein.

54. In every office in which any of the books hereinbefore mentioned are kept, there shall be prepared current indexes of the contents of such books; and every entry in such indexes shall be made, so far as practicable, immediately after the registering officer has copied, or filed a memorandum of, the document to which it relates.

---

* The figures 89 have been substituted for 87 by Act XII. of 1879, s. 105.

55. Four such indexes shall be made in all registration-offices, and shall be named, respectively, Index No. I., Index No. II., Index No. III., and Index No. IV.

Indexes to be made by registering officers.

Index No. I. shall contain the names and additions of all persons executing, and of all persons claiming under, every document entered, or memorandum filed, in Book No. 1.

Index No. II. shall contain such particulars mentioned in section 21 relating to every such document and memorandum as the Inspector-General from time to time directs in that behalf.

Index No. III. shall contain the names and additions of all persons executing every will and authority entered in Book No. 3, and of the executors and persons respectively appointed thereunder, and, after the death of the testator or the donor (but not before), the names and additions of all persons claiming under the same.

Index No. IV. shall contain the names and additions of all persons executing, and of all persons claiming under, every document entered in Book No. 4.

Indexes Nos. I., II., III., and IV. shall contain such other particulars, and shall be prepared in such form, as the Inspector-General from time to time directs.

Extra particulars in Indexes.

56. Every sub-registrar shall send to the registrar to whom he is subordinate, at such intervals as the Inspector-General from time to time directs, a copy of all entries made by such sub-registrar, during the last of such intervals, in Indexes Nos. I., II., and III.

Copy of entries in Indexes Nos. I., II., and III. to be sent by sub-registrar to registrar.

Every registrar receiving such copy shall file it in his office.

Such copy to be filed by registrar.

57. Subject to the previous payment of the fees payable in that behalf, the Books Nos. 1 and 2, and the Indexes relating to Book No. 1, shall be at all times open to inspection by any person applying to inspect the same; and, subject to the provisions of section 62, copies of entries in such Books shall be given to all persons applying for such copies.

Registering officers to allow inspection of certain books and indexes, and to give certified copies of entries.

Subject to the same provisions, copies of entries in Book No. 3, and in the Index relating thereto, shall be given to the persons executing the documents to which such entries relate, or to their agents, and, after the death of the executants (but not before), to any person applying for such copies.

Subject to the same provisions, copies of entries in Book No. 4, and in the Index relating thereto, shall be given to any person executing or claiming under the documents to which such entries respectively refer, or to his agent or representative. The requisite search under this section for entries in Books Nos. 3 and 4 shall be made only by the registering officer.

All copies given under this section shall be signed and sealed by the registering officer, and shall be admissible for the purpose of proving the contents of the original documents.

Act III. of 1877.

(B) As to the Procedure on admitting to Registration.

58. On every document admitted to registration, other than a copy of a decree or order, or a copy sent to a registering officer under section 89,* there shall be endorsed from time to time the following particulars (that is to say),—

Particulars to be endorsed on documents admitted to registration.

(a) the signature and addition of every person admitting the execution of the document; and, if such execution has been admitted by the representative, assign, or agent of any person, the signature and addition of such representative, assign, or agent;

(b) the signature and addition of every person examined in reference to such document under any of the provisions of this Act; and

(c) any payment of money or delivery of goods made in the presence of the registering officer in reference to the execution of the document, and any admission of receipt of consideration, in whole or in part, made in his presence, in reference to such execution.

If any person admitting the execution of a document refuses to endorse the same, the registering officer shall nevertheless register it, but shall, at the same time, endorse a note of such refusal.

59. The registering officer shall affix the date and his signature to all endorsements made under sections 52 and 58, relating to the same document, and made in his presence on the same day.

Such endorsements to be dated and signed by registering officer.

60. After such of the provisions of sections 34, 35, 58, and 59, as apply to any document presented for registration, have been complied with, the registering officer shall endorse thereon a certificate containing the word "registered," together with the number and page of the book in which the document has been copied.

Certificate showing that document has been registered, and number and page of book in which it has been copied.

Such certificate shall be signed, sealed, and dated by the registering officer, and shall then be admissible for the purpose of proving that the document has been duly registered in manner provided by this Act, and that the facts mentioned in the endorsements referred to in section 59 have occurred as therein mentioned.

61. The endorsements and certificate referred to and mentioned in sections 59 and 60 shall thereupon be copied into the margin of the register-book, and the copy of the map or plan (if any) mentioned in section 21 shall be filed in Book No. 1.

Endorsements and certificate to be copied.

The registration of the document shall thereupon be deemed complete, and the document shall then be returned to the person who presented the same for registration, or to such other person (if any) as he has nominated in writing in that behalf on the receipt mentioned in section 52.

Document to be returned.

62. When a document is presented for registration under section 19, the translation shall be transcribed in the register of documents of the nature of the original, and, together with the copy referred to in section 19, shall be filed in the registration-office.

Procedure on presenting document in language unknown to registering officer.

* As amended by Acts XIX. of 1883 and VII. of 1886.

The endorsements and certificate respectively mentioned in sections 59 and 60 shall be made on the original, and, for the purpose of making the copies and memoranda required by sections 57, 64, 65, and 66, the translation shall be treated as if it were the original. Act III. of 1877.

63. Every registering officer may, at his discretion, administer an oath to any person examined by him under the provisions of this Act.

Power to administer oaths.

He may also, at his discretion, record a note of the substance of the statement made by each such person, and such statement shall be read over, or (if made in a language with which such person is not acquainted) interpreted to him in a language with which he is acquainted, and, if he admits the correctness of such note, it shall be signed by the registering officer.

Record of substance of statements.

Every such note so signed shall be admissible for the purpose of proving that the statements therein recorded were made by the persons and under the circumstances therein stated.

(C) Special Duties of Sub-Registrar.

64. Every sub-registrar, on registering a non-testamentary document relating to immoveable property not wholly situate in his own sub-district, shall make a memorandum thereof and of the endorsement and certificate (if any) thereon, and send the same to every other sub-registrar subordinate to the same registrar as himself in whose sub-district any part of such property is situate, and such sub-registrar shall file the memorandum in his Book No. 1.

Procedure on registration of document relating to land situate in several sub-districts.

65. Every sub-registrar, on registering a non-testamentary document relating to immoveable property situate in more districts than one, shall also forward a copy thereof and of the endorsement and certificate (if any) thereon, together with a copy of the map or plan (if any) mentioned in section 21, to the registrar of every district in which any part of such property is situate other than the district in which his own sub-district is situate.

Procedure where document relates to land situate in several districts.

The registrar, on receiving the same, shall file in his Book No. 1 the copy of the document and the copy of the map or plan (if any), and shall forward a memorandum of the document to each of the sub-registrars subordinate to him within whose sub-district any part of such property is situate; and every sub-registrar receiving such memorandum shall file it in his Book No. 1.

(D) Special Duties of Registrar.

66. On registering any non-testamentary document relating to immoveable property, the registrar shall forward a memorandum of such document to each sub-registrar subordinate to himself in whose sub-district any part of the property is situate.

Procedure on registering documents relating to land.

He shall also forward a copy of such document, together with a copy of the map or plan (if any) mentioned in section 21, to every other registrar in whose district any part of such property is situate.

Such registrar, on receiving any such copy, shall file it in his Book No. 1, and shall also send a memorandum of the copy to each of the sub-registrars subordinate to him within whose sub-district any part of the property is situate.

Every sub-registrar receiving any memorandum under this section shall file it in his Book No. 1.

Act III. of 1877.

67. On any document being registered under section 30, clause (b), a copy of such document and of the endorsements and certificate thereon shall be forwarded to every registrar within whose district any part of the property to which the instrument relates is situate, and the registrar receiving such copy shall follow the procedure prescribed for him in the first clause of section 66.

Procedure on registration under section 30, clause (b).

(E) Of the Controlling Powers of Registrars and Inspectors-General.

68. Every sub-registrar shall perform the duties of his office under the superintendence and control of the registrar in whose district the office of such sub-registrar is situate.

Registrar to superintend and control sub-registrars.

Every registrar shall have authority to issue (whether on complaint or otherwise) any order consistent with this Act which he considers necessary in respect of any act or omission of any sub-registrar subordinate to him, or in respect of the rectification of any error regarding the book or the office in which any document shall have been registered.

69. The Inspector-General shall exercise a general superintendence over all the registration-offices in the territories under the Local Government, and shall have power from time to time to make rules consistent with this Act—

Inspector-General to superintend registration-offices. His power to make rules.

providing for the safe custody of books, papers, and documents, and also for the destruction of such books, papers, and documents as need no longer be kept;

declaring what languages shall be deemed to be commonly used in each district;

declaring what territorial division shall be recognized under section 21; regulating the amount of fines imposed under sections 24 and 34, respectively; regulating the exercise of the discretion reposed in the registering officer by section 63; regulating the form in which registering officers are to make memoranda of documents; regulating the authentication by registrars and sub-registrars of the books kept in their respective offices under section 51;

declaring the particulars to be contained in Indexes Nos. I., II., III., and IV., respectively; declaring the holidays that shall be observed in the registration-offices; and, generally, regulating the proceedings of the registrars and sub-registrars.

The rules so made shall be submitted to the Local Government for approval, and, after they have been approved, they shall be published in the official Gazette, and shall then have the same force as if they were inserted in this Act.

70. The Inspector-General may also, in the exercise of his discretion, remit, wholly or in part, the difference between any fine levied under section 24 or section 34, and the amount of the proper registration-fee.

His power to remit fines.

PART XII.—OF REFUSAL TO REGISTER.

Reasons for refusal to register to be recorded.

71. Every sub-registrar refusing to register a document, except on the ground that the property to which it relates is not situate within his sub-district, shall make an order of refusal, and record his reasons for such order in his Book No. 2, and endorse the words "registration refused" on the document; and, on application made by any person executing or claiming under the document, shall, without payment and unnecessary delay, give him a copy of the reasons so recorded.

No registering officer shall accept for registration a document so endorsed, unless and until, under the provisions hereinafter contained, the document is directed to be registered.

Power to reverse or alter orders of sub-registrar refusing registration on ground other than denial of execution.

72. Except where the refusal is made on the ground of denial of execution, an appeal shall lie against an order of a sub-registrar refusing to admit a document to registration (whether the registration of such document is compulsory or optional) to the registrar to whom such sub-registrar is subordinate, if presented to such registrar within thirty days from the date of the order; and the registrar may reverse or alter such order; and, if the order of the registrar directs the document to be registered, and the document is duly presented for registration within thirty days after the making of such order, the sub-registrar shall obey the same, and thereupon shall, so far as may be practicable, follow the procedure prescribed in sections 58, 59, and 60; and such registration shall take effect as if the document had been registered when it was first duly presented for registration.

Application where sub-registrar refuses to register on ground of denial of execution.

73. When a sub-registrar has refused to register a document on the ground that any person by whom it purports to be executed, or his representative or assign, denies its execution, any person claiming under such document, or his representative, assign, or agent authorized as aforesaid, may, within thirty days after the making of the order of refusal, apply to the registrar to whom such sub-registrar is subordinate in order to establish his right to have the document registered.

Such application shall be in writing, and shall be accompanied by a copy of the reasons recorded under section 71; and the statements in the application shall be verified by the applicant in manner required by law for the verification of plaints.

Procedure of registrar on such application.

74. In such case, and also where such denial as aforesaid is made before a registrar in respect of a document presented for registration to him, he shall, as soon as conveniently may be, enquire—

(a) whether the document has been executed;

(b) whether the requirements of the law for the time being in force have been complied with on the part of the applicant or person presenting the document for registration, as the case may be, so as to entitle the document to registration.

Act III. of 1877.

Order to register, and procedure thereon.

75. If the registrar finds that the document has been executed, and that the said requirements have been complied with, he shall order the document to be registered.

And if the document be duly presented for registration within thirty days after the making of such order, the registering officer shall obey the same, and thereupon shall, so far as may be practicable, follow the procedure prescribed in sections 58, 59, and 60.

Such registration shall take effect as if the document had been registered when it was first duly presented for registration.

The registrar may, for the purpose of any enquiry under section 74, summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses, and compel them to give evidence as if he were a Civil Court, and he may also direct by whom the whole or any part of the costs of any such enquiry shall be paid, and such costs shall be recoverable as if they had been awarded in a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure.*

Refusal by registrar.

76. Every registrar refusing—

(a) to register a document except on the ground that the property to which it relates is not situate within his district, or that the document ought to be registered in the office of a sub-registrar, or

(b) to direct the registration of a document under section 72 or section 75, shall make an order of refusal, and record the reasons for such order in his Book No. 2, and, on application made by any person executing or claiming under the document, shall, without unnecessary delay, give him a copy of the reasons so recorded.

No appeal lies from any order under this section or section 72.

Suit in case of refusal.

77. Where the registrar refuses to order the document to be registered under section 72 or section 76, any person claiming under such document, or his representative, assign, or agent, may, within thirty days after the making of the order of refusal, institute in the Civil Court, within the local limits of whose original jurisdiction is situate the office in which the document is sought to be registered, a suit for a decree directing the document to be registered in such office, if it be duly presented for registration within thirty days after the passing of such decree; and the provisions contained in the second and third paragraphs of section 75 shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to all documents so presented, and, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the document shall be receivable in evidence in such suit.

PART XIII.—Of the Fees for Registration, Searches, and Copies.

Fees to be fixed by Local Government.

78. Subject to the approval of the Governor-General in Council, the Local Government shall prepare a table of fees payable—for the registration of documents:

and of extra or additional fees payable—for every registration under section 30 :

for the issue of commissions :

for filing translations :

for attending at private residences :

for the safe custody and return of documents :

and for such other matters as appear to the Local Government necessary to effect the purposes of this Act.

Alteration of fees.

The Local Government may from time to time, subject to the like approval, alter such table.

79. A table of the fees so payable shall be published in the official Gazette, and a copy thereof in English and the vernacular language of the district shall be exposed to public view in every registration-office.

Publication of fees.

Fees payable on presentation.

80. All fees for the registration of documents under this Act shall be payable on the presentation of such documents.

PART XIV.—Of Penalties.

81. Every registering officer appointed under this Act, and every person employed in his office for the purposes of this Act, who being charged with the endorsing, copying, translating, or registering of any document presented or deposited under its provisions, endorses, copies, translates, or registers such document in a manner which he knows or believes to be incorrect, intending thereby to cause, or knowing it to be likely that he may thereby cause, injury, as defined in the Indian Penal Code, to any person, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years, or with fine, or with both.

Penalty for incorrectly endorsing, copying, translating, or registering documents with intent to injure.

82. Whoever commits any of the following offences shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years, or with fine, or with both :

Act XI of 1877.

THE MILITARY LUNATICS ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 31ST MAY 1877.

An Act to facilitate the Admission of Military Lunatics into Asylums.

WHEREAS it is expedient to facilitate the admission of European Military Lunatics into Asylums, and to amend the law now in force with regard to the admission thereto of Native Military Lunatics; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Military Lunatics Act, 1877:"

Local extent.

It extends to the whole of British India and, so far as regards subjects of Her Majesty, to the dominions of Native Princes and States in India in alliance with Her Majesty;

Commencement.

And it shall come into force on the passing thereof.

2. [Repealed by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. I.]

Procedure in respect of European officer or soldier declared lunatic.

3. Whenever any European officer, warrant-officer, non-commissioned officer, soldier, or other person subject to the provisions of the ~~Act,~~† ~~for punishing mutiny and desertion and for the better payment of the Army and their quarters, for the time being in force~~, has been declared a lunatic in accordance with the provisions of the military regulations ~~of the Presidency to which he belongs~~, and has been ordered to be forwarded to any one of the Presidency-towns, and it appears to ~~one of the Surgeons-General either of the British forces or of the~~ Indian Medical service, ~~according to the Presidency and the service to which the~~ said lunatic belongs, that it is inexpedient that he should be removed to England, or that he should be detained in military custody until he can be conveniently sent to England, ~~such Surgeon-General~~ may, if he think fit, make an order under his hand for the reception of the said lunatic into the Lunatic Asylum at Bhowanipur, Madras, or Bombay, or such other Lunatic Asylum as may be duly authorized for the purpose by the Governor-General in Council; and the officer in charge of such asylum shall receive the lunatic in the asylum, and detain him therein until he is discharged therefrom, in accordance with the ~~local~~ military regulations in force for the time being, or until ~~the Surgeon-General~~ applies for his transfer to the military authorities in view to his removal to England.

Act XI. of 1877.

Report in case of native officer or soldier appearing to be insane.

4. Whenever any native officer, non-commissioned officer, or soldier appears to be insane, the officer commanding the regiment or detachment to which he belongs shall report the case to the General Officer commanding the division or district or force in which such regiment or detachment is serving.

Examination of native by committee.

5. Such General Officer shall thereupon cause the said native to be examined by a committee composed of at least two medical officers, or (if this be impracticable) by a regimental committee comprising the officer in command of the wing or squadron to which the native belongs, and the medical officer in charge of the corps or detachment of which such wing or squadron forms part.

Procedure on native being found by committee to be insane.

6. If the said committee or regimental committee (as the case may be) are satisfied that the native is insane, the officer commanding the division or district or force may, if he thinks fit, make an order under his hand for the reception of the said native into a Lunatic Asylum, and shall then send him thither under military escort; and the officer in charge of such asylum shall receive the native into the asylum, and detain him therein until he is discharged therefrom in accordance with the ~~local~~ military regulations in force for the time being.

Procedure for discharge of European or native military lunatic.

7. Whenever it appears to the officer in charge of a Lunatic Asylum that the discharge of a military lunatic, whether European or native, is necessary either on account of his recovery, or for any other purpose, such person shall be brought before the visitors of the asylum, and on the visitors recording their opinion that the discharge should be made, the General Officer commanding the division, district, or force, or other officer authorized to order the admission of military lunatics into asylums, shall forthwith direct him to be discharged, and such discharge shall take place in accordance with the ~~local~~ military regulations in force for the time being.

Payment of expenses of lunatic.

8. The paymaster of the military circle within which any such asylum is situate shall pay to the officer in charge of such asylum the expense of the lodging, maintenance, clothing, and medicine of every lunatic, whether European or native, received and detained under this Act.

(a) every able-bodied person who resides in the neighbourhood of such embankment, and whose name appears in the list hereinafter mentioned, shall, if required to do so by such officer or by any person authorized by him in this behalf, be bound to assist in the execution of such work by labouring thereon as such officer or any person authorized by him in this behalf may direct; and

Power to take materials.

(b) such officer or any person authorized by him in this behalf may enter into and upon any immoveable property in the said neighbourhood, and take possession of, appropriate, and remove any trees or bamboos, whether standing or not, and any timber,

---

* The territories are now known as Lower Burma.—See Act XX. of 1886, s. 2 (1) (b). And the Chief Commissioner is styled Chief Commissioner of Burma.—See Proclamation, dated Sep. 25, 1886, Gazette of India, 25th idem, Pt. I., p. 539.

Act XIII. of 1877.

mats, rope, or other materials found in or upon such property, and use the same for the purposes of such work.

List of labourers.

4. Subject to such rules as the Local Government may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, prescribe in this behalf, the Deputy Commissioner shall prepare a list of the persons liable to be required, under section 3, clause (a), to assist as aforesaid, and may, from time to time, add to or alter such list or any part thereof.

Payment for labour impressed and materials taken.

5. All persons labouring, or detained for the purpose of labouring, in compliance with a requisition made under section 3, or whose materials may be taken under that section, shall, as soon as may be reasonably practicable, be paid by t bankment-officer for their labour and detention, or for such materials case may be), at such rates, not being less than the highest market-r similar labour or materials for the time being prevailing in the said nei hood, as the Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, by writte direct.

Compensation for damage done in taking materials.

6. When, from the removal of any trees, bamboos, or other under section 3, any damage, over and a price payable for such materials under results directly to any person, the emba officer shall pay to such person such sum as may be agreed upon pensation for such damage, or, in case of dispute as to the amou be paid, as the Deputy Commissioner of the district may award, sub such rules, as to appeal or otherwise, as the Chief Commissioner may time to time, prescribe in this behalf.

Penalties for trespass on embankments, &c.

7. Where, an embankment-officer has been appointed for any emb ment, any person who, without the permissio such officer—

(a) grazes any cattle or allows any cattle under his charge to tresp on such embankment, or

(b) cuts or roots out any trees, shrubs, or grass growing on such em bankment, or

(c) obstructs any drain or sluice connected with such embankment, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, or with both.

Explanation.—In this section, clause (a), "cattle" includes also elephants, buffaloes, horses, mares, geldings, ponies, colts, fillies, mules, asses, pigs, rams, ewes, sheep, lambs, goats, and kids.

Certain persons to be deemed public servants.

8. Every embankment-officer, and every person authorized by an embankment-officer to act under section 3, shall be deemed to be a "public servant" within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code.*

INDIAN LIMITATION ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 19TH JULY 1877.

An Act for the Limitation of Suits, and for other Purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to the limitation of suits, appeals, and certain applications to Courts; and whereas it is also expedient to provide rules for acquiring by possession the ownership of easements and other property; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

PART I.

PRELIMINARY.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Indian Limitation Act, 1877."

Extent of Act.

It extends to the whole of British India; but nothing contained in sections 2 and 3 or in Parts II. and III. applies—

(a) to suits under the Indian Divorce Act, or (b) to suits under Madras Regulation VI. of 1831.

Commencement.

And it shall come into force on the first day of October 1877.

References to Act IX. of 1871.
Saving of titles already acquired.
Saving of Act IX. of 1872, section 25.

2.† All references to the Indian Limitation Act, 1871,‡ shall be read as if made to this Act; and nothing herein or in that Act contained shall be deemed to affect any title acquired, or to revive any right to sue barred, under that Act, or under any enactment thereby repealed; and nothing herein contained shall be deemed to affect the Indian Contract Act, section 25.§

Interpretation-clause.

3. In this Act, unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context,—

'plaintiff' includes also any person from or through whom a plaintiff derives his right to sue; 'applicant' includes also any person from or through whom

---

* Act XV. of 1877 has been declared in force in Upper Burma generally (except the Shan States) by Act XX. of 1886, s. 6; in British Baluchistan, by Reg. I. of 1890, s. 3; in the Santhál Parganas, by Reg. III. of 1872 as amended by Reg. III. of 1886, s. 6; and in the District of Hazára, by Reg. II. of 1874, s. 3.

It has been declared, under the Scheduled Districts Act (XIV. of 1874), to be in force in the following Scheduled Districts: The Districts of Hazáribágh, Lohárdaga, and Mánbhum, and Pargana Dhálbhum, and the Kolhán in the District of Singbhum.—See Gazette of India, Oct. 22, 1881, Part I., p. 504.

† Certain words, repealed by Act XII. of 1891, have here been omitted. Those words originally formed the first para. of s. 2.

an applicant derives his right to apply; and 'defendant' includes also any person from or through whom a defendant derives his liability to be sued: Act XV. of 1877.

'easement'* includes also a right, not arising from contract, by which one person is entitled to remove and appropriate for his own profit any part of the soil belonging to another, or anything growing in, or attached to, or subsisting upon, the land of another:

'bill of exchange' includes also a hundi and a cheque:

'bond' includes any instrument whereby a person obliges himself to pay money to another, on condition that the obligation shall be void if a specified act is performed, or is not performed, as the case may be:

'promissory note' means any instrument whereby the maker engages absolutely to pay a specified sum of money to another at a time therein limited, or on demand, or at sight:

'trustee' does not include a benámídár, a mortgagee remaining in possession after the mortgage has been satisfied, or a wrong-doer in possession without title:

'suit' does not include an appeal or an application:

'registered' means duly registered in British India under the law† for the registration of documents in force at the time and place of executing the document, or signing the decree or order referred to in the context:

'foreign country' means any country other than British India:

and nothing shall be deemed to be done in 'good faith' which is not done with due care and attention.

PART II.

LIMITATION OF SUITS, APPEALS, AND APPLICATIONS.

Dismissal of suits, &c., instituted, &c., after period of limitation.

4. Subject to the provisions contained in sections 5 to 25 (inclusive), every suit instituted, appeal presented, and application made after the period of limitation prescribed therefor by the second schedule hereto annexed shall be dismissed, although limitation has not been set up as a defence.

Explanation.—A suit is instituted in ordinary cases when the plaint is presented to the proper officer; in the case of a pauper, when his application for leave to sue as a pauper is filed; and, in the case of a claim against a Company which is being wound up by the Court, when the claimant first sends in his claim to the official liquidator.

Illustrations.

(a.) A suit is instituted after the prescribed period of limitation. Limitation is not set up as a defence, and judgment is given for the plaintiff. The defendant appeals. The Appellate Court must dismiss the suit.

(b.) An appeal presented after the prescribed period is admitted and registered. The appeal shall, nevertheless, be dismissed.

---

* The definition of "easement" is repealed in Madras, the Central Provinces, Coorg, Bombay, the North-Western Provinces, and Oudh. — See Act V. of 1882, s. 3, and Act VIII. of 1891.

† See Act III. of 1877.

Act XV. of 1877.

5.* If the period of limitation prescribed for any suit, appeal, or application, expires on a day when the Court is closed, the suit, appeal, or application may be instituted, presented, or made on the day that the Court re-opens.

Proviso where Court is closed when period expires.

Any appeal or application for a review of judgment may be admitted after the period of limitation prescribed therefor, when the appellant or applicant satisfies the Court that he had sufficient cause for not presenting the appeal or making the application within such period.

Proviso as to appeals and applications for review.

5A.† Whenever it is shown to the satisfaction of the Court that an appeal or an application for a review of judgment was presented after the expiration of the period of limitation prescribed for such appeal or application owing to the appellant or applicant having been misled by any order, or practice, or judgment of the High Court of the Presidency, Province, or District, such appeal or application, if otherwise in accordance with law, shall, for all purposes, be deemed by all Courts to have been presented within the period of limitation prescribed therefor.

Limitation for certain appeals or applications for review of judgment.

6. When, by any special or local law‡ now or hereafter in force in British India, a period of limitation is specially prescribed for any suit, appeal, or application, nothing herein contained shall affect or alter the period so prescribed.

Special and local laws of limitation.

7.§ If a person entitled to institute a suit or make an application be, at the time from which the period of limitation is to be reckoned, a minor, or insane, or an idiot, he may institute the suit or make the application within the same period, after the disability has ceased, as would otherwise have been allowed from the time prescribed therefor in the third column of the second schedule hereto annexed.

Legal disability.

When he is, at the time from which the period of limitation is to be reckoned, affected by two such disabilities, or when, before his disability has ceased, he is affected by another disability, he may institute the suit or make the application within the same period after both disabilities have ceased as would otherwise have been allowed from the time so prescribed.

Double and successive disabilities.

When his disability continues up to his death, his legal representative may institute the suit or make the application within the same period after the death as would otherwise have been allowed from the time so prescribed.

When such representative is at the date of the death affected by any such disability, the rules contained in the first two paragraphs of this section shall apply.

Disability of representative.

Nothing in this section applies to suits to enforce rights of pre-emption, or shall be deemed to extend, for more than three years, from the cessation of the † S. 5A has been added by Act VI. of 1892, s. 1. Act VI. of 1892 applies to every appeal and review of judgment heard after the passing thereof, notwithstanding that the judgment appealed from or under review may have been passed, or the petition of appeal or application for review presented, before the passing of the Act.—See s. 5 of the Act.

disability or the death of the person affected thereby, the period within which any suit must be instituted or application made. Act XV. of 1877.

Illustrations.

(a.) The right to sue for the hire of a boat accrues to A during his minority. He attains majority four years after such accruer. He may institute his suit at any time within three years from the date of his attaining majority.

(b.) A. to whom a right to sue for a legacy has accrued during his minority, attains majority eleven years after such accruer. A has, under the ordinary law, only one year remaining within which to sue. But under this section an extension of two years will be allowed him, making in all a period of three years from the date of his attaining majority within which he may bring his suit.

(c.) A right to sue accrues to Z during his minority. After the accruer, but while Z is still a minor, he becomes insane. Time runs against Z from the date when his insanity and minority cease.

(d.) A right to sue accrues to X during his minority. X dies before attaining majority, and is succeeded by Y, his minor son. Time runs against Y from the date of his attaining majority.

(e.) A right to sue for an hereditary office accrues to A, who at the time is insane. Six years after the accruer A recovers his reason. A has six years, under the ordinary law, from the date when his insanity ceased within which to institute a suit. No extension of time will be given him under this section.

(f.) A right to sue as landlord to recover possession from a tenant accrues to A who is an idiot. A dies three years after the accruer, his idiocy continuing up to the date of his death. A's representative in interest has, under the ordinary law, nine years from the date of A's death within which to bring a suit. This section does not extend that time, except where the representative is himself under disability when the representation devolves upon him.

Disability of one joint creditor.

8.* When one of several joint creditors or claimants is under any such disability, and when a discharge can be given without the concurrence of such person, time will run against them all; but where no such discharge can be given, time will not run as against any of them until one of them becomes capable of giving such discharge without the concurrence of the others.

Illustrations.

(a.) A incurs a debt to a firm, of which B, C, and D are partners. B is insane, and C is a minor. D can give a discharge of the debt without the concurrence of B and C. Time runs against B, C, and D.

(b.) A incurs a debt to a firm, of which E, F, and G are partners. E and F are insane, and G is a minor. Time will not run against any of them until either E or F becomes sane, or G attains majority.

Continuous running of time.

9.* When once time has begun to run, no subsequent disability or inability to sue stops it:

Provided that, where letters of administration to the estate of a creditor have been granted to his debtor, the running of the time prescribed for a suit to recover the debt shall be suspended while the administration continues.

Suits against express trustees and their representatives.

10. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, no suit against a person in whom property has become vested in trust for any specific purpose, or against his legal representatives or assigns (not being assigns for valuable consideration) for the pur-

Suits on foreign contracts.

11. Suits instituted in British India on contracts entered into in a foreign country are subject to the rules prescribed by this Act.

Foreign limitation law.

No foreign rule of limitation shall be a defence to a suit instituted in British India on a contract entered into in a foreign country, unless the rule has extinguished the contract, and the parties were domiciled in such country during the period prescribed by such rule.

PART III.

COMPUTATION OF PERIOD OF LIMITATION.

Exclusion of day on which right to sue accrues.

12. In computing the period of limitation prescribed for any suit, appeal, or application, the day from which such period is to be reckoned shall be excluded.

Exclusion in case of appeals and certain applications.

In computing the period of limitation prescribed for an appeal, an application for leave to appeal as a pauper, and an application for a review of judgment, the day on which the judgment complained of was pronounced, and the time requisite for obtaining a copy of the decree, sentence, or order appealed against or sought to be reviewed, shall be excluded.

Where a decree is appealed against or sought to be reviewed, the time requisite for obtaining a copy of the judgment on which it is founded shall also be excluded.

In computing the period of limitation prescribed for an application to set aside an award, the time requisite for obtaining a copy of the award shall be excluded.

Exclusion of time of defendant's absence from British India.

13. In computing the period of limitation prescribed for any suit, the time during which the defendant has been absent from British India shall be excluded.

Exclusion of time of proceeding bonâ fide in Court without jurisdiction.

14. In computing the period of limitation prescribed for any suit, the time during which the plaintiff has been prosecuting with due diligence another civil proceeding, whether in a Court of first instance or in a Court of appeal, against the defendant, shall be excluded where the proceeding is founded upon the same cause of action, and is prosecuted in good faith in a Court which, from defect of jurisdiction, or other cause of a like nature, is unable to entertain it.

Like exclusion in case of order under Civil Procedure Code, section 20.

In computing the period of limitation prescribed for a suit, proceedings in which have been stayed by order under the Code of Civil Procedure, section 20,* the interval between the institution of the suit and the date of so staying proceedings, and the time requisite for going from the Court in which proceedings are stayed to the Court in which the suit is re-instituted shall be excluded.

* This reference to Act X. of 1877, s. 20, should now be read as applying to Act XIV. of 1882, s. 20.—See s. 3 of the latter Act.

In computing the period of limitation prescribed for any application, the time during which the applicant has been making another application for the same relief shall be excluded, where the last-mentioned application is made in good faith to a Court which, from defect of jurisdiction or other cause of a like nature, is unable to grant it.

Like exclusion in case of application.

Explanation 1.—In excluding the time during which a former suit or application was pending or being made, the day on which that suit or application was instituted or made, and the day on which the proceedings therein ended, shall both be counted.

Explanation 2.—A plaintiff resisting an appeal presented on the ground of want of jurisdiction shall be deemed to be prosecuting a suit within the meaning of this section.

15. In computing the period of limitation prescribed for any suit, the institution of which has been stayed by injunction or order, the time of the continuance of the injunction or order, the day on which it was issued or made, and the day on which it was withdrawn, shall be excluded.

Exclusion of time during which commencement of suit is stayed by injunction or order.

16. In computing the period of limitation prescribed for a suit for possession by a purchaser at a sale in execution of a decree, the time during which the judgment-debtor has been prosecuting a proceeding to set aside the sale shall be excluded.

Exclusion of time during which judgment-debtor is attempting to set aside execution-sale.

17. When a person, who would, if he were living, have a right to institute a suit or make an application, dies before the right accrues, the period of limitation shall be computed from the time when there is a legal representative of the deceased capable of instituting or making such suit or application.

Effect of death before right to sue accrues.

When a person against whom, if he were living, a right to institute a suit or make an application would have accrued, dies before the right accrues, the period of limitation shall be computed from the time when there is a legal representative of the deceased against whom the plaintiff may institute or make such suit or application.

Nothing in the former part of this section applies to suits to enforce rights of pre-emption or to suits for the possession of immoveable property or of an hereditary office.

18. When any person, having a right to institute a suit or make an application, has, by means of fraud, been kept from the knowledge of such right, or of the title on which it is founded,

Effect of fraud.

or where any document necessary to establish such right has been fraudulently concealed from him, the time limited for instituting a suit or making an application—

(a) against the person guilty of the fraud or accessory thereto, or

(b) against any person claiming through him otherwise than in good faith and for a valuable consideration, shall be computed from the time when the fraud first became known to the person injuriously affected thereby, or, in the case of the concealed document, when he first had the means of producing it, or compelling its production.

Effect of acknowledgment in writing.

19. If, before the expiration of the period prescribed for a suit or application in respect of any property or right, an acknowledgment of liability in respect of such property or right has been made in writing signed by the party against whom such property or right is claimed, or by some person through whom he derives title or liability, a new period of limitation according to the nature of the original liability shall be computed from the time when the acknowledgment was so signed.

When the writing containing the acknowledgment is undated, oral evidence may be given of the time when it was signed; but oral evidence of its contents shall not be received.

Explanation 1.—For the purposes of this section an acknowledgment may be sufficient, though it omits to specify the exact nature of the property or right, or avers that the time for payment, delivery, performance, or enjoyment, has not yet come, or is accompanied by a refusal to pay, deliver, perform, or permit to enjoy, or is coupled with a claim to a set-off, or is addressed to a person other than the person entitled to the property or right.

Explanation 2.—In this section "signed" means signed either personally or by an agent* duly authorized in this behalf.

Effect of payment of interest as such.

20. When interest on a debt or legacy is, before the expiration of the prescribed period, paid as such by the person liable to pay the debt or legacy, or by his agent duly authorized in this behalf,

Effect of part-payment of principal.

or when part of the principal of a debt is, before the expiration of the prescribed period, paid by the debtor or by his agent duly authorized in this behalf, a new period of limitation, according to the nature of the original liability, shall be computed from the time when the payment was made:

Provided that, in the case of part-payment of the principal of a debt, the fact of the payment appears in the handwriting of the person making the same.

Where mortgaged land is in the possession of the mortgagee, the receipt of the produce of such land shall be deemed to be a payment for the purpose of this section.

Effect of receipt of produce of mortgaged land.

One of several joint contractors, &c., not chargeable by reason of acknowledgment or payment made by another of them.

21. Nothing in sections 19 and 20 renders one of several joint contractors, partners, executors, or mortgagees chargeable by reason only of a written acknowledgment signed, or of a payment made by, or by the agent of, any other or others of them.

Effect of substituting or adding new plaintiff or defendant.

22. When, after the institution of a suit, a new plaintiff or defendant is substituted or added, the suit shall, as regards him, be deemed to have been instituted when he was so made a party:

---

* See 19 and 20 Vic., c. 97, s. 13.

Proviso where original plaintiff dies.

Provided that, when a plaintiff dies, and the suit is continued by his legal representative, it shall, as regards him, be deemed to have been instituted when it was instituted by the deceased plaintiff:

Proviso where original defendant dies.

Provided also that, when a defendant dies, and the suit is continued against his legal representative, it shall, as regards him, be deemed to have been instituted when it was instituted against the deceased defendant.

Continuing breaches and wrongs.

23. In the case of a continuing breach of contract and in the case of a continuing wrong independent of contract, a fresh period of limitation begins to run at every moment of the time during which the breach or the wrong, as the case may be, continues.

Suit for compensation for act not actionable without special damage.

24. In the case of a suit for compensation for an act which does not give rise to a cause of action, unless some specific injury actually results therefrom, the period of limitation shall be computed from the time when the injury results.

Illustrations.

(a.) A owns the surface of a field. B owns the subsoil. B digs coal thereout without causing any immediate apparent injury to the surface, but at last the surface subsides. The period of limitation in the case of a suit by A against B runs from the time of the subsidence.

(b.) A speaks and publishes of B slanderous words not actionable in themselves without special damage caused thereby. C in consequence refuses to employ B as his clerk. The period of limitation in the case of a suit by B against A for compensation for the slander does not commence till the refusal.

Computation of time mentioned in instruments.

25. All instruments shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be made with reference to the Gregorian calendar.

Illustrations.

(a.) A Hindu makes a promissory note bearing a native date only, and payable four months after date. The period of limitation applicable to a suit on the note runs from the expiry of four months after date computed according to the Gregorian calendar.

(b.) A Hindu makes a bond, bearing a native date only, for the repayment of money within one year. The period of limitation applicable to a suit on the bond runs from the expiry of one year after date computed according to the Gregorian calendar.

PART IV.

ACQUISITION OF OWNERSHIP BY POSSESSION.

Acquisition of right to easements.

26.* Where the access and use of light or air to and for any building have been peaceably enjoyed therewith as an easement, and as of right, without interruption, and for twenty years, and where any way or watercourse, or the use of any water, or any other easement (whether affirmative or negative), has been peaceably and openly enjoyed by any person claiming title thereto, as an easement, and as of right, without interruption, and for twenty years,

* Ss. 26 and 27 are repealed in Madras, the Central Provinces, Coorg, Bombay, the North-Western Provinces, and Oudh.—See Act V. of 1882, s. 3, and Act VIII. of 1891.

Act XV. of 1877.

the right to such access and use of light or air, way, watercourse, use of water, or other easement shall be absolute and indefeasible.

Each of the said periods of twenty years shall be taken to be a period ending within two years next before the institution of the suit wherein the claim to which such period relates is contested.

Explanation.—Nothing is an interruption within the meaning of this section, unless where there is an actual discontinuance of the possession or enjoyment, by reason of an obstruction by the act of some person other than the claimant, and unless such obstruction is submitted to, or acquiesced in, for one year after the claimant has notice thereof, and of the person making or authorizing the same to be made.*

Illustrations.

(a.) A suit is brought in 1881 for obstructing a right of way. The defendant admits the obstruction, but denies the right of way. The plaintiff proves that the right was peaceably and openly enjoyed by him, claiming title thereto as an easement and as of right, without interruption from 1st January 1860 to 1st January 1880. The plaintiff is entitled to judgment.

(b.) In a like suit, also brought in 1881, the plaintiff merely proves that he enjoyed the right in manner aforesaid from 1858 to 1878. The suit shall be dismissed, as no exercise of the right by actual user has been proved to have taken place within two years next before the institution of the suit.

(c.) In a like suit the plaintiff shows that the right was peaceably and openly enjoyed by him for twenty years. The defendant proves that the plaintiff on one occasion during the twenty years had asked his leave to enjoy the right. The suit shall be dismissed.

Exclusion in favour of reversioner of servient tenement.

27.† Provided that, when any land or water upon, over, or from which any easement has been enjoyed or derived, has been held under or by virtue of any interest for life or any term of years exceeding three years from the granting thereof, the time of the enjoyment of such easement during the continuance of such interest or term shall be excluded in the computation of the said last-mentioned period of twenty years, in case the claim is, within three years next after the determination of such interest or term, resisted by the person entitled, on such determination, to the said land or water.‡

Illustration.

A sues for a declaration that he is entitled to a right of way over B's land. A proves that he has enjoyed the right for twenty-five years; but B shows that, during ten of these years, C, a Hindu widow, had a life-interest in the land, that on C's death B became entitled to the land, and that within two years after C's death he contested A's claim to the right. The suit must be dismissed, as A, with reference to the provisions of this section, has only proved enjoyment for fifteen years.

Extinguishment of right to property.

28. At the determination of the period hereby limited to any person for instituting a suit for possession of any property, his right to such property shall be extinguished.§

EXTRACT FROM REGULATION X. OF 1887.

The Upper Burma Stamps and Limitation Regulation.

Limitation for appeals and applications under the Civil Justice Regulation.

4. Where the Code of Civil Procedure or any part thereof is referred to in the Second or Third Division of the Second Schedule to the Indian Limitation Act, 1877, the reference shall, in cases to which the Upper Burma Civil Justice Regulation, 1886,* is applicable, be construed as applying to that Regulation or the corresponding part thereof, if any.

Temporary suspension of part of the Indian Limitation Act.

5. Notwithstanding anything in section 6 of the Upper Burma Laws Act, 1886, the operation of so much of the Indian Limitation Act, 1877, as limits the period for the institution of suits, shall be suspended on and from the commencement of this Regulation up to the thirtieth day of June 1890.

Power to re institute suits dismissed as barred by limitation.

6. (1) At any time on or before that day, any suit which has, since the date on which section 6 of the Upper Burma Laws Act, 1886, came into force, been dismissed, wholly or in part, on the ground of the whole or a part of the relief claimed therein being barred by limitation, may, in so far as the suit was so dismissed, be re-instituted.

* Reg. VIII, of 1886.

Act XVI. of 1877.

(2) In the case of any suit so dismissed, the plaint, if any, shall, on the application of the plaintiff or his legal representative, be returned to him, with a certified copy of the decree in the suit, free of charge, and, if presented again by him, with the copy of the decree, to the Court which so dismissed the suit, or, where that Court has ceased to exist, to a Court having jurisdiction to try so much of the suit as was so dismissed, shall be re-admitted without payment of any further court-fee thereon.

Amount of interest to be decreed in suits instituted during the temporary suspension of the Indian Limitation Act.

7. (1) In any suit instituted on or before the thirtieth day of June 1890, or re-instituted under the last foregoing section on or before that day, the amount of interest which may be decreed for the period prior to the date of the suit shall not exceed the amount of the principal sum decreed in the suit.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1)—

(a) section 43 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be deemed to be in force throughout the territories to which this Regulation extends; and

(b) the date of a suit re-instituted under section 6 of this Regulation shall be deemed to be the date of its re-institution.

EXTRACT FROM REGULATION III. OF 1890.

The British Baluchistan Civil Justice Regulation.

Limitation for appeals and applications under this Regulation.

95. Where the Code of Civil Procedure, or any part thereof, is referred to in the second or third division of the Second Schedule to the Indian Limitation Act, 1877, the reference shall be construed as applying to this Regulation, or the corresponding part thereof, if any.

Act I. of 1878.

Reference to Bombay Regulations XXI. of 1827 and XX. of 1830 in Act VII. of 1836.

2.* The reference made to Bombay Regulations XXI. of 1827 and XX. of 1830 in Act No. VII. of 1836 shall be read as if made to the corresponding sections of this Act. Repealed by 4 of 1894

Interpretation-clause.

3. In this Act, unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context,—

"Opium."

"Opium" includes also poppy-heads, preparations or admixtures of opium, and intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy :

"Magistrate."

"Magistrate" means, in the Presidency-towns, a Presidency Magistrate, and elsewhere a Magistrate of the first class or (when specially empowered by the Local Government to try cases under this Act) a Magistrate of the second class :

"Import."

"Import" means to bring into the territories administered by any Local Government from sea, or from foreign territory, or from a territory administered by any other Local Government :

"Export."

"Export" means to take out of the territories administered by any Local Government to sea, or to any foreign territory, or to any territory administered by any other Local Government.

"Transport."

"Transport" means to remove from one place to another within the territories administered by the same Local Government.

Prohibition of poppy cultivation and possession, &c., of opium.

4. Except as permitted by this Act, or by any other enactment relating to opium for the time being in force, or by rules framed under this Act or under any such enactment, no one shall—

(a) cultivate the poppy ;

(b) manufacture opium ;

(c) possess opium ;

(d) transport opium ;

(e) import or export opium ; or

(f) sell opium.

Power to make rules to permit such matters.

5. The Local Government, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, may, from time to time, by notification in the Local Gazette, make rules, consistent with this Act, to permit, absolutely or subject to the payment of duty or to any other conditions, and to regulate within the whole or any specified part of the territories administered by such Government, all or any of the following matters :—

(a) the cultivation of the poppy ;

(b) the manufacture of opium ;

(c) the possession of opium ;

(d) the transport of opium ;

(e) the importation or exportation of opium ; and

* In s. 2, the first and second paragraphs as originally enacted have been omitted, having been repealed by Act XII. of 1891.

(f) the sale of opium, and the farm of duties leviable on the sale of opium by retail : Act I. of 1878.

Provided that no duty shall be levied under any such rule on any opium imported, and on which a duty is imposed by or under the law relating to sea-customs* for the time being in force or under section 6.

Duty on opium imported by land.

6. The Governor-General in Council may, from time to time, by notification in the Gazette of India, impose such duty as he thinks fit on opium or on any kind of opium imported by land into British India or into any specified part thereof, and may alter or abolish any duty so imposed.

Warehousing opium.

7. The Governor-General in Council may, by order notified in the Gazette of India,—

(a) authorize any Local Government to establish warehouses for opium legally imported into, or intended to be exported from, the territories administered by such Local Government, and (b) cancel any such order.

So long as such order remains in force, the Local Government may, by notification published in the official Gazette,—

(c) declare any place to be a warehouse for all or any opium legally imported, whether before or after the payment of any duty leviable thereon, into the territories administered by such Government, or into any specified part thereof, or intended to be exported thence, and (d) cancel any such declaration.

An order under clause (b) shall cancel all previous declarations under clause (c) of this section relating to places in the territories to which such order refers.

So long as such declaration remains in force, the owner of all such opium shall be bound to deposit it in such warehouse.

Power to make rules relating to warehouses.

8. The Local Government, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, may, from time to time, by notification in the local Gazette, make rules, consistent with this Act, to regulate the safe custody of opium warehoused under section 7; the levy of fees for such warehousing; the removal of such opium for sale or exportation; and the manner in which it shall be disposed of, if any duty or fees leviable on it be not paid within twelve months from the date of warehousing the same.

Penalty for illegal cultivation of poppy, &c.

9. Any person who, in contravention of this Act, or of rules made and notified under section 5 or section 8,—

(a) cultivates the poppy, or

(b) manufactures opium, or

(c) possesses opium, or

(d) transports opium, or (e) imports or exports opium, or

(f) sells opium, or

(g) omits to warehouse opium, or removes or does any act in respect of warehoused opium, and any person who otherwise contravenes any such rule,

* See Act VIII. of 1878, Ch. V.

Act I. of 1878.

shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be punished, for each such offence with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both;

and, where a fine is imposed, the convicting Magistrate shall direct the offender to be imprisoned in default of payment of the fine for a term which may extend to six months, and such imprisonment shall be in excess of any other imprisonment to which he may have been sentenced.

Presumption in prosecution under section 9.

10. In prosecutions under section 9, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that all opium for which the accused person is unable to account satisfactorily is opium in respect of which he has committed an offence under this Act.

Confiscation of opium.

11. In any case in which an offence under section 9 has been committed—

(a) the poppy so cultivated;

(b) the opium in respect of which any offence under the same section has been committed;

(c) where, in the case of an offence under clause (d) or (e) of the same section, the offender is transporting, importing, or exporting any opium exceeding the quantity (if any) which he is permitted to transport, import, or export, as the case may be, the whole of the opium which he is transporting, importing, or exporting;

(d) where, in the case of an offence under clause (f) of the same section, the offender has in his possession any opium other than the opium in respect of which the offence has been committed, the whole of such other opium, shall be liable to confiscation.

The vessels, packages, and coverings in which any opium liable to confiscation under this section is found, and the other contents (if any) of the vessel or package in which such opium may be concealed, and the animals and conveyances used in carrying it, shall likewise be liable to confiscation.

Order of confiscation by whom to be made.

12. When the offender is convicted, or when the person charged with an offence in respect of any opium is acquitted, but the Magistrate decides that the opium is liable to confiscation, such confiscation may be ordered by the Magistrate.

Whenever confiscation is authorized by this Act, the officer ordering it may give the owner of the thing liable to be confiscated an option to pay, in lieu of confiscation, such fine as the officer thinks fit.

When an offence against this Act has been committed, but the offender is not known or cannot be found, or when opium not in the possession of any person cannot be satisfactorily accounted for, the case shall be enquired into and determined by the Collector of the District or Deputy Commissioner, or by any other officer authorized by the Local Government in this behalf, either personally or in right of his office, who may order such confiscation: Provided that no such order shall be made until the expiration of one month from the date of seizing the things intended to be confiscated, or without hearing the persons (if any) claiming any right thereto, and the evidence (if any) which they produce in support of their claims.

Power to make rules regarding—

13. The Local Government may, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, from time to time, by notification in the local Gazette, make rules, consistent with this Act, to regulate—disposal of things confiscated,

(a) the disposal of all things confiscated under this Act; and Act I, of 1878.

and rewards.

(b) the rewards to be paid to officers and informers out of the proceeds of fines and confiscations under this Act.

Power to enter, arrest, and seize, on information that opium is unlawfully kept in any enclosed place.

14. Any officer of any of the departments of Excise, Police, Customs, Salt, Opium, or Revenue, superior in rank to a peon or constable, who may, in right of his office, be authorized by the Local Government in this behalf, and who has reason to believe, from personal knowledge or from information given by any person and taken down in writing, that opium liable to confiscation under this Act is manufactured, kept, or concealed in any building, vessel, or enclosed place, may, between sunrise and sunset,—

(a) enter into any such building, vessel, or place;

(b) in case of resistance, break open any door, and remove any other obstacle to such entry;

(c) seize such opium, and all materials used in the manufacture thereof, and any other thing which he has reason to believe to be liable to confiscation under section 11 or any other law for the time being in force relating to opium; and

(d) detain and search, and, if he think proper, arrest any person whom he has reason to believe to be guilty of any offence relating to such opium under this or any other law for the time being in force.

Power to seize opium in open places.

15. Any officer of any of the said departments may—

(a) seize, in any open place or in transit, any opium or other thing, which he has reason to believe to be liable to confiscation under section 11 or any other law for the time being in force relating to opium,

(b) detain and search any person whom he has reason to believe to be guilty of any offence against this or any other such law, and, if such person has opium in his possession, arrest him and any other persons in his company.

Power to detain, search, and arrest.

Searches how made.

16. All searches under section 14 or section 15 shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure.*

Officers to assist each other.

17. The officers of the several departments mentioned in section 14 shall, upon notice given or request made, be legally bound to assist each other in carrying out the provisions of this Act.

Vexatious entries, searches, seizures, and arrests.

18. Any officer of any of the said departments who, without reasonable ground of suspicion, enters or searches, or causes to be entered or searched, any building, vessel, or place, or vexatiously and unnecessarily seizes the property of any person on the pretence of seizing or searching for any opium or other thing liable to confiscation under this Act, or vexatiously and unnecessarily detains, searches, or arrests any person,

* See Act X. of 1882, s. 3.

Act I. of 1878.

shall, for every such offence, be punished with fine not exceeding five hundred rupees.

Issue of warrants.

19. The Collector of the District, Deputy Commissioner, or other officer authorized by the Local Government in this behalf, either personally or in right of his office, or a Magistrate, may issue his warrant for the arrest of any person whom he has reason to believe to have committed an offence relating to opium, or for the search, whether by day or night, of any building or vessel or place in which he has reason to believe opium liable to confiscation to be kept or concealed.

All warrants issued under this section shall be executed in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure.*

Disposal of person arrested or thing seized.

20. Every person arrested, and thing seized, under section 14 or section 15, shall be forwarded without delay to the officer in charge of the nearest police-station; and every person arrested and thing seized under section 19 shall be forwarded without delay to the officer by whom the warrant was issued.

Every officer to whom any person or thing is forwarded under this section shall, with all convenient despatch, take such measures as may be necessary for the disposal according to law of such person or thing.

Report of arrests and seizures.

21. Whenever any officer makes any arrest or seizure under this Act, he shall, within forty-eight hours next after such arrest or seizure, make a full report of all the particulars of such arrest or seizure to his immediate official superior.

Procedure in case of illegal poppy-cultivation.

22. In the case of alleged illegal cultivation of the poppy, the crop shall not be removed, but shall, pending the disposal of the case, be attached by an officer superior in rank to a peon or constable, who may, in right of his office, be authorized by the Local Government in this behalf; and such officer shall require the cultivator to give bail in a reasonable amount (to be fixed by such officer) for his appearance before the Magistrate by whom the case is to be disposed of, and such cultivator shall not be arrested unless within a reasonable time he fails to give such bail:

Provided that, wherever Act No. XIII. of 1857 (An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to the cultivation of the Poppy and the manufacture of Opium in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal), or any part thereof, is in force, nothing in this section shall apply to such cultivation.

Recovery of arrears of fees, duties, &c.

23. Any arrear of any fee or duty imposed under this Act or any rule made hereunder, and any arrear due from any farmer of opium-revenue, may be recovered from the person primarily liable to pay the same to the Government, or from his surety (if any), as if it were an arrear of land-revenue.

Farmer may apply to Collector or other officer to recover amount due to him by licensee.

24. When any amount is due to a farmer of opium-revenue from his licensee in respect of a license, such farmer may make an application to the Collector of the District, Deputy Commissioner, or other officer authorized by the Local Government in this behalf, praying such officer to recover such amount on behalf of the applicant; and, on receiving such application, such Collector, Deputy Commissioner, or other officer, may, in his discretion, recover such amount as if it were an arrear of land-revenue, and shall pay any amount so recovered to the applicant: Act III. of 1878.

* See Act X. of 1882, s. 3.

Provided that the execution of any process issued by such Collector, Deputy Commissioner,* or other officer for the recovery of such amount, shall be stayed if the licensee institutes a suit in the Civil Court to try the demand of the farmer, and furnishes security to the satisfaction of such officer for the payment of the amount which such Court may adjudge to be due from him to such farmer:

Provided also that nothing contained in this section, or done thereunder, shall affect the right of any farmer of opium-revenue to recover, by suit in the Civil Court or otherwise, any amount due to him from such licensee.

Recovery of penalties due under bond.

25. When any person, in compliance with any rule made hereunder, gives a bond for the performance of any duty or act, such duty or act shall be deemed to be a public duty or an act in which the public are interested, as the case may be, within the meaning of the Indian Contract Act, 1872, section 74; and upon breach of the condition of such bond by him, the whole sum named therein as the amount to be paid in case of such breach may be recovered from him as if it were an arrear of land-revenue.

SCHEDULE.

[Repealed by Act XII. of 1891.]

ACT III. OF 1878.

THE NORTH-WESTERN PROVINCES LOCAL RATES ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 9TH FEBRUARY 1878.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the levy of rates on land in the North-Western Provinces.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, in order to defray the expenditure incurred and to be incurred for the relief and prevention of famine, it is necessary to make a permanent increase in the annual revenues, and it is accordingly expedient to provide, in the territories administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of the North-Western Provinces, for the levy on land of rates in addition to those now applied to local purposes; and whereas it is therefore expedient to repeal the North-Western Provinces Local Rates Act, 1871, and Act No. VII. of 1877, and to re-enact them with the amendments hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

I.—Preliminary.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The North-Western Provinces Local Rates Act, 1878;"

---

* The words "Deputy Commissioner" have been substituted for the words "Deputy Collector" by Act XII. of 1891.

Act III. of 1878.

Extent. It extends only to the territories administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of the North-Western Provinces;

and it shall come into force on such date* as the Governor-General in Council, by notification in the Gazette of India, directs.

Commencement.

2. On and from such date, the North-Western Provinces Local Rates Act, 1871, and Act No. VII. of 1877 (to amend the law relating to assignments from the General Provincial Fund established under the North Western Provinces Local Rates Act, 1871), shall be repealed. But all rates imposed, rules prescribed, allotments made, committees appointed, powers conferred, and notifications published under the former Act shall be deemed to have been respectively imposed, prescribed, made, appointed, conferred, and published hereunder.

Repeal of Acts XVIII. of 1871 and VII. of 1877.

Interpretation-clause. 3. In this Act—

"Commissioner" means the chief officer in charge of the revenue-administration of a division;

"Collector" means the chief officer in charge of the revenue-administration of a district;

"Land" means land used for agricultural purposes, or waste-land which is culturable;

"Tenant" used in reference to any land means a tenant holding directly from the landlord of such land, and also includes an under-proprietor of such land, and a person bound to pay or deliver anything to such landlord in respect of the use and occupation of such land.†

"Landlord" means the person responsible for the payment of the Government land-revenue, if any, assessed on an estate, and includes a muáfidár, nazránádár or other person holding land, whereof the revenue has, either wholly or in part, been released, compounded for, redeemed, or assigned;

"Estate" means all or any part of a village separately assessed to the land-revenue, or separately exempt from the payment thereof;

"Year" means the year commencing on the first day of April.

II.—Rates on Land in Districts of which the Settlement is liable to Revision.

Rate on estates where the settlement has expired.

4. Every estate situate in any district in which the term of the settlement of the land-revenue made under Regulation IX. of 1833 has expired shall be liable to the payment of such rate, not exceeding five per cent. on its annual value, as the Lieutenant-Governor from time to time imposes.

Such rate shall be paid by the landlord independently of, and in addition to, any land-revenue assessed on the estate:

Provided that, in estates in which, before the passing of this Act, provisional engagements have been taken from the landlord for the payment of the land-revenue and cesses in one consolidated sum, and in which it appears to the Lieutenant-Governor inexpedient to cancel such engagements, one-eleventh part of such sum shall be deducted on account of such cesses, and shall be treated in all respects as if it were a portion of a rate levied under the former part of this section. Act III. of 1878.

---

* April 1, 1879.—See Gazette of India, 1879, Pt. I., p. 248.

† The definition of "tenant" has been substituted for the original by Act VIII. of 1879, s. 28.

Further rate.

Every estate situate in a district of which the land-revenue is liable to periodical revision, shall be liable, in addition to any rates levied under the foregoing portion of this section, to the payment of such further rate, not exceeding one per cent. on its annual value, as the Lieutenant-Governor from time to time imposes.

Such further rate shall be paid by the landlord independently of, and in addition to, any land-revenue assessed on the estate.

"Annual value" means as follows:—

(1.) In cases in which the settlement of the land-revenue is liable to periodical revision, it means double the amount of the land-revenue for the time being assessed on an estate;

(2.) In cases in which such settlement is not liable to such revision, or in which the land-revenue has been, wholly or in part, released, compounded for, redeemed, or assigned, it means double the amount which, if the settlement were liable to such revision, would be assessable as land-revenue on the estate.

III.—Rates on Land in Estates of which the Land-revenue is not liable to periodical Revision.

Rate on estates where revenue is not periodically revised.

5. Every estate situated in a district of which the land-revenue is not liable to periodical revision shall be liable to the payment of such rate as the Lieutenant-Governor from time to time imposes, not exceeding two annas for each acre under cultivation, or which has been cultivated within the three years next before the assessment of the rate.

Further rate.

The Lieutenant-Governor may, from time to time, impose upon any such estate, in addition to any rate imposed under the first clause of this section, a further rate of such amount, not exceeding half an anna for each acre as aforesaid, as he thinks fit.

Rate to be paid by landlord.

6. The rate or further rate shall be paid by the landlord independently of, and in addition to, any land-revenue assessed on the estate, and in addition to the cess levied now on account of roads.

Lieutenant-Governor to prescribe rules for ascertaining area of assessable land.

7. The Lieutenant-Governor shall from time to time, as occasion requires, make rules for ascertaining the area of the land assessable under section 5.

Landlord's right to recover half rate from tenants.

8. The landlord may recover, from every tenant of land on which such rate or further rate has been assessed, and for the payment of which the landlord is liable, an amount equal to one-half of the rate or further rate assessed on the land held by such tenant.

Act III. of 1878.

Power to make rules as to when a landlord may recover rates from tenants holding at fixed or beneficial rates.

9. The Lieutenant-Governor may, from time to time, make rules consistent with this Act for determining the cases in which a landlord shall be entitled to recover, from tenants holding at fixed or beneficial rates of rent, the whole or any portion of the rate or further rate assessed on the land held by such tenants.

IV.—Manner in which the Rates are to be expended.

Rates to be carried to general fund.

10. The amount standing at the credit of the fund constituted under section 9 of the said North-Western Provinces Local Rates Act, 1871,* at the time this Act comes into force,† and the proceeds of all rates imposed under this Act, shall be carried to the credit of a general provincial fund.

Appropriation for increasing revenue available for famine purposes.

11. (a) From such fund the Lieutenant-Governor shall in each year appropriate, in such manner as the Governor-General in Council from time to time directs, such amount not exceeding the proceeds of the further rates assessed in such year under sections 4 and 5, as the Governor-General in Council may direct, for the purpose of increasing the revenues available for defraying expenditure incurred or to be incurred for the relief and prevention of famine in the said territories, or, if the Governor-General in Council so directs, in any other part of British India.

Assignment for canals and railways.

(b) The Lieutenant-Governor may, from time to time, assign from such fund such amount as he thinks fit, to be applied in payment of charges incurred or to be incurred on account of such canals and railways as he, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, may declare to be works of general provincial utility:

Provided that the amounts to be assigned in any year shall not exceed one-tenth of the proceeds of the rates assessed in such year under the first clause of section 4 and the first clause of section 5.

Allotment for local improvements.

"(c)‡ Subject to the appropriation directed by clause (a), the Lieutenant-Governor may, from time to time, reserve from such fund such amounts as he thinks fit to be applied in or for the benefit of each district for expenditure on all or any of the following matters:—

(1) the maintenance of the village and road police and the district-post;

(2) the construction, repair, and maintenance of lunatic asylums;

(3) the registration of traffic; and

(4) any other matter tending to promote the welfare of the district which it is in his opinion necessary to place under provincial and not under local administration.

"(d)‡ Subject as aforesaid, the Lieutenant-Governor may allot from such fund such amounts as he thinks fit to the district fund constituted under the North-Western Provinces and Oudh Local Boards Act, 1883:

---

* Act XVIII. of 1871 has been repealed by s. 2 of this Act.

† April 1, 1879.—See Gazette of India, 1879, Pt. I., p. 248.

‡ In s. 11 the clauses quoted have been substituted for the original cl. c by Act XIV. of 1883, s. 56.

"Provided that the amounts so reserved and allotted in any year for the benefit of any district shall not be less than nine-tenths of the proceeds of the rates assessed under the first clause of section 4 and the first clause of section 5 in such district in such year." Act III. of 1878.

12, 13. [Repealed by Act XIV. of 1883, s. 57.]

14.* Accounts of the receipts in respect of all rates levied under this Act shall be kept in each district, and shall, at all reasonable times, be open to the inspection of the District Board constituted for the district under the North-Western Provinces and Oudh Local Boards Act, 1883.

Accounts to be kept.

An abstract of such accounts shall also be published annually in the local official Gazette.

15. [Repealed by Act XIV. of 1883, s. 57.]

V.—Miscellaneous.

16. Suits for the recovery from co-sharers, tenants, or others, of any sum on account of any rate imposed under this Act, and all suits on account of illegal exaction of such rate, or for the settlement of accounts, shall be cognizable by the Collector, as if such suits had been included among the suits mentioned in section 93 of the North-Western Provinces Rent Act, 1881;†

Suits under Act cognizable by Collector.

and appeals from decisions in such suits shall be cognizable in accordance with the provisions of the North-Western Provinces Rent Act, 1881.†

17. In matters connected with the assessment and collection of any sum leviable under this Act, an appeal shall lie to the Commissioner from the order of the Collector, provided that such appeal be presented within thirty days from the date of the order.

Limitation of appeals.

The Commissioner's decision on such appeal shall be final; but all such decisions may be reviewed by the Board of Revenue.

18. The Lieutenant-Governor may invest any officer subordinate to a Collector with all or any of the powers of a Collector for the purposes of this Act.

Power to invest subordinate officers with powers of Collector.

The orders passed by any officer so invested shall be subject to revision by the Collector of the district.

19. All sums due on account of any rate imposed under this Act shall be recoverable as if they were arrears of land-revenue due on the land on account of which the rate is payable.

Recovery of rates.

20. The Lieutenant-Governor may, by notification, from time to time, Supplementary powers of Local Government.

(a) prescribe by what instalments and at what times such rate shall be payable, and by whom it shall be assessed, collected, and paid;

* S. 14 has been substituted for the original by Act XIV. of 1883, s. 56.

† In s. 16 the references have been altered in accordance with Act VIII. of 1879, s. 29, and Act XII. of 1881, s. 2.

Act IV. of 1878.

(b) make rules consistent with this Act for the guidance of officers in matters connected with its enforcement;

(c) exempt any portion of the territories under his government from the operation of this Act, or exempt any estate from liability to pay the whole or any part of any rate under this Act, and cancel such exemptions;

(d) direct fresh measurements, and vary the assessment accordingly.

Every notification under this section shall be published in the local Gazette.

ACT IV. OF 1878.

THE OUDH LOCAL RATES ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 9TH FEBRUARY 1878.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the levy of rates on land in Oudh.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, in order to defray the expenditure incurred and to be incurred for the relief and prevention of famine, it is necessary to make a permanent increase to the annual revenues: and it is accordingly expedient to provide, in the territories administered by the Chief Commissioner of Oudh, for the levy on land of rates in addition to those now applied to local purposes;

and whereas it is also expedient to empower the said Chief Commissioner to provide for the payment of certain charges incurred or to be incurred on account of canals and railways; and whereas it is therefore expedient to repeal the Oudh Local Rates Act, and to re-enact it with the amendments hereinafter appearing:—

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Oudh Local Rates Act, 1878:"

Local extent.

It extends only to the territories administered by the Chief Commissioner of Oudh;

Commencement.

And it shall come into force on such date* as the Governor-General in Council by notification in the Gazette of India directs.

Repeal of Act XVII. of 1871.

2. On and from such date Act No. XVII. of 1871 (to provide for the levy of rates on land in Oudh) shall be repealed. But all rates imposed, committees appointed, and notifications published under the said Act shall be deemed to have been respectively imposed, appointed, and published under this Act.

And all assignments made under section 10 of the said Act shall be deemed to be allotments made under this Act.

Interpretation-clause.

3. In this Act—

"Land" means land assessed to the land-revenue, and includes land whereof the land-revenue has been wholly or in part released, compounded for, redeemed, or assigned:

---

* April 1, 1879.—See Gazette of India, 1879, Pt. I., p. 248.

"Landholder" means the person in receipt of the rent of any land, and responsible for the payment of the land-revenue, if any, assessed on the estate. It also includes a muáfidár or other person holding land, the land-revenue of which has been wholly or in part released, compounded for, redeemed, or assigned:

"Estate" means all or any part of a village separately assessed to the land-revenue, or separately exempted from payment thereof; and

"Annual value" means—

(1) Where the settlement of the land-revenue is liable to periodical revision—double the amount of the land-revenue assessed on an estate;

(2) Where such settlement is not liable to periodical revision, or where the land-revenue or a portion thereof has been released, compounded for, redeemed, or assigned—double the amount which, if the settlement were liable to periodical revision, would, but for such non-liability, release, composition, redemption, or assignment, have been assessed as land-revenue on the estate:

"Year" means the year commencing on the first day of April.

Rates assessable.

4. The Chief Commissioner may impose on every estate a rate not exceeding two and a quarter per cent. on its annual value. Such rate shall be payable annually by the landholder, independently of, and in addition to, any land-revenue for the time being assessed on the estate and any local cesses now leviable therefrom.

Recovery of rates.

5. All sums due on account of any rate imposed under this Act shall be recoverable as if they were arrears of land-revenue due in respect of the land on account of which the rate is payable.

Power to recover contribution.

6. Every landholder may recover from his co-sharers or pattídárs, if any, a share of any such rate bearing the same proportion to the whole rate that the annual value of the share of such co-sharer or pattídár recorded at the time of the settlement bears to the annual value of the whole estate.

Rate on land in the occupation of an under-proprietor or permanent lessee.

7. Whenever any such rate is charged on a landholder on account of land in the use or occupation of an under-proprietor or permanent lessee, or of a tenant with right of occupancy, whose rent has been fixed or recorded by a competent Court, such landholder may realize, from such under-proprietor, lessee, or tenant, a share of the rate bearing the same proportion to the whole rate that the share of such under-proprietor, lessee, or tenant in the annual value of the land on which the rate is charged bears to half the annual value of such land.

Jurisdiction in suits as to rates.

"8. (1) Suits for the recovery from co-sharers, under-proprietors, permanent lessees, or tenants as aforesaid, of any sum on account of any such rate, and suits on account of illegal exaction of such rate, or for the settlement of accounts, shall be cognizable by the Courts of Revenue in Oudh as though such suits were suits mentioned in section 108, clause (15), (16), or (17), of the Oudh Rent Act, 1886.

* S. 8 has been substituted for the original by Act XX. of 1890, s. 36.

Act IV. of 1878.

"(2) Appeals from decisions in such suits shall be cognizable in accordance with the provisions of the said Act as though they were decisions in suits mentioned in section 108, clause (15), (16), or (17), of the said Act."

Appeal to Commissioner.

9. An appeal shall lie to the Commissioner from the order of any person authorized, under the power hereinafter conferred, to make assessments in any matter connected with the assessment of any sum leviable under this Act: provided that such appeal be presented within thirty days from the date of the order.

The decision of the Commissioner on such appeal shall be final; but all such decisions may be reviewed by the "Board of Revenue.*"

General fund.

10. The amount standing at the credit of the fund constituted under section 9 of the said Act XVII. of 1871† at the time this Act comes into force,‡ and the proceeds of all rates imposed under this Act, shall be carried to the credit of a general provincial fund.

Appropriation for increasing revenues available for famine purposes.

11. (a) From such fund the Chief Commissioner shall, in each year, appropriate, in such manner as the Governor-General in Council from time to time directs, such amount, not exceeding four-ninths of the proceeds of the rate assessed in such year under this Act, as the Governor-General in Council may direct for the purpose of increasing the revenues available for defraying expenditure incurred or to be incurred for the relief and prevention of famine in the said territories, or, if the Governor-General in Council so directs, in any other part of British India.

Assignment for canals and railways.

(b) The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, assign from such fund such amount as he thinks fit, to be applied in payment of charges incurred or to be incurred on account of such canals and railways as he may declare to be works of general provincial utility:

Provided that the amounts so assigned in any year shall not exceed one-eighteenth of the proceeds of the rates assessed in such year.

Allotment for local improvements.

"(c) Subject to such appropriation, the Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, reserve from such fund such amounts as he thinks fit to be applied in, or for the benefit of, each district for expenditure on all or any of the following matters:—

(1) the construction, repair, and maintenance of lunatic asylums;

(2) the registration of traffic; and

(3) any other matters tending to promote the welfare of the district which it is, in his opinion, necessary to place under provincial, and not under local, administration.

"(d) Subject as aforesaid, the Chief Commissioner may allot from such fund such amounts as he thinks fit to the district fund constituted under the North-Western Provinces and Oudh Local Boards Act, 1883:§

---

* In s. 9 the words quoted have been substituted for the words "Chief Commissioner" by Act XX. of 1890, s. 37.

† Act XVII. of 1871 has been repealed by s. 2 of this Act.

‡ April 1, 1879.—See Gazette of India, 1879, Pt. I., p. 248.

§ In s. 11, the clauses quoted have been substituted for the original by Act XIV. of 1883, s. 59.

"Provided that the amounts so reserved and allotted in any year for the benefit of any district shall not be less than one-half of the proceeds of the rates assessed in such district in such year." Act VI. of 1878.

12. [Repealed by Act XIV. of 1883, s. 60.]

"13. Accounts of the receipts in respect of all rates levied under this Act shall be kept in each district, and shall, at all reasonable times, be open to the inspection of the District Board constituted for the district under the North-Western Provinces and Oudh Local Boards Act, 1883. Accounts to be kept.

"An abstract of such accounts shall also be published annually in the local official Gazette."

14. [Repealed by Act XIV. of 1883, s. 60.]

Power to make supplementary rules.

15. The Chief Commissioner may, by notification, from time to time,

(a) prescribe by what instalments and at what times any rate imposed under this Act shall be payable, and by whom it shall be assessed, collected, and paid;

(b) make rules consistent with this Act for the guidance of officers in matters connected with its enforcement;

(c) exempt any portion of the territories under his administration from the operation of this Act, and cancel such exemption.

Every notification under this section shall be published in the local Gazette.

ACT VI. OF 1878.†

TREASURE-TROVE ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 13TH FEBRUARY 1878.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Treasure-trove.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to treasure-trove; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Preliminary.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Indian Treasure-trove Act, 1878;"

Extent.

It extends to the whole of British India;

Commencement.

And it shall come into force at once.

2. [Repealed by Act XII. of 1891.]

Interpretation-clause.

3. In this Act—

---

* S. 13 has been substituted for the original by Act XIV. of 1883, s. 61.

† Act VI. of 1878 has been declared, under the Scheduled Districts Act (XIV. of 1874), to be in force in the following Scheduled Districts in the Chutiá Nágpur Division: The Districts of Hazáribágh, Lohárdaga, and Mánbhum, and Pargana Dhálbhúm, and the Kolhán in the District of Singbhúm, — See Gazette of India, Oct. 22, 1881, Part I., p. 504.

Act VI. of 1878.

"Treasure." "Treasure" means anything of any value hidden in the soil, or in anything affixed thereto:

"Collector." "Collector" means (1) any Revenue-officer in independent charge of a district, and (2) any officer appointed by the Local Government to perform the functions of a Collector under this Act.

"Owner." When any person is entitled, under any reservation in an instrument of transfer of any land or thing affixed thereto, to treasure in such land or thing, he shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be the owner of such land or thing.

Procedure on finding Treasure.

Notice by finder of treasure. 4. Whenever any treasure, exceeding in amount or value ten rupees, is found, the finder shall, as soon as practicable, give to the Collector notice in writing—

(a) of the nature and amount or approximate value of such treasure;

(b) of the place in which it was found;

(c) of the date of the finding;

and either deposit the treasure in the nearest Government Treasury, or give the Collector such security as the Collector thinks fit, to produce the treasure at such time and place as he may, from time to time, require.

Notification requiring claimants to appear. 5. On receiving a notice under section 4, the Collector shall, after making such enquiry (if any) as he thinks fit, take the following steps (namely):—

(a) he shall publish a notification in such manner as the Local Government from time to time prescribes in this behalf to the effect that, on a certain date (mentioning it), certain treasure (mentioning its nature, amount, and approximate value) was found in a certain place (mentioning it), and requiring all persons claiming the treasure or any part thereof to appear personally or by agent before the Collector on a day and at a place therein mentioned, such day not being earlier than four months, or later than six months, after the date of the publication of such notification;

(b) when the place, in which the treasure appears to the Collector to have been found, was, at the date of the finding, in the possession of some person other than the finder, the Collector shall also serve on such person a special notice in writing to the same effect.

Forfeiture of right on failure to appear. 6. Any person having any right to such treasure or any part thereof as owner of the place in which it was found or otherwise, and not appearing as required by the notification issued under section 5, shall forfeit such right.

Matters to be enquired into and determined by the Collector. 7. On the day notified under section 5 the Collector shall cause the treasure to be produced before him, and shall enquire as to and determine—

(a) the person by whom, the place in which, and the circumstances under which, such treasure was found; and,

(b) as far as is possible, the person by whom, and the circumstances under which, such treasure was hidden.

Time to be allowed for suit by person claiming the treasure.

8. If, upon an enquiry made under section 7, the Collector sees reason to believe that the treasure was hidden, within one hundred years before the date of the finding, by a person appearing as required by the said notification, and claiming such treasure, or by some other person under whom such person claims, the Collector shall make an order adjourning the hearing of the case for such period as he deems sufficient, to allow of a suit being instituted in the Civil Court by the claimant to establish his right.

When treasure may be declared ownerless.

9. If, upon such enquiry, the Collector sees no reason to believe that the treasure was so hidden, or if, where a period is fixed under section 8, no suit is instituted as aforesaid within such period to the knowledge of the Collector, or if such suit is instituted within such period, and the plaintiff's claim is finally rejected, the Collector may declare the treasure to be ownerless.

Appeal against such declaration.

Any person aggrieved by a declaration made under this section may appeal against the same, within two months from the date thereof, to the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority.

Subject to such appeal every such declaration shall be final and conclusive.

Proceedings subsequent to declaration.

10. When a declaration has been made in respect of any treasure under section 9, such treasure shall, in accordance with the provisions hereinafter contained, either be delivered to the finder thereof, or be divided between him and the owner of the place in which it has been found in manner hereinafter provided.

When no other person claims as owner of place, treasure to be given to finder.

11. When a declaration has been made in respect of any treasure as aforesaid, and no person other than the finder of such treasure has appeared as required by the notification published under section 5, and claimed a share of the treasure as owner of the place in which it has been found, the Collector shall deliver such treasure to the finder thereof.

When only one such person claims, and his claim is not disputed, treasure to be divided,

12. When a declaration has been made as aforesaid in respect of any treasure, and only one person other than the finder of such treasure has so appeared and claimed, and the claim of such person is not disputed by the finder, the Collector shall proceed to divide the treasure between the finder and the person so claiming according to the following rule (namely):—

If the finder and the person so claiming have not entered into any agreement then in force as to the disposal of the treasure, three-fourths of the treasure shall be allotted to such finder, and the residue to such person. If such finder and such person have entered into any such agreement, the treasure shall be disposed of in accordance therewith:

Provided that the Collector may in any case, if he thinks fit, instead of dividing any treasure as directed by this section,

(a) allot to either party the whole or more than his share of such treasure, on such party paying to the Collector for the other party such sum of money as the Collector may fix as the equivalent of the share of such other party, or of the excess so allotted, as the case may be; or

Act VI. of 1878.

(b) sell such treasure or any portion thereof by public auction, and divide the sale-proceeds between the parties according to the rule hereinbefore prescribed:

Provided also that, when the Collector has, by his declaration under section 9, rejected any claim made under this Act by any person other than the said finder or person claiming as owner of the place in which the treasure was found, such division shall not be made until after the expiration of two months without an appeal having been presented under section 9 by the person whose claim has been so rejected, or, when an appeal has been so presented, after such appeal has been dismissed.

When the Collector has made a division under this section, he shall deliver to the parties the portions of such treasure, or the money in lieu thereof, to which they are respectively entitled under such division.

and shares to be delivered to parties.

13. When a declaration has been made as aforesaid in respect of any treasure, and two or more persons have appeared as aforesaid, and each of them claimed as owner of the place where such treasure was found, or the right of any person who has so appeared and claimed is disputed by the finder of such treasure, the Collector shall retain such treasure, and shall make an order staying his proceedings with a view to the matter being enquired into and determined by a Civil Court.

In case of dispute as to ownership of place, proceedings to be stayed.

14. Any person who has so appeared and claimed may, within one month from the date of such order, institute a suit in the Civil Court to obtain a decree declaring his right; and in every such suit the finder of the treasure and all persons disputing such claim before the Collector shall be made defendants.

Settlement of such dispute,

15. If any such suit is instituted, and the plaintiff's claim is finally established therein, the Collector shall, subject to the provisions of section 12, divide the treasure between him and the finder.

and division thereupon.

If no such suit is instituted as aforesaid, or if the claims of the plaintiffs in all such suits are finally rejected, the Collector shall deliver the treasure to the finder.

16. The Collector may, at any time after making a declaration under section 9, and before delivering or dividing the treasure as hereinbefore provided, declare, by writing under his hand, his intention to acquire, on behalf of the Government, the treasure or any specified portion thereof, by payment, to the persons entitled thereto, of a sum equal to the value of the materials of such treasure or portion together with one-fifth of such value, and may place such sum in deposit in his treasury to the credit of such persons; and thereupon such treasure or portion shall be deemed to be the property of Government, and the money so deposited shall be dealt with, as far as may be, as if it were such treasure or portion.

Power to acquire the treasure on behalf of Government.

17. No decision passed or act done by the Collector under this Act shall be called in question by any Civil Court, and no suit or other proceeding shall lie against him for anything done in good faith in exercise of the powers hereby conferred.

Decision of Collector final, and no suit to lie against him for acts done bonâ fide.

Act VII. of 1878.

Collector to exercise powers of Civil Court.

18. A Collector making any enquiry under this Act may exercise any power conferred by the Code of Civil Procedure on a Civil Court for the trial of suits.

Power to make rules.

19. The Local Government may, from time to time, make rules consistent with this Act, to regulate proceedings hereunder.

Such rules shall, on being published in the local Gazette, have the force of law.

Penalties.

Penalty on finder failing to give notice, &c.

20. If the finder of any treasure fails to give the notice, or does not either make the deposit or give the security required by section 4, or alters or attempts to alter such treasure so as to conceal its identity, the share of such treasure, or the money in lieu thereof to which he would otherwise be entitled, shall vest in Her Majesty, and he shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with both.

Penalty on owner abetting offence under section 20.

21. If the owner of the place in which any treasure is found abets, within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code, any offence under section 20, the share of such treasure, or the money in lieu thereof to which he would otherwise be entitled, shall vest in Her Majesty, and he shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be punished with imprisonment which may extend to six months, or with fine, or with both.

SCHEDULE.

[Repealed by Act XII. of 1891.]

ACT VII. OF 1878.*

THE INDIAN FOREST ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 8TH MARCH 1878.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Forests, the Transit of Forest-produce, and the Duty leviable on Timber.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to forests, the transit of forest-produce, and the duty leviable on timber; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Indian Forest Act, 1878:"

* Act VII. of 1878 has been declared, under the Scheduled Districts Act (XIV. of 1874), to be in force in the following Scheduled Districts in the Chutiá Nágpur Division: The Districts of Hazáribagh, Lohárdaga, and Mánbhum, and Pargana Dhálbhum, and the Kolhán in the District of Singbhum. — See Gazette of India, Oct. 22, 1881, Pt. I., p. 504.

Act VII. of 1878.

Commencement.

It shall come into force at once in the territories respectively administered by the Governor of Bombay in Council, the Lieutenant-Governors of the Lower Provinces, the North-Western Provinces, and the Panjáb (except the District of Hazára*), and the Chief Commissioners of Oudh, the Central Provinces, and Assam.

Extension.

And any other Local Government may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, extend, by notification in the local official Gazette, this Act to all or any of the territories for the time being under its administration.†

Repeal of enactments.

On and from the date on which this Act comes into force in any of the said territories, the enactments mentioned in the schedule hitherto annexed shall be repealed in such territories. But all rules made under or validated by any of the said enactments, and in force at the date of such repeal, shall, so far as they are consistent with this Act, be deemed to have been made and published hereunder.

Interpretation-clause.

2. In this Act, unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context,—

"Forest-officer" means any person whom the Governor-General in Council, or the Local Government, or any officer empowered by the Governor-General in Council or the Local Government in this behalf, may, from time to time, appoint by name, or as holding an office, to carry out all or any of the purposes of this Act, or to do anything required by this Act or any rule made under this Act to be done by a Forest-officer:

"Tree" includes palms, bamboos, stumps, brushwood, and canes:‡

"Timber" includes trees when they have fallen or have been felled, and all wood, whether cut up, or fashioned, or hollowed out for any purpose or not:‡

"Forest-produce" includes—

(a) the following, whether found in, or brought from, a forest or not, that is to say:—

timber, charcoal, caoutchouc, catechu, wood-oil, resin, natural varnish, bark, lac, mahua flowers, and myrabolams, and

(b) the following, when found in, or brought from, a forest, that is to say:—

(i) trees and leaves, flowers and fruits, and all other parts or produce not hereinbefore mentioned of trees,

(ii) plants not being trees (including grass, creepers, reeds, and moss), and all parts or produce of such plants,

(iii) wild animals and skins, tusks, horns, bones, silk, cocoons, honey, and wax, and all other parts or produce of animals, and

(iv) peat, surface-oil, rock, and minerals (including limestone, laterite, mineral oils, and all products of mines or quarries):‡

---

* As to this district, see the Hazára Forest Regulations of 1873, 1874, and 1879.

† The Act does not appear to have been extended to any place under this clause. In the Madras Presidency and British Burma there are special Forest Acts.—See Mad. Act V. of 1882 and Act XIX. of 1881.

‡ The definitions of "tree," "timber," and "forest-produce," have been substituted by Act V. of 1890, s. 2.

"Forest-offence" means an offence punishable under this Act, or under any rule made under this Act: Act VII. of 1878.

"Cattle" includes elephants, camels, buffaloes, horses, mares, geldings, ponies, colts, fillies, mules, asses, pigs, rams, ewes, sheep, lambs, goats, and kids:

"River" includes streams, canals, creeks, and other channels, natural or artificial.

CHAPTER II.

OF RESERVED FORESTS.

Power to reserve forests.

3. The Local Government may, from time to time, constitute any forest-land or waste-land, which is the property of Government, or over which the Government has proprietary rights, or to the whole or any part of the forest-produce of which the Government is entitled, a reserved forest in the manner hereinafter provided.

Notification by Local Government.

4. Whenever it is proposed to constitute any land a reserved forest, the Local Government may publish a notification in the local official Gazette—

(a) declaring that it is proposed to constitute such land a reserved forest;

(b) specifying as nearly as possible the situation and limits of such land;* and

(c) appointing an officer (hereinafter called "the Forest-Settlement-officer") to inquire into and determine the existence, nature, and extent of any rights alleged to exist in favour of any person in or over any land comprised within such limits, or in or over any forest-produce, and to deal with the same as provided in this chapter.

Explanation.—For the purpose of clause (b) of this section, it shall be sufficient to describe the limits of the forest by roads, rivers, ridges, or other well-known or readily intelligible boundaries.

The officer appointed under clause (c) of this section shall ordinarily be a person not holding any forest-office except that of Forest-Settlement-officer.

Nothing in this section shall prevent the Local Government from appointing any number of officers not exceeding three, not more than one of whom shall be a person holding any forest-office except as aforesaid, to perform the duties of a Forest-Settlement-officer under this Act.

Bar of accrual of forest-rights.

5. During the interval between the publication of such notification and the date fixed by the notification under section 19, no right shall be acquired in or over the land comprised in such notification, except by succession or under a grant or contract in writing made or entered into by or on behalf of Government or some person in whom such right was vested when the former notification was issued; and no fresh clearings for cultivation or for any other purpose shall be made in such land, "except in accordance with rules prescribed by the Local Government."†

* Cl. b of s. 4 has been substituted by Act V. of 1890, s. 3.

† The words quoted have been added by Act V. of 1890, s. 4.

Act VII. of 1878.

Proclamation by Forest-Settlement-officer.

6. When a notification has been issued under section 4, the Forest-Settlement-officer shall publish, in the language of the country, in every town and village in the neighbourhood of the land comprised therein, a proclamation—

(a) specifying, as nearly as possible, the situation and limits of the proposed forest;*

(b) explaining the consequences which, as hereinafter provided, will ensue on the reservation of such forest; and

(c) fixing a period of not less than three months from the date of such proclamation, and requiring every person claiming any right mentioned in section 4 or 5 either to present to such officer within such period a written notice specifying, or to appear before him and state, the nature of such right and the amount and particulars of the compensation (if any) claimed in respect thereof.

Enquiry by Forest-Settlement-officer.

7. The Forest-Settlement-officer shall take down in writing all statements made under section 6, and shall, at some convenient place, enquire into all claims duly preferred under that section, and the existence of any rights mentioned in section 4 or 5, and not claimed under section 6, so far as the same may be ascertainable from the records of Government and the evidence of any persons likely to be acquainted with the same.

Powers of Forest-Settlement-officer.

8. For the purposes of such enquiry, the Forest-Settlement-officer may exercise the following powers, that is to say :—

(a) power to enter, by himself or any officer authorized by him for the purpose, upon any land, and to survey, demarcate, and make a map of the same; and (b) the powers of a Civil Court in the trial of suits.

Extinction of rights.

9. Rights in respect of which no claim has been preferred under section 6, and of the existence of which no knowledge has been acquired by enquiry under section 7, shall be extinguished, unless, before the notification under section 19 is published, the person claiming them satisfies the Forest-Settlement-officer that he had sufficient cause for not preferring such claim within the period fixed under section 6.

Treatment of claims relating to practice of shifting cultivation.

9A.† (1) In the case of a claim relating to the practice of shifting cultivation, the Forest-Settlement-officer shall record a statement setting forth the particulars of the claim and of any local rule or order under which the practice is allowed or regulated, and submit the statement to the Local Government together with his opinion as to whether the practice should be permitted or prohibited wholly or in part.

(2) On receipt of the statement and opinion, the Local Government may make an order permitting or prohibiting the practice wholly or in part.

(3) If such practice is permitted wholly or in part, the Forest-Settlement-officer may arrange for its exercise—

---

* Cl. a of s. 6 has been substituted by Act V. of 1890, s. 5.

† S. 9A has been inserted by Act V. of 1890, s. 6.

(a) by altering the limits of the land under settlement so as to exclude land of sufficient extent, of a suitable kind, and in a locality reasonably convenient for the purposes of the claimants, or Act VII. of 1878.

(b) by causing certain portions of the land under settlement to be separately demarcated, and giving permission to the claimants to practise shifting cultivation therein under such conditions as he may prescribe.

All arrangements made under this sub-section shall be subject to the previous sanction of the Local Government.

(4) The practice of shifting cultivation shall in all cases be deemed a privilege subject to control, restriction, and abolition by the Local Government.

Power to acquire land over which right is claimed.

10. In the case of a claim to a right in or over any land, other than a right of way or pasture, or to forest-produce or a water-course, the Forest-Settlement-officer shall pass an order admitting or rejecting the same in whole or in part.

If such claim is admitted in whole or in part, the Forest-Settlement-officer shall either (1) exclude such land from the limits of the proposed forest; or (2) come to an agreement with the owner thereof for the surrender of his right; or (3) proceed to acquire such land in the manner provided by the Land Acquisition Act, 1870.

For the purpose of so acquiring such land—

(a) the Forest-Settlement-officer shall be deemed to be a Collector proceeding under the Land Acquisition Act, 1870;

(b) the claimant shall be deemed to be a person interested and appearing before him in pursuance of a notice given under section 9 of that Act;

(c) the provisions of the preceding sections of that Act shall be deemed to have been complied with; and

(d) the Collector, with the consent of the claimant, or the Court, with the consent of both parties, may award compensation in land, or partly in land and partly in money.

Order on claims to rights of pasture or to forest-produce.

11. In the case of a claim to rights of pasture or to forest-produce, the Forest-Settlement-officer shall pass an order admitting or rejecting the same in whole or in part.

Record to be made by Forest-Settlement-officer.

12. The Forest-Settlement-officer, when passing any order under section 11, shall record, so far as may be practicable,—

(a) the name, father's name, caste, residence, and occupation of the person claiming the right;

(b) the designation, position, and area of all fields or groups of fields (if any), and the designation and position of all buildings (if any) in respect of which the exercise of such rights is claimed.

Record where he admits claim.

13. If the Forest-Settlement-officer admits in whole or in part any claim under section 11, he shall also record the extent to which the claim is so admitted, specifying the number and description of the cattle which the claimant is from time to time entitled to graze in the forest, the season during which such pasture is permitted, the quantity of timber and other forest-produce which he is from time to time authorized to take or receive, or such other particulars as the case may require.

Act VII. of 1878.

He shall also record whether the timber or other forest-produce obtained by the exercise of the rights claimed may be sold or bartered.

Exercise of rights admitted.

14. After making such record, the Forest-Settlement-officer shall, to the best of his ability, and having due regard to the maintenance of the reserved forest in respect of which the claim is made, pass such orders as will ensure the continued exercise of the rights so admitted. For this purpose the Forest-Settlement-officer may—

(a) set out some other forest-tract of sufficient extent, and in a locality reasonably convenient for the purposes of such claimants, and record an order conferring upon them a right of pasture or to forest-produce (as the case may be) to the extent so admitted; or

(b) so alter the limits of the proposed forest as to exclude forest-land of sufficient extent, and in a locality reasonably convenient, for the purposes of the claimants; or

(c) record an order, continuing to such claimants a right of pasture or to forest-produce (as the case may be), to the extent so admitted, at such seasons, within such portions of the proposed forest, and under such rules as may from time to time be prescribed by the Local Government.

Commutation of rights.

15. In case the Forest-Settlement officer finds it impossible, having due regard to the maintenance of the reserved forest, to make such settlement under section 14 as shall ensure the continued exercise of the said rights to the extent so admitted, he shall (subject to such rules as the Local Government may from time to time prescribe in this behalf) commute such rights, either by the payment to such persons of a sum of money in lieu thereof, or by the grant of land, or in such other manner as he thinks fit.

Appeal from order passed under section 10, 11, 14, or 15.

16. Any person who has made a claim under this Act, or any forest-officer or other person generally or specially empowered by the Local Government in this behalf, may, within three months from the date of the order passed on such claim by the Forest-Settlement-officer under section 10, 11, 14, or 15, present an appeal from such order to such officer of the Revenue Department, of rank not lower than that of a Collector or Deputy Commissioner, as the Local Government may, from time to time, by notification in the local official Gazette, appoint by name, or as holding an office, to hear appeals from such orders:

Provided that, if the Local Government establishes (as it is hereby empowered to do) a Court (hereinafter called the Forest Court) composed of three persons to be appointed by the Local Government, such appeals shall be presented to such Court.

Appeal under section 16.

17. Every appeal under section 16 shall be made by petition in writing, and may be delivered to the Forest-Settlement-officer, who shall forward it without delay to the authority competent to hear the same.

If the appeal be to an officer appointed under section 16, it shall be heard in the manner prescribed for the time being for the hearing of appeals in matters relating to land-revenue.

If the appeal be to the Forest Court, the Court shall fix a day and a convenient place in the neighbourhood of the proposed forest for hearing the appeal, and shall give notice thereof to the parties, and shall hear such appeal accordingly. Act VII. of 1878.

The order passed thereon by such officer or Court, or by the majority of the members of such Court, shall be final, subject to revision by the Local Government.

Pleaders.

18. The Local Government, or any person who has made a claim under this Act, may appoint any person to appear, plead, and act on its or his behalf before the Forest-Settlement-officer, or the appellate officer or Court, in the course of any inquiry or appeal under this Act.

Notification declaring forest reserved.

19. When the following events have occurred (namely):—

(a) the period fixed under section 6 for preferring claims has elapsed, and all claims (if any) made within such period have been disposed of by the Forest-Settlement-officer; and

(b) if such claims have been made, and the period limited by section 16 for appealing from the orders passed on such claims has elapsed, and all appeals (if any) presented within such period have been disposed of by the appellate officer or Court; and

(c) all lands (if any) to be included in the proposed forest, which the Forest-Settlement-officer has, under section 10, elected to acquire under the Land Acquisition Act, 1870, have become vested in the Government under section 16 of that Act, the Local Government may publish a notification in the local official Gazette, specifying definitely, according to boundary-marks erected or otherwise, the limits of the forest which it is intended to reserve, and declaring the same to be reserved from a date fixed by such notification.

From the date so fixed, such forest shall be deemed to be a reserved forest.

Publication of translation of such notification in neighbourhood of forest.

20. The forest-officer shall, before the date fixed by such notification, cause a translation thereof into the language of the country to be published in every town and village in the neighbourhood of the forest.

Power to revise arrangement made under section 14 or 17.

21. The Local Government may, within five years from the publication of any notification under section 19, revise any arrangement made under section 14 or 17, and may, for this purpose, rescind or modify any order made under section 14 or 17, and direct that any one of the proceedings specified in section 14 be taken in lieu of any other of such proceedings, or that the rights admitted under section 11 be commuted under section 15.

No right acquired over reserved forest, except as here provided.

22. No right of any description shall be acquired in or over a reserved forest except by succession or under a grant of contract in writing made by or on behalf of the Government or of some person in whom such right was vested when the notification under section 19 was issued.

Rights not to be alienated without sanction.

23. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 22, no right continued under section 14, clause (c), shall be alienated by way of grant, sale, lease, mortgage, or otherwise, without the sanction of the Local Government: Provided that, when any such right is appendant to any land or house, it may be sold or otherwise alienated with such land or house.

Act VII. of 1878.

No timber or other forest-produce obtained in exercise of any such right shall be sold or bartered, except to such extent as may have been admitted in the order recorded under section 13.

Power to stop ways and water-courses in reserved forests.

24. The forest-officer may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Local Government or of any officer duly authorized in that behalf, stop any public or private way or water-course in a reserved forest: Provided that a substitute for the way or water-course so stopped, which the Local Government deems to be reasonably convenient, already exists, or has been provided or constructed by the forest-officer in lieu thereof.

Acts prohibited in such forests.

25. Any person who—

(a) makes any fresh clearing prohibited by section 5; or

(b) sets fire to a reserved forest, or, in contravention of any rules made by the Local Government, kindles any fire, or leaves any fire burning in such manner as to endanger such a forest; *

or who, in a reserved forest—

(c) kindles, keeps, or carries any fire except at such seasons as the forest-officer may from time to time notify in this behalf;

(d) trespasses or pastures cattle, or permits cattle to trespass;

(e) causes any damage by negligence in felling any tree, or cutting or dragging any timber;

(f) fells, girdles, lops, taps, or burns any tree, or strips off the bark or leaves from, or otherwise damages the same;

(g) quarries stone, burns lime or charcoal, or collects, subjects to any manufacturing process, or removes, any forest-produce;

(h) clears or breaks up any land for cultivation or any other purpose; or shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine not exceeding five hundred rupees, or with both, in addition to such compensation for damage done to the forest as the convicting Court may direct to be paid.

Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit (a) any act done by permission in writing of the forest-officer, or under any rule made by the Local Government; or (b) the exercise of any right continued under section 14, clause (c), or created by grant or contract in writing made by or on behalf of Government under section 22.

Whenever fire is caused wilfully or by gross negligence in a reserved forest, the Local Government may (notwithstanding that any penalty has been inflicted under this section) direct that in such forest, or any portion thereof, the exercise of all rights of pasture or to forest-produce shall be suspended for such period as it thinks fit.

---

* Cl. b of s. 25 has been substituted by Act V. of 1890, s. 7.

† The words quoted are repealed in every local area to which the Elephants' Preservation Act (VI. of 1879) extends or is extended.—See s. 2 of that Act.

26. The Local Government may, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, by notification in the local official Gazette, direct that, from a date fixed by such notification, any forest or any portion thereof reserved under this Act shall cease to be a reserved forest.

Power to declare forest no longer reserved.

From the date so fixed, such forest or portion shall cease to be reserved; but the rights (if any) which have been extinguished therein shall not revive in consequence of such cessation.

CHAPTER III.

OF VILLAGE-FORESTS.

27. The Local Government may, from time to time, assign to any village-community the rights of Government to or over any land which has been constituted a reserved forest, and may cancel such assignment. All forests so assigned shall be called village-forests.

Formation of village-forests.

The Local Government may, from time to time, make rules for regulating the management of village-forests, prescribing the conditions under which the community to which any such assignment is made may be provided with timber or other forest-produce or pasture, and their duties for the protection and improvement of such forest.

All provisions of this Act relating to reserved forests shall (so far as they are consistent with the rules so made) apply to village-forests.

CHAPTER IV.

OF PROTECTED FORESTS.

28. The Local Government may, from time to time, by notification in the local official Gazette, declare the provisions of this chapter applicable to any forest-land or waste-land which is not included in a reserved forest, but which is the property of Government, or over which the Government has proprietary rights, or to the whole or any part of the forest-produce of which the Government is entitled.

"Protected forests."

The forest-land and waste-land comprised in any such notification shall be called a "protected forest."

No such notification shall be made unless the nature and extent of the rights of Government and of private persons in or over the forest-land or waste-land comprised therein have been enquired into and recorded at a survey or settlement, or in such other manner as the Local Government thinks sufficient.

Every such record shall be presumed to be correct until the contrary is proved:

Provided that, if in the case of any forest-land or waste-land, the Local Government thinks that such enquiry and record are necessary, but that they will occupy such length of time as that the rights of Government will in the meantime be endangered, the Local Government may (pending such enquiry and record) declare such land to be a protected forest, but so as not to abridge or affect any existing rights of individuals or communities.

Act VII of 1878.

Power to issue notification—

29. The Local Government may from time to time, by notification in the local official Gazette,— reserving trees,

(a) declare any class of trees in a protected forest, or any trees in any such forest, to be reserved from a date fixed by such notification;

closing forests,

(b) declare that a portion of such forest be closed for such term not exceeding twenty years as the Local Government thinks fit, and that the rights of private persons (if any) over such portion shall be suspended during such term: Provided that the remainder of such forest be sufficient, and in a locality reasonably convenient, for the due exercise of the rights suspended in the portion so closed;

prohibiting collection of forest-produce, &c.,

and breaking up or clearing of land.

(c) prohibit, from a date fixed as aforesaid, the quarrying of stone or the burning of lime or charcoal, or the collection or subjection to any manufacturing process, or removal, of any forest-produce, in any such forest, and the breaking up or clearing for cultivation, for building, for herding cattle, or for any other purpose, any land in any such forest: and (d) alter or cancel such declaration or prohibition.

Publication of translation of such notification in neighbourhood.

30. The Collector or Deputy Commissioner of the district shall cause a translation, into the language of the district, of every notification issued under section 29, to be affixed in a conspicuous place in every town and village in the neighbourhood of the forest comprised in the notification.

Power to make rules for protected forests.

31. The Local Government may from time to time make rules to regulate the following matters:—

(a) the cutting, sawing, conversion, and removal of trees and timber, and the collection, manufacture, and removal of forest-produce, from protected forests;

(b) the granting of licenses to the inhabitants of towns and villages in the vicinity of protected forests to take trees, timber, or other forest-produce for their own use, and the production and return of such licenses by such persons;

(c) the granting of licenses to persons felling or removing trees or timber or other forest-produce from such forests for the purposes of trade, and the production and return of such licenses by such persons;

(d) the payments (if any) to be made by the persons mentioned in clauses (b) and (c) of this section for permission to cut such trees, or to collect and remove such timber or other forest-produce;

(e) the other payments (if any) to be made by them in respect of such trees, timber, and produce, and the places where such payments shall be made;

(f) the examination of forest-produce passing out of such forests;

(g) the clearing and breaking up of land for cultivation or other purposes in such forests;

(h) the protection from fire of timber lying in such forests and of trees reserved under section 29;

(i) the cutting of grass and pasturing of cattle in such forests;

(j) "killing or catching elephants,"* hunting, shooting, fishing, poisoning water, and setting traps or snares in such forests; Act VII. of 1878.

(k) the protection and management of any portion of a forest closed under section 29;

(l) the exercise of rights referred to in section 28.

Penalties for acts in contravention of notification under section 29.

32. Any person who commits any of the following offences:—

(a) fells, girdles, lops, taps, or burns any tree reserved under section 29, or strips off the bark or leaves from, or otherwise damages, any such tree;

(b) contrary to any prohibition under section 29, quarries any stone, or burns any lime or charcoal, or collects, subjects to any manufacturing process, or removes, any forest-produce;

(c) contrary to any prohibition under section 29, breaks up or clears for cultivation or any other purpose any land in any protected forest;

(d) sets fire to such forest, or kindles a fire without taking all reasonable precautions to prevent its spreading to any trees reserved under section 29, whether standing, fallen, or felled, or to any closed portion of such forest;

(e) leaves burning any fire kindled by him in the vicinity of any such trees or closed portion;

(f) fells any tree or drags any timber so as to damage any tree reserved as aforesaid;

(g) permits cattle to damage any such tree;

(h) infringes any rule made under section 31;

shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

Nothing in this chapter to prohibit acts done in certain cases.

33. Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to prohibit any act done with the permission in writing of the forest-officer or in accordance with rules made under section 31, or (except as regards any portion of a forest closed under section 29) in the exercise of any right recorded under section 28.

CHAPTER V.

FORESTS UNDER CONSERVANCY-ADMINISTRATION WHEN THIS ACT COMES INTO FORCE.

Forests under conservancy-administration when this Act comes into force.

34. Within twelve months from the date on which this Act comes into force in the territories administered by any Local Government, such Government shall, after consideration of the rights of the Government and private persons in all forest-lands or waste-lands then under its executive control for purposes of forest-conservancy, determine which of such lands (if any) can, according to justice, equity, and good conscience, be classed as reserved forests or protected forests under this Act and declare, by notification in the local official Gazette, any lands so classed to be reserved or protected forests, as the case may be:

* The words quoted are repealed in every local area to which the Elephants' Preservation Act (VI. of 1879) extends or is extended:—See s. 2 of that Act.

Act VII. of 1878.

Provided that such declaration shall not affect any rights of the Government or private persons to or over any land or forest-produce in any such forest, which have, previous to the date of such declaration, been enquired into, settled, and recorded in a manner which the Local Government thinks sufficient:

Provided also that, if any such rights have not, on such date, been so enquired into, settled, and recorded, the Local Government shall direct that the same shall be enquired into, settled, and recorded in the manner provided by this Act for reserved or protected forests, as the case may be; and, until such enquiry, settlement, and record have been completed, no such declaration shall abridge or affect such rights.

CHAPTER VI.

OF THE CONTROL OVER FORESTS AND LANDS NOT BEING THE PROPERTY OF GOVERNMENT.

Protection of forests for special purposes.

35. The Local Government may, from time to time, by notification in the local official Gazette, regulate or prohibit in any forest or waste-land—

(a) the breaking-up or clearing of land for cultivation;

(b) the pasturing of cattle;

(c) the firing or clearing of the vegetation; when such regulation or prohibition appears necessary for any of the following purposes:—

First.—For protection against storms, winds, rolling stones, floods, and avalanches;

Second.—For the preservation of the soil on the ridges and slopes, and in the valleys of hilly tracts, the prevention of landslips and of the formation of ravines and torrents, and the protection of land against erosion, or the deposit thereon of sand, stones, or gravel;

Third.—For the maintenance of a water-supply in springs, rivers, and tanks;

Fourth.—For the protection of roads, bridges, railways, and other lines of communication;

Fifth.—For the preservation of the public health; and may alter or cancel such notification.

The Local Government may, for any such purpose, construct at its own expense, in or upon any forest or waste-land, such work as it thinks fit:

Provided that no such notification shall be made or work begun until after the issue of a notice to the owner of such forest or land, calling on him to show cause, within a reasonable period to be specified in such notice, why such notification should not be made or work constructed, and until his objections (if any), and any evidence he may produce in support of the same, have been heard by an officer duly appointed in that behalf, and have been considered by the Local Government.

Power to assume management of forests.

36. In case of neglect of, or wilful disobedience to, any regulation or prohibition under section 35, or if the purposes of any work to be constructed under that section so require, the Local Government may, after notice in writing to the owner of such forest or land, and after considering his objections (if any), place the same under the control of a forest-officer, and may declare that all or any of the provisions of this Act relating to reserved forests shall apply to such forest or land. Act VII. of 1878.

The nett profits (if any) arising from the management of such forest or land shall be paid to the said proprietor.

Expropriation of forests in certain cases.

37. In any case under this chapter in which the Local Government considers that, in lieu of placing the forest or land under the control of a forest-officer, the same should be acquired for public purposes, the Local Government may proceed to acquire it in the manner prescribed by the Land Acquisition Act, 1870.

The owner of any forest or land comprised in any notification under section 35 may, at any time not less than three or more than twelve years from the date thereof, require that such forest or land shall be acquired for public purposes, and the Local Government shall acquire such forest or land accordingly.

Protection of forests at request of owners.

38. The owner of any land, or, if there be more than one owner thereof, the owners of shares therein amounting in the aggregate to at least two-thirds thereof, may, with a view to the formation or conservation of forests thereon, represent in writing to the Collector or Deputy Commissioner their desire—

(a) that such land be managed on their behalf by the forest-officer as a reserved or a protected forest on such terms as may be mutually agreed upon; or

(b) that all or any of the provisions of this Act be applied to such land.

In either case, the Local Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, apply to such land such provisions of this Act as it thinks suitable to the circumstances thereof, and as may be desired by the applicants.

Any such notification may be altered or cancelled by a like notification.

CHAPTER VII.

OF THE DUTY ON TIMBER AND OTHER FOREST-PRODUCE.*

Power to impose duty on timber.

39. The Local Government, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, may levy a duty in such manner, at such places, and at such rates, as it may from time to time prescribe by notification in the local official Gazette on all timber "or other forest-produce,"†

(a) which is produced in British India, and in respect of which the Government has any right;

(b) which is brought from any place beyond the frontier of British India.

Power to fix value for ad-valorem duty.

In every case in which such duty is directed to be levied ad valorem, the Local Government may, with the like sanction, from time to time, fix, by like notification, the value on which such duty shall be assessed.

---

* This heading has been substituted by Act V. of 1890, s. 8, sub-s. 1.

† The words quoted have been inserted by Act V. of 1890, s. 8, sub-s. 2.

Act VII. of 1878.

All duties on timber " or other forest-produce,"* which, at the time when this Act comes into force in any territory, are levied therein under the authority of the Local Government, shall be deemed to be and to have been duly levied under the provisions of this Act.

Limit not to apply to purchase-money or royalty.

40. Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to limit the amount (if any) chargeable as purchase-money or royalty on any timber or other forest-produce, although the same is levied on such timber or produce while in transit, in the same manner as duty is levied.

CHAPTER VIII.

OF THE CONTROL OF TIMBER AND OTHER FOREST-PRODUCE IN TRANSIT.

Power to make rules to regulate transit of forest-produce.

41. The control of all rivers and their banks as regards the floating of timber, as well as the control of all timber and other forest-produce in transit by land or water, is vested in the Local Government, and it may from time to time make rules to regulate the transit of all timber and other forest-produce

Such rules may (among other matters)—

(a) prescribe the routes by which alone timber " or other "† forest-produce may be imported, exported, or moved into, from, or within, British India;

(b) prohibit the import and export or moving of such timber or other produce without a pass from an officer duly authorized to issue the same, or otherwise than in accordance with the conditions of such pass;

(c) provide for the issue, production, and return of such passes, and for the payment of fees therefor;

(d) provide for the stoppage, reporting, examination, and marking of timber or other forest-produce in transit, in respect of which there is reason to believe that any money is payable to Government on account of the price thereof, or on account of any duty, fee, royalty, or charge due thereon, or to which it is desirable, for the purposes of this Act, to affix a mark;

(e) provide for the establishment and regulation of depôts, to which such timber or other produce shall be taken by those in charge of it for examination, or for the payment of such money, or in order that such marks may be affixed to it; and the conditions under which such timber or other produce shall be brought to, stored at, and removed from, such " depôts;" ‡

(f) prohibit the closing up or obstructing of the channel or banks of any river used for the transit of timber or other forest-produce, and the throwing of grass, brushwood, branches, and leaves into any such river, or any act which may cause such river to be closed or obstructed;

(g) provide for the prevention and removal of any obstruction of the channel or banks of any such river, and for recovering the cost of such prevention or removal from the person whose acts or negligence necessitated the same;

(h) prohibit absolutely or subject to conditions, within specified local limits, the establishment of saw-pits, the converting, cutting, burning, concealing, or marking of timber, the altering or effacing of any marks on the same, and the possession or carrying of marking-hammers or other implements used for marking timber ; Act VII. of 1878.

(i) regulate the use of property-marks for timber, and the registration of such marks ; prescribe the time for which such registration shall hold good ; limit the number of such marks that may be registered by any one person, and provide for the levy of fees for such registration.

The Local Government may direct that any rule made under this section shall not apply to any specified class of timber or other forest-produce or to any specified local area.*

Penalty for breach of rules made under section 41.

42. The Local Government may by such rules prescribe as penalties for the infringement thereof imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or both.

Double penalties may be inflicted in cases where the offence is committed after sunset and before sunrise, or after preparation for resistance to lawful authority, or if the offender has been previously convicted of a like offence.

Government and forest-officers not liable for damage to forest-produce at depôt.

43. The Government shall not be responsible for any loss or damage which may occur in respect of any timber or other forest-produce while at a depôt established under a rule made under section 41, or while detained elsewhere for the purposes of this Act ; and no forest-officer shall be responsible for any such loss or damage unless he causes such loss or damage negligently, maliciously, or fraudulently.

All persons bound to aid in case of accident at depôt.

44. In case of any accident or emergency involving danger to any property at any such depôt, every person employed at such depôt, whether by the Government, or by any private person, shall render assistance to any forest-officer or police-officer demanding his aid in averting such danger and securing such property from damage or loss.

CHAPTER IX.

OF THE COLLECTION OF DRIFT AND STRANDED TIMBER.

Certain kinds of timber to be deemed property of Government until title thereto proved, and may be collected accordingly.

45. All timber found adrift, beached, stranded, or sunk ;

all wood or timber bearing marks which have not been registered under section 41, or on which the marks have been obliterated, altered, or defaced by fire or otherwise, and in such areas as the Local Government directs, all unmarked wood and timber, shall be deemed to be the property of Government, unless and until any person establishes his right and title thereto, as provided in this chapter.

Such timber may be collected by any forest-officer or other person entitled to collect the same by virtue of any rule made under section 51, and may be brought to such depôts as the forest-officer may, from time to time, notify as depôts for the reception of drift-timber.

* This para. has been added by Act V. of 1890, s. 8. sub-s. 4.

Act VII. of 1878.

The Local Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, exempt any class of timber from the provisions of this section, and withdraw such exemption.

Notice to claimants of drift-timber.

46. Public notice shall, from time to time, be given by the forest-officer, of timber collected under section 45. Such notice shall contain a description of the timber, and shall require any person claiming the same to present to such officer, within a period not less than two months from the date of such notice, a written statement of such claim.

Procedure on claim preferred to such timber.

47. When any such statement is presented as aforesaid, the forest-officer may, after making such enquiry as he thinks fit, either reject the claim after recording his reasons for so doing, or deliver the timber to the claimant.

If such timber is claimed by more than one person, the forest-officer may either deliver the same to any of such persons whom he deems entitled thereto, or may refer the claimants to the Civil Courts, and retain the timber pending the receipt of an order from any such Court for its disposal.

On rejection of claim to such timber, claimant may institute suit.

Any person whose claim has been rejected under this section may, within three* months from the date of such rejection, institute a suit to recover possession of the timber claimed by him; but no person shall recover any compensation or costs against the Government, or against any forest-officer, on account of such rejection, or the detention or removal of any timber, or the delivery thereof to any other person under this section.

No such timber shall be subject to process of any Civil, Criminal, or Revenue Court until it has been delivered, or a suit has been brought, as provided in this section.

Disposal of unclaimed timber.

48. If no such statement is presented as aforesaid, or if the claimant omits to prefer his claim in the manner and within the period prescribed by the notice issued under section 46, or, on such claim having been so preferred by him and having been rejected, omits to institute a suit to recover possession of such timber within the further period limited by section 47, the ownership of such timber shall vest in the Government, or, when such timber has been delivered to another person under section 47, in such other person free from all encumbrances "not created by him." †

Government and its officers not liable for damage to such timber.

49. The Government shall not be responsible for any loss or damage which may occur in respect of any timber collected under section 45, and no forest-officer shall be responsible for any such loss or damage, unless he causes such loss or damage negligently, maliciously, or fraudulently.

Payments to be made by claimant before timber is delivered to him.

50. No person shall be entitled to recover possession of any timber collected or delivered as aforesaid until he has paid to the forest-officer or other person entitled to receive it such sum on account thereof as may be due under any rule made in pursuance of section 51.

* The word "three" has been substituted for the word "two" by Act V. of 1890, s. 9.

† The words quoted have been added by Act V. of 1890, s. 10.

Power to make rules and prescribe penalties.

51. The Local Government may, from time to time, make rules to regulate the following matters (namely):— Act VII. of 1878.

(a) the salving, collection, and disposal of all timber mentioned in section 45;

(b) the use and registration of boats used in salving and collecting timber;

(c) the amounts to be paid for salving, collecting, moving, storing, and disposing of such timber;

(d) the use and registration of hammers and other instruments to be used for marking such timber.

The Local Government may, from time to time, prescribe, as penalties for the infringement of any rules made under this section, imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or both.

CHAPTER X.

PENALTIES AND PROCEDURE.

Seizure of property liable to confiscation.

52. When there is reason to believe that a forest-offence has been committed in respect of any forest-produce, such produce, together with all tools, boats, carts, and cattle used in committing any such offence may be seized by any forest-officer or police-officer.

Application for confiscation.

Every officer seizing any property under this section shall place on such property a mark indicating that the same has been so seized, and shall, as soon as may be, make a report of such seizure to the Magistrate having jurisdiction to try the offence on account of which the seizure has been made:

Provided that, when the forest-produce with respect to which such offence is believed to have been committed is the property of Government, and the offender is unknown, it shall be sufficient if the officer makes, as soon as may be, a report of the circumstances to his official superior.

Procedure thereupon.

53. Upon the receipt of any such report, the Magistrate shall, with all convenient despatch, take such measures as may be necessary for the arrest and trial of the offender and the disposal of the property according to law.

Forest-produce, tools, &c., when liable to confiscation.

54. All timber or forest-produce which is not the property of Government, and in respect of which a forest-offence has been committed, and all tools, boats, carts, and cattle used in committing any forest-offence, shall be liable to confiscation.

Such confiscation may be in addition to any other punishment prescribed for such offence.

Disposal, on conclusion of trial for forest-offence, of produce in respect of which it was committed.

55. When the trial of any forest-offence is concluded, any forest-produce in respect of which such offence has been committed shall, if it is the property of Government, or has been confiscated, be taken charge of by a forest-officer; and in any other case may be disposed of in such manner as the Court may direct.

Act VII. of 1878.

Procedure when offender not known or cannot be found.

56. When the offender is not known or cannot be found, the Magistrate may, if he finds that an offence has been committed, order the property in respect of which the offence has been committed to be confiscated and taken charge of by the forest-officer, or to be made over to the person "whom the Magistrate deems to be entitled to the same:"*

Provided that no such order shall be made until the expiration of one month from the date of seizing such property, or without hearing the person (if any) claiming any right thereto, and the evidence (if any) which he may produce in support of his claim.

Procedure as to perishable property seized under section 52.

57. The Magistrate may, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, direct the sale of any property seized under section 52, and subject to speedy and natural decay, and may deal with the proceeds as he would have dealt with such property if it had not been sold.

Appeal from orders under sections 54, 55, and 56.

58. The officer who made the seizure under section 52, or any of his official superiors, or any person claiming to be interested in the property so seized, may, within one month from the date of any order passed under section 54, 55, or 56, appeal therefrom to the Court to which orders made by such Magistrate are ordinarily appealable, and the order passed on such appeal shall be final.

Property when to vest in Government.

59. When an order for the confiscation of any property has been passed under section 54 or 56, as the case may be, and the period limited by section 58 for an appeal from such order has elapsed, and no such appeal has been preferred, or when, on such an appeal being preferred, the Appellate Court confirms such order in respect of the whole or a portion of such property, such property or such portion thereof, as the case may be, shall vest in the Government free from all incumbrances.

Saving of power to release property seized.

60. Nothing hereinbefore contained shall be deemed to prevent any officer empowered in this behalf by the Local Government from directing at any time the immediate release of any property seized under section 52.

Punishment for wrongful seizure.

61. Any forest-officer or police-officer, who vexatiously and unnecessarily seizes any property on pretence of seizing property liable to confiscation under this Act, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

Penalty for counterfeiting or defacing marks on trees and timber, and for altering boundary-marks.

62. Whoever, with intent to cause damage or injury to the public or to any person, or to cause wrongful gain as defined in the Indian Penal Code,—

(a) knowingly counterfeits upon any timber or standing tree a mark used by forest-officers to indicate that such timber or tree is the property of the Government or of some person, or that it may lawfully be cut or removed by some person; or

(b) alters, defaces, or obliterates any such mark placed on a tree or on timber by or under the authority of a forest-officer; or

* The words quoted have been substituted by Act V. of 1890, s. 11.

(c) alters, moves, destroys, or defaces any boundary-mark of any forest or waste-land to which the provisions of this Act are applied, Act VII of 1878.

shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine, or with both.

Power to arrest without warrant.

63. Any forest-officer or police-officer may, without orders from a Magistrate, and without a warrant, arrest any person against whom a reasonable suspicion exists of his having been concerned in any forest-offence punishable with imprisonment for one month or upwards.

Every officer making an arrest under this section shall, without unnecessary delay, take or send the person arrested before the Magistrate having jurisdiction in the case, "or to the officer in charge of the nearest police-station."*

Nothing in this section shall be deemed to authorize such arrest for any act which is an offence under Chapter IV. of this Act, unless such act has been prohibited under section 29, clause (c).

Power to prevent commission of offence.

64. Every forest-officer and police-officer shall prevent, and may interfere for the purpose of preventing, the commission of any forest-offence.

Power to try offences summarily.

65. The District Magistrate† and any Magistrate of the first class specially empowered in this behalf by the Local Government may try summarily, under the Code of Criminal Procedure† any forest-offence punishable only with imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or fine not exceeding five hundred rupees, or both.

Operation of other laws not barred.

66. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to prevent any person from being prosecuted under any other law for any act or omission which constitutes an offence against this Act, or the rules made under it, or from being liable under such other law to any higher punishment or penalty than that provided by the rules made under this Act: Provided that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence.

Power to compound offences.

67.‡ (1) The Local Government may, from time to time, by notification in the official Gazette, empower a forest-officer by name, or as holding an office,—

(a) to accept from any person against whom a reasonable suspicion exists that he has committed any forest-offence, other than an offence specified in section 61 or section 62, a sum of money by way of compensation for the offence which such person is suspected to have committed, and,

(b) when any property has been seized as liable to confiscation, to release the same on payment of the value thereof as estimated by such officer.

(2) On the payment of such sum of money, or such value, or both, as the case may be, to such officer, the suspected person, if in custody, shall be discharged, the property, if any, seized shall be released, and no further proceedings shall be taken against such person or property.

(3) A forest-officer shall not be empowered under this section unless he is a forest-officer of a rank not inferior to that of a ranger, and is in receipt of

* The words quoted have been added by Act V. of 1890, s. 12.

Act VII. of 1878.

a monthly salary amounting to at least one hundred rupees, and the sum of money accepted as compensation under sub-section (f), clause (a), shall in no case exceed the sum of fifty rupees.

Presumption that forest-produce belongs to Government.

68. When in any proceedings taken under this Act, or in consequence of anything done under this Act, a question arises as to whether any forest-produce is the property of the Government, such produce shall be presumed to be the property of the Government until the contrary is proved.

CHAPTER XI.

CATTLE-TRESPASS.

Cattle-trespass Act, 1871, to apply.

69. Cattle trespassing in a reserved forest, or in any portion of a protected forest which has been lawfully closed to grazing, shall be deemed to be cattle doing damage to a public plantation within the meaning of the eleventh section of the Cattle-trespass Act, 1871, and may be seized and impounded as such by any forest-officer or police-officer.

Power to alter fines fixed by that Act.

70. The Local Government may, from time to time, by notification in the local official Gazette, direct that, in lieu of the fines fixed by the twelfth section of the Act last aforesaid, there shall be levied, for each head of cattle impounded under section 69 of this Act, such fines as it thinks fit, but not exceeding the following, that is to say :—

	Rs.	As.
For each elephant	10	0
,, each buffalo or camel	2	0
,, each horse, mare, gelding, pony, colt, filly, mule, bull, bullock, cow, or heifer	1	0
,, each calf, ass, pig, ram, ewe, sheep, lamb, goat, or kid ...	0	8

CHAPTER XII.

OF FOREST-OFFICERS.

Local Government may invest forest-officers with certain powers.

71. The Local Government may invest any forest-officer by name, or as holding an office, with the following powers, that is to say :—

(a) power to enter upon any land, and to survey, demarcate, and make a map of the same ;

(b) the powers of a Civil Court to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents ;

(c) power to issue a search-warrant under the Code of Criminal Procedure ;*

(d) power to hold an enquiry into forest-offences, and, in the course of such enquiry, to receive and record evidence.

* See Act X. of 1882, s. 3.

Any evidence recorded under clause (d) of this section shall be admissible in any subsequent trial before a Magistrate, provided that it has been taken in the presence of the accused person. Act VII of 1878.

Forest-officers deemed public servants.

72. All forest-officers shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code.

Indemnity for acts done in good faith.

73. No suit shall lie against any public servant for anything done by him in good faith under this Act.

Forest-officers not to trade.

74. Except with the permission in writing of the Local Government, no forest-officer shall, as principal or agent, trade in timber or other forest-produce, or be or become interested in any lease of any forest, or in any contract for working any forest, whether in British or Foreign territory.

CHAPTER XIII.

SUBSIDIARY RULES.

Additional powers to make rules.

75. The Local Government may, from time to time, make rules—

(a) to prescribe and limit the powers and duties of any forest-officer under this Act;

(b) to regulate the rewards to be paid to officers and informers out of the proceeds of fines and confiscations under this Act;

(c) for the preservation, reproduction, and disposal of trees and timber belonging to Government, but grown on lands belonging to or in the occupation of private persons; and

(d) generally to carry out the provisions of this Act.

Penalties for breach of rules.

76. Any person breaking any rule under this Act, for the breach of which no special penalty is provided, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month, or fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or both.

Rules when to have force of law.

77. All rules made by the Local Government under this Act shall be published in the local official Gazette, and shall thereupon, so far as they are consistent with this Act, have the force of law:

Provided that no rule made under section 27, 31, or 41 shall be so published without the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council.

CHAPTER XIV.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Persons bound to assist forest-officers and police-officers.

78. Every person who exercises any right in a reserved or protected forest, or who is permitted to take any forest-produce from, or to cut and remove timber or to pasture cattle in, such forest, and every person who is employed by any such person in such forest, and

Act VII. of 1878.

every person in any village contiguous to such forest who is employed by the Government, or who receives emoluments from the Government for services to be performed to the community, shall be bound to furnish, without unnecessary delay, to the nearest forest-officer or police-officer, any information he may possess respecting the commission of, or intention to commit, any forest-offence, and shall assist any forest-officer or police-officer demanding his aid—

(a) in extinguishing any fire occurring in such forest;

(b) in preventing any fire which may occur in the vicinity of such forest from spreading to such forest;

(c) in preventing the commission in such forest of any forest-offence; and,

(d) when there is reason to believe that any such offence has been committed in such forest, in discovering and arresting the offender.

Management of forests the joint property of Government and other persons.

79. If the Government and any person be jointly interested in any forest or waste-land, or in the whole or any part of the produce thereof, the Local Government may from time to time, either—

(a) undertake the management of such forest, waste-land, or produce, accounting to such person for his interest in the same; or

(b) issue such regulations for the management of the forest, waste-land, or produce by the person so jointly interested as it deems necessary for the management thereof and the interests of all parties therein.

When the Local Government undertakes, under clause (a) of this section, the management of any forest, waste-land, or produce, it may, from time to time, by notification in the local official Gazette, declare that any of the provisions contained in Chapters II. and IV. of this Act shall apply to such forest, waste-land, or produce, and thereupon such provisions shall apply accordingly.

Failure to perform service for which a share in produce of Government forest is enjoyed.

80. If any person be entitled to a share in the produce of any forest which is the property of Government, or over which the Government has proprietary rights, or to any part of the forest-produce of which the Government is entitled, upon the condition of duly performing any service connected with such forest, such share shall be liable to confiscation in the event of the fact being established to the satisfaction of the Local Government, that such service is no longer so performed: Provided that no such share shall be confiscated until the person entitled thereto, and the evidence (if any) which he may produce in proof of the due performance of such service, have been heard by an officer duly appointed in that behalf by the Local Government.

Recovery of money due to Government.

81. All money payable to the Government under this Act, or under any rule made under this Act, or on account of the price of any forest-produce, or of expenses incurred in the execution of this Act in respect of such produce, may, if not paid when due, be recovered under the law for the time being in force as if it were an arrear of land-revenue.

Lien on forest-produce for such money.

82. When any such money is payable for or in respect of any forest-produce, the amount thereof shall be deemed to be a first charge on such produce, and such produce may be taken possession of by a forest-officer, until such amount has been paid.

If such amount is not paid when due, the forest-officer may sell such produce by public auction, and the proceeds of the sale shall be applied first in discharging such amount.

Power to sell such produce.

The surplus (if any), if not claimed within two months from the date of the sale by the person entitled thereto, shall be forfeited to Her Majesty.

83. Whenever it appears to the Local Government that any land is required for any of the purposes of this Act, such land shall be deemed to be needed for a public purpose within the meaning of the Land Acquisition Act, 1870, section 4.

Land required under this Act to be deemed to be needed for a public purpose under Land Acquisition Act.

84 * When any person, in compliance with any rule under this Act, binds himself by any instrument to perform any duty or act, or covenants by any instrument that he, or that he and his servants and agents, will abstain from any act, the whole sum mentioned in such instrument as the amount to be paid in case of a breach of the conditions thereof may, notwithstanding anything in section 74 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872, be recovered from him in case of such breach as if it were an arrear of land-revenue.

Recovery of penalties due under bond.

ACT VIII. OF 1878.

THE SEA CUSTOMS ACT.*

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 8TH MARCH 1878.

An Act to consolidate and amend the Law relating to the levy of Sea Customs-duties.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to the levy of Sea Customs-duties; It is enacted as follows :—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Sea Customs Act, 1878 :"

Local extent.
Commencement.

It extends to the whole of British India, and shall come into force on the first day of April 1878.

Repeal of enactments.

2. The Acts mentioned in "Part I. of the Schedule" † hereto annexed are repealed to the extent specified therein.

References to enactments repealed.

All references to any of the said Acts, in Acts passed subsequently thereto, shall be read as if made to the corresponding provisions of this Act.

Saving of appointments, &c.

All appointments, rules, declarations, exemptions, and delegations made, powers conferred, forms and conditions prescribed, values, fees, rates, and periods fixed, and notifications, instructions, directions, prohibitions, passes, and licenses issued, under any Act hereby repealed, shall, if the same are in force at the time this Act comes into force, be deemed to have been respectively made, conferred, prescribed, fixed, and issued under this Act, in so far as they are consistent herewith.

Interpretation.

3. In this Act, unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context—

(a) "Chief Customs-Authority" denotes the person authorized to exercise, subject to the Local Government, the chief control in matters relating to Sea-customs in any place in which this Act operates :

(b) "Chief Customs-Officer" denotes the Chief Executive Officer of Sea customs for any Port to which this Act applies :

---

* See Act XXI. of 1887, which is to be read with, and taken as part of, this Act, and which provides for the establishment of Bonded Warehouses at places other than Customs-ports.

In the case of goods brought into British India by sea, evidence of the port of shipment shall, in a prosecution for an offence against this Act (IV. of 1889) or section 18 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878, as amended by this Act (IV. of 1889), be primâ-facie evidence of the place or country in which the goods were made or produced.—Act IV. of 1889, s. 13.

† In s. 2 the words quoted have been substituted for the words "the first Schedule" by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. II.

(c) "Customs-Collector" includes every officer of Customs for the time being in separate charge of a Custom-house, or duly authorized to perform all, or any special, duties of an officer so in charge : Act VIII of 1878.

(d) "Customs-port" means any place except Aden declared under section 11 to be a port for the shipment and landing of goods :

(e) "Foreign Port" means Aden and any place beyond the limits of British India :

(f) "Vessel" includes anything made for the conveyance by water of human beings or property :

(g) "Coasting-vessel" denotes any vessel proceeding from one Customs-port to another Customs-port, whether touching at any intermediate foreign port or not : or proceeding from or to a Customs-port to or from a place declared to be a port under section 12 :

(h) "Master," when used in relation to any vessel, means any person, except a Pilot or Harbour-Master, having command or charge of such vessel :

(i) "Warehousing port" means any Customs-port declared under section 14 to be a warehousing port :

(j) "Warehouse" denotes any place appointed or licensed under section 15 or section 16.

Agent of owner of goods to be deemed owner for certain purposes.

4. When any person is expressly or impliedly authorized by the owner of any goods to be his agent in respect of such goods for all or any of the purposes of this Act, and such authorization is approved by the Customs-Collector, such person shall, for such purposes, be deemed to be the owner of such goods.

When ship's agent may act for master.

5. Anything which a master is required or empowered to do under this Act may, with the express or implied consent of such master and the approval of the Customs-Collector, be done by a ship's agent.

CHAPTER II.

APPOINTMENT AND POWERS OF OFFICERS, &c.

Appointment of Customs-officers.

6. The Local Government of every place in which duties of Sea-customs are leviable, may appoint such persons as it thinks fit to be officers of Customs, and to exercise the powers conferred, and to perform the duties imposed, by this Act on such officers.

Suspension and dismissal of such officers.

Every person so appointed may be suspended or dismissed by the Local Government which appointed him.

Delegation of powers under section 6.

7. The Local Government may delegate to any officer of Customs any of the powers vested in it by the first clause of section 6.

Suspension and dismissal of subordinate officers.

Every person appointed in exercise of such delegated power may be suspended or dismissed by the officer who appointed him.

Act VIII of 1878.

Performance of duties of Customs-Collector, where no Custom-house.

8. At any place for which there is no Custom-house, the Collector of the District and the officers subordinate to him shall, unless the Local Government otherwise directs, perform all duties imposed by this Act on a Customs-Collector and other officers of Customs.

Power to make rules.

9. The Chief Customs-Authority may from time to time, with the sanction of the Local Government, make rules consistent with this Act,

(a) prescribing and limiting the powers and duties of officers of Customs;

(b) regulating the delegation of their duties by such officers; and (c) generally to carry out the provisions of this Act.

Customs-officers exempted from service on jury or inquest or as assessors.

10. No Chief Customs-Authority or Chief Customs-Officer, and no other officer of Customs whom such Chief Authority or Chief Officer deems it necessary to exempt on grounds of public duty, shall be compelled to serve on any jury or inquest, or as an assessor.

CHAPTER III.

APPOINTMENT OF PORTS, WHARVES, CUSTOM-HOUSES, WAREHOUSES, AND BOARDING AND LANDING-STATIONS.

Power to appoint ports, wharves, and Custom-houses.

11. The Local Government may from time to time, by notification in the official Gazette,

(a) declare the places within the territories administered by it which alone shall be ports for the shipment and landing of goods;

(b) declare the limits of such ports;

(c) appoint proper places therein to be wharves for the landing and shipping of goods, or of particular classes of goods;

(d) declare the limits of any such wharf;

(e) alter the name of any such port or wharf; and

(f) declare what shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be a Custom-house, and the limits thereof.

Power to declare places to be ports for coasting-trade.

12. The Local Government may also from time to time, in like manner, declare places to be ports for the carrying on of coasting-trade with Customs-ports, or with any specified Customs-port, and for no other purpose.

Power to declare that foreign ports shall be regarded as Customs-ports for certain purposes.

13. The Governor-General in Council may from time to time direct, by notification in the Gazette of India, that all goods or any specified class of goods imported from or exported to any foreign port to or from a Customs-port shall, with such limitations and on such conditions (if any) as he thinks fit, be treated for any of the purposes of this Act as goods imported from or exported to a Customs-port as the case may be.

Power to declare warehousing ports.

14. The Local Government may from time to time declare, by notification in the official Gazette, that any Customs-port shall be a warehousing port for the purposes of this Act.

Act VIII. of 1878.

Power to appoint public warehouses.

15. At any warehousing port,* the Chief Customs-Authority may from time to time appoint public warehouses wherein dutiable goods may be deposited without payment of duty on the first importation thereof, and may cancel such appointment.

Power to license private warehouses.

16. At any warehousing port,* the Chief Customs-officer may from time to time license private warehouses† wherein dutiable goods may be deposited as aforesaid.

Form of application for license.

Every application for a license for a private warehouse shall be in writing and shall be drawn up in such form as is from time to time prescribed by the Chief Customs-Authority, and shall be signed by the applicant.

Revocation of license.

Every license granted under this section may be cancelled on conviction of the licensee of any offence under this Act relating to warehouses, unless it is otherwise provided in the license, or on the expiration of one month's notice in writing given to the licensee by the Chief Customs-officer.

Stations for Customs-officers to board and land.

17. The Chief Customs-Authority may from time to time appoint in or near any Customs-port, stations, or limits at or within which vessels arriving at, or departing from, such port, shall bring to for the boarding or landing of officers of Customs, and may, unless separate provision therefor has been made under the Indian Ports Act, 1889,‡ direct at what particular place in any such port vessels, not brought into port by pilots, shall anchor or moor.

himself in accordance with those regulations that the goods are such as are prohibited to be imported. Act VIII. of 1878.

(2) The Governor-General in Council may make regulations, either general or special, respecting the detention and confiscation of goods, the importation of which is prohibited, and the conditions (if any) to be fulfilled before such detention and confiscation, and may, by such regulations, determine the information, notices, and security to be given, and the evidence requisite for any of the purposes of this section, and the mode of verification of such evidence.

(3) Where there is on any goods a name which is identical with, or a colourable imitation of, the name of a place in the United Kingdom or British India, that name, unless accompanied in equally large and conspicuous letters, and in the same language and character, by the name of the country in which such place is situate, shall be treated, for the purposes of sections 18 and 19, as if it were the name of a place in the United Kingdom or British India.

(4) Such regulations may apply to all goods the importation of which is prohibited by section 18 or under section 19, or different regulations may be made respecting different classes of such goods or of offences in relation to such goods.

(5) The regulations may provide for the informant reimbursing any public officer and the Secretary of State for India in Council all expenses and damages incurred in respect of any detention made on his information, and of any proceedings consequent on such detention.

(6) All regulations under this section shall be published in the Gazette of India, and in the Calcutta, Fort St. George, Bombay, and Burma Gazettes."

CHAPTER V.

LEVY OF, AND EXEMPTION FROM, CUSTOMS-DUTIES.

20. Except as hereinafter provided, Customs-duties shall be levied at such rates as may be prescribed by or under any law* for the time being in force, on— Goods dutiable.

(a) goods imported or exported by sea into or from any Customs-port from or to any foreign port:

(b) opium, salt, or salted fish imported by sea from any Customs-port into any other Customs-port.

(c) goods brought from any foreign port to any Customs-port, and without payment of duty, there transhipped for, or thence carried to, and imported at, any other Customs-port: and

(d) goods brought in bond from one Customs-port to another:

Proviso. Provided that no such duties shall be levied on goods belonging to the Government.

21. Except as otherwise expressly provided by any law for the time being in force, goods whereof any article liable to duty under this Act forms a part or ingredient shall be chargeable with the full duty which would be payable on such goods if they were en- Goods partially composed of dutiable articles.

Act VIII of 1878.

tirely composed of such article, or, if composed of more than one article liable to duty, then with the full duty which would be payable on such goods if they were entirely composed of the article charged with the highest rate of duty.

Power to fix tariff-values.

22. The Governor-General in Council may from time to time, by notification in the Gazette of India, fix, for the purpose of levying duties, tariff-values of any goods exported or imported by sea on which Customs-duties are by law imposed, and alter any such values fixed by any Tariff Act* for the time being in force.

General power to exempt from Customs-duties.

23. The Governor-General in Council may from time to time, by notification in the Gazette of India, exempt any goods imported into, or exported from, British India, or into or from any specified port therein, from the whole or any part of the Customs-duties leviable on such goods.

Power to authorize, in special cases, exemption from duty.

The Local Government may, by special order in each case, exempt from the payment of duty, under circumstances of an exceptional nature, to be stated in such order, any goods on which Customs-duties are leviable.

Baggage in actual use.

24. The Customs-Collector may, subject to any general rules relating to the landing and shipping of passengers' baggage and the passing of the same through the Customs-house, which may be made under section 75, pass free of duty any baggage in actual use, and for this purpose may determine, subject to any such rules, whether any goods shall be treated as baggage in actual use, or as goods subject to duty.

Re-imported articles of country-produce.

25. If goods produced or manufactured in British India be imported into any Customs-port from any foreign port, such goods shall be liable to all the duties, conditions, and restrictions (if any) to which goods of the like kind and value not so produced or manufactured are liable on the first importation thereof:

Proviso.

Provided that, if such importation takes place within three years after the exportation of such goods, and it is proved to the satisfaction of the Customs-Collector that the property in such goods has continued in the person by whom, or on whose account, they were exported, the goods may be admitted without payment of duty.

Excise-duty on importation of certain country-goods.

26. Any goods produced or manufactured in British India which have been exported therefrom, and on the exportation of which any drawback of excise has been received, shall, on being imported into any Customs-port, be subjected, unless the Chief Customs-Authority in any particular case otherwise directs by special order, to payment of excise-duty, at the rate to which goods of the like kind and quality are liable at such port.

Goods derelict and wreck

27. All goods derelict, jetsam, flotsam, and wreck, brought or coming into any place in British India, shall be subject to the same duties, if any, to which goods of the like kind are for the time being subject on importation at any Customs-port, and shall in other respects be dealt with as if they were imported from a foreign

* See now Act XI. of 1882.

port, unless it be shown to the satisfaction of the Customs-Collector that such goods are the produce or manufacture of any place from which they are entitled to be admitted duty-free. Act VIII of 1878.

Country-provisions and stores may be shipped free of duty.

28. Provisions and stores produced or manufactured in British India, required for use on board of any vessel proceeding to any foreign port, may be shipped free of duty, whether of customs or excise, in such quantities as the Customs-Collector determines with reference to the tonnage of the vessel, the numbers of the crew and passengers, and the length of the voyage on which the vessel is about to depart:

Provided that no rum shall be so shipped on any vessel going on a voyage of less than thirty days' probable duration.

Owner to declare real value, &c., of goods in bill-of-entry or shipping-bill.

29. On the importation into, or exportation from, any Customs-port of any goods, whether liable to duty or not, the owner of such goods shall, in his bill-of-entry or shipping-bill, as the case may be, state the real value, quantity, and description of such goods to the best of his knowledge and belief, and shall subscribe a declaration of the truth of such statement at the foot of such bill.

Power to require production of invoice, &c.

In case of doubt, the Customs-Collector may require any such owner or any other person in possession of any invoice, broker's note, policy of insurance, or other document, whereby the real value, quantity, or description of any such goods can be ascertained, to produce the same, and to furnish any information relating to such value, quantity, or description which it is in his power to furnish. And thereupon such person shall produce such document and furnish such information:

Provided that, if the owner makes and subscribes a declaration before the Customs-Collector, to the effect that he is unable, from want of full information, to state the real value or contents of any case, package, or parcel of goods, then the Customs-Collector shall permit him previous to the entry thereof, (1) to open such case, package, or parcel, and examine the contents in presence of an officer of Customs, or (2) to deposit such case, package, or parcel in a public warehouse appointed under section 15 without warehousing the same, pending the production of such information.

"Real value" defined.

30. For the purposes of this Act the real value shall be deemed to be—

(a) the wholesale cash-price, less trade-discount, for which goods of the like kind and quality are sold, or are capable of being sold, at the time and place of importation or exportation, as the case may be, without any abatement or deduction whatever, except (in the case of goods imported) of the amount of the duties payable on the importation thereof: or;

(b) where such price is not ascertainable, the cost at which goods of the like kind and quality could be delivered at such place, without any abatement or deduction except as aforesaid.

Examination of ad-valorem goods.

31. Goods chargeable with duty upon the value thereof, but for which a specific value is not fixed by law for the purpose of levying duties thereon, shall, without unnecessary delay, be examined by an officer of Customs. If it appears that the real value of such goods is correctly stated in the bill-of-entry or shipping-bill, the goods shall be assessed in accordance therewith.

Act VIII. of 1878.

Procedure where such goods are under-valued by owner.

32. If it appears that such goods are properly chargeable with a higher rate or amount of duty than that to which they would be subject according to the value thereof as stated in the bill-of-entry or shipping-bill, such officer may detain such goods.

In every such case the detaining officer shall forthwith give notice in writing to the owner of the goods of their detention, and of the value thereof as estimated by him; and the Customs-Collector shall, within two clear working days after such detention, or within such reasonable period as may with the consent of the parties be arranged, determine either to deliver such goods on payment of duty charged according to the entry of such owner, or to retain the same for the use of Government.

If the goods be retained for the use of Government, the Customs-Collector shall cause the full amount stated in the bill as their real value to be paid to the owner in full satisfaction for such goods, in the same manner as if they had been transferred by ordinary sale, and shall, after due notice in the local official Gazette or some local newspaper, and without unnecessary delay, cause them to be put up to public auction in wholesale lots for cash on delivery.

If the Customs-Collector deems the highest offer made at such sale to be inadequate, he may either adjourn the sale to some other day, to be notified as aforesaid, or buy in the goods, and without unnecessary delay dispose of them for the benefit of Government.

If the proceeds arising from such sale exceed the sum paid to the owner, together with (in the case of goods imported) the duty to which the goods are liable and all charges incurred by Government in connection with them, a portion not exceeding one-half of the overplus shall, at the discretion of the Chief Officer of Customs, be payable to the officer who detected the under-valuation of the goods.

Nothing in this section shall prevent the Chief Officer of Customs, when he has reason to believe that any such under-valuation was solely the result of accident or error, from permitting the owner of the goods, on his application for that purpose, to amend such entry, on payment of such increased rate of duties on the excess of the amended over the original valuation, or on such other terms as the Chief Officer of Customs may determine.

Abatement allowed on damaged goods.

33. If, on the first examination of any such goods under section 31, the owner thereof states in writing that such goods are in consequence of damage sustained before delivery of the bill-of-entry, of value less than that stated in such bill, the Customs-Collector, on being satisfied of the fact, may allow abatement of duty accordingly.

Reduced duty how determined.

The reduced duty to be levied on such goods may be ascertained by either of the following methods, at the option of the owner—

(a) the real value of such goods may be fixed on appraisement by an officer of Customs, and the duty may be assessed on the value so fixed; or

(b) the goods may, after due notice in the local official Gazette or some local newspaper, be sold by public auction at such time (within thirty days from the date of delivery of the bill-of-entry), and at such place, as the Customs-Collector appoints; and the duty may be assessed on the gross amount realized by such sale, without any abatement or deduction, except (in the case of goods imported) of so much as represents the duties payable on the importation thereof. Act VIII. of 1878.

34. When any goods, the value of which has been fixed by law for the purpose of levying duties thereon, have, before delivery of the bill-of-entry, deteriorated to the extent of more than one-tenth of their value, the duty on such goods shall, if the owner thereof so desires, be assessed ad valorem.

Deterioration of tariff-value goods.

The real value of such goods shall be ascertained as provided in section 33, and the duty shall be assessed thereon.

35. No abatement of duty on account of damage shall be allowed on wines, spirit, or beer, or on any other articles on which duties are levied on quantity and not on value.

No abatement when duty is levied on quantity.

36. Except as provided in section 94, no amendment of a bill-of-entry or shipping bill relating to goods assessed for duty on the declared value, quantity, or description thereof, shall be allowed after such goods have been removed from the Custom-house.

Restriction on amendment of bill-of-entry or shipping-bill.

37. The rate of duty and the tariff-valuation (if any) applicable to any goods imported shall be the rate and valuation in force on the date on which the bill-of-entry thereof is delivered to the Customs-Collector under section 86 :*

Alteration of import-duty or tariff-valuation.

Provided that, if such goods are warehoused under this Act, the rate and valuation (if any) applicable thereto shall be the rate and valuation in force on the date on which application is made to clear such goods from the warehouse for home-consumption.†

Explanation.—A bill-of-entry shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be delivered when it is first presented to the proper officer of Customs.

38. The rate of duty and tariff-valuation (if any) applicable to any goods exported shall be the rate and valuation in force when a shipping-bill of such goods is delivered under section 137.

Alteration of export-duty or tariff-valuation.

39. When Customs-duties or charges have been short-levied through inadvertence, error, collusion, or misconstruction on the part of the officers of Customs, or through misstatement as to real value, quantity, or description on the part of the owner,

Payment of duties short-levied or erroneously refunded.

or, when any such duty or charge, after having been levied, has been, owing to any such cause, erroneously refunded,

---

* See Act II. of 1888, s. 2, which runs as follows :—

"2. The rate of duty applicable to petroleum of which the bill-of-entry is delivered, within the meaning of section 37 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878, to the Customs-Collector under section 86 of that Act, after the passing of this Act, shall be the rate of duty specified in the second schedule to the Indian Tariff Act, 1882, as amended by this Act."

† In s. 37 the proviso has been substituted for the original provisos by Act VIII. of 1889, s. 1.

Act VIII. of 1878.

the person chargeable with the duty or charge so short-levied, or to whom such refund has erroneously been made, shall pay the deficiency or repay the amount paid to him in excess, on demand being made within three months from the date of the first assessment or making of the refund;

and the Customs-Collector may refuse to pass any goods belonging to such person until the said deficiency or excess be paid or repaid.

No refund of charges erroneously levied or paid, unless claimed within three months.

40. No Customs-duties or charges which have been paid, and of which repayment, wholly or in part, is claimed in consequence of the same having been paid through inadvertence, error, or misconstruction, shall be returned, unless such claim is made within three months from the date of such payment.

Power to give credit for, and keep account-current of, duties and charges.

41. The Customs-Collector may, if he thinks fit, instead of requiring payment of Customs-duties and charges due from any mercantile firm or public body, at the time such duties and charges are payable under this Act, keep with such firm or body an account-current of such duties and charges. Such account shall be settled at intervals not exceeding one month, and such firm or body shall make a deposit or furnish security sufficient in the opinion of the Customs-Collector to cover the amount which may at any time be due from them in respect of such duties and charges.

CHAPTER VI.

DRAWBACK.

Drawback allowable on re-export.

42. When any goods, capable of being easily identified, which have been imported by sea into any Customs-port from any foreign port, and upon which duties of Customs have been paid on importation, are re-exported by sea from such Customs-port to any foreign port, or as provisions or stores for use on board a ship proceeding to a foreign port, seven-eighths of such duties shall, except as otherwise hereinafter provided, be repaid as drawback:

Conditions for grant of drawback.

Provided that, in every such case, the goods be identified to the satisfaction of the Customs-Collector at such Customs-port, and that the re-export be made within two years from the date of importation, as shown by the records of the Custom-house, or within such extended term as the Chief Customs-Authority, on sufficient cause being shown, in any case determines.

Drawback on goods exported to Customs-port and thence to foreign port.

43. When any goods, having been charged with import-duty at one Customs-port, and thence exported to another, are re-exported by sea as aforesaid, drawback shall be allowed on such goods as if they had been so re-exported from the former port:

Proviso.

Provided that, in every such case, the goods be identified to the satisfaction of the officer in charge of the Custom-house at the port of final exportation, and that such final exportation be made within three years from the date on which they were first imported into British India.

44. A drawback of the whole of the Customs-duties shall be allowed on wine and spirit intended for the consumption of any officer of Her Majesty's Navy, on board of any of Her Majesty's ships in actual service, unless such wine and spirit have been warehoused without payment of duty on the first entry thereof. Act VIII of 1878.

Drawback of duties on wine and spirit allowed for officers of Navy:

The quantity of wine and spirit on which drawback may be so allowed in any one year for the use of such officers shall not exceed the quantities hereinafter allowed for each such officer respectively; that is to say—

	Gallons.
For every Admiral	1,260
Vice-Admiral	1,050
Rear-Admiral	840
Captain of 1st and 2nd rate ...	630
Captain of 3rd, 4th, and 5th rate ...	420
Captain of an inferior rate	210
Lieutenant or other Commanding Officer, Marine-officer, Master, Purser, or Surgeon	105

45. Every person clearing and claiming drawback for wine or spirit, as provided in section 44, shall state in the shipping-bill the name of the officer for whose use such wine or spirit is intended, and of the ship in which he serves, as well as the place and date of the last supply for which drawback was allowed.

Persons entering such wine or spirit for drawback to declare name and rank of officer claiming same.

All such wine and spirit shall be delivered into the charge of the proper officers of Customs at the port of shipment, to be shipped under their care; and when the officer commanding the ship has certified the receipt of such wine and spirit into his charge, and any such officer of Customs has certified the shipment, the drawback shall be paid to the person entitled to receive the same.

46. The Customs-Collector may permit the transfer of any such wine or spirit from one Naval officer to another Naval officer on board of the same, or of any other such vessel, as part of his authorized quantity;

Transfer of wine or spirit from one Naval officer to another.

or may permit the transhipment of any such wine or spirit from one vessel to another for the use of the same Naval officer; or the re-landing and warehousing of any such wine or spirit for future re-shipment.

The Customs-Collector may also receive back the duties for any such wine or spirit, and allow the same to be cleared for home-consumption.

47. Provisions and stores for the use of Her Majesty's Navy or of any officer thereof which are subject to duty may, in like manner, be transferred, transhipped, or re-landed and warehoused, free of duty;

Provisions and stores for Her Majesty's Navy.

and where duties have been paid on any such provisions or stores required for shipment, drawback of such duties, whether of customs or excise, shall be allowed on receipt of an application in writing from the officer commanding the ship for which they are intended, or from some other officer duly authorized to make such application.

Act VIII. of 1878.

Indian Marine and Marine-survey.

48. The provisions of sections 44, 45, 46, and 47 as to officers of Her Majesty's Navy apply also to officers of Her Majesty's Indian Marine and Marine-survey on board of any of the ships of such Marine or Survey proceeding to any port out of India, and the rules prescribed by section 47 as to provisions and stores for the use of Her Majesty's Navy apply also to provisions and stores for the use of such Marine or Survey.

Power to declare what goods are identifiable;

49. The Governor-General in Council may from time to time, by notification in the Gazette of India,

(a) declare what goods shall, for the purpose of this chapter, be deemed to be capable of being easily identified; and and to prohibit drawback in case of specified foreign port.

(b) prohibit the payment of drawback upon the re-exportation of goods to any specified foreign port in India.

When no drawback allowed.

50. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, no drawback shall be allowed—

(a) upon goods not included in the export-manifest, or

(b) where the goods to be exported are of less value than the amount of drawback claimed, or

(c) where the claim is for drawback amounting, in respect of any single shipment, to less than five rupees, and the Customs-Collector thinks fit to reject it, or (d) on salt, salted fish, or opium.

Time to claim drawback.

51. No drawback shall be allowed unless the claim to receive such drawback be made and established at the time of re-export.

When payment made.

No such payment of drawback shall be made until the vessel carrying the goods has put out to sea, or unless payment be demanded within six months from the date of entry for shipment.

Declaration by parties claiming drawback.

52. Every person, or his duly authorized agent, claiming drawback on any goods duly exported, shall make and subscribe a declaration that such goods have been actually exported, and have not been re-landed and are not intended to be re-landed at any Customs-port; and that such person was at the time of entry outwards and shipment, and continues to be, entitled to drawback thereon.

CHAPTER VII.

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF VESSELS.

Arrival and Entry of Vessel Inwards.

Power to fix places beyond which inward-bound vessels are not to proceed until manifest delivered.

53. The Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, fix a place in any river or port, beyond which no vessel arriving shall pass until a manifest has been delivered to the Pilot, officer of Customs, or other person duly authorized to receive the same.

If, in any river or port wherein a place has been fixed by the Local Government under this section, the master of any vessel arriving remains outside or below the place so fixed, such master shall, nevertheless, within twenty-four hours after the vessel anchors, deliver a manifest to the Pilot, officer of Customs, or other person authorized to receive the same.

Delivery of manifest when vessel anchors below place so fixed.

54. If any vessel arrives at any Customs-port in which a place has not been so fixed, the master of such vessel shall, within twenty-four hours after such vessel has anchored within the limits of the port, deliver a manifest to the Pilot, officer of Customs, or other person authorized to receive the same.

Delivery of manifest where no place has been so fixed.

55. Every manifest shall be signed by the master, shall specify all goods imported in such vessel, showing separately all goods (if any) intended to be landed, transhipped, or taken on to another port, and all ships' stores intended for consumption in port or on the homeward voyage, and shall contain such further particulars, and be made out in such form, as the Chief Customs-Authority may from time to time direct.

Signature and contents of manifest.

The Customs-Collector shall permit the master to amend any obvious error in the manifest, or to supply any omission which in the opinion of such Collector results from accident or inadvertence, by furnishing an amended or supplementary manifest, and may, if he thinks fits, levy thereon such fee as the Chief Customs-Authority from time to time directs.

Amendment of errors in manifest.

Except as herein provided, no import-manifest shall be amended.

56. The person receiving a manifest under section 53 or 54 shall countersign the same and enter thereon such particulars as the Chief Customs-Authority from time to time directs in this behalf.

Duty of person receiving manifest.

57. No vessel arriving in any Customs-port shall be allowed to break bulk until a manifest has been delivered as hereinbefore provided; nor until a copy of such manifest, together with an application for entry of such vessel inwards, has been presented by the master to the Customs-Collector, and an order has been given thereon for such entry.

Bulk not to be broken until manifest, &c., delivered, and vessel entered inwards.

58. The master shall, if required so to do by the Customs-Collector at the time of presenting such application, deliver to the Customs-Collector the bill-of-lading or a copy thereof for every part of the cargo laden on board, and any port-clearance, cockett, or other paper granted in respect of such vessel at the place from which she is stated to have come, and shall answer all such questions relating to the vessel, cargo, crew, and voyage as are put to him by such officer.

Master, if required, to deliver bill-of-lading, &c., to Customs-Collector; and answer questions.

The Customs-Collector may, if any requisition or question made or put by him under this section is not complied with or answered, refuse to grant such application.

59. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 57, the Customs-Collector may grant, prior to receipt of the manifest, and to the entry inwards of the vessel, a special pass permitting bulk to be broken.

Special pass for breaking bulk.

Act VIII. of 1878.

The granting of such pass shall be subject to such rules as may from time to time be made by the Chief Customs-Authority.

Manifest, &c., may be delivered by ship's agent.

60. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 53, 54, 57, or 58, the Customs-Collector may accept from the ship's agent, in lieu of the master, delivery of the manifest or of any other document required by those sections to be delivered by the master.

*Entry outwards, Port-clearance, and Departure of Vessels.

Order for entry outwards to be obtained before export-cargo is shipped.

61. No vessel shall take on board any part of her export-cargo, until a written application for entry of such vessel outwards, subscribed by the master of such vessel, has been made to the Customs-Collector, or before an order has been given thereon by such officer for such entry.

Every application made under this section shall specify the name, tonnage, and national character of the vessel, the name of the master, and the name of every place for which cargo is to be shipped.

No vessel to depart without port-clearance.

62. No vessel, whether laden or in ballast, shall depart from any Customs-port until a port-clearance has been granted by the Customs-Collector or other officer duly authorized to grant the same.

No Pilot to take charge of vessel proceeding to sea without production of port-clearance.

And no Pilot shall take charge of any vessel proceeding to sea, unless the master of such vessel produces a port-clearance.

Application for port-clearance.

63. Every application for port-clearance shall be made by the master at least twenty-four hours before the intended departure of the vessel.

Master on applying for port-clearance to deliver documents and answer questions.

The master shall, at the time of applying for port-clearance—

(a) deliver to the Customs-Collector a manifest in duplicate in such form as may from time to time be prescribed by the Chief Customs-Authority, signed by such master, specifying all goods to be exported in the vessel, and showing separately all goods and stores entered in the import-manifest, and not landed or consumed on board or transhipped :

(b) deliver to the Customs-Collector, such shipping-bills or other documents as such Customs-Collector, acting under the general instructions of such Chief Customs-Authority, requires ; and

(c) answer to the proper officer of Customs such questions touching the departure and destination of the vessel as are demanded of him.

The provisions of section 55 relating to the amendment of import-manifests shall, mutatis mutandis, apply also to export-manifests delivered under this section.

---

* For certain formalities required in respect of the marking of load-lines and the provision of lights and means for making fog-signals before vessels clear, see Act VII. of 1880, ss. 34, 35, 38, 39, and 83.

Power to refuse port-clearance.

64. The Customs-Collector may refuse port-clearance to any vessel until Act VIII. of 1878.

(a) the provisions of section 63 are complied with;

(b) all port-dues and other charges and penalties due by such vessel, or by the owner or master thereof, and all duties payable in respect of any goods shipped therein, have been duly paid, or their payment secured by such guarantee, or by a deposit at such rate, as such Customs-Collector directs;

(c) the ship's agent (if any) delivers to the Customs-Collector a declaration in writing to the effect that he will be liable for any penalty imposed under section 167, No. 17, and furnishes security for the discharge of the same;

(d) the ship's agent (if any) delivers to the Customs-Collector a declaration in writing to the effect that such agent is answerable for the discharge of all claims for damage or short delivery which may be established by the owner of any goods comprised in the import-cargo in respect of such goods.

A ship's agent delivering a declaration under clause (c) of this section shall be liable to all penalties which might be imposed on the master under section 167, No. 17, and a ship's agent delivering a declaration under clause (d) of this section shall be bound to discharge all claims referred to in such declaration.

Grant of port-clearance.

65. When the Customs-Collector is satisfied that the provisions of section 63, and if necessary of clauses (b), (c), and (d) of section 64, have been complied with, he shall grant a port-clearance to the master, and shall return at the same time to such master one copy of the manifest duly countersigned by the proper officer of Customs.

Grant of port-clearance on security of ship's agent.

66. Notwithstanding anything contained in sections 64 and 65, the Customs-Collector may (subject to such rules as the Chief Customs-Authority may from time to time prescribe) grant a port-clearance to the master when the ship's agent furnishes such security as the Customs-Collector deems sufficient for duly delivering, within five days from the date of such grant, the manifest and other documents specified in section 63.

CHAPTER VIII.

General Provisions affecting Vessels in Port.

Power to depute Customs-officer to board ships.

67. The Customs-Collector at any Customs-port may at any time depute at his discretion one or more officers of Customs to board any vessel in or arriving at such port.

Duty of such officer.

Every officer of Customs so sent shall remain on board of such vessel by day and by night unless or until the Customs-Collector otherwise orders.

Officer and servant to be received.

68. Whenever an officer of Customs is so deputed on board of any vessel, the master of such vessel shall be bound to receive on board such officer and one servant of such officer, and to provide such officer and servant with suitable shelter and accommodation, and likewise with a due allowance of fresh water, and with the means of cooking on board.

Act VIII. of 1878.

Accommodation of officer and servant.

69. Every officer of Customs so deputed shall have free access to every part of the vessel, and may fasten down any hatchway or entrance to the hold, and mark any goods before landing, and lock up, seal, mark, or otherwise secure any goods on board of such vessel.

Officers of Customs to have free access to every part of ship and may seal and secure goods.

If any box, place, or closed receptacle in any such vessel be locked, and the key be withheld, such officer shall report the same to the Customs-Collector, who may thereupon issue to the officer on board, or to any other officer under his authority, a written order to search.

Power to authorize search and opening of locks.

On production of such order, the officer bearing the same may require that any such box, place, or closed receptacle be opened in his presence; and, if it be not opened upon his requisition, he may break open the same.

70. Unless with the written permission of the Customs-Collector or in accordance with a general permission granted under section 74, no goods, other than passengers' baggage, or ballast urgently required to be shipped for the vessel's safety, shall be shipped or water-borne to be shipped or discharged from any vessel in any Customs-port, except in the presence of an officer of Customs.

Goods not to be shipped, discharged, or water-borne, except in presence of officer.

71. When an officer of Customs is deputed under section 67 to remain on board a vessel, the tonnage of which does not exceed six hundred tons, a period of thirty working days, reckoned from the date on which he boards such vessel, or such additional period as the Customs-Collector directs, shall be allowed for the discharge of import-cargo and the shipment of export-cargo on board of such vessel.

Period allowed for discharge and shipment of cargo.

One additional day shall, in like manner, be allowed for every fifty tons in excess of six hundred.

No charge shall be made for the services of a single officer of Customs for such allowed number of working days, or for the services of several such officers (if available) for respective periods not exceeding in the aggregate such allowed number of working days.

If the period occupied in the discharge and shipment of cargo be in excess of thirty working days, together with the additional period (if any) allowed under this section, the vessel shall be charged with the expense of the officer of Customs at a rate not exceeding five rupees per diem (Sundays and holidays excepted) for such excess period.

Consequence of exceeding same.

In calculating any period allowed, or any charge made, under this section, the period (if any) during which a vessel, after the completion of the discharge of import-cargo, and before commencing the shipment of export-cargo, is laid up by the withdrawal of the officer of Customs, upon application from the master shall be deducted.

Allowance for period during which vessel is laid up.

72. Except with the written permission of the Customs-Collector, no goods, other than passengers' baggage, shall in any Customs-port be discharged from any vessel, or be shipped or water-borne to be shipped— Act VIII. of 1878.

Goods not to be landed, &c., on Sundays or holidays, without permission, nor except within fixed hours.

(a) on any Sunday or on any holiday or day on which the discharge or shipping of cargo, as the case may be, is prohibited by the Chief Customs-Authority;

(b) on any day, except between such hours as such Authority from time to time appoints by notification in the official Gazette.

73. No goods shall in any Customs-port be landed at any place other than a wharf or other place duly appointed for that purpose, and unless with the written permission of the Customs-Collector, or when a general permission has been granted under section 74, no goods shall in any Customs-port be shipped or water-borne to be shipped from any place other than a wharf or other place duly appointed for that purpose.

Goods not to be shipped, &c., except at wharves.

74. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 70 or 73, the Chief Customs-Authority may, by notification in the local official Gazette, give general permission for goods to be shipped or water-borne to be shipped in any Customs-port from all or any places not duly appointed as wharves, and without the presence or authority of an officer of Customs.

Power to exempt from sections 70 and 73.

75. The Chief Customs-Authority may, from time to time, make rules for the landing and shipping of passengers' baggage and the passing of the same through the Custom-house; and for the landing, shipping, and clearing of parcels forwarded by Her Majesty's or other mails, or by other regular packets and passenger-vessels.

Power to make rules regarding baggage and mails.

When any baggage or parcels is or are made over to an officer of Customs for the purpose of being landed, a fee of such amount as the Local Government from time to time directs shall be chargeable thereon, as compensation for the expense and trouble incurred in landing and depositing the same in the Custom-house.

Landing fees.

76. When any goods are water-borne for the purpose of being landed from any vessel and warehoused or cleared for home-consumption, or of being shipped for exportation on board of any vessel, there shall be sent, with each boat-load or other separate despatch, a boat-note specifying the number of packages so sent and the marks and numbers or other description thereof.

Boat-note.

Each boat-note for goods to be landed shall be signed by an officer of the vessel, and likewise by the officer of Customs on board, if any such officer be on board, and shall be delivered on arrival to any officer of Customs authorized to receive the same.

Each boat-note for goods to be shipped shall be signed by the proper officer of Customs, and, if an officer of Customs is on board of the vessel on which such goods are to be shipped, shall be delivered to such officer. If no such officer be on board, every such boat-note shall be delivered to the master of the vessel, or to an officer of the vessel appointed by him to receive it.

Act VIII. of 1878.

The officer of Customs who receives any boat-note of goods landed, and the officer of Customs, master, or other officer, as the case may be, who receives any boat-note of goods shipped, shall sign the same and note thereon such particulars as the Chief Customs-Authority may from time to time direct.

The Local Government may from time to time, by notification in the local official Gazette, suspend the operation of this section in any Customs-port or part thereof.

Goods water-borne to be forthwith landed or shipped.

77. All goods water-borne for the purpose of being landed or shipped shall be landed or shipped without any unnecessary delay.

Such goods not to be transhipped without permission.

78. Except in cases of imminent danger, no goods discharged into or loaded in any boat for the purpose of being landed or shipped shall be transhipped into any other boat without the permission of an officer of Customs.

Power to prohibit plying of unlicensed cargo-boats.

79. The Local Government may declare with regard to any Customs-port, by notification in the local official Gazette, that, after a date therein specified, no boat not duly licensed and registered shall be allowed to ply as a cargo-boat for the landing and shipping of merchandize within the limits of such port.

Issue of licenses and registration of cargo-boats.

In any port with regard to which such notification has been issued, the Chief Officer of Customs, or officer whom the Local Government appoints in this behalf, may, subject to such rules, and on payment of such fees as the Local Government from time to time prescribes by notification in the local official Gazette, issue licenses for, and register, cargo-boats. Such officer may also, subject to rules so prescribed, cancel any license so issued.

Power to require goods to be weighed or measured on board before landing or after shipment.

80. The Customs-Collector may, whenever he thinks fit, require that goods stowed in bulk, and brought by sea or intended for exportation, shall be weighed or measured on board-ship before landing or after shipment, and may levy duty according to the result of such weighing or measurement.

CHAPTER IX.

OF DISCHARGE OF CARGO AND ENTRY INWARDS OF GOODS.

Discharge of cargo may commence on receipt of due permission.

81. When an order for entry inwards of any vessel which has arrived in any Customs-port, or a special pass permitting such vessel to break bulk, has been given, the discharge of the cargo of such vessel may be proceeded with.

Goods not to leave ship unless entered in manifest.

82. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, no goods shall be allowed to leave any such vessel unless they are entered in the original manifest of such vessel, or in an amended or supplementary manifest received under section 55.

Procedure in respect of goods not landed within time allowed.

83. If the owner of any goods (except such as have been shown in the import-manifest as not to be landed) does not land such goods within such period as is specified in the bill-of-lading of such goods, or, if no period is so specified, within such number of working days, not exceeding fifteen, after the entry of the vessel importing the same, as the Local Government from time to time appoints by notification in the official Gazette, or, Act VIII. of 1878.

if the cargo of any vessel, with the exception of only a small quantity of goods, has been discharged previously to the expiration of the period so specified or appointed, as the case may be,— the master of such vessel, or, on his application, the proper officer of Customs, may then carry such goods to the Custom-house, there to remain for entry.

The Customs-Collector shall thereupon take charge of, and grant receipts for, such goods; and if notice in writing has been given by the master that the goods are to remain subject to a lien for freight, primage, general average, or other charges of a stated amount, the Customs-Collector shall hold such goods until he receives notice in writing that the said charges are paid.

84. At any time after the arrival of any vessel, the Customs-Collector may, with the consent of the master of such vessel, cause any small package or parcel of goods to be carried to the Custom-house, there to remain for entry, in charge of the officers of Customs, during the remainder of the working days allowed under this Act for the landing of such package or parcel.

Power to land small parcels.

If any package or parcel so carried to the Custom-house remains unclaimed on the expiration of the number of working days so allowed for its landing, or at the time of the clearance outwards of the vessel from which it was landed, the master may give such notice as is provided in section 83, and the officer in charge of the Custom-house shall thereupon hold such package or parcel as provided in that section.

Notice regarding unclaimed packages.

85. Notwithstanding any thing contained in sections 83 and 84, the Customs-Collector in any Customs-port to which the Local Government, by notification in the local official Gazette, declares this section to be applicable, may permit the master of any vessel, immediately on receipt of an order under section 57 or special pass under section 59, to discharge the cargo of such vessel or any portion thereof into the custody of the ship's agents if willing to receive the same, for the purpose of landing the same forthwith—Power to permit immediate discharge.

(a) at the Custom-house or any specified landing-place or wharf; or (b) at any landing-place or wharf belonging to any Port Commissioners, Port trust, or other public body or company.

Any ship's agent so receiving such cargo or portion shall be bound to discharge all claims for damage or short delivery which may be established in respect of the same by the owner thereof, and shall be entitled to recover from such owner his charges for service rendered, but not for commission or the like, where any agent for the landing of such cargo or portion has been previously appointed by the owner, and such appointment is unrevoked.

The Customs-Collector shall take charge of all goods discharged under clause (a) of this section, and otherwise proceed in relation thereto, as provided in sections 83 and 88.

A public body or company, at whose landing-place or wharf any goods are discharged under clause (b) of this section, shall not permit the same to be removed without an order in writing from the Customs-Collector.

Act VIII. of 1878.

Entry for home-consumption or warehousing.

86. The owner of any goods imported shall, on the landing thereof from the importing ship, make entry of such goods for home-consumption or warehousing by delivering to the Customs-Collector a bill-of-entry thereof in duplicate, in such form and containing such particulars, in addition to the particulars specified in section 29, as may, from time to time, be prescribed by the Chief Customs-Authority.

The particulars of such entry shall correspond with the particulars given of the same goods in the manifest of the ship.

Assessment of dutiable goods.

87. On the delivery of such bill the duty (if any) leviable on such goods shall be assessed, and the owner of such goods may then proceed to clear the same for home-consumption, or warehouse them, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained.

Procedure in case of goods not cleared or warehoused within four months after entry of vessel.

88. If any goods are not entered and cleared for home-consumption, or warehoused, within four months from the date of entry of the vessel, such goods may, after due notice to the owner, if his address can be ascertained, and in the local official Gazette, be sold by public auction, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied, first, to the payment of freight, primage, and general average, if the goods are held by the Customs-Collector subject to such charges under notice given under section 83, 84, or 85; next to the payment of the duties which would be leviable on such goods, if they were then cleared for home-consumption, and next to the payment of the other charges (if any) payable to the Customs-Collector in respect of the same.

The surplus, if any, shall be paid to the owner of the goods, on his application for the same; provided that such application be made within one year from the sale of the goods, or that sufficient cause be shown for not making it within such period.

Power to direct sale of perishable goods.

If any goods of which the Customs-Collector has taken charge under section 83, 84, or 85, be of a perishable nature, the Customs-Collector may at any time direct the sale thereof, and shall apply the proceeds in like manner:

Proviso.

Provided that, where any goods liable to be sold under this section are arms, ammunition, or military stores, they may be sold or otherwise disposed of at such place (whether within or without British India), and in such manner, as the Local Government may from time to time direct:

Provided, also, that nothing in this section shall authorize the removal for home-consumption of any dutiable goods without payment of duties of Customs thereon.

CHAPTER X.

OF CLEARANCE OF GOODS FOR HOME CONSUMPTION.

Clearance for home-consumption.

89. When the owner of any goods entered for home-consumption, and (if such goods be liable to duty) assessed under section 87, has paid the import-duty (if any) assessed on such goods and any charges payable under this Act in respect of the same, the Customs-officer may make an order clearing the same; and such order shall be sufficient authority for the removal of such goods by the owner,

CHAPTER XI.

WAREHOUSING.

Of the Admission of Goods into a Warehouse.

90 When any dutiable goods have been entered for warehousing and assessed under section 87, the owner of such goods may apply for leave to deposit the same in any warehouse appointed or licensed under this Act.

Application to warehouse.

91. Every such application shall be in writing signed by the applicant, and shall be in such form as is, from time to time, prescribed by the Chief Customs-Authority.

Form of application.

92. When any such application has been made in respect of any goods, the owner of the goods to which it relates shall execute a bond, binding himself, in a penalty of twice the amount of duty assessed under section 87 on such goods, Warehousing bond.

(a) to observe all rules prescribed by this Act in respect of such goods;

(b) to pay, on demand, all duties, rent, and charges claimable on account of such goods under this Act, together with interest on the same from the date of demand, at such rate, not exceeding six per cent. per annum, as is for the time being fixed by the Chief Customs-Authority; and

(c) to discharge all penalties incurred for violation of the provisions of this Act in respect of such goods.

Every such bond shall be in the form marked A hereto annexed, or, when such form is inapplicable or insufficient, in such other form as is from time to time prescribed by the Chief Customs-Authority, and shall relate to the cargo or portion of the cargo of one vessel only.

Form of bond.

93. When the provisions of sections 91 and 92 have been complied with in respect of any goods, such goods shall be forwarded in charge of an officer of Customs to the warehouse in which they are to be deposited.

Forwarding of goods to warehouse.

A pass shall be sent with the goods specifying the name of the importing vessel and of the bonder, the marks, numbers, and contents of each package, and the warehouse or place in the warehouse wherein they are to be deposited.

94. On receipt of the goods the pass shall be examined by the warehouse-keeper, and shall be returned to the Customs-Collector.

Receipt of goods at warehouse.

No package, butt, cask, or hogshead shall be admitted into any warehouse unless it bear the marks and numbers specified in, and otherwise correspond with, the pass for its admission.

If the goods be found to correspond with the pass, the warehouse-keeper shall certify to that effect on the pass, and the warehousing of such goods shall be deemed to have been completed.

If the goods do not so correspond, the fact shall be reported by the warehouse-keeper for the orders of the Customs-Collector, and the goods shall either be returned to the Custom-house in charge of an officer of Customs, or kept in deposit pending such orders, as the warehouse-keeper deems most convenient.

Act VIII. of 1878. If the quantity or value of any goods has been erroneously stated in the bill-of-entry, the error may be rectified at any time before the warehousing of the goods is completed, and not subsequently.

Goods how warehoused.

95. Except as provided in section 100, all goods shall be warehoused in the packages, butts, casks, or hogsheads in which they have been imported.

Warrant to be given when goods are warehoused.

96. Whenever any goods are lodged in a public warehouse or a licensed private warehouse, the warehouse-keeper, or, in the case of the Bengal Bonded Warehouse Association, the Secretary of the said Association, shall deliver a warrant signed by him as such to the person lodging the goods.

Form of warrant.

Such warrant shall be in the form B hereto annexed, and shall be transferable by endorsement; and the endorsee shall be entitled to receive the goods specified in such warrant on the same terms as those on which the person who originally lodged the goods would have been entitled to receive the same.

The Local Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, exempt salt and salted fish from the operation of this section, and may in like manner cancel such exemption.

Rules relating to Goods in a Warehouse.

Access of Customs-officer to private warehouse.

97. The Customs-Collector, or any officer deputed by him for the purpose, shall have access to any private warehouse licensed under this Act.

Power to cause packages lodged in warehouse to be opened and examined.

98. The Customs-Collector may at any time by order in writing direct that any goods or packages lodged in any warehouse shall be opened, weighed, or otherwise examined; and, after any goods have been so opened or examined, may cause the same to be sealed or marked in such manner as he thinks fit.

When any goods have been so sealed and marked after examination, they shall not be again opened without the permission of the Customs-Collector; and, when any such goods have been opened with such permission, the packages shall, if he thinks fit, be again sealed or marked as before.

Access of owners to warehoused goods.

99. Any owner of goods lodged in a warehouse shall, at any time within the hours of business, have access to his goods in presence of an officer of Customs, and an officer of Customs shall, upon application for the purpose being made in writing to the Customs-Collector, be deputed to accompany such owner.

When an officer of Customs is specially employed to accompany such owner, a sum sufficient to meet the expense thereby incurred shall, if the Customs-Collector so require, be paid by such owner to the Customs-Collector, and such sum shall, if the Customs-Collector so direct, be paid in advance.

Owner's power to deal with warehoused goods.

100. With the sanction of the Customs-Collector, and after such notice given, and under such rules and conditions as the Chief Customs-Authority from time to time prescribes, any owner of goods may, either before or after warehousing the same,—

(a) sort, separate, pack, and repack, the goods, and make such alterations therein as may be necessary for the preservation, sale, shipment, or disposal thereof (such goods to be repacked in the packages in which they were imported, or in such other packages as the Customs-Collector permits); Act VIII. of 1878.

(b) fill up any casks of wine, spirit, or beer from any casks of the same secured in the same warehouse;

(c) mix any wines or spirit of the same sort secured in the same warehouse, erasing from the cask all import-brands, unless the whole of the wine or spirit so mixed be of the same brand;

(d) bottle-off wine or spirit from any casks;

(e) take such samples of goods as may be allowed by the Customs-Collector with or without entry for home-consumption, and with or without payment of duty, except such as may eventually become payable on a deficiency of the original quantity.

After any such goods have been so separated and repacked in proper or approved packages, the Customs-Collector may, at the request of the owner of such goods, cause or permit any refuse, damaged, or surplus goods remaining after such separation or repacking (or, at the like request, any goods which may not be worth the duty) to be destroyed, and may remit the duty payable thereon.

101. If goods be lodged in a public warehouse, the owner shall pay monthly, on receiving a bill or written demand for the same from the Customs-Collector or other officer deputed by him in that behalf, rent and warehouse-dues at such rates as the Chief Customs-Authority or such officer of Customs as such Authority from time to time appoints in this behalf may fix.

Payment of rent and warehouse-dues.

A table of the rates of rent and warehouse-dues so fixed shall be placed in a conspicuous part of such warehouse.

If any bill for rent or warehouse-dues presented under this section is not discharged within ten days from the date of presentation, the Customs-Collector may, in the discharge of such demand (any transfer or assignment of the goods notwithstanding) cause to be sold by public auction, after due notice in the local official Gazette, such sufficient portion of the goods as he may select.

Out of the proceeds of such sale, the Customs-Collector shall first satisfy the demand for the discharge of which the sale was ordered, and shall then pay over the surplus (if any) to the owner of the goods:

Provided that the application for such surplus be made within one year from the date of the sale of the goods, or that sufficient cause be shown for not making it within such period.

102. No warehoused goods shall be taken out of any warehouse, except on clearance for home-consumption or shipment, or for removal to another warehouse, or as otherwise provided by this Act.

Goods not to be taken out of warehouse, except as provided by this Act.

103. Any goods warehoused may be left in the warehouse in which they are deposited, or in any warehouse to which they may, in manner hereinafter provided, be removed, till the expiry of three years after the date of the bond executed in relation to such goods under section 92. The owner of any goods remaining in a warehouse on the expiry of such period shall clear the same for home-consumption or shipment in manner hereinafter provided;

Period for which goods may remain warehoused under bond.

Act VIII. of 1878.

Goods in private warehouse on cancellation of license.

Provided that, when the license for any private warehouse is cancelled, and the Customs-Collector gives notice of such cancelment to the owner of any goods deposited in such warehouse, such owner shall, in manner hereinafter provided, and within seven days from the date on which such notice is given, remove such goods to another warehouse or clear them for home-consumption or shipment.

Of the removal of Goods from one Warehouse to another.

Power to remove goods from one warehouse to another in same port.

104. Any owner of goods warehoused under this Act may, at any time within three years from the date of the bond executed in respect of such goods under section 92, and with the permission of the Chief Customs-Officer, and on such conditions and after giving such security (if any) as such officer directs, remove goods from one warehouse to another warehouse in the same port.

When any owner desires so to remove any goods, he shall apply for permission to do so in such form as the Chief Customs-Authority from time to time prescribes.

Power to remove goods from one port to another.

105. Any owner of goods warehoused at any warehousing port may, from time to time, within the said period of three years, remove the same by sea or by inland carriage, in order to be re-warehoused at any other warehousing port.

Procedure.

When any owner desires so to remove any goods for such purpose, he shall apply to the Chief Customs-Officer, stating the particulars of the goods to be removed, and the name of the port to which it is intended that they shall be removed, together with such other particulars, and in such manner and form, as the Chief Customs-Authority from time to time prescribes.

Transmission of account of goods to officers at Port of destination.

106. When permission is granted for the removal of any goods from one warehousing port to another under section 105, an account containing the particulars thereof shall be transmitted by the proper officer of the port of removal to the proper officer of the port of destination;

Bond for due arrival and re-warehousing.

and the person requiring the removal shall before such removal enter into a bond, with one sufficient surety, in a sum equal at least to the duty chargeable on such goods, for the due arrival and re-warehousing thereof at the port of destination within such time as the Chief Customs-Authority directs.

Such bond may be taken by the proper officer, either at the port of removal or at the port of destination, as best suits the convenience of the owner.

If such bond is taken at the port of destination, a certificate thereof, signed by the proper officer of such port, shall, at the time of the removal of such goods, be produced to the proper officer at the port of removal; and such bond shall not be discharged unless such goods are produced to the proper officer, and duly re-warehoused at the port of destination within the time allowed for such removal, or are otherwise accounted for to the satisfaction of such officer; nor until the full duty due upon any deficiency of such goods, not so accounted for, has been paid.

Act VIII. of 1878.

107. The Chief Customs-Authority may permit any person desirous of removing warehoused goods to enter into a general bond, with such sureties, in such amount, and under such conditions, as the Chief Customs-Authority approves, for the removal, from time to time, of any goods from one warehouse to another, either in the same or in a different port, and for the due arrival and re-warehousing of such goods at the port of destination within such time as such Authority directs.

Remover may enter into a general bond.

108. Upon the arrival of warehoused goods at the port of destination, they shall be entered and warehoused in like manner as goods are entered and warehoused on the first importation thereof, and under the laws and rules, in so far as such laws and rules are applicable, which regulate the entry and warehousing of such last-mentioned goods.

Goods on arrival at port of destination to be subject to same laws as goods on first importation.

109. Every bond executed under section 92 in respect of any goods shall, unless the Chief Officer of Customs in any case deems a fresh bond to be necessary, continue in force, notwithstanding the subsequent removal of such goods to another warehouse or warehousing port.

Bond under section 92 to continue in force notwithstanding removal.

Clearance for Home-consumption or Shipment.

110. Any owner of goods warehoused may, at any time within three years from the date of the bond executed under section 92 in respect of such goods, clear such goods for home-consumption by paying (a) the duty assessed on such goods under section 87, or, where the duty on such goods is altered under the provisions hereinafter contained, such altered duty; and (b) all rent, penalties, interest, and other charges payable to the Customs-Collector in respect of such goods.

Clearance of bonded goods for home-consumption.

111. Any owner of goods warehoused may, at any time within three years from the date of the bond executed under section 92 in respect of such goods, clear such goods for shipment to a foreign port on payment of all rent, penalties, interest, and other charges payable as aforesaid and without payment of import-duty on the same:

Clearance of same for shipment to foreign port.

Provided that the Governor-General in Council may prohibit the shipment for exportation to any specified foreign port of warehoused goods in respect of which payment of drawback or transhipment has been prohibited under section 49 or 134 respectively.

112. Provisions and stores warehoused at the time of importation may, within the said period of three years, be shipped without payment of duty for use on board of any vessel proceeding to a foreign port.

Clearance of same for shipment as provisions, &c., on vessels proceeding to foreign ports.

113. Application to clear goods from any warehouse for home-consumption or for shipment shall be made in such form as the Chief Customs-Authority from time to time prescribes.

Form of application for clearance of goods.

Such application shall ordinarily be made to the Customs-Collector at least twenty-four hours before it is intended so to clear such goods.

Application when to be made.

Act VIII. of 1878.

Re-assessment of warehoused goods when damaged.

114. If any goods upon which duties are leviable ad valorem or on a tariff-valuation receive damage through unavoidable accident after they have been entered for warehousing and assessed under section 87, and before they are cleared for home-consumption, they shall, if the owner so desires, be re-assessed for duty according to their actual value, and a new bond for the same may, at the option of the owner, be executed for the unexpired term of warehousing.

Re-assessment on alteration of duty or tariff-valuation.

115. If, after any goods entered for warehousing have been assessed under section 87, any alteration is made in the duty leviable upon such goods or in the tariff-valuation (if any) applicable thereto, such goods shall be re-assessed in accordance with "such alteration."*

Allowance in case of wine, spirit, beer, or salt.

116. If it appear, at the time of clearing any wine, spirit, beer, or salt from any warehouse for home-consumption, that there exists a deficiency not otherwise accounted for to the satisfaction of the Customs-Collector, an allowance on account of ullage and wastage shall be made in adjusting the duties thereon as follows (namely):—

(a) upon wine, spirit, and beer in cask to an extent not exceeding the rates specified below, or such other rates as may, from time to time, be prescribed in this behalf by the Local Government, and notified in the official Gazette;

For any time not exceeding	6 months	2½	per cent.
exceeding 6 months and not exceeding	12 ,,	5	,, ,, exceeding 12 months and not exceeding	18 ,,	7½	,, ,, exceeding 18 months and not exceeding	2 years	10	,, ,, exceeding 2 years and not exceeding	3 ,,	12	,, ,,

(b) in the case of salt warehoused in a public warehouse, only the amount actually cleared shall be charged with Customs-duties:

(c) in the case of salt warehoused in a private warehouse, wastage shall be allowed at such rate as may be prescribed from time to time by the Local Government, and notified in the local official Gazette.

Further special allowance.

117. When any wine, spirit, beer, or salt lodged in a warehouse is found to be deficient at the time of the delivery therefrom, and such deficiency is proved to be due solely to ullage or wastage, the Chief Customs-Authority may direct, in respect of any such article, that allowance be made in any special case for a rate of ullage or wastage exceeding that contemplated in section 116.

Of the Forfeiture and Discharge of the Bond.

If goods are improperly removed from warehouses or allowed to remain beyond time fixed,

118. If any warehoused goods are removed from the warehouse in contravention of section 102; or if any such goods have not been removed from the warehouse at the expiration of the time during which such goods are permitted by section 103 to remain in such warehouse; or

---

* In s. 115 the words quoted have been substituted for the words, "the second proviso to section 37," by Act VIII. of 1889, s. 2.

if any goods in respect of which a bond has been executed under section 92, and which have not been cleared for home-consumption or shipment, or removed under this Act, are lost or destroyed otherwise than as provided in section 100 or as mentioned in section 122, or are not accounted for to the satisfaction of the Customs-Collector; or or lost or destroyed, or taken as samples,

if any such goods have been taken under section 100 as samples without payment of duty, the Customs-Collector may thereupon demand, and the owner of such goods shall forthwith pay, the full amount of duty chargeable on account of such goods, together with all rent, penalties, interest, and other charges payable to the Customs-Collector on account of the same.

Collector may demand duty, &c.

119. If any owner fails to pay any sum so demanded, the Customs-Collector may forthwith either proceed upon the bond executed under section 92, or cause such portion, as he thinks fit, of the goods (if any) in the warehouse on account of which the amount is due, to be detained with a view to the recovery of the demand;

Procedure on failure to pay duty, &c.

and, if the demand be not discharged within ten days from the date of such detention (due notice thereof being given to the owner), the goods so detained may be sold by public auction duly advertised in the local official Gazette.

The nett proceeds of any sale so made of goods so detained shall be written off upon the bond in discharge thereof to the amount received, and if any surplus be obtained from such sale, beyond the amount of the demand, such surplus shall be paid to the owner of the goods: Provided that application for the same be made within one year from the sale, or that sufficient cause be shown for not making the application within such period.

No transfer or assignment of the goods shall prevent the Customs-Collector from proceeding against such goods in the manner above provided for any amount due thereon.

120. When any warehoused goods are taken out of any warehouse, the Customs-Collector shall cause the fact to be noted on the back of the bond.

Noting removal of goods.

Every note so made shall specify the quantity and description of such goods, the purposes for which they have been removed, the date of removal, the name of the person removing them, the number and date of the shipping-bill under which they have been taken away if removed for exportation by sea, or of the bill-of-entry if removed for home-consumption, and the amount of duty paid (if any).

121. A register shall be kept of all bonds entered into for Customs-duties on warehoused goods, and entry shall be made in such register of all particulars required by section 120 to be specified.

Register of bonds.

When such register shows that the whole of the goods covered by any bond have been cleared for home-consumption or shipment, or otherwise duly accounted for, and when all amounts due on account of such goods have been paid, the Customs-Collector shall cancel such bond as discharged in full, and shall, on demand, deliver it, so cancelled, to the person who has executed or who is entitled to receive it.

Miscellaneous.

Power to remit duties on warehoused goods lost or destroyed.

122. If any goods in respect of which a bond has been executed under section 92, and which have not been cleared for home-consumption, are lost or destroyed by unavoidable accident or delay, the Chief Customs-Authority may in its discretion remit the duties due thereon:

Provided that, if any such goods be so lost or destroyed in a private warehouse, notice thereof be given to the Customs-Collector within forty-eight hours after the discovery of such loss or destruction.

Responsibility of warehouse-keeper.

123. The warehouse-keeper in respect of goods lodged in a public warehouse, and the licensee in respect of goods lodged in a private warehouse, shall be responsible for their due reception therein and delivery therefrom, and for their safe custody while deposited therein, according to the quantity, weight, or gauge reported by the Custom-house officer who has assessed such goods, allowance being made, if necessary, for ullage and wastage as provided in sections 116 and 117:

Compensation for loss or injury.

Provided that no owner of goods shall be entitled to claim from the Customs-Collector, or from any keeper of a public warehouse, compensation for any loss or damage occurring to such goods while they are being passed into or out of such warehouse, or while they remain therein, unless it be proved that such loss or damage was occasioned by the wilful act or neglect of the warehouse-keeper or of an officer of Customs.

Public warehouse to be locked.

124. Every public warehouse shall be under the lock and key of a warehouse-keeper appointed by the Chief Officer of Customs

Power to decide where goods may be deposited in public warehouse, and on what terms.

125. The Chief Customs-Authority, or such officer of Customs as such Authority from time to time appoints in this behalf, may from time to time determine in what division of any public warehouse, and in what manner, and on what terms, any goods may be deposited, and what sort of goods may be deposited in any such warehouse.

Expenses of carriage, packing, &c., to be borne by owners.

126. The expenses of carriage, packing, and stowage of goods on their reception into, or removal from, a public warehouse, shall, if paid by the Customs-Collector or by the warehouse-keeper, be chargeable on the goods, and be defrayed by, and recoverable from, the owner, in the manner provided in section 119.

Bengal Bonded Warehouse Association.

127. All the provisions of this Act, relating to private warehouses, shall be applicable to the warehouses wherein the Bengal Bonded Warehouse Association receives bonded goods.

CHAPTER XII.

TRANSHIPMENT.

Power to permit transhipment without payment of duty.

128. In the ports of Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, Kárwár, Kárachi, Aden, Rangoon, Maulmain, Akyab, Chittagong, and such other ports as the Governor-General in Council may from time to time, by notification in the Gazette of India, direct in this behalf, the Customs-Collector may, on application by the owner of any goods imported into such port, and specially and distinctly manifested at the time of importation as for transhipment to some other Customs or foreign port, grant leave to tranship the same without payment of the duty (if any) leviable at the port of transhipment, and without any security or bond for the due arrival and entry of the goods at the port of destination.

In any Customs port other than a port in which the preceding clause may for the time being be in force, the Customs-Collector may, on application by the owner of any goods so imported and manifested, grant leave for transhipment without payment of the duty (if any) leviable at such port; provided that, where the goods so transhipped are dutiable, and are to be removed to some uther Customs-port, the applicant shall enter into a bond, with such security as may be required of him, in a sum equal at least to the duty chargeable on such goods, for the due arrival and entry thereof at the port of destination within such time as such Customs-Collector directs.

Superintendence of transhipment.

129. An officer of Customs shall, in every case, be deputed free of charge to superintend the removal of transhipped goods from vessel to vessel.

Subsidiary rules as to transhipment.

130. The powers conferred on the Customs-Collector by section 128 shall be exercised, and the transhipment shall be performed, subject to such rules as may from time to time be made by the Local Government.

No rules made under this section shall come into force until after the expiry of such reasonable time from the date of the publication of the same as the Local Government may in each case appoint in this behalf.

Entry and warehousing, on arrival of goods transhipped under section 128, clause 2.

131. All goods transhipped under the second clause of section 128 for removal to a Customs-port shall, on their arrival at such port, be entered in like manner as goods are entered on the first importation thereof, and under the laws and rules, in so far as such laws and rules can be made applicable, which regulate the entry of such last-mentioned goods.

Transhipment of provisions and stores from one vessel to another of same owner without payment of duty.

132. If two or more vessels belonging wholly or in part to the same owner be at any Customs-port at the same time, any provisions and stores in use or ordinarily shipped for use on board may, at the discretion of the Customs-Collector, be transhipped from one such vessel to any other such vessel without payment of import duty.

Levy of transhipment-fee.

133. A transhipment-fee on any goods or class of goods transhipped under this Act may be levied at such rates, on each bale or package, or according to weight, measurement, quantity, or number, and under such rules, as the Local Government, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, may from time to time, by notification in the local official Gazette, prescribe for each port.

134. The Governor-General in Council may from time to time, by notification in the Gazette of India, prohibit, at any specified port, or at all ports, the transhipment of any specified class of goods, generally or when destined for any specified ports, or prescribe any special mode of transhipping any specified class of goods.

Power to prohibit transhipment.

135. Except as provided in this Act, no goods shall be transhipped at any port or place in British India.

No goods to be transhipped except as provided.

CHAPTER XIII.

EXPORTATION OR SHIPMENT AND RE-LANDING.

136. Except with the written permission of the Customs-Collector, no goods other than passengers' baggage, or ballast urgently required for a vessel's safety, shall be shipped or water-borne to be shipped in any vessel in a Customs-port until an order has been obtained under section 61 for entry outwards of such vessel.

No goods to be shipped, &c., till entry outwards of vessel.

When such order has been obtained, the export-cargo of such vessel may be shipped, subject to the provisions next hereinafter contained.

137. Unless the Chief Customs-Authority shall, in the case of any Customs-port or wharf, or of any class of goods, otherwise direct by notification in the local official Gazette, no goods, except passengers' baggage, shall be shipped or water-borne to be shipped for exportation, until —

Clearance for shipment.

(a) the owner has delivered to the Customs-Collector, or other proper officer, a shipping bill of such goods in duplicate, in such form and containing such particulars in addition to those specified in section 29 as may from time to time be prescribed by the Chief Customs-Authority;

(b) such owner has paid the duties (if any) payable on such goods; and

(c) such bill has been passed by the Customs-Collector.

138. Before any warehoused goods, or goods subject to excise-duties, or goods entitled to drawback of Customs-duties on exportation, or goods exportable only under particular rules or restrictions, are permitted to be exported, the owner shall, if required so to do, give security by bond in such sum, not exceeding twice the duty leviable on such goods, as the Customs-Collector directs, with one sufficient surety, that such goods shall be duly shipped, exported, and landed at the place for which they are entered outwards, or shall be otherwise accounted for to the satisfaction of such officer.

Bond required in certain cases before exportation.

139. When goods are cleared for shipment on a shipping-bill presented after port-clearance has been granted, the Customs-Collector may, if he thinks fit, levy, in addition to any duty to which such goods are ordinarily liable, a charge not exceeding—

Additional charge on goods cleared for shipment after port-clearance granted.

(a) in the case of goods liable to duties on fixed tariff-valuations, one per cent. on the tariff-value:

(b) in the case of all other goods, one per cent. on the market-value.

Nothing in this section shall apply to any shipment of treasure or opium.

140. If any goods mentioned in a shipping-bill or manifest be not shipped, or be shipped and afterwards re-landed, the owner shall, before the expiration of five clear working days after the vessel on which such goods were intended to be shipped, or from which they were re-landed, has left the port, give information of such short-shipment or re-landing to the Customs-Collector.

Notice of non-shipment or re-landing and return of duty thereon.

Upon an application being made to the Customs-Collector, any duty levied upon goods not shipped, or upon goods shipped and afterwards re-landed, shall be refunded to the person on whose behalf such duty was paid: Provided that no such refund shall be allowed unless information has been given as above required.

141. If, after having cleared from any Customs-port, any vessel, without having discharged her cargo, returns to such port, or puts into any other Customs-port, any owner of goods in such vessel, if he desires to land or tranship the same or any portion thereof for re-export, may, with the consent of the master, apply to the Customs-Collector in that behalf.

Goods re-landed or transhipped from a vessel returning to port, or putting into another port.

The Customs-Collector, if he grant the application, shall thereupon send an officer of Customs to watch the vessel, and to take charge of such goods during such re-landing or transhipment.

Such goods shall not be allowed to be transhipped or re-exported free of duty by reason of the previous settlement of duty at the time of first export, unless they are lodged and remain, until the time of re-export, under the custody of an officer of Customs, in a place appointed by the Customs-Collector, or are transhipped under such custody.

All expenses attending such custody shall be borne by the owner.

142. In either of the cases mentioned in section 141, the master of the vessel may enter such vessel inwards, and any owner of goods therein may, with the consent of the master, land the same under the rules herein contained for the importation of goods.

Vessel returning to port may enter and land goods under import-rules.

In every such case, any export-duty levied shall be refunded to, and any amount paid in drawback shall be recovered from, such owner.

143. The Customs-Collector may, on application by the master of any vessel which is obliged, before completing her voyage, to put into any Customs-port for repairs, permit him to land the cargo, or any portion thereof, and to place it in the custody of an officer of Customs during such repairs, and to re-ship and export the same free of duty.

Landing of cargo during repairs.

All expenses attending such custody shall be borne by the master.

Act VIII. of 1878.

CHAPTER XIV.

SPIRIT.

Exportation of Spirit under Bond for Excise-duty.

144. The Chief Customs-Authority may from time to time make rules prescribing the conditions on which spirit manufactured in British India may be removed from any licensed distillery for exportation without payment of excise-duty.

Rules for removal of spirit from distillery, without payment of duty, for exportation.

The person so removing any such spirit shall execute a bond with one or more sureties, in the form marked C hereto annexed, or (when such form is inapplicable or insufficient) in such other form as the said Authority from time to time prescribes, conditioned that such duty shall be paid on all such spirit as is

(a) not exported within four months from the date of the bond, or

(b) exported to a Customs-port, unless "either"* the payment of excise-duty as provided by this chapter in respect thereof at the port of destination "or the delivery of the spirit into a warehouse appointed in this behalf by the Local Government having authority at that port,"* is, within six months from the date of the bond, proved to the satisfaction of the proper officer.

The Chief Officer of Customs of the port of exportation may, on sufficient cause shown, extend for a further term not exceeding four months the period allowed for the exportation of any such spirit, or for the production of such proof that duty has been "so paid, or the spirits so delivered."†

145. Spirit intended for exportation under bond for the excise-duty shall, "except when provision is made by any enactment for the time being in force for its being intermediately deposited in a licensed warehouse,‡" be taken from the distillery direct to the Custom-house, under passes to be granted for that purpose by the officers of Excise.

Spirit for export to be taken direct from distillery to Custom-house under pass.

146. Spirit brought to the Custom-house for exportation under bond for the excise-duty may,§ previous to shipment, be gauged and proved by an officer of Customs, and the quantity of spirit for which credit is to be given in the settlement of any bond may§ be determined in the same manner.

Gauging and proving of spirit.

147. Excise-duty shall be recoverable previous to shipment upon the excess (if any) of the quantity of spirit passed from a distillery over the quantity ascertained by gauge and proof at the Custom-house, less an allowance for ullage and wastage at such rates as are from time to time prescribed by the Local Government and notified in the local official Gazette.

Duty to be recovered on any deficiency in spirit under bond.

---

* In cl. b of the second paragraph of s. 144 the words quoted have been inserted by Act II. of 1887, s. 1 (1).

† In the third paragraph of s. 144 the words quoted have been substituted for the word "paid" by Act II. of 1887, s. 1 (2).

‡ In s. 145 the words quoted have been inserted by Act IX. of 1885, s. 5 (1).

§ In s. 146 the word "may," in each of the two places where that word occurs, has been substituted for the word "shall," by Act II. of 1887, s. 2.

148. "Notwithstanding anything in the Indian Tariff Act, 1882,"* spirit exported under bond for excise-duty from any Customs-port to any other Customs-port shall be charged at the port of importation with excise-duty at the ordinary rate to which spirit of the like kind and strength is liable at such port: Act VIII. of 1878.

Duty on spirit exported under bond from one Indian port to another.

Provided that the Local Government may authorize the import of such spirit without the payment of that duty at the port of importation when the spirit is to be delivered into a warehouse appointed by the Local Government in this behalf, and the excise duty thereon is to be paid on the removal of the spirit from a warehouse so appointed.*

149. Spirit brought to the Custom-house "or to a warehouse licensed under any enactment for the time being in force"† for exportation under bond for the excise-duty may, on payment of such duty, be removed for local consumption under passes to be granted for that purpose by the officers of Excise.

Removal for local consumption of spirit intended for exportation.

Credit for every such payment shall be given in discharge of the bond to which it relates.

Drawback of Excise-duty on Export of Spirit.

150.‡ A drawback of excise-duty paid on spirit manufactured in British India, and exported to any foreign port under the provisions of section 138, shall be allowed by the Customs-Collector at the port of exportation:

Drawback of excise-duty on spirit exported.

Provided that the exportation be made within one year from the date of payment of such excise-duty, and that the spirit, when brought to the Custom-house, be accompanied by a pass in which such payment is certified.

Such drawback shall be regulated by the strength and quantity of such spirit as ascertained by gauge and proof by an officer of Customs.

Miscellaneous.

151. "Notwithstanding anything in the Indian Tariff Act, 1882,"§ if spirit manufactured in British India upon which excise-duty has been paid is exported from one Customs-port to another, and the rate of local excise duty at the port of importation is higher than that already paid upon such spirit, a differential duty shall be charged thereon, at such rate as theLocal Government at such port may, by notification in the local official Gazette, from time to time prescribe:

Differential duty to be levied in certain cases.

---

* In s. 148 the words quoted have been prefixed by Act II. of 1887, s. 3 (1); and the proviso has been added by Act II. of 1887, s. 3 (2).

† In s. 149 the words quoted have been inserted by Act IX. of 1885, s. 5 (2).

‡ The provisions of s. 150 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878, with respect to the allowance of a drawback of excise-duty paid on spirit manufactured in British India and exported to a foreign port, and with respect to the regulation of the drawback by the quantity of such spirit, shall apply also, so far as they can be made applicable, to fermented liquor made in British India from malt and so exported, and to the drawback of the excise-duty paid on such liquor.—Act XIII. of 1890, s. 9.

§ In s. 151 the words quoted have been prefixed by Act II. of 1887, s. 4 (1); and the proviso has been added by Act II. of 1887, s. 4 (2).

Act VIII. of 1878.

Provided that the Local Government may authorize the import of such spirit without the payment of the differential duty at the port of importation when the spirit is to be delivered into a warehouse appointed by the Local Government in this behalf, and the differential duty is to be paid on the removal of the spirit from a warehouse so appointed.

Rum-shrub, &c., how charged with duty.

152. Rum-shrub, cordial, and other such liquor prepared in a licensed distillery under the supervision of the surveyor or officer in charge of the distillery, shall be charged with excise-duty under this Act according to the quantity of spirit used in its preparation as ascertained by such surveyor or officer.

Provisions respecting spirit applied to such liquors.

The provisions of this Act respecting spirit, except such as relate to gauge and proof, shall apply to such liquor.

Conditions of drawback and remission of duty on spirit.

153. No drawback shall be allowed for any spirit on which duty has been paid, nor shall the duty due on any spirit under bond be remitted, unless the spirit is shipped from the Custom-house, and in a vessel whereon an officer of Customs has been appointed to superintend the receipt of export-cargo.

Re-landing of spirit shipped.

154. No spirit shipped for exportation shall be re-landed without a special pass from an officer of Excise, in addition to any permission of an officer of Customs which may be required by the law for the time being in force.

Power to make rules for ascertaining that imported spirit has been rendered unfit for human consumption.

155. When, by any law for the time being in force, a special duty is imposed on spirit rendered unfit for human consumption, the Local Government may from time to time make rules for ascertaining and determining what spirit imported into British India shall be deemed to have been effectually and permanently so rendered unfit, and for causing such spirit to be so rendered, if necessary, by their own officers, and at the expense of the person importing the same, before the Customs-duties leviable thereon are levied.

Decision where no rules or their applicability disputed.

In the absence of any such rules, or if any dispute arises as to their applicability, the Chief Customs-Officer shall decide what spirit is subject only to the said special duty, and such decision shall be final.

CHAPTER XV.

COASTING-TRADE.

Chapters VII., IX., X., and part of XIII. inapplicable to coasting-trade.

156. Except as hereinafter provided, nothing in Chapters VII., IX., X., and sections 136, 139, and 141 to 143 inclusive, of this Act, shall apply to coasting-vessels or to goods imported or exported in such vessels.

Power to regulate coast-trade.

157. The Local Government may, from time to time, make rules consistent with the provisions of this chapter,

(a) extending any provision of the chapters and sections mentioned in section 156, with or without modification, to any coasting-vessels or to any goods imported or exported in such vessels; Act VIII. of 1878.

(b) exempting any such vessels or goods from any of the other provisions of this Act except those contained in this chapter;

(c) prescribing the conditions on which goods, or any specified class of goods, may be (1) carried in a coasting-vessel, whether shipped at a foreign port, or at a Customs-port, or at a place declared under section 12 to be a port; (2) shipped in a coasting-vessel before all dutiable goods and goods brought in such vessel from a foreign port have been unladen;

(d) prohibiting the conveyance of any specified class of goods generally, or to, or between specified ports in a coasting-vessel.

Coasting-vessels to deliver manifest and obtain port-clearance before leaving port of lading.

158. Before any coasting vessel departs from the port of lading, or, when there are more ports of lading than one, the first port of lading, the master shall fill in, sign, and deliver to the Customs-Collector, a manifest in duplicate containing a true specification of all goods to be carried in such vessel, in such form, and accompanied by such shipping-bills or other documents, as may from time to time be prescribed by the Chief Customs-Authority.

If the Customs-Collector sees no objection to the departure of the vessel, he shall retain the duplicate and return the original manifest, dated and signed by him, together with its accompaniments; and such manifest shall be the port-clearance of the vessel, unless, under the general orders of the Chief Customs-Authority, a separate port-clearance be prescribed.

Delivery of manifest, &c., on arrival.

159. Within twenty-four hours after the arrival of any coasting-vessel at any Customs-port, whether intermediate or final, and before any goods are there discharged, the manifest, together with the other documents referred to in section 158, shall be delivered to the Customs-Collector, who shall note on the manifest the date of delivery.

If the vessel has touched at any foreign port between such port of arrival and her last preceding Customs-port of departure, the master shall append to the manifest a declaration to that effect, and shall also indicate on the manifest the portions (if any) of the cargo therein described which have been discharged, and subjoin thereto a true specification of all goods shipped at such port.

If the Customs-port of arrival be an intermediate port, and a portion only of the cargo is to be discharged thereat, the master shall likewise so deliver an extract from the manifest signed by him, relating to such portion, and the Customs-Collector shall, after verifying such extract, return to him the original manifest and all documents accompanying it, except those relating to such portion.

If in any case the cargo actually on board any coasting-vessel on her arrival at any Customs-port does not, owing to short-shipment, re-landing, or other cause, correspond with the specification thereof in the manifest returned to the master under the second clause of section 158, such master shall, before delivery of such manifest under this section, note thereon the particulars of the difference.

Act VIII. of 1878.

The Customs-Collector, when satisfied with the manifest and other documents, shall grant an order to break bulk.

Departure from intermediate port.

160. Before any coasting-vessel departs from any Customs-port at which she has touched during her voyage, the master shall re-deliver the original manifest to the Customs-Collector, after indicating thereon the portions (if any) of the cargo therein described which have been discharged, and subjoining thereto a true specification of all goods shipped at such port. He shall also deliver a duplicate, signed by him, of the specification so subjoined.

If the Customs-Collector sees no objection to the departure of the vessel, he shall proceed as prescribed in the second clause of section 158.

Power to require bond before port-clearance is granted.

161. The Customs-Collector may, for sufficient reason, refuse port-clearance to any coasting-vessel declared to be bound to, or about to touch at, any Customs-port, unless the owner or master gives a bond, with such security as the Customs-Collector deems sufficient, for the production to the Customs-Collector of a certificate from the proper officer of the port to which such vessel is said to be bound, of her arrival at such port within a reasonable time to be prescribed in each case by the Customs-Collector.

Discharge of cargo.

162. When permission has been granted by the Customs-Collector for the discharge of cargo from any coasting-vessel—

(a) if the vessel has not touched at any intermediate foreign port in the course of her voyage, and has not on board any dutiable goods, the cargo may be forthwith landed and removed by the owner, without entry thereof at the Custom-house and clearance for home-consumption, but subject to such general check and control as the Chief Customs-Authority may from time to time by rules prescribe;

(b) if the vessel has so touched at any such port, or has on board any such goods, such vessel shall be subject to all the provisions of Chapter VII. of this Act relating to vessels arriving and such goods, and until such goods have been duly discharged all other goods on board shall be subject to the provisions of Chapter IX. of this Act relating to goods imported.

Goods on coasting-vessel, if excisable, not to be unladen without permission.

163. If any of the goods on board of any coasting-vessel be subject to any excise-duty, they shall not be unladen without the permission of the proper officer of Excise.

Grant and revocation of general pass.

164. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, the Chief Customs-Authority may authorize the Customs-Collector to grant a general pass, on any conditions which such Authority thinks expedient, for the lading and clearance, and for the entry and unlading, of any coasting steam-vessel at any ports of despatch or destination, or at any intermediate ports at which she touches for the purpose of receiving goods or passengers.

Such pass shall be valid throughout British India, or for such ports only as may be specified therein.

Any such general pass may be revoked by order of the Chief Customs Authority by whom the grant thereof was authorized, by notice in writing under the hand of such Authority, delivered to the master or to the owner of such steam-vessel, or to any of the crew on board. Act VIII. of 1878.

Rules respecting cargo-books to be kept by masters of coasting-vessels.

165. The Chief Customs-Authority may direct that the master of any coasting-vessel which is square-rigged or propelled by steam shall keep, or cause to be kept, a cargo-book, stating the name of the master, the vessel, the port to which she belongs, and the port to which on each voyage she is bound.

At every port of lading such master shall enter, or cause to be entered, in such book, the name of such port, and an account of all goods there taken on board of such vessel, with a description of the packages, and the quantities and descriptions of the goods, contained therein or stowed loose, and the names of the respective shippers and consignees, in so far as such particulars are known to him.

At every port of discharge of any such goods such master shall enter, or cause to be entered, in such book, the respective days on which such goods or any of them are delivered out of such vessel.

The respective times of departure from every port of lading, and of arrival at every port of discharge, shall in like manner be duly entered.

Every such master shall, on demand, produce his cargo-book for the inspection of any officer of Customs, and such officer shall be at liberty to make any note or remark therein.

The Chief Customs-Authority may, in the case of any vessel the master whereof has been directed to keep a cargo-book under this section, dispense with the manifest required under sections 158, 159, and 160.

Power to board and examine coasting-vessels.

166. Any duly empowered officer of Customs may go on board of any coasting-vessel in any port or place in British India, and may at any period of a voyage search any such vessel, and examine all goods on board, and all goods then lading or unlading, and may demand the production of any document which ought to be on board of any such vessel.

The Customs-Collector may further require that any such document belonging to any coasting-vessel then in Port shall be brought to him for inspection.

Act VIII. of 1878.

CHAPTER XVI.

been concealed in any manner on board of any vessel within the limits of any port in British India; or if any goods, the exportation of which is prohibited or restricted as aforesaid, be brought to any wharf in order to be put on board of any vessel for exportation contrary to such prohibition or restriction,
9.—If upon an application to pass any goods through the Custom-house any person not being the owner of such goods, and not having proper and sufficient authority from the owner, subscribes or attests any document relating to any goods on behalf of such owner,	General	such person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one thousand rupees.
10.—If any goods, on the entry of which for re-export drawback has been paid, are not duly exported, or are unshipped or re-landed at any Customs-port (not having been duly re-landed or discharged under the provisions of this Act),	42 & 43	such goods, together with any vessel used in so unshipping or re-landing them, shall be liable to confiscation; and the master of the vessel from which such goods are so unshipped or re-landed, and any person by whom or by whose orders or means such goods are so unshipped or re-landed, or who aids or is concerned in such unshipping or re-landing, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding three times the value of such goods, or not exceeding one thousand rupees.
11.—If any wine, spirit, provisions or stores be not laden on board of the vessel on board of which they should, under the provisions of section 45, 46, 47, or 48, be laden or be unladen from such vessel, without the permission of the proper officer of Customs,	44 to 48	such wine, spirit, provisions, or stores shall be liable to confiscation.
12.—If any goods be entered for drawback, which are of less value than the amount of the drawback claimed,	50	such goods shall be liable to confiscation.

OFFENCES AND PENALTIES—(contd.).

Offences.	Section of this Act to which offence has reference.	Penalties.
13.—If, in any river or port wherein a place has been fixed under section 53 by the Local Government, any vessel arriving passes beyond such place, before delivery of a manifest to the pilot, officer of Customs, or other person duly authorized to receive the same,	53	the master of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one thousand rupees.
14.—If the master of any vessel arriving, which remains outside or below any place so fixed, wilfully omits, for the space of twenty-four hours after anchoring, to deliver a manifest as required by this Act,	„	such master shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one thousand rupees.
15.—If, after any vessel arriving has entered any Customs-port in which a place has not been fixed under section 53, the master of such vessel wilfully omits, for the space of twenty-four hours after anchoring, to deliver a manifest as required by this Act,	54	Ditto ditto.
16.—If any manifest delivered under section 53, 54, 60, 63, or 66 is not signed by the person delivering the same, and is not in the form, or does not contain the particulars, required by section 55 or 63, as the case may be, in so far as such particulars are applicable to the ship, cargo, and voyage; or	55 & 63	the person delivering such manifest shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one thousand rupees.
if any manifest so delivered does not contain a specification true to the best of such person's knowledge of all goods imported or to be exported in such vessel,	„
17.—If any goods entered in the import-manifest of a vessel are not found on board of the vessel; or	55 & 64	the master of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twice the amount of duty chargeable on the missing or deficient goods, if they be dutiable, and the duty leviable thereon can be ascertained, or otherwise to a penalty not exceeding five hundred rupees for every missing or deficient package or separate article.
if the quantity so found is short, and if such deficiency is not accounted for to the satisfaction of the officer in charge of the Custom-house,

Act VIII. of 1878.

OFFENCES AND PENALTIES—(contd.).

Offences.	Section of this Act to which offence has reference.	Penalties.
18.—If any person required by this Act to receive a manifest from any master of a vessel, refuses so to do, or fails to countersign the same, or to enter thereon the particulars referred to in section 56,	53, 54, & 56	such person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred rupees.
19.—If bulk be broken in any vessel previous to the grant by the Customs-Collector of an order for entry inwards or a special pass permitting bulk to be broken,	57 & 59	the master of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one thousand rupees.
20.—If any bill-of-lading or copy required under section 58 is false, and the master is unable to satisfy the Customs-Collector that he was not aware of the fact; or if any such bill or copy has been altered with fraudulent intent; or if the goods mentioned in any such bill or copy have not been bonâ fide shipped as shown therein; or if any such bill-of-lading, or any bill-of-lading of which a copy is delivered, has not been made previously to the departure of the vessel from the place where the goods referred to in such bill-of-lading were shipped; or if any part of the cargo has been staved, destroyed, or thrown overboard; or if any package has been opened, and such part of the cargo or such package be not accounted for to the satisfaction of the Customs-Collector,	58	the master of the vessel shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one thousand rupees.
21.—If any master of a vessel attempts to depart without a port-clearance,	62	such master shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred rupees.
22.—If any vessel actually departs without a port-clearance,	62	the master of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one thousand rupees.
23.—If any pilot takes charge of any vessel proceeding to sea, notwithstanding that the master of such vessel does not produce a port-clearance,	62	such pilot, on conviction before a Magistrate, shall be liable to fine not exceeding one thousand rupees.
24.—If any master of a vessel refuses to receive on board an officer of Customs deputed under section 67.	68	such master shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred rupees for each day during which such

30.—If any person refuses to receive, or fails to sign, or to note the prescribed particulars upon, any boat-note, as required by section 76, or if any master or officer of a vessel receiving the same fails to deliver it when required so to do by any officer of Customs authorized to make such requisition,	76	such person, master, or officer, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred rupees.
31.—If any goods are, without permission, shipped or water-borne to be shipped, or are landed, except from or at a wharf or other place duly appointed for the purpose ; or	73	such goods shall be liable to confiscation ; and the person by whose authority the goods are shipped, landed, water-borne, or transhipped and the person in charge of the vessel employed in conveying them, shall each be liable to a penalty not exceeding twice the amount of the duty (if any) leviable on such goods.
if any goods water-borne for the purpose of being landed or shipped are not landed or shipped without unnecessary delay ; or if the boat containing such goods be found out of the proper track between the vessel and the wharf or other proper place of landing or shipping, and such deviation be not accounted for to the satisfaction of the Customs-Collector ; or	77
if any goods are transhipped contrary to the provisions of section 78,	78
32.—If, after the issue of a notification under section 79 with regard to any port, any goods are found within the limits of such port on board of any boat not duly licensed and registered,	79	such goods, unless they are covered by a special permit from the Customs-Collector, shall be liable to confiscation, and the owner or the person in charge of the boat shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred rupees.
33.—If any master of a vessel discharges, or suffers to be discharged, any goods not duly entered in the manifest of such vessel,	55 & 82	such master shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one thousand rupees.

OFFENCES AND PENALTIES—(contd.).

Offences.	Section of this Act to which offence has reference.	Penalties.
34.—If any goods are found concealed in any place, box, or closed receptacle in any vessel, and are not duly accounted for to the satisfaction of the officer in charge of the Custom-house,	General.	such goods shall be liable to confiscation.
35.—If any goods are found on board in excess of those entered in the manifest, or not corresponding with the specification therein contained,	55 & 82	such goods shall be liable to confiscation, or to be charged with such increased rates of duty as the Chief Officer of Customs directs.
36.—If, after any goods have been landed, and before they have been passed through the Custom-house, the owner removes or attempts to remove them, with the intention of defrauding the revenue,	86 & 87	such goods shall be liable to confiscation; or, if the goods cannot be recovered, the owner shall be liable, in addition to full duty, to a penalty not exceeding twice the amount of such duty, if the goods be dutiable, and the duty leviable thereon can be ascertained; or otherwise to a penalty not exceeding one thousand rupees for every missing or deficient package or separate article.
37.—If it be found, when any goods are entered at, or brought to be passed through, a Custom-house, either for importation or exportation, that (a) the packages in which they are contained differ widely from the description given in the bill-of-entry or application for passing them; or (b) the contents thereof have been wrongly described in such bill or application as regards the denominations, characters, or conditions according to which such goods are chargeable with duty or are being imported or exported; or (c) the contents of such packages have been mis-stated in regard to sort, quality, quantity, or value; or (d) goods not stated in the bill-of-entry or application have been concealed in, or mixed with, the articles specified therein, or have apparently been packed so as to deceive the officers of Customs,	86 & 137	such packages, together with the whole of the goods contained therein, shall be liable to confiscation, and every person concerned in any such offence shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one thousand rupees.

45.—If the keeper of any public warehouse, or the licensee of any private warehouse, neglects to stow the goods warehoused therein, so that easy access may be had to every package and parcel thereof,	Chapter XI.	such keeper or licensee shall, for every such neglect, be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty rupees.
46.—If the owner of any warehoused goods, or any person in the employ of such owner, clandestinely opens any warehouse, or, except in presence of the proper officer of Customs, gains access to his goods,	99	such owner or person shall, in every such case, be liable to a penalty not exceeding one thousand rupees.
47.—If any warehoused goods are opened in contravention of the provisions of section 98 ; or if any alteration be made in such goods or in the packing thereof, except as provided in section 100,	98 & 100	such goods shall be liable to confiscation.
48.—If any goods lodged in a private warehouse are found at the time of delivery therefrom to be deficient, and such deficiency is not due solely to ullage or wastage, as allowed under sections 116 and 117,	123	the licensee of such warehouse shall, unless the deficiency be accounted for to the satisfaction of the Customs-Collector, be liable to a penalty equal to five times the duty chargeable on the goods so deficient.
49.—If the keeper of any public warehouse, or the licensee of any private warehouse, fails, on the requisition of any officer of Customs, to produce any goods which have been deposited in such warehouse, and which have not been duly cleared and delivered therefrom, and is unable to account for such failure to the satisfaction of the Customs-Collector,	123	such keeper or licensee shall, for every such failure, be liable to pay the duties due on such goods, and also a penalty not exceeding fifty rupees in respect of every package or parcel so missing or deficient.
50.—If any goods, after being duly warehoused, are fraudulently concealed in, or removed from, the warehouse, or abstracted from any package, or transferred from one package to another or otherwise for the purpose of illegal removal or concealment,	Chapter XI.	such goods shall be liable to confiscation, and any person concerned in any such offence shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one thousand rupees.
51.—If any goods lodged in a private warehouse are found to exceed the registered quantity,	Chapter XI.	such excess, unless accounted for to the satisfaction of the officer in charge of the Custom-house, shall be

Offences.	Section of this Act to which offence has reference.	Penalties.
59.—If any goods on account of which drawback has been paid be not found on board of any vessel referred to in section 142,	142*	the master of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding the entire value of such goods, unless the fact be accounted for to the satisfaction of the Customs-Collector.
60.—If any person, without a special pass from an officer of excise at the place of exportation, relands or attempts to reland any spirit shipped for exportation,	154	such person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred rupees.
61.—If any person wilfully contravenes any rule relating to spirits made under section 155,	155	such person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred rupees; and all such spirit shall be liable to confiscation.
62.—If, in contravention of any rules made under section 157, any goods are taken into, or put out of, or carried in, any coasting-vessel; or if any such rules be otherwise infringed,	157	the master of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one thousand rupees.
63.—If, contrary to any such rules, any coasting-vessel touches at any foreign port, or deviates from her voyage, unless forced by unavoidable circumstances; or if the master of any such vessel which has touched at a foreign port fails to declare the same in writing to the Customs-Collector at the Customs-port at which such vessel afterwards first arrives,	159	the master of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one thousand rupees; and if any goods liable to export-duty have been landed from, or any goods liable to import-duty have been shipped in, such vessel at such foreign port, such master shall further be liable to a penalty not exceeding three times the duty which would have been leviable on such goods if they had been exported from, or imported at, a Customs-port to or from a foreign port, as the case may be.
64.—If in the case of any coasting-vessel any of the provisions of section 158, 159, or 160, are not complied with,	158, 159, & 160	the master of such vessel shall in each such case be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred rupees.

* The figures "142" have been substituted for the figures "141" by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. II.

65.—If the person executing any bond given under section 161 fail to produce the certificate mentioned in the same section, or to show sufficient reason for its non-production,	161	such person shall be bound to pay a penalty equal to double the amount of Customs-duties which would have been chargeable on the export-cargo of the vessel had she been declared to be bound to a foreign port.
66.—If the master of any coasting-vessel violates any of the conditions under which a general pass for such vessel has been granted,	164	such master shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one thousand rupees.
67.—If any master of a coasting-vessel contravenes any of the provisions of section 165,	165	such master shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred rupees.
68.—If, upon examination, any package entered in the cargo-book required by section 165, as containing dutiable goods, is found not to contain such goods; or if any package is found to contain dutiable goods not entered, or not entered as such, in such book,	165	such package, with its contents, shall be liable to confiscation.
69.—If the master of any coasting-vessel required under section 165 to keep a cargo-book fails correctly to keep, or to cause to be kept, such book, or to produce the same on demand; or if at any time there be found on board of any such vessel any goods not entered in such book as laden, or any goods noted as delivered; or if any goods entered as laden, and not noted as delivered, be not on board,	165	such master shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred rupees.
70.—If, contrary to the provisions of this or any other law for the time being in force relating to the Customs, any goods are laden on board of any vessel in any Customs-port and carried coast-wise; or if any goods which have been brought coast-wise are so unladen in any such port; or if any goods are found on board of any coasting-vessel without being entered in the manifest or cargo book or both (as the case may be) of such vessel,	Chapter XV.	such goods shall be liable to confiscation, and the master of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred rupees.

OFFENCES AND PENALTIES—(contd.).

Offences.	Section of this Act to which offence has reference.	Penalties.
71.—If the master of any coasting-vessel refuses to bring any document to the Customs-Collector when so required under section 166,	166	such master shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred rupees.
72.—If any person makes or signs, or uses, any declaration or document used in the transaction of any business relating to the Customs, knowing such declaration or document to be false in any particular; or counterfeits, falsifies, or fraudulently alters or destroys any such document, or any seal, signature, initials, or other mark, made or impressed by any officer of Customs in the transaction of any business relating to the Customs; or being required under this Act to produce any document, refuses or neglects to produce such document; or being required under this Act to answer any question put to him by an officer of Customs, does not truly answer such question,	General	such person shall, on conviction of any such offence before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees.
73.—If any person on board of any vessel or boat in any Customs-port, or who has landed from any such vessel or boat, upon being asked by any such officer whether he has dutiable or prohibited goods about his person or in his possession, declares that he has not, and if any such goods are, after such denial, found about his person, or in his possession,	General	such goods shall be liable to confiscation, and such person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding three times the value of such goods.
74.—If any officer of Customs requires any person to be searched for dutiable or prohibited goods, or to be detained, without having reasonable ground to believe that he has such goods about his person, or has been guilty of an offence relating to the Customs,	169	such officer shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees.
75.—If any officer of Customs or other person duly employed for the prevention of smuggling, is guilty of a wilful breach of the provisions of this Act,	General	such officer or person shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to simple imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years, or to fine, or to both.

Act VIII of 1878.

OFFENCES AND PENALTIES—(contd.).

Offences.	Section of this Act to which offence has reference.	Penalties.
76.—If any officer of Customs, or other person duly employed for the prevention of smuggling, practises, or attempts to practise, any fraud for the purpose of injuring the Customs-revenue, or abets or connives at any such fraud, or any attempt to practise any such fraud,	General	such officer or person shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to simple imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years, or to fine, or to both.
77.—If any police-officer, whose duty it is, under section 180, to send a written notice, or cause goods to be conveyed to a Custom-house, neglects so to do,	180	such officer shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred rupees.
78.—If any person intentionally obstructs any officer of Customs or other person duly employed for the prevention of smuggling, in the exercise of any powers given under this Act to such officer or person,	General	such person shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees or to both.
79.—If any officer of Customs, except in the discharge, in good faith, of his duty as such officer, discloses any particulars learned by him in his official capacity in respect of any goods, or shows any samples delivered to him in such capacity; or if any officer of Customs, except as permitted by this Act, parts with the possession of any samples delivered to him in his official capacity,	195	he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one thousand rupees.
80.—If any person, without the approval of the Customs-Collector under section 202, acts as an agent for the transaction of business as therein mentioned,	202	such person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred rupees.

Nothing in the second column of the above schedule shall be deemed to have the force of law.

Packages and contents included in confiscation of goods.

168. The confiscation of any goods under this Act includes any package in which they are found, and all the other contents thereof. Act VIII of 1878.

Also conveyances and animals used in removal.

Every vessel, cart, or other means of conveyance, and every horse or other animal, used in the removal of any goods liable to confiscation under this Act, shall in like manner be liable to confiscation.

Tackle, &c., included in confiscation of vessels.

The confiscation of any vessel under this Act includes her tackle, apparel, and furniture.

CHAPTER XVII.

PROCEDURE RELATING TO OFFENCES, APPEALS, &c.

Power to search on reasonable suspicion.

169. Any officer of Customs duly employed in the prevention of smuggling may search any person on board of any vessel in any port in British India, or any person who has landed from a vessel:

Provided that such officer has reason to believe that such person has dutiable or prohibited goods secreted about his person.

Persons may, before search, require to be taken before Magistrate or Customs-Collector.

170. When any officer of Customs is about to search any person under the provisions of section 169, such person may require the said officer to take him, previous to search, before the nearest Magistrate or Customs-Collector.

If such requisition be made, the officer of Customs may detain the person making it until he can bring him before the nearest Magistrate or Customs-Collector.

The Magistrate or Customs-Collector before whom any person is so brought shall, if he see no reasonable ground for search, forthwith discharge such person; but if otherwise, shall direct that the search be made.

A female shall not be searched by any but a female.

Power to stop vessels, carts, &c., and search for goods on reasonable suspicion.

171. Any duly empowered officer of Customs, or other person duly employed for the prevention of smuggling, may stop and search for smuggled goods any vessel, cart, or other means of conveyance, provided that he has reason to believe that smuggled goods are contained therein.

Power to issue search-warrants.

172. Any Magistrate may, on application by a Customs-Collector stating his belief that dutiable or prohibited goods are secreted in any place within the local limits of the jurisdiction of such Magistrate, issue a warrant to search for such goods.

Such warrant shall be executed in the same way, and shall have the same effect, as a search-warrant issued under the law relating to Criminal Procedure.*

Persons reasonably suspected may be arrested.

173. Any person against whom a reasonable suspicion exists that he has been guilty of an offence under this Act may be arrested in any place, either upon land or water, by

---

* See now Act X. of 1882.

Act VIII. of 1878.

any officer of Customs or other person duly employed for the prevention of smuggling.

Persons arrested to be taken to nearest Magistrate or Customs-Collector.

174. Every person arrested on the ground that he has been guilty of an offence under this Act, shall forthwith be taken before the nearest Magistrate or Customs-Collector.

Persons taken before Magistrate may be detained or admitted to bail.

175. When any such person is taken before a Magistrate, such Magistrate may, if he thinks fit, either commit him to gaol, or order him to be kept in the custody of the police for such time as is necessary to enable such Magistrate to communicate with the proper officers of Customs:

Provided that any person so arrested, committed, or kept, shall be released on giving security, to the satisfaction of the Magistrate, to appear at such time and place as such Magistrate appoints in this behalf.

Person escaping may be afterwards arrested.

176. If any person liable to be arrested under this Act is not arrested at the time of committing the offence for which he is so liable, or after arrest makes his escape, he may at any time afterwards be arrested and taken before a Magistrate, to be dealt with as if he had been arrested at the time of committing such offence.

Persons in Her Majesty's Navy, when arrested, to be secured on board until warrant procured.

177. When any person employed on the crew of any of the ships of Her Majesty's Navy, Indian Marine, or Marine Survey, is arrested under this Act, the arresting officer shall forthwith give notice thereof to the commanding officer of the ship, who shall thereupon place such person in security on board of such ship, until the arresting officer has obtained a warrant from a Magistrate for bringing up such person to be dealt with according to law.

The Magistrate shall grant such warrant upon complaint made to him by the arresting officer, stating the offence for which the person is detained.

Seizure of things liable to confiscation.

178. Any thing liable to confiscation under this Act may be seized in any place, either upon land or water, by any officer of Customs or other person duly employed for the prevention of smuggling.

Things seized how dealt with.

179. All things seized on the ground that they are liable to confiscation under this Act shall, as soon as conveniently may be, be delivered into the care of any Customs-officer authorized to receive the same.

If there be no such officer at hand, all such things shall be carried to and deposited at the Custom-house nearest to the place of seizure.

If there be no Custom-house within a convenient distance, such things shall be deposited at the nearest place appointed by the Chief Customs-Authority for the deposit of things so seized.

Procedure in respect of things seized on suspicion.

180. When any thing liable to confiscation under this Act are seized by any police-officer on suspicion that they have been stolen, he may carry them to any police-station or Court at which a complaint connected with the stealing or receiving of such things has been made, or an enquiry connected with such stealing or receiving is in progress, and there detain such things until the dismissal of such complaint or the conclusion of such enquiry or of any trial thence resulting. Act VIII, of 1878.

In every such case the police-officer seizing the things shall send written notice of their seizure and detention to the nearest Custom-house; and, immediately after the dismissal of the complaint or the conclusion of the enquiry or trial, he shall cause such things to be conveyed to, and deposited at, the nearest Custom-house, to be there proceeded against according to law.

When seizure or arrest is made, reason in writing to be given.

181. When any thing is seized, or any person is arrested, under this Act, the officer or other person making such seizure or arrest shall, on demand of the person in charge of the thing so seized, or of the person so arrested, give him a statement in writing of the reason for such seizure or arrest.

Adjudication of confiscations and penalties.

182. In every case, except the cases mentioned in section 167, Nos. 26, 72, and 74 to 76, both inclusive, in which, under this Act, anything is liable to confiscation or to increased rates of duty; or any person is liable to a penalty, such confiscation, increased rate of duty, or penalty, may be adjudged—

(a) without limit, by a Deputy Commissioner or Deputy Collector of Customs, or a Customs-Collector;

(b) up to confiscation of goods not exceeding two hundred and fifty rupees in value, and imposition of penalty or increased duty not exceeding one hundred rupees, by an Assistant Commissioner or Assistant Collector of Customs;

(c) up to confiscation of goods not exceeding fifty rupees in value, and imposition of penalty or increased duty not exceeding ten rupees, by such other subordinate officers of Customs as the Local Government may, from time to time, empower in that behalf in virtue of their office:

Provided that the Local Government may, in the case of any officer performing the duties of a Customs-Collector, limit his powers to those indicated in clause (b) or in clause (c) of this section, and may confer on any officer by name, or in virtue of his office, the powers indicated in clauses (a), (b), or (c) of this section.

Option to pay fine in lieu of confiscation.

183. Whenever confiscation is authorised by this Act, the officer adjudging it shall give the owner of the goods an option to pay in lieu of confiscation such fine as the officer thinks fit.

On confiscation, property to vest in Her Majesty.

184. When anything is confiscated under section 182, such thing shall thereupon vest in Her Majesty.

The officer adjudging confiscation shall take and hold possession of the thing confiscated, and every officer of police, on the requisition of such officer, shall assist him in taking and holding such possession.

Levy of penalty for failure to bring-to.

185. If any vessel actually departs without a port-clearance, or after failing to bring-to when required at any station appointed under section 17, the penalty to which the master of such vessel is liable may be adjudged by the Chief Customs-Officer of any Customs-port to which such vessel proceeds, or in which she is,

Act VIII of 1878. and in the case of Aden, by such officer as the Governor of Bombay in Council appoints in this behalf.

A certificate of such departure or failure to bring-to when required, purporting to be signed by the Chief Customs-Officer of the port from which the vessel is stated to have so departed, shall be primâ-facie proof of the fact so certified.

Penalty under Act not to interfere with punishment under other law.

186. The award of any confiscation, penalty, or increased rate of duty under this Act by an officer of Customs shall not prevent the infliction of any punishment to which the person affected thereby is liable under any other law.

Offences not specially provided for how tried.

187. All offences against this Act, other than those cognizable under section 182 by officers of Customs, may be tried summarily by a Magistrate.

Appeal from subordinate to Chief Customs-Authority.

188. Any person deeming himself aggrieved by any decision or order passed by an officer of Customs under this Act may, within three months from the date of such decision or order, appeal therefrom to the Chief Customs-Authority, or, in such cases as the Local Government directs, to any officer of Customs not inferior in rank to a Customs-Collector, and empowered in that behalf, by name or in virtue of his office, by the Local Government.

Such Authority or Officer may thereupon make such further enquiry, and pass such order as he thinks fit, confirming, altering, or annulling the decision or order appealed against:

Provided that no such order in appeal shall have the effect of subjecting any person to any greater confiscation, penalty, or rate of duty than has been adjudged against him in the original decision or order.

Every order passed in appeal under this section shall, subject to the power of revision conferred by section 191, be final.

Deposit, pending appeal, of duty demanded.

189. Where the decision or order appealed against relates to any duty or penalty leviable in respect of any goods, the owner of such goods, if desirous of appealing against such decision or order, shall, pending the appeal, deposit in the hands of the Customs-Collector, at the port where the dispute arises, the amount demanded by the officer passing such decision or order.

When delivery of such goods to the owner thereof is withheld merely by reason of such amount not being paid, the Customs-Collector shall, upon such deposit being made, cause such goods to be delivered to such owner.

If upon any such appeal it is decided that the whole or any portion of such amount was not leviable in respect of such goods, the Customs-Collector shall return such amount or portion (as the case may be) to the owner of such goods on demand by such owner.

Power to remit penalty or confiscation.

190. If, upon consideration of the circumstances under which any penalty, increased rate of duty, or confiscation, has been adjudged under this Act by an officer of Customs, the Chief Customs-Authority is of opinion that such penalty, increased rate, or confiscation, ought to be remitted in whole or in part, or commuted, such Authority may remit the same or any portion thereof, or may with the consent of the owner of any goods ordered to be confiscated, commute the order of confiscation to a penalty not exceeding the value of such goods. Act VIII. of 1878.

Revision by Local Government.

191. The Local Government may, on the application of any person aggrieved by any decision or order passed under this Act by any officer of Customs or Chief Customs-Authority, and from which no appeal lies, reverse or modify such decision or order.

Goods on which penalty incurred not to be removed till payment.

192. When any fine, penalty, or increased rate of duty, is leviable under this Act, the goods in respect of which such fine, penalty, or rate, is leviable, shall not be removed by the owner until such fine, penalty, or rate, is paid.

Other goods of person liable to fine or penalty may be detained.

If any person has become liable to any such fine, penalty, or rate in respect of any goods, the Customs-Collector may detain any other goods belonging to such person passing through the Custom-house until such fine, penalty, or rate, is paid.

Enforcement of payment of penalty.

193. When a penalty or increased rate of duty is adjudged against any person under this Act by any officer of Customs, such officer, if such penalty or increased rate be not paid, may levy the same by sale of any goods of the said person which may be in his charge, or in the charge of any other officer of Customs.

When an officer of Customs who has adjudged a penalty or increased rate of duty against any person under this Act is unable to realize the unpaid amount thereof from such goods, such officer may notify in writing to any Magistrate, within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such person or any goods belonging to him may be, the name and residence of the said person, and the amount of penalty or increased rate of duty unrecovered; and such Magistrate shall thereupon proceed to enforce payment of the said amount in like manner as if such penalty or increased rate had been a fine inflicted by himself.

CHAPTER XVIII.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Power to open packages and examine goods.

194. Any officer of Customs may open any package, and examine any goods brought by sea to, or shipped or brought for shipment at, any Customs-port.

Power to take samples of goods.

195. The Customs-Collector may, on the entry or clearance of any goods, or at any time while such goods are being passed through the Custom-house, take samples of such goods, for examination or for ascertaining the value thereof on which duties are payable, or for any other necessary purpose.

Every such sample shall, if practicable, be, at the option of the owner, either restored to him or sold, and the proceeds accounted for to him.

Owner to pay expense incidental to compliance with Customs-law.

196. The unshipping, carrying, shipping, and landing of all goods, and the bringing of them to the proper place for examination or weighing, and the putting of them into and out of the scales, and the opening, unpacking, bulking, sorting, lotting, marking, and numbering of goods, where such operations are necessary or permitted, and the removing of goods to, and the placing of them in, the proper place of deposit, shall be performed by or at the expense of the owner of such goods.

Act VIII. of 1878.

No compensation for loss or injury except on proof of neglect or wilful act.

197. No owner of goods shall be entitled to claim, from any officer of Customs, compensation for any loss or damage occurring to such goods at any time while they remain or are lawfully detained in any Custom-house, or on any Custom-house wharf, or under charge of any officer of Customs, unless it be proved that such loss or damage was occasioned by the neglect or wilful act of such officer of Customs.

Notice of proceedings.

Limitation.

198. No proceeding other than a suit shall be commenced against any person for anything purporting to be done in pursuance of this Act without giving to such person a month's previous notice in writing of the intended proceeding, and of the cause thereof; or after the expiration of three months from the accrual of such cause.

Wharfage-fees.

199. The Chief Customs-Authority may, from time to time, fix the period after the expiration of which goods left on any Custom-house wharf, or other authorized landing-place or part of the Custom-house premises, shall be subject to payment of fees, and the amount of such fees.

Duplicates of documents may be granted on payment of fee.

200. A duplicate of any certificate, manifest, bill, or other Custom-house document, may, on payment of a fee not exceeding ten rupees, be furnished, at the discretion of the Customs-Collector, to any person applying for the same, if the Customs-Collector is satisfied that no fraud has been committed or is intended by the applicant.

Amendment of documents.

201. Except in the cases provided for by sections 36, 55, 63, and 94, the Customs-Collector may, in his discretion, upon payment of one rupee, authorize any document, after it has been entered and recorded in the Custom-house, to be amended.

Custom-house agents.

202. No person authorized to act as an agent for the transaction of any business relating to the entrance or clearance of any vessel, or the import or export of goods or baggage, shall so act in any Custom-house, unless such authorization is approved by the Customs-Collector.

Such officer may require any person so authorized to give a bond with sufficient security, in any sum not exceeding five thousand rupees, for his faithful behaviour as regards the Custom-house regulations and officers.

Such officer may, in case of misbehaviour of the person so authorized, suspend or withdraw such approval, but an appeal against every such suspension or withdrawal shall lie to the Chief Customs-Authority, whose decision thereon shall be final.

Every appeal under this section shall be made within one month of the suspension or withdrawal. Act VIII. of 1878.

Agent to produce authority if required.

203. When any person applies to any officer of Customs for permission to transact any specified business with him on behalf of any other person, such officer may require the applicant to produce a written authority from the person on whose behalf such business is to be transacted, and, in default of the production of such authority, may refuse such permission.

The clerk, servant, or agent of any person or mercantile firm may transact business generally at the Custom-house on behalf of such person or firm:

Provided that the Customs-Collector may refuse to recognize such clerk, servant, or agent, unless such person or a member of such firm identifies such clerk, servant, or agent to the Customs-Collector as empowered to transact such business, and deposits with the Customs-Collector an authority in writing duly signed, authorizing such clerk, servant, or agent to transact such business on behalf of such person or firm.

Rules to be notified.

204. All rules made under this Act shall be notified in the official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

All such rules for the time being in force shall be collected, arranged, and published at intervals not exceeding two years, and shall be sold to the public at a reasonable price.

Cancellation of notifications.

205. Any notification made by any Authority under powers conferred by this Act may be cancelled in like manner by the same Authority.

Remission of duty and compensation to owner in certain cases.

206. If, in any case relating to the removal of goods from a warehouse without payment of duty, the person offending be an officer of Customs not acting in execution of his duty, and be prosecuted to conviction by the owner of such goods, no duty shall be payable in respect of such goods. For any damage so occasioned by such officer, the Customs-Collector shall, with the sanction of the Chief Customs-Authority, make due compensation to such owner.

Saving of Calcutta Port Commissioners and Bombay Port Trust Acts.

207. Nothing in this Act shall affect any law* for the time being in force relating to the Commissioners for making improvements in the Port of Calcutta, or the Trustees of the Port of Bombay, "or any like body hereafter created for any other port."†

ACT X. OF 1878.

Act X. of 1878.

THE CENTRAL PROVINCES ADDITIONAL RATES ACT.

[RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 15TH MARCH 1878.

An Act for the Levy of Additional Rates on Land in the Central Provinces.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, in order to defray the expenditure incurred and to be incurred for the relief and prevention of famine, it is necessary to make a permanent increase to the annual revenues, and it is therefore expedient to provide, in the territories administered by the Chief Commissioner of the Central Provinces, for the levy of additional rates on land; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Central Provinces Additional Rates Act, 1878:"

Local extent.

Commencement.

It extends only to the territories administered by the Chief Commissioner of the Central Provinces; And it shall come into force on such date as the Governor-General in Council, by notification in the Gazette of India, directs.

Additional rate on estates.

2. Every estate shall be liable, in addition to the rates and cesses payable under any settlement for the time being in force, to the payment of such further rate, not exceeding one per cent., on its annual value, as the Chief Commissioner, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, from time to time imposes.

"Annual value" means,

(1) in cases in which the settlement of the land-revenue is liable to periodical revision, double the amount of the land-revenue for the time being assessed on the estate;

(2) in cases in which such settlement is not liable to such revision, or in which the land-revenue has been, wholly or in part, released, compounded for, redeemed, or assigned, double the amount which, if the settlement were liable to such revision, and an assessment at full rates were made, would be assessed as land-revenue on the estate.

Recovery of rates.

3. All sums due on account of any rate imposed under this Act shall be recoverable as if they were arrears of land-revenue due in respect of the land on account of which the rate is payable.

Rates to be credited to Local Government.

4. The proceeds of all rates levied under this Act shall be carried to the credit of the Local Government.

Appropriation for increasing revenue available for relief and prevention of famine.

5. From the sums so credited, the Chief Commissioner shall, from time to time, appropriate such amount as the Governor-General in Council may direct, for the purpose of increasing the revenues available for defraying the expenditure incurred or to be incurred for the relief and prevention of famine in the said territories; or, if the Governor-General in Council so directs, in any other part of British India.

Act XI. of 1878.

The residue of the said sums, after such appropriation, may be applied by the Chief Commissioner, subject to the control of the Governor-General in Council, to such local works likely to promote the public health, comfort, or convenience* as the Chief Commissioner thinks fit.

Supplementary powers of Chief Commissioner.

6. The Chief Commissioner, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, may, by notification in the local Gazette, from time to time—

(a) determine by what instalments and at what times any rate under this Act shall be payable, by whom it shall be assessed, collected, and paid, and what portion (if any) thereof, paid by any person in respect of an estate, may be recovered by such person from any other persons having any interest in such estate;

(b) make rules consistent with this Act for the guidance of officers in matters connected with its enforcement;

(c) exempt wholly or in part any portion of the said territories from the operation of this Act, or exempt any estate from liability to pay the whole or any part of any rate under this Act, and cancel any exemption under this clause;

(d) direct fresh measurements of estates liable to pay rates under this Act, and vary the assessments accordingly.

ACT XI. OF 1878.†

THE INDIAN ARMS ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 15TH MARCH 1878.

An Act to consolidate and amend the Law relating to Arms, Ammunition, and Military Stores.‡

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to arms, ammunition, and military stores; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

I.—Preliminary.

Short title. Local extent.

1. This Act may be called "The Indian Arms Act, 1878;" and it extends to the whole of British India.‡

---

* As to the application, to such purposes, of sums realized under the Ferries Act (XVII. of 1878), see Act XVII. of 1878, s. 17, cl. c, infra.

As to crediting to District Funds in the Central Provinces sums assigned for expenditure on local works under Act X. of 1878, s. 5, or Act XVII. of 1878, s. 17, see Act I. of 1883, s. 23, cl. e.

† Act XI. of 1878 has been declared in force in Upper Burma generally except the Shan States (see s. 6, Act XX. of 1886), and in the Santal Parganas (see s. 3 (a), Reg. III. of 1872, as amended by Reg. III. of 1886). The Arms Act has been declared, under the Scheduled Districts Act (XIV. of 1874), to be in force in the following Scheduled Districts in the Chutiá Nágpur Division, viz., the Districts of Hazáribágh, Lohárdaga, and Mánbhum, and Pargana Dhálbhum, and the Kolhán in the District of Singbhum.—See Gazette of India, Oct. 22, 1881, Pt. I., p. 504.

As to the trial, in a Presidency-town, of offences against the Act, see Act X. of 1882, s. 184.

‡ A license granted under the Indian Explosives Act, 1884, for the manufacture, possession, sale, transport, or importation of an explosive, may be given the effect of a like license granted under the Indian Arms Act, 1878.—See Act IV. of 1884, s. 15.

Savings. But nothing herein contained shall apply to— Act XI. of 1878.

(a) arms, ammunition, or military stores on board any sea-going vessel, and forming part of her ordinary armament or equipment, or

(b) the manufacture, conversion, sale, import, export, transport, bearing, or possession of arms, ammunition, or military stores by order of the Government, or by a public servant, or a volunteer enrolled under the Indian Volunteers Act, 1869, in the course of his duty as such public servant or volunteer.

Commencement. 2. This Act shall come into force* on such day as the Governor-General in Council, by notification in the Gazette of India, appoints.

Repeal of enactments. 3. On and from that day the enactments mentioned in the first schedule hereto annexed shall be repealed to the extent specified in the third column of the said schedule. But all authorities and permissions given, licenses and exemptions granted, orders and appointments made, notifications published, and rules, conditions, and forms prescribed, under any enactment hereby repealed, shall be deemed to be respectively given, granted, made, published, and prescribed under this Act.

And all such authorities, permissions, licenses, and exemptions, shall, except as otherwise provided by this Act, continue in force for the periods for which they may have been given or granted respectively, or, where no such period is expressly fixed, for one year from the date on which this Act comes into force,† and shall then cease to have effect.

Interpretation-clause. 4. In this Act, unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context,—

"Cannon" includes also all howitzers, mortars, wall-pieces, mitrailleuses, and other ordnance and machine-guns, all parts of the same, and all carriages, platforms, and appliances for mounting, transporting, and serving the same:

"Arms" includes fire-arms, bayonets, swords, daggers, spears, spear-heads, and bows and arrows, also cannon and parts of arms, and machinery for manufacturing arms:

"Ammunition" includes also all articles specially designed for torpedo service and submarine mining, rockets, guncotton, dynamite, lithofracteur, and other explosive or fulminating material, gunflints, gunwads, percussion-caps, fuses, and friction-tubes, all parts of ammunition, and all machinery for manufacturing ammunition; but does not include lead, sulphur, or saltpetre:

"Military stores," in any section of this Act as applied to any part of British India, means any military stores to which the Governor-General in Council may from time to time, by notification in the Gazette of India, specially extend such section in such part, and includes also all lead, sulphur, saltpetre, and other material to which the Governor-General in Council may, from time to time, so extend such section:

"License" means a license granted under this Act, and "licensed" means holding such license.

---

* Came into force from Oct. 1, 1878.—See Gazette of India, June 29, 1878, Pt. I., p. 389.

† Came into force from Oct. 1, 1878.

Act XI. of 1878.

II.—Manufacture, Conversion, and Sale.

5. No person shall manufacture, convert, or sell or keep, offer or expose for sale, any arms, ammunition, or military stores, except under a license, and in the manner and to the extent permitted thereby.

Unlicensed manufacture, conversion, and sale prohibited.

Nothing herein contained shall prevent any person from selling any arms or ammunition which he lawfully possesses for his own private use, to any person who is not, by any enactment for the time being in force, prohibited from possessing the same; but every person so selling arms or ammunition to any person other than a person entitled to possess the same by reason of an exemption under section 27 of this Act shall, without unnecessary delay, give to the District Magistrate,* or to the officer in charge of the nearest police station, notice of the sale and of the purchaser's name and address.

III.—Import, Export, and Transport.

6. No person shall bring or take by sea or by land into or out of British India any arms, ammunition, or military stores, except under a license, and in the manner and to the extent permitted by such license.

Unlicensed importation and exportation prohibited.

Nothing in the first clause of this section extends to arms (other than cannon) or ammunition imported or exported in reasonable quantities for his own private use by any person lawfully entitled to possess such arms or ammunition; but the Collector of Customs or any other officer empowered by the Local Government in this behalf, by name or in virtue of his office, may at any time detain such arms or ammunition until he receive the orders of the Local Government thereon.

Importation and exportation of arms and ammunition for private use.

Explanation.—Arms, ammunition, and military stores, taken from one part of British India to another by sea or across intervening territory not being part of British India, are taken out of, and brought into, British India within the meaning of this section.

7. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Sea Customs Act, 1878, no arms, ammunition, or military stores, shall be deposited in any warehouse licensed under section 16 of that Act without the sanction of the Local Government.

Sanction of Local Government required to warehousing of arms, &c.

8. [Repealed by Act XI. of 1882, s. 2 and Sch. I. Re-repealed by Act XII. of 1891.]

9. [Repealed by Act XII. of 1891.]

10. The Governor-General in Council may, from time to time, by notification in the Gazette of India,—

Power to prohibit transport.

(a) regulate or prohibit the transport of any description of arms, ammunition, or military stores over the whole of British India or any part thereof, either altogether or except under a license, and to the extent and in the manner permitted by such license, and (b) cancel any such notification.

* See Act X. of 1882, s. 3.

Explanation.—Arms, ammunition, or military stores, transhipped at a port in British India, are transported within the meaning of this section.

Transhipment of arms.

11. The Local Government, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, may, at any places along the boundary-line between British India and foreign territory, and at such distance within such line as it deems expedient, establish searching-posts, at which all vessels, carts, and baggage-animals, and all boxes, bales, and packages in transit, may be stopped and searched for arms, ammunition, and military stores by any officer empowered by such Government in this behalf by name or in virtue of his office.

Power to establish searching-stations.

12. When any person is found carrying or conveying any arms, ammunition, or military stores, whether covered by a license or not, in such manner or under such circumstances as to afford just grounds of suspicion that the same are being carried by him with intent to use them, or that the same may be used, for any unlawful purpose, any person may, without warrant, apprehend him, and take such arms, ammunition, or military stores from him.

Arrest of persons conveying arms, &c., under suspicious circumstances.

Any person so apprehended, and any arms, ammunition, or military stores so taken, by a person not being a Magistrate or police-officer, shall be delivered over, as soon as possible, to a police-officer.

Procedure where arrest made by person not a Magistrate or a police-officer.

All persons apprehended by, or delivered to, a police-officer, and all arms and ammunition seized by, or delivered to, any such officer under this section, shall be taken without unnecessary delay before a Magistrate.

IV.—Going armed and possessing Arms, &c.

13. No person shall go armed with any arms except under a license, and to the extent and in the manner permitted thereby.

Prohibition of going armed without license.

Any person so going armed without a license or in contravention of its provisions may be disarmed by any Magistrate, police-officer, or other person empowered by the Local Government in this behalf by name or by virtue of his office.

14. No person shall have in his possession or under his control any cannon or fire-arms, or any ammunition or military stores, except under a license, and in the manner and to the extent permitted thereby.*

Unlicensed possession of fire-arms, &c.

15. In any place to which section 32, clause 2, of Act No. XXXI. of 1860,† applies at the time this Act comes into force, or to which the Local Government, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, may, by notification in the local official Gazette, specially extend this section, no person shall have in his possession any arms of any description except under a license, and in the manner and to the extent permitted thereby.

Possession of arms of any description without license prohibited in certain places.

---

* In s. 14, three paragraphs have been omitted, having been repealed by Act XII. of 1891.

† Repealed by this Act.—See s. 3 and Sch. I.

Act XI of 1878.

Arms of which possession has become unlawful to be deposited at police-station.

16. Any person possessing arms, ammunition, or military stores, the possession whereof by him has, in consequence of the cancellation or expiry of a license, or by the issue of a notification under section 15, become unlawful, shall deposit the same without unnecessary delay with the officer in charge of the nearest police-station.

If the owner of anything deposited under this section does not, within three years from the date on which such thing is so deposited, produce a license authorizing him to possess the same, and apply for delivery of the same, such thing shall be forfeited to Her Majesty.

Power to make rules as to licenses.

17. The Governor-General in Council may, from time to time, by notification in the Gazette of India, make rules to determine the officers by whom, the form in which, and the terms and conditions on and subject to which, any license shall be granted; and may, by such rules, among other matters—

(a) fix the period for which such license shall continue in force;

(b) fix a fee payable by stamp or otherwise in respect of any such license granted in a place to which section 32, clause 2, of Act No. XXXI. of 1862,* applies at the time this Act comes into force, or in respect of any such license other than a license for possession granted in any other place;

(c) direct that the holder of any such license, other than a license for possession, shall keep a record or account, in such form as the Local Government may prescribe, of anything done under such license, and exhibit such record or account when called upon by an officer of Government to do so;

(d) empower any officer of Government to enter and inspect any premises in which arms, ammunition, or military stores, are manufactured or kept by any person holding a license of the description referred to in section 5 or section 6;

(e) direct that any such person shall exhibit the entire stock of arms, ammunition, and military stores in his possession or under his control to any officer of Government so empowered, and

(f) require the person holding any license, or acting under any license, to produce the same, and to produce or account for the arms, ammunition, or military stores covered by the same when called upon by an officer of Government so to do.

V.—Licenses.

Cancelling and suspension of license.

18. Any license may be cancelled or suspended—

(a) by the officer by whom the same was granted, or by any authority to which he may be subordinate, or by any District Magistrate,† or Commissioner of Police in a Presidency-town, within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the holder of such license may be, when, for reasons to be recorded in writing, such officer, authority, Magistrate, or Commissioner, deems it necessary for the security of the public peace, to cancel or suspend such license; or

(b) by any Judge or Magistrate before whom the holder of such license is convicted of an offence against this Act, or against the rules made under this Act; and the Local Government may, at its discretion, by a notification in the local official Gazette, cancel or suspend all or any licenses throughout the whole or any portion of the territories under its administration. Act XI. of 1878.

* Repealed by this Act.—See s. 3 and Sch. I.

† See Act X. of 1882, s. 3.

VI.—Penalties.

For breach of sections 5, 6, 10, and 13 to 17.

19. Whoever commits any of the following offences (namely) :—

(a) manufactures, converts, or sells, or keeps, offers, or exposes for sale, any arms, ammunition, or military stores, in contravention of the provisions of section 5 ;

(b) fails to give notice as required by the same section ;

(c) imports or exports any arms, ammunition, or military stores, in contravention of the provisions of section 6 ;

(d) transports any arms, ammunition, or military stores, in contravention of a regulation or prohibition issued under section 10 ;

(e) goes armed in contravention of the provisions of section 13 ;

(f) has in his possession or under his control any arms, ammunition, or military stores, in contravention of the provisions of section 14 or section 15 ;

(g) intentionally makes any false entry in a record or account which, by a rule made under section 17, clause (c), he is required to keep ;

(h) intentionally fails to exhibit anything which, by a rule made under section 17, clause (e), he is required to exhibit ; or

(i) fails to deposit arms, ammunition, or military stores, as required by section 14 or section 16, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, or with fine, or with both.

For secret breaches of sections 5, 6, 10, 14, and 15.

20. Whoever does any act mentioned in clause (a), (c), (d), or (f) of section 19, in such manner as to indicate an intention that such act may not be known to any public servant as defined in the Indian Penal Code, or to any person employed upon a railway, or to the servant of any public carrier,

For concealing arms, &c.

and whoever, on any search being made under section 25, conceals, or attempts to conceal, any arms, ammunition, or military stores, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years, or with fine, or with both.

For breach of license.

21. Whoever, in violation of a condition subject to which a license has been granted, does, or omits to do, any act, shall, when the doing or omitting to do such act is not punishable under section 19 or section 20, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

For knowingly purchasing arms, &c., from unlicensed person.

22. Whoever knowingly purchases any arms, ammunition, or military stores from any person not licensed, or authorized under the proviso to section 5, to sell the same ; or

For delivering arms, &c., to person not authorized to possess them.

delivers any arms, ammunition, or military stores into the possession of any person without previously ascertaining that such person is legally authorized to possess the same,

Act XI. of 1878.

shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

Penalty for breach of rule.

23. Any person violating any rule made under this Act, and for the violation of which no penalty is provided by this Act, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month, or with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, or with both.

Power to confiscate.

24. When any person is convicted of an offence punishable under this Act, committed by him in respect of any arms, ammunition, or military stores, it shall be in the discretion of the convicting Court or Magistrate further to direct that the whole or any portion of such arms, ammunition, or military stores, and any vessel, cart, or baggage-animal used to convey the same, and any box, package, or bale in which the same may have been concealed, together with the other contents of such box, package, or bale, shall be confiscated.

VII.—Miscellaneous.

Search and seizure by Magistrate.

25. Whenever any Magistrate has reason to believe that any person residing within the local limits of his jurisdiction has in his possession any arms, ammunition, or military stores for any unlawful purpose, or that such person cannot be left in the possession of any such arms, ammunition, or military stores without danger to the public peace, such Magistrate, having first recorded the grounds of his belief, may cause a search to be made of the house or premises occupied by such person, or in which such Magistrate has reason to believe such arms, ammunition, or military stores, are or is to be found, and may seize and detain the same, although covered by a license, in safe custody for such time as he thinks necessary.

The search in such case shall be conducted by, or in the presence of, a Magistrate, or by, or in the presence of, some officer specially empowered in this behalf by name or in virtue of his office by the Local Government.

Seizure and detention by Local Government.

26. The Local Government may, at any time, order or cause to be seized any arms, ammunition, or military stores in the possession of any person, notwithstanding that such person is licensed to possess the same, and may detain the same for such time as it thinks necessary for the public safety.

Power to exempt.

27. The Governor-General in Council may, from time to time, by notification published in the Gazette of India,—

(a) exempt any person by name or in virtue of his office, or any class of persons, or exclude any description of arms or ammunition, or withdraw any part of British India, from the operation of any prohibition or direction contained in this Act; and

(b) cancel any such notification, and again subject the persons or things, or the part of British India comprised therein, to the operation of such prohibition or direction.

Information to be given regarding offences.

28. Every person aware of the commission of any offence punishable under this Act shall, in the absence of reasonable excuse, the burden of proving which shall lie upon such person, give information of the same to the nearest police-officer or Magistrate; and every person employed upon any railway or by any public carrier shall, in the absence of reasonable excuse, the burden of proving which shall lie upon such person, give information to the nearest police-officer regarding any box, package, or bale in transit which he may have reason to suspect contains arms, ammunition, or military stores, in respect of which an offence against this Act has been or is being committed. Act XI. of 1878.

Sanction required to certain proceedings under section 19, clause (f).

29. Where an offence punishable under section 19, clause (f), has been committed within three months from the date on which this Act comes into force* in any province, district, or place to which section 32, clause 2, of Act XXXI. of 1860,† applies at such date, or where such an offence has been committed in any part of British India not being such a district, province, or place, no proceedings shall be instituted against any person in respect of such offence without the previous sanction of the District Magistrate,‡ or, in a Presidency-town, of the Commissioner of Police.

Searches in the case of offences against section 19, clause (f), how conducted.

30. Where a search is to be made under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882,‡ in the course of any proceedings instituted in respect of an offence punishable under section 19, clause (f), such search shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the said Code,‡ be made in the presence of some officer specially appointed by name or in virtue of his office by the Local Government in this behalf, and not otherwise.

Operation of other laws not barred.

31. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to prevent any person from being prosecuted under any other law for any act or omission which constitutes an offence against this Act or the rules made under it, or from being liable under such other law to any higher punishment or penalty than that provided by this Act: Provided that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence.

Power to take census of fire-arms.

32. The Local Government may from time to time, by notification in the local official Gazette, direct a census to be taken of all fire-arms in any local area, and empower any person by name or in virtue of his office to take such census.

On the issue of any such notification, all persons possessing any such arms in such area shall furnish to the person so empowered such information as he may require in reference thereto, and shall produce such arms to him if he so requires.

Any person refusing or neglecting to produce any such arms when so required shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month, or with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, or with both.

Notice and limitation of proceedings.

33. No proceeding other than a suit shall be commenced against any person for anything done in pursuance of this Act without having given him at least one month's previous notice in writing of the intended proceeding and of the cause thereof, nor after the expiration of three months from the accrual of such cause.

ACT XVII. OF 1878.*

NORTHERN INDIA FERRIES ACT.

Act XVII. of 1878.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 9TH NOVEMBER 1878.

An Act to Regulate Ferries in Northern India.

WHEREAS it is expedient to regulate ferries in the Punjab, the North-Western Provinces, Oudh, the Central Provinces, Assam, and Ajmere and Merwara; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I.—PRELIMINARY.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Northern India Ferries Act, 1878":

It extends only to the territories respectively administered by the Lieutenant-Governors of the Punjab and the North-Western Provinces and the Chief Commissioners of Oudh, the Central Provinces, Assam, and Ajmere and Merwara:

Local extent.

It shall come into force in each of the said territories on such date as the Local Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, fix in this behalf.

Commencement.

2. On and from the date on which it comes into force in the territories respectively administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of the North-Western Provinces and the said Chief Commissioners, Bengal Regulation VI. of 1819 shall be repealed therein; but all determinations, declarations, orders, and rules made, engagements entered into, and securities taken under that Regulation, and then in force, shall be deemed to be respectively made, entered into, and taken under this Act.

Repeal.

3. In this Act the word "ferry" includes also a bridge-of-boats, pontoons, or rafts, a swing-bridge, a flying-bridge, and a temporary bridge, and the approaches to, and landing-places of, a ferry.

Interpretation-clause.

II.—PUBLIC FERRIES.

Power to declare, establish, define, and discontinue public ferries.

4. The Local Government may from time to time—

(a) declare what ferries shall be deemed public ferries, and the respective districts in which, for the purposes of this Act, they shall be deemed to be situate;

(b) take possession of a private ferry, and declare it to be a public ferry;

(c) establish new public ferries where, in its opinion, they are needed;

---

* Act XVII. of 1878 came into force in the North-Western Provinces and Oudh on Jan. 1, 1879 (see North-Western Provinces and Oudh Gazette, 1878, p. 2035); in the Punjab, on April 1, 1881 (see Notification No. 1168, Punjab Gazette, March 24, 1881, Part I., p. 139); and in the Central Provinces, on April 1, 1879 (see Central Provinces Gazette, 1879, Part I-A, p. 202).

Act XVII. of 1878.

(d) define the limits of any public ferry;

(e) change the course of any public ferry; and (f) discontinue any public ferry which it deems unnecessary.

Every such declaration, establishment, definition, change, or discontinuance, shall be made by notification in the official Gazette:

Provided that, when a river lies between two Provinces, the powers conferred by this section shall, in respect of such river, be exercised by the Governor-General in Council, by notification in the Gazette of India, and not otherwise:

Provided also that, when any alteration in the course or in the limits of a public ferry is rendered necessary by changes in the river, such alteration may be made, by an order under his hand, by the Commissioner of the division in which such ferry is situate, or by such other officer as the Local Government may, from time to time, appoint by name or in virtue of his office in this behalf.

Claims for compensation.

5. Claims for compensation for any loss sustained by any person in consequence of a private ferry being taken possession of under section 4 shall be enquired into by the Magistrate of the district in which such ferry is situate, or such officer as he appoints in this behalf, and submitted for the consideration and orders of the Local Government.

Superintendence of public ferries.

6. The immediate superintendence of every public ferry shall, except as provided in section 7 " and section 7A,"* be vested in the Magistrate of the district in which such ferry is situate, or in such other officer as the Local Government may, from time to time, appoint by name or in virtue of his office in this behalf; and such Magistrate or officer shall, except when the tolls at such ferry are leased, make all necessary arrangements for the supply of boats for such ferry, and for the collection of the authorized tolls leviable thereat.

Management may be vested in municipality;

7. The Local Government may direct that any public ferry situate within the limits of a town be managed by the officer or public body charged with the superintendence of the municipal arrangements of such town; and proceeds paid into municipal fund.

and may further direct that all or any part of the proceeds from such ferry be paid into the municipal fund of such town;

and thereupon such ferry shall be managed, and such proceeds or part thereof shall be paid, accordingly.

In North-Western Provinces and Oudh management may be vested in district board;

7A.† The Lieutenant-Governor of the North-Western Provinces and the Chief Commissioner of Oudh may direct that any public ferry, wholly or partly within the area subject to the authority of a district board in any district in the North-Western Provinces or Oudh, as the case

* The reference quoted has been inserted by Act XIV. of 1883, s. 65.

† S. 7A has been inserted by Act XIV. of 1883, s. 64. A similar section has been enacted for the Central Provinces and the Punjab.—See Act I. of 1883, s. 43, and Act XX. of 1883, s. 78.

may be, be managed by that board, and may further direct that all or any part of the proceeds from such ferry be paid into the district fund of that district; and proceeds paid into district fund.

and thereupon such ferry shall be managed, and such proceeds or part thereof shall be paid, accordingly.

8.* The tolls of any public ferry may, from time to time, be let by public auction for a term not exceeding five years with the approval of the Commissioner, or by public auction, or otherwise than by public auction, for any term with the previous sanction of the Local Government.

Letting ferry-tolls.

The lessee shall conform to the rules made under this Act for the management and control of the ferry, and may be called upon by the officer in whom the immediate superintendence of the ferry is vested, or, if the ferry is managed by a municipal or other public body under section 7 or section 7A, then by that body, to give such security for his good conduct and for the punctual payment of the rent as the officer or body, as the case may be, thinks fit.

When the tolls are put up to public auction, the said officer or body, as the case may be, or the officer conducting the sale on his or its behalf, may, for reasons recorded in writing, refuse to accept the offer of the highest bidder, and may accept any other bid, or may withdraw the tolls from auction.

9. All arrears due by the lessee of the tolls of a public ferry on account of his lease may be recovered from the lessee or his surety (if any) by the Magistrate of the district in which such ferry is situate, as if they were arrears of land-revenue.

Recovery of arrears from lessee.

10. The Local Government may cancel the lease of the tolls of any public ferry on the expiration of six months' notice in writing to the lessee of its intention to cancel such lease.

Power to cancel lease.

When any lease is cancelled under this section, the Magistrate of the district in which such ferry is situate shall pay to the lessee such compensation as such Magistrate may, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, award.

11. The lessee of the tolls of a public ferry may surrender his lease on the expiration of one month's notice in writing to the Local Government of his intention to surrender such lease, and on payment to the Magistrate of the district in which such ferry is situate of such compensation as such Magistrate, subject to the approval of the Commissioner, may in each case direct.

Surrender of lease.

12. Subject to the control of the Local Government, the Commissioner of a division, or such other officer as the Local Government may, from time to time, appoint in this behalf, by name or in virtue of his office, may, from time to time, make rules consistent with this Act—

Power to make rules.

(a) for the control and the management of all public ferries within such division, and for regulating the traffic at such ferries;

---

* S. 8 has been substituted for the original s. 8 by Act III. of 1886, s. 1 (1).

Act XVII. of 1878.

(b)* for regulating the time and manner at and in which, and the terms on which, the tolls of such ferries may be let by auction, and prescribing the persons by whom auctions may be conducted;

(c) for compensating persons who have compounded for tolls payable for the use of any such ferry, when such ferry has been discontinued before the expiration of the period compounded for; and

(d) generally to carry out the purposes of this Act;

and when the tolls of a ferry have been let under section 8, such Commissioner or other officer may, from time to time (subject as aforesaid), make additional rules consistent with this Act—

(e) for collecting the rents payable for the tolls of such ferries;

(f) in cases in which the communication is to be established by means of a bridge-of-boats, pontoons, or rafts, or a swing-bridge, flying-bridge, or temporary bridge, for regulating the time and manner at and in which such bridge shall be constructed and maintained, and opened for the passage of vessels and rafts through the same, and

(g) in cases in which the traffic is conveyed in boats, for regulating—

(1) the number and kinds of such boats, and their dimensions and equipment;

(2) the number of the crew to be kept by the lessee for each boat;

(3) the maintenance of such boats continually in good condition;

(4) the hours during which, and the intervals within which, the lessee shall be bound to ply; and

(5) the number of passengers, animals, and vehicles, and the bulk and weight of other things, that may be carried in each kind of boat at one trip.

The lessee shall make such returns of traffic as the Commissioner or other officer as aforesaid may from time to time require.

Private ferry not to ply within two miles of public ferry without sanction.

18. Except with the sanction of the Magistrate of the district or of such other officer as the Local Government may, from time to time, appoint in this behalf, by name or in virtue of his office, no person shall establish, maintain, or work a ferry to or from any point within a distance of two miles from the limits of a public ferry:†

Provided that, in the case of any specified public ferry, the Local Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, reduce or increase the said distance of two miles to such extent as it thinks fit:

Provided also that nothing hereinbefore contained shall prevent persons plying between two places, one of which is without, and one within, the said limits, when the distance between such two places is not less than three miles, or apply to boats "which do not ply for hire, or"‡ which the Local Government expressly exempts from the operation of this section.

Person using approaches, &c., liable to pay.

14. Whoever uses the approach to, or landing-place of, a public ferry, is liable to pay the toll payable for crossing such ferry.

Act XVII. of 1878.

15. Tolls, according to such rates as are from time to time fixed by the Local Government, shall be levied on all persons, animals, vehicles, and other things crossing any river by a public ferry, and not employed or transmitted on the public service :

Tolls.

Provided that the Local Government may, from time to time, declare that any persons, animals, vehicles, or other things, shall be exempt from payment of such tolls.

Where the tolls of a ferry have been let under section 8, any such declaration, if made after the date of the lease,* shall entitle the lessee to such abatement of the rent payable in respect of the tolls as may be fixed by the Commissioner of the division or such other officer as the Local Government may, from time to time, appoint in this behalf by name or in virtue of his office.

16. The lessee or other person authorized to collect the tolls of any public ferry shall affix a table of such tolls, legibly written or printed in the vernacular language, and also, if the Commissioner of the division so directs, in English, in some conspicuous place near the ferry, and shall be bound to produce, on demand, a list of the tolls, signed by the Magistrate of the district or such other officer as he appoints in this behalf.

Table of tolls.

List of tolls.

17. Except as provided by section 7 " and section 7A,"† all tolls, rents, and compensation received by or on behalf of Government, and all fines levied under this Act, shall be disposed of as follows, that is to say :—

Tolls, rents, compensation, and fines how disposed of.

(a) in the territories administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of the North-Western Provinces, the residue of such tolls, rents, compensation, and fines, after defraying thereout all charges incurred in carrying out this Act in those territories, shall be credited to the fund constituted for those territories by the North-Western Provinces Local Rates Act, 1878 ;

(b) in the territories administered by the Chief Commissioner of Oudh, the residue as aforesaid shall be credited to the fund constituted for those territories by the Oudh Local Rates Act, 1878 ;

(c) in the territories respectively administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab and the Chief Commissioner of the Central Provinces, such tolls, rents, compensation, and fines shall be credited to the Local Government, and applied, " in the first instance,"‡ to defraying all charges incurred in carrying out this Act in those territories respectively, " and shall then, at the discretion of the Local Government—

(i) be placed at the disposal of any district board or district boards established under the Punjab District Boards Act, 1883, or,

as the case may be; and"*

(d) in the territories respectively administered by the Chief Commissioner of Assam and the Chief Commissioner of Ajmere and Merwara, such tolls, rents, compensation, and fines shall be credited to the Local Government and applied, first, to defraying all charges incurred in carrying out this Act in those territories respectively, and then to such local works and establishments likely to promote the public health, comfort, or convenience as the Local Government, subject to the control of the Governor-General in Council, may from time to time direct.

Compounding for tolls.

18. The Local Government may, if it thinks fit, from time to time, fix rates at which any person may compound for the tolls payable for the use of a public ferry.

III.—Private Ferries.

Power to make rules.

19. The Commissioner of the division may, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, from time to time make rules for the maintenance of order and for the safety of passengers and property at ferries other than public ferries.

Tolls.

20. The tolls charged at such ferries shall not exceed the highest rates for the time being fixed under section 15 for similar public ferries.

IV.—Penalties and Criminal Procedure

Penalty for breach of provisions as to table of tolls, list of tolls, and return of traffic.

21. Every lessee or other person authorized to collect the tolls of a public ferry, who neglects to affix and keep in good order and repair the table of tolls mentioned in section 16, or who wilfully removes, alters, or defaces such table, or allows it to become illegible, or who fails to produce on demand the list of the tolls mentioned in section 16, and every lessee who neglects to furnish any return required under section 12, shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

Penalty for taking unauthorized tolls, and for causing delay.

22. Every such lessee or other person as aforesaid, and any person in possession of a private ferry asking or taking more than the lawful toll, or without due cause delaying any person, animal, vehicle, or other thing, shall be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

Penalty for breach of rules made under sections 12 and 19.

23. Every person breaking any rule made under section 12 or section 19 shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, or with both.

* The words and figures quoted have been substituted for the original words and figures by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. II.

Act XVII. of 1878.

Cancelment of lease on default or breach of rules.

24. When any lessee of the tolls of a public ferry makes default in the payment of the rent payable in respect of such tolls, or has been convicted of an offence under section 23 or having been convicted of an offence under section 21 or section 22, is again convicted of an offence under either of those sections, the Magistrate of the district may, with the sanction of the Commissioner of the division, cancel the lease of the tolls of such ferry, and make other arrangements for its management during the whole or any part of the term for which the tolls were let.

Penalties on passengers offending.

25. Every person crossing by any public ferry, or using the approach to or landing-place thereof, who refuses to pay the proper toll; and every person—who, with intent to avoid payment of such toll, fraudulently or forcibly crosses by any such ferry without paying the toll, or who obstructs any toll-collector or lessee of the tolls of a public ferry, or any of his assistants, in any way in the execution of their duty under this Act, or who, after being warned by any such toll-collector, lessee, or assistant not to do so, goes or takes any animals, vehicles, or other things into any ferry-boat, or upon any bridge, at such a ferry, which is in such a state or so loaded as to endanger human life or property, or who refuses or neglects to leave, or remove any animals, vehicles, or goods from, any such ferry-boat or bridge, on being requested by such toll-collector, lessee, or assistant to do so, shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

Penalty for maintaining private ferry within prohibited limits.

26.* Whoever establishes, maintains, or works a ferry in contravention of the provisions of section 13, shall be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, and with a further fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for every day during which the ferry is maintained or worked in contravention of those provisions.

Fines payable to lessee.

27. Where the tolls of any public ferry have been let under the provisions hereinbefore contained, the whole or any portion of any fine realized under section 25 or section 26 may, notwithstanding anything contained in section 17, be, at the discretion of the convicting Magistrate or Bench of Magistrates, paid to the lessee.

Penalty for rash navigation and stacking of timber.

28. Whoever navigates, anchors, moors, or fastens any vessel or raft, or stacks any timber, in a manner so rash or negligent as to damage a public ferry, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both; and the toll-collector or lessee of the tolls of such ferry, or any of his assistants, may seize and detain such vessel, raft, or timber pending the enquiry and assessment hereinafter mentioned.

Power to arrest without warrant.

29. The police may arrest without warrant any person committing an offence against section 25 or section 28.

---

* S. 26 has been substituted for the original by Act III. of 1886, s. 2 (3).

Act XVII. of 1878.

Power to try summarily.

30. Any Magistrate or Bench of Magistrates having summary jurisdiction under Chapter XXII. of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882,* may try any offence against this Act in manner provided by that chapter.

Magistrate may assess damage done by offender.

31. Every Magistrate or Bench of Magistrates trying any offence under this Act may enquire into and assess the value of the damage (if any) done or caused by the offender to the ferry concerned, and shall order the amount of such value to be paid by him in addition to any fine imposed upon him under this Act; and the amount so ordered to be paid shall be leviable as if it were a fine, or, when the offence is one under section 28, by the sale of the vessel, raft, or timber causing the damage, and of any thing found in or upon such vessel or raft.

The Commissioner of the division may, on the appeal of any person deeming himself aggrieved by an order under this section, reduce or remit the amount payable under such order.

V.—Miscellaneous.

Power to take possession of boats, &c., on surrender or cancellation of lease.

32. When the lease of the tolls of any ferry is surrendered under section 11 or cancelled under section 24, the Magistrate of the district may take possession of all boats and their equipment, and all other materials and appliances used by the lessee for the purposes of such ferry, and use the same (paying such compensation for the use thereof as the Local Government may in each case direct) until such Magistrate can conveniently procure proper substitutes therefor.

Similar power in cases of emergency.

33. When any boats or their equipment, or any materials or appliances suitable for setting up a ferry, are emergently required for facilitating the transport of officers or troops of Her Majesty on duty, or of any other persons on the business of Her Majesty, or of any animals, vehicles, or baggage belonging to such officers, troops, or persons, or of any property of Her Majesty, the Magistrate of the district may take possession of and use the same (paying such compensation for the use thereof as the Local Government may in each case direct) until such transport is completed.

Jurisdiction of Civil Courts barred.

34. No suit to ascertain the amount of any compensation payable or abatement of rent allowable, under this Act shall be cognizable by any Civil Court.

Delegation of powers.

35. The Local Government may, from time to time, delegate, under such restrictions as it thinks fit, any of the powers conferred on it by this Act to any Commissioner of a division or Magistrate of a district, or to such other officer as it thinks fit, by name or by virtue of his office.

ACT I. OF 1879.*

Act I. of 1879.

GENERAL STAMP ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 17TH JANUARY 1879.

An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to Stamps.

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Indian Stamp Act, 1879:"

Local extent.

It extends to the whole of British India;

Commencement.

And it shall come into force on the first day of April, 1879.

Saving of things done under former Act.

2.† All rules made under the General Stamp Act, 1869, and then in force, shall, so far as they are consistent with this Act, be deemed to have been made hereunder. And all references made to the General Stamp Act, 1869, in enactments passed subsequently thereto, shall be deemed to be made to this Act.

Interpretation-clause.

3. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

"Banker."

(1.) "Banker" includes a bank and any person acting as a banker:

"Bill of exchange."

(2.) "Bill of Exchange" includes a hundi:

"Bill of lading."

(3.) "Bill of lading" means any instrument signed by the owner of a vessel or his agent, acknowledging the receipt of goods therein described, and undertaking to deliver the same at a place and to a person therein mentioned or indicated:

"Bond."

(4.) "Bond" means—

(b) any instrument attested by a witness, and not payable to order or bearer, whereby a person obliges himself to pay money to another; and

(c) any instrument so attested whereby a person obliges himself to deliver grain or other agricultural produce to another:

"Chargeable."

(5.) "Chargeable" means, as applied to an instrument executed or first executed after this Act comes into force, chargeable under this Act, and, as applied to any other instrument chargeable under the law in force in British India, when such instrument was executed, or, where several persons executed the instrument at different times, first executed:

---

* Act I. of 1879 has been declared, under the Scheduled Districts Act (XIV. of 1874), to be in force in the following Scheduled Districts in the Chutiá Nágpur Division, viz., the Districts of Hazáribágh, Lohárdaga, and Mánbhum, and Pargana Dhálbhum in the District of Singbhum.—See Gazette of India, Oct. 22, 1881, Pt. I., pp. 507 to 510.

† Certain words, repealed by Act XII. of 1891, have here been omitted.

Act I. of 1879.

"Cheque." (6.) "Cheque" means a bill of exchange drawn on a banker and payable on demand:

"Chief Controlling Revenue Authority." (7.) "Chief Controlling Revenue Authority," means, in the Presidency of Fort St. George and the territories respectively under the administration of the Lieutenant-Governors of Bengal and the North-Western Provinces, "and the Chief Commissioner of Oudh,"* the Board of Revenue; in the Presidency of Bombay, outside Sind and the limits of the town of Bombay, a Revenue Commissioner; in Sind, the Commissioner; in the Punjab, the Financial Commissioner; and elsewhere, the Local Government or such officer as the Local Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint in this behalf by name or in virtue of his office:

"Collector." (8.) "Collector" means, within the limits of the towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, the Collector of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, respectively, and without those limits, the Collector of a District, and includes a Deputy Commissioner and any officer whom the Local Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint in this behalf by name or in virtue of his office:

"Conveyance." (9.) "Conveyance" means any instrument by which property (whether moveable or immoveable) is transferred on sale:

"Duly stamped." (10.) "Duly stamped," as applied to an instrument, means stamped, or written upon paper bearing an impressed stamp, in accordance with the law in force in British India when such instrument was executed or first executed:

"Instrument of partition." (11.) "Instrument of partition" means any instrument whereby co-owners of any property divide or agree to divide such property in severalty, and includes also a final order for effecting a partition passed by any Revenue Authority:

"Lease." (12.) "Lease" means a lease of immoveable property, and includes also—

(a) a pattá,

(b) a kabuliyat or other undertaking in writing, not being a counterpart of a lease to cultivate, occupy, or pay or deliver rent for, immoveable property,

(c) any instrument by which tolls of any description are let, and

(d) any writing on an application for a lease intended to signify that the application is granted:

"Mortgage-deed." (13.) "Mortgage-deed" includes every instrument whereby, for the purpose of securing money advanced, or to be advanced, by way of loan, or an existing or future debt, or the performance of an engagement, one person transfers, or creates, to or in favour of another, a right over specified property:

"Paper." (14.) "Paper" includes vellum, parchment, or any other material on which an instrument may be written:

---

* The words quoted have been inserted by Act XX. of 1890, s. 38.

It includes also a policy of sea-insurance, such a policy meaning any insurance made upon any ship or vessel or upon the machinery, tackle or furniture of any ship or vessel or upon any goods merchandise or property of any description whatever on board of any ship or vessel or upon the freight of or any other interest which may be lawfully insured in or relating to any ship or vessel and (b) including any insurance of goods merchandise or property for any transit which includes, not only a sea risk but also any other risk incidental to the transit insured from the commencement of the transit to the ultimate destination covered by the insurance:

and where any person, in consideration of any sum of money paid or to be paid for additional freight or otherwise agrees to take upon himself any risk attending goods merchandise or property of any description whatever while on board of any ship or vessel or engages to indemnify the owner of any such goods merchandise or property from any risk loss or damage, such agreement or engagement shall be deemed to be a contract for marine insurance.

added by sec 1 of act 8 of 1894 to clause (15)
J sec 3.

"Policy of insurance."

(15.) "Policy of insurance" means any instrument by which one person, in consideration of a premium, engages to indemnify another against loss, damage, or liability arising from an unknown or contingent event:

It includes a life-policy, and includes also any writing evidencing the renewal of, for the purpose of keeping in force, a policy of fire-insurance in respect of which, and of the previous renewal whereof (if any), there has not already been paid the stamp-duty which would have been chargeable if the policy had originally been granted for a longer term than six months:* see for addition here Act 1894

"Power-of-attorney."

(16.) "Power-of-attorney" means any instrument (not chargeable with a fee under the law relating to court-fees† for the time being in force) empowering a specified person to act in the stead of the person executing it:

"Receipt."

(17.) "Receipt" means any note, memorandum, writing, or advertisement, whereby any money or any bill of exchange, cheque, or promissory note, is acknowledged to have been received, or whereby any other moveable property is acknowledged to have been received in satisfaction of a debt, or whereby any debt or demand, or any part of a debt or demand, is acknowledged to have been satisfied or discharged, or which signifies or imports any such acknowledgment, whether the same is or is not signed with the name of any person:

"Schedule."

(18.) "Schedule" means a schedule to this Act annexed:

"Settlement."

(19.) "Settlement" means any non-testamentary disposition in writing, of moveable or immoveable property, made—

(a) in consideration of marriage,

(b) for the purpose of distributing property of the settler among his family or those for whom he desires to provide, or

(c) for any religious or charitable purpose:

It includes an agreement in writing to make such a disposition:

"Vessel."

(20.) "Vessel" means anything made for the conveyance by water of human beings or property:

"Written," "Writing."

(21.) "Written" and "writing" include every mode in which words or figures can be expressed upon paper.

"Schedules to be read as part of Act."

4. The schedules and everything therein contained shall be read and construed as part of this Act.

CHAPTER II.

STAMP-DUTIES.

A.—Of the Liability of Instruments to Duty.

Instruments chargeable with duty.

5. Subject to the exemptions contained in the second schedule, the following instruments shall be chargeable with duty of the amount indicated in the first schedule as the proper duty therefor respectively, that is to say—

* This clause has been substituted by Act I. of 1888, s. 1.

† See Act VII. of 1870.

Act I. of 1879.

(a) every instrument mentioned in the first schedule, and which, not having been previously executed by any person, is executed in British India on or after the first day of April 1879;

(b) every bill of exchange, cheque, or promissory note drawn or made out of British India on or after that day, and accepted or paid, or presented for acceptance or payment, or endorsed, transferred, or otherwise negotiated, in British India; and

(c) every instrument (other than a bill of exchange, cheque, or promissory note) mentioned in the first schedule, which, not having been previously executed by any person, is executed out of British India on or after that day, relates to any property situate, or to any matter or thing done or to be done, in British India, and is received in British India.

Several instruments used in single transactions.

6. Where, in the case of any sale, lease, mortgage, or settlement, several instruments are employed for completing the transaction, the principal instrument only shall be chargeable with the duty prescribed for the conveyance, lease, mortgage, or settlement in the first schedule, and each of the other instruments shall be chargeable with a duty of one rupee, instead of the duty (if any) prescribed for it in that schedule.

The parties may determine for themselves which of the instruments so employed shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be the principal instrument.

Instruments relating to several distinct matters.

7. Any instrument comprising or relating to several distinct matters shall be chargeable with the aggregate amount of the duties with which separate instruments, each comprising or relating to one of such matters, would be chargeable under this Act.

Instruments coming within several descriptions in Schedule I.

Subject to the provisions of the first clause of this section, an instrument so framed as to come within two or more of the descriptions in the first schedule shall, where the duties chargeable thereunder are different, be chargeable only with the highest of such duties; but nothing herein contained shall render chargeable with duty exceeding one rupee a counterpart or duplicate of any instrument chargeable with duty, and in respect of which the proper duty has been paid.

Power to reduce or remit duty.

8. The Governor-General in Council may, by order published in the Gazette of India,

(a) reduce or remit, whether prospectively or retrospectively, in the whole or any part of British India, the duties with which any instruments or any particular class of instruments, or any of the instruments, belonging to such class, or any instruments when executed by or in favour of any particular class of persons, or by or in favour of any members of such class, are chargeable, and

(b) cancel or vary such order to the extent of the powers hereby given

B.—Of Stamps and the mode of using them.

Duties how to be paid.

9. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, all duties with which any instruments are chargeable shall be paid, and such payment shall be indicated on such instruments by means of stamps—

(a) according to the provisions herein contained, or

(1) No contract for sea insurance (other than such insurance as is referred to in Sec. 55 of the Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act 1862) shall be valid unless the same is expressed in a policy of sea insurance.

(2) No policy of sea insurance made for time shall be made for any time exceeding twelve months

(3) No policy of sea insurance shall be valid unless it specify the particular risk or adventure & the time, for which it is made, the names of the subscribers or underwriters & the amount or amounts insured.

(4) Where any insurance is made for a voyage and also for time or to extend to or cover any time beyond thirty days after the ship shall have arrived at her destination & been there moored at anchor, the policy shall be charged with duty as a policy for a voyage and also with duty as a policy for time.

Additions by sec. 2 of Act 8 of 1874

7 B. (1) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, any local authority raising a loan under the provisions of the Local Authorities Loans Act 1879, or of any other law for the time being in force, by the issue of bonds, debentures, or other certificates, shall, in respect of such loan, be chargeable with a duty of eight annas per centum on the total amount of the bonds, debentures, or other certificates issued by it, & such bonds, debentures [P.T.O.

or other certificates need not be stamped or shall not be chargeable with any further duty on renewal, consolidation, subdivision or otherwise.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) exempting certain bonds, debentures or other certificates from being stamped or from being chargeable with certain further duty, shall apply to the bonds, debentures or other certificates of all outstanding loans of the kinds mentioned therein, and all such bonds, debentures or other certificates shall be valid whether the same are stamped or not:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall exempt the local authority which has issued such bonds, debentures or other certificates from the duty chargeable in respect thereof prior to the 26th day of August 1897, which duty, if not already paid or remitted by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue

(b) when no such provision is applicable thereto—as the Governor-General in Council may by rule direct. Act I. of 1879.

The rules made under this section may, among other matters, regulate—

(1) in the case of each kind of instrument—the description of stamps which may be used,

(2) in the case of instruments stamped with impressed stamps—the number of stamps which may be used,

(3) in the case of hundis—the size of the paper on which they are written.

Use of adhesive stamps.

10. The following instruments may be stamped with adhesive stamps, namely :—

(a) instruments chargeable with the duty of one anna, except parts of bills of exchange payable otherwise than on demand and drawn in sets ;

(b) bills of exchange, cheques, and promissory notes drawn or made out of British India ;

(c) entry as an advocate, vakil, or attorney on the roll of a High Court ;

(d) notarial acts ; and (e) transfers by endorsement of shares of public Companies and Associations.

Cancellation of adhesive stamps.

11. Whoever affixes any adhesive stamp to any instrument chargeable with duty, and which has been executed by any person, shall, when affixing such stamp, cancel the same so that it cannot be used again ; and whoever executes any instrument on any paper bearing an adhesive stamp shall at the time of execution, unless such stamp has been already cancelled in manner aforesaid, cancel the same so that it cannot be used again.

Any instrument bearing an adhesive stamp which has not been cancelled so that it cannot be used again shall, so far as such stamp is concerned, be deemed to be unstamped.

How instruments stamped with impressed stamps are to be written.

12. Every instrument written upon paper stamped with an impressed stamp shall be written in such manner that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument, and cannot be used for or applied to any other instrument.

Only one instrument to be on same stamp.

13. No second instrument chargeable with duty shall be written upon a piece of stamped paper upon which an instrument chargeable with duty has already been written : provided that nothing in this section shall prevent any endorsement which is duly stamped or is not chargeable with duty being made upon any instrument for the purpose of transferring any right created or evidenced thereby, or of acknowledging the receipt of any money or goods the payment or delivery of which is secured thereby.

Instrument written contrary to section 12 or 13 deemed unstamped.

14. Every instrument written in contravention of section 12 or 13 shall be deemed to be unstamped.

Denoting duty.

15. Where the duty with which an instrument is chargeable, or its exemption from duty depends in any manner upon the duty actually paid in respect of another instrument, the payment of such last-mentioned duty shall, if application be made in writing to the Collector for that purpose, and on production of both the instruments, be denoted upon such first-mentioned instrument in such manner as the Governor-General in Council may by rule prescribe.

Act I. of 1879.

C.—Of the time of Stamping Instruments.

Instruments executed in British India.

16. All instruments chargeable with duty, and executed by any person in British India, shall be stamped before or at the time of execution.

Instruments other than bills, cheques, and notes executed out of British India.

17. Every instrument chargeable with duty executed only out of British India, and not being a bill of exchange, cheque, or promissory note, may be stamped within three months after it has been first received in British India; or, where such instrument cannot, with reference to the description of stamp prescribed therefor, be duly stamped by a private person, it may be taken within the said period of three months to the Collector, and he shall stamp the same, in such manner as the Governor-General in Council may by rule prescribe with a stamp of such value as the person so taking such instrument may require and pay for.

Bills, cheques, and notes drawn out of British India.

18. The first holder in British India of any bill of exchange, cheque, or promissory note drawn or made out of British India, shall, before he presents the same for acceptance or payment, or endorses, transfers, or otherwise negotiates the same in British India, affix thereto the proper stamp, and cancel the same:

Provided that, if, at the time, any such bill, cheque, or note, comes into the hands of any holder thereof in British India, the proper adhesive stamp is affixed thereto, and cancelled in manner prescribed by section 11, and such holder has no reason to believe that such stamp was affixed or cancelled otherwise than by the person and at the time required by this Act, such stamp shall, so far as relates to such holder, be deemed to have been duly affixed and cancelled. But nothing contained in this proviso shall relieve any person from any penalty incurred by him for omitting to affix or cancel a stamp.

D.—Of Valuations for Duty.

Conversion of amount expressed in certain currencies.

19. Where an instrument is chargeable with ad-valorem duty in respect of an amount expressed in pounds sterling, pounds currency, francs, or dollars, such duty shall be calculated on the value of such money in the currency of British India according to the following scale:—

One pound sterling or pound currency is equivalent to ten rupees:

One hundred francs are equivalent to forty rupees:

One Mexican or China dollar is equivalent to two rupees four annas.

Conversion of amount expressed in other foreign currencies.

20. Where an instrument is chargeable with ad-valorem duty in respect of any money expressed in any other foreign or colonial currency, such duty shall be calculated on the value of such money in the currency of British India according to the current rate of exchange on the day of the date of the instrument.

Stock and marketable securities how to be valued.

21. Where an instrument is chargeable with ad-valorem duty in respect of any stock or of any marketable security, such duty shall be calculated on the value of such stock or security according to the average price thereof on the day of the date of the instrument.

Act I. of 1879.

22. Where an instrument contains a statement of current rate of exchange, or average price, as the case may require, and is stamped in accordance with such statement, it shall, so far as regards the subject-matter of such statement, be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to be duly stamped.

Effect of statement of rate of exchange or average price.

23. Where interest is expressly made payable by the terms of an instrument, such instrument shall not be chargeable with duty higher than that with which it would have been chargeable, had no mention of interest been made therein.

Instruments reserving interest.

24. Where any property is transferred to any person in consideration, wholly or in part, of any debt due to him, or subject, either certainly or contingently, to the payment or transfer of any money or stock, whether being or constituting a charge or incumbrance upon the property or not, such debt, money, or stock, is to be deemed the whole or part, as the case may be, of the consideration in respect whereof the transfer is chargeable with ad-valorem duty.

How transfer in consideration of debt, or subject to future payment, &c., to be charged.

25. Where an instrument is executed to secure the payment of an annuity, or other sum payable periodically, or where the consideration for a conveyance is an annuity or other sum payable periodically, the amount secured by such instrument, or the consideration for such conveyance (as the case may be), shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be—

Valuation in case of annuity, &c.

(a) where the sum is payable for a definite period, so that the total amount to be paid can be previously ascertained—such total amount;

(b) where the sum is payable in perpetuity or for an indefinite time not terminable with any life in being at the date of such instrument or conveyance—the total amount which, according to the terms of such instrument or conveyance, will or may be payable during the period of twenty years next after the date of such instrument or conveyance; and

(c) where the sum is payable for an indefinite time terminable with any life in being at the date of such instrument or conveyance—the total amount which will or may be payable as aforesaid during the period of twelve years next after the date of such instrument or conveyance.

26. Where the amount or value of the subject-matter of any instrument chargeable with ad-valorem duty cannot be, or (in the case of an instrument executed before this Act comes into force) could not have been, ascertained, at the date of its execution or first execution, nothing shall be claimable under such instrument more than the highest amount or value for which, if stated in an instrument of the same description, the stamp actually used would, at the date of such execution, have been sufficient.

Stamp where value of subject-matter is indeterminate.

27. The consideration (if any) and all other facts and circumstances affecting the chargeability of any instrument with duty or the amount of the duty with which it is chargeable, shall be fully and truly set forth therein.

Facts affecting duty to be set forth in instrument.

28. (a) Where any property has been contracted to be sold for one consideration for the whole, and is conveyed to the purchaser in separate parts by different instruments, the consideration shall be apportioned in such manner as the parties think fit, so

Direction as to duty in case of certain conveyances.

Act I. of 1879.

that a distinct consideration for each separate part is set forth in the conveyance relating thereto, and such conveyance shall be chargeable with ad-valorem duty, in respect of such distinct consideration.

(b) Where property contracted to be purchased for one consideration for the whole by two or more persons jointly, or by any person for himself and others, or wholly for others, is conveyed in parts by separate instruments to the persons by or for whom the same was purchased, for distinct parts of the consideration, the conveyance of each separate part shall be chargeable with ad-valorem duty in respect of the distinct part of the consideration therein specified.

(c) Where a person having contracted for the purchase of any property, but not having obtained a conveyance thereof, contracts to sell the same to any other person, and the property is in consequence conveyed immediately to the sub-purchaser, the conveyance shall be chargeable with ad-valorem duty in respect of the consideration for the sale by the original purchaser to the sub-purchaser.

(d) Where a person having contracted for the purchase of any property, but not having obtained a conveyance thereof, contracts to sell the whole, or any part thereof, to any other person or persons, and the property is in consequence conveyed by the original seller to different persons in parts, the conveyance of each part sold to a sub-purchaser shall be chargeable with ad-valorem duty in respect only of the consideration paid by such sub-purchaser, without regard to the amount or value of the original consideration, and the conveyance of the residue (if any) of such property to the original purchaser shall be chargeable with ad-valorem duty in respect only of the excess of the original consideration over the aggregate of the considerations paid by the sub-purchasers:

Provided that the duty on such last-mentioned conveyance shall in no case be less than one rupee.

(e) Where a sub-purchaser takes an actual conveyance of the interest of the person immediately selling to him, which is chargeable with ad-valorem duty in respect of the consideration paid by him, and is duly stamped accordingly, any conveyance to be afterwards made to him of the same property by the original seller shall be chargeable with a duty equal to that which would be chargeable on a conveyance for the consideration obtained by such original seller; or, where such duty would exceed five rupees, with a duty of five rupees.

E.—Duty by whom payable.

Duties by whom payable.

29. In the absence of an agreement to the contrary, the expense of providing the proper stamp shall be borne—

(a) in the case of any instrument described in numbers 2, 11, 13, 14, 15, 24, 28, 29, 30, 44, 53, 54, 55, 57, and 60 (a) and (b) of the first schedule—by the person drawing, making, or executing such instrument:

(b) in the case of a policy of insurance—by the insured:

(c) in the case of a conveyance—by the grantee; in the case of a lease or agreement to lease—by the lessee or intended lessee:

(d) in the case of a counterpart of a lease—by the lessor:

(e) in the case of an instrument of partition—by the parties thereto in proportion to their respective shares in the property comprised therein, or, when the partition is made in execution of an order passed by a Revenue Authority, in such proportion as such Authority directs;

(f) in the case of an instrument of exchange—by the parties in equal shares; and Act I. of 1879.

(g) in the case of a certificate of sale—by the purchaser of the property to which such certificate relates.

CHAPTER III.

ADJUDICATION AS TO STAMPS.

30. When any instrument, whether executed or not, and whether previously stamped or not, is brought to the Collector, and the person bringing it applies to have the opinion of that officer as to the duty (if any) with which it is chargeable, and pays a fee of such amount (not exceeding five rupees, and not less than eight annas) as the Collector may in each case direct, the Collector shall determine the duty (if any) with which, in his judgment, the instrument is chargeable;

Adjudication as to proper stamp.

and may, for that purpose, require to be furnished with an abstract of the instrument, and also with such affidavit or other evidence as he may deem necessary to prove that all the facts and circumstances affecting the chargeability of the instrument with duty, or the amount of the duty with which it is chargeable, are fully and truly set forth therein, and may refuse to proceed upon any such application until such abstract and evidence have been furnished accordingly:

Collector may call for abstract and evidence.

Provided that no evidence furnished in pursuance of this section shall be used against any person in any civil proceeding, except in an enquiry as to the duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable; and every person by whom any such evidence is furnished shall, on payment of the full duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable, be relieved from any penalty he may have incurred under this Act by reason of the omission to state truly in such instrument any of the facts or circumstances aforesaid.

Proviso.

31. When an instrument brought to the Collector under section 30 is, in his opinion, one of a description chargeable with duty, and Certificate by Collector.

(a) the Collector determines that it is already fully stamped, or

(b) the duty determined by the Collector under section 30, or such a sum as, with the duty already paid in respect of the instrument, is equal to the duty so determined, has been paid, the Collector shall certify, by endorsement on such instrument, that the full duty (stating the amount) with which it is chargeable has been paid.

When such instrument is, in his opinion, not chargeable with duty, the Collector shall certify, in manner aforesaid, that such instrument is not so chargeable.

Any instrument upon which an endorsement has been made under this section shall be deemed to be duly stamped or not chargeable with duty, as the case may be; and, if chargeable with duty, shall be receivable in evidence or otherwise, and may be acted upon and registered as if it had been originally duly stamped:

Nothing in this section shall authorize the Collector to endorse—any instrument executed or first executed in British India, and brought to him after the expiration of one month from the date of its execution or first execution (as the case may be);

Act I. of 1879.

any instrument executed or first executed out of British India, and brought to him after the expiration of three months after it has been first received in British India; or any instrument chargeable with the duty of one anna, or any bill of exchange or promissory note, when brought to him after the drawing or execution thereof on paper not duly stamped.

Payment of fees under section 30 how made.

32. Every payment of a fee under section 30 shall be made in stamps or cash, as the Governor-General in Council may by rule direct.

CHAPTER IV.

INSTRUMENTS NOT DULY STAMPED.

Examination and impounding of instruments.

33. Every person having, by law or consent of parties, authority to receive evidence, and every person in charge of a public office, except an officer of police, before whom any instrument chargeable, in his opinion, with duty is produced or comes, in the performance of his functions, shall, if it appears to him that such instrument is not duly stamped, impound the same.

For that purpose every such person shall examine every instrument so chargeable and so produced or coming before him, in order to ascertain whether it is stamped with a stamp of the value and description required by the law in force in British India when such instrument was executed or first executed:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to require any Magistrate or Judge of a Criminal Court to examine or impound any instrument coming before him in the course of any proceeding other than a proceeding under chapter 40* or chapter 41† of the Code of Criminal Procedure,‡ or chapter 18† of the Presidency-Magistrates' Act:

Provided also that, in the case of a Judge of a High Court, the duty of examining and impounding any instrument under this section may be delegated to such officer as the Court appoints in this behalf.

The Local Government may, from time to time, in cases of doubt, determine who shall be deemed to be, for the purpose of this section, persons in charge of public offices.

Instruments not duly stamped inadmissible in evidence, &c.

34. No instrument chargeable with duty shall be admitted in evidence for any purpose by any person having, by law or consent of parties, authority to receive evidence, or shall be acted upon, registered, or authenticated by any such person or by any public officer, unless such instrument is duly stamped:

Proviso.

Provided that—

† Corresponding with Chap. XXXVI. (Maintenance of Wives and Children) of Act X. of 1882.

‡ See Act X. of 1882, s. 3.

1st, any such instrument, not being an instrument chargeable with a duty of one anna only, or a bill of exchange or promissory note, shall, subject to all just exceptions, be admitted in evidence on payment of the duty with which the same is chargeable, or (in the case of an instrument insufficiently stamped) of the amount required to make up such duty, together with a penalty of five rupees, or, when ten times the amount of the proper duty or deficient portion thereof exceeds five rupees, of a sum equal to ten times such duty or portion;

Instruments admissible on payment of duty and penalty,

2nd, nothing herein contained shall prevent the admission of any instrument in evidence in any proceeding in a Criminal Court other than a proceeding under chapter 40* or chapter 41† of the Code of Criminal Procedure,‡ or chapter 18† of the Presidency Magistrates Act; and in certain criminal proceedings.

3rd, when an instrument has been admitted in evidence, such admission shall not, except as provided in section 50, be called in question at any stage of the same suit or proceeding, on the ground that the instrument has not been duly stamped.

Admission of instrument not to be questioned.

35. When the person impounding an instrument under section 33 has, by law or consent of parties, authority to receive evidence, and admits such instrument in evidence upon payment of a penalty as provided by section 34, he shall send to the Collector an authenticated copy of such instrument, together with a certificate in writing, stating the amount of the duty and penalty levied in respect thereof, and shall send such amount to the Collector, or to such person as he may appoint in this behalf.

Instruments impounded how dealt with.

In every other case, the person so impounding an instrument shall send it in original to the Collector.

36. When a copy of an instrument is sent to a Collector under the first paragraph of section 35, he may, if he thinks fit, upon application made to him in this behalf, refund any portion of the penalty in excess of five rupees which has been paid in respect of such instrument, or, when such instrument has been impounded only because it has been written in contravention of section 12 or section 13, he may refund the whole penalty so paid.

Collector's power to refund penalty paid under section 35, 1st para.

37. When the Collector impounds any instrument under section 33, or receives any instrument sent to him under the second clause of section 35, he shall adopt the following procedure:—

Collector's power to stamp instruments impounded.

(a.) If he is of opinion that such instrument is duly stamped, or is not chargeable with duty, he shall certify, by endorsement thereon, that it is duly stamped, or that it is not so chargeable (as the case may be), and shall, upon application made to him in this behalf, deliver such instrument to the person from whose possession it came into the hands of the officer impounding it, or as such person may direct;

---

* Corresponding with Chap. XII. (Disputes as to Immoveable Property) of Act X. of 1882.

† Corresponding with Chap. XXXVI. (Maintenance of Wives and Children) of Act X. of 1882.

‡ See Act X. of 1882, s. 3.

Act I. of 1879.

(b.) If the Collector is of opinion that such instrument is chargeable with duty, and is not duly stamped, he shall require the payment of the proper duty, or the amount required to make up the same, together with a penalty of five rupees: or, if ten times the amount of the proper duty or of the deficient portion thereof exceeds five rupees, then such penalty, not less than five rupees, and not more than ten times the amount of such duty or portion, as he thinks fit:

Provided that, when such instrument has been impounded only because it has been written in contravention of section 12 or section 13, the Collector may, if he thinks fit, remit the whole penalty prescribed by this section.

Every certificate under clause (a) of this section shall, for the purposes of this Act, be conclusive evidence of the matters stated therein.

Nothing in this section applies to an instrument chargeable with a duty of one anna only, or to a bill of exchange or promissory note.

Instruments unduly stamped by accident.

38. If any instrument chargeable with duty, and which is not duly stamped, is produced by any person of his own motion before the Collector within one year from the date of its execution or first execution, and such person brings to the notice of the Collector the fact that such instrument is not duly stamped, and offers to pay to the Collector the amount of the proper duty, or the amount required to make up the same, and the Collector is satisfied that the omission to duly stamp such instrument has been occasioned by accident, mistake, or urgent necessity, he may, instead of proceeding under sections 33 and 37, receive such amount, and proceed as next hereinafter prescribed.

Nothing in this section applies to an instrument chargeable with a duty of one anna only, or to a bill of exchange or promissory note.

Endorsement of instruments on which duty has been paid under section 34, 37, or 38.

39. When the duty and penalty (if any) leviable in respect of any instrument have been paid under section 34, section 37, or section 38, the person admitting such instrument in evidence, or the Collector (as the case may be), shall certify, by endorsement thereon, that the proper duty, or (as the case may be) the proper duty and penalty (stating the amount of each), have been levied in respect thereof, and the name and residence of the person paying them.

Every instrument so endorsed shall thereupon be admissible in evidence, and may be registered and acted upon and authenticated as if it had been duly stamped, and shall be delivered on his application in this behalf to the person from whose possession it came into the hands of the officer impounding it or as such person may direct:

Provided that no instrument which has been admitted in evidence upon payment of duty and a penalty under section 34 shall be so delivered before the expiration of one month from the date of such impounding, or if the Collector has certified that its further detention is necessary, and has not cancelled such certificate:

Provided also that nothing in this section shall affect the Code of Civil Procedure, section 144, clause 3.*

Prosecution for offence against stamp-law.

40. The payment of a penalty under this chapter in respect of an instrument shall not bar the prosecution of any person who appears to have committed an offence against the stamp-law in respect of such instrument:

* See Act XIV. of 1882, s. 3.

But no such prosecution shall be instituted in the case of any instrument in respect of which such a penalty has been paid, unless it appears to the Collector that the offence was committed with an intention of evading payment of the proper duty.

Proviso.

41. When any duty or penalty is paid, under section 34, section 37, or section 38, by any person in respect of an instrument, and by agreement, or under the provisions of section 29, or any other enactment in force at the time such instrument was executed, some other person was bound to bear the expense of providing the proper stamp for such instrument, the first-mentioned person shall be entitled to recover from such other person the amount of the duty or penalty so paid; and for the purpose of such recovery any certificate granted in respect of such instrument under section 39 shall be conclusive evidence of the matters therein certified.

Persons paying duty or penalty may recover same in certain cases.

42. When any penalty is paid under section 34 or 37, the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may, upon application in writing made within one year from the date of the payment, refund such penalty wholly or in part.

Remission of penalty paid under section 34 or 37.

43. If any instrument sent to a Collector under the second paragraph of section 35 be lost, destroyed, or damaged during transmission, the person sending the same shall not be liable for such loss, destruction, or damage.

Non-liability for loss of instruments sent under section 35.

When any instrument is about to be so sent, the person from whose possession it came into the hands of the person impounding the same may require a copy thereof to be made at the expense of such first-mentioned person, and authenticated by the person impounding such instrument.

Copy may be made of instruments so sent.

44. When any bill of exchange or promissory note chargeable with the duty of one anna, or any cheque, is presented for payment unstamped, the person to whom it is so presented may affix thereto the necessary adhesive stamp, and, upon cancelling the same in manner hereinbefore provided, may pay the sum payable upon such bill, note, or cheque, and may charge the duty against the person who ought to have paid the same, or deduct it from the sum payable as aforesaid, and such bill, note, or cheque, shall, so far as respects the duty, be deemed good and valid.

Power of payee to stamp bills, notes, and cheques received by him unstamped.

But nothing herein contained shall relieve any person from any penalty he may have incurred in relation to such bill, note, or cheque.

CHAPTER V.

REFERENCE AND REVISION.

45. If any Collector, acting under section 30, section 37, or section 38, feels doubt as to the amount of duty with which any instrument is chargeable, he may draw up a statement of the case, and refer it, with his own opinion thereon, for the decision of the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, and such Authority shall consider the case, and send a copy of its decision to the Col-

Procedure where Collector feels doubt as to duty chargeable.

Act I. of 1879.

lector, and he shall proceed to assess and charge the duty (if any) in conformity with such decision.

Reference by Revenue Authority to High Court.

46. The Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may state any case referred to it under section 45, or otherwise coming to its notice, and refer such case with its own opinion thereon, if the case arises in the territories for the time being administered by the Governor of Fort Saint George in Council or the Governor of Bombay in Council—to the High Court of Judicature at Madras or Bombay, as the case may be: if it arises in the North-Western Provinces or Oudh—to the High Court of Judicature for the North-Western Provinces: if it arises in the territories for the time being administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab—to the Chief Court of the Punjab: if it arises in the Central Provinces—to the High Court of Judicature at Bombay: and if it arises in any other part of British India—to the High Court of Judicature at Fort William.

Every such case shall be decided by not less than three Judges of the High Court or Chief Court to which it is referred, and, in case of difference, the opinion of the majority shall prevail.

Power of Court to call for further particulars.

47. If the High Court or Chief Court is not satisfied that the statements contained in the case are sufficient to enable it to determine the questions raised thereby, the Court may refer the case back to the Revenue Authority by which it was stated, to make such additions thereto or alterations therein as the Court may direct in that behalf.

Procedure in disposing of reference.

48. The High Court or Chief Court, upon the hearing of any such case, shall decide the questions raised thereby, and shall deliver its judgment thereon, containing the grounds on which such decision is founded; and it shall send to the Revenue Authority by which the case was stated a copy of such judgment under the seal of the Court and the signature of the Registrar, and the Revenue Authority shall, on receiving such copy, dispose of the case conformably to such judgment.

Reference by other Courts to High Court.

49. If any Court other than a Court mentioned in section 46 feels doubt as to the amount of duty to be paid in respect of any instrument under the first proviso to section 34, the Judge may draw up a statement in the case, and refer it, with his own opinion thereon, for the decision of the High Court or Chief Court to which, if he were the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, he would, under section 46, refer the same; and such Court shall deal with the case as if it had been referred under section 46, and send a copy of its judgment, under the seal of the Court and the signature of the Registrar, to the Judge making the reference, who shall, on receiving such copy, dispose of the case conformably to such judgment.

References made under this section, when made by a Court subordinate to a District Court, shall be made through the District Court; and, when made by any subordinate Revenue Court, shall be made through the Court immediately superior.

Revision of certain decisions of Courts regarding the sufficiency of stamps.

50. When any Court in the exercise of civil or revenue jurisdiction makes any order admitting any instrument in evidence as duly stamped or as not requiring a stamp, or upon payment of duty and a penalty under section 34, the Court, to which appeals lie from, or references are made by, such first-mentioned Court, may, of its own motion, or on the application of the Collector, take such order into consideration ; and, if it is of opinion that such instrument should not have been admitted in evidence without the payment of duty and penalty under section 34, or without the payment of a higher duty and penalty than those paid, may record a declaration to that effect, and determine the amount of duty with which such instrument is chargeable, and may require any person, in whose possession or power such instrument then is, to produce the same, and may impound the same when produced. Act I. of 1879.

When any declaration has been recorded under this section, the Court recording the same shall send a copy thereof to the Collector, and, where the instrument to which it relates has been impounded or is otherwise in the possession of such Court, shall also send him such instrument ; and thereupon the Collector may, notwithstanding anything contained in the order admitting such instrument in evidence, or in any certificate granted under section 39, or in section 40, prosecute any person for any offence against the stamp-law, which the Collector considers him to have committed in respect of such instrument :

Provided that no such prosecution shall be instituted where the amount (including duty and penalty), which, according to the determination of such Court, was payable in respect of the instrument under section 34, is paid to the Collector, unless he thinks that the offence was committed with an intention of evading payment of the proper duty :

Provided also that, except for the purposes of such prosecution, no declaration made under this section shall affect the validity of any order admitting any instrument in evidence, or of any certificate granted under section 39.

CHAPTER VI.

ALLOWANCES FOR SPOILED STAMPS AND STAMPS NO LONGER REQUIRED.

Allowance for spoiled stamps.

51. Subject to such rules as may be made by the Governor-General in Council as to the evidence which the Collector may require, allowance shall be made by the Collector for impressed stamps spoiled in the cases hereinafter mentioned, namely :—

(a) The stamp on any paper inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, obliterated, or by any means rendered unfit for the purpose intended, before any instrument written thereon is executed by any person :

(b) The stamp used or intended to be used for any bill of exchange, cheque, or promissory note, signed by or on behalf of the drawer or intended drawer, but not delivered out of his hands to the payee or intended payee, or any person on his behalf, or deposited with any person as a security for the payment of money, or in any way negotiated, issued, or put in circulation, or made use of in any other manner, and which, being a bill of exchange or cheque, has not been accepted by the drawee and, provided that the paper on which any such stamp is impressed does not bear any signature, intended as or for the acceptance of any bill of exchange or cheque, to be afterwards written thereon :

(c) The stamp used or intended to be used for any bill of exchange, cheque, or promissory note, signed by, or on behalf of, the drawer thereof, but which, from any omission or error, has been spoiled or rendered useless, although the same, being a bill of exchange or cheque, may have been presented for acceptance, or accepted or endorsed, or, being a promissory note, may have been delivered to the payee : provided that another completed and duly-stamped bill of exchange, cheque, or promissory note, is produced, identical in every particular, except in the correction of such omission or error as aforesaid, with the spoiled bill, cheque, or note :

Act I. of 1879.

(d) The stamp used for any of the following instruments, that is to say—

(1) an instrument executed by any party thereto, but afterwards found by a competent Court to be absolutely void in law from the beginning :

(2) an instrument executed by any person, but afterwards found unfit, by reason of any error or mistake therein, for the purpose originally intended :

(3) an instrument executed by any party thereto, but which, by reason of the death of any person, by whom it is necessary that it should be executed, without having executed the same, or of the refusal of any such person to execute the same, or to advance any money intended to be thereby secured, cannot be completed so as to effect the intended transaction in the form proposed :

(4) an instrument executed by any party thereto, which, for want of the execution thereof by some material party, and his inability or refusal to sign the same, is, in fact, incomplete and insufficient for the purpose for which it was intended :

(5) an instrument executed by any party thereto, which, by reason of the refusal of any person to act under the same, or by the refusal or non-acceptance of any office thereby granted, totally fails of the intended purpose :

(6) an instrument executed by any party thereto, which becomes useless in consequence of the transaction intended to be thereby effected, being effected by some other instrument duly stamped :

(7) an instrument executed by any party thereto, which is inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, and in lieu whereof another instrument made between the same parties and for the same purpose is executed and duly stamped :

Provided that, in the case of an executed instrument—

(a) such instrument is given up to be cancelled :

(b) the application for relief is made within six months after the date of the instrument; or, if it is not dated, within six months after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed, except where, from unavoidable circumstances, any instrument, for which another instrument has been substituted, cannot be given up to be cancelled within the aforesaid period, and in that case within six months after the date or execution of the substituted instrument; and except where the spoiled instrument has been sent out of British India, and in that case within six months after it has been received back in British India :

Provided also that, in the case of stamped paper not having any executed instrument written thereon, the application for relief is made within six months after the stamp has been spoiled as aforesaid.

Allowance for misused stamps.

52. When any person has inadvertently used, for an instrument chargeable with duty, a stamp of a description other than that prescribed for such instrument by the rules made under this Act, or a stamp of greater value than was necessary, or has inadvertently used any stamp for an instrument not chargeable with any duty, or when any stamp used for an instrument has been inadvertently rendered useless under section 14, owing to such instrument having been written in contravention of the provisions of section 12, the Collector may, on application made within six months after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated within six months after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed, and upon the instrument, if chargeable with duty, being re-stamped with the proper duty, cancel and allow as spoiled the stamp so misused or rendered useless.

Allowance under sections 51 and 52 how to be made.

53. In any case in which allowance is made for spoiled or misused stamps, the Collector may give in lieu thereof (a) other stamps of the same description and value, or (b) if required, and he thinks fit, stamps of any other description to the same amount in value, or (c), at his discretion, the same value in money, deducting one anna for each rupee or fraction of a rupee.

Allowance for stamps not required for use.

54. When any person is possessed of a stamp which has not been spoiled or rendered unfit or useless for the purpose intended, but for which he has no immediate use, the Collector shall repay to such person the value of such stamp in money, deducting one anna for each rupee or portion of a rupee, upon such person delivering up the same to be cancelled, and proving to the Collector's satisfaction that it was purchased by such person with a bonâ-fide intention to use it; and that he has paid the full price thereof, and that it was so purchased within the period of six months next preceding the date on which it is so delivered.

CHAPTER VII.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROVISIONS.

Powers to make rules relating to sale of stamps.

55. The Local Government, subject to the control of the Governor-General in Council, may make rules consistent herewith for regulating the supply and sale of stamps and stamped papers, the persons by whom alone such sale is to be conducted, and the duties and remuneration of such persons.

Power to make rules generally to carry out Act.

56. The Governor-General in Council may make rules consistent herewith to carry out generally the purposes of this Act.

Certain powers exerciseable from time to time.

57. All powers to make appointments, rules, and orders conferred by this Act may be exercised from time to time as occasion requires.

Publication of rules.

All rules made under this Act, other than rules made under section 55, shall be published in the Gazette of India, and all rules made under section 55 shall be published in the local Gazette. All rules published as required by this section shall, upon such publication, have the force of law.

Obligation to give receipt in certain cases.

58. Any person receiving any money exceeding twenty rupees in amount, or any bill of exchange, cheque, or promissory note for an amount exceeding twenty rupees, or receiving in satisfaction of a debt any moveable property exceeding twenty rupees in value, shall, on demand by the person paying or delivering such money, bill, cheque, note, or property, give a duly-stamped receipt for the same.

Act I. of 1879.

Saving as to court-fees.

59. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to affect the duties chargeable under any enactment for the time being in force relating to court-fees.*

Act to be translated, indexed, and sold cheaply.

60. Every Local Government shall cause this Act to be carefully translated into the principal vernacular languages of the territories administered by it. A full alphabetical index shall be added to every such translation, and the translation and index shall be printed and sold to the public at a price not exceeding four annas per copy.

CHAPTER VIII.

CRIMINAL OFFENCES AND PROCEDURE.

Penalty for executing, &c., instrument not duly stamped.

61. Any person drawing, making, issuing, endorsing, or transferring, or signing otherwise than as a witness, or presenting for acceptance or payment, or accepting, paying, or receiving payment of, or in any manner negotiating, any bill of exchange, cheque, or promissory note, without the same being duly stamped, any person executing or signing otherwise than as a witness any other instrument chargeable with duty without the same being duly stamped, and any person voting or attempting to vote under any proxy not duly stamped, shall, for every such offence, be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees:

Provided that, when any penalty has been paid in respect of any instrument under section 34, section 37, or section 50, the amount of such penalty shall be allowed in reduction of the fine (if any) subsequently imposed, under this section, in respect of the same instrument, upon the person who paid such penalty.

Penalty for failure to cancel adhesive stamp.

62. Any person required by section 11 to cancel an adhesive stamp, and failing to cancel such stamp in manner prescribed by that section, shall be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

Penalty for omission to comply with provisions of section 27.

63. Any person who, with intent to defraud the Government of any duty,

(a) executes any instrument in which all the facts and circumstances required by section 27 to be set forth in such instrument are not fully and truly set forth, or

(b) being employed or concerned in or about the preparation of any instrument, neglects or omits fully and truly to set forth therein all such facts and circumstances, shall be punished with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees.

Penalty for refusal to give receipt, and for devices to evade duty on receipts.

64. Any person who, being required under section 58 to give a receipt, refuses or neglects to give the same, or who, with intent to defraud the Government of any duty upon a payment of money or delivery of property exceeding twenty rupees in amount or value, gives a receipt for an amount or value not exceeding twenty rupees, or separates or divides the money or property paid or delivered, shall be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

---

* See Act VII. of 1870.

Penalty for not making out policy,

65. Every person who—

(a) receives, or takes credit for, any premium or consideration for any contract of insurance, and does not, within one month after receiving or taking credit for such premium or consideration, make out and execute a duly-stamped policy of such insurance; or

(b) makes, executes, or delivers out any policy which is not duly stamped, or pays or allows in account, or agrees to pay or allow in account, any money upon, or in respect of, any such policy, or making, &c., any policy not duly stamped.

shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

66. Any person drawing or executing a bill of exchange or a policy of marine insurance purporting to be drawn or executed in a set of two or more, and not at the same time drawing or executing on paper duly stamped the whole number of bills or policies of which such bill or policy purports the set to consist, shall be punished with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

Penalty for not drawing full number of bills or marine policies purporting to be in sets.

67. Whoever, with intent to defraud the Government of duty, draws, makes, or issues, any bill of exchange or promissory note bearing a date subsequent to that on which such bill or note is actually drawn or made, and whoever, knowing that such bill or note has been so post-dated, endorses, transfers, presents for acceptance or payment, or accepts, pays, or receives payment of, such bill or note, or in any manner negotiates the same,

Penalty for post-dating bills, &c., and and whoever, with the like intent, practises, or is concerned in any act contrivance, or device not specially provided for by this Act or any other law for the time being in force, for other devices to defraud the revenue.

shall be punished with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

68. Any person appointed to sell stamps who disobeys any rule made under section 55, and any person not so appointed who sells or offers for sale any stamp, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

Penalty for breach of rule relating to sale of stamps and for unauthorized sale.

69. No prosecution in respect of any offence punishable under this Act, or the General Stamp Act, 1869,* or any Act thereby repealed, shall be instituted without the sanction of the Collector or such other officer as the Local Government generally, or the Collector specially, authorizes in that behalf.

Institution and conduct of prosecutions.

The Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, or any officer authorized by it in this behalf, may stay any such prosecution, or compound any such offence.

---

* Repealed by this Act, s. 2, and sch. iii.

Act I. of 1879.

Jurisdiction of Magistrates.

70. No Magistrate other than a Presidency Magistrate and a Magistrate whose powers are not less than those of a Magistrate of the second class shall try any offence under this Act.

Place of trial.

71. Every such offence committed in respect of any instrument may be tried in any district or presidency-town in which such instrument is found, as well as in any district or presidency-town in which such offence might be tried under the law relating to criminal procedure for the time being in force.*

Operation of other laws not barred.

72. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to prevent any person from being prosecuted under any other law for any act or omission which constitutes an offence against this Act or the rules made under it:

Provided that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence.

Act XI. of 1879.

ACT XI. OF 1879.

THE LOCAL AUTHORITIES LOAN ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 21ST JULY 1879.

The Local Authorities Loan Act, 1879.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to re-enact the Local Public Works Loan Act, 1871, with the amendments hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Local Authorities Loan Act, 1879:"

Local extent. Commencement.

It extends to the whole of British India, and shall come into force upon the passing thereof.

Repeal of Act XXIV. of 1871.

2. The Local Public Works Loan Act, 1871, is hereby repealed. But all applications, declarations, authorizations, attachments, loans, and rules made under the said Act shall be deemed to have been made under this Act.

"Local authority."

3. In this Act, "local authority" means any body corporate, municipal committee, or other persons legally entitled to the control or management of any local or municipal fund, or legally entitled to impose any cess, rate, duty, or tax upon any persons within any local area; and

"Funds."

"funds," used with reference to any local authority, includes any local or municipal fund to the control or management of which such authority is legally entitled, and any cess, rate, duty, or tax which such authority is legally entitled to impose, and any property vested in such authority.

Loans for works may be granted on security of funds.

4. Any local authority, desiring to obtain a loan, on the security of its funds or any portion thereof, for the carrying out of any works which it is legally authorized to carry out, may, in manner provided by the rules made by the Governor-General in Council under the power hereinafter conferred, apply to the Local Government for such loan.

Power to Governor-General in Council to make rules.

5. The Governor-General in Council may from time to time make rules consistent with this Act as to—

(1) the nature of the funds on the security of which loans may be made;

(2) the works for which loans may be made;

(3) the manner of making applications for loans;

(4) the inquiries to be made in relation to such loans, and the manner of conducting such inquiries;

(5) the cases and the forms in which particulars of applications and proceedings, and orders thereon, shall be published;

(6) the cases in which the Local Government may make loans without the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, and the cases in which such previous sanction must be obtained;

(7) the manner of recording and enforcing the conditions on which such loans are to be made; Act XI. of 1879.

(8) the manner and time of making loans;

(9) the inspection of any works carried out by means of loans;

(10) the instalments by which loans shall be repaid, the interest to be charged on loans, and the manner and time of repaying loans and of paying the interest thereon;

(11) the sum to be charged against the funds which are to form the security for the loan, as the costs in effecting the loan;

(12) the attachment of such securities, and the manner of disposing of or collecting them;

(13) the accounts to be kept in respect of loans, and as to all other matters incidental to carrying this Act into effect.

All such rules shall be published in the Gazette of India.

Remedy by attachment if loan not repaid.

6. If any loan made under such rules, or any interest or costs due in respect thereof, is or are not repaid according to the conditions of the loan, the Local Government may attach the funds on the security of which the loan was made. After such attachment, no person except an officer appointed in this behalf by the Local Government shall in any way deal with the attached funds; but such officer may do all acts in respect thereof which the borrowers might have done if such attachment had not taken place, and may apply the proceeds in satisfaction of the loan and of all interest and costs due in respect thereof, and of all expenses caused by the attachment and subsequent proceedings:

Attachment not to defeat prior charges legally made.

Provided that no such attachment shall defeat or prejudice any debt for which the funds attached were previously pledged in accordance with law; but all such prior charges shall be paid out of the proceeds of the funds before any part of the proceeds is applied to the satisfaction of a liability incurred under this Act.

Local Government may authorize parties to borrow from private persons under this Act.

7. The Local Government, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, may authorize any local authority which might, under the provisions hereinbefore contained, have borrowed money for any work upon the security of its funds, to borrow money from any other person for such work upon such security; and, if any such loan or the interest thereon is not duly paid, the Local Government shall, upon the application of the lender, attach such funds for his benefit in manner provided by section 6.

Power to make rules in regard to such loans.

The Governor-General in Council may, in respect of loans to be taken under this section, exercise the power conferred by section 5, so far as the same may be applicable to the case of such loans.

Loans not to be effected except under this Act.

8. Except as provided by this Act and the rules made hereunder, no local authority shall for any purpose borrow money upon or otherwise charge its funds; and any contract otherwise made for that purpose after the passing of this Act shall be void:

Act XII. of 1879.

Provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed—

(a) to preclude the Municipality of Calcutta, Madras, or Bombay, or the Trustees of the Port of Bombay, or the Commissioners for making improvements in the Port of Calcutta, or any like body hereafter created for the Port of Madras, from exercising the borrowing powers conferred on them by any special enactment now or hereafter in force;

(b) to preclude any other local authority from exercising the borrowing power (if any) conferred on it by any such enactment with a view to raising money for any purpose other than the carrying out of works;

(c) to affect the power conferred on any local authority by any such enactment to charge its funds by guaranteeing the payment of interest on money to be applied to any purpose to which the funds of the local authority can legally be applied.*

Application of Act to loans existing previous to the fifth of September, 1871.

9. The Secretary of State in Council shall be entitled to the remedy mentioned in section 6 for the recovery of any money lent by him to any local authority before the fifth day of September, 1871, and the interest due on such money; and the Governor-General in Council or the Local Government may declare that any person who, before the said fifth day of September, 1871, has lent money to any local authority, shall be entitled to the said remedy for the recovery of such money, or of the interest due thereon.

ACT XII. OF 1879.

1 to 103. [Repealed by Act XIV. of 1882, s. 3 and Sch. I.]

AND whereas it is also expedient to amend the Indian Registration Act, 1877, in manner hereinafter appearing; It is hereby further enacted as follows:—

Amendment of Act III. of 1877, section 35.

104. In section 35 of the same Act, after the words "person appears," the words "to the registering officer" shall be inserted; and after the words "refuse to register the document," the words "as to the person so denying, appearing, or dead" shall be inserted.

Amendment of section 51.

105. In section 51 of the same Act, for the figures "87," the figures "89" shall be substituted.

Amendment of section 83.

106. In section 83 of the same Act, for the words "Subordinate Magistrate of the first," the words "Magistrate of the second" shall be substituted.

---

* Cl. c. in s. 8 has been added by Act XV. of 1885.

† The portion of this Act which amends the Registration and Limitation Acts has been declared, under the Scheduled Districts Act (XIV. of 1874), to be in force in the following Scheduled Districts in the Chutia Nagpur Division: The Districts of Hazáribágh, Lohárdaga, and Mánbhum, and Pargana Dhálbhum, and the Kolhán in the District of Singbhum.—See Gazette of India, Oct. 22, 1881, Pt. I., p. 504.

Act XII. of 1879.

Amendment of section 89.

107. In section 89 of the same Act, for the words "the certificate," the words "the copy" shall be substituted, and to the same section the following paragraph shall be added (namely):—

"Every Court granting a certificate under section 316 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall send a copy of such certificate to the registering officer within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the whole or any part of the immoveable property comprised in such certificate is situate; and such officer shall file the copy in his Book No. 1."

AND whereas it is also expedient to amend the Indian Limitation Act, 1877, in manner hereinafter appearing; It is hereby further enacted as follows:—

Amendment of Act XV. of 1877, Schedule II.

108. In the second schedule to the said Indian Limitation Act, 1877,— for No. 161, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"161.—For the issue of a notice under section 258 of the same Code* to show cause why the payment or adjustment therein mentioned should not be recorded as certified.	Twenty days ...	When the payment or adjustment is made."

to No. 166, column one, the following words shall be added (namely): "or on the ground that the decree-holder has purchased without the permission of the Court;"

to No. 171, column one, the words "or appellant" shall be added; and in column three, after the word "plaintiff's," the words "or appellant's" shall be inserted; after No. 171, the following shall be inserted (namely):—

Act XIII. of 1879.

ACT XIII. OF 1879.

THE OUDH CIVIL COURTS ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 30TH JULY 1879.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Civil Courts in Oudh.

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to Civil Courts in Oudh; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Short title. 1. This Act may be called "The Oudh Civil Courts Act, 1879:"

Local extent. It extends to all the territories for the time being administered by the Chief Commissioner of Oudh; and Commencement. it shall come into force on the first day of August 1879.

2. [Repeal of enactments.] Repealed by Act XIV. of 1891, s. 11 (2).

"District" defined. 3. In this Act, "district" means the area comprised in the local limits of the jurisdiction of the District Judge.

CHAPTER II.

CONSTITUTION OF COURTS.

Grades of Courts. 4. Besides the Courts established under any other enactment for the time being in force, there shall be four grades of Civil Courts in Oudh (namely):—

(1) the Court of the Munsif;

(2) the Court of the Subordinate Judge;

(3) the Court of the District Judge;

(4) the Court of the Judicial Commissioner.

Number of Judges. 5. The number of District Judges, Subordinate Judges, and Munsifs to be appointed under this Act shall be fixed and may, from time to time, be altered by the Local Government.

Appointment of officers under Act. 6. The Judicial Commissioner shall be appointed by the Local Government, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council.

The District Judges, Subordinate Judges, and Munsifs shall be appointed by the Local Government.*

* In s. 6, the proviso, repealed by Act XIV. of 1891, s. 11 (2), has been omitted.

Act XIII. of 1879.

Additional Judges.

7. When the business pending before any District Judge requires the aid of Additional Judges for its speedy disposal, the Local Government may, upon the recommendation of the Judicial Commissioner, and with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, appoint such Additional Judges as may be requisite.

Such Additional Judges shall perform any of the duties of a Judge under Chapter III. of this Act that the District Judge may, with the sanction of the Judicial Commissioner, assign to them; and in the performance of such duties they shall exercise the same powers as the District Judge.

Temporary charge of office of District Judge.

8. In the event of the death of a District Judge, or of his being incapacitated by illness or otherwise for the performance of his duties, or of his absence from the station at which his Court is held, the Additional Judge, or, if there is no Additional Judge attached to such Court, the Subordinate Judge holding his Court at the same place, shall, without relinquishing his ordinary duties, assume charge of the Judge's office at such station; and shall discharge such of the current duties thereof as are connected with the filing of suits and appeals, the issue of processes, and the like functions; and shall continue in charge of the office until it is resumed by the District Judge, or assumed by an officer duly appointed thereto.

Transfer of proceedings on death, &c., of Subordinate Judge.

9. In the event of the death of a Subordinate Judge, or of his being incapacitated by illness or otherwise for the performance of his duties, or of his absence on leave, when no person is appointed to act for him, the District Judge may transfer all or any of the proceedings pending in the Court of such Subordinate Judge either to his own Court or to the Court of a Subordinate Judge (if any) under his control.

All proceedings transferred under this section shall be disposed of as if they had been instituted in the Court to which they are so transferred.

Principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction.

10. The Court of the District Judge shall be deemed to be the principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction in the district over which his jurisdiction extends.

Control over Civil Courts.

The control over all the Civil Courts in such district is invested in the said District Judge, but subject to the general control of the Judicial Commissioner.

Appointment of ministerial officers of Courts.

11. The Judicial Commissioner and the District Judges, Subordinate Judges, and Munsifs, shall appoint the ministerial officers of their respective Courts:

Provided that, in the case of the Subordinate Judges and Munsifs, such appointments shall require the sanction of the District Judge to whose control they are respectively subject.

Transfer of ministerial officers.

12. The Judicial Commissioner or any District Judge may transfer any ministerial officer from any Court under his control to any other Court under his control.

Seals of Courts.

13. Every Court under this Act shall use a seal of such form and dimensions as are for the time being prescribed by the Local Government.

Act XIII. of 1879.

Place of sitting of Courts.

14. The Local Government may fix, and from time to time alter, the place or places at which any Court under this Act is to be held.

Power to confer Munsif's jurisdiction.

15. The Local Government may, from time to time, by notification in the official Gazette, invest such persons as it thinks fit with the powers of a Munsif, subject to such restrictions in respect of the value of the subject-matter of the suit as may be deemed proper, and withdraw such jurisdiction.

All persons so invested shall be called "Honorary Assistant Commissioners."

All Honorary Assistant Commissioners invested with powers under the Oudh Laws Act, 1876, section 43,* and exercising such powers at the time this Act comes into force, shall be deemed to have been invested with the like powers under this section.

CHAPTER III.

GENERAL JURISDICTION.

Power to fix local limits of jurisdiction.

16. The Local Government shall, by notification in the official Gazette, fix, and may, by like notification, from time to time, vary, the local limits of the jurisdiction of any Civil Court or person invested with the powers of a Civil Court under this Act.

Extent of original jurisdiction of District Judge;

17. Subject to the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure,† section 15, "and of any other enactment for the time being in force,"‡

(a) the jurisdiction of a District Judge extends to all original suits cognizable by the Civil Courts;

(b) the jurisdiction of a Subordinate Judge extends to all suits in which the amount or value of the subject-matter in dispute does not exceed ten thousand rupees; and of Subordinate Judge;

(c) the jurisdiction of a Munsif extends to all suits in which such amount or value does not exceed "one thousand rupees:"§ of Munsif.

"The Local Government may, from time to time, on the recommendation of the Judicial Commissioner, direct, by notification in the official Gazette—

(a) with respect to any Munsif named therein, that his jurisdiction shall extend, subject as aforesaid, to all suits of such value, not exceeding two thousand rupees, as may be specified in the notification, or

(b) with respect to any Subordinate Judge named therein, that his jurisdiction shall extend, subject as aforesaid, to all original suits cognizable by the Civil Courts, and may, from time to time, by like notification, withdraw any jurisdiction so conferred."* Act XIII. of 1879.

Appeals from decrees and orders of Subordinate Judges and Munsifs.

18.† (1) An appeal from a decree or order of a Subordinate Judge in an original suit or proceeding shall, when an appeal is allowed by law, lie—

(a) to the District Judge where the value of the suit in which, or in any proceeding arising out of which, the decree or order was made, did not exceed five thousand rupees, and

(b) to the Judicial Commissioner in any other case.

(2) An appeal from a decree or order of a Munsif shall, when an appeal is allowed by law, lie to the District Judge.

(3) The Judicial Commissioner may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, direct, by notification in the official Gazette, that appeals from all or any of the decrees or orders of any Munsif shall be preferred to such Subordinate Judge as may be mentioned in the notification, and the appeals shall thereupon be preferred accordingly.

Power to refer to Subordinate Judge appeals from Munsifs.

19. Every District Judge may, from time to time, subject to the orders of the Judicial Commissioner, refer to any Subordinate Judge under his control any appeals pending before him from the decrees and orders of Munsifs; and such Subordinate Judge shall hear and dispose of such appeals accordingly.

The District Judge may withdraw any appeals so referred, and hear and dispose of appeals so withdrawn.

Appeals from District and Additional Judges.

20. Appeals from the decrees and orders of District Judges and Additional Judges in original suits and proceedings shall, when such appeals are allowed by law, lie to the Judicial Commissioner.

21. [When Judicial Commissioner may receive second appeal.] Repealed by Act XIV. of 1891, s. 11 (1).

22. [Appeals from decrees, &c., passed before Act comes into force.] Repealed by Act XIV. of 1891, s. 11 (2).

Presiding officer of Court not to try suit, &c., in which he is interested.

23. No presiding officer of any Court having jurisdiction under this Act shall try any suit or appeal in which he is a party or personally interested, or any appeal against a decree or order passed by himself, or shall adjudicate upon any proceeding connected with or arising out of such suit or appeal.

Mode of disposing of such suit, &c.

When any such suit, appeal, or proceeding, comes before any such presiding officer, he shall forthwith transmit the record of the case to the Court to which he is immediately subordinate, with a report of the circumstances attending the reference.

The Superior Court shall thereupon dispose of the case in the manner prescribed by section 25 of the Code of Civil Procedure.‡

Act XIII. of 1879. In the event of an appeal being preferred from a judgment or order passed by a Judicial Commissioner or an Additional Judicial Commissioner in any other capacity, or in which he has any personal interest, the case shall be heard by the Additional Judicial Commissioner or the Judicial Commissioner, as the case may be.*

CHAPTER IV.

SPECIAL JURISDICTION.

Power to invest with Small Cause Court Jurisdiction.

24. The Local Government may invest, within such local limits as it from time to time fixes, any District Judge, Additional Judge; or Subordinate Judge with the jurisdiction of a Judge of a Court of Small Causes for the trial of suits cognizable by such Courts up to the amount of five hundred rupees, and any Munsif with similar jurisdiction up to the amount of "one hundred rupees;"† and may, whenever it thinks fit, withdraw such jurisdiction from the Judge or Munsif so invested.

25. [Power to transfer to Subordinate Judge or Munsif certain proceedings pending before District Judge.] Repealed by Act XIV. of 1891, s. 11 (2).

26. [Disposal of proceedings so transferred.] Repealed by Act XIV. of 1891, s. 11 (2).

Jurisdiction under Divorce Act.

27. For the purposes of the Indian Divorce Act, the "District Judge"‡ shall, throughout the said territories to which this Act applies, be deemed to be the Commissioner of the Division.

CHAPTER V.

MISCONDUCT OF OFFICERS.

Suspension and removal of Judicial Commissioner.

28. The Judicial Commissioner may, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, be suspended or removed by the Local Government.

Suspension or removal of subordinate judicial officers by Local Government.

29. Any District Judge, Additional Judge, Subordinate Judge, or Munsif may be suspended or removed by the Local Government.

Suspension of Subordinate Judge or Munsif by Judicial Commissioner.

30. The Judicial Commissioner may, whenever he sees urgent necessity for so doing, suspend any Subordinate Judge or Munsif under his control.

Whenever the Judicial Commissioner exercises this power, he shall forthwith report to the Local Government the circumstances of the suspension, and the Local Government shall make such order thereon as it thinks fit.

Suspension of Munsif by District Judge.

31. Any District Judge may, whenever he sees urgent necessity for so doing, suspend any Munsif under his control. Act XIII of 1879.

Whenever the District Judge suspends any such Munsif, he shall forthwith send to the Local Government, through the Judicial Commissioner, a full report of the case, with the evidence (if any); and the Local Government shall make such order thereon as it thinks fit.

Removal, &c., of ministerial officers of Judicial Commissioner's Court.

32. The Judicial Commissioner may remove or suspend the ministerial officers of his Court, or fine them in an amount not exceeding one month's salary.

Removal, &c., of ministerial officers of Judges' Courts.

33. The Judicial Commissioner, and, subject only to the general control of the Judicial Commissioner, the Judges of the District Courts, may remove or suspend the ministerial officers of such Courts, or fine them in an amount not exceeding one month's salary.

Removal, &c., of ministerial officers of Subordinate Judges' and Munsifs' Courts.

34. Any Subordinate Judge or Munsif may, by order, remove, or suspend from office, or fine in an amount not exceeding one month's salary, any ministerial officer of his Court who is guilty of any misconduct or neglect in the performance of the duties of his office. And the District Judge, subject only to the general control of the Judicial Commissioner, may, on appeal or otherwise, reverse or modify every such order.

The Judicial Commissioner (or the District Judge within whose jurisdiction such Court is situate) may by order suspend or remove any such ministerial officer.

Recovery of fines.

35. Any fine imposed under this chapter shall, if the order imposing it so directs, be recovered from the offender's salary.

CHAPTER VI.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Petition-writers.

36. The Judicial Commissioner may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, make rules—

(a) declaring what persons shall be permitted to practise as petition-writers in the Civil Courts of Oudh; and (b) regulating the conduct of persons so practising.

Whoever breaks any rule made under this section shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

Bar of redemption-suits when mortgage executed before 13th February 1844.

37. When a mortgagee shall, under or by virtue of a mortgage executed before the thirteenth of February, 1844, have obtained possession of any land comprised in his mortgage, the mortgagor, or any person claiming through him, shall not bring a suit to redeem the mortgage of such land, any subsequent acknowledgment of the title or right to redeem of the mortgagor, or of any person claiming through him, notwithstanding,

Act XIV. of 1879.

Nothing herein contained shall be taken to bar a suit for redemption in any case where, by the instrument of mortgage, a term was fixed within which the property comprised therein might be redeemed, and such term had not expired before the thirteenth day of February, 1856: provided that, if any such term had expired before that day, the suit shall be barred, whatever may have been the date on which the instrument was executed.

Redemption-suits not barred where fixed term for redemption had not expired before 13th February 1856.

38. Subject to such orders as may from time to time be issued by the Governor-General in Council, and to the approval of the Local Government, the Judicial Commissioner shall prepare a list of days to be observed in each year as close holidays in the Court subordinate to him.

Vacations.

Such list shall be published in the local official Gazette, and the said days shall be observed accordingly.

ACT XIV. 1879.

THE HACKNEY-CARRIAGE ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 5TH SEPTEMBER 1879.

An Act for the Regulation and Control of Hackney-carriages in certain Municipalities and Cantonments.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the regulation and control of hackney-carriages in certain municipalities and cantonments; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Hackney-carriage Act, 1879:"

Commencement.

and it shall come into force at once;

but nothing herein contained shall affect any power conferred by any law relating to municipalities,* or any rule, made in exercise of any such power.

Saving.

Interpretation-clause.

2. In this Act—

"Hackney-carriage" means any wheeled vehicle drawn by animals and used for the conveyance of passengers which is kept, or offered, or plies, for hire; and

"Committee" means a Municipal Committee, or a body of Municipal Commissioners, constituted under the provisions of any enactment for the time being in force.

---

* For the law relating to municipalities in the N.-W. P. and Oudh, see Acts XV. of 1873 and XV. of 1883.

Act XIV. of 1879.

Application of Act to municipalities.

3. The Lieutenant-Governors of the North-Western Provinces and the Punjáb, and the Chief Commissioners of Oudh, the Central Provinces, British Burma,* Assam, Ajmere, and Coorg, may, by notification in the official Gazette, apply this Act to any municipality in the territories administered by them respectively.

Power of Committees to make rules.

When this Act has been so applied to any municipality, the Committee of such municipality may, from time to time, make rules for the regulation and control of hackney-carriages within the limits of such municipality, in the manner in which, under the law† for the time being in force, it makes rules or bye-laws for the regulation and control of other matters within such limits.

Confirmation and publication of rules.

Every rule made under this section shall, when confirmed by the Local Government and published for such time and in such manner as the Local Government may, from time to time, prescribe, have the force of law:

Power of Local Government to rescind rules.

Provided that the Local Government may, at any time, rescind any such rule.

Power to make rules for cantonments.

4. The Local Government of any of the said territories may, from time to time, subject to the control of the Governor-General in Council, make rules for the regulation and control of hackney-carriages in any military cantonment situated in the territory administered by it.‡

The Governor-General in Council may, from time to time, make rules for the regulation and control of hackney-carriages in any place in India, but not in British India, in which British troops are cantoned.

All rules made under this section, when published for such time and in such manner as the authority making the same may from time to time prescribe, shall have the force of law.

Power to extend operation of rules beyond limits of municipality or cantonment.

5. The authority making any rules under this Act may extend their operation to any railway-station, or specified part of a road, not more than six miles from the local limits of the municipality or cantonment concerned:

Provided that such extension shall be made, in the case of a municipality with the sanction of the Local Government, and, in the case of a cantonment situate in British India, subject to the control of the Governor-General in Council.

When any rules have been made under this Act for any municipality, the Local Government may, subject to the control of the Governor-General in Council, extend the operation of such rules to any cantonment the boundary of which is not more than six miles distant from the boundary of such municipality.

What rules under sections 3 and 4 may provide for.

6. The rules to be made under section three or section four may, among other matters,—

* This reference to British Burma should now be read as referring to Lower Burma.

† For the laws relating to municipalities in the N.-W. P. and Oudh, see Act XV. of 1873 and Act XV. of 1883. Rules cannot be made under the latter Act in respect of vehicles to which Act XIV. of 1879 applies.—See Act XV. of 1883, s. 55 (4).

‡ Portion repealed by Act XIII. of 1889 is omitted.

Act XIV. of 1879.

(a) direct that no hackney-carriage, or no hackney-carriage of a particular description, shall be let to hire, or taken to ply, or offered for hire, except under a license granted in that behalf;

(b) direct that no person shall act as driver of a hackney-carriage except under a license granted in that behalf;

(c) provide for the issue of the licenses referred to in clauses (a) and (b), prescribe the conditions (if any) on which such licenses shall be granted, and fix the fees (if any) to be paid therefor;

(d) regulate the description of animals, harness, and other things to be used with licensed carriages, and the condition in which such carriages, and the animals, harness, and other things used therewith, shall be kept, and the lights (if any) to be carried after sunset and before sunrise;

(e) provide for the inspection of the premises on which any such carriages, animals, harness, and other things are kept;

(f) fix the time for which such licenses shall continue in force, and the events (if any) upon which within such time they shall be subject to revocation or suspension;

(g) provide for the numbering of such carriages;

(h) determine the times at which, and the circumstances under which, any person keeping a hackney-carriage shall be bound to let or refuse to let such carriage to any person requiring the same;

(i) appoint places as stands for hackney-carriages, and prohibit such carriages waiting for hire except at such places;

(j) limit the rates or fares, as well for time as distance, which may be demanded for the hire of any hackney-carriage, and prescribe the minimum speed at which such carriages when hired by time shall be driven;

(k) limit the number of persons, and the weight of property, which may be conveyed by any such carriage;

(l) require the owner or person in charge of any such carriage to keep a printed list of fares in English and such other language as may be prescribed affixed inside such carriage in such place as may be determined by the rules, and prohibit the destruction or defacement of such list;

(m) require drivers to wear a numbered badge or ticket, and to produce their licenses when required by a Magistrate or other person authorized by the rules in this behalf, and prohibit the transfer or lending of such licenses and badges, and (n) provide for the deposit of property found in such carriages, and the payment of a fee by the owner of such property on the delivery thereof to him.

Penalty for breach of rules.

7. Any person breaking any rule made under this Act shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

Disposal of fees and payment of expenses.

8. The amount of any fees received and the amount of any expenses incurred in giving effect to this Act shall in any municipality be credited and debited respectively to the municipal fund, and in any cantonment where there is a cantonment-fund, to such fund.

Power of Magistrate to decide disputes regarding fares.

9. If any dispute arises between the hirer of any hackney-carriage and the owner or driver of such carriage as to the amount of the fare payable by such hirer under any rule made under this Act, such dispute shall, upon application made in that behalf by either of the disputing parties, be heard and determined by any Magistrate or bench of Magistrates within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such dispute has arisen; and such Magistrate or bench may, besides determining the amount so in dispute, direct that either party shall pay to the other such sum as compensation for loss of time as such Magistrate or bench thinks fit.

Any sum determined to be due or directed to be paid under this section shall be recoverable as if it were a fine.*

The decision of any Magistrate or bench in any case under this section shall be final.

When any such case is heard by a bench, any difference of opinion arising between the members of such bench shall be settled in the same manner as differences of opinion arising between such members in the trial of criminal cases.

In case of dispute, hirer may require driver to take him to Court.

10. If at the time any dispute mentioned in section 9 arises, any Magistrate or bench of Magistrates having jurisdiction in respect of such dispute is sitting within the local limits to which the rules apply, the hirer of the carriage may require the driver thereof to take him in the same to the Court of such Magistrate or bench for the purpose of making an application under that section.

Any driver neglecting or refusing to comply with such requisition shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month, or with fine not exceeding fifty rupees, or with both.

ACT XV. OF 1879.

THE RANGOON PORT COMMISSIONERS ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 12TH SEPTEMBER 1879.

An Act to appoint Commissioners for the Port of Rangoon.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it it expedient to provide for the management of the affairs of the Port of Rangoon, and for that purpose to appoint Commissioners; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Rangoon Port Commissioners Act, 1879."

* As to recovery of fines, see Act I. of 1868, s. 5.

Act XV. of 1879.

Commencement.

and it shall come into force on such date as the Local Government may notify in the local official Gazette.*

Nothing herein contained shall affect the powers conferred on the "Local Government under the Burma Municipal Act, 1884, section 60, clause (c)."†

Interpretation-clause.

2. In this Act, unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context,—.

"Port" means the Port of Rangoon as defined for the purposes of this Act:.

"river" means any flowing water within a radius of eight statute-miles from Soolay Pagoda wharf navigable by vessels, and includes the bank up to high-water mark:

"high-water mark" means a line drawn through the highest points reached by ordinary spring-tides at any season of the year:

"low-water mark" means the lowest point reached by ordinary ebb spring-tides at any season of the year:

"vessel" includes anything made for the conveyance by water of human beings or of property:

"master," when used in relation to any vessel, means any person (except a pilot or harbour-master) having for the time being the charge or control of such vessel:

"pilot" means a person for the time being authorized by the Local Government to pilot vessels:

"owner" includes also any agent to whom a vessel is consigned:

"land" includes the bed of the river below high-water mark, and also things attached to the earth or permanently fastened to anything attached to the earth; and

"commissioners" means the Commissioners appointed under this Act.

Power to define and alter limits of port.

3. The Local Government may, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, by notification in the local official Gazette, define the limits of the port for the purposes of this Act, and may, from time to time, with the like sanction, and by a like notification, alter such limits.‡

Such limits may extend to any part of the navigable approaches to the port, and may include any wharves, quays, stages, jetties, piers, tramways, warehouses, sheds, and other works made on behalf of the public for convenience of traffic, for safety of vessels, or for the improvement, maintenance, and good government of the port or river, whether within or without high-water mark, and (subject to any rights of private property therein) any portion of the shore or bank within fifty yards of high-water mark.

* Act XV. of 1879 came into force on January 1, 1880.—See Burma Gazette, Dec. 20, 1879, Pt. II., p. 283.

† In s. 1, the words quoted have been substituted for the original by Act XI. of 1889, s. 100.

‡ For limits of the port of Rangoon as defined under s. 3, see Burma Gazette, Dec. 22, 1888, Pt. I., p. 591.

CHAPTER II.

OF THE APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL OF THE COMMISSIONERS.

Appointment of Commissioners.

4. The Local Government may, from time to time, appoint persons, either by name or by virtue of their office, to be Commissioners for the Port of Rangoon;

Provided that—

(a) the number of such Commissioners holding office at one and the same time shall not be more than twelve or less than nine:

(b) the number of such Commissioners who are persons holding salaried offices under Government shall not be—

(i) less than four, or more than six, when the total number of Commissioners is eleven or twelve;

(ii) less than three, or more than five, when the total number of Commissioners is nine or ten.

Tenure of office.

5.*(1) If a Commissioner be appointed by virtue of his office, the person for the time being holding the office shall be a Commissioner until the Local Government shall otherwise direct.

(2) Commissioners appointed by name shall hold office for two years and may thereafter be re-appointed; but the Local Government may, at any time, accept the resignation of any such Commissioner.

Removal of Commissioners.

6. Notwithstanding anything in sections 4 and 5, the Local Government may,—

(a) with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council by written order, direct that any Commissioner therein named shall cease from a specified date to be a Commissioner;

(b) by written order direct that any Commissioner therein named who without the written consent of the Local Government, absents himself from six consecutive meetings of the Commissioners, shall cease to be a Commissioner:

and the Commissioner so named shall cease to be a Commissioner accordingly.

Chairman and Vice-chairman.

7. The Local Government may, from time to time, appoint one of the Commissioners to be Chairman and another of the Commissioners to be Vice-chairman, and cancel such appointment. Such Chairman and Vice-chairman respectively shall receive such remuneration, if any, as the Local Government may from time to time determine.

Appointments, &c., to be notified.

8. Every appointment and removal from office made and resignation accepted under sections 4, 5, 6, and 7, shall be notified in the local official Gazette.

---

* S. 5 has been substituted by Act III. of 1892, s. 1.

Act XV. of 1879.

CHAPTER III.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF COMMISSIONERS.

Administration vests in Commissioners.

9. Subject to the powers conferred on, and reserved to, the Governor-General in Council and the Local Government respectively by this Act or any other enactment for the time being in force, the execution and administration of the powers and trusts created and declared by this Act shall be vested in the Commissioners.

Power to hold property.

10. With the previous sanction of the Local Government, the Commissioners may acquire and hold moveable or immoveable property within or without the limits of the port; and, with the same sanction, may lease, mortgage, sell, or exchange such property.

Transfer of Government property to Commissioners.

11. The property specified in Schedule A hereto annexed shall be vested in the Commissioners:

Provided that—

(a) no buildings or other permanent structures shall be erected thereon, except with the sanction of, and in accordance with plans to be previously approved by, the Local Government;

(b) any portion of such property required by Government for a public purpose may be resumed by Government without claim to compensation on the part of the Commissioners, except for buildings or other permanent structures erected thereon with the sanction of the Local Government subsequently to the date on which this Act comes into force;

(c) if any question arises between the Government and the Commissioners as to the boundaries of any portion of such land, the Local Government may define and demarcate such boundaries, and the decision of the Local Government in respect to such boundaries shall be final.

Compensation to municipality for loss of income.

12. As compensation for loss of income heretofore derived from any source of revenue transferred from the municipality of Rangoon to the Commissioners, the Local Government may assign annually to the said municipality, from the money received by the Commissioners, such sum not exceeding the average of such income during the five years next preceding the date on which this Act comes into force, as the Local Government thinks fit.

Acquisition of land.

13. When any land is required for the purposes of this Act, the Local Government may, on the request of the Commissioners, proceed to acquire it under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1870; and on payment by the Commissioners of the compensation awarded under that Act, the land shall vest in the Commissioners.

Property to be in trust.

14. All property vested in, or acquired or held by, and all moneys paid, or payable to, the Commissioners, shall be held and applied by them in trust for the purposes of this Act.

Works to be constructed.

15. The works to be constructed and carried out by the Commissioners may include the following:—

(a) Wharves, quays, stages, jetties, and piers, with all necessary and convenient drains, arches, landing-places, stairs, fences, and approaches;

(b) tramways, warehouses, sheds, engines, and other appliances for conveying, receiving, and storing goods and merchandize landed or to be shipped; Act XV. of 1879.

(c) laying down moorings, and the erection of cranes, scales, and all other necessary appliances for loading and unloading vessels;

(d) reclaiming, enclosing, and raising any part of the bank or bed of the river within the limits of the port;

(e) the construction and application of dredges and other machines for cleaning, deepening, and improving the bed of the river within the limits of the port;

(f) procuring and employing steam-vessels for towing vessels into, out of, in, or upon, the river or the port;

(g) such works without the limits of the port as shall be necessary for the protection of works executed under this Act;

(h) all such other works and appliances as may, in the opinion of the Commissioners, be necessary for carrying out the provisions of this Act.

Power to make port-rules.

16. With the previous sanction of the Local Government, the Commissioners may, from time to time, make rules, consistent with this Act, and with the Indian Ports Act, 1889,* for any of the following purposes (that is to say):—

(a) for regulating, declaring, and defining the wharves, quays, stages, jetties, and piers on and from which goods shall be landed from and shipped in vessels within the port;

(b) for the safe and convenient use of such wharves, quays, stages, jetties, piers, and of landing-places, tramways, warehouses, sheds, and other works in and adjoining the same;

(c) for regulating the reception and removal of goods within and from the premises of the Commissioners, and for declaring the procedure to be followed in taking charge of goods which may have been damaged before landing, or may be alleged to be so damaged;

(d) for the mode of payment of tolls, charges, dues, and rates levied under this Act;

(e) for providing water for ships and for licensing and regulating waterboats within the port.

(f) for the removal of wrecks from the port or the river, and keeping clean the port, the river, the bank of the river, and the works of the Commissioners, and for preventing filth or rubbish being thrown therein or thereon:

(g) for otherwise carrying out the purposes of this Act.

Such rules, when sanctioned by the Local Government, shall be published in the local official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

Control of pilots within the Port.

17. Within the limits of the port, pilots in charge of vessels shall obey all lawful orders issued to them by the Commissioners in respect to such vessels.

Free public landing-places.

18. The Commissioners shall make a sufficient number of landing-places within the port, from and upon which the public shall be permitted to embark and land free of charge.

* This Act has been substituted in s. 16 for Act XII. of 1875.—See Act X. of 1889 s. 2 (3).

Act XV. of 1879.

Removal of bathing and landing-places.

19. The Commissioners may occupy or remove or alter any bathing-place or landing-place within the port, and prohibit the public from resorting to or using the same: provided that the Commissioners shall provide for the use of the public such other bathing-places or landing-places (if any) as the Local Government may direct.

Appliances for shipping, &c., for sea-going vessels.

20. For the expeditious and convenient shipment and landing of goods in and from sea-going vessels within the port, and for the storing of such goods, the Commissioners shall provide and maintain sufficient wharves, quays, stages, jetties, piers, warehouses, and sheds, and sufficient servants and appliances, and shall, by their servants, land and ship all goods from and in any such vessel coming to such wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier, except where there is a lawful excuse for refusing to land or ship such goods, or such vessel is, under any enactment for the time being in force, not entitled to have her cargo shipped or discharged: provided that—

(a) the Commissioners shall not be bound to land, ship, or move any single article or package exceeding ten tons of twenty hundred-weight in weight, except at such special charge as may be agreed on in respect of such article or package;

(b) the Commissioners may, by special agreement with the masters of vessels or the owners of goods, permit goods to be landed and shipped by others than the servants of the Commissioners.

Sea-going vessel compelled to use wharves, &c.

21. When any wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier has been made and completed, with sufficient warehouses, sheds, and appliances for landing and shipping, or for landing or for shipping, goods from and in sea-going vessels, the Commissioners may, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, by a notification published in three consecutive numbers of the local official Gazette, declare that such wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier is ready for receiving, landing, and shipping, or for landing or for shipping, as the case may be, goods from and in sea-going vessels.

From and after such publication the Commissioners may, from time to time, when there is room at such wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier, order to come alongside of such wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier, for the purpose of landing and shipping goods, or for landing or for shipping the same, as the case may be, any sea-going vessel within the port which has not commenced to discharge cargo, or which, being about to take in cargo, has not commenced to take in cargo.

If accommodation sufficient, all sea-going vessels compelled to use wharves, &c.

22. When a sufficient number of wharves, quays, stages, jetties, piers, warehouses, sheds, and appliances have been provided as aforesaid, the Commissioners may, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, by an order published in three consecutive numbers of the local official Gazette, direct that no goods shall be landed or shipped from or in any sea-going vessels within the port, save at such wharves, quays, stages, jetties, and piers, and may, in like manner, alter, vary, or revoke any such order.

Inland vessels compelled to use wharves, &c.

23. When any wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier for receiving, landing, or shipping goods from or in vessels, not being sea-going vessels, has been made and completed by the Commissioners, with sufficient warehouses, sheds, and appliances in that behalf, the Commissioners may, with the sanction of the Local Government, by an order published in three consecutive numbers of the local official Gazette, declare that such wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier is ready for receiving, landing, and shipping goods from or in vessels not being sea-going vessels, and that, within certain prescribed limits within the port to be specified in such order, it shall not be lawful to land or ship any goods from or in any vessel, not being a sea-going vessel of any class specified in such order, except at such wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier, nor for any such vessel while within such limits, to anchor, fasten, or lay within fifty yards of low-water mark without the consent of the Commissioners.

If, after such publication, any such vessel, while within such limits, so anchors, fastens, or lays, the Commissioners may cause the same to be removed out of the said limits.

The Commissioners may, in like manner, with the like sanction, alter, vary, or revoke any such order.

Power to order removal of vessels from wharves, &c.

24. The Commissioners may, by notice in writing, order the master or owner of any vessel to remove such vessel from any wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier, belonging to the Commissioners, and, unless such vessel is removed therefrom within thirty-six hours after service of such notice on the master or owner thereof, the Commissioners may charge in respect of such vessel such sum as they think fit not exceeding one hundred rupees for each day of twenty-four hours or portion of such day after the expiry of such thirty-six hours during which such vessel remains at such wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier.

Power to exempt from obligation to use wharves, &c.

25. Notwithstanding anything contained in sections 21, 22, and 23, the Local Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, from time to time permit certain specified vessels or classes of vessels to discharge or ship cargo, or certain specified cargo or classes of cargo, at such part of the port, in such manner, during such period, subject to such payments, and on such conditions, as the Local Government may think fit, and otherwise grant exemption from the provisions of such sections.

The Local Government may also, by like notification, cancel or modify any such notification.

Discharge of liability on goods landed.

26. Whenever any goods are landed by the Commissioners from any vessel, the Commissioners shall, if so required, give to the master of such vessel a receipt in the form or to the effect set forth in Schedule B hereto annexed, and may, in any such receipt, include all goods landed from such vessel during one day. No master or owner of a vessel from which the goods in respect of which such receipt is given may have been landed shall be liable for any loss or damage to such goods which may occur after they have been so landed.

Wharves, &c., to be appointed under Customs Act.

27. When the Local Government appoints, under the provisions of any Act for the regulation of duties of customs, any wharf, quay, stage, jetty, pier, warehouse, or shed provided under this Act for the use of sea-going vessels to be a wharf for the landing or shipping, or a warehouse for the storing, of goods within the meaning of such Act, the Commissioners shall set apart, maintain, and secure, on or in such wharf, quay, stage, jetty, pier, warehouse, or shed, such portion thereof, or place therein or adjoining thereto, for the use of the officers of Customs, as the Local Government approves of or appoints in that behalf.

Act XV. of 1879.

Dues at customs-wharves, &c.

28. Notwithstanding that any wharf, quay, stage, jetty, pier, warehouse, or shed, or portion thereof, has, under the provisions of the last section, been set apart for the use of the officers of Customs, all dues, rates, tolls, charges, and rents payable under this Act in respect thereof, or for the use thereof, or for the stowage of goods therein, shall be paid and be payable to the Commissioners or to such persons as they may appoint to receive the same.

Private wharves, &c., prohibited.

29. Save as hereinafter provided, no person except the Commissioners shall, after the date on which this Act comes into force, make, erect, or fix, below high-water mark within the port, any wharf, dock, quay, stage, jetty, pier, erection, or mooring.

Any matter or thing so made, erected, or fixed, may be removed by the Commissioners, and the person who has so made, erected, or fixed any such matter or thing shall be punished with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, and with a further fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for every day during which such matter or thing has been permitted to remain so made, erected, or fixed after notice to remove the same has been given to him, and shall also be liable to pay all expenses which may have been incurred by the Commissioners in removing such matter or thing.

Power to permit erection of private wharves, &c., within the port subject to conditions.

30. The Local Government may, by an order in writing, and subject to the conditions contained in the same, permit any person to make, erect, or fix, below high-water mark within the port, any wharf, dock, quay, stage, jetty, pier, erection, or mooring.

Wharves, &c., beyond port limits.

31. In case any wharf, dock, quay, jetty, pier, erection, or mooring, is, after the date on which this Act comes into force, without the consent in writing of the Local Government, made, erected, or fixed, below high-water mark, without the limits, for the time being, of the port, and thereafter the limits of the port are extended so as to include the place in which such wharf, dock, quay, stage, jetty, pier, erection, or mooring has been made, erected, or fixed, the Commissioners may remove, fill up, or destroy such wharf, dock, quay, stage, jetty, pier, erection, or mooring without making any compensation therefor.

Scale of tolls and charges to be framed.

32. The Commissioners shall frame—

(a) a scale of tolls, dues, rates, and charges for the landing and shipment of goods from and in sea-going vessels and vessels not being sea-going vessels respectively at the wharves, quays, stages, jetties, and piers, and for the use of such wharves, quays, stages, jetties, and piers by such vessels, and for the storing and keeping of any goods stored in any premises belonging to the Commissioners, and for the removal of goods, and for the use of any mooring;

(b) a scale of tolls for the use of the said wharves, quays, moorings, stages, jetties, and piers by any such vessels, in case the Commissioners permit the goods to be landed or shipped by others than their own servants; and

(c) a scale of charges for any services to be performed by the Commissioners or their servants in respect of any vessels or goods, or for the use of any works or appliances to be provided by the Commissioners.

Such scales shall be submitted to the Local Government, and, after approval or modification by the Local Government, shall be published by the Commissioners in the local official Gazette.

Subject to the like approval or modification and publication, the Commissioners may, from time to time, alter the said scales.

Every such scale shall be printed in the English and Burmese languages and characters, and shall be hung up, and kept hung up, in some conspicuous place at the several wharves, quays, stages, jetties, piers, warehouses, and sheds.

Commissioners' lien for tolls and charges.

33. For the amount of all tolls, dues, rates, and charges levied under this Act in respect of any goods, the Commissioners shall have a lien on such goods, and shall be entitled to seize and detain the same until such tolls, dues, rates, and charges are fully paid.

Tolls, dues, rates, and charges in respect of goods to be landed shall become payable immediately on the landing of the goods, and, in respect of goods to be removed from the premises of the Commissioners, or to be shipped for export, shall be payable before the goods are removed or shipped.

The lien for such tolls, dues, rates, and charges shall have priority over all other liens and claims, except a lien for freight, primage, and general average where such lien has been preserved in the manner hereinafter provided, and a lien for money payable to Her Majesty or the Secretary of State for India in Council under any law for the time being in force.

Owner's lien for freight.

34. If the master or owner of any vessel, at or before the time of landing from such vessel of any goods at any wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier, gives to the Commissioners notice in writing that such goods are to remain subject to a lien for freight, primage, or general average, of an amount to be mentioned in such notice, such goods shall continue liable, after the landing thereof, to such lien.

Such goods shall be retained either in the warehouses and sheds of the Commissioners, or with the consent of the Chief Officer of Customs, in the public warehouses, at the risk and expense of the owners of the said goods until the lien is discharged as hereinafter mentioned.

Discharge of ship-owners' lien for freight.

35. Upon the production to any officer appointed by the Commissioners in that behalf of a document purporting to be a receipt for, or a release from, the amount of such lien, executed by the person by or on whose behalf such notice has been given, the Commissioners may permit such goods to be removed without regard to such lien: provided they shall have used reasonable care in respect to the authenticity of such document.

Goods may be removed to warehouses.

36. Whenever goods have, without any default on the part of the Commissioners, been left for two clear days on or in any wharf or shed belonging to the Commissioners, the Commissioners may cause such goods to be removed either to any warehouse belonging to them, or, with the consent of the Chief Officer of Customs, to the public warehouses; and the removal to, and detention in, any such warehouse shall be at the risk and expense of the owners of the said goods.

Whenever any goods are so removed, the Commissioners shall give notice to the consignee or owner of such goods of such removal, if his address be known, by letter sent by post to such address or left thereat; and shall also publish in the local official Gazette and in two local newspapers notice of such removal, and shall specify therein the numbers, marks, and descriptions of such goods so far as the same appear; and the consignee or owner of such goods, in addition to the expenses of the removal of the same, shall be liable, in case the goods are removed to any warehouse of the Commissioners, to a charge for warehousing for the time during which the goods shall remain in the said warehouse.

If the goods are removed to the public warehouses, the said consignee or owner shall be liable to the charges for warehousing goods in such public warehouses; and the said goods shall remain subject to all liens to which they would have been liable if they had remained in the possession of the Commissioners, and shall be subject to the power of sale hereinafter given.

Recovery of tolls and charges by sale of goods.

37. If the tolls, dues, rates, and charges payable to the Commissioners in respect of any goods under this Act, are not paid, or if the lien for freight, primage, or general average, where such notice as aforesaid has been given, is not discharged, the Commissioners may, and in the latter event, if required by or on behalf of the person claiming such lien for freight, primage, or general average, shall, at the expiration of four months from the time when the goods were placed in their custody, sell by public auction the said goods or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the amounts hereinafter directed to be paid out of the produce of such sale.

Before making such sale, ten days' notice of the same shall be given by publication thereof in the local official Gazette and in two local newspapers.

If the address of the owner of the goods has been stated on the manifest of the cargo, or in any of the documents which have come into the hands of the Commissioners, or is otherwise known, notice shall also be given to the owner of the goods by letter delivered at such address or sent by the post; but the title of a bonâ-fide purchaser of such goods shall not be invalidated by reason of the omission to send such notice, nor shall any such purchaser be bound to enquire whether such notice has been sent:

Provided that, if such goods are of so perishable a nature as, in the opinion of the officer appointed by the Commissioners in that behalf, to render early or immediate sale necessary or advisable, the Commissioners may, within such period not less than twenty-four hours after the landing of the goods as they think fit, sell by public auction the said goods or such portion of them as aforesaid, in which event such notice, if any, shall be given to the owner of the goods as the urgency of the case admits of.

Application of sale-proceeds.

38. The proceeds of every such sale shall be applied as follows:—

(a) in payment of the expenses of the sale;

(b) in payment, according to their respective priorities, of the liens and claims excepted in section 33 from the priority of the lien of the Commissioners;

(c) in payment of the tolls, dues, rates, and charges of landing, removing, storing, or warehousing the same, and of all other charges due to the Commissioners in respect thereof.

The surplus, if any, shall be paid to the importer, owner, or consignee of the goods, or to his agents, on his applying for the same: provided such application be made within one year from the sale, or reason be shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioners why such application was not so made; and, in case such application shall not be so made nor reason shown, such surplus shall be held by the Commissioners upon trust for the purposes of this Act. Act XV. of 1879.

Recovery of tolls and charges by distraint of vessel.

39. If the master of any vessel in respect of which any tolls, dues, rates, charges, or penalties are payable under this Act, or any rules or orders made in pursuance thereof, refuses or neglects to pay the same or any part thereof on demand, the Commissioners may apply to the Collector of Customs of the port, and such Collector shall distrain or arrest such vessel, and the tackle, apparel, and furniture belonging thereto, or any part thereof, and detain the same until the amount so due to the Commissioners is paid; and, in case any part of the said tolls, dues, rates, charges, or penalties, or of the costs of the distress or arrestment, or of the keeping of the same, remains unpaid for the space of five days next after any such distress or arrestment has been so made, the Collector of Customs may cause the vessel or other thing so distrained or arrested to be sold, and, with the proceeds of such sale, shall satisfy such tolls, dues, rates, charges, or penalties and costs, including the costs of sale remaining unpaid, rendering the surplus (if any) to the master of such vessel on demand.

Port-clearance not to be granted till tolls, &c., are paid.

40. If the Commissioners give to the officer of Government whose duty it is to grant the port-clearance of any vessel a notice stating that an amount therein specified is due in respect of tolls, dues, rates, charges, or penalties chargeable under this Act, or any rules or orders made in pursuance thereof, against such vessel, or by the owner or master of such vessel, in respect thereof, or against or in respect of any goods on board such vessel, such officer shall not grant such port-clearance until the amount so chargeable has been paid.

Compensation for damage to property of Commissioners.

41. In case any damage or mischief is done to any wharves, docks, quays, jetties, stages, piers, or works constructed or acquired by the Commissioners under this Act by any vessel, through the negligence of the master thereof, or of any of the mariners or persons employed therein, any Magistrate of the town of Rangoon may, on the application of the Commissioners, and on declaration by them that payment for such damage or mischief has been refused or has not been made on demand, issue a summons to the master or owner of such vessel, requiring him to attend on a day and at an hour named in the summons to answer touching such damage or mischief.

If, at the time appointed in the summons, and whether the person summoned appears or not, it is proved that the alleged damage was done through such negligence as aforesaid, and that the pecuniary amount of the same does not exceed two hundred rupees, the Magistrate may issue his warrant of distress, under which a sufficient portion of the boats, masts, spars, ropes, cables, anchors, or stores of the vessel, may be seized and sold to cover the expenses of and attending the execution of the distress, and the pecuniary amount of damage as aforesaid, and such amount shall be paid to the Commissioners out of the proceeds of the distress: provided that, if, at the time of the damage or mischief, the vessel was under the orders of a duly-authorized officer belonging to the Pilot Service or the Harbour-Master's or Master-Attendant's Act XV of 1879. Department, the case shall not be cognizable by the Magistrate under this section.

River Police.

42. The Commissioners shall provide such sums as the Local Government may, from time to time, require for the establishment and maintenance of police, to be called "River Police," for the protection of the port, the approaches to the port, and the river. Such sums shall be a first charge on any property vested in, and on any moneys paid or payable to, the Commissioners under this Act.

The River Police shall be enrolled under Act No. V. of 1861 (for the Regulation of Police).

Local Government may delegate powers to survey steamers.

43. The Local Government may, from time to time, delegate to the Commissioners all or any of the powers conferred on the Chief Commissioner of Lower Burma* within the port under the Burmese Steamer Survey Act, 1871,† and may at any time resume the same.

CHAPTER IV.

OF THE GENERAL CONTROL OF GOVERNMENT.

Commissioners' acts subject to approval.

44. All acts and proceedings of the Commissioners shall be subject to the approval of the Local Government; and the Local Government may cancel, suspend, or modify any such acts or proceedings, and may grant exemption from the payment of any tolls, charges, dues, or rates leviable under this Act.

Control over works and expenditure.

45. The Local Government may, from time to time, make rules consistent with this Act as to the cost and class of works which the Commissioners may execute, and the objects to which the receipts of the Commissioners shall be applied.

Local Government may order survey.

46. The Local Government may at any time order a survey and examination of any works of the Commissioners under this Act, or the site thereof; and the cost of such survey or examination shall be borne and paid by the Commissioners.

Local Government may carry out neglected works.

47. If the Commissioners allow any work acquired or constructed by them under this Act to fall into disrepair, or do not complete any work commenced by them or duly estimated for and sanctioned, and do not, after notice given by the Local Government in writing, proceed effectually to repair or complete such work, the Local Government may cause such work to be restored, completed, or constructed, and the cost thereof shall be borne and paid by the Commissioners.

Governor-General in Council may revoke powers of Commissioners.

48. If at any time the Governor-General in Council is satisfied that the purposes intended to be accomplished under this Act have not been, and are not likely to be, properly accomplished by the Commissioners, the Governor-

* Since Upper Burma was placed under the administration of the Chief Commissioner of Lower Burma, this officer is styled Chief Commissioner of Burma.— See Proclamation dated Sep. 25, 1886, Gazette of India, 25th idem, Pt. I., p. 539.

† This Act has been repealed by Act VI. of 1884, s. 3, but see s. 4, ibid.

General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, to be re-published in the local official Gazette, give notice that, unless within six months the Commissioners take measures to the satisfaction of the Governor-General in Council for properly accomplishing such purposes, the powers by this Act conferred on the Commissioners will, at the end of such period, be withdrawn and revoked. [Act XV. of 1879.

On the expiration of the period aforesaid, the Governor-General in Council may, if no such measures to his satisfaction have been taken by the Commissioners, declare such powers to be withdrawn or revoked, and may direct the Local Government to assume such powers; and thereupon such powers shall be withdrawn and revoked accordingly, and all the powers, rights, and authorities, and all the property vested by this Act in the Commissioners, shall thereupon vest in the Local Government.

CHAPTER V.

OF SUITS BY AND AGAINST THE COMMISSIONERS.

Chairman or Vice-chairman to sue.

49. The Commissioners shall sue and be sued in the name of their Chairman or their Vice-chairman.

Commissioners not personally liable.

50. No Commissioner shall be personally liable for any contract made or expense incurred by or on behalf of the Commissioners; but the funds from time to time in the hands of the Commissioners shall be liable for, and chargeable with, all contracts made in manner hereinafter provided.

Commissioners liable for breach of trust.

51. Every Commissioner shall be liable for any misapplication of money entrusted to the Commissioners to which he has been a party, or which happens through, or is facilitated by, the neglect of his duty.

Limitation of suits.

52. No suit shall be brought against the Commissioners or any of their officers, or any person acting under their direction, for anything purporting to be done under this Act until the expiration of one month next after notice in writing has been delivered or left at the office of the Commissioners, or at the place of abode of such person, stating the cause of suit and the name and place of abode of the intending plaintiff.

Unless such notice be proved, the Court shall dismiss the suit.

Every such suit shall be commenced within six months next after the accrual of the right to sue, and not afterwards.

If any person to whom any such notice of suit is given before suit is brought tender sufficient amends to the plaintiff, such plaintiff shall not recover.

Indemnity to Commissioners for acts of Harbour-Masters, &c.

53. The Commissioners shall not be answerable for any act or default of any Master-Attendant or Harbour-Master, or of any Pilot, or of any deputy or assistant of any of the officers above-mentioned, or of any person acting under the authority or direction of any such officer or assistant, done within the limits of the port; nor for any damage sustained by any vessel in consequence of any defect in any of the moorings, hawsers, or other things within the said limits which may be used by such vessel:

Provided that nothing in this section shall protect the Commissioners from a suit in respect of any act done by or under their express order or sanction.

CHAPTER VI.

OF MEETINGS, ESTABLISHMENT, CONTRACTS, AND THE GENERAL CONDUCT OF BUSINESS.

A Commissioner may be secretary.

54. The Commissioners may, if they think fit, elect one of their number to be secretary to the Commissioners.

Seal and place of business.

55. The Commissioners shall have a common seal inscribed "Port Commissioners, Rangoon," and an office where the Commissioners shall meet for the transaction of business.

Monthly meetings and remuneration for attendance.

56. The Commissioners shall meet for the transaction of business at least once in every month; and for attendance at every such meeting the Commissioners shall, subject to such conditions as the Local Government may, from time to time, prescribe, receive such fees as the Local Government may, from time to time, direct: provided that such fees shall not be given for attendance at such meetings oftener than once a month.

Chairman and Vice-chairman to attend.

57. The Chairman and Vice-chairman shall, unless prevented by sickness or other reasonable cause, attend all meetings of the Commissioners.

Ordinary and special meetings.

58. The Chairman, or, in the event of his illness or absence from Rangoon, the Vice-Chairman, may, whenever he thinks fit, and shall upon a requisition made in writing by not less than three Commissioners, convene a meeting of the Commissioners for the transaction of any special business.

Meetings so convened are special meetings; all other meetings are ordinary meetings.

Notice of meetings.

59. At least three days' notice shall be given of every meeting of the Commissioners, and the notice shall state the nature of the business to be transacted.

Conduct of business at meetings.

60. At all meetings of the Commissioners the business shall be conducted in accordance with the following rules:—

(a) the Chairman, or, in his absence, the Vice-Chairman, shall be President; if both be absent, the Commissioners may elect one of their number to be President;

(b) the President may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time;

(c) at special meetings no business shall be transacted other than the special business for the consideration of which the meeting was specially called;

at ordinary meetings any business may be transacted of which due notice has been given; Act XV of 1879.

(d) the quorum necessary for the transaction of business shall be such number, not less than five, as the Commissioners may, from time to time, prescribe, "but no Commissioner who is prohibited, as hereinafter provided, from voting or taking part, in any proceedings shall be counted in the quorum so far as regards such proceedings;"*

(e) all questions which may come before the Commissioners at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. Each Commissioner shall have one vote; and, in case of equality of votes, the President shall have a second or casting vote: "provided that no Commissioner shall vote or take part in any proceedings relating to any loan, contract, or work in which he is pecuniarily interested;"†

(f) minutes of the proceedings at all meetings of the Commissioners shall be drawn up after each meeting, and shall be signed by the President and at least one other member who was present at such meeting; a copy of all such minutes shall, as soon as conveniently may be, be transmitted to the Secretary to the Local Government;

(g)‡ all meetings of the Commissioners shall be open to the public, unless the President shall, in any particular case, otherwise direct.

Mode of giving effect to resolutions.

61. The Commissioners may appoint one or more of their number to carry out their resolutions, and to enforce any of the rules made under the provisions of this Act, or they may appoint a special officer for such purpose.

Proceedings not invalidated by defect of form.

62. No proceedings of the Commissioners at any special or ordinary meeting shall be deemed invalid solely by reason of defect of notice or defect of form.

Schedule of establishment.

63. The Commissioners shall, from time to time, prepare and submit to the Local Government a schedule setting forth the number of officers and servants necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Act, and of the salaries, fees, and allowances which it is proposed to assign to such officers and servants. The Local Government may sanction such schedule, or modify and sanction the same. Every such schedule so sanctioned shall remain in force till some other such schedule has been so prepared and sanctioned.

It shall not be lawful for the Commissioners to employ any officer or servant for any office or employment not sanctioned in such schedule, nor to pay or allow to any officer or servant any salary, allowance, or fee greater than, or beyond, that sanctioned therein.

Nothing in this section applies to artisans, porters, or labourers "or to any officer or servant, the period of whose employment shall not exceed three consecutive months at any one time, and whose salary shall not exceed one hundred rupees a month."§

‡ Cl. g has been added by Act III. of 1892, s. 2 (3).
§ To s. 63 the words quoted have been added by Act III. of 1892, s. 3.

Act XV. of 1879.

Commissioners are public servants.

64. The Commissioners and the servants of the Commissioners, other than artisans, porters, and labourers, shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

Commissioners may make bye-laws.

65. The Commissioners may, from time to time, make bye-laws consistent with this Act for regulating the time and place of their meetings, the conduct of their business, the division of the duties among themselves, the guidance of persons employed by them, the appointment, payment, leave, suspension, and removal of their officers and servants mentioned in the schedule last aforesaid, and for other similar matters.

The making of contracts.

66. Such one of their number as the Commissioners may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, appoint in this behalf, may, for and on behalf of the Commissioners, enter into any contract whereof the value or amount shall not exceed two hundred rupees, in such manner and form as, according to the law for the time being administered in Rangoon, would bind him if such contract were on his own behalf; but every other contract by or on behalf of the Commissioners shall be in writing, and signed by the Chairman or Vice-Chairman and by two other Commissioners, of whom one shall be an ex-officio Commissioner, and shall be sealed with the common seal of the Commissioners: provided that no contract under or by virtue of which a sum greater than ten thousand rupees may in any event be payable by the Commissioners shall be valid without the assent in writing of the Local Government.

No contract, not executed as in this section provided, shall be binding on the Commissioners.

Manner in which work to be sanctioned.

67. No new work, the estimated cost of which exceeds five hundred rupees, shall be commenced by the Commissioners, nor shall any contract be entered into by the Commissioners in respect of any such work, until a plan and estimate thereof has been approved by the Commissioners, at a meeting.

In case the estimated cost of such new work exceeds five thousand rupees, it shall not be commenced, nor shall any contract be entered into in respect of it, until such plan and estimate have been submitted to the Local Government, and sanctioned by it in an order published in the local official Gazette.

And, in case the estimated cost of any such work exceeds fifty thousand rupees, the Local Government shall not sanction the same until such plan and estimate have been submitted to the Governor-General in Council, and approved by him.

Money to be kept in Bank.

68. All moneys raised by and paid to the Commissioners under this Act shall be kept in the Bank of Bengal in Rangoon, and no disbursement of such funds, or any part thereof, shall be made—

(a) in excess of such sum as may, in that behalf, be, from month to month, appropriated by the Commissioners at a meeting; or (b) except under the signature of the Chairman or Vice-Chairman.

Submission of reports, accounts, and estimates.

69. The Commissioners shall annually, or oftener if directed by the Local Government so to do, submit, in such form and at such time as the Local Government may, from time to time, direct—

(a) statements of their receipts and disbursements under this Act; Act XV. of 1879.

(b) reports of all works executed and proceedings taken by them under this Act;

(c) an estimate of their probable receipts for the financial year next following, with proposals for the expenditure of the same.

Audit of accounts and sanction and publication of estimates.

70. The accounts of the Commissioners shall be examined and audited in such manner as the Local Government may, from time to time, direct; and, subject to the provisions of this Act, the estimate of probable receipts, and the proposals for expenditure as aforesaid, may, on submission, be sanctioned by the Local Government, or may be modified or altered, and sanctioned.

An abstract of such estimates and proposals shall, when sanctioned, be published in the local official Gazette.

CHAPTER VII.

PENALTIES.

Commissioners, &c., not to be interested in contracts, &c.

71.* (1) Any officer or servant of the Commissioners who shall directly or indirectly lend money to the Commissioners, or become pecuniarily interested in any contract made by, or on behalf of, the Commissioners, or participate, or agree to participate, in any profits of any work done by order, or on behalf, of the Commissioners, shall forfeit his office or employment, and shall thenceforward be incapable of holding any office or employment under the Commissioners, and shall further be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

(2) Any Commissioner who, without the previous sanction, in writing, of the Local Government, shall, directly or indirectly, lend money to the Commissioners, or become pecuniarily interested in any contract made by, or on behalf of, the Commissioners, or participate, or agree to participate, in any profits of any work done by order, or on behalf, of the Commissioners, and any Commissioner who shall vote or take part in any proceedings relating to any loan, contract, or work in which he is pecuniarily interested, shall forfeit his office as Commissioner, and shall be incapable of re-appointment, and shall further be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees:

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to any Commissioner, or officer, or servant of the Commissioners by reason only of his—

(a) being a shareholder in, or member of, any incorporated or registered company which may lend money to, or make contracts with, or do work for, or on behalf of, the Commissioners; or (b) holding one or more debentures in any loan raised by the Commissioners in open market.

Infringement of section 21, 22, 23, 25 or 30.

72. Whoever infringes any order issued under section 21, 22, or 23, or any condition prescribed under section 25 or 30, shall be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees; and, if the infringement be continuing, with a further fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for every day such order is infringed.

* S. 71 has been substituted by Act III. of 1892, s. 4.

Act XV. of 1879.

Infringement of rules.

73. Whoever infringes any rule framed by the Commissioners under section 16 shall be liable to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees; and, if the infringement be continuing, to a further fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day after notice of such infringement has been given by the Commissioners.

Punishment in default of fine.

74. Whenever any person is sentenced to a fine under this Act, the convicting Court may direct that, in default of payment of the fine, such person shall suffer simple imprisonment for a term which shall not exceed the following scale:—

(a) two months in the case of continuing infringement of section 29;

(b) one month in the case of continuing infringement of sections 21, 22, 23;

(c) fourteen days if the fine does not exceed fifty rupees;

(d) one month if the fine does not exceed one hundred rupees;

(e) two months if the fine exceeds one hundred rupees.

Prosecutions.

75. Prosecutions under this Act may be instituted by the Commissioners or any persons authorized by them in this behalf, and not otherwise.

CHAPTER VIII.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Saving of previous port-regulations.

76. All acts done and proceedings taken by the Strand Bank Committee before this Act comes into force, and all orders, rules, and regulations relating to the port, and to wharves, quays, stages, jetties, piers, landing-places, tolls, charges, rates, and dues within the port, made and issued before this Act comes into force, shall, whenever such acts, proceedings, orders, rules, or regulations would have been lawful if this Act had been in force, be deemed to have been respectively done, taken, made, and issued under the provisions of this Act.

Receiving of dues as revenue.

77. All fees and sums due on account of property for the time being vested in the Commissioners, and all arrears of tolls, charges, rates, and dues imposed under this Act, may be recovered as if they were arrears of land-revenue, in addition to the other modes hereinbefore provided.

SCHEDULE A.

ACT XVI. OF 1879.

THE TRANSPORT OF SALT ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 30TH SEPTEMBER 1879.

An Act to restrict the Transport of Salt by Sea.

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient to restrict the transport of Salt by Sea in manner hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title. 1. This Act may be called "The Transport of Salt Act, 1879:"

Local extent. It extends to the western coast of British India north of Cochin, and to the sea within a distance of a marine league from such coast;

Commencement. and it shall come into force at once.

Penalties for carrying salt in certain vessels. 2. When any salt is carried by sea in any vessel other than a vessel of the burden of three hundred tons and upward, the owner and master of such vessel shall each be punished with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with both.

Act XVI. of 1879.

Exceptions.

3. Nothing in section 2 applies to :

(a) salt covered by a permit granted under "Chapter V. of the Madras Salt Act, 1889, or Chapter V. of the Bombay Salt Act, 1890, or the corresponding law for the time being in force in the territories administered by the Governor of Fort St. George in Council or the Governor of Bombay in Council, as the case may be;"*

(b) salt covered by a pass granted by any officer whom the Governor of Bombay in Council may appoint in this behalf ;

(c) such amount of salt carried on board any vessel for consumption by her crew, or by the passengers or animals (if any) on board, as the Governor of Bombay in Council may, from time to time, exempt from the operation of section 2.

Power of stoppage, search, and arrest.

4. When any officer empowered by the Governor of Bombay in Council, whether by name or office, to act under this section, has reason to believe, from personal knowledge, or from information taken down in writing, that any salt is being carried, or has, within the twenty-four hours next before the requirement first hereinafter mentioned, been carried, in any vessel, so as to render the owner or master of such vessel liable to the penalties prescribed by section 2, he may require such vessel to be brought to, and thereupon may,

(a) enter and search the same ;

(b) require the master of such vessel to produce any documents in his possession relating to such vessel or the cargo thereof ;

(c) seize such vessel if the said officer has reason to believe it liable to confiscation under this Act, and cause it to be brought with its crew and cargo into any port in British India ; and

(d) where salt is found on board such vessel, search and arrest without a warrant any person on board the same who, such officer has reason to believe, is punishable under section 2.

Penalties for resisting officer.

5. Any master of a vessel refusing or neglecting to bring to or to produce his papers when required to do so by an officer acting under section 4, and any person obstructing any such officer in the performance of his duty, may be arrested by such officer without a warrant, and shall be punished with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with both.

Confiscation of vessel and cargo.

6. Every vessel in which salt is carried so as to render the owner or master of such vessel liable to the penalties prescribed by section 2, the cargo on board such vessel and all salt in respect of which an offence under this Act has been committed shall be liable to confiscation.

The confiscation of any vessel under this section shall include her tackle, apparel, and furniture.

---

* In s. 3, cl. a, the words quoted have been substituted for the original by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. II.

Confiscations under this section may be adjudged by the Chief Customs Authority, or by such other officer as the Local Government may, from time to time, appoint in this behalf. Act XVII. of 1879.

Whenever any Customs-officer is satisfied that any article is liable to confiscation under this section, he may seize such article, and shall at once report the seizure to his superior officer for the information of the Chief Customs Authority or such other officer as aforesaid, and such authority or officer may, if satisfied on such report, or after making such enquiry as it or he thinks fit, that the article so seized is liable to confiscation, either declare it to be confiscated, or impose a fine in lieu thereof not exceeding the value of the article.

Jurisdiction.

7. For the purpose of the adjudication of penalties under section 2 or section 5, every offence thereunder may be deemed to have been committed within the limits of the jurisdiction of the Magistrate of any place where the offender is found, or to which, if arrested under section 4 or section 5, he may be brought.

Power to exempt from operation of Act.

8. The Governor-General in Council may from time to time by notification in the Gazette of India, exempt the carriage of salt within any local limits or in any class of vessels from the operation of this Act, and, by like notification, again subject such carriage to the operation of this Act.

ACT XVII. OF 1879.

THE DEKKHAN AGRICULTURISTS' RELIEF ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 29TH OCTOBER 1879.

An Act for the Relief of Indebted Agriculturists in certain parts of the Dekkhan.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to relieve the agricultural classes in certain parts of the Dekkhan from indebtedness; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Dekkhan Agriculturists' Relief Act, 1879 :"

Commencement.

and it shall come into force on the first day of November, 1879.

Local extent.

"This section and"* sections 11, 56, 60, and 62 extend to the whole of British India. The rest of this Act extends only to the districts of Puna, Satára, Sholapur, and Ahmadnagar.

---

* The words quoted have been added by Act XXIII. of 1881, s. 3.

Construction.

2.* In construing this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context, the following rules shall be observed, namely:—

1st.—"Agriculturist" shall be taken to mean a person who, by himself, his servants, or tenants, earns his livelihood wholly or principally by agriculture carried on within the limits of the said districts, or who ordinarily engages personally in agricultural labour within those limits.

Explanations.—(a) An agriculturist who, without any intention of changing his status as such, temporarily ceases to earn his livelihood or to engage personally in agricultural labour as aforesaid, does not thereby cease to be an agriculturist within this definition.

(b) An assignee of Government assessment or a mortgagee is not as such an agriculturist within this definition.

2nd.—In Chapters II., III., IV., and VI., and in section 96, the term "agriculturist," when used with reference to any suit or proceeding, shall be deemed to include also a person who, when any liability incurred by him and forming the subject or part of the subject of that suit or proceeding was so incurred, was an agriculturist as defined in the first rule.

3rd.—An agriculturist shall be deemed to reside where he earns his livelihood or personally engages in agricultural labour as aforesaid.

4th.—"Money" shall be deemed to include agricultural produce, implements, and stock.

Jágirdárs, &c., to be deemed Subordinate Judges.

2A.† Every jágirdár and other authority invested with powers under Bombay Regulation XIII. of 1830 and Act XV. of 1840 shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be a Subordinate Judge of such class as the Local Government may from time to time direct.

CHAPTER II.

OF THE HEARING OF CERTAIN SUITS BY SUBORDINATE JUDGES.

Application of this chapter.

3. The provisions of this chapter shall apply to—

(a) suits for an account, "whatever be the amount or value of the subject-matter thereof,"‡ instituted on or after the first day of November, 1879, by an agriculturist in the Court of a Subordinate Judge under the provisions hereinafter contained, and

(b) suits of the descriptions next hereinafter mentioned, and instituted on or after the same date—

(1) when such suits are heard by Subordinate Judges of the first class, and the subject-matter thereof does not exceed in amount or value five hundred rupees, or

---

* S. 2 has been substituted by s. 3 of Act XXII. of 1882 for the original section as amended by s. 4 of Act XXIII. of 1881.

† S. 2A has been added by Act XXII. of 1882, s. 4.

‡ The words quoted have been inserted by Act XXII. of 1882, s. 5.

(2) when such suits are heard by Subordinate Judges of the second class and the subject-matter thereof does not exceed in amount or value one hundred rupees, or

(3) when such suits are heard by Subordinate Judges of the second class, and the subject-matter thereof exceeds one hundred rupees, but does not exceed five hundred rupees, in amount or value, and the parties to the suits agree that such provisions shall apply thereto.

The descriptions of suits referred to in clause (b) are the following (namely) :—

(w) suits for the recovery of money alleged to be due to the plaintiff—on account of money lent or advanced to, or paid for, the defendant, or as the price of goods sold, or on an account stated between the plaintiff and defendant, or on a written or unwritten engagement for the payment of money not hereinbefore provided for;

(x) suits for the recovery of money due on contracts other than the above, and suits for rent or for moveable property, or for the value of such property, or for damages; and

(y) suits for foreclosure or for the possession of mortgaged property, or for sale of such property, or for foreclosure or sale, when the defendant, or any one of the defendants,* is an agriculturist; and (z) suits for the redemption of mortgaged property when the plaintiff, or, where there are several plaintiffs, any one of the plaintiffs, is an agriculturist.

Certain suits to be instituted in Courts of first-class Subordinate Judges.

4. Where a Subordinate Judge of the first class and a Subordinate Judge of the second class have ordinary jurisdiction in the same local area, every suit referred to in section 3, clause (b), and instituted in such local area, shall, if the amount or value of the subject-matter of such suit exceeds one hundred rupees, and does not exceed five hundred rupees, be instituted in the Court of the Subordinate Judge of the first class.

Subordinate Judges not to act as Judges of Small Cause Courts.

5. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Bombay Civil Courts Act, 1869, section 28, no Subordinate Judge shall be invested with the jurisdiction of a Judge of a Court of Small Causes; and any such jurisdiction heretofore conferred on any Subordinate Judge shall be deemed, except as regards suits instituted before the said first day of November, 1879, to have been withdrawn.

Jurisdiction of Subordinate Judge and Small Cause Court.

6. The Local Government may, from time to time, by notification in the local Gazette, direct that any class of suits which a Subordinate Judge would be precluded from hearing by section 12 of Act XI. of 1865 (to consolidate and amend the law relating to Courts of Small Causes beyond the local limits of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the High Courts of Judicature), shall be heard and determined by him, and not otherwise, and may, by a like notification, cancel any such direction.

* In s. 3, cl. y, the words, "not being merely a surety for the principal debtor," repealed by Act XXIII. of 1881, s. 5, have here been omitted.

Act XVII. of 1879.

Summons to be for final disposal of suit.

7. In every case in which it seems to the Court possible to dispose of a suit at the first hearing, the summons shall be for the final disposal of the suit.

Court to examine defendant as witness.

In every suit the Court shall examine the defendant as a witness, unless for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, it deems it unnecessary so to do.

Written statements.

8. In suits of the descriptions mentioned in section three, clauses (w) and (x), no party shall be entitled, without the permission of the Court, to file a written statement.

Record of evidence.

9. When the subject-matter of any suit does not exceed ten rupees in amount or value, it shall not be necessary to take down the evidence, or make a memorandum thereof in manner provided by the Code of Civil Procedure; but in cases where the evidence is not so taken down, and no memorandum is so made, the substance of the evidence shall be stated in the judgment.

No appeal to lie.

10. No appeal shall lie from any decree or order passed in any suit to which this chapter applies.

CHAPTER III.

OF SUITS AND OTHER PROCEEDINGS TO WHICH AGRICULTURISTS ARE PARTIES.

Agriculturists to be sued where they reside.

11. Every suit of the description mentioned in section 3, clause (w), may, if the defendant, or, when there are several defendants, one only of such defendants, is an agriculturist, be instituted and tried in a Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such defendant resides and not elsewhere.

Every such suit in which there are several defendants who are agriculturists may be instituted and tried in a Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction any one of such defendants resides and not elsewhere.

Nothing herein contained shall affect sections 22 to 25 (both inclusive) of the Code of Civil Procedure.

History of transactions with agriculturist-debtors to be investigated.

12. In any suit of the description mentioned in section 3, clause (w), in which the defendant or any one of the defendants,* is an agriculturist, and in any suit of the descriptions mentioned in section 3, clause (y) or clause (z), the Court shall, if the amount of the creditor's claim is disputed, enquire into the history and merits of the case, from the commencement of the transactions between the parties and the persons (if any) through whom they claim, out of which the suit has arisen, first, with a view to ascertaining whether there is any defence to the suit on the ground of fraud, mistake, accident, undue influence, or otherwise, and, secondly, with a view to taking an account between such parties in manner hereinafter provided.

* In s. 12 the words, "not being merely a surety of the principal debtor," repealed by Act XXIII. of 1881, s. 5, have here been omitted.

When the amount of the claim is admitted, and the Court, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, believes that such admission is true, and is made by the debtor with a full knowledge of his legal rights as against the creditor, the Court shall not be bound so to enquire, but may do so if it thinks fit.

In other cases, in which the amount of the claim is admitted, the Court shall be bound to enquire as aforesaid.

Section 9, clause first, of Bombay Regulation V. of 1827, is repealed, so far as regards any suit to which this section applies.

Nothing herein contained shall affect the right of the parties to require that any matter in difference between them be referred to arbitration.

Mode of taking account.

13. When the Court enquires into the history and merits of a case under section 12, it shall—notwithstanding any agreement between the parties or the persons (if any) through whom they claim, as to allowing compound interest or setting-off the profits of mortgaged property without an account in lieu of interest, or otherwise determining the manner of taking the account, and notwithstanding any statement or settlement of account, or any contract purporting to close previous dealings, and create a new obligation, open the account between the parties from the commencement of the transactions, and take that account according to the following rules (that is to say):—

(a) separate accounts of principal and interest shall be taken:

(b) in the account of principal, there shall be debited to the debtor such money as may from time to time have been actually received by him or on his account from the creditor; and the price of goods, if any, sold to him by the creditor as part of the transactions:

(c) in the account of principal, there shall not be debited to the debtor any money which he may have agreed to pay in contravention of section 257A of the Code of Civil Procedure:

(d) in the account of principal, there shall not be debited to the debtor any accumulated interest which has been converted into principal at any statement or settlement of account, or by any contract made in the course of the transactions, unless the Court, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, deems such debit to be reasonable:

(e) in the account of interest, there shall be debited to the debtor, monthly, simple interest on the balance of principal for the time being outstanding, at the rate allowed by the Court as hereinafter provided:

(f) all money paid by or on account of the debtor to the creditor or on his account, and all profits, service, or other advantages of every description, received by the creditor in the course of the transactions (estimated, if necessary, at such money-value as the Court in its discretion, or with aid of arbitrators appointed by it, may determine), shall be credited first in the account of interest; and when any payment is more than sufficient to discharge the balance of interest due at the time it is made, the residue of such payment shall be credited to the debtor in the account of principal:

(g) the accounts of principal and interest shall be made up to the date of instituting the suit, and the aggregate of the balances (if any) appearing due on both such accounts against the debtor on that date shall be deemed to be the amount due at that date, except when the balance appearing due on the interest-account exceeds that appearing due on the principal-account, in which case double the latter balance shall be deemed to be the amount then due.

Act XVII. of 1879.

Interest to be allowed.

14. The interest to be awai account according to the rules set 13 shall be—

(a) the rate, if any, agreed upon between the parties, (if any) through whom they claim, unless such rate is deem to be unreasonable; or

(b) if such rate is deemed by the Court unreasonable, agreed upon, or, when any agreement between the partie (if any) through whom they claim, to set off profits withc lieu of interest has been set aside by the Court, such rate as reasonable.

Reference to arbitration in certain cases.

15. Instead of enquiring into the history and merits section 12, or if, upon so enqui unable to satisfy itself as to the amo be allowed on account of principal or interest, or both, the own motion, direct that such amount be ascertained by arbi

If the parties are willing to nominate arbitrators, th be nominated by them in such manner as may be agreed up if the parties are unwilling to nominate arbitrators, or cann of such nomination, the Court shall appoint any three perso

Provided that, if all the parties reside in the same villa and, in the opinion of the Court, three fit persons can be residents of such village, town, or city, it shall appoint village, town, or city.

The provisions of sections 508 to 522 (both inclusive) of the Code of Civil Procedure shall apply to every reference to arbitration under this section.

Mortgagor entitled to decree for redemption, though time fixed by mortgage has not arrived, or debt has not been paid.

15A.* In a suit of the description mentioned in section 3, clause (z), the Court shall not refuse to pass a decree for redemption merely on the ground that the time fixed for the payment of the principal of the mortgage-money has not arrived, or on the ground that the mortgage-debt has not been completely discharged, or on both.

Power to order payment by instalments in case of decree for redemption, foreclosure, or sale.

15B.* (1) The Court may, in its discretion, in passing a decree for redemption, foreclosure, or sale in any suit of the descriptions mentioned in section 3, clause (v) or clause (z), or in the course of any proceedings under a decree for redemption, foreclosure, or sale passed in any such suit, whether before or after this Act comes into force, direct that any amount payable by the mortgagor under that decree shall be payable in such instalments, on such dates, and on such terms as to the payment of interest, and, where the mortgagee is in possession, as to the appropriation of the profits and accounting therefor, as it thinks fit.

* Ss. 15A and 15B have been inserted by Act XXII. of 1882, s. 6.

13A. Where the mortgaged property is in the possession of the mortgagor or his tenants other than the mortgagee, & the Court is unable to determine what profits have been actually received it may fix a fair rent for such property & charge the mortgagee subsequent as profits for the purposes of s. 13:

Provided that, if it be proved that in any year there was an entire or serious failure of the crops an abatement of the whole or part of such rent may be allowed for the year.

Act II of 1895 s. 7.

15AA. So far as it may be consistent with the provisions of this act, every decree for redemption or foreclosure of any mortgage & every decree or order for the sale of any mortgaged property made at the instance of a mortgagee thereof shall name such future day, not being less than six months after the date of such decree, as the Court may think reasonable for the payment by the mortgagor of the monies payable under the decree & no such foreclosure shall be made absolute nor shall any such sale take place before the day so named.

Act II of 1895 s. 8

15 b (3) In passing a decree for redemption or foreclosure in any such suit as aforesaid the Court may direct that the amount payable by the mortgagor shall be discharged by continuing the mortgagee in possession for such further period as will enable him to recover his principal with reasonable interest, & that on the expiry of such period the property mortgaged shall be restored to the mortgagor.

(4) When the amount payable to a mortgagee in possession has been determined in any such suit as aforesaid the Court may in its discretion instead of making an order for payment thereof, direct that the mortgagee be continued in possession for such period (to be specified by the Court) as will in the opinion of the Court be sufficient to enable him to recover from the property the amount payable by the mortgagor together with reasonable interest & that on the expiry of such period the property mortgaged shall be restored to the mortgagor.

Act VI of 1895 s. 9.

(2) If a sum payable under any such direction is not paid when due, the Court shall, except for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, instead of making an order for the sale of the entire property mortgaged or for foreclosure, order the sale of such portion only of the property as it may think necessary for the realization of that sum.

Power to order payment by instalments in suits for possession of mortgaged property.

15C.* (1) The Court may, if it thinks fit, in any suit for the possession of mortgaged property under section 3, clause (y), instead of passing a decree for possession of that property, pass a decree directing that the amount payable by the mortgagor shall be payable in such instalments, on such dates, and on such terms as to the payment of interest, and as to the appropriation of the profits and accounting therefor as it thinks fit.

(2) If a sum payable under any such direction is not paid when due, the Court may, if it thinks fit, instead of making any other order which it is empowered to make for the realization of that sum, make an order directing that the mortgagee be put in possession of the whole or any portion of the property mortgaged.

Mortgagor may sue for account.

15D.* (1) Any agriculturist whose property is mortgaged may sue for an account of the amount of principal and interest remaining unpaid on the mortgage, and for a decree declaring that amount.

(2) When any such suit is brought, the amount (if any) remaining unpaid shall be determined under the same rules as would be applicable under this Act if the mortgagee had sued for the recovery of the debt.

(3) At any time before the decree in the suit is signed, the plaintiff may apply to the Court to pass a decree for the redemption of the mortgage, or the mortgagee, if he would then have been entitled to sue for foreclosure or sale, may apply to the Court to pass a decree for foreclosure or sale (as the case may be), instead of a decree merely declaring the amount remaining unpaid; and the Court may, if it thinks fit, grant the application.

(4) The provisions of section 15B shall apply to any decree passed under sub-section (3).

Agriculturist-debtors may sue for accounts.

16. Any agriculturist may sue for an account of money lent or advanced to or paid for him by a creditor, or due by him to the creditor as the price of goods sold, or on a written or unwritten engagement for the payment of money, and of money paid by him to the creditor, and for a decree declaring the amount (if any) still payable by him to the creditor.

Amount of debts in such cases to be determined according to foregoing provisions.

When any such suit is brought, the amount (if any) payable by the plaintiff shall be determined under the same rules as would be applicable under this Act if the creditor had sued him for recovery of the debt.

Decree under section 16 may provide for payment by instalments.

17. A decree passed under section 16 may, besides declaring the amount due, direct that such amount shall be paid by instalments, with or without interest; and, when any such decree so directs, the plaintiff may pay the amount of such decree, or the amount of each instalment fixed by such decree, as it falls due, into Court, in default whereof execution of the decree may be enforced by the Execution of decrees under this section.

* Ss. 15C and 15D have been inserted by Act XXII. of 1882, s. 6.

defendant in the same manner as if he had obtained a decree in a suit to recover the debt.

Payment into Court in cases under section 16.

18. The plaintiff in any suit instituted under section 16 may, at any stage of such suit, deposit in Court such sum of money as he considers a satisfaction in full of the defendant's claim against him.

Notice of the deposit shall be given by the Court to the defendant, and the amount of the deposit shall (unless the Court otherwise directs) be paid to the defendant on his application.

No interest shall be allowed to the defendant on any sum so deposited from the date of the receipt of such notice, whether the sum deposited be in full of the claim or fall short thereof.

Power to discharge judgment-debtor.

19. When a decree has been passed, whether before or after this Act comes into force, under which any sum less than fifty rupees is recoverable from an agriculturist, the Court, "on application or of its own motion,"* may, either in the course of execution of such decree or otherwise, if it is satisfied that "the other debts (if any) due by him do not, taken together with such sum, amount to fifty rupees,"† and that he is unable to pay the whole of such sum, direct the payment of such portion of the same as it considers him able to pay, and grant him a discharge from the balance "of such sum."‡

Power to direct institution of insolvency-proceedings.

When the sum payable under the decree amounts to fifty rupees or upwards, or when there are other debts due by the debtor which, together with such sum, amount to fifty rupees or upwards, the Court, "on application or of its own motion,"* may direct proceedings to be taken with respect to him as nearly as may be as if he had applied to be declared an insolvent under the provisions hereinafter contained.

Power to fix instalments in execution.

20. The Court may at any time direct that the amount of any decree passed, whether before or after this Act comes into force, against an agriculturist, or the portion of the same which it directs under section 19 to be paid, shall be paid by instalments with or without interest.

Arrest and imprisonment in execution of decree for money abolished.

21. No agriculturist shall be arrested or imprisoned in execution of a decree for money "passed whether before or after this Act comes into force."§

Immoveable property exempted from attachment and sale unless specifically pledged.

22. No agriculturist's immoveable property shall be attached or sold in execution of any decree or order "passed whether before or after this Act comes into force,"‖ unless it has been specifically mortgaged for the repayment of the debt to which such decree or order relates, and the security still subsists.

---

* In s. 19 the words quoted have been inserted by Act XXII. of 1882, s. 7.

† In s. 19 the words quoted have been substituted for the words, "there is no other claim against him," by Act XXIII. of 1881, s. 6.

‡ In s. 19 the words quoted have been added by Act XXIII. of 1881, s. 6.

§ In s. 21 the words quoted have been added by Act XXII. of 1882, s. 8.

‖ In s. 22 the words quoted have been inserted by Act XXII. of 1882, s. 9.

But the Court, "on application or of its own motion"* may, when passing a decree against an agriculturist, or "in the course of any proceedings under a decree against an agriculturist passed whether before or after this Act comes into force,"† direct the Collector to take possession, for any period not exceeding seven years, of any such property of the judgment-debtor to the possession of which he is entitled, and which, in the opinion of the Collector, is not required for his support and the support of the members of his family dependent on him, and the Collector shall thereupon take possession of such property and deal with the same for the benefit of the decree-holder in manner provided by section 29. Act XVII. of 1879.

The provisions of section 31 shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to any property so dealt with.

Chapter not to apply to Village-Munsifs' Courts.

23. No provision of this chapter shall apply to the proceedings in the Courts of Village-Munsifs unless such provision has been specially extended thereto under the power hereinafter conferred.

CHAPTER IV.

OF INSOLVENCY.

Subordinate Judges to have jurisdiction in agriculturists' cases.

24. Every Subordinate Judge shall have the powers conferred by sections 344 to 359 (both inclusive) of the Code of Civil Procedure, as modified by the provisions next hereinafter contained, for the purpose of dealing with applications under the Code of Civil Procedure or under this Act to have agriculturists residing within the local limits of his ordinary jurisdiction declared insolvent, and proceedings taken under orders passed under the second clause of section 19; and, except as provided in Chapter VII. of this Act, no such application or proceeding shall be dealt with by any other Court.

Agriculturists may apply for adjudication in cases not provided for by Code.

25. Any agriculturist whose debts (if any) amount to fifty rupees or upwards may apply to any Subordinate Judge within the local limits of whose ordinary jurisdiction he resides to be declared an insolvent, though he has not been arrested or imprisoned, and though no order of attachment has issued against his property, in execution of a decree.

Modification of section 351 of the Code.

26. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 351 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the Court shall declare an agriculturist an insolvent if it is satisfied that he is in insolvent circumstances, and that the application to have him declared an insolvent has been properly made under section 344 of the said Code or section 25 of this Act.

Receiver.

27. No person other than the Nazir of the Court shall be appointed as Receiver, and no Receiver shall be entitled to commission.

Proof of debts.

28. In determining under section 352 of the said Code the amount of any claim of the nature referred to in section 12 of this Act due by an insolvent agriculturist, the

* In s. 22 the words quoted have been inserted by Act XXII. of 1882, s. 9.

† In s. 22 the words quoted have been substituted for the words "at any subsequent time," by Act XXII. of 1882, s. 9.

Act XVII. of 1879.

Court shall proceed in the manner prescribed by sections 12 to 15 of this Act, both inclusive.

Immoveable property not to vest in Receiver, but may be managed for benefit of creditors.

29. No immoveable property of the insolvent shall vest in the Receiver; but the Court, "on application or of its own motion,"* may direct the Collector to take into his possession, for any period not exceeding seven years from the date on which the Receiver has been appointed, any immoveable property to the possession of which the insolvent is entitled, and which, in the opinion of the Collector, is not required for the support of the insolvent and the members of his family dependent on him, and, subject to any rules the Local Government may from time to time make in this behalf, to manage the same for the benefit of the creditors by letting it on lease or otherwise:

Provided that, if the insolvent or his representative in interest at any time pays into Court the balance of the scheduled debts then unpaid, he shall, subject to any rights created in favour of other persons by the Collector, be entitled to recover possession of such property.

A Collector managing property under this section shall, during the management, have all the powers which the owner might, as such, have legally exercised, and shall receive and recover all rents and profits of such property. and for the purpose of recovering such rents and profits shall have, in addition to any powers possessed by an owner, all powers possessed by a Collector for securing and recovering the land-revenue due to Government, except the powers mentioned in the Bombay Land-Revenue Code, 1879, section 150, clauses (b), (d), and (e).

Nothing in this section shall authorize the Court to direct the Collector to take into his possession any houses or other buildings belonging to, and occupied by, an agriculturist.

Secured debts.

30. When any scheduled debt is secured by a mortgage of any portion of the insolvent's immoveable property, the Court, "on application or of its own motion,"† may direct the Collector, if he can obtain a premium equal to the amount of such debt by letting such property for a term not exceeding twenty years, to let such property, and, if he cannot so obtain such premium, to sell such property under section 325 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Where property is let under this section, the premium shall be applied to the payment of the debt, and the rent, (if any) shall, for a period of seven years from the date of such letting, be paid to the Receiver, and thereafter to the insolvent or his representative in interest.

When property is sold under this section, the sale-proceeds shall be applied, first, to the payment of the debt, and the balance (if any) shall be paid to the Receiver.

Insolvent incompetent to sell, &c., property dealt with under sections 29 and 30.

31. So long as any management under section 29 or letting under section 30 continues, the insolvent and his representative in interest shall be incompetent to mortgage, charge, lease, or alienate the property managed or let, or any part thereof.

32. When the balance available for distribution among the scheduled creditors under section 356 of the said Code has been distributed, the claims of such creditors shall be deemed to have been discharged, except as regards the right to share in the profits of any property managed by the Collector under section 29, or let by him under section 30.

Scheduled debts discharged.

33. No appeal shall lie from any order passed under this chapter except orders passed in exercise of the power conferred by section 359 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Appeals barred.

CHAPTER V.

OF VILLAGE-MUNSIFS.

34. The Local Government may, from time to time, appoint any pátel of a village or any other person possessing local influence in a village to be a Village-Munsif for such village, or for such village and for any other villages the sites of which are situate in the same district not more than two miles from the site of such village, and may cancel any such appointment.

Appointment of Village-Munsifs.

35. Every Village-Munsif so appointed shall take cognizance of suits of the description mentioned in section 3, clause (w), when the subject-matter thereof does not exceed ten rupees in amount or value, and all the defendants at the time of the commencement of the suit actually and voluntarily reside or carry on business or personally work for gain within the local area for which such Village-Munsif is appointed.

Suits triable by them.

Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, a suit cognizable by a Village-Munsif shall not be heard by any other Court:

Jurisdiction of other Courts excluded.

Provided that the District Judge may, from time to time, transfer any suit instituted before a Village-Munsif to his own Court or any other Civil Court in the district for trial:

Proviso.

Provided also that no Village-Munsif shall try any suit to or in which he is a party or is personally interested, or shall adjudicate upon any proceeding connected with or arising out of such suit.

36. The District Judge may, on a petition being presented within thirty days from the date of any decree or order of a Village-Munsif by any party deeming himself aggrieved by such decree or order, set aside such decree or order on the ground of corruption, gross partiality, or misconduct of the Village-Munsif, and pass such other decree or order as he thinks fit.

District Judge's power of revision.

Except as provided in this Act and in section 622 of the Code of Civil Procedure, every decree and order of a Village-Munsif shall be final.

37. The Local Government may, from time to time, by notification in the official Gazette, make rules consistent with this Act for regulating the procedure of Village Munsifs and for conferring on them or any of them all or any of the powers for the trial of suits or the execution of decrees exercised by a Civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure or any other enactment for the time being in force.

Power of Local Government to make rules.

CHAPTER VI.

OF CONCILIATION.

Appointment of Conciliators.

38. The Local Government may, from time to time, appoint any person other than an officer of police to be a Conciliator, and may cancel any such appointment.

Every Conciliator appointed under this section shall be appointed only for a term not exceeding three years, but may, on the expiration of the period for which he has been appointed, be again appointed for a further term not exceeding three years.

Every Conciliator so appointed shall exercise his functions under this Act in respect of matters affecting agriculturists residing within such local area as the Local Government may, from time to time, prescribe.

The expression "officer of police" in this section shall not be deemed to include a police pátel appointed under Bombay Act No. VIII. of 1867 (for the Regulation of the Village Police in the Presidency of Bombay).*

Matters which may be brought before Conciliator.

39. When any dispute arises as to, or there is a prospect of litigation regarding, any matter within the cognizance of a Civil Court between two or more parties, one of whom is an agriculturist residing within any local area for which a Conciliator has been appointed, or when application for execution of any decree in any suit to which any such agriculturist is a party, and which was passed before the date on which this Act comes into force, is contemplated, any of the parties may apply to such Conciliator to effect an amicable settlement between them.

Procedure thereupon.

40. If the application be made by one of the parties only, the Conciliator shall take down, or cause to be taken down, in writing, a concise statement of the applicant's case, and shall thereupon, by summons or by such other means as he deems fit, invite the person against whom such application is made to attend before him at a time and place to be fixed for this purpose, and shall direct the applicant also to be present at such time and place.

Day for attendance may, from time to time, be postponed.

If such person fails to appear at the time first fixed, the Conciliator may, if he thinks fit, from time to time extend the period for his appearance.

When all parties appear, Conciliator to endeavour to reconcile them.

41. Whenever all the parties are present, the Conciliator shall call upon each in turn to explain his case regarding the matter in question, and shall use his best endeavours to induce them to agree to an amicable settlement, or to submit such matter to arbitration

Conciliator to hear statements of witnesses, &c.

42. The Conciliator shall hear, but shall not record, the statement of any witness, and shall peruse any book of account or other document produced by the parties, or so much thereof as may be necessary, and, if any party or witness consents in

*In s. 38 the last paragraph has been added by Act XXIII. of 1881, s. 7.

of the said Court thinks that the agreement is not a or equitable one or that it does not finally dispose of the matter or that it was made in fraud of the stamp or registration laws, it shall fix a day for the attendance of the parties & if after such enquiry as may be deemed necessary the Court finds that such agreement is legal & equitable and finally disposes of the matter, & that it has been made in good faith & the stamp & registration laws, it shall order the agreement to be filed; & it shall then take effect as if it were a decree of the said Court passed on the day on which it is ordered to be filed, from which no appeal lies.

On the other hand, the said Court finds that the agreement does not constitute a legal or equitable agreement, or that it does not finally dispose of the matter, or that it has been made in fraud of the stamp or registration laws, it shall return the said agreement to the Conciliator
& the Conciliator shall thereupon be bound to furnish on demand to the parties or anyone of them a certificate under S. 40.

Added by Act II of 1895 S. 2.

writing to affirm any statement upon oath in any form not repugnant to justice or decency, and not purporting to affect any third person, shall provide for such oath being duly taken in the presence of all the parties.

Any agreement arrived at to be reduced to writing.

43. If, on the day on which the case is first heard by the Conciliator, or on any subsequent day to which he may adjourn the hearing, the parties come to any agreement, either finally disposing of the matter, or for referring it to arbitration, such agreement shall be forthwith reduced to writing, and shall be read and explained to the parties, and shall be signed or otherwise authenticated by the Conciliator and the parties respectively.

Explanation.—A Conciliator may be appointed arbitrator under this section.

Procedure when agreement finally disposes of case.

44. When the agreement is one finally disposing of the matter, the Conciliator shall forward the same in original to the Court of the Subordinate Judge of lowest grade having jurisdiction in the "place"* where the agriculturist who is a party thereto resides; and shall, at the same time, deliver to each of the parties a written notice to show cause before such Judge, within one month from the date of such delivery, why such agreement ought not to be filed in such Court.

The Court which receives the agreement shall, after the expiry of the said period of one month, unless cause has been shown as aforesaid, order such agreement to be filed; and it shall then take effect as if it were a decree of the said Court passed on the day on which it is ordered to be filed, and from which no appeal lies.

The Court may in any case, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, from time to time extend the period of one month allowed for showing cause under this section.†

Procedure where agreement is for reference to arbitration.

45. When the agreement is one for referring the matter to arbitration, the Conciliator shall forward it to the Court having jurisdiction in the matter, and such Court shall cause it to be filed, and proceed thereon in manner provided by sections 523 and 524 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Certificate to be given to applicant if conciliation fails.

46. If the person against whom any application is made before a Conciliator cannot, after reasonable search, be found, or if he refuses or neglects, after a reasonable period has been allowed for his appearance, to appear before the Conciliator, or if he appears, but the endeavour to induce the parties to agree to an amicable settlement or to submit the matter in question to arbitration fails, the Conciliator shall, on demand, give to the applicant, or when there are several applicants to each applicant, a certificate under his hand to that effect.

Suit, or application for execution, not to be entertained by Civil Court unless such certificate is produced.

47. No suit, and no application for execution of a decree passed before the date on which this Act comes into force, to which any agriculturist residing within any local area for which a Conciliator has been appointed is a party, shall be entertained by any Civil Court unless the plaintiff produces "a certificate in reference thereto obtained by him under section 46 within the year immediately preceding."*

Explanation.—The expression "Civil Court" in this section does not include a Mámlatdár's Court under Bombay Act No. III. of 1876 (to consolidate and amend the law relating to the powers and procedure of Mámlatdárs' Courts).†

Allowance to be made in period of limitation.

48.‡ In computing the period of limitation prescribed for any such suit or application the time intervening between the application made by the plaintiff under section 39 and the grant of the certificate under section 46 shall be excluded.

Local Government to make rules.

49. The Local Government may, from time to time, make rules—

(a) regulating the procedure before Conciliators in matters not provided for by this Act;

(b) fixing the charges to be made by Conciliators for anything done by them under this chapter; and

(c) determining what record and accounts shall be kept by Conciliators, and what returns shall be framed and furnished by them.

CHAPTER VII.

SUPERINTENDENCE AND REVISION.

District Judge to inspect, &c.

50. The District Judge shall inspect, supervise, and control the proceedings, under "Chapter II., Chapter IV., and Chapter VI.",§ of this Act, of all Subordinate Judges and the proceedings of all Village-Munsifs and Conciliators.

District Judge may withdraw case from Conciliator or Subordinate Judge.

51.¶ The District Judge may—

(a) transfer any application pending before a Conciliator to the file of any other Conciliator;

(b) transfer to his own file any suit or other matter pending before the Court of any Subordinate Judge under "Chapter II., Chapter IV., or Chapter VI."‖ of this Act, and may dispose of the same as if he were a Subordinate Judge; or (c) stay the proceedings in any such suit or matter, and sit together with such Judge as a Bench to dispose of such suit or matter in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

or sit with Subordinate Judge as a Bench for trial of any case.

If the members of any Bench sitting under this section differ in opinion, the opinion of the District Judge shall prevail.

‖ In s. 51 the words and figures quoted have been substituted for the words and figures, "Chapter II. or Chapter IV.," by Act XXII. of 1882, s. 14.

Appointment of Assistant or Subordinate Judge to aid District Judge.

52. The Local Government shall appoint an Assistant or Subordinate Judge to inspect and supervise, subject to the control of the District Judge, the proceedings of all Subordinate Judges, under "Chapter II., Chapter IV., and Chapter VI."* of this Act, and all Village-Munsifs and Conciliators in each of the said districts of Puna, Satara, Sholapur, and Ahmadnagar: Act XVII. of 1879.

Provided that, if the Local Government thinks fit, the same Assistant or Subordinate Judge may be so appointed for two or more such districts.

Of revision.

...pose of satisfying himself of the legality or propriety of any decree or order passed by a Subordinate Judge in any suit or other matter under "Chapter II., Chapter IV., or Chapter VI."† of this Act, and as to the regularity of the proceedings therein, call for and examine the record of such suit or matter, and pass such decree or order thereon as he thinks fit:

and any Assistant Judge or Subordinate Judge appointed by the Local Government under section 55 may similarly, in any district for which he is appointed, call for and examine the record of any such suit or matter, and, if he see cause therefor, may refer the same, with his remarks thereon, to the District Judge, and the District Judge may pass such decree or order on the case as he thinks fit:

Provided that no decree or order shall be reversed or altered for any error or defect, or otherwise, unless a failure of justice appears to have taken place.

Special Judge.

54. The Local Government from time to time may, and if the Government of India so direct shall, appoint an officer, as Special Judge, to discharge in the place of the District Judge all the functions of the District Judge under this Act in respect of the proceedings of all Subordinate Judges, Village-Munsifs, and Conciliators, and may cancel any such appointment.

Such Special Judge shall not, without the previous sanction of the Government of India, discharge any public function except those which he is empowered by this Act to discharge.

If any conflict of authority arises between the Special Judge and the District Judge, the High Court shall pass such order thereon consistent with this Act as it thinks fit.

But the District Judge or Special Judge, or an Assistant or Subordinate Judge or Bench, may refer to the High Court, under section 617 of the Code of Civil Procedure, any question of law, or usage having the force of law, or the construction of a document, arising in any case pending before him or it under this chapter as if that case were a suit or an appeal pending before

Provided that no reference shall be made under this section by any Assistant or Subordinate Judge, or by any Bench of which the District Judge or Special Judge is not a member, without the previous sanction of the District Judge, or Special Judge, as the case may be.*

No appeal shall lie from any decree or order passed by the District Judge under this chapter, or by the Special Judge, or by an Assistant or Subordinate Judge appointed under section 52, or by a Bench, in any suit or proceeding under this Act.

CHAPTER VIII.

REGISTRATION BY VILLAGE-REGISTRARS.

Appointment of Village-Registrars.

55. The Local Government may, from time to time,—

(a) appoint such persons as it thinks fit, whether public officers or not, to be Village-Registrars for such local areas as it may, from time to time, prescribe;

(b) direct the Village-Registrar for any local area to discharge the functions of a Village-Registrar for any other local areas concurrently with the Village-Registrars of such other local areas; and

(c) delegate to any person, by name or in virtue of his office, the powers conferred on it by this section; and may cancel any such appointment, direction, or delegation.

Instruments executed by agriculturist not to be deemed valid unless executed before a Village-Registrar.

56. No instrument which purports to create, modify, transfer, evidence, or extinguish an obligation for the payment of money or a charge upon any property, or to be a conveyance or lease, and which is executed after this Act comes into force by an agriculturist residing in any local area for which a Village-Registrar has been appointed, shall be admitted in evidence for any purpose by any person having by law or consent of parties authority to receive evidence, or shall be acted upon by any such person or by any public officer, unless such instrument is written by, or under the superintendence of, and is attested by, a Village-Registrar:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the admission of any instrument in evidence in any criminal proceeding, "or apply to any instrument which is executed by an agriculturist merely as a surety."†

Such instruments to be written by, or under the superintendence of, a Village-Registrar, and executed in his presence.

57.‡ When any persons intend to execute any instrument to which section 56 applies, all such persons shall appear before the Village-Registrar appointed for the area in which the agriculturist, or when there are several agriculturists, intending to execute the instrument, any one of such agriculturists, resides, any such Registrar, after satisfying himself in such manner as he deems fit as to the identity of the intending executants and receiving the fee (if any) prescribed by the Local Government in this behalf, and the stamp (if any) which may be required by law, shall write the instrument, or cause the same to be written under his superintendence; and after reading the same aloud, or causing it to be so read, in the hearing of the intending executants, shall require them to execute it in his presence.

Attestation of such instruments.

Every instrument so written and executed shall at the time of execution be attested by the Village-Registrar; and also, if any of the executants thereof is unable to read such instrument, by two respectable witnesses.

For the purposes of this section every executant of any such instrument shall appear in person before the Village-Registrar; but every other party thereto may appear either in person or by any agent, being his relative, servant, or dependant, whom he has duly furnished with a power-of-attorney, "executed and authenticated in such manner as the Local Government may from time to time by rule prescribe,"* authorizing him to appear and act on his behalf.

Registration of instruments by Village-Registrars.

58. Every Village-Registrar shall keep a register of instruments executed before him in such form as shall, from time to time, be prescribed by the Inspector-General of Registration.

As soon as all the "intending executants have executed any instrument"† before a Village-Registrar, he shall make a copy of it or cause a copy of it to be made in his register, and shall deliver the original instrument to the party entitled to the custody of the same, and a certified copy thereof to the other party, or to each of the other parties if there be more than one.

Previous to delivery, the original instrument and each such copy shall be endorsed under the Village-Registrar's signature with the date of registration, the name and residence of the Village-Registrar, and the volume and page of the register in which the instrument has been registered.

Consideration to be fully stated in every instrument executed before a Village-Registrar.

59. In every instrument written by, or under the superintendence of, the Village-Registrar, the amount and nature of the consideration, if any, shall be fully stated.

The Village-Registrar shall also endorse upon the instrument a note under his hand, recording whether or not the transfer of the consideration stated therein, or of any part thereof, took place in his presence.

Previous instruments to be produced.

If the instrument modifies, or wholly or partly supersedes, a previous instrument, such previous instrument shall be produced before the Village-Registrar, and shall be fully described in the instrument to be executed, and shall be marked by the Village-Registrar under his hand for identification.

Registration under this Act to be deemed equivalent to registration under Indian Registration Act, 1877.

60. Every instrument executed and registered in accordance with the foregoing provisions shall be deemed to have been duly registered under the provisions of the Indian Registration Act, 1877; and no instrument which ought to have been executed before a Village-Regis-

Village-Registrars to be subordinate to the Inspector-General of Registration.

61. The Inspector-General of Registration shall exercise, by himself and his subordinates, a general superintendence over all Village-Registrars, and may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, make rules consistent with this Act for regulating their proceedings, and for providing for the custody of their records.

Exemption of instruments to which Government or any officer of Government is a party.

62. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to require any instrument to which the Government, or any officer of Government in his official capacity, is a party, to be executed before a Village-Registrar.

Power of Local Government to make rules.

63. The Local Government may, from time to time, make rules regulating the appointment, suspension, dismissal, and remuneration of Village-Registrars, and prescribing the fees to be levied by them.

CHAPTER IX.

OF RECEIPTS AND STATEMENTS OF ACCOUNT.

Agriculturists entitled to written receipts:

64. The person to whom any agriculturist makes any payment of money in liquidation of a debt shall, at the time of such payment, tender to such agriculturist, whether he demand the same or not, a written receipt for the amount of such payment.

If such payment is made under any instrument executed before a Village-Registrar, the receipt shall, if the agriculturist so require, be endorsed on the copy of the instrument furnished to him under section 58.

To annual statements of account:

65. Any agriculturist by whom any money is due under any instrument shall, on such date in each year as the Local Government, having regard to local custom, may from time to time, by notification in the official Gazette, fix, be entitled to receive, on demand, from the person claiming under such instrument, a statement up to that date of his account under such instrument.

To have account made up from time to time in a pass-book.

66. Any agriculturist in whose name an account is kept by any trader or money-lender shall be entitled to receive from such trader or money-lender, on demand, a pass-book, and to require, from time to time, that his account up to date be written therein, and authenticated by the signature or mark of the said trader or money-lender.

An entry so made in any such pass-book of any payment made to the trader or money-lender shall be deemed to be equivalent, for the purposes of section 64, to the grant of a receipt for the amount so entered.

No person whose account has been written in a pass-book as required by this section shall be entitled also to demand an account under section 65.

Penalty for contravention of sections 64 to 66.

67. Any person who, in contravention of section 64, 65, or 66, refuses or neglects to tender a receipt or a statement of account or a pass-book, or to write, or cause to be written, any account or any part of an account in a pass-book, or to attest

Village Registrars, & may either make rules, or empower such officers to make rules, from time to time consistent with this Act regulating the proceedings of the village registrars, & providing for the custody of their records.

(2) The Local Govt. may, by order to be published in the Govt. Gazette, declare that any documents other than wills remaining unclaimed in a registration office in any district or part of a district to which this Act applies, for a period of not less than two years, may be destroyed.

CHAPTER X.

LEGAL PRACTITIONERS.

Pleaders, &c., excluded in certain cases.

68.* No pleader, vakíl, or mukhtár, and no advocate or attorney of a High Court, shall be permitted to appear on behalf of any party to any case before a Conciliator or a Village Munsif :†

Provided that any party to any such case may be permitted, on reasonable cause being shown to the satisfaction of the Conciliator or Village-Munsif, to employ any relative, servant, or dependant who is not, and has not previously been, a pleader, vakíl, or mukhtár, or an advocate or attorney of a High Court, to appear either conjointly with, or in lieu of, such party.

When a relative, servant, or dependant appears in lieu of a party, he shall be furnished by him with a power-of-attorney defining the extent to which he is empowered to act.

Power of Court to appoint pleader for agriculturist.

69. When in any suit or proceeding before a Subordinate Judge under this Act to which an agriculturist is a party, any pleader, vakíl, or mukhtár, or any advocate or attorney of a High Court, appears on behalf of any party opposed to such agriculturist, the Subordinate Judge, if he is of opinion that such agriculturist has not the means of obtaining proper professional assistance, may, with the consent of such agriculturist, direct the Government pleader or any other fit person (who is willing so to do) to appear on his behalf.

CHAPTER XI.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Mortgages, &c., to be valid only when written.

70. No mortgage, lien, or charge of or upon any immoveable property belonging to an agriculturist, shall be valid, unless it is created by an instrument in writing under the hand of the person creating such mortgage, lien, or charge.

Nothing in this section shall apply to any mortgage, lien, or charge created by mere operation of law, or in favour of the Government, or of any officer of the Government in his official capacity.

71. [Repealed by Act XXIII. of 1881.]

(b) in any other case,—six years :

Provided that nothing herein contained shall revive the right to bring any suit which would have been barred by limitation if it had been instituted immediately before this Act comes into force.

Decision as to whether person is an agriculturist final.

73. The decision of any Court of first instance that any person is or is not an agriculturist shall, for the purposes of this Act, be final.

Certain agricultural produce exempted from attachment, &c.

73A.* When the Collector has taken any immoveable property of a judgment-debtor or insolvent into his possession under section 22 or section 29, he may, by an order in writing, direct that any other such property not so taken shall be deemed to be reserved for the support of the judgment-debtor or insolvent and the members of his family dependent on him, and may rescind that order.

While any such order continues in force in respect of any immoveable property, agricultural produce grown on that property shall not be attached or sold in execution of a decree passed, whether before or after this Act comes into force, and shall not vest in the receiver appointed in any insolvency proceedings.

Civil Procedure Code to apply in Subordinate Judges' Courts.

74. Except in so far as it is inconsistent with this Act, the Code of Civil Procedure shall apply in all suits and proceedings before Subordinate Judges under this Act.

Additional power to make rules.

75. The Local Government may, from time to time, make all such rules as it may deem necessary for carrying out the provisions herein contained.

Rules to be published.

76. All rules made by the Local Government under this Act shall be published in the official Gazette, and shall thereupon, in so far as they are consistent with this Act, have the force of law.

ments of the rest of British India to extend to the territories administered by it such portions of this Act as such Government may think fit; It is hereby enacted as follows:— Act XVIII. of 1879.

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Short title. Commencement. 1. This Act may be called "The Legal Practitioners Act, 1879," and shall come into force on the first day of January 1880.

Local extent. This section and section 2 extend to the whole of British India.

The rest of this Act extends, in the first instance, only to the territories respectively administered by the Lieutenant-Governors of the Lower Provinces of Bengal, the North-Western Provinces, and the Panjáb, and the Chief Commissioners of Oudh, the Central Provinces, and Assam. But any other Local Government may from time to time, by notification in the official Gazette, extend all or any of the provisions of the rest of this Act to the whole or any part of the territories under its administration.*

Repeal of enactments. 2. On and from the first day of January 1880, the enactments mentioned in the first schedule hereto annexed shall be repealed to the extent specified therein.

Saving of rules, &c. All rules and appointments made, penalties prescribed, fees fixed, persons admitted, names enrolled, certificates issued, sanctions given, and orders passed under any enactment hereby repealed, shall be deemed to be respectively made, prescribed, fixed, admitted, enrolled, issued, given, and passed under this Act.

References to repealed enactments. All references made to any enactment hereby repealed, in any Act or Regulation passed, or notification published, shall be read as if made to the corresponding provisions of this Act.

Interpretation clause. 3. In this Act, unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context,—

"Judge:" "Judge" means the presiding judicial officer in every Civil and Criminal Court, by whatever title he is designated:

"Subordinate Court:" "Subordinate Court" means all Courts subordinate to the High Court, including Courts of Small Causes established under Act No. XV. of 1882† or Act No. XI. of 1865:

* The Act has been extended, subject to certain omissions, and so far only as it relates to Judicial Courts, Civil and Criminal, to the Madras Presidency (except the Scheduled Districts), with effect from 1st April 1882.—See Fort St. George Gazette, Sept. 20, 1881, Pt. I., p. 491; Ibid, Dec. 7, 1881, Pt. I., p. 707.

Ch. I., s. 40, sch. ii., and so much of Chaps. III., V., VI., and VII., as relates to pleaders, have been extended to Coorg.—See Mysore Gazette, Dec. 6, 1879, Pt. I., p. 355.

The Act has also been declared, under the Scheduled Districts Act (XIV. of 1874), to be in force in the following scheduled districts in the Chutia Nagpur Division, namely: The Districts of Hazáribágh, Lohárdaga, and Mánbhum, and Pargana Dhálbhum, and the Kolhán in the District of Singbhum.—See Gazette of India, Oct. 22, 1881, Pt. I. p. 504.

† See Act XV. of 1882, s. 2.

Act XVIII. of 1879.

"Revenue office" includes all Courts (other than Civil Courts) trying suits under any Act for the time being in force relating to landholders and their tenants or agents:

"Revenue office."

"Legal practitioner" means an advocate, vakíl, or attorney of any High Court, a pleader, mukhtár, or revenue-agent.

"Legal practitioner."

CHAPTER II.

OF ADVOCATES, VAKILS, AND ATTORNEYS.

Advocates and vakíls.

4. Every person now or hereafter entered as an advocate or vakíl on the roll of any High Court under the Letters Patent constituting such Court, or "under section 41 of this Act,"* shall be entitled to practice in all the Courts subordinate to the Court on the roll of which he is entered, and in all revenue-offices situate within the local limits of the appellate jurisdiction of such Court, subject, nevertheless, to the rules in force relating to the language in which the Court or office is to be addressed by pleaders or revenue-agents; and any person so entered who ordinarily practises in the Court on the roll of which he is entered or some Court subordinate thereto shall, notwithstanding anything herein contained, be entitled, as such, to practise in any Court in British India other than a High Court on whose roll he is not entered, or, with the permission of the Court, in any High Court on whose roll he is not entered, and in any revenue-office:

Provided that no such vakíl shall be entitled to practise under this section before a Judge of the High Court, Division Court, or High Court exercising original jurisdiction in a presidency-town.

Attorneys of High Court.

5. Every person now or hereafter entered as an attorney on the roll of any High Court shall be entitled to practise in all the Courts subordinate to such High Court and in all revenue-offices situate within the local limits of the appellate jurisdiction of such High Court; and every person so entered who ordinarily practises in the Court on the roll of which he is so entered or some Court subordinate thereto shall, notwithstanding anything herein contained, be entitled, as such, to practise in any Court in British India other than a High Court established by Royal Charter on the roll of which he is not entered, and in any revenue-office.

The High Court of the province in which an attorney practises under this section may, from time to time, make rules declaring what shall be deemed to be the functions, powers, and duties of an attorney so practising.

CHAPTER III.

OF PLEADERS AND MUKHTÁRS.

Power to make rules as to qualification, &c., of pleaders and mukhtárs.

6. The High Court may, from time to time, make rules consistent with this Act as to the following matters (namely):—

(a) the qualifications, admission, and certificates of proper persons to be pleaders of the subordinate Courts, and of the revenue-offices situate within the

* The words quoted have been substituted for the words, "as an advocate on the roll of the Chief Court of the Panjáb," by Act IX. of 1884, s. 2.

local limits of its appellate jurisdiction, and; in the case of a High Court not established by Royal Charter, of such Court;

(b) the qualifications, admission, and certificates of proper persons to be mukhtárs of the subordinate Courts, and, in the case of a High Court not established by Royal Charter, of such Court;

(c) the fees to be paid for the examination and admission of such persons; and (d) the suspension and dismissal of such pleaders and mukhtárs.

All such rules shall be published in the local official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law: Provided that, in the case of rules made by a High Court not established by Royal Charter, such rules have been previously approved by the Local Government.

Publication of rules.

7. On the admission, under section 6, of any person as a pleader or mukhtár, the High Court shall cause a certificate signed by such officer as the Court, from time to time, appoints in this behalf, to be issued to such person, authorizing him to practise up to the end of the current year in the Courts, and, in the case of a pleader, also the revenue-offices, specified therein.

Certificates to pleaders and mukhtárs.

At the expiration of such period, the holder of the certificate, if he desires to continue to practise, shall, subject to any rules consistent with this Act which may, from time to time, be made by the High Court in this behalf, be entitled to have his certificate renewed by the Judge of the District Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction he then ordinarily practises or by such officer as the High Court, from time to time, appoints in this behalf.

On every such renewal, the certificate then in possession of such pleader or mukhtár shall be cancelled and retained by such Judge or officer.

Every certificate so renewed shall be signed by such Judge or officer, and shall continue in force up to the end of the current year.

Every Judge or officer so renewing a certificate shall notify such renewal to the High Court.

8. Every pleader holding a certificate issued under section 7 may apply to be enrolled in any Court or revenue-office mentioned therein, and situate within the local limits of the appellate jurisdiction of the High Court by which he has been admitted; and, subject to such rules consistent with this Act as the High Court or the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may, from time to time, make in this behalf, the presiding Judge or officer shall enrol him accordingly; and thereupon he may appear, plead, and act in such Court or office, and in any Court or revenue-office subordinate thereto.

Pleaders on enrolment may practise in Courts and revenue-offices.

9. Every mukhtár holding a certificate issued under section 7 may apply to be enrolled in any Civil or Criminal Court mentioned therein, and situate within the same limits; and, subject to such rules as the High Court may, from time to time, make in this behalf, the presiding Judge shall enrol him accordingly; and thereupon he may practise as a mukhtar in any such Civil Court and any Court subordinate thereto, and may (subject to the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure*) appear, plead, and act in any such Criminal Court and any Court subordinate thereto.

Mukhtárs on enrolment may practise in Courts.

* See Act X. of 1882, s. 3.

Act XVIII. of 1879.

No person to practise as pleader or mukhtár unless qualified.

10. Except as provided by this Act, or any other enactment for the time being in force, no person shall practise as a pleader or mukhtár in any Court not established by Royal Charter unless he holds a certificate issued under section 7, and has been enrolled in such Court or in some Court to which it is subordinate:

Revenue-agents may appear, plead, and act in Munsifs' Courts in suits under Bengal Act VIII. of 1869.

Provided that persons who have been admitted as revenue-agents before the first day of January 1880, and hold certificates, as such, under this Act in the territories administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, may be enrolled in manner provided by section 9 in any Munsif's Court in the said territories, and, on being so enrolled, may appear, plead, and act in such Court in suits under Bengal Act No. VIII. of 1869* (to amend the procedure in suits between Landlord and Tenant), or under any other Act for the time being in force regulating the procedure in suits between landholders and their tenants and agents.

Power to declare functions of mukhtárs.

11. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Civil Procedure,† the High Court may, from time to time, make rules declaring what shall be deemed to be the functions, powers, and duties of mukhtárs practising in the subordinate Courts, and in the case of a High Court not established by Royal Charter, in such Court.

Suspension and dismissal of pleaders and mukhtárs convicted of criminal offence.

12. The High Court may suspend or dismiss any pleader or mukhtár holding a certificate issued under section 7 who is convicted of any criminal offence implying a defect of character which unfits him to be a pleader or mukhtár, as the case may be.

Suspension and dismissal of pleaders and mukhtars guilty of unprofessional conduct.

13. The High Court may also, after such enquiry as it thinks fit, suspend or dismiss—any pleader holding a certificate as aforesaid who takes instructions in any case except from the party on whose behalf he is retained, or a private servant of such party, or some person who is the recognized agent of such party within the meaning of the Code of Civil Procedure,† or any pleader or mukhtár holding a certificate as aforesaid who is guilty of fraudulent or grossly improper conduct in the discharge of his professional duty, or for any other reasonable cause:

Provided‡ that, where the party is—

(a) a pardánashín woman, or

(b) unable for any sufficient cause to instruct the pleader in person, nothing in this section shall make a pleader liable to suspension or dismissal merely by reason that he has taken instructions from a relative or friend authorized by the party to give such instructions, and not receiving any remuneration in respect thereof.†

---

* Superseded by Act VIII. of 1885.

† See Act XIV. of 1882, s. 3.

‡ This proviso has been added by Act IX. of 1884, s. 3.

14. If any such pleader or mukhtár practising in any subordinate Court or in any revenue-office is charged in such Court or office with taking instructions except as aforesaid, or with any such misconduct as aforesaid, the presiding officer shall send him a copy of the charge, and also a notice that, on a day to be therein appointed, such charge will be taken into consideration. * Act XVIII. of 1879.

Procedure when charge of unprofessional conduct is brought in subordinate Court or revenue-office.

Such copy and notice shall be served upon the pleader or mukhtár at least fifteen days before the day so appointed.

On such day, or on any subsequent day to which the enquiry may be adjourned, the presiding officer shall receive and record all evidence properly produced in support of the charge, or by the pleader or mukhtar, and shall proceed to adjudicate on the charge.

If such officer finds the charge established, and considers that the pleader or mukhtár should be suspended or dismissed in consequence, he shall record his finding and the grounds thereof, and shall report the same to the High Court; and the High Court may acquit, suspend, or dismiss the pleader or mukhtár.

Any District Judge, or with his sanction any Judge subordinate to him, "any Judge of a Court of Small Causes of a Presidency-town,"* any District Magistrate, or with his sanction any Magistrate subordinate to him, and any Revenue Authority not inferior to a Collector, or with the Collector's sanction any Revenue Officer subordinate to him, may, pending the investigation and the orders of the High Court, suspend from practice any pleader or mukhtár charged before him or it under this section.

Suspension pending investigation.

Every report made to the High Court under this section shall—

(a) when made by any Civil Judge subordinate to the District Judge, be made through such Judge;

(b) when made by a Magistrate subordinate to the Magistrate of the District, be made through the District Magistrate† and the Sessions Judge;

(c) when made by the District Magistrate† be made through the Sessions Judge;

(d) when made by any Revenue Officer subordinate to the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, be made through such Revenue Authorities as the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may, from time to time, direct.

Every such report shall be accompanied by the opinion of each Judge, Magistrate, or Revenue Authority through whom or which it is made.

15. The High Court, in any case in which a pleader or mukhtár has been acquitted under section 14 otherwise than by an order of the High Court, may call for the record, and pass such order thereon as it thinks fit.

Power to call for record in case of acquittal under section 14.

---

* The words quoted have been inserted by Act IX. of 1884, s. 4.

† See Act X. of 1882, s. 3.

Act XVIII. of 1879.

Power to make rules for mukhtárs on appellate side of High Court.

16. Notwithstanding anything contained in any Letters Patent or in the Code of Civil Procedure, section 37, clause (a),* any High Court established by Royal Charter may, from time to time, make rules consistent with this Act as to the following matters (namely) :—

(a) the qualifications and admission of proper persons to be mukhtárs practising on the appellate side of such Court;

(b) the fees to be paid for the examination and admission of such persons;

(c) the security which they may be required to give for their honesty and good conduct;

(d) the suspension and dismissal of such mukhtárs; and

(e) declaring what shall be deemed to be their functions, powers, and duties; and may prescribe and impose fines for the infringement of such rules not exceeding in any case five hundred rupees; and such fines, when imposed, may be recovered as if they had been imposed in the exercise of the High Court's ordinary original criminal jurisdiction.

CHAPTER IV.

OF REVENUE AGENTS.†

Power to make rules as to qualifications, &c., of revenue-agents.

17. The Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may, from time to time, make rules consistent with this Act as to the following matters (namely) :—

(a) the qualifications, admission, and certificates of proper persons to be revenue-agents;

(b) the fees to be paid for the examination and admission of such persons;

(c) the suspension and dismissal of such revenue-agents; and (d) declaring what shall be deemed to be their functions, powers, and duties.

Publication of rules.

All such rules shall be published in the local official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

Certificates to revenue-agents.

18. On the admission of any person as a revenue-agent under section 17, the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority shall cause a certificate, signed by such officer as such Authority from time to time appoints in this behalf, to be issued to such person, authorizing him to practise up to the end of the current year in such revenue-offices as may be specified therein.

At the expiration of such period, the holder of the certificate, if he desires to continue to practise, shall be entitled to have his certificate renewed by the Secretary of the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, or by any other officer authorized by such Authority in that behalf.

On every such renewal, the certificate then in the possession of such revenue-agent shall be cancelled and retained by such Secretary or other officer.

* See Act XIV. of 1882, s. 3.

† Revenue-agents in Oudh may appear, plead, and act in suits under the Oudh Rent-Act (XIX. of 1868).—See Act XVIII. of 1876, s. 25, and the third clause of s. 2 of this Act.

Every certificate so renewed shall be signed by such Secretary or other officer, and shall continue in force to the end of the current year. Act XVIII. of 1879.

Every officer so renewing a certificate shall notify the renewal to the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority.

Enrolment of revenue-agent.

19. Every revenue-agent holding a certificate issued under section 18 may apply to be enrolled in any revenue-office mentioned therein, and situate within the limits of the territory under the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority; and, subject to such rules as the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may, from time to time, make in this behalf, the officer presiding in such office shall enrol him accordingly, and thereupon he may practise as a revenue-agent in such office and in any revenue-office subordinate thereto.

No person to act as agent in revenue-offices unless qualified.

20. Except as provided by this Act or any other enactment for the time being in force, no person, other than a pleader duly qualified under the provisions hereinbefore contained shall practise as a revenue-agent in any revenue-office, unless he holds a certificate issued under section 18, and has been enrolled in such office or some other office to which it is subordinate:

Provided that any person duly authorized in this behalf may, with the sanction of the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, or of an officer empowered by the Local Government in this behalf, transact all or any business in which his principal may be concerned in any revenue-office.

The sanction mentioned in this section may be general or special, and may at any time be revoked or suspended by the authority or officer granting the same.

Dismissal of revenue-agent convicted of criminal offence.

21. The Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may suspend or dismiss any revenue-agent holding a certificate issued under this Act who is convicted of any criminal offence implying a defect of character which unfits him to be a revenue-agent.

Dismissal of revenue-agent guilty of unprofessional conduct.

22. The Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may also, after making such enquiry as it thinks fit, suspend or dismiss any revenue-agent holding a certificate issued under this Act who is guilty of fraudulent or grossly improper conduct in the discharge of his professional duty, or for any other reasonable cause.

Procedure when revenue-agent is so charged in subordinate office.

23. If any revenue-agent holding a certificate issued under this Act is charged with any such conduct in any office subordinate to the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, or in the Court of any Munsif, the officer at the head of such office, or such Munsif, as the case may be, shall send him a copy of the charge, and also a notice that, on a day to be therein appointed, such charge will be taken into consideration.

Such copy and notice shall be served upon the person charged at least fifteen days before the day so appointed. On such day, or on any other day to which the enquiry may be adjourned, the officer or Munsif shall receive all evidence properly produced in support of the charge, or by the person charged, and shall proceed to adjudicate on the charge.

If the officer or Munsif finds the charge established, and considers that the person charged should be suspended or dismissed in consequence, he shall record his finding and the grounds thereof, and report the same to the Chief

Act XVIII. of 1879.

Controlling Revenue Authority; and such authority shall proceed to acquit, suspend, or dismiss him.

Any Revenue Officer not inferior to a Collector, and, with the Collector's sanction, any Revenue Officer subordinate to him, or any Munsif in his district, may, pending the investigation and the orders of the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, suspend from practice any revenue-agent charged before him under this section.

Where any officer acting under this section is subordinate to the Commissioner of a Division, he shall transmit the report through such Commissioner, who shall forward with the same an expression of his own opinion on the case.

Power to Chief Controlling Revenue Authority to call for record.

24. The Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, in any case in which a revenue-agent has been acquitted under section 23 otherwise than by an order of the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, may call for the record, and pass such order thereon as seems fit.

CHAPTER V.

OF CERTIFICATES.

Fee for certificates.

25. Every certificate, whether original or renewed, issued under this Act, shall be written upon stamped paper of the value prescribed therefor in the second schedule hereto annexed, "and of such description as the Local Government may from time to time prescribe:"*

Provided that a certificate issued on or after the first day of July in any year may be written on stamped paper of half the value so prescribed.

Dismissed practitioners to surrender certificates.

26. When any pleader, mukhtár, or revenue-agent, is suspended or dismissed under this Act, he shall forthwith deliver up his certificate to the Court or officer at the head of the office before or in which he was practising at the time he was so suspended or dismissed, or to any Court or officer to which the High Court or Chief Controlling Revenue Authority (as the case may be) orders him to deliver the same.

CHAPTER VI.

OF THE REMUNERATION OF PLEADERS, MUKHTARS, AND REVENUE-AGENTS.

High Court and Chief Controlling Revenue Authority to fix fees on civil and revenue-proceedings.

27. The High Court shall, from time to time, fix and regulate the fees payable by any party in respect of the fees of his adversary's advocate, pleader, vakil, mukhtár, or attorney upon all proceedings (a) on the appellate side of such Court, (b) in the case of a High Court not established by Royal Charter, on its original side, and (c) in subordinate Courts, "and in respect of the fees of his adversary's revenue-agent appearing, pleading, or acting under section 10."†

The Chief Controlling Revenue Authority shall, from time to time, fix and regulate the fees payable upon all proceedings in the revenue-offices by any

* The words quoted have been inserted by Act IX. of 1884, s. 5.

† The words quoted have been added by Act IX. of 1884, s. 6.

party in respect of the fees of his adversary's advocate, pleader, vakil, attorney, mukhtár, or revenue-agent. • Act XVIII. of 1879.

Tables of the fees so fixed shall be published in the local official Gazette.

Exception as to agents mentioned in section 20.

Nothing in this section applies to the agents mentioned in the proviso to section 20.

Agreements with clients.

28. No agreement entered into by any pleader, mukhtar, or revenue-agent with any person retaining or employing him, respecting the amount and manner of payment for the whole or any part of any past or future services, fees, charges, or disbursements in respect of business done or to be done by such pleader, mukhtár, or revenue-agent, shall be valid, unless it is made in writing, signed by such person, and is, within fifteen days from the day on which it is executed, filed in the District Court, or in some Court in which some portion of the business in respect of which it has been executed has been or is to be done.

Power to modify or cancel agreements.

29. Where a suit is brought to enforce any such agreement, if the agreement is not proved to be fair and reasonable, the Court may reduce the amount payable thereunder or order it to be cancelled, and the costs, fees, charges, and disbursements in respect of the business done to be ascertained in the same manner as if no such agreement had been made.

Agreements to exclude further claims.

30. Such an agreement shall exclude any further claim of the pleader, mukhtár, or revenue-agent beyond the terms of the agreement with respect to any services, fees, charges, or disbursements in relation to the conduct and completion of the business in respect of which the agreement is made, except such services, fees, charges, or disbursements, if any, as are expressly excepted by the agreement.

Reservation of responsibility for negligence.

31. A provision in any such agreement that the pleader, mukhtár, or revenue-agent, shall not be liable for negligence, or that he shall be relieved from any responsibility to which he would otherwise be subject as such pleader, mukhtár, or revenue-agent, shall be wholly void.

CHAPTER VII.

PENALTIES.

On persons illegally practising as pleaders, mukhtárs, or revenue-agents.

32. Any person who practises in any Court or revenue-office in contravention of the provisions of section 10 or section 20 shall be liable, by order of such Court or the officer at the head of such office, to a fine not exceeding ten times the amount of the stamp required by this Act for a certificate authorizing him so to practise in such Court or office, and, in default of payment, to imprisonment in the civil jail for a term which may extend to six months.

He shall also be incapable of maintaining any suit for, or enforcing any lien with respect to, any fee or reward for, or with respect to, anything done or any disbursement made by him as pleader, mukhtár, or revenue-agent whilst he has been contravening the provisions of either of such sections.

On suspended or dismissed pleader, &c., failing to deliver certificate.

33. Any pleader, mukhtár, or revenue-agent failing to deliver up his certificate as required by section 26, shall be liable, by order of the Court, Authority, or officer, to which or to whom, or according to whose orders, the delivery should be made, to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees, and, in default of payment, to imprisonment in the civil jail for a term which may extend to three months.

Act XVIII. of 1879.

On suspended or dismissed practitioner practising during suspension or after dismissal.

34. Any pleader, mukhtár, or revenue-agent who, under the provisions of this Act, has been suspended or dismissed, and who, during such suspension or after such dismissal, practises as a pleader, mukhtár, or revenue-agent in any Court or revenue-office, shall be liable, by order of such Court or the officer at the head of such office, to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees, and, in default of payment, to imprisonment in the civil jail for a term which may extend to six months.

Revision of fines.

35. Every order under section 32, 33, or 34, shall be subject to revision by the High Court where the order has been passed by a subordinate Court, and by the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority where the order has been passed by an officer subordinate to such Authority.

Penalty for receiving or giving commission.

36. Whoever commits any of the following offences:—

(a) solicits or receives from any legal practitioner any gratification in consideration of procuring or having procured his employment in any legal business;

(b) retains any gratification out of remuneration paid or delivered, or agreed to be paid or delivered, to any legal practitioner for such employment;

(c) being a legal practitioner, tenders, gives, or consents to the retention of, any gratification for procuring or having procured the employment in any legal business of himself or any other legal practitioner, shall be punished with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

CHAPTER VIII.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Local Government to appoint examiners.

37. To facilitate the ascertainment of the qualifications mentioned in sections 6 and 17 respectively, the Local Government shall, from time to time, appoint persons to be examiners for the purposes aforesaid, and may, from time to time, make regulations for conducting such examinations.

Exemption of High Court practitioners from certain parts of Act.

38. Except as provided by sections 4, 5, 16, 27, 32, and 36, nothing in this Act applies to advocates, vakils, and attorneys admitted and enrolled by any High Court under the Letters Patent by which such Court is constituted, or to mukhtárs practising in such Court, or to advocates enrolled "under section 41 of this Act."*

Suspension or dismissal of person holding mukhtár and revenue-agent's certificates.

39. When any person who holds a certificate as a mukhtár under section 7, and a certificate as a revenue-agent under section 18, is suspended or dismissed in one of such capacities, he shall be deemed to be suspended or dismissed, as the case may be, also in the other.

* The words quoted have been substituted for the words "by the Chief Court of the Punjab" by Act IX. of 1884, s. 7.

Pleaders, &c., not to be suspended or dismissed without being heard.

40. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, no pleader, mukhtár, or revenue-agent, shall be suspended or dismissed under this Act, unless he has been allowed an opportunity of defending himself before the Authority suspending or dismissing him.

Power for certain High Courts to enrol advocates.

41.* (1) A High Court not established by Royal Charter may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, make rules as to the qualifications and admission of proper persons to be advocates of the Court, and, subject to such rules, may enrol such and so many advocates as it thinks fit.

(2) Every advocate so enrolled shall be entitled to appear for the suitors of the Court, and to plead or to act, or to plead and act, for those suitors, according as the Court may by its rules determine, and subject to those rules.

(3) The High Court may dismiss any advocate so enrolled or suspend him from practice.

(4) Provided that an advocate shall not be dismissed or suspended under this section unless he has been allowed an opportunity of defending himself before the High Court which enrolled him, and, except in the case of the Chief Court of the Panjáb, unless the order of the High Court dismissing or suspending him has been confirmed by the Local Government.

Repeal of Acts I. of 1846 and XX. of 1853.

42.† Act I. of 1846 (for amending the law regarding the appointment and remuneration of pleaders in the Courts of the East India Company) and Act XX. of 1853 (to amend the law relating to pleaders in the Courts of the East India Company) are repealed.

ACT XIX. OF 1879.

THE RAIPUR AND KHATTRA LAWS ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 29TH OCTOBER 1879.

An Act to amend the Law in force in Thanas Raipur and Khattra.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the territory comprised in the thana of Raipur (including the independent police outpost of Simlapal) and the thana of Khattra has been transferred from the district of Mánbhum to the district of Bankúra;

And whereas the said territory, when included in the district of Mánbhum, formed portion of the Chutiá Nágpur Division, which is a scheduled district under Act No. XIV. of 1874 (the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874);

And whereas it is expedient that the law in force in the said territory should be the same as the law in force in the district of Bankúra; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Raipur and Khattra Laws Act, 1879:"

Commencement.

and it shall come into force at once.

Laws of Bankúra to apply.

2. All enactments which on the first day of October, 1879, were in force in the district of Bankúra and not in the said territory shall be deemed to have come into force in the said territory on that day; and all enactments, which on that day were in force in the said territory and not in the district of Bankúra shall be deemed to have been repealed on and from that day in the said territory.

Other laws repealed.

3. [Pending proceedings.] Repealed by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. I.

Territory to cease to be a scheduled district.

4. The said territory shall be deemed to have ceased to be a scheduled district on the said first day of October, 1879.

ACT XX. OF 1879.*

THE GLANDERS AND FARCY ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 14TH NOVEMBER 1879.

An Act to provide for the better prevention of Glanders and Farcy among Horses.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the better prevention of glanders and farcy among horses; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Glanders and Farcy Act, 1879:"

* Act XX. of 1879 has been extended to the Bombay Presidency by Act XXIV. of 1886.

Act XX. of 1879.

Local extent.

It extends to the whole of British India, except the territories respectively administered by the Governor of Fort St. George in Council * and the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal;

Commencement.

and it shall come into force at once.

Interpretation-clause.

2. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

"horse:"

"horse" includes also ponies, asses, mules, and jennets:

"diseased."

"diseased" means affected with glanders or farcy.

Local Government may apply the Act.

3. The Local Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, apply this Act, or any provision of this Act, to any local area, to be specified in such notification, within the territories administered by it, and may, in like manner, amend or cancel any such notification.

Local Government to appoint Inspectors.

4. When this Act has been so applied to any local area, the Local Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint, either by name or by virtue of their office, such persons as it thinks fit to be Inspectors under this Act, and to exercise and perform, within the whole of such local area or such portions thereof as it may from time to time prescribe, the powers conferred and the duties imposed by this Act on such officers.

Every person so appointed may be suspended or dismissed by the Loca Government which appointed him.

Every person so appointed shall be deemed a public servant within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code.

Inspector's power to seize horse.

5. Within the local limits for which he is so appointed, any such Inspector may seize any horse which he has reason to believe, from personal knowledge or from information given by any person and taken down in writing, is diseased.

Power of entry and search given to Inspectors.

6. For the purpose of making such seizure, such Inspector may, subject to such rules as the Local Government may from time to time make in this behalf, enter and search any field, building, or other place where he has reason to believe that any such horse is to be found.

Horse to be examined by Veterinary Surgeon.

7. On any such seizure, the Inspector shall cause the horse so seized to be examined as scon as possible by such Veterinary Surgeon as the Local Government may from time to time appoint in this behalf.

Horse to be destroyed if found diseased; otherwise restored.

8. If such Surgeon certifies in writing that such horse is diseased, the Inspector shall cause the same to be immediately destroyed; but if such Surgeon does not so certify, the Inspector shall at once deliver the same to the person entitled to the possession thereof.

* In s. 1, the words "the Governor of Bombay in Council," have here been omitted with the view of extending the Act to the Bombay Presidency.—See Act XXIV. of 1886, s. 1.

9. When any diseased horse has been in any building, shed, or other enclosed place, or in any open lines, the Inspector may issue a notice to the owner of such building, shed, place, or lines, or the person in charge thereof, directing him to have the same disinfected, and the internal fittings thereof, or such other things found therein or near thereto as the Local Government may from time to time by rule prescribe, destroyed.

When horse diseased, place where it has been to be disinfected, &c.

On the failure or neglect of such owner or other person to comply with such notice within a reasonable time, the Inspector shall cause such building, shed, place, or lines to be disinfected, and such fittings or other things to be destroyed, and the expense (if any) thereby incurred may be recovered from such owner or other person as if it were a fine.

10. The owner or any person in charge of a diseased horse shall give immediate information of such horse being diseased to the Inspector or to some officer of police.

Owner or person in charge of diseased horse to give notice.

11. No person in charge of any horse which has been in the same field, building, or place, or in contact with a diseased horse, shall move such horse, except in good faith for the purpose of preventing infection or under a license to be granted by the Inspector and subject to the conditions of such license.

Prohibition against removal, without license, of horse which has been with diseased horse.

12. Any Inspector who, without reasonable ground of suspicion, enters or searches any field, building, or other place, or vexatiously and unnecessarily seizes or detains any horse on the pretence that it is diseased, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

Vexatious entries, searches, and seizures.

No prosecution under this section shall be instituted after the expiry of three months from the date on which the offence has been committed.

13. Any person who refuses or neglects to comply with any notice issued by the Inspector under section 9, or who moves any horse in contravention of section 11, shall be punished with imprisonment which may extend to one month, or with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, or with both.

Penalty for refusing to comply with notice under section 9; or moving horse contrary to section 11.

14. The Local Government may, from time to time, make rules, consistent with this Act,—

Power to make rules.

(a) for regulating entries and searches by Inspectors under this Act;

(b) for regulating the destruction of horses certified under section 8 to be diseased, and the disposal of the carcases of such horses;

(c) for regulating the disinfecting of buildings and places in which diseased horses have been, and for prescribing what things found therein or near thereto shall be destroyed;

(d) for regulating the grant of licenses under section 11, and the conditions on which such licenses shall be granted; and (e) generally for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

All such rules shall be published in the official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

Act XXI. of 1879.

Any person breaking a rule made under this section shall be punished with imprisonment which may extend to one month, or with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, or with both.

15. [Repealed by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. I.]

ACT XXI. OF 1879.*

FOREIGN JURISDICTION AND EXTRADITION ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 14TH NOVEMBER 1879.

An Act to provide for the Trial of Offences committed in Places beyond British India and for the Extradition of Criminals.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by treaty, capitulation, agreement, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means, the Governor-General of India in Council has power and jurisdiction within divers places beyond the limits of British India; and whereas such power and jurisdiction have, from time to time, been delegated to Political Agents and others acting under the authority of the Governor-General in Council; and whereas doubts having arisen how far the exercise of such power and jurisdiction, and the delegation thereof, were controlled by, and dependent on, the laws of British India, the Foreign Jurisdiction and Extradition Act, 1872, was passed to remove such doubts, and also to consolidate and amend the law relating to the exercise and delegation of such power and jurisdiction, and to offences committed by British subjects beyond the limits of British India, and to the extradition of criminals; and whereas it is expedient to repeal that Act, and re-enact it with the amendments hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Foreign Jurisdiction and Extradition Act, 1879."

Extent.

It extends to the whole of British India;

to all Native Indian subjects of Her Majesty beyond the limits of British India; and to all European British subjects within the dominions of Princes and States in India in alliance with Her Majesty;

Commencement.

and it shall come into force on the passing thereof.

Saving of other laws and of treaty.

But nothing contained in this Act shall affect the provisions of any law or treaty for the time being in force as to the extradition of offenders; and the procedure provided by any such law or treaty shall be followed in every case to which it applies.

* Act XXI. of 1879 has been declared, under the Scheduled Districts Act (XIV. of 1874), to be in force in the following scheduled districts in the Chutia Nagpur Division:—The Districts of Hazáribágh, Lohárdaga, and Mánbhum, and Pargana Dhálbhum, and the Kolhán in the District of Singbhum.—See Gazette of India, Oct. 22, 1881, Pt. I., p. 504.

Repeal.

2 The Foreign Jurisdiction and Extradition Act, 1872, is repealed; but all existing appointments, delegations, certificates, requisitions, and rules made, and all existing notifications, summonses, warrants, orders, and directions issued, under that Act, shall, in so far as they are consistent herewith, be deemed to have been respectively made and issued hereunder. Act XXI. of 1879.

Interpretation-clause.

3. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

"Political Agent."

"Political Agent" means and includes—

(1) the principal officer representing the British Indian Government in any territory or place beyond the limits of British India;

(2) any officer in British India appointed by the Governor-General in Council, or the Governor in Council of the Presidency of Fort St. George or Bombay, to exercise all or any of the powers of a Political Agent under this Act for any place not forming part of British India; and "European British subject."

"European British subject" means a European British subject as defined in the Code of Criminal Procedure.*

CHAPTER II.

POWERS OF BRITISH OFFICERS IN PLACES BEYOND BRITISH INDIA.

Exercise of powers of Governor-General in places beyond British India, and delegation thereof.

4. The Governor-General in Council may exercise any power or jurisdiction which he for the time being has within any country or place beyond the limits of British India, and may delegate the same to any servant of the British Indian Government, in such manner and to such extent as the Governor-General in Council from time to time thinks fit.

Notification of exercise or delegation of such powers.

5. A notification in the Gazette of India of the exercise by the Governor-General in Council of any such power or jurisdiction, and of the delegation thereof by him to any person or class of persons, and of the rules of procedure or other conditions to which such persons are to conform, and of the local area within which their powers are to be exercised, shall be conclusive proof of the truth of the matters stated in the notification.

Appointment, powers, and jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace.

6. "The Governor-General in Council may appoint any European British subject, either by name or by virtue of his office, to be a Justice of the Peace in or for any such country or place;"† and every such Justice of the Peace shall have in proceedings against European British subjects, or persons accused of having committed offences conjointly with such subjects, all the powers conferred by the Code of Criminal Procedure* on Magistrates of the first class who are Justices of the Peace and European British subjects.

---

* See Act X. of 1882, s. 3.

† The words quoted have been substituted for 33 words which have been repealed.—See Act XII. of 1891.

Act XXI, of 1879.

The Governor-General in Council may direct to what Court having jurisdiction over European British subjects any such Justice of the Peace is to commit for trial.

Confirmation of existing Political Agents and Justices.

7. All Political Agents and all Justices of the Peace appointed before the twenty-fifth day of April 1872 by the Governor-General in Council or the Governor in Council of the Presidency of Fort St. George or Bombay, in or for any such country or place as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be and to have been appointed, and to have had jurisdiction, under the provisions of this Act.

Extension of criminal law of British India to British subjects out of British India.

8. The law relating to offences and to criminal procedure for the time being in force in British India shall, subject as to procedure to such modifications as the Governor-General in Council from time to time directs, extend—

(a) to all European British subjects in the dominions of Princes and States in India in alliance with Her Majesty; and (b) to all Native Indian subjects of Her Majesty in any place beyond the limits of British India.

CHAPTER III.

9 & 10. [Repealed by Act X. of 1882, s. 2 and Sch. I (b).]

CHAPTER IV.

EXTRADITION.

Arrest and removal of persons other than European British subjects escaping into British India.

11. When an offence has been committed or is supposed to have been committed, in any State against the law of such State by a person not being a European British subject, and such person escapes into or is in British India, the Political Agent for such State may issue a warrant for his arrest and delivery at a place and to a person to be named in the warrant—if such Political Agent thinks that the offence is one which ought to be inquired into in such State; and if the act said to have been done would, if done in British India, have constituted an offence against any of the sections of the Indian Penal Code mentioned in the schedule hereto annexed, or under any other section of the said Code, or any other law, which may, from time to time, be specified by the Governor-General in Council by a notification in the Gazette of India.

Direction and execution of warrant.

12. Such warrant may be directed to the Magistrate of any district in which the accused person is believed to be, and shall be executed in the manner provided by the law for the time being in force with reference to the execution of warrants;* and the

* See now Act X. of 1882, Ch. VI. (B).

4. A Political Agent issuing a warrant for the arrest of any rson under s. 11 may in his discretion direct by endorsement reon that, if such person executes a bond with sufficient reties for his attendance before the officer mentioned in the rrant at a specified time, the magistrate to whom the warra directed shall take such security & release such person om custody.
e endorsement shall state (a) the number of sureties if a the amount in which they & the person for whose arrest the rrant is issued are to be respectively bound, & (c) the time & ce at which he is to attend before the officer mentioned warrant.
3. If the person bound by any bond executed under the last egoing section to appear before the officer mentioned therein does appear, the magistrate may, on being satisfied as to his default ue a warrant directing that he be re-arrested & delivered over ch officer.
C. In the case of every bond required to be executed or which a ve been executed in accordance with the foregoing provisions p wers conferred by ss. 513 & 514 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 18
Court which has required the execution of or has taken a bond

Act V of 1916 s. 4.

accused person, when arrested, shall be forwarded to the place, and delivered to the officer named in the warrant. Act XXI. of 1879.

Political Agent may himself dispose of case, or make over person to ordinary Courts for trial.

13. Such Political Agent may either dispose of the case himself, or, if he is generally or specially directed to do so by the Governor-General in Council or by the Governor of the Presidency of Fort St. George in Council, or by the Governor of the Presidency of Bombay in Council, may give over the person so forwarded, whether he be a Native Indian subject of Her Majesty or not, to be tried by the ordinary Courts of the State in which the offence was committed.

Requisitions for extradition by the executive of any part of British dominions or Foreign Power.

14. Whenever a requisition is made to the Governor-General in Council or any Local Government by or by the authority of the persons for the time being administering the executive government of any part of the dominions of Her Majesty, or the territory of any Foreign Prince or State, that any person accused of having committed an offence in such dominions or territory should be given up, the Governor-General in Council or such Local Government, as the case may be, may issue an order to any Magistrate who would have had jurisdiction to enquire into the offence if it had been committed within the local limits of his jurisdiction, directing him to inquire into the truth of such accusation.

The Magistrate so directed shall issue a summons or warrant for the arrest of such person, according as the offence named appears to be one for which a summons or warrant would ordinarily issue; and shall inquire into the truth of such accusation, and shall report thereon to the Government by which he was directed to hold the said enquiry. If, upon receipt of such report, such Government is of opinion that the accused person ought to be given up to the persons making such requisition, it may issue a warrant for the custody and removal of such accused person and for his delivery at a place and to a person to be named in the warrant.

The provisions of section 10* shall apply to inquiries held under this section.

Magistrate may in certain cases issue warrant for arrest of person accused of having committed an offence out of British India.

15. Whenever any person accused or suspected of having committed an offence out of British India is within the local limits of the jurisdiction of a Magistrate in British India, and it appears to such Magistrate that the Political Agent for any State could, under the provisions of section 11, issue a warrant for the arrest of such person, or that the persons for the time being administering the executive government of any part of the dominions of Her Majesty or the territory of any Foreign Prince or State could demand his surrender, such Magistrate may, if he thinks fit, issue a warrant for the arrest of such person, on such information or complaint, and such evidence as would, in his opinion justify the issue of such a warrant if the offence had been committed within the local limits of his jurisdiction.

Magistrate to inform Political Agent or Local Government.

Any Magistrate issuing a warrant under this section shall, when the offence appears or is alleged to have been committed in a State for which there is a Political Agent, send immediate information of his proceedings to such Agent, and in other cases shall at once report his proceedings to the Local Government.

* Repealed.—See now Act X. of 1882, s. 189.

Act XXI. of 1879.

Person arrested to be released after certain time if not proceeded against.

16. No person arrested on a warrant issued by a Magistrate under section 15 shall be detained more than two months from the date of his arrest, unless within such period the Magistrate receives a warrant under section 11 from the Political Agent for any State for the delivery of such person, or an order with reference to him under section 14 from the Governor-General in Council or Local Government, or such person is, in accordance with law, delivered up to some Foreign Prince or State.

At any time before the receipt of such a warrant or order, the Magistrate, if he thinks fit, may, and the Magistrate if so directed by the Local Government shall, discharge the accused person.

Bail.

17. The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure in respect of bail* shall apply in the case of any person arrested under section 15 in the same manner as if such person were accused of committing in British India the offence with which he is charged.

CHAPTER V.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Power to make rules.

18. The Governor-General in Council may, from time to time, make rules to provide for—

(1) the confinement, diet, and prison-discipline of British subjects, European or native, imprisoned by Political Agents under this Act;

(2) the removal of accused persons under this Act, and their control and maintenance until such time as they are handed over to the persons named in the warrant as entitled to receive them; and

(3) generally to carry out the purposes of this Act.

Execution of Commissions issued by Foreign Criminal Courts.

19. The testimony of any witness may be obtained in relation to any criminal matter pending in any Court or tribunal in the territory of any Foreign Prince or State in like manner as it may be obtained in relation to any civil matter under the Code of Civil Procedure, Chapter XXV.; † and the provisions of that chapter shall be construed as if the term "suit" included a proceeding against a criminal:

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply in the case of any criminal matter of a political character.

THE SCHEDULE.

ACT I. OF 1880.*

Act I. of 1880.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETIES ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 4TH JANUARY 1880.

An Act to confer certain Powers on Religious Societies.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to simplify the manner in which certain bodies of persons associated for the purpose of maintaining religious worship may hold property acquired for such purpose, and to provide for the dissolution of such bodies and the adjustment of their affairs, and for the decision of certain questions relating to such bodies; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Religious Societies Act, 1880:"

Commencement.

It shall come into force at once; and

Local extent.

shall extend to the whole of British India;

but nothing herein contained shall apply to any Hindus, Muhammadans, or Buddhists, or to any persons whom the Governor-General in Council may, from time to time, by notification in the Gazette of India, exclude from the operation of this Act.

Appointment of new trustee in cases not otherwise provided for.

2. When any body of persons associated for the purpose of maintaining religious worship has acquired, or hereafter shall acquire, any property, and such property has been or hereafter shall be vested in trustees in trust for such body, and it becomes necessary to appoint a new trustee in the place of or in addition to any such trustee or any trustee appointed in the manner hereinafter prescribed, and no manner of appointing such new trustee is prescribed by any instrument by which such property was so vested or by which the trusts on which it is held have been declared, or such new trustee cannot for any reason be appointed in the manner so prescribed, such new trustee may be appointed in such manner as may be agreed upon by such body, or by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the members of such body, actually present at the meeting at which the appointment is made.

Appointment under section 2 to be recorded in a memorandum under the hand of the chairman of the meeting.

3. Every appointment of new trustees under section 2 shall be made to appear by some memorandum under the hand of the chairman for the time being of the meeting at which such appointment is made.

---

* Act I. of 1880 has been declared, under the Scheduled Districts Act (XIV. of 1874), to be in force in the following scheduled districts in the Chutia Nágpur Division: The Districts of Hazáribágh, Lohárdaga, and Mánbhum, and Pargana Dhálbhum, and the Kolhán in the District of Singbhum.—See Gazette of India, Oct. 22, 1881, Pt. I., p. 504.

Act I. of 1880.

Such memorandum shall be in the form set forth in the schedule hereto annexed, or as near thereto as circumstances allow, shall be executed and attested by two or more credible witnesses in the presence of such meeting, and shall be deemed to be a document of which the registration is required by the Indian Registration Act, 1877, section 17.

Property to vest in new trustees without conveyance.

4. When any new trustees have been appointed, whether in the manner prescribed by any such instrument as aforesaid or in the manner hereinbefore provided, the property subject to the trust shall forthwith, notwithstanding anything contained in any such instrument, become vested, without any conveyance or other assurance, in such new trustees and the old continuing trustees jointly, or, if there are no old continuing trustees, in such new trustees wholly, upon the same trusts, and with and subject to the same powers and provisions, as it was vested in the old trustees.

Saving of existing modes of appointment and conveyance.

5. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to invalidate any appointment of new trustees, or any conveyance of any property, which may hereafter be made as heretofore was by law required.

Provision for dissolution of societies, and adjustment of their affairs.

6. Any number not less than three-fifths of the members of any such body as aforesaid may, at a meeting convened for the purpose, determine that such body shall be dissolved; and thereupon it shall be dissolved forthwith, or at the time then agreed upon; and all necessary steps shall be taken for the disposal and settlement of the property of such body, its claims and liabilities, according to the rules of such body applicable thereto, if any, and, if not, then as such body at such meeting may determine:

Provided that, in the event of any dispute arising among the members of such body, the adjustment of its affairs shall be referred to the principal Court of original Civil jurisdiction of the district in which the chief building of such body is situate; and the Court shall make such order in the matter as it deems fit.

Upon a dissolution no member to receive profit.

7. If upon the dissolution of any such body there remains, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of such body or any of them, but shall be given to some other body of persons associated for the purpose of maintaining religious worship or some other religious or charitable purpose to be determined by the votes of not less than three-fifths of the members present at a meeting convened in this behalf, or in default thereof by such Court as last aforesaid.

Saving of certain provisions of instruments.

8. Nothing in sections 6 and 7 shall be deemed to affect any provision contained in any instrument for the dissolution of such body, or for the payment or distribution of such property.

Questions may be submitted to High Court.

9. When any question arises, either in connection with the matters hereinbefore referred to, or otherwise, as to whether any person is a member of any such body as aforesaid, or as to the validity of any appointment under this Act, any person interested in such question may apply by petition to the High Court for its opinion on such question. A copy of such petition shall be served upon, and the hearing thereof may be attended by, such other persons interested in the question as the Court thinks fit. Act I. of 1880.

Any opinion given by the Court on an application under this section shall be deemed to have the force of a declaratory decree.

The costs of every application under this section shall be in the discretion of the Court.

Act II. of 1880.

ACT II. OF 1880.

THE BURMA DISTRICT CESSES AND RURAL POLICE ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 24TH JANUARY 1880.

An Act to amend the Law relating to District Cesses and Rural Police in Lower Burma.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision in Lower Burma for the maintenance of rural police and of a local postal service, the construction of works of public utility, sanitary improvement, and the promotion of education; and whereas it is also expedient to declare and amend the law relating to rural police in the said province; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Preliminary.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Burma District Cesses and Rural Police Act, 1880:"

Commencement.

and it shall come into force on such date as the Chief Commissioner of Lower Burma* may, by notification in the local Gazette,† direct.

Local extent.

It extends to all the territories for the time being administered by the said Chief Commissioner:

Provided that the said Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, by notification in the local Gazette, exempt any portion of the said territories from its operation, and cancel such exemption:

Provided also that nothing herein contained applies to any town to which the Burma Municipal Act, 1884,‡ for the time being, extends.

Interpretation-clause.

2. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

"land-revenue" means revenue assessed upon land under the provisions of the Burma Land and Revenue Act, 1876: and

"revenue-officer" means any person appointed a revenue-officer under the same Act.

Repeal.

3. The following portions of the said Burma Land and Revenue Act, 1876, are repealed (namely): sections 31 and 32, in sections 37 and 46 the words "five per cent. cess," and the word "cess" wherever it occurs in the said Act; but all cesses imposed under that Act shall be deemed to have been imposed under this Act.

* Since Upper Burma was placed under the administration of the Chief Commissioner of Lower Burma, this officer is styled Chief Commissioner of Burma.—See Proclamation dated Sep. 25, 1886, Gazette of India, 25th idem, Pt. I., p. 539.

† Act II. of 1880 came into force on April 1, 1880.—See Burma Gazette, March 13, 1880, Pt. II., p. 55.

‡ This Act has been substituted in s. 1 for Act VII. of 1874.—See Act XI. of 1889, s. 100.

Cesses.

Act II. of 1880.

Cess on land.

4. On all lands assessed to land-revenue there shall be levied in addition thereto an annual cess of ten per cent. on the amount of such revenue.

Saving of existing house-tax.

5 In every town, village, or hamlet, in which, at the date on which this Act comes into force, a house-tax is levied, such tax shall continue to be levied.

Cess on houses.

6. The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, by notification in the local Gazette, direct that in any specified town, village, or hamlet, there shall be levied from the occupier of each house an annual cess to be fixed in manner hereinafter provided, but which shall in no case exceed two rupees:

Provided that such cess shall not be levied—

(a) in any place in which the house-tax referred to in section 5 is levied; or

(b) in respect of any monastery, pagoda, sacred building, Government-building, public rest-house, or school:

Provided also that, in respect of any house occupied by a person bound to pay cess under section 4, no larger amount shall be levied under this section than will, together with the cess so payable by such person, amount to two rupees.

"House" in this section means any building used as a human dwelling or for the custody of property.

Power to abolish or exempt from cess or tax.

7. The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, by notification in the official Gazette, direct that any tax or cess levied in any place under section 5 or section 6 shall cease, or that any person or class of persons shall be exempted from the whole or any specified part of such tax or cess.

Powers of Deputy Commissioner.

8. Subject to the other provisions of this Act and to any rules made hereunder and for the time being in force, the Deputy Commissioner of the district may from time to time—

(a)* declare what shall, for the purposes of this Act, be held to be a house;

(b) fix the amount of cess to be levied in respect of each house;

(c) remit such cess in whole or in part.

Purposes to which funds are to be applied.

9. A separate account shall be kept for each district of all cesses and house-tax levied under this Act in such district; and such cesses and tax shall be appropriated in each year in that district, in such proportions as the Chief Commissioner may from time to time direct, to all or any of the following local objects (namely):—

(a) the maintenance of the rural police appointed under this Act;

* In places to which ss. 2 to 13 of the Lower Burma Village Act, 1889, are extended, the following should be substituted for s. 9, cl. a:—

"(a) the remuneration of the headmen and the maintenance of the rural police appointed under the Lower Burma Village Act, 1889."—See Act III. of 1889, s. 4.

Act II. of 1880.

(b) the maintenance of a local postal service;

(c) the construction and maintenance of district-roads and other communications, and the improvement of river-channels;

(d) other works of public utility;

(e) sanitary improvement; and (f) the promotion of education:

Provided that the Chief Commissioner may, on the thirty-first day of March in any year, transfer the whole or part of any balance then standing under either of the heads (b) or (c) in the account of any district to the corresponding head in the account of any other district in the same division.

Time and mode of payment of cesses, &c.

10. All cesses and house-tax levied under this Act shall be payable for the year of assessment of land-revenue as fixed under the Burma Land and Revenue Act, 1876, section 41, and shall be payable at the place at which, and to the person to whom, the land-revenue is from time to time payable, or at such other place, and to such other person, as the Chief Commissioner may direct.

Sums assessed on the amount of land-revenue shall fall due on the date on which the land-revenue falls due.

Sums assessed on houses shall fall due on such dates as the Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, in that behalf direct.

Realization of cesses, &c.

11. All sums assessed under this Act on the amount of any land-revenue may be recovered as if they were part of such revenue.

All other sums payable under this Act may be recovered in the manner prescribed in sections 44 and 45 of the Burma Land and Revenue Act, 1876.

Rural Police.

Rural police.

12.* The rural police shall be of two classes—

(a) headmen of hamlets or groups of hamlets, or of villages or towns, or sections of villages or towns, hereinafter called headmen;

(b) headmen of circuits, hereinafter called goungs.

Appointment of rural police.

13.* Subject to the rules made under this Act and for the time being in force, the Deputy Commissioner of the district shall have power to appoint, suspend, and remove headmen and goungs, and to fix the limits of the beats of headmen and the circuits of goungs:

Provided that all kyaydangyees and yazawut goungs holding office as such in any local areas on the date on which this Act comes into force shall be deemed to be respectively headmen and goungs appointed under this Act, and such local areas shall be deemed to have been fixed as their beats and circuits respectively under this Act.

Duties of headmen.

14.* Every headman shall perform the following duties (namely):—

(a) he shall give immediate information to the goung of the circuit in which his beat is situated, or the officer in charge of the police-station appointed for his beat, of all disputes within his beat which may come to his knowledge, and which are likely to lead to any riot or serious affray :

* Ss. 12 to 21 will be repealed in those parts of Lower Burma to which ss. 2 to 13 of the Lower Burma Village Act, 1889, are extended,—See Act III. of 1889, s. 1 (b).

(b) he shall report to the goung or police-officer aforesaid the arrival in, or in the neighbourhood of, his beat of suspicious characters and of persons who have been convicted under the Indian Penal Code, Chapter XII. (Of offences relating to coin and Government-stamps) and Chapter XVII. (Of offences against property), and the movements of all bad characters within his beat :

(c) he shall report to the goung or police-officer aforesaid all breaches of laws and rules relating to excise and opium which occur within his beat, and come to his knowledge :

(d) he shall, to the best of his ability, supply any local information which any Magistrate or revenue-officer or officer of police may require, and promptly execute all lawful orders issued to him by, or by authority of, the Deputy Commissioner :

(e) he shall attend the revenue-officer of the circle, so long as such officer is within his beat, for the purpose of assessing or collecting land-revenue, cesses, or taxes, and shall give him all available information regarding the cultivation of land and other matters relating to the revenue :

(f) he shall, in accordance with such rules as may from time to time be made by the Chief Commissioner, keep up a register of all births, marriages, and deaths within his beat, and collect and register any other vital statistics which may be prescribed by such rules :

(g) he shall afford all assistance in his power to Government-officers, and, on the order of the Deputy Commissioner, to other persons, in procuring food, labour, carriage, and other requisites of travel.

Duties of goungs.

15.* The duties of a goung in respect of his circuit shall, mutatis mutandis, be the same as those of a headman in respect of his beat.

Power of headmen and goungs to demand help.

16.* For the purpose of preventing the commission of any offence or arresting any offenders whom he is authorized to arrest, any headman or goung may require any male person between the ages of eighteen and sixty within his beat or circuit at the time to assist him in preventing the commission of such offence, or in making such arrest, and in guarding and escorting the person arrested.

Obligation to render help.

Every person as aforesaid shall, in the absence of reasonable excuse, the burden of proving which shall lie upon him, be bound to comply with any requisition made to him under this section.

Powers and duties of police-officers may be conferred and imposed on headmen and goungs.

17.* The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, by notification in the local Gazette, make rules consistent with this Act—

(a) conferring upon headmen and goungs any powers, protection, or privileges which may be exercised or enjoyed by a police-officer under any enactment for the time being in force ;

(b) imposing upon headmen and goungs any duties imposed on a police-officer by any enactment for the time being in force ; and

* Ss. 12 to 21 will be repealed in those parts of Lower Burma to which ss. 2 to 13 of the Lower Burma Village Act, 1889, are extended.—See Act III. of 1889, s. 1 (b).

Act II. of 1880.

(c) regulating the exercise, enjoyment, and discharge of such powers, protection, privileges, and duties by such headmen and goungs.

Penalties for breach of duty.

18.* Every headman or goung who—

(a) is guilty of cowardice or of wilful misconduct in his office, or of neglect of duty; or

(b) except with the permission of the Deputy Commissioner, withdraws from the duties of his office without having given to the Deputy Commissioner at least two months' notice of his intention to withdraw from such duties; or

(c) offers any unnecessary personal violence to any person in his custody, may, in addition to any other penalty to which he may be liable, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month, or with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, or both.

Bar of prosecution.

No complaint against a headman or goung of any act or omission punishable under this section shall be entertained by any Court unless the prosecution is instituted by order of, or under authority from, the Deputy Commissioner.

Limitation of prosecution.

19.* No prosecution against any person for anything purporting to be done under section 14, 15, or 16, or under any rule made in exercise of the powers conferred by section 17, shall be commenced after the expiration of three months next after the act complained of has been committed.

Notice of suit to be given.

No suit shall be brought for anything so purporting to be done until the expiration of one month next after notice in writing has been delivered at the residence of such person, or at the office of the Deputy Commissioner of the district in which the act was done, stating the cause of suit and the name and place of abode of the plaintiff.

Previous tender of amends.

If any person to whom any such notice of suit is given shall, before such suit is brought, tender sufficient amends to the plaintiff, such plaintiff shall not recover.

Protection to officers acting under warrant.

20.* No prosecution shall be instituted against any headman or goung for any act done by him in such capacity, under the authority of a warrant issued by a Magistrate, notwithstanding any defect of jurisdiction in such Magistrate.

Miscellaneous.

Help in cases of dacoity and robbery.

21.* If, within or in the immediate neighbourhood of any town, village, or hamlet, a dacoity or a robbery is committed or attempted, or dacoits or robbers are harboured, sheltered, or assisted, and if the inhabitants of such town, village, or hamlet, without reasonable excuse, fail to render active assistance in preventing the offence or in arresting and securing the offenders, the Chief Commissioner may, after such enquiry as he deems necessary, impose upon such town,

* Ss. 12 to 21 will be repealed in those parts of Lower Burma to which ss. 2 to 13 of the Lower Burma Village Act, 1889, are extended.—See Act III. of 1889, s. 1 (b).

village, or hamlet, or upon any section thereof, a fine, to be assessed upon the inhabitants according to his judgment of their respective means and of the circumstances of the case. Act IV. of 1880.

Powers and duties of revenue-officers.

22 For the purposes of this Act, the Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, by notification in the local Gazette, invest any revenue-officer with any of the powers, and impose on him any of the duties, with which he may invest him, or which he may impose upon him under the Burma Land and Revenue Act, 1876, and the rules framed under it.

Control of Commissioner and Chief Commissioner.

23. All proceedings of any Deputy Commissioner or revenue-officer under this Act shall be subject to control, revision and alteration by the Commissioner to whom he is subordinate, and by the Chief Commissioner.

Power to make rules.

24. The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, make rules consistent with this Act for the guidance of officers in all matters connected with its enforcement.

All such rules and all other rules made under this Act shall be published in the local Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

ACT IV. OF 1880.

THE PORTUGUESE TREATY ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 30TH JANUARY 1880.

An Act to give Effect to the Convention between the Governors-General of British India and Portuguese India regarding the Extradition of Criminals, and to the Twentieth Article of the Treaty between Her Majesty and the King of Portugal and the Algarves.

WHEREAS, by the nineteenth Article of the Treaty of Commerce and Extradition between Her Majesty and the King of Portugal and the Algarves, executed at Lisbon on the twenty-sixth day of December, 1878, and ratified on the sixth day of August, 1879, it was provided that the High Contracting Parties should deliver up to each other those persons who, being accused or convicted of crimes committed in the Indian dominions or jurisdiction of the one party, should be found in the Indian dominions or jurisdiction of the other party, and that the circumstances and conditions under which, and the crimes for which, such persons should be delivered up should form the subject of a separate Convention between the Governors-General of British India and Portuguese India to be executed at the earliest date possible after the ratification of the said Treaty, and that such Convention should have the same binding character as the said Treaty, and should continue in force for the same period:

and whereas, in pursuance of the said Article, the Convention set forth in the schedule hereto annexed has been executed; and whereas by the twentieth Article of the said Treaty, it was provided that Commissions issued in criminal trials and enquiries by the judicial tribunals of the one party, for the examination of persons resident in the dominions of the other, should be executed according to the provisions of the laws of the dominions where the witness resides;

Act IV. of 1880.

and whereas it is doubtful whether, under the existing law of British India, there is authority to give effect to all the provisions of the said Convention and of the said twentieth Article;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Provisions of Convention to be followed.

1. The provisions of the said Convention shall be followed in British India in every case to which they apply.

Procedure.

The procedure prescribed in the Code of Criminal Procedure* shall, in so far as it is not inconsistent with the said Convention, be followed in every such case.

Execution of Commissions issued by Portuguese Criminal Courts.

2. The testimony of any witness may be obtained in relation to any criminal matter pending in any Court or tribunal in Portuguese India in like manner as it may be obtained in relation to any civil matter under the Code of Civil Procedure, Chapter XXV.,† and the provisions of that chapter shall be construed as if the term "suit" included a proceeding against a criminal.

Short title.

3. This Act may be called "The Portuguese Treaty Act, 1880."

THE SCHEDULE.

Whereas, by the nineteenth Article of a Treaty dated the twenty-sixth day of December, 1878, and ratified on the sixth day of August, 1879, between Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, and His Most Faithful Majesty the King of Portugal and the Algarves, it is provided that the High Contracting Parties engage to deliver up to each other those persons who, being accused or convicted of crimes committed in the Indian dominions or jurisdiction of the one party, shall be found in the Indian dominions or jurisdiction of the other party; and whereas by the same Article it is further provided that the circumstances and conditions under which, and the crimes for which, such persons are to be delivered up, shall form the subject of a separate Convention between the Governors-General of British India and Portuguese India, to be executed at the earliest date possible after the ratification of the said Treaty,

In pursuance of the said Article, the undersigned Governors-General of British India and Portuguese India, acting respectively on behalf of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, and His Most Faithful Majesty the King of Portugal and the Algarves (hereinafter called the High Contracting Parties) have agreed that the said persons shall be so delivered up under the circumstances, and subject to the exceptions, hereinafter stated, namely:—

(a) When the crime for which extradition is claimed has been committed beyond the dominions of the party claiming, the requisition shall also be complied with, if the laws of the party applied to authorize a prosecution for such crime when committed beyond his dominions, and if the person claimed is a subject of the party claiming his extradition.

---

* See Act X. of 1882, s. 3.
† See Act XIV. of 1882, s. 3.

Act IV. of 1880.

The extradition shall also take place for complicity or participation in any of the aforesaid crimes, and for any attempt to commit any such crime, provided such complicity, participation, or attempt be punishable by the laws of both the High Contracting Parties.

(c) No British subject by birth or naturalization shall be delivered up by the Government or authorities of British India to the Government or authorities of Portuguese India; and, in like manner, no Portuguese subject by birth or naturalization shall be delivered up by the Government or authorities of Portuguese India to the Government or authorities of British India. Naturalization after the commission of the crime shall not be an obstacle to the extradition.

(d) The Governor-General of British India will, from time to time, communicate to the Governor-General of Portuguese India a list of Native States which, with the subjects thereof, are entitled to be placed, for the purposes of this Convention, upon the same footing as British India and the subjects of Her Britannic Majesty.

(e) The extradition shall not take place if the person claimed has already been tried and acquitted, or punished for the same crime for which extradition is asked. If he should be under trial for any other crime, his extradition shall be deferred until the conclusion of the trial; and if the execution of the sentence, if any, would interfere with the extradition, it shall be postponed, in order that the extradition may take place. If upon extradition he be sentenced to other further punishment, the two High Contracting Parties shall arrange that the punishments shall be fulfilled according to priority of date of sentence.

(f) The extradition shall not take place if, after the commission of the crime, or the institution of the prosecution or the conviction thereon, the person claimed shall have acquired exemption from prosecution, or punishment, by lapse of time, according to the laws of the State applied to.

(g) A person surrendered shall not be kept in prison or brought to trial, by the party to whom the surrender is made, for any other crime or on account of any other matters than those for which the surrender has been granted. This stipulation is not applicable to crimes committed after the extradition.

(h) If the person whose extradition is claimed by one of the High Contracting Parties shall be also claimed by one or more other Governments, on account of crimes committed in their respective dominions, the following rule shall be observed:—

If he is a subject of the High Contracting Party who claims him, the surrender shall be made to such party. If he is not so, the other High Contracting Party shall have the power of delivering him up to the reclaiming Government which, in the case in question, may appear to the former best entitled to the preference.

(i) The requisition for extradition may be made, on behalf of Her Britannic Majesty, by the Government of British India or by the Government of the Presidency of Bombay; and, on behalf of His Most Faithful Majesty, by the Government of Portuguese India:

Provided that, when the person claimed is accused of any of the above crimes which in British India is not exclusively triable by the High Court or the Court of Session, the requisition may also be made by the Governors of the Portuguese Settlements of Damaun and Diu, for any such crime committed in such Settlements respectively, and may be preferred directly to any District Magistrate or Political Agent within whose local jurisdiction such accused person may be found. Such District Magistrate or Political Agent shall, subject to the exceptions and conditions of this Convention, and unless he deem reference to higher authority to be absolutely necessary, comply with such requisition by delivering up the accused.

In like manner, any District Magistrate or Political Agent may make requisition to the Government of Portuguese India, or to the Governors of Damaun and Diu respectively, for the extradition of any person found in their jurisdiction who is accused of the commission, within the local jurisdiction of such District Magistrate or Political Agent, of any of the above crimes, the maximum punishment for which, by the Portuguese Penal Code, does not exceed imprisonment for seven years or an equivalent thereto. Subject to the exceptions and conditions of this Convention, such requisition shall be complied with by the delivering up of the accused, unless reference to higher authority shall be deemed absolutely necessary.

The authority receiving a requisition may hold, or cause to be held, such inquiry as he may deem sufficient for the purpose of ascertaining the existence of primâ-facie proof of facts which constitute a crime, for which extradition may be granted under clause (b) of this Convention, and, in the absence of such proof, may decline to deliver up the accused person.

(j) Every requisition shall ordinarily be accompanied by the summons or warrant of arrest, or an authenticated copy thereof, issued by the competent authority of the State applying for it, and by a statement setting forth the facts of he offence, and sufficient particulars to enable the accused to be identified.

In cases of urgency, satisfactory proof of the existence of a warrant of arrest issued by competent authority may be provisionally accepted in support of a requisition.

(k) If the person claimed has not already been arrested by the authorities of the State to whom the requisition is made, such authorities shall at once proceed to secure his appearance.

(l) Any person accused of any of the above crimes, and whether a subject of the party in whose dominions or jurisdiction he is found or otherwise, may be arrested by the authorities of such dominions—on production of a warrant of arrest issued by the competent authority of the other party ; or on advice, from such competent authority, transmitted by post, telegraph, or other means, stating the existence of such warrant of arrest ;

or on demand made by the Magistrate or police-officer of the other party who has pursued the accused across the frontier ; or on receipt of advice of the fact of the crime, whether communicated by a private complainant or otherwise, and whether or not the individual offender may be known or specified by name.

(m) Every such Magistrate or police-officer who has pursued the accused across the frontier shall be entitled to the protection and assistance of the Magistrates and police-officers of the State to whose dominions or jurisdiction the accused has fled. They shall forthwith take up the pursuit, and, without waiting for the orders of higher authority, shall make all necessary searches, inquiries, pursuits, arrests, and recoveries of stolen property, in accordance with the local law of criminal procedure.*

Act IV. of 1880.

The Magistrate or police-officer who has pursued the accused across the frontier shall not enter houses or buildings, or make searches or arrests, except in presence or under the authority of a local Magistrate or police-officer, but shall act in subordination to the local Magistrates or police-officers, and shall assist them, if so required, in all necessary searches, inquiries, pursuits, arrests, and recoveries of stolen property.

(n) Whenever any person is arrested in the dominions or jurisdiction of the one party for any of the above crimes committed in the dominions or jurisdiction of the other party, notice shall be given to the authorities of the other party, who may then, if the accused is a subject of the State where he is found, claim that he be tried there; or, if he is not such a subject, claim his extradition as provided in this Convention.

(o) All weapons and articles necessary as evidence shall be seized in order to their production before the proper officer, and, in case of extradition, in order that they may be delivered up with the accused when the extradition shall take place.

Such seizure and delivery shall extend to articles stolen or obtained by other offences, and the proceeds of such property, and to everything that may serve as evidence of the crime; and shall be made even when the extradition cannot be made, or the trial cannot be held, on account of the flight or death of the accused.

Nothing in this clause shall affect the rights of third parties to any such weapons and articles.

(p) The expenses occasioned by the arrest, imprisonment, maintenance, and transport of criminals, and the conveyance of articles, shall, within the dominions, and as far as the frontier, be defrayed by the party in whose dominions or jurisdiction such criminals or articles are found; the expenses by sea and beyond the frontier shall be defrayed by the other party.

(q) A British subject accused of having committed any of the above crimes in the Portuguese Indian dominions or jurisdiction may be dealt with by the British Indian authorities as if the crime had been committed in British India; and a Portuguese subject accused of having committed any of the above crimes in the British Indian dominions or jurisdiction may be dealt with by the Portuguese Indian authorities as if the crime had been committed in Portuguese India:

Provided that the accused is found in the dominions or jurisdiction of the party to whom he is subject, and has not been acquitted or punished in the dominions or jurisdiction in which he committed the crime.

Complaints of any such crimes shall be inquired into by the police and judicial authorities irrespective of the nationality of the complainant, in accordance with the local laws.

(r) In all such trials and enquiries, the evidence of witnesses whose attendance cannot be procured without an unreasonable amount of delay, expense, or inconvenience, may be recorded by the judicial authorities of the State where the offence occurred, on receipt of an interrogatory Commission from the other State, and such depositions or certified copies thereof shall be received by the authorities of the other State as valid evidence: Provided that the authorities of the one State shall in all cases aid those of the other, as far as may be, in securing the personal attendance of witnesses, and reasonable time shall be allowed for the production of evidence before the final discharge or conviction of the accused. Act V. of 1880.

* See Act X. of 1882.

(s) If, within two months after receipt of notice of the arrest, no requisition for extradition or complaint, or application for a trial, shall have been made, the accused may be set at liberty. He shall be set at liberty if, within one month of the day on which he was brought to the frontier or seaport, and there placed at the disposal of the party claiming, he shall not have been despatched to the dominions of such party:

Provided that, until the extradition takes place, the accused may be liberated on bail or recognizance where such procedure is allowed by the law of the dominions or jurisdiction where he is found; and that, after the extradition, the procedure shall be that provided by the law of the other dominions or jurisdiction.

(t) The High Contracting Parties engage to aid each other in the apprehension and surrender of deserters from their respective naval and military forces, and to apply all the provisions of this Convention to the offence of deserting.

It is agreed that this Convention shall have effect from the first day of February one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

Done at Calcutta on the thirtieth day of January in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

LYTTON,
Viceroy and Governor-General of British India.

Done at Panjim on the twentieth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

Governor-General of Portuguese India.

ACT V. OF 1880.*

THE BURMA BOUNDARIES ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 20TH FEBRUARY 1880.

An Act to provide for the Demarcation of Land and for the Establishment and Maintenance of Boundary-marks in British Burma.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the demarcation of land and for the establishment and maintenance of boundary-marks in British Burma; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

---

* Act V. of 1880 has been extended, under s. 5 of the Scheduled Districts Act (XIV. of 1874), to the whole of Upper Burma, except the Town of Mandalay, to which the Act has already been extended, and the Shan States.—See Notification No. 23, dated June 20, 1887 (No. 505F, dated June 3, 1887), published in Burma Gazette, June 25, 1887, Pt. I., p. 242, and Gazette of India, 4th idem, Pt. I., p. 256.

Act V. of 1880.

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Burma Boundaries Act, 1880:"

Local extent.

It extends to the territories * for the time being administered by the Chief Commissioner of Lower Burma; *

Commencement.

and it shall come into force at once.

Power to appoint demarcation and boundary-officers.

2. The Local Government may, from time to time, appoint persons, by name or by virtue of their office, to be demarcation-officers and boundary-officers, and may suspend or remove any person so appointed:

Functions of such officers.

Every person so appointed shall, subject to the control of the Local Government, and of any superior officer appointed by it in this behalf, exercise and perform, within such local limits as the Local Government may, from time to time, direct, the powers conferred, and the duties imposed, by this Act or the rules made hereunder, on such officers respectively.

CHAPTER II.

DEMARCATION OF BOUNDARIES.

A.—Proceedings of Demarcation-officers.†

Power to direct demarcation of boundaries.

3. The Local Government may, whenever it thinks fit, by a notification in the official Gazette, direct that the boundaries of any land shall be demarcated by a demarcation-officer.

Power to enter on land to effect demarcation.

4. On the publication of any such notification, a demarcation-officer appointed by the Local Government in this behalf may enter upon the land specified therein, and make all enquiries, and do all other things necessary for demarcating the boundaries of the said land.

Publication of general notice.

5. The demarcation-officer shall cause to be published a general notice addressed* to all persons owning, occupying, or otherwise interested in the said land, and the land marching therewith, and to all persons employed on or connected with the management of such land, calling upon them to attend, either personally or by agent, before him, at such places and at such times as may be stated in such notice, for the purpose of pointing out the boundaries, and of rendering such aid as may be necessary in setting up or repairing the boundary-marks,

---

* The territories are now known as Lower Burma [see Act XX. of 1886, s. 2 (1) (b)]; and the Chief Commissioner is styled Chief Commissioner of Burma (see Proclamation, dated Sep. 25, 1886, Gazette of India, 25th idem, Pt I., p. 539).

† For power to invest any Forest Officer in Lower Burma and in Upper Burma with the powers of a Demarcation Officer under this Act, see Act XIX. of 1881, s. 70 (a), and Reg. VI. of 1887, s 68 (1) (a).

and of affording such other assistance and information as may be needed for the purposes of the demarcation. Act V. of 1880.

The persons to whom such notice is addressed shall not be legally bound to attend.

Power to issue special notice to procure attendance.

6. The demarcation-officer may also cause a special notice to be served on any of the persons mentioned in section 5, requiring such person to attend, personally or by agent, before him on or before a specified date, at such places, and for such of the purposes aforesaid, as may be stated in such notice; and every person upon whom such special notice may be served shall be legally bound to attend as required by the notice, and, so far as he may be able, to do any of the things mentioned therein.

Clearing of boundary-lines.

7. The demarcation-officer may cause a special notice to be served on any owner or occupier of the said land, requiring such owner or occupier to clear any boundary or other line which it may be necessary to clear for the purposes of the demarcation of such land, by cutting down and removing any trees, jungle, fences, or standing crops, or to provide labour by furnishing flag-holders, or otherwise to assist in the demarcation of such land; and, if it is necessary to employ hired labour for these or other similar objects incidental to the demarcation, the demarcation-officer may assess and recover from such owner or occupier the cost of such labour.

Compensation for injury done by clearance.

8. If any demand for compensation is made in respect of the clearance of any line in accordance with a requisition under section 7, the demarcation-officer shall determine and record the value of any trees, jungle, fences, or standing crops which may have been cut down or removed, and shall pay or tender to the owners thereof the amount of compensation which, in his opinion, should be allowed therefor.

Any dispute arising concerning the sufficiency of the amount so paid or tendered shall be determined by the Deputy Commissioner upon application made to him for that purpose by either of the disputing parties.

Power to summon person to give information or produce document.

9. The demarcation-officer may issue a special notice, calling upon any person who, he has reason to believe, can give any information respecting the boundaries of the land, or in whose possession or power any document relating to such boundaries is alleged to be, to attend before him, and give such information or produce such document, on a date and at a place to be mentioned in the notice.

Every person on whom any such notice is served shall be legally bound to attend, and to give such information, or to produce such document as required by the notice.

Demarcation-officer to mark out boundaries, and submit report to boundary-officer.

10. The demarcation-officer shall, after making such inquiry as he thinks fit, mark out the boundaries of the land, and may cause boundary-marks, of such materials, in such number, and in such manner, as he thinks fit, to be erected by the owners or occupiers of the land, or may erect such marks, and charge the cost of such erection to such owners or occupiers, and shall forward a report of his proceedings to the boundary-officer:

Act V. of 1880.

When demarcation-officers may alter demarcation.

Provided that, at any time before forwarding his report to the boundary-officer, the demarcation-officer may, for any sufficient reason to be stated in such report, alter any boundary marked out by him.

B.—Proceedings of Boundary-officers.

General notice to persons affected.

11. The boundary-officer shall, on receipt of the report of the demarcation-officer, cause a general notice to be published informing all persons concerned that such report is open to inspection, and requiring any person who may have any objections to make thereto to submit a written statement of such objections within one month from the date of the publication of such notice.

Special notice to persons likely to object.

Whenever the boundary-officer has reason to believe that any person interested is likely to object to any boundary as laid down in such report, he shall cause a special notice to be served on such person, requiring him to submit, within the said period of one month, a written statement of his objection.

Statements of objections.

No person shall be entitled as of right to submit any statement of objection after the expiration of the said period of one month; but it shall be in the discretion of the boundary-officer to admit any such statement after the expiration of such period and before the order next hereinafter mentioned has been made.

Order of boundary-officer.

12. When the said period of one month has expired, and the objections (if any) made within it or subsequently admitted by the boundary-officer have been inquired into by him, and any further inquiry which he may deem necessary has been made by him, the boundary-officer shall pass such order as he thinks fit, confirming or modifying the boundaries as determined by the demarcation-officer.

If any objection seems to him not to be well-founded, the boundary-officer may direct that all expenses of the inquiry which have arisen from such objection shall be recovered from the person who made the same.

Objections if subsequently made how dealt with.

13. When any person, within sixty days from the date of the order passed under section 12, makes any objection to the correctness of the demarcation-proceedings, the boundary-officer may, in his discretion, either refuse to inquire into such objection, or may require the person making the same to deposit, within a reasonable time, the estimated costs of any further inquiry which it may be necessary to make in respect thereof.

Boundary-officer to make further inquiry.

14 If the costs of such further inquiry are deposited, the boundary-officer shall, after making such inquiry, pass an order rejecting such objection, or admitting the same, and amending the order passed under section 12.

If, on such inquiry, the objection seems to the boundary officer not to be well-founded, he may pass such order as he thinks fit in respect of the recovery from the person making the objection, of any sum expended on the inquiry in excess of the sum deposited, and of any necessary expenses incurred by any other person on account of such inquiry.

No person making an objection under section 13 shall, unless the boundary-officer specially so directs, recover any portion of the amount deposited by him under section 13.

Act V. of 1880.

Power to enforce attendance of witnesses, &c.

15. For the purposes of any inquiry under this Act, the boundary-officer shall, in addition to the powers conferred specially by this Act, have all the powers of a demarcation-officer, and also power to summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses, and compel the production of documents, so far as may be, by the same means and in the same manner as is provided in the case of a Civil Court by the Code of Civil Procedure.*

Power to refer dispute to arbitration.

16. The boundary-officer, whenever he thinks fit, may, with the consent of the parties concerned, refer to arbitration any dispute as to a boundary.

The procedure laid down in Chapter XXXVII. of the Code of Civil Procedure† shall apply (so far as may be) to such references.

Effect of orders of boundary-officer.

17. The order passed by the boundary-officer under section 12, or, when such order is amended under section 14, such amended order, shall, unless and until it be reversed or modified in manner hereinafter provided, be conclusive.

C.—Appeals from Orders of Boundary-officers.

Orders appealable to Commissioner.

18. An appeal shall lie to the Commissioner of the Division from every order passed by a boundary-officer under section 12, section 13, or section 14.

Decision when final.

19. If the Commissioner confirms the order of the boundary-officer on a matter of fact, such decision shall be final and conclusive.

Second appeal when allowed.

In all other cases in which the Commissioner confirms the order of the boundary-officer, and in all cases in which the Commissioner reverses or modifies the order of the boundary-officer, an appeal shall lie to the Judicial Commissioner, or, when the land comprised in the order is situated within the local limits of the ordinary civil jurisdiction of the Recorder of Rangoon, to such Recorder.

Period of limitation.

20. The period of limitation for an appeal under section 18 or section 19 shall run from the date of the order or decision appealed against, and shall be as follows, that is to say:—

(a) in the case of an appeal under section 18—sixty days;

(b) in the case of an appeal under section 19—ninety days.

In computing such periods of sixty and ninety days, and in all respects not herein specified, the limitation of such appeals shall be governed by the provisions of the Indian Limitation Act, 1877.

Powers of Commissioner, &c.

21. The Commissioner, the Judicial Commissioner, and the Recorder of Rangoon shall, in hearing and determining appeals presented under this Act, have, as nearly as may be, the same powers as they have in the case of appeals from decrees and orders in civil suits.

---

* Now Act XIV. of 1882.—See s. 3 of that Act.

† Chapter XXXVII. of the old Code corresponds to the same chapter in the new Code.

Act V. of 1880.

D.—Boundary-marks.

When permanent boundary-marks are to be erected.

22. Whenever an order determining a boundary has become final, the boundary-officer shall, unless permanent boundary-marks of a suitable description have already been erected along such boundary, cause to be erected permanent boundary-marks, of such materials, in such number, and in such manner, as he may consider sufficient to distinguish such boundary.

An order determining a boundary becomes final for the purposes of this section when it is not open to appeal.

Apportionment of expense of erection of marks.

23. All expenses incurred by the boundary-officer in erecting such boundary-marks for any land shall be apportioned amongst the owners or occupiers of such land, in such proportions as the boundary-officer may think fit.

Notice to owners to pay share of expense.

24. When the expenses have been apportioned amongst such owners or occupiers, the boundary-officer shall cause a notice to be served on each of them, specifying the amount payable by him in respect of such expenses, and requiring him to pay such amount to the boundary-officer within one month from the service of such notice.

Power to place marks under charge of owners and occupiers.

25. The boundary-officer may further cause a notice to be served on any owner or occupier, placing under his charge any boundary-marks erected on the boundary of his land, whether by order of such officer or otherwise.

Every owner or occupier shall preserve such boundary-marks as may be placed under his charge under this section, and shall give immediate notice to the nearest Magistrate or the officer in charge of the nearest police-station if any such marks are injured, destroyed, or removed, or require repairs.

Duty to preserve boundary-marks.

Duty to give notice of any injury occurring to them.

Power to re-erect and repair boundary-marks.

26. Whenever a Magistrate of the first or second class becomes aware that any mark erected under this Act within the local limits of his jurisdiction has been injured, destroyed, or removed, or requires repairs, such Magistrate may cause such mark to be re-erected, restored, or repaired, and may recover any expenses incurred in respect of such re-erection, restoration or repair from the owner or occupier who is bound, under section 25, to preserve such mark.

Duties of village-officers.

27. It shall be the duty of every village-headman and thoogyee—

(a) to prevent the destruction, injury, or alteration of any boundary-mark within the local limits of his jurisdiction;

(b) whenever he becomes aware that any such mark has been destroyed, injured, or altered, to report immediately to the officer in charge of the nearest police-station or to the nearest Magistrate such destruction, injury, or alteration.

CHAPTER III.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Survey-officer.

28. When any officer is appointed by the Government to make a survey of any land, the Chief Commissioner may invest such officer, for the purposes of such survey, with all or any of the powers conferred on demarcation-officers by sections 4 to 9 (both inclusive), and also with power to cause any boundary or other marks to be erected by the owners or occupiers of any land, or to erect such marks, and to charge the cost of such erection to such owners or occupiers. Act V. of 1880.

Power to perform order under Act at expense of person disobeying it.

29. If any owner or occupier of any land, or any other person, being ordered, in accordance with the provisions herein contained, to perform any act, fails to perform such act within a reasonable time, the officer who gave the order may, after giving notice to such owner, occupier, or other person of his intention so to do, cause the act to be performed; and the expenses incurred in such performance shall be payable by such owner, occupier, or other person.

Penalty for refusing or neglecting to comply with orders or notice.

30. Whoever, being legally bound to comply with any lawful order under this Act, or with the requisition contained in any special notice served upon him under this Act, refuses or neglects to comply therewith, shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

Recovery of amounts due under Act.

31. Every amount due under the provisions of this Act may be recovered as if the same were an arrear of land-revenue.

Power to make subsidiary rules.

32. The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, make rules consistent with this Act—

(a) for the collection and record of any information in respect of any land;

(b) prescribing and limiting the powers and duties of officers conducting proceedings under this Act;

(c) regulating the delegation by such officers to subordinate officers of the powers and duties conferred and imposed on them respectively by this Act or the rules made hereunder;

(d) for the proper performance of all things to be done, and for the regulation of all proceedings to be taken, under this Act;

(e) for the publication, issue, and service of all notices, whether general or special, to be published, issued, or served under this Act; and (f) for carrying out generally the purposes of this Act.

Mode of publication.

All such rules shall be published in the local official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

Acts IX. & XII. of 1880.

ACT IX. OF 1880.

THE BOMBAY CIVIL COURTS ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 30TH APRIL 1880.

An Act to amend the Bombay Civil Courts Act, 1869.

WHEREAS it is expedient to empower the Governor of Bombay in Council to fix and, from time to time, to alter the local limits of the ordinary jurisdiction of the Subordinate Judges appointed under the Bombay Civil Courts Act, 1869; It is hereby enacted as follows :— Preamble.

Short title. 1. This Act may be called "The Bombay Civil Courts Act, 1880:"

Commencement. and it shall come into force at once.

Insertion of a new section after section 22 of the Bombay Civil Courts Act. 2. In the said Act, after section 22, the following section shall be inserted :—

22A. [See. Vol. I., p. 791.]

3. [Repealed by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. I.]

ACT XII. OF 1880.

THE KAZIS ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 9TH JULY 1880.

An Act for the Appointment of Persons to the Office of Kází.

WHEREAS, by the preamble to Act No. XI. of 1864* (An Act to repeal the law relating to the offices of Hindu and Muhammadan Law Officers and to the offices of Kází-ul-Kazáat and of Kází, and to abolish the former offices), it was (among other things) declared that it was inexpedient that the appointment of the Kází-ul-Kazáat, or of City, Town, or Pargana Kázís, should be made by the Government, and by the same Act the enactments relating to the appointment by the Government of the said officers were repealed; and whereas, by the usage of the Muhammadan community in some parts of British India, the presence of Kázís appointed by the Government is required at the celebration of marriages and the performance of certain other rites and ceremonies, and it is therefore expedient that the Government should again be empowered to appoint persons to the office of Kází; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title. 1. This Act may be called "The Kázís Act, 1880;"

Commencement. and it shall come into force at once.

Local extent. It extends, in the first instance, only to the territories administered by the Governor of Fort Saint George in Council. But any other Local Government may, from time to time, by notification in the official Gazette, extend it to the whole or any part of the territories under its administration.* Act XII. of 1880.

* Repealed by Act VIII. of 1868.

Power to appoint Kázís for any local area.

2. Whenever it appears to the Local Government that any considerable number of the Muhammadans, resident in any local area, desire that one or more Kázís should be appointed for such local area, the Local Government may, if it thinks fit, after consulting the principal Muhammadan residents of such local area, select one or more fit persons, and appoint him or them to be Kázís for such local area.

If any question arises whether any person has been rightly appointed Kází under this section, the decision thereof by the Local Government shall be conclusive.

The Local Government may, if it thinks fit, suspend or remove any Kází appointed under this section who is guilty of any misconduct in the execution of his office, or who is, for a continuous period of six months, absent from the local area for which he is appointed, or leaves such local area for the purpose of residing elsewhere, or is declared an insolvent, or desires to be discharged from the office, or who refuses, or becomes in the opinion of the Local Government, unfit, or personally incapable, to discharge the duties of the office.

Naib Kázís.

3. Any Kází appointed under this Act may appoint one or more persons as his naib or naibs to act in his place in all or any of the matters appertaining to his office throughout the whole or in any portion of the local area for which he is appointed, and may suspend or remove any naib so appointed.

When any Kází is suspended or removed under section 2, his naib or naibs (if any) shall be deemed to be suspended or removed, as the case may be.

Nothing in Act to confer judicial or administrative powers; or

4. Nothing herein contained, and no appointment made hereunder, shall be deemed—

(a) to confer any judicial or administrative powers on any Kází or Naib Kází appointed hereunder; or

ACT XIII. OF 1880.

THE VACCINATION ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 9TH JULY 1880.

An Act to give Power to prohibit Inoculation, and to make the Vaccination of Children compulsory, in certain Municipalities and Cantonments.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to give power to prohibit inoculation, and make the vaccination of children compulsory, in certain municipalities and cantonments; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Vaccination Act, 1880;" and Application.

it shall apply* only to such municipalities and cantonments situate in the territories administered respectively by the Lieutenant-Governors of the North-Western Provinces and the Panjáb, and the Chief Commissioners of Oudh, the Central Provinces, Lower Burma, Assam, Ajmer, and Coorg, as it may be extended to in manner hereinafter provided.

Interpretation-clause.

2. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

(1) the expression "Municipal Commissioners" means a body of Municipal Commissioners or a Municipal Committee constituted under the provisions of any enactment for the time being in force:

(2) "parent" means the father of a legitimate child and the mother of an illegitimate child;

(3) "guardian" includes any person who has accepted or assumed the care or custody of any child:

(4) "unprotected child" means a child who has not been protected from small-pox by having had that disease either naturally or by inoculation, or by having been successfully vaccinated, and who has not been certified under this Act to be insusceptible to vaccination;

(5) "inoculation" means any operation performed with the object of producing the disease of small-pox in any person by means of variolous matter:

(6) "vaccination-circle" means one of the parts into which a municipality or cantonment has been divided under this Act for the performance of vaccination;

---

* In the Panjab the Act has been applied to the Municipalities of Amritsur and Simla.—See Notification Nos. 925 and 486, Panjáb Gazettes, dated Dec. 18, 1884, and Oct. 6, 1887, Pt. I., pp. 1227 and 548, respectively.

† The territories are now known as Lower Burma [see Act XX. of 1886, s. 2 (1) (b)]; and the Chief Commissioner is styled Chief Commissioner of Burma (see Proclamation, dated Sep. 25, 1886, Gazette of India, 25th idem, Pt. I., p. 539).

(7) "vaccinator" means any vaccinator appointed under this Act to perform the operation of vaccination, or any private person authorized by the Local Government, in manner hereinafter provided, to perform the same operation; and includes a "Superintendent of Vaccination;" Act XIII. of 1880.

(8) "vaccination-season" means the period from time to time fixed by the Local Government for any local area under its administration by notification in the official Gazette, during which alone vaccination may be performed under this Act.

Extension of Act to municipalities.

3. A majority in number of the persons present at a meeting of the Municipal Commissioners specially convened in this behalf may apply to the Local Government to extend this Act to the whole or any part of a municipality, and thereupon the Local Government may, if it thinks fit, by notification published in the official Gazette, declare its intention to extend this Act in the manner proposed.

Any inhabitant of such municipality or part thereof who objects to such extension may, within six weeks from the date of such publication, send his objection in writing to the Secretary to the Local Government, and the Local Government shall take such objection into consideration. When six weeks from the said publication have expired, the Local Government, if no such objections have been sent as aforesaid, or (when such objections have been so sent), if, in its opinion, they are insufficient, may, by like notification, effect the proposed extension.*

Extension to cantonments.

4. The Local Government may, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, by notification in the local official Gazette, extend this Act to the whole or any part of a military cantonment.†

Power to withdraw local area from operation of Act.

5. The Local Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, withdraw any local area in a municipality or, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, any local area in a cantonment from the operation of this Act.

Prohibition of inoculation.

6. In any any local area to which the provisions of this Act apply, inoculation shall be prohibited; and Inoculated persons not to enter, without certificate, local area subject to Act.

no person who has undergone inoculation shall enter such area, before the lapse of forty days from the date of the operation, without a certificate from a medical practitioner, of such class as the local Government may from time to time, by written order, authorize to grant such certificates, stating that such person is no longer likely to produce small-pox by contact or near approach.

Vaccination-circles;

7. Every local area to which this Act applies shall be a vaccination-circle, or shall, in manner hereinafter provided, be divided into a number of such circles;

* In Burma the Act has been extended, under s. 3, to the Municipalities of Akyab, Rangoon, Moulmein, Bassein, Henzada, Toungoo, and Thayetmyo.—See Burma Gazette, July 21, 1883, April 26, 1884, Aug. 15, 1885, Sep. 22, 1888, Jan. 5, 1889, and May 11, 1889, Pt. I., pp. 223, 95, 275, 436, 10, and 221, respectively.

† The Act has also been extended under s. 4 to the Cantonments of Moulmein and Rangoon.—See Burma Gazette, Sep. 19, 1885, and April 16, 1887, Pt. I., pp. 306 and 176 respectively.

Vaccinators; one or more vaccinators shall be appointed, in manner hereinafter provided, for each such circle and

Superintendent of Vaccination. one or more Superintendents of Vaccination shall be appointed, in manner hereinafter provided, for each such local area.

8. The Local Government may, by written license, authorize private vaccinators to perform vaccination in any vaccination-circle, and may suspend or cancel any such license.

Private vaccinators.

9. When any unprotected child, having attained the age of six months, has resided, for a period of one month during the vaccination-season, in any local area to which the provisions of this Act apply, and has not, at the expiration of such period, attained the age, if a boy, of fourteen years, and, if a girl, of eight years, the parent or guardian of such child shall take it, or cause it to be taken, to a vaccinator to be vaccinated, or send for a vaccinator to vaccinate it.

Unprotected children to be vaccinated.

Such vaccinator shall vaccinate the child, and deliver to its parent or guardian a memorandum stating the date on which the vaccination has been performed and the date on which the child is to be inspected in order to ascertain the result of the operation, or shall, if he finds such child in a state unfit for vaccination, deliver to its parent or guardian a certificate under his hand to the effect that the child is in a state unfit for vaccination for the whole or part of the current vaccination-season.

Vaccinator to vaccinate children, or deliver certificates of postponement.

10. The parent or guardian of every child which has been vaccinated under section 9 shall, on the date of inspection stated in the memorandum, take the child, or cause it to be taken, to a vaccinator for inspection, or get it inspected at his own house by a vaccinator; and such vaccinator shall then append to the memorandum a certificate stating that the child has been inspected, and the result of such inspection.

Inspection after vaccination.

11. When it is ascertained, at the time of inspecting a child under section 10, that the vaccination has been successful, a certificate shall be delivered by the vaccinator to the parent or guardian of such child to that effect, and such child shall thereafter be deemed to be protected.

Procedure when vaccination is successful.

12. When it is ascertained as aforesaid that the vaccination has been unsuccessful, the parent or guardian shall, if the vaccinator so direct, cause the child to be forthwith again vaccinated and subsequently inspected in manner hereinbefore provided.

Procedure when vaccination is unsuccessful.

13. A certificate granted under section 9, showing the unfitness of a child for vaccination, shall remain in force for the period stated therein; and, on the termination of that period, or, if that period terminates after the vaccination-season is over, when the next vaccination-season begins, the parent or guardian of such child shall take the child, or cause it to be taken, to a vaccinator to be vaccinated, or procure its vaccination at his own house by a vaccinator;

Procedure when child is unfit for vaccination.

Provided that, if the child is still found to be in a state unfit for vacci- Act XIII. of 1880.

14. If the Superintendent of Vaccination is of opinion that a child, which has been three times unsuccessfully vaccinated, is insusceptible of successful vaccination, he shall deliver to the parent or guardian of such child a certificate under his hand to that effect; and the parent or guardian shall thenceforth not be required to cause the child to be vaccinated.
Certificates of insusceptibility of successful vaccination.

15. The vaccination of a child shall ordinarily be performed with such lymph as may be prescribed by the rules to be made under this Act:
What lymph to be used.

Provided that,

1st, if animal-lymph is so prescribed, and the parent or guardian of any child desires that such child shall be vaccinated with human lymph, it shall be so vaccinated; and,

2nd, if, in any local area in which animal-lymph is procurable, human lymph is so prescribed, and the parent or guardian of any child desires that such child should be vaccinated with animal-lymph, and tenders to the vaccinator the amount of such fee, not exceeding one rupee, as may be fixed by such rules in this behalf, such child shall be so vaccinated.

16. No fee shall be charged by any vaccinator except a private vaccinator to the parent or guardian of any child for any of the duties imposed on such vaccinator by or under the provisions of this Act:
No fee to be charged except by private vaccinator.

Provided that it shall be lawful for a vaccinator to accept a fee for vaccinating a child by request of the parent or guardian elsewhere than in the circle for which such vaccinator is appointed.
Proviso.

17. The Superintendent of Vaccination, in addition to the other duties imposed on him by or under the provisions of this Act, shall ascertain whether all unprotected children, under the age of fourteen years if boys, and under the age of eight years if girls, within the local area under his superintendence, have been vaccinated; and, if he has reason to believe that the parent or guardian of any such child is bound, by the provisions hereinbefore contained, to procure the vaccination of such child, or to present it for inspection, and has omitted so to do, he shall personally go to the house of such parent or guardian, and there make enquiry, and shall, if the fact is proved, forthwith deliver to such parent or guardian, or cause to be affixed to his house, a notice requiring that the child be vaccinated, or (as the case may be) that it be presented for inspection, at a time and place to be specified in such notice.
Duties of Superintendent of Vaccination.
Notice to parent or guardian neglecting to comply with Act.

18. If such notice is not complied with, the Superintendent of Vaccination shall report the matter to the Magistrate of the District or such Magistrate as the Local Government or the Magistrate of the District may, from time to time, appoint in this behalf; and the Magistrate receiving such report shall summon the parent or guardian of the child, and demand his explanation, and shall, if Order by Magistrate when notice not complied with.

Act XIII. of 1880.

such explanation is not satisfactory, make an order in writing directing such parent or guardian to comply with the notice before a date specified in the order.

Procedure when order not obeyed.

If, on such date, the order has not been obeyed, the Magistrate shall summon the parent or guardian before him, and, unless just cause or excuse is shown, shall deal with the disobedience as an offence punishable under section 22.

Magistrates to be non-official Natives.

The Magistrates appointed under this section shall, as far as is conveniently practicable, be natives of India, and not paid servants of the Government.

Power to make rules for municipalities.

19. When this Act has been applied to any municipality or any part thereof, the Municipal Commissioners may, from time to time, make rules, consistent with this Act, for the proper enforcement of this Act within the limits to which it applies. Such rules shall be made in the manner in which, under the law* for the time being in force, the Commissioners make rules or bye-laws for the regulation of other matters within the limits of the municipality, and shall, when confirmed by the Local Government, and published in the official Gazette, have the force of law:

Provided that the Local Government may at any time rescind or modify any such rule.

Power to make rules for cantonments.

20. When this Act has been applied to any cantonment or any part thereof, the Local Government may, from time to time, subject to the control of the Governor-General in Council, make such rules.

What, rules under sections 19 and 20 may provide for.

21. The rules to be made for any local area under section 19 or 20 may, among other matters, provide for—

(a) the division of such local area into circles for the performance of vaccination;

(b) the appointment of a place in each vaccination-circle as a public vaccine-station, and the posting of some distinguishing mark in a conspicuous place near such station;

(c) the qualifications to be required of public vaccinators and Superintendents of Vaccination;

(d) the authority with which their appointment, suspension, and dismissal shall rest;

(e) the time of attendance of public vaccinators at the vaccine-stations and their residence within the limits of the vaccination-circles;

(f) the distinguishing mark or badge to be worn by them;

(g) the amount of fee chargeable by private vaccinators, and their guidance generally in the performance of their duties;

(h) the facilities to be afforded to people for procuring the vaccination of their children at their own houses;

---

* For the law relating to Municipalities in the N.-W. P. and Oudh, see Acts XV. of 1873 and XV. of 1883; and for the law relating to Municipalities in the Central Provinces, see Act XVIII. of 1889.

(i) the grant and form of certificates of successful vaccination, of unfitness for vaccination, or of insusceptibility of vaccination; Act XIII. of 1880.

(j) the nature of the lymph to be used and the supply of a sufficient quantity of such lymph;

(k) the fee to be paid for vaccination with animal-lymph under section 15;

(l) the fee to be paid to a public vaccinator for vaccinating a child beyond the vaccination-circle at the request of the parent or guardian of the said child;

(m) the preparation and keeping of registers showing—the names of children born in such local area on or after the date of the application of this Act;

the names of unprotected children born in such local area previous to the application of this Act, and who are, at the time this Act is applied, under the age of fourteen years if boys, and of eight years if girls;

the names of unprotected boys and girls, respectively under those ages, brought within such local area at any time after the application of this Act, and who have resided there for a month;

the result of each vaccination or its postponement, and the delivery of certificates, if any;

(n) the assistance to be given by the Municipal Commissioners and municipal servants in the preparation of these registers, and in other matters; and

(o) the preparation of vaccination-reports and returns.

Punishment of offences.

22. Whoever commits any of the undermentioned offences (that is to say):—

(a) violates the provisions of section 6,

(b) neglects, without just excuse, to obey an order made under section 18,

(c) breaks any of the rules made under section 19 or 20, or

(d) neglects, without just cause, to obey an order made under section 18 after having been previously convicted of so neglecting to obey a similar order made in respect of the same child, shall be punished as follows (that is to say):—

in the case of the offence mentioned in clause (a), with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, or with both; in the case of the offences mentioned in clauses (b) and (c), with fine which may extend to fifty rupees; and in the case of the offence mentioned in clause (d), with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

Municipal funds to receive fines and meet expenditure.

23. The amount of all fees and fines realized, and the amount of all expenditure incurred, under this Act, in any municipality, shall, respectively, be credited to, and paid from, the municipal fund.

ACT XV. OF 1880.

THE BOMBAY REVENUE JURISDICTION ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 3RD NOVEMBER 1880.

An Act to amend the Bombay Revenue Jurisdiction Act, 1876.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Bombay Revenue Jurisdiction Act, 1876, in manner hereinafter appearing;* It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title. Commencement.

1. This Act may be called "The Bombay Revenue Jurisdiction Act, 1880;" and it shall come into force at once.

Repeal of sections 8, 9, 10, and 17 of Act No. X. of 1876.

2. Sections 8, 9, 10, and 17 of the said Bombay Revenue Jurisdiction Act, 1876, are hereby repealed:

Provided that the repeal hereby effected, of the first clause of the said section 17, shall not operate in any Scheduled District unless and until the Bombay Land-revenue Code, 1879, has been extended to such district:

Provided also that the repeal of the second clause of the said section 17 shall not be deemed to render invalid or illegal anything made valid or legal by such clause.

Addition to section 32 of Act No. XIV. of 1869 as amended by section 15 of Act No. X. of 1876.

3. To section 32 of the Bombay Civil Courts Act, No. XIV. of 1869, as amended by section 15 of the said Bombay Revenue Jurisdiction Act, 1876, the following words shall be added:—

[See Vol. I., p. 793.]

4, 5. [Repealed by Act XII. of 1884, s. 3.]

ACT XVI. OF 1880.

THE MADRAS IRRIGATION AND CANAL COMPANY'S ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 26TH DECEMBER 1880.

An Act to regulate the Traffic on the Madras Irrigation and Canal Company's Canal.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by the twenty-seventh clause of an Indenture made on the third day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, between the Secretary of State for India in Council of the one part, and the Madras Irrigation and Canal Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") of the other part, it was, amongst other things, provided that the Company should be authorized and empowered to charge such tolls for navigation, and such fares or rates for the conveyance of passengers, animals, and goods, as should not exceed the rates, tolls, or fares which should be defined and sanctioned by an Act of the Indian Legislature; and that the Company should not in any case charge any higher tolls, fares, or rates whatsoever; and whereas it is expedient to define and sanction, for the purposes of the said clause, fares and rates for the conveyance of passengers, animals, and goods; Act XVI. of 1880.

* In the preamble certain words, repealed by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. I., have here been omitted.

And whereas it is also expedient to empower the Company to make rules for the conveyance of passengers, animals, and goods upon, and the use, management, and working of, its canal; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Madras Irrigation and Canal Company's Act, 1880;"

Commencement.

and it shall come into force at once.

Fares and rates for conveyance of passengers and goods.

2. The fares and rates specified in the schedule hereto annexed shall be deemed to be the fares and rates defined and sanctioned for the purposes of the said clause.

Company empowered to make working rules for its canal.

3. The Company may, from time to time, make rules for the following purposes, that is to say:—

(a) for licensing vessels (other than those of the Company) to navigate the canal, and for registering vessels so licensed, and denoting upon each its carrying capacity;

(b) for fixing the maximum number of passengers or animals, and the maximum amount of goods, which vessels navigating the canal may carry; and,

(c) generally, for regulating the traffic upon, and the use and management of all vessels upon, the canal.

Penalty for breach of rules.

4. Any such rule may contain a provision that any person committing a breach of it shall be liable to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees, or, in default of payment of such fine, to simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month.

Notification of rules.

5. All such rules shall, when sanctioned by the Governor of Fort St. George in Council, and published in the Fort St. George Gazette, have the force of law.

Power to cancel rules.

The said Governor in Council may at any time cancel any such rule.

Copy and translation of Act, &c., to be shown at stations and on vessels.

6. A copy of this Act and the rules made hereunder, and of the Time-table and Tariff of Charges which may from time to time be observed for the Company's vessels navigating the canal, shall be exhibited, both in English and in Telugu, in some conspicuous place at each station of the canal, and in each vessel employed by the Company in conveying passengers, animals, or goods over the canal.

Penalty for failure to exhibit copy and translation as required by section 6.

7. Any servant of the Company in charge of any such station or vessel at or in which the provisions of section 6 are not complied with shall be punished with fine which may extend to ten rupees; and the Company shall forfeit to Government the sum of fifty rupees for every day during which such provisions are not complied with at or in any such station or vessel.

Act XVI of 1880.

Place of trial.

8. Any person committing any offence against this Act or the rules made under it shall be triable for such offence at any place at which he may be, or which the Governor of Fort St. George in Council may, from time to time, by notification in the official Gazette, direct, as well as in any other place in which he might be tried under any law for the time being in force.

Saving of prosecutions under other laws.

9. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to prevent any person from being arrested, prosecuted, or punished under any other law for any act or omission which constitutes an offence against this Act or the rules made under it:

Provided that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence.

Act II. of 1881.

ACT II. OF 1881.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 1ST JANUARY 1881.

An Act to regulate the Navigation of the Pegu and Sittang Canal, and to provide for the Protection of the said Canal and the Execution of Works necessary for its Maintenance.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Government has constructed a canal connecting the waters of the Pegu and Sittang rivers, partly by digging artificial channels, and partly by using the water-bed of the Ka-ya-zoo creek; and whereas it is necessary to provide for the navigation, protection, and maintenance of the said canal; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Preliminary.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Pegu and Sittang Canal Act, 1881;"

Commencement.

and it shall come into force at once.

Interpretation clause.

2. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

"The canal."

(1) "The canal" means the Pegu and Sittang canal, and includes—

(a) all channels and reservoirs now or hereafter constructed, maintained, or controlled by the Government for the supply or storage of water in connection with the said canal, or supplemental thereto, between the Sittang lock, situated at Myit-kyo, on the Sittang river, and the Pegu lock, situated near the village of Sin-o-bo, on the Pegu river;

(b) all works, embankments, structures, and supply and escape-channels connected with the canal or with the said channels and reservoirs;

(c) all lands occupied by the Government for the purposes of the said canal, and all buildings, machinery, fences, gates, and other erections, trees, crops, plantations, or other produce occupied by, or belonging to, the Government, upon such lands:

"Vessel."

(2) "Vessel" includes boats, rafts, timber, and other floating bodies:

"Canal Officer."

(3) "Canal Officer" means an officer appointed under this Act by the Chief Commissioner to exercise control over the canal or any part thereof:

"Superintending Canal Officer."

(4) "Superintending Canal Officer" means an officer exercising general control over the canal.

Power to appoint officers.

3. The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, declare, by notification in the British Burma Gazette, the officers by whom, and the local limits within which, all or any of the powers or duties hereinafter conferred or imposed shall be exercised or performed.

Navigation of the Canal.

Tolls to be levied from vessels using the canal.

4. Such tolls as the Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, by notification in the British Burma Gazette, direct shall be levied from all vessels entering or navigating the canal.

5. Any vessel entering or navigating the canal contrary to the rules made in that behalf under this Act by the Chief Commissioner, or so as to cause danger to the canal or to the other vessels therein, may be removed or detained, or both removed and detained, by a Canal Officer, or by any other person duly authorized under section 3 in that behalf.

Power to detain vessels violating rules.

The owner of any vessel causing damage to the canal, or removed or detained under this section, shall be liable to pay to the Government such charge as the Canal Officer, with the approval of the Superintending Canal Officer, determines to be necessary to defray the cost of repairing such damage, or of such removal or detention, as the case may be.

6. If any toll or charge due under this Act in respect of any vessel is not paid on demand to the person authorized to collect the same, the Canal Officer may seize and detain such vessel and the furniture thereof, until such toll or charge, together with all expenses arising from such seizure and detention, is paid in full.

Power to detain vessel on failure to pay tolls or charges.

7. If any charge due to the Government in respect of any cargo or goods carried in a Government vessel on the canal, or stored on or in lands or warehouses occupied for the purposes of the canal, is not paid on demand to the person authorized to collect the same, the Canal Officer may seize such cargo or goods, and detain it or them until the charge so due, together with all expenses arising from such seizure and detention, is paid in full.

Power to seize cargo or goods if charges due thereon are not paid.

8. Within a reasonable time after any seizure under section 6 or section 7, the Canal Officer shall give notice to the owner or person in charge of the property seized that it, or such portion of it as may be necessary, will, on a day to be named in the notice, but not sooner than twenty-one days from the date of the notice, be sold in satisfaction of the claim on account of which such property is detained, unless the claim is discharged before the day so named;

Power to sell property seized under section 6 or 7.

and, if such claim is not so discharged, the Canal Officer may, on such day, sell the property seized or such part thereof as may be necessary to yield the amount due, together with the expenses of such seizure and sale.

The residue (if any) of such property, and of the proceeds of the sale, shall be made over to the owner or person in charge of the property seized.

9. If any vessel is found abandoned in the canal, or any cargo or goods carried in a Government vessel on the canal, or stored on or in lands or warehouses occupied for the purposes of the canal, is or are left unclaimed for a period of two months, the Canal Officer may take possession of the same.

Procedure in respect of vessels abandoned and goods unclaimed.

The officer so taking possession shall publish a notice, in such manner as the Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, by rule direct that, if such vessel and its contents, or such cargo or goods, is or are not claimed previously to a day to be named in the notice, not sooner than thirty days from the date of such notice, he will sell the same; and if such vessel, contents, cargo, or goods, is or are not so claimed, he may, at any time after the day named in the notice, proceed to sell the same.

Power to sell.

Act II. of 1881.

Disposal of proceeds of sale.

The said vessel and its contents, and the said cargo or goods, if unsold, or, if a sale has taken place, the proceeds of the sale, after paying all tolls and charges due in respect of the vessel, cargo, or goods, and all expenses incurred by the Canal Officer on account of the taking possession and sale, shall be made over to the owner of the same, when his ownership is established to the satisfaction of the Canal Officer.

If the Canal Officer is doubtful to whom such property or proceeds should be made over, he may direct the property to be sold, and the proceeds to be paid into the district-treasury, there to be held until the right thereto is decided by a Court of competent jurisdiction.

Maintenance of the Canal.

Power of Canal Officer to enter on land, and remove obstructions, &c.

10. A Canal Officer, empowered by the Commissioner of the Division generally or especially in this behalf, or any other person acting under the general or special order of such officer, may enter on any land in the neighbourhood of the canal, and remove any obstructions, and may close any channels and do any other thing necessary or convenient for the maintenance of the canal.

Power to enter and survey, &c.

11. Any such officer or other person may, for the purposes of any enquiry relating to any part of the canal under the charge of such officer, enter upon any such lands, and undertake surveys or levels thereon, and dig and bore into the sub-soil; and make and set up suitable land-marks, level-marks, and water-gauges;

and do all other acts necessary for such purposes;

and, where otherwise such enquiry cannot be completed, such officer or other person may cut down and clear away any part of any standing-crop, fence, or jungle.

Power to clear land.

Power to enter, to repair, and to prevent accidents.

12. In case of any accident happening or being reasonably apprehended to the canal, any such officer or other person may enter upon any such lands, and may execute all works which may be necessary for the purpose of repairing or preventing such accident.

Compensation for damage caused by entry.

13. In every case of entry under section 10, 11, or 12, the Canal Officer shall tender, as soon as may be reasonably practicable, to the owner or occupiers of the land, compensation for any damage which may be occasioned by such entry, and by any proceeding under such section.

In case of dispute as to the sufficiency of the amount so tendered, the Canal Officer shall forthwith refer the same for decision by the Deputy Commissioner, whose decision thereon shall be final.

Obtaining Labour and Materials for Work on the Canal.

Procedure for obtaining labour and materials for works urgently required.

14. Whenever it appears to a Canal Officer that, unless some work is immediately executed, such serious damage will happen to the canal as will cause sudden and extensive public injury, and that the labourers or materials necessary for the proper execution of such work cannot be obtained in the ordinary manner within the time that can be allowed for the execution of such work so as to prevent such damage, such officer may, by order under his hand, direct that the provisions of this section shall be put into operation for the execution of such work, and thereupon— Act II. of 1881.

(a) every able-bodied person whose name appears in the list hereinafter mentioned shall, if required so to do by such officer or by any person authorized by him in this behalf, be bound to assist in the execution of such work by labouring thereon as such officer or other person directs, and

(b) such officer or any person authorized by him in this behalf may enter into and upon any immoveable property in the neighbourhood of the canal, and take possession of, appropriate, and remove, any trees or bamboos, whether standing or not, and any timber, mats, ropes, or other materials found in or upon such property, and use the same for the purposes of such work.

Every person authorized as mentioned in this section shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code.

Deputy Commissioner to prepare list of persons liable to serve.

15. Subject to such rules as the Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, prescribe in this behalf, the Deputy Commissioners of Rangoon and Shwaygin shall prepare lists of persons residing in the neighbourhood of the canal in the said districts respectively, and liable to be required under section 14 to assist as aforesaid, and may, from time to time, add to or alter such list or any part thereof.

Payment for labour impressed and materials taken.

16. All persons labouring or detained for the purpose of labouring in compliance with a requisition made under section 14, or whose materials may be taken under that section, shall, as soon as may be reasonably practicable, be paid by the Canal Officer for their labour and detention, or for such materials (as the case may be), at a rate not being less than twenty-five per cent. above the highest market-rates for similar labour or materials for the time being prevailing in the neighbourhood.

Any dispute arising between the Canal Officer and any person as to the amount to be paid to such person under this section may be referred by either party to the Deputy Commissioner, whose decision thereon shall be final.

Compensation for damage done in taking materials.

17. Whenever, from the removal, under section 24, of any trees, bamboos, or other materials, any damage, over and above the price payable for such materials, results directly to any person, the Canal Officer shall pay to such person such sum as may be agreed upon as compensation for such damage. In case of dispute as to the amount so to be paid, either party may refer such dispute to the Deputy Commissioner, whose decision thereon shall be final.

Offences and Penalties.

Offences under Act.

18. Whoever, without proper authority, and voluntarily, does any of the acts following, that is to say:—

(a) damages, alters, or obstructs the canal;

Act II. of 1881.

(b) interferes with, increases, or diminishes the supply of water in, or the flow of water from, through, over, or under the canal;

(c) interferes with or alters the flow of water in any river or stream, so as to endanger or damage the canal, or render it less useful;

(d) corrupts or fouls the water of the canal, so as to render it less fit for the purposes for which it is ordinarily used;

(e) causes any vessel to enter or navigate, or to remain at any place in, the canal, contrary to the rules for the time being prescribed by the Chief Commissioner for entering, navigating, or remaining in the canal;

(f) while navigating the canal, neglects to take proper precautions to prevent injury to the canal and to vessels therein;

(g) being a person liable to labour under section 14, refuses or neglects, without reasonable cause, so to labour;

(h) destroys or moves any land-mark, level-mark, or water-gauge fixed by the authority of a Canal Officer;

(i) passes, or causes animals or vehicles to pass, on or across any of the works, banks, or channels of the canal contrary to rules made under this Act, after he has been desired by a Canal Officer to desist therefrom; or

(j) pastures any animals on the banks of the canal, or knowingly suffers any animals belonging to him or under his charge to graze on such banks; shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month, or with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, or with both.

Penalty.

Saving of prosecution under other laws.

Nothing herein contained shall prevent any person from being prosecuted under any other law for any offence punishable under this Act: provided that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence.

Recovery of fines for offences in navigating canal.

19. Any fine imposed under this Act upon the owner of any vessel or the servant or agent of such owner, or any other person in charge of a vessel, for any offence in respect of the navigation of such vessel, may be recovered either in the manner prescribed by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882,* or, if the Magistrate imposing the fine so directs, as though it were a charge under this Act due in respect of such vessel.

Power to arrest without warrant.

20. Any person duly authorized in this behalf under section 3 may remove from the lands or buildings belonging to the canal, or may arrest without a warrant, and take forthwith before a Magistrate or to the nearest police station, to be dealt with according to law, any person who, within his view, commits any of the offences mentioned in clauses (a), (b), and (c) of section 18.

Power to make Rules.

Power to make rules.

21. The Chief Commissioner may, subject to the control of the Governor-General in Council, from time to time make rules consistent with this Act to regulate the following matters:—

(a) the navigation of the canal;

* See Act X. of 1882, s. 3, and ss. 386-389.

(b) the proceedings of any officer who, under any provision of this Act, is required or empowered to take action in any matter; Act V. of 1881.

(c) the amount of any tolls leviable under this Act; and

(d) generally to carry out the provisions of this Act.

The Chief Commissioner may, in making any such rule, attach to the breach of it the penalty specified in section 18.

Publication of rules. Such rules shall be published in the British Burma Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

Validation of past Proceedings.

ACT. V. OF 1881.*

PROBATE AND ADMINISTRATION ACT.

RECEIVED THE G. G.'S ASSENT ON THE 21ST JANUARY 1881.

An Act to provide for the Grant of Probates of Wills and Letters of Administration to the Estates of certain deceased persons.

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the grant of probate of wills and letters of adminstration to the estates of deceased persons in cases to which the Indian Succession Act, 1865, does not apply; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Short title. 1. This Act may be called "The Probate and Administration Act, 1881:"

Local extent. It applies to the whole of British India;

Commencement. and it shall come into force on the first day of April 1881.

Personal application. 2. Chapters II. to XIII., both inclusive, of this Act, shall apply in the case of every Hindu, Muhammadan, Buddhist, and person exempted under section 332 of the Indian Succession Act, 1865, dying before, on, or after, the said first day of April 1881:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to render invalid any transfer of property duly made before that day:

Provided also that, except in cases to which the Hindu Wills Act, 1870, applies,† no Court in any local area beyond the limits of the town of Calcutta,

* Act V. of 1881 has been declared, under the Scheduled Districts Act (XIV. of, 1874), to be in force in the following scheduled districts in the Chutia Nagpur Division: The Districts of Hazáribágh, Lohárdaga, and Mánbhum, and Pargana Dhálbhum, and the Kolhán in the District of Singbhum.—See Gazette of India, Oct. 22, 1881, Pt. I., p. 504.

† The Hindu Wills Act, 1870, applies, in the cases of Hindus, Jainas, Sikhs, and Buddhists, in the territories subject to the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and in the towns of Madras and Bombay.

Act V. of 1881.

Madras, and Bombay, and the territories for the time being administered by the Chief Commissioner of British Burma, and no High Court in exercise of the concurrent jurisdiction over such local area hereby conferred, shall receive applications for probate or letters of administration until the Local Government has, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, by a notification in the official Gazette, authorized it so to do:*

Interpretation-clause.

3.† In this Act, unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context,—

"province" includes any division of British India having a Court of the last resort:

"minor" means any person subject to the Indian Majority Act, 1875, who has not attained his majority within the meaning of that Act, and any other person who has not completed his age of eighteen years; and "minority" means the status of any such person:

"will" means the legal declaration of the intentions of the testator with respect to his property which he desires to be carried into effect after his death:

"codicil" means an instrument made in relation to a will, and explaining, altering, or adding to its dispositions. It is considered as forming an additional part of the will:

"specific legacy" means a legacy of specified property:

"demonstrative legacy" means a legacy directed to be paid out of specified property:

"probate" means the copy of a will certified under the seal of a Court of competent jurisdiction, with a grant of administration to the estate of the testator:

"executor" means a person to whom the execution of the last will of a deceased person is, by the testator's appointment, confided:

"administrator" means a person appointed by competent authority to administer the estate of a deceased person when there is no executor: and

"District Judge" means the Judge of a principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction.

---

* The following Courts have been authorized to receive applications for probate or letters of administration within the areas mentioned; namely:—

In Bengal: the High Court at Calcutta, throughout the territories subject to the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and all District Judges, as defined in the Act, within the said territories, and such judicial officers as the High Court may, from time to time, appoint as District Delegates.—See Calcutta Gazette, April 20, 1881, Pt. I., p. 445.

In the Panjab: the Chief Court, throughout the territories administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of the Panjab, and all District Judges, as defined in the Act, within the said territories, and such judicial officers as the Chief Court may, from time to time, appoint as District Delegates.—See Panjab Gazette, Oct. 6, 1881, Pt. I., p. 483.

In the Andaman and Nicobar Islands: the Courts of the Deputy Superintendent and the Chief Commissioner.—See Gazette of India, May 28, 1881, Pt. I., p. 214.

In Assam: the High Court at Calcutta, throughout Assam, and all District Judges as defined in the Act, within the province, and such judicial officers as the High Court may, from time to time, appoint as District Delegates.—See Assam Gazette, Aug. 27, 1881, Pt. I., p. 337.

† Compare Act X. of 1865, s. 3.

CHAPTER II.

OF GRANT OF PROBATE AND LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION.*

4. The executor or administrator, as the case may be, of a deceased person, is his legal representative for all purposes, and all the property of the deceased person vests in him as such.

Character and property of executor or administrator as such.

But nothing herein contained shall vest in an executor or administrator any property of a deceased person which would otherwise have passed by survivorship to some other person.

5. When a will has been proved and deposited in a Court of competent jurisdiction, situated beyond the limits of the province, whether in the British dominions, or in a foreign country, and a properly-authenticated copy of the will is produced, letters of administration may be granted with a copy of such copy annexed.

Administration with copy annexed of authenticated copy of will proved abroad.

6. Probate can be granted only to an executor appointed by the will.

Probate only to appointed executor.

7. The appointment may be express or by necessary implication.

Appointment, express or implied.

Illustrations.

(a.) A wills that C be his executor if B will not. B is appointed executor by implication.

(b.) A gives a legacy to B and several legacies to other persons, among the rest to his daughter-in-law, C, and adds, "but, should the within named C be not living, I do constitute and appoint B my whole and sole executrix." C is appointed executrix by implication.

(c.) A appoints several persons executors of his will and codicils, and his nephew residuary legatee, and in another codicil are these words: "I appoint my nephew my residuary legatee to discharge all lawful demands against my will and codicils, signed of different dates." The nephew is appointed an executor by implication.

8. Probate cannot be granted to any person who is a minor or is of unsound mind.

Persons to whom probate cannot be granted.

9. When several executors are appointed, probate may be granted to them all simultaneously or at different times.

Grant of probate to several executors simultaneously or at different times.

Illustration.

A is an executor of B's will by express appointment, and C an executor of it by implication. Probate may be granted to A and C at the same time, or to A first and then to C, or to C first, then to A.

10. If a codicil be discovered after the grant of probate, a separate probate of that codicil may be granted to the executor, if it in no way repeals the appointment of executors made by the will.

Separate probate of codicil discovered after grant of probate.

---

* Compare Act X. of 1865, Pt. XXIX.

Act V. of 1881. Procedure when different executors appointed by codicil.

If different executors are appointed by the codicil, the probate of the will must be revoked, and a new probate granted of the will and the codicil together.

Accrual of representation to surviving executor.

11. When probate has been granted to several executors, and one of them dies, the entire representation of the testator accrues to the surviving executor or executors.

Effect of probate.

12. Probate of a will when granted establishes the will from the death of the testator, and renders valid all intermediate acts of the executor as such.

To whom administration may not be granted.

13. Letters of administration cannot be granted to any person who is a minor or is of unsound mind.

Effect of letters of administration.

14. Letters of administration entitle the administrator to all rights belonging to the intestate as effectually as if the administration had been granted at the moment after his death.

Acts not validated by administration.

15. Letters of administration do not render valid any intermediate acts of the administrator tending to the diminution or damage of the intestate's estate.

Grant of administration where executor has not renounced.

16. When a person appointed an executor has not renounced the executorship, letters of administration shall not be granted to any other person until a citation has been issued calling upon the executor to accept or renounce his executorship;

Exception.

except that, when one or more of several executors has or have proved a will, the Court may, on the death of the survivor of those who have proved, grant letters of administration without citing those who have not proved.

Form and effect of renunciation of executorship.

17. The renunciation may be made orally in the presence of the Judge, or by a writing signed by the person renouncing, and, when made, shall preclude him from ever thereafter applying for probate of the will appointing him executor.

Procedure where executor renounces or fails to accept within time limited.

18. If the executor renounce or fail to accept the executorship within the time limited for the acceptance or refusal thereof, the will may be proved, and letters of administration, with a copy of the will annexed, may be granted to the person who would be entitled to administration in case of intestacy.

Grant of administration to universal or residuary legatee.

19. When the deceased has made a will, but has not appointed an executor, or when he has appointed an executor, who is legally incapable or refuses to act, or has died before the testator, or before he has proved the will, or when the executor dies after having proved the will, but before he has administered all the estate of the deceased, a universal or a residuary legatee may be admitted to prove the will, and letters of administration, with the will annexed, may be granted to him of the whole estate, or of so much thereof as may be unadministered.

Right to administration of representative of deceased residuary legatee.

20. When a residuary legatee, who has a beneficial interest, survives the testator, but dies before the estate has been fully administered, his representative has the same right to administration with the will annexed as such residuary legatee.

Grant of administration where no executor, nor residuary legatee, nor representative of such legatee.

21. When there is no executor and no residuary legatee or representative of a residuary legatee, or he declines or is incapable to act, or cannot be found, the person or persons who would be entitled to the administration of the estate of the deceased if he had died intestate, or any other legatee having a beneficial interest, or a creditor, may be admitted to prove the will and letters of administration may be granted to him or them accordingly.

Citation before grant of administration to legatee other than universal or residuary.

22. Letters of administration, with the will annexed, shall not be granted to any legatee, other than a universal or a residuary legatee, until a citation has been issued and published in the manner hereinafter mentioned, calling on the next-of-kin to accept or refuse letters of administration.

To whom administration may be granted.

23. When the deceased has died intestate, administration of his estate may be granted to any person who, according to the rules for the distribution of the estate of an intestate applicable in the case of such deceased, would be entitled to the whole or any part of such deceased's estate.

When several such persons apply for administration, it shall be in the discretion of the Court to grant it to any one or more of them.

When no such person applies, it may be granted to a creditor of the deceased.

CHAPTER III.

OF LIMITED GRANTS.*

(a.)—Grants limited in Duration.

Probate of copy or draft of lost will.

24. When the will has been lost or mislaid since the testator's death, or has been destroyed by wrong or accident, and not by any act of the testator, and a copy or the draft of the will has been preserved, probate may be granted of such copy or draft, limited until the original or a properly authenticated copy of it be produced.

Probate of contents of lost or destroyed will.

25. When the will has been lost or destroyed, and no copy has been made, nor the draft preserved, probate may be granted of its contents, if they can be established by evidence.

Probate of copy where original exists.

26. When the will is in the possession of a person residing out of the province in which application for probate is made, who has refused or neglected to deliver it up, but a copy has been transmitted to the executor, and it is necessary for the interests of the estate that probate should be granted without waiting for the arrival of the original, probate may be granted of the copy so transmitted, limited until the will or an authenticated copy of it be produced.

* Compare Act X. of 1865, Part XXX. (a) to (f).

Act V. of 1881.

Administration until will produced.

27. Where no will of the deceased is forthcoming, but there is reason to believe that there is a will in existence, letters of administration may be granted, limited until the will or an authenticated copy of it be produced.

(b.)—Grants for the Use and Benefit of Others having Right.

Administration with will annexed to attorney of absent executor.

28. When any executor is absent from the province in which application is made, and there is no executor within the province willing to act, letters of administration with the will annexed may be granted to the agent of the absent executor, for the use and benefit of his principal, limited until he shall obtain probate or letters of administration granted to himself.

Administration with will annexed to attorney of absent person, who, if present, would be entitled to administer.

29. When any person, to whom, if present, letters of administration with the will annexed might be granted, is absent from the province, letters of administration with the will annexed may be granted to his agent, limited as above mentioned.

Administration to attorney of absent person entitled to administer in case of intestacy.

30. When a person entitled to administration in case of intestacy is absent from the province, and no person equally entitled is willing to act, letters of administration may be granted to the agent of the absent person, limited as before mentioned.

Administration during minority of sole executor or residuary legatee.

31. When a minor is sole executor or sole residuary legatee, letters of administration, with the will annexed, may be granted to the legal guardian of such minor, or to such other person as the Court shall think fit, until the minor has attained his majority, at which period, and not before, probate of the will shall be granted to him.

Administration during minority of several executors or residuary legatees.

32. When there are two or more minor executors, and no executor who has attained majority, or two or more residuary legatees, and no residuary legatee who has attained majority, the grant shall be limited until one of them has attained his majority.

Administration for use and benefit of lunatic.

33. If a sole executor or a sole universal or residuary legatee, or a person who would be solely entitled to the estate of the intestate according to the rule* for the distribution of intestates' estates, applicable in the case of the deceased, be a minor or lunatic, letters of administration, with or without the will annexed, as the case may be, shall be granted to the person to whom the care of his estate has been committed by competent authority, or, if there be no such person, to such other person as the Court thinks fit to appoint, for the use and benefit of the minor or lunatic, until he attains majority or becomes of sound mind, as the case may be.

Administration pendente lite.

34. Pending any suit touching the validity of the will of a deceased person, or for obtaining or revoking any probate or any grant of letters of administration, the Court may appoint an administrator of the estate of such deceased person, who shall have all the rights and powers of a general administrator, other than the right of distributing such estate; and every such administrator shall be subject to the immediate control of the Court, and shall act under its direction.

* Sic. Read "rules."

(c.)—For Special Purposes.

Probate limited to purpose specified in will.

35. If any executor be appointed for any limited purpose specified in the will, the probate shall be limited to that purpose; and, if he should appoint an agent to take administration on his behalf, the letters of administration, with the will annexed, shall accordingly be limited.

Administration with will annexed limited to particular purpose.

36. If an executor appointed generally give an authority to an attorney to prove a will on his behalf, and the authority is limited to a particular purpose, the letters of administration, with the will annexed, shall be limited accordingly.

Administration limited to trust-property.

37. Where a person dies, leaving property of which he was the sole or surviving trustee, or in which he had no beneficial interest on his own account, and leaves no general representative, or one who is unable or unwilling to act as such, letters of administration, limited to such property, may be granted to the beneficiary, or to some other person on his behalf.

Administration limited to suit.

38. When it is necessary that the representative of a person deceased be made a party to a pending suit, and the executor or person entitled to administration is unable or unwilling to act, letters of administration may be granted to the nominee of a party in such suit, limited for the purpose of representing the deceased in the said suit, or in any other suit which may be commenced in the same or in any other Court between the parties, or any other parties, touching the matters at issue in the said suit, and until a final decree shall be made therein and carried into complete execution.

Administration limited to purpose of becoming party to suit to be brought against administrator.

39. If, at the expiration of twelve months from the date of any probate or letters of administration, the executor or administrator, to whom the same has or have been granted, is absent from the province within which the Court, that has granted the probate or letters of administration, is situate, such Court may grant, to any person whom it thinks fit, letters of administration limited to the purpose of becoming and being made a party to a suit to be brought against the executor or administrator, and carrying the decree which may be made therein into effect.

Administration limited to collection and preservation of deceased's property.

40. In any case in which it appears necessary for preserving the property of a deceased person, the Court, within whose district any of the property is situate, may grant, to any person whom such Court thinks fit, letters of administration limited to the collection and preservation of the property of the deceased, and giving discharges for debts due to his estate, subject to the directions of the Court.

Act V. of 1881.

Appointment, as administrator, of person other than one who under ordinary circumstances would be entitled to administration.

41. When a person has died intestate, or leaving a will of which there is no executor willing and competent to act, or where the executor is, at the time of the death of such person, resident out of the province, and it appears to the Court to be necessary or convenient to appoint some person to administer the estate or any part thereof other than the person who, under ordinary circumstances, would be entitled to a grant of administration, the Judge may, in his discretion, having regard to consanguinity, amount of interest, the safety of the estate, and probability that it will be properly administered, appoint such person as he thinks fit to be administrator; and in every such case letters of administration may be limited or not as the Judge thinks fit.

(d.)—Grants with Exception.

Probate or administration with will annexed subject to exception.

42. Whenever the nature of the case requires that an exception be made, probate of a will or letters of administration with the will annexed shall be granted subject to such exception.

Administration with exception.

43. Whenever the nature of the case requires that an exception be made, letters of administration shall be granted subject to such exception.

(e.)—Grants of the Rest.

Probate or administration of rest.

44. Whenever a grant, with exception, of probate or letters of administration, with or without the will annexed, has been made the person entitled to probate or administration of the remainder of the deceased's estate may take a grant of probate or letters of administration, as the case may be, of the rest of the deceased's estate.

(f.)—Grants of Effects unadministered.

Grant of effects unadministered.

45. If the executor to whom probate has been granted has died leaving a part of the testator's estate unadministered, a new representative may be appointed for the purpose of administering such part of the estate.

Rules as to grants of effects unadministered.

46. In granting letters of administration of an estate not fully administered, the Court shall be guided by the same rules as apply to original grants, and shall grant letters of administration to those persons only to whom original grants might have been made.

Administration when limited grant expired, and still some part of estate unadministered.

47. When a limited grant has expired by effluxion of time, or the happening of the event or contingency on which it was limited, and there is still some part of the deceased's estate unadministered, letters of administration shall be granted to those persons to whom original grants might have been made.

CHAPTER IV.

ALTERATION AND REVOCATION OF GRANTS.*

What errors may be rectified by Court.

48. Errors in names and descriptions, or in setting forth the time and place of the deceased's death, or the purpose in a limited grant, may be rectified by the Court, and the grant of probate or letters of administration may be altered and amended accordingly.

Procedure where codicil discovered after grant of administration with will annexed.

49. If, after the grant of letters of administration with the will annexed, a codicil be discovered, it may be added to the grant on due proof and identification, and the grant altered and amended accordingly.

Revocation or annulment for just cause.

50. The grant of probate or letters of administration may be revoked or annulled for just cause.

"Just cause."

Explanation.—"Just cause" is—

1st, that the proceedings to obtain the grant were defective in substance;

2nd, that the grant was obtained fraudulently by making a false suggestion, or by concealing from the Court something material to the case;

3rd, that the grant was obtained by means of an untrue allegation of a fact essential in point of law to justify the grant, though such allegation was made in ignorance or inadvertently;

4th, that the grant has become useless and inoperative through circumstances;

5th, that the person to whom the grant was made has wilfully and without reasonable cause omitted to exhibit an inventory or account in accordance with the provisions of Chapter VII. of this Act, or has exhibited under that chapter an inventory or account which is untrue in a material respect.†

Illustrations.

(a.) The Court by which the grant was made had no jurisdiction.

(b.) The grant was made without citing parties who ought to have been cited.

(c.) The will of which probate was obtained was forged or revoked.

(d.) A obtained letters of administration to the estate of B as his widow, but it has since transpired that she was never married to him.

(e.) A has taken administration to the estate of B as if he had died intestate, but a will has since been discovered.

(f.) Since probate was granted, a later will has been discovered.

(g.) Since probate was granted, a codicil has been discovered, which revokes or adds to the appointment of executors under the will.

(h.) The person to whom probate was, or letters of administration were, granted has subsequently become of unsound mind.

CHAPTER V.

OF THE PRACTICE IN GRANTING AND REVOKING PROBATES AND LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION.*

Jurisdiction of District Judge in granting and revoking probates, &c.

51. The District Judge shall have jurisdiction in granting and revoking probates and letters of administration in all cases within his district.

Power to appoint Delegate of District Judge to deal with non-contentious cases.

52. The High Court may, from time to time, appoint such judicial officers within any district as it thinks fit to act for the District Judge as Delegates to grant probate and letters of administration in non-contentious cases within such local limits as it may from time to time prescribe:

Provided that, in the case of High Courts not established by Royal Charter, such appointment be made with the previous sanction of the Local Government.

Persons so appointed shall be called "District Delegates."

District Judge's powers as to grant of probate and administration.

53. The District Judge shall have the like powers and authority in relation to the granting of probate and letters of administration, and all matters connected therewith, as are by law vested in him in relation to any civil suit or proceeding depending in his Court.

District Judge may order person to produce testamentary papers.

54. The District Judge may order any person to produce and bring into Court any paper or writing being or purporting to be testamentary, which may be shown to be in the possession or under the control of such person; and, if it be not shown that any such paper or writing is in the possession or under the control of such person, but there is reason to believe that he has the knowledge of any such paper or writing, the Court may direct him to attend for the purpose of being examined respecting the same, and he shall be bound to answer such questions as may be put to him by the Court, and, if so ordered, to produce and bring in such paper or writing, and shall be subject to the like punishment under the Indian Penal Code, in case of default in not attending, or in not answering such questions, or not bringing in such paper or writing, as he would have been subject to in case he had been a party to a suit, and had made such default, and the costs of the proceeding shall be in the discretion of the Judge.

Proceedings of District Judge's Court in relation to probate and administration.

55. The proceedings of the Court of the District Judge, in relation to the granting of probate and letters of administration, shall, except as hereinafter otherwise provided, be regulated, so far as the circumstances of the case will admit, by the Code of Civil Procedure.†

When probate or administration may be granted by District Judge.

56. Probate of the will or letters of administration to the estate of a deceased person may be granted by the District Judge under the seal of his Court, if it appears by a petition, verified as hereinafter mentioned, of the person applying for the same that the testator or intestate, as the case may be, had, at the time of his decease, a fixed place of abode, or any property, moveable or immoveable, within the jurisdiction of the Judge. Act V of 1881.

Disposal of application made to Judge of District in which deceased had no fixed abode.

57. When the application is made to the Judge of a District in which the deceased had no fixed abode at the time of his death, the Judge may, in his discretion, refuse the application, if, in his judgment, it could be disposed of more justly or conveniently in another district, or, where the application is for letters of administration, grant them absolutely, or limited to the property within his own jurisdiction.

Probate and letters of administration may be granted by Delegate.

58. Probate and letters of administration may, upon application for that purpose to any District Delegate, be granted by him in any case in which there is no contention, if it appears by petition (verified as hereinafter mentioned) that the testator or intestate, as the case may be, at the time of his death, had his fixed place of abode within the jurisdiction of such Delegate.

Conclusiveness of probate or letters of administration.

59. Probate or letters of administration shall have effect over all the property, moveable or immoveable, of the deceased throughout the province in which the same is or are* granted, and shall be conclusive as to the representative title against all debtors of the deceased, and all persons holding property which belongs to him, and shall afford full indemnity to all debtors paying their debts, and all persons delivering up such property to the person to whom such probate or letters of administration shall have been granted:

Effect of unlimited probates, &c., granted by certain Courts.

Provided that probates and letters of administration granted by a High Court established by Royal Charter, or by the Chief Court of the Panjab, or by the Court of the Recorder of Rangoon, shall, unless otherwise directed by the grant, have like effect throughout the whole of British India.

Transmission of certificate by Court granting unlimited probate, &c., to other Courts.

60. Whenever a grant of probate or letters of administration is made by a Court with such effect as last aforesaid, the Registrar, or such other officer as the Court making the grant appoints in this behalf, shall send to each of the other Courts empowered to make such grants a certificate to the following effect:—

"I, A. B., Registrar [or as the case may be] of the High Court of Judicature at [or as the case may be], hereby certify that, on the day of 18 , the High Court of Judicature at [or as the case may be] granted probate of the will [or letters of administration of the estate] of C. D., late of , deceased, to E. F., of , and G. H., of , and that such probate [or letters] has [or have] effect over all the property of the deceased throughout the whole of British India;"

and such certificate shall be filed by the Court receiving the same.

Conclusiveness of application for probate or administration, if properly made and verified.

61. The application for probate or letters of administration, if made and verified in the manner hereinafter mentioned, shall be conclusive for the purpose of authorizing the grant of probate or administration, and no such grant shall be impeached by reason that the testator or intestate had no fixed place of abode, or no property within the district at the time of his death, unless by a proceeding to revoke the grant if obtained by a fraud upon the Court.

Petition for probate.

62. Application for probate or for letters of administration with the will annexed shall be made by a petition distinctly written in English or in the language in ordinary use in proceedings before the Court in which the application is made, with the will, or in the cases mentioned in sections 24, 25, and 26, a copy, draft, or statement of the contents thereof annexed, and stating the time of the testator's death, that the writing annexed is his last will and testament, or as the case may be,

that it was duly executed,

the amount of assets which are likely to come to the petitioner's hands;

and, where the application is for probate, that the petitioner is the executor named in the will.

In addition to these particulars, the petition shall further state, when the application is to the District Judge, that the deceased, at the time of his death, had a fixed place of abode, or had some property situate within the jurisdiction of the Judge; and, when the application is to a District Delegate, that the deceased, at the time of his death, had a fixed place of abode within the jurisdiction of such Delegate.

In what cases translation of will to be annexed to petition.

Verification of translation by person other than Court translator.

63. In cases wherein the will, copy, or draft, is written in any language other than English, or than that in ordinary use in proceedings before the Court, there shall be a translation thereof annexed to the petition by a translator of the Court, if the language be one for which a translator is appointed; or, if the will, copy, or draft, be in any other language, then by any person competent to translate the same, in which case such translation shall be verified by that person in the following manner:—

"I (A. B.) do declare that I read and perfectly understand the language and character of the original, and that the above is a true and accurate translation thereof."

Petition for letters of administration.

64. Application for letters of administration shall be made by petition distinctly written as aforesaid, and stating the time and place of the deceased's death, the family or other relatives of the deceased, and their respective residences, the right in which the petitioner claims,

the amount of assets which are likely to come to the petitioner's hands.

In addition to these particulars, the petition shall further state, when the application is to a District Judge, that the deceased, at the time of his death, had a fixed place of abode, or had some property situate within the jurisdiction of the Judge; and when the application is to a District Delegate, that the deceased, at the time of his death, had a fixed place of abode within the jurisdiction of such Delegate. Act V of 1881.

65. Every person applying to any of the Courts mentioned in the proviso to section 59 for probate of a will or letters of administration of an estate, intended to have effect throughout British India, shall state in his petition, in addition to the matters respectively required by sections 62 and 64, that to the best of his belief no application has been made to any other Court for a probate of the same will or for letters of administration of the same estate, intended to have such effect as last aforesaid, or, where any such application has been made, the Court to which it was made, the person or persons by whom it was made, and the proceedings (if any) had thereon.

Additional statements in petition for probate, &c.

And the Court to which any application is made under the proviso to section 59 may, if it think fit, reject the same.

66. The petition for probate or letters of administration shall, in all cases, be subscribed by the petitioner and his pleader, if any, and shall be verified by the petitioner in the following manner or to the like effect :—

Petition for probate or administration to be signed and verified.

"I (A. B.) the petitioner in the above petition, declare that what is stated therein is true to the best of my information and belief."

67. Where the application is for probate, or for letters of administration with the will annexed, the petition shall also be verified by at least one of the witnesses to the will (when procurable), in the manner or to the effect following :—

Verification of petition for probate by one witness to will.

"I (C. D.), one of the witnesses to the last will and testament of the testator mentioned in the above petition, declare that I was present, and saw the said testator affix his signature (or mark) thereto (as the case may be) (or that the said testator acknowledged the writing annexed to the above petition to be his last will and testament in my presence)."

68. If any petition or declaration which is hereby required to be verified contains any averment which the person making the verification knows or believes to be false, such person shall be subject to punishment according to the provisions of the law for the time being in force for the punishment of giving or fabricating false evidence.*

Punishment for false averment in petition or declaration.

69. In all cases it shall be lawful for the District Judge or District Delegate, if he thinks fit,

District Judge may examine petitioner in person, to examine the petitioner in person upon oath, and also to require further evidence of the due execution of the will or the right of the petitioner to the letters of administration, as the case may be, and require further evidence, to issue citations calling upon all persons claiming to have any interest in the estate of the deceased to come and see the proceedings before the grant of probate or letters of administration.

and issue citations to inspect proceedings.

* See Act XLV. of 1860, Ch. XI.

Act V. of 1881.

Publication of citation.

The citation shall be fixed up in some conspicuous part of the Court-house, and also in the office of the Collector of the District, and otherwise published or made known in such manner as the Judge or Delegate issuing the same may direct.

Caveats against grant of probate or administration.

70. Caveats against the grant of probate or letters of administration may be lodged with the District Judge or a District Delegate; and immediately on any caveat being lodged with any District Delegate, he shall send a copy thereof to the District Judge; and immediately on a caveat being entered with the District Judge, a copy thereof shall be given to the District Delegate, if any, within whose jurisdiction it is alleged the deceased had his fixed place of abode at the time of his death, and to any other Judge or District Delegate to whom it may appear to the District Judge expedient to transmit the same.

Form of caveat.

71. The caveat shall be to the following effect :—

"Let nothing be done in the matter of the estate of A. B., late of deceased, who died on the day of at , without notice to C, D. of ."

After entry of caveat, no proceeding taken on petition until after notice to caveator.

72. No proceeding shall be taken on a petition for probate or letters of administration after a caveat against the grant thereof has been entered with the Judge or District Delegate to whom the application has been made, or notice thereof has been given of its entry with some other Delegate, until after such notice to the person by whom the same has been entered as the Court shall think reasonable.

District Delegate when not to grant probate or administration.

73. A District Delegate shall not grant probate or letters of administration in any case in which there is contention as to the grant, or in which it otherwise appears to him that probate or letters of administration ought not to be granted in his Court.

Explanation.—By "contention" is understood the appearance of any one in person, or by his recognized agent, or by a pleader duly appointed to act on his behalf, to oppose the proceeding.

Power to transmit statement to District Judge in doubtful cases where no contention.

74. In every case in which there is no contention, but it appears to the District Delegate doubtful whether the probate or letters of administration should or should not be granted, or when any question arises in relation to the grant, or application for the grant, of any probate or letters of administration, the District Delegate may, if he thinks proper, transmit a statement of the matter in question to the District Judge, who may direct the District Delegate to proceed in the matter of the application, according to such instructions as to the Judge may seem necessary, or may forbid any further proceeding by the District Delegate in relation to the matter of such application, leaving the party applying for the grant in question to make application to the Judge.

Procedure where there is contention, or District Delegate thinks probate or letters of administration should be refused in his Court.

75. In every case in which there is contention, or the District Delegate is of opinion that the probate or letters of administration should be refused in his Court, the petition, with any documents that may have been filed therewith, shall be returned to the person by whom the application was made in order that the same may be presented to the District Judge; unless the District Delegate thinks it necessary, for the purposes of justice, to impound the same, which he is hereby authorized to do; and in that case the same shall be sent by him to the District Judge. Act V. of 1881.

Grant of probate to be under seal of Court.

76. Whenever it appears to the Judge or District Delegate that probate of a will should be granted, he shall grant the same under the seal of his Court in manner following:—

Form of such grant.

"I, , Judge of the District of , [or Delegate appointed for granting probate or letters of administration in (here insert the limits of the Delegate's jurisdiction)], hereby make known that on the day of in the year the last will of , late of , a copy whereof is hereunto annexed, was proved and registered before me, and that administration of the property and credits of the said deceased, and in any way concerning his will, was granted to , the executor in the said will named, 'he having undertaken to administer the same, and to make a full and true inventory of the said property and credits, and exhibit the same in this Court within six months from the date of this grant, or within such further time as the Court may from time to time appoint, and also to render to this Court a true account of the said property and credits within one year from the same date, or within such further time as the Court may from time to time appoint.'*

"The day of 18 ."

Grant of letters of administration to be under seal of Court.

77. Whenever it appears to the District Judge or District Delegate that letters of administration to the estate of a person deceased, with or without a copy of the will annexed should be granted, he shall grant the same under the seal of his Court in manner following:—

Form of such grant.

"I, , Judge of the District of , [or Delegate appointed for granting probate or letters of administration in (here insert the limits of the Delegate's jurisdiction), hereby make known that on the day of letters of administration (with or without the will annexed, as the case may be) of the property and credits of , late of , deceased, were granted to , the father (or as the case may be) of the deceased, 'he having undertaken to administer the same, and to make a full and true inventory of the said property and credits, and exhibit the same in this Court within six months from the date of this grant, or within such further time as the Court may from time to time appoint, and also to render to this Court a true account of the said property and credits within one year from the same date, or within such further time as the Court may from time to time appoint.'*

"The day of 18 ."

Administration-bond.

78. Every person to whom any grant of letters of administration is committed, and, if the Judge so direct, any person to whom probate is granted, shall give a bond to the Judge of the District Court to ensure for the benefit of the Judge for the time being, with one or more surety or sureties, engaging for the due collection, getting in, and administering the estate of the deceased, which bond shall be in such form as the Judge from time to time by any general or special order directs.

Act V. of 1881.

Assignment of administration-bond.

79. The Court may, on application made by petition, and on being satisfied that the engagement of any such bond has not been kept, and upon such terms as to security, or providing that the money received be paid into Court or otherwise as the Court may think fit, assign the same to some proper person, who shall thereupon be entitled to sue on the said bond in his own name as if the same had been originally given to him instead of to the Judge of the Court, and shall be entitled to recover thereon, as trustee for all persons interested, the full amount recoverable in respect of any breach thereof.

Time before which probate or administration shall not be granted.

80. No probate of a will shall be granted until after the expiration of seven clear days, and no letters of administration shall be granted until after the expiration of fourteen clear days, from the day of the testator* or intestate's death.

Filing of original wills of which probate or administration with will annexed granted.

81. Until a public registry for wills is established, every District Judge and District Delegate shall file and preserve among the records of his Court all original wills of which probate or letters of administration with the will annexed may be granted by him; and the Local Government shall make regulations for the preservation and inspection of the wills so filed as aforesaid.

Grantee of probate or administration alone to sue, &c., until same revoked.

82. After any grant of probate or letters of administration, no other than the person to whom the same shall have been granted shall have power to sue or prosecute any suit, or otherwise act as representative of the deceased, throughout the province in which the same may have been granted until such probate or letters of administration shall have been recalled or revoked.

Procedure in contentious cases.

83. In any case before the District Judge in which there is contention, the proceedings† shall take, as nearly as may be, the form of a suit, according to the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure,‡ in which the petitioner for a probate or letters of administration, as the case may be, shall be the plaintiff, and the person who may have appeared as aforesaid to oppose the grant shall be the defendant.

Payment to executor or administrator before probate or administration revoked.

84. Where any probate is, or letters of administration are, revoked, all payments bonâ fide made to any executor or administrator under such probate or administration before the revocation thereof shall, notwithstanding such revocation, be a legal discharge to the person making the same;

Right of such executor or administrator to recoup himself.

and the executor or administrator who shall have acted under any such revoked probate or administration may retain and reimburse himself out of the assets of the deceased in respect of any payments made by him which the person to whom probate or letters of administration shall be afterwards granted might have lawfully made.

Act V. of 1881.

Power to refuse letters of administration.

85. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, it shall, except in cases to which the Hindu Wills Act, 1870, applies, be in the discretion of the Court to make an order refusing, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, to grant any application for letters of administration made under this Act.

Appeals from orders of District Judge.

86. Every order made by a District Judge or District Delegate by virtue of the powers hereby conferred upon him shall be subject to appeal to the High Court under the rules contained in the Code of Civil Procedure* applicable to appeals.

Concurrent jurisdiction of High Court.

87. The High Court shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the District Judge in the exercise of all the powers hereby conferred upon the District Judge.

CHAPTER VI.

OF THE POWERS OF AN EXECUTOR OR ADMINISTRATOR.†

In respect of causes of action surviving deceased, and debts due at death.

88. An executor or administrator has the same power to sue in respect of all causes of action that survive the deceased, and may exercise the same powers for the recovery of debts due to him at the time of his death, as the deceased had when living.

Demands and rights of suit of or against deceased survive to and against executor or administrator.

89. All demands whatsoever, and all rights to prosecute or defend any suit or other proceeding, existing in favour of or against a person at the time of his decease, survive to and against his executors or administrators except causes of action for defamation, assault as defined in the Indian Penal Code, or other personal injuries not causing the death of the party, and except also cases where, after the death of the party, the relief sought could not be enjoyed, or granting it would be nugatory.

Illustration.

A collision takes place on a railway in consequence of some neglect or default of the officials, and a passenger is severely hurt, but not so as to cause death. He afterwards dies without having instituted any suit. The cause of action does not survive.

Power of executor or administrator to dispose of property.

90.‡ (1) An executor or administrator has, subject to the provisions of this section, power to dispose, as he thinks fit, of all or any of the property for the time being vested in him under section 4.

(2) The power of an executor to dispose of immoveable property so vested in him is subject to any restriction which may be imposed in this behalf by the will appointing him, unless probate has been granted to him, and the Court

‡ S. 90 has been substituted for the original by Act VI. of 1889, s. 14. "Notwithstanding anything in s. 90 of the Probate and Administration Act, 1881, a disposal of property by an executor or administrator who was appointed before the commencement of this Act, and to whom the provisions of that section were applicable, shall not be void by reason only that the consent of the Court to the disposal of the property was not obtained."—Act VI. of 1889, s. 19.

Act V. of 1881.

which granted the probate permits him by an order in writing, notwithstanding the restriction, to dispose of any immoveable property specified in the order in a manner permitted by the order.

(3) An administrator may not, without the previous permission of the Court by which the letters of administration were granted,—

(a) mortgage, charge, or transfer by sale, gift, exchange, or otherwise any immoveable property for the time being vested in him under section 4, or

(b) lease any such property for a term exceeding five years.

(4) A disposal of property by an executor or administrator in contravention of sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), as the case may be, is voidable at the instance of any other person interested in the property.

(5) Before any probate or letters of administration is or are granted under this Act, there shall be endorsed thereon or annexed thereto a copy of sub-sections (1), (2), and (4), or of sub-sections (1), (3), and (4) as the case may be.

(6) A probate or letters of administration shall not be rendered invalid by reason of the endorsement or annexure required by the last foregoing sub-section not having been made thereon or attached thereto, nor shall the absence of such an endorsement or annexure authorize an executor or administrator to act otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this section.

Illustrations.

(a.) The deceased has made a specific bequest of part of his property. The executor, not having assented to the bequest, sells the subject of it with the consent of the Court. The sale is valid.

(b.) The executor, in the exercise of his discretion, mortgages a part of the immoveable estate of the deceased with the consent of the Court. The mortgage is valid.

Purchase by executor or administrator of deceased's property.

91. If an executor or administrator purchases, either directly or indirectly, any part of the property of the deceased, the sale is voidable at the instance of any other person interested in the property sold.

Powers of several executors or administrators exercisable by one.

92. When there are several executors or administrators, the powers of all may, in the absence of any direction to the contrary in the will or grant of letters of administration, be exercised by any one of them who has proved the will or taken out administration.

Illustrations.

(a.) One of several executors has power to release a debt due to the deceased.

(b.) One has power to surrender a lease.

(c.) One has power to sell the property of the deceased, moveable or immoveable.

(d.) One has power to assent to a legacy.

(e.) One has power to endorse a promissory note payable to the deceased.

(f.) The will appoints A, B, C, and D to be executors, and directs that two of them shall be a quorum. No act can be done by a single executor.

Act V. of 1881.

Survival of powers on death of one of several executors or administrators.

93. Upon the death of one or more of several executors or administrators, all the powers of the office become, in the absence of any direction to the contrary in the will or grant of letters of administration, vested in the survivors or survivor.

Powers of administrator of effects unadministered.

94. The administrator of effects unadministered has, with respect to such effects, the same powers as the original executor or administrator.

Powers of administrator during minority.

95. An administrator during minority has all the powers of an ordinary administrator.

Powers of married executrix or administratrix.

96. When probate or letters of administration shall have been granted to a married woman, she has all the powers of an ordinary executor or administrator.

CHAPTER VII.

OF THE DUTIES OF AN EXECUTOR OR ADMINISTRATOR.*

As to deceased's funeral ceremonies.

97. It is the duty of an executor to provide funds for the performance of the necessary funeral ceremonies of the deceased in a manner suitable to his condition, if he has left property sufficient for the purpose.

Inventory and account.

98.† (1) An executor or administrator shall, within six months from the grant of probate or letters of administration, or within such further time as the Court which granted the probate or letters may from time to time appoint, exhibit in that Court an inventory containing a full and true estimate of all the property in possession and all the credits, and also all the debts owing by any person to which the executor or administrator is entitled in that character, and shall, in like manner, within one year from the grant, or within such further time as the said Court may from time to time appoint, exhibit an account of the estate, showing the assets which have come to his hands, and the manner in which they have been applied or disposed of.

(2) The High Court may from time to time prescribe the form in which an inventory or account under this section, is to be exhibited.

(3) If an executor or administrator, on being required by the Court to exhibit an inventory or account under this section, intentionally omits to comply with the requisition, he shall be deemed to have committed an offence under section 176 of the Indian Penal Code.

(4) The exhibition of an intentionally false inventory or account under this section shall be deemed to be an offence under section 193 of that Code.

Inventory to include property in any part of British India.

99. In all cases where a grant has been made of probate or letters of administration intended to have effect throughout the whole of British India, the executor or administrator shall include in the inventory of the effects of the deceased all his moveable or immoveable property situate in British India:‡

* Compare Act X. of 1865, Pt. XXXIV., as amended by Act XIII. of 1875.

† S. 98 has been substituted for the original by Act VI. of 1889, s. 15.

‡ As amended by Act VI. of 1889, s. 16.

Act V, of 1881.

And the value of such property situate in each province shall be separately stated in such inventory, and the probate or letters of administration shall be chargeable with a fee corresponding to the entire amount or value of the property affected thereby, wheresoever situate within British India.

As to property of, and debts owing to, deceased.

100. The executor or administrator shall collect, with reasonable diligence, the property of the deceased and the debts that were due to him at the time of his death.

Expenses to be paid before all debts.

101. Funeral expenses to a reasonable amount, according to the degree and quality of the deceased, and deathbed charges, including fees for medical attendance, and board and lodging for one month previous to his death, are to be paid before all debts.

Expenses to be paid next after such expenses.

102. The expenses of obtaining probate or letters of administration, including the costs incurred for or in respect of any judicial proceeding that may be necessary for administering the estate, are to be paid next after the funeral expenses and deathbed charges.

Wages for certain services to be next paid, and then other debts.

103. Wages due for services rendered to the deceased within three months next preceding his death by any labourer, artisan, or domestic servant, are next to be paid, and then the other debts of the deceased according to their respective priorities (if any).

Save as aforesaid, all debts to be paid equally and rateably.

104. Save as aforesaid, no creditor is to have a right of priority over another.

But the executor or administrator shall pay all such debts as he knows of, including his own, equally and rateably, as far as the assets of the deceased will extend.

Debts to be paid before legacies.

105. Debts of every description must be paid before any legacy.

Executor or administrator not bound to pay legacies without indemnity.

106. If the estate of the deceased is subject to any contingent liabilities, an executor or administrator is not bound to pay any legacy without a sufficient indemnity to meet the liabilities whenever they may become due.

Abatement of general legacies.

107. If the assets, after payment of debts, necessary expenses, and specific legacies, are not sufficient to pay all the general legacies in full, the latter shall abate or be diminished in equal proportions;

Executor not to pay one legatee in preference to another.

and, in the absence of any direction to the contrary in the will, the executor has no right to pay one legatee in preference to another, nor to retain any money on account of a legacy to himself or to any person for whom he is a trustee.

Non-abatement of specific legacy when assets sufficient to pay debts.

108. Where there is a specific legacy, and the assets are sufficient for the payment of debts and necessary expenses, the thing specified must be delivered to the legatee without any abatement.

109. Where there is a demonstrative legacy, and the assets are sufficient for the payment of debts and necessary expenses, the legatee has a preferential claim for payment of his legacy out of the fund from which the legacy is directed to be paid until such fund is exhausted and if, after the fund is exhausted, part of the legacy still remains unpaid, he is entitled to rank for the remainder against the general assets as for a legacy of the amount of such unpaid remainder.

Right under demonstrative legacy when assets sufficient to pay debts and necessary expenses.

110. If the assets are not sufficient to answer the debts and the specific legacies, an abatement shall be made from the latter rateably in proportion to their respective amounts.

Rateable abatement of specific legacies.

Illustration.

A has bequeathed to B a diamond-ring, valued at 500 rupees, and to C a horse valued at 1,000 rupees. It is found necessary to sell all the effects of the testator, and his assets, after payment of debts, are only 1,000 rupees. Of this sum Rupees 333-5-4 are to be paid to B, and Rupees 666-10-8 to C.

111. For the purpose of abatement, a legacy for life, a sum appropriated by the will to produce an annuity, and the value of an annuity when no sum has been appropriated to produce it, shall be treated as general legacies.

Legacies treated as general for purpose of abatement.

CHAPTER VIII.

OF THE EXECUTOR'S ASSENT TO A LEGACY.*

112. The assent of the executor is necessary to complete a legatee's title to his legacy.

Assent necessary to complete legatee's title.

Illustrations.

(a.) A by his will bequeaths to B his Government paper, which is in deposit with the Bank of Bengal. The Bank has no other authority to deliver the securities, nor B a right to take possession of them, without the assent of the executor.

(b.) A by his will has bequeathed to C his house in Calcutta in the tenancy of B. C is not entitled to receive the rents without the assent of the executor.

113. The assent of the executor to a specific bequest shall be sufficient to divest his interest as executor therein, and to transfer the subject of the bequest to the legatee, unless the nature or the circumstances of the property require that it shall be transferred in a particular way.

Effect of executor's assent to specific legacy.

This assent may be verbal, and it may be either express or implied from the conduct of the executor.

Nature of assent.

Illustrations.

(a.) A horse is bequeathed. The executor requests the legatee to dispose of it, or a third party proposes to purchase the horse from the executor, and he directs him to apply to the legatee. Assent to the legacy is implied.

* Compare Act X. of 1865, Pt. XXXV.

(b.) The interest of a fund is directed by the will to be applied for the maintenance of the legatee during his minority. The executor commences so to apply it. This is an assent to the whole of the bequest.

(c.) A bequest is made of a fund to A, and after him to B. The executor pays the interest of the fund to A. This is an implied assent to the bequest to B.

(d.) Executors die after paying all the debts of the testator, but before satisfaction of specific legacies. Assent to the legacies may be presumed.

(e.) A person to whom a specific article has been bequeathed takes possession of it and retains it without any objection on the part of the executor. His assent may be presumed.

Conditional assent.

114. The assent of an executor to a legacy may be conditional, and if the condition be one which he has a right to enforce, and it is not performed, there is no assent.

Illustrations.

(a.) A bequeaths to B his lands of Sultánpur, which at the date of the will, and at the death of A, were subject to a mortgage for 10,000 rupees. The executor assents to the bequest on condition that B shall within a limited time pay the amount due on the mortgage at the testator's death. The amount is not paid. There is no assent.

(b.) The executor assents to a bequest on condition that the legatee shall pay him a sum of money. The payment is not made. The assent is nevertheless valid.

Assent of executor to his own legacy.

115. When the executor is a legatee, his assent to his own legacy is necessary to complete his title to it, in the same way as it is required when the bequest is to another person, and his assent may in like manner be express or implied.

Implied assent.

Assent shall be implied if in his manner of administering the property he does any act which is referable to his character of legatee, and is not referable to his character of executor.

Illustration.

An executor takes the rent of a house or the interest of Government securities bequeathed to him, and applies it to his own use. This is assent.

Effect of executor's assent.

116. The assent of the executor to a legacy gives effect to it from the death of the testator.

Illustrations.

(a.) A legatee sells his legacy before it is assented to by the executor. The executor's subsequent assent operates for the benefit of the purchaser, and completes his title to the legacy.

(b.) A bequeaths 1,000 rupees to B with interest from his death. The executor does not assent to this legacy until the expiration of a year from A's death. B is entitled to interest from the death of A.

Executor when to deliver legacies.

117. An executor is not bound to pay or deliver any legacy until the expiration of one year from the testator's death.

Illustration.

A by his will directs his legacies to be paid within six months after his death. The executor is not bound to pay them before the expiration of a year.

CHAPTER IX.

OF THE PAYMENT AND APPORTIONMENT OF ANNUITIES.*

118. Where an annuity is given by the will, and no time is fixed for its commencement, it shall commence from the testator's death, and the first payment shall be made at the expiration of a year next after that event.

Commencement of annuity when no time fixed by will.

119. Where there is a direction that the annuity shall be paid quarterly or monthly, the first payment shall be due at the end of the first quarter or first month, as the case may be, after the testator's death, and shall, if the executor think fit, be paid when due; but the executor shall not be bound to pay it till the end of the year.

When annuity, to be paid quarterly or monthly, first falls due.

120. Where there is a direction that the first payment of an annuity shall be made within one month or any other division of time from the death of the testator, or on a day certain, the successive payments are to be made on the anniversary of the earliest day on which the will authorizes the first payment to be made;

Date of successive payments when first payment directed to be made within given time or on day certain.

and if the annuitant dies in the interval between the times of payment, an apportioned share of the annuity shall be paid to his representative.

Apportionment where annuitant dies between times of payment.

CHAPTER X.

OF THE INVESTMENT OF FUNDS TO PROVIDE FOR LEGACIES.†

121. Where a legacy, not being a specific legacy, is given for life, the sum bequeathed shall, at the end of the year, be invested in such securities as the High Court may by any general rule to be made from time to time, authorize or direct, and the proceeds thereof shall be paid to the legatee as the same shall accrue due.

Investment of sum bequeathed where legacy, not specific, given for life.

122. Where a general legacy is given to be paid at a future time, the executor shall invest a sum sufficient to meet it in securities of the kind mentioned in the last preceding section.

Investment of general legacy to be paid at future time.

The intermediate interest shall form part of the residue of the testator's estate.

Intermediate interest.

123. Where an annuity is given, and no fund is charged with its payment or appropriated by the will to answer it, a Government annuity of the specified amount shall be purchased; or Procedure when no fund charged with, or appropriated to, annuity.

If no such annuity can be obtained, then a sum sufficient to produce the annuity shall be invested for that purpose in such securities as the High Court may, by any general rule to be made from time to time, authorize or direct.

† Compare Act X. of 1865, Pt. XXXVII., as amended by Act VI. of 1881.

Act V. of 1881.

Transfer to residuary legatee of contingent bequest.

124. Where a bequest is contingent, the executor is not bound to invest the amount of the legacy, but may transfer the whole residue of the estate to the residuary legatee (if any) on his giving sufficient security for the payment of the legacy if it shall become due.

Investment of residue bequeathed for life, with direction to invest in specified securities.

125. Where the testator has bequeathed the residue of his estate to a person for life, with a direction that it shall be invested in certain specified securities, so much of the estate as is not at the time of his death invested in securities of the specified kind shall be converted into money, and invested in such securities.

Time and manner of conversion and investment.

126. Such conversion and investment as are contemplated by the last preceding section shall be made at such times and in such manner as the executor in his discretion thinks fit;

Interest payable until investment.

and, until such conversion and investment shall be completed, the person who would be for the time being entitled to the income of the fund when so invested shall receive interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum upon the market-value (to be computed as of the date of the testator's death) of such part of the fund as shall not yet have been so invested.

Procedure where minor entitled to immediate payment or possession of bequest, and no direction to pay to person on his behalf.

127. Where by the terms of a bequest, the legatee is entitled to the immediate payment or possession of the money or thing bequeathed, but is a minor, and there is no direction in the will to pay it to any person on his behalf, the executor or administrator shall pay or deliver the same into the Court of the District Judge by whom or by whose District Delegate the probate was, or letters of administration with the will annexed were, granted, to the account of the legatee, unless the legatee be a ward of the Court of Wards; and if the legatee be a ward of the Court of Wards the legacy shall be paid into that Court to his account; and such payment into the Court of the District Judge, or into the Court of Wards, as the case may be, shall be a sufficient discharge for the money so paid; and such money, when paid in, shall be invested in the purchase of Government securities, which, with the interest thereon, shall be transferred or paid to the person entitled thereto or otherwise applied for his benefit, as the Judge or the Court of Wards, as the case may be, may direct.

CHAPTER XI.

OF THE PRODUCE AND INTEREST OF LEGACIES.*

Legatee's title to produce of specific legacy.

128. The legatee of a specific legacy is entitled to the clear produce thereof, if any, from the testator's death.

* Compare Act X. of 1865, Pt. XXXVIII.

Exception.—A specific bequest, contingent in its terms, does not comprise the produce of the legacy between the death of the testator and the vesting of the legacy.

The clear produce of it forms part of the residue of the testator's estate.

Illustrations.

(a.) A bequeaths his flock of sheep to B. Between the death of A and delivery by his executor the sheep are shorn, or some of the ewes produce lambs. The wool and lambs are the property of B.

(b.) A bequeaths his Government securities to B, but postpones the delivery of them till the death of C. The interest which falls due between the death of A and the death of C belongs to B, and must, unless he is a minor, be paid to him as it is received.

(c.) The testator bequeaths all his four per cent. Government promissory notes to A, when he shall complete the age of 18. A, if he complete that age, is entitled to receive the notes, but the interest which accrues in respect of them, between the testator's death and A's completing 18, forms part of the residue.

Residuary legatee's title to produce of residuary fund.

129. The legatee under a general residuary bequest is entitled to the produce of the residuary fund from the testator's death.

Exception.—A general residuary bequest contingent in its terms does not comprise the income which may accrue upon the fund bequeathed between the death of the testator and the vesting of the legacy.

Such income goes as undisposed of.

Illustrations.

(a.) The testator bequeaths the residue of his property to a minor, to be paid to him when he shall complete the age of 18. The income from the testator's death belongs to A.

(b.) The testator bequeaths the residue of his property to A, when he shall complete the age of 18. A, if he complete that age, is entitled to receive the residue. The income which has accrued in respect of it since the testator's death goes as undisposed of.

Interest when no time fixed for payment of general legacy.

130. Where no time has been fixed for the payment of a general legacy, interest begins to run from the expiration of one year from the testator's death.

Exceptions.—(1.) Where the legacy is bequeathed in satisfaction of a debt, interest runs from the death of the testator.

(2.) Where the testator was a parent or a more remote ancestor of the legatee, or has put himself in the place of a parent of the legatee, the legacy shall bear interest from the death of the testator.

(3.) Where a sum is bequeathed to a minor with a direction to pay for his maintenance out of it, interest is payable from the death of the testator.

Interest when time fixed.

131. Where a time has been fixed for the payment of a general legacy, interest begins to run from the time so fixed.

The interest up to such time forms part of the residue of the testator's estate.

Act V. of 1881.

Exception.—Where the testator was a parent or a more remote ancestor of the legatee, or has put himself in the place of a parent of the legatee, and the legatee is a minor, the legacy shall bear interest from the death of the testator, unless a specific sum is given by the will for maintenance, or unless the will contains a direction to the contrary.

Rate of interest.

132. The rate of interest shall be six per cent. per annum.

No interest on arrears of annuity within first year after testator's death.

133. No interest is payable on the arrears of an annuity within the first year from the death of the testator, although a period earlier than the expiration of that year may have been fixed by the will for making the first payment of the annuity.

Interest on sum to be invested to produce annuity.

134. Where a sum of money is directed to be invested to produce an annuity, interest is payable on it from the death of the testator.

CHAPTER XII.

OF THE REFUNDING OF LEGACIES.*

Refund of legacy paid under Judge's orders.

135. An executor who has paid a legacy under the order of a Judge is entitled to call upon the legatee to refund in the event of the assets proving insufficient to pay all the legacies.

No refund if paid voluntarily.

136. When an executor has voluntarily paid a legacy, he cannot call upon a legatee to refund in the event of the assets proving insufficient to pay all the legacies.

Refund when legacy becomes due on performance of condition within further time allowed.

137. When the time prescribed by the will for the performance of a condition has elapsed, without the condition having been performed, and the executor has thereupon, without fraud, distributed the assets, in such case, if further time has, under the second clause of this section, been allowed for the performance of the condition, and the condition has been performed accordingly, the legacy cannot be claimed from the executor, but those to whom he has paid it are liable to refund the amount.

Where the will requires an act to be performed by the legatee within a specified time, either as a condition to be fulfilled before the legacy is enjoyed, or as a condition upon the non-fulfilment of which the subject-matter of the bequest is to go over to another person, or the bequest is to cease to have effect, the act must be performed within the time specified, unless the performance of it be prevented by fraud, in which case such further time shall be allowed as is requisite to make up for the delay caused by such fraud.

When each legatee compellable to refund in proportion.

138. When the executor has paid away the assets in legacies, and he is afterwards obliged to discharge a debt of which he had no previous notice, he is entitled to call upon each legatee, to refund in proportion.

* Compare Act X. of 1865, Pt. XXXIX.

Distribution of assets.

139.* Where an executor or administrator has given such notices as the High Court may, by any general rule to be made from time to time, prescribe for creditors and others to send in to him their claims against the estate of the deceased, he shall, at the expiration of the time therein named for sending in claims, be at liberty to distribute the assets, or any part thereof, in discharge of such lawful claims as he knows of, and shall not be liable for the assets so distributed to any person of whose claim he has not had notice at the time of such distribution;

but nothing herein contained shall prejudice the right of any creditor or claimant to follow the assets, or any part thereof, in the hands of the persons who may have received the same respectively.

Creditor may follow assets.

Creditor may call upon legatee to refund.

140.* A creditor who has not received payment of his debt may call upon a legatee who has received payment of his legacy to refund, whether the assets of the testator's estate were or were not sufficient at the time of his death to pay both debts and legacies, and whether the payment of the legacy by the executor was voluntary or not.

When legatee, not satisfied or compelled to refund under section 140, cannot oblige one paid in full to refund.

141. If the assets were sufficient to satisfy all the legacies at the time of the testator's death, a legatee who has not received payment of his legacy, or who has been compelled to refund under the last preceding section, cannot oblige one who has received payment in full to refund, whether the legacy were paid to him with or without suit, although the assets have subsequently become deficient by the wasting of the executor.

When unsatisfied legatee must first proceed against executor, if solvent.

142. If the assets were not sufficient to satisfy all the legacies at the time of the testator's death, a legatee who has not received payment of his legacy must, before he can call on a satisfied legatee to refund, first proceed against the executor if he is solvent; but, if the executor is insolvent or not liable to pay, the unsatisfied legatee can oblige each satisfied legatee to refund in proportion.

Limit to refunding of one legatee to another.

143. The refunding of one legatee to another shall not exceed the sum by which the satisfied legacy ought to have been reduced if the estate had been properly administered.

Illustration.

A has bequeathed 240 rupees to B, 480 rupees to C, and 720 rupees to D. The assets are only 1,200 rupees, and, if properly administered, would give 200 rupees to B, 400 rupees to C, and 600 rupees to D. C and D have been paid their legacies in full, leaving nothing to B. B can oblige C to refund 80 rupees, and D to refund 120 rupees.

Refunding to be without interest.

144. The refunding shall in all cases be without interest.

Residue after usual payments to be paid to residuary legatee.

145. The surplus or residue of the deceased's property, after payment of debts and legacies, shall be paid to the residuary legatee when any has been appointed by the will.

---

* For limitation of suits under ss. 139 and 140, see Act XV. of 1877, Sch. II., No. 43, Vol. II., p. 203.

Act V. of 1881.

Transfer of assets from British India to executor or administrator in country of domicile for distribution.

145A.* Where a person not having his domicile in British India has died, leaving assets both in British India and in the country in which he had his domicile at the time of his death, and there have been a grant of probate or letters of administration in British India with respect to the assets there and a grant of administration in the country of domicile with respect to the assets in that country, the executor or administrator, as the case may be, in British India, after having given such notices as are mentioned in section 139, and after having discharged, at the expiration of the time therein named, such lawful claims as he knows of, may, instead of himself distributing any surplus or residue of the deceased's property to persons residing out of British India, who are entitled thereto, transfer, with the consent of the executor or administrator, as the case may be, in the country of domicile, the surplus or residue to him for distribution to those persons.

CHAPTER XIII.

OF THE LIABILITY OF AN EXECUTOR OR ADMINISTRATOR FOR DEVASTATION.†

Liability of executor or administrator for devastation.

146. When an executor or administrator misapplies the estate of the deceased or subjects it to loss or damage, he is liable to make good the loss or damage so occasioned.

Illustrations.

(a.) The executor pays out of the estate an unfounded claim. He is liable to make good the loss caused by the payment.

(b.) The deceased had a valuable lease renewable by notice, which the executor neglects to give at the proper time. The executor is liable to make good the loss caused by the neglect.

(c.) The deceased had a lease of less value than the rent payable for it, but terminable on notice at a particular time. The executor neglects to give the notice. He is liable to make good the loss.

For neglect to get in any part of property.

147. When an executor or administrator occasions a loss to the estate by neglecting to get in any part of the property of the deceased, he is liable to make good the amount.

Illustrations.

(a.) The executor absolutely releases a debt due to the deceased from a solvent person, or compounds with a debtor who is able to pay in full. The executor is liable to make good the amount so lost.

(b.) The executor neglects to sue for a debt till the debtor is able to plead the Act for the limitation of suits,‡ and the debt is thereby lost to the estate. The executor is liable to make good the amount of the debt.

CHAPTER XIV.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Provisions applied to administrator with will annexed.

148. In Chapters VIII., IX., X., and XII. of this Act the provisions as to an executor shall apply also to an administrator with the will annexed.

149. Nothing herein contained shall— Act V. of 1881.

(a) validate any testamentary disposition which would otherwise have been invalid;

(b) invalidate any such disposition which would otherwise have been valid;

(c) deprive any person of any right of maintenance to which he would otherwise have been entitled; or (d) affect the rights, duties, and privileges of the Administrator-General of Bengal, Madras, or Bombay.*

Probate and administration in case of persons exempted from Succession Act, to be granted only under this Act.

150. No proceedings to obtain probate of a will, or letters of administration to the estate, of any Hindu, Muhammadan, Buddhist, or person exempted under section 332 of the Indian Succession Act, 1865, shall be instituted in any Court in British India except under this Act.

151. [Repealed by Act VII. of 1889, s. 2 and sch.]

Grant of probate or administration to supersede certificate under Act XXVII. of 1860, or Bombay Regulation VIII. of 1827.

152. The grant of probate or letters of administration under this Act in respect of any property shall be deemed to supersede any certificate previously granted in respect of the same property under† Act No. XXVII. of 1860, or Bombay Regulation No. VIII. of 1827; and when, at the time of the grant of such probate or letters, any suit or other proceeding instituted by the holder of such certificate regarding such property is pending, the person to whom such grant is made shall, on applying to the Court in which such suit or proceeding is pending, be entitled to take the place of such holder in such suit or proceeding:

Provided that, when any certificate is superseded under this section, all payments made to the holder of such certificate in ignorance of such supersession shall be held good against claims under the probate or letters of administration.

153. [Repealed by Act VII. of 1889, s. 2 and sch.]

Amendment of Hindu Wills Act.

154. The following amendments shall be made in the Hindu Wills Act, 1870 (namely):—

(a.) For the portion of section 2 commencing with the words "sections 179" and ending with the words "administrator with the will annexed," the words "and section 187" shall be substituted.

(b.) The third clause of section 3 and the last clause of section 6 shall be repealed.

(c.) In section 6, for the words "103 and 182" the words "and 103" shall be substituted.

Validation of grants of probate and administration made in British Burma.

155. All grants of probate of the will or letters of administration to the estate of any deceased Hindu, Muhammadan, or Buddhist, or any person exempted under section 332 of the Indian Succession Act, 1865, which, before this Act comes into force, have been made in British Burma, shall, whenever such grant would have been lawful if this Act had been in force, be deemed to have been made in accordance with law.

Amendment of Act XV. of 1877.

156. In the second schedule to the Indian Limitation Act, 1877, No. 43, after the figures "321," the following shall be inserted, namely—"or under the Probate and Administration Act, 1881, section 139 or 140."

Surrender of revoked probate or letters of administration.

157.* (1) When a grant of probate or letters of administration is revoked or annulled under this Act, the person to whom the grant was made shall forthwith deliver up the probate or letters to the Court which made the grant.

(2) If such person wilfully and without sufficient cause omits so to deliver up the probate or letters, he shall be punished with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with imprisonment which may extend to three months, or with both.

ACT VI. OF 1881.

THE DISTRICT DELEGATES ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 21ST JANUARY 1881.

An Act to make further provision for the grant of Probate and Letters of Administration in non-contentious cases.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make further provision for the grant of probate and letters of administration in non-contentious cases; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The District Delegates Act, 1881:"

Extent.

It extends to the whole of British India;†

Commencement.

and it shall come into force on the first day of April, 1881.

Addition of section after section 235 of Succession Act.

2. After section 235 of the Indian Succession Act, 1865, the following section shall be added:—

Power to appoint Delegate of District Judge to deal with non-contentious cases.

"235A, The High Court may, from time to time, appoint such judicial officers within any district as it thinks fit, to act for the District Judge as Delegates to grant probate and letters of administration in non-contentious cases, within such local limits as it may from time to time prescribe:

"Provided that, in the case of High Courts not established by Royal Charter, such appointment be made with the previous sanction of the Local Government.

"Persons so appointed shall be called District Delegates."

---

* S. 157 has been added by Act VI. of 1889, s. 17.

† Act VI. of 1881 has been declared, under the Scheduled Districts Act (XIV. of 1874), to be in force in the following scheduled Districts in the Chutia Nagpur Division: The Districts of Hazáribágh, Lohárdaga, and Mánbhum, and Pargana Dhálbhum, and the Kolhán, in the District of Singbhum.—See Gazette of India, Oct. 22, 1881, Pt. I., p. 504.

Addition of section after section 241 of same Act.

3. After section 241 of the said Act, the following section shall be added :—

"241A. Probate and letters of administration may, upon application for that purpose to any District Delegate, be granted by him in any case in which there is no contention, if it appears by petition (verified as hereinafter mentioned) that the testator or intestate, as the case may be, at the time of his death resided within the jurisdiction of such Delegate."

Probate and letters of administration may be granted by Delegate.

Addition to sections 244 and 246 of same Act.

4. To sections 244 and 246 of the said Act, respectively, the following words shall be added :—

"and when the application is to a District Delegate, the petition shall further state that the deceased at the time of his death resided within the jurisdiction of such Delegate."

Substitution of section for section 251 of same Act.

5. For section 251 of the said Act, the following section shall be substituted :—

"251. Caveats against the grant of probate or administration may be lodged with the District Judge or a District Delegate; and immediately on any caveat being lodged with any District Delegate, he shall send a copy thereof to the District Judge, and immediately on a caveat being entered with the District Judge; a copy thereof shall be given to the District Delegate, if any, within whose jurisdiction it is alleged the deceased resided at the time of his death, and to any other Judge or District Delegate to whom it may appear to the District Judge expedient to transmit the same."

Caveats against grant of probate or ndministration.

6. In section 253 of the said Act, after the word "Judge" the words "or officer," and after the word "made" the words "or notice has been given of its entry with some other Delegate," shall be inserted.

Amendment of section 253 of same Act.

Addition of sections after section 253 of same Act.

7. After section 253 of the said Act, the following sections shall be added :—

"253A. A District Delegate shall not grant probate or letters of administration in any case in which there is contention as to the grant, or in which it otherwise appears to him that probate or letters of administration ought not to be granted in his Court.

District Delegate when not to grant probate or administration.

"Explanation.—By 'contention' is understood the appearance of any one in person, or by his recognized agent, or by a pleader duly appointed to act on his behalf, to oppose the proceeding.

"253B. In every case in which there is no contention, but it appears to the District Delegate doubtful whether the probate or letters of administration should or should not be granted, or when any question arises in relation to the grant, or application for the grant, of any probate or letters of administration, the District Delegate may, if he thinks proper, transmit a statement of the matter in question to the District Judge, who may direct the District Delegate to proceed in the matter of the application, according to such instructions as to the Judge may seem necessary, or may forbid any further proceeding by the District Delegate in relation to the matter of such application, leaving the party applying for the grant in question to make application to the Judge.

Power to transmit statement to District Judge in doubtful cases where no contention.

Act VII. of 1881.

"253C. In every case in which there is contention, or the District Delegate is of opinion that the probate or letters of administration should be refused in his Court, the petition, with any documents that may have been filed therewith, shall be returned to the person by whom the application was made, in order that the same may be presented to the District Judge; unless the District Delegate thinks it necessary, for the purposes of justice, to impound the same, which he is hereby authorized to do, and in that case the same shall be sent by him to the District Judge."

Procedure where there is contention, or District Delegate thinks probate or letters of administration should be refused in his Court.

8. In the said Act, sections 254 and 255, respectively, after the words "I, Judge of the District of ," the words "[or Delegate appointed for granting probate or letters of administration in (here insert the limits of the Delegate's jurisdiction)]"; and in section 308, after the words "District Judge, by whom" the words "or by whose District Delegate" shall be inserted.

Amendment of sections 254, 255, and 308 of same Act.

9. In the said Act, sections 246, 250, 255, and 259, after the words "District Judge," and in section 250 and section 254 (when it first occurs), after the word "Judge," the words "or District Delegate" shall be inserted respectively.

Introduction of the words "or District Delegate" in certain sections of same Act.

ACT VII. OF 1881.*

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 21ST JANUARY 1881.

An Act to amend Bengal Act No. IX. of 1880 (the Cess Act, 1880).

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend Bengal Act No. IX. of 1880 (the Cess Act, 1880); It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

1. In the said Act, after section 64, the following sections shall be inserted, and shall be deemed to have been so inserted on and from the date on which such Act came into force.

Amendment of Bengal Act No. IX. of 1880.

"64A. All sums due to the holder of any estate or tenure under the provisions of this chapter, in respect of any land held rent-free, may be recovered by such holder from any owner or holder of such rent-free land, or from any occupier of the same, by any means and any process by which the amount might be recovered if it were due on account of rent of a transferable tenure or holding, and subject to the same rules as to limitation:

Holders of estates, &c., how to recover from holders of rent-free lands.

"Provided that, if any such objection as is mentioned in section 53 has been made before the Collector, no proceedings shall be commenced, and no proceedings which have been commenced shall be continued, for recovery of cess in respect of the lands which are the subject of such objection, until such objection shall have been disposed of by the Collector.

---

* Act VII. of 1881 has, under s. 3 of the Scheduled Districts Act (XIV. of 1874), been declared in force in the Districts of Hazáribágh, Lohárdaga, and Mánbhum, and Pargana Dhálbhum.—See Notification No. 1395, dated Oct. 21, 1881, published in Calcutta Gazette, Nov. 2, 1881, Pt. I. A., p. 192, and Gazette of India, Oct. 22, 1881, Pt. I., p. 507.

"64B. In every suit for the recovery of any such sum, the person to whom the sum is due may proceed at his option either against the owner or holder of the rent-free land in respect of which such amount is due, or against the occupier thereof; and any decree obtained in such suit against any occupier of such land shall have the same effect and be followed by the same consequences in respect of the execution of such decree against the owner or holder of such land, and in respect of the sale of such land in such execution, as if the suit had been brought and the decree given against such owner or holder of such land, but shall have effect against such occupier personally so long only as he remains in occupation of such land and no longer."

Owner, holder, or occupier of rent-free lands may be sued.

Decree against occupier tantamount to decree against owner.

Act IX. of 1881.

ACT IX. OF 1881.*

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 25TH FEBRUARY 1881.

An Act to amend the Administrator-General's Act, 1874.

WHEREAS Hindús, Muhammadans, and Buddhists, are exempted from the operation of certain provisions of the Administrator-General's Act, 1874, but are subject to the operation of certain other provisions of the said Act, and it is expedient that Pársís should be exempted from, and be subject to, the operation of the said Act to the same extent as Hindús, Muhammadans, and Buddhists; and whereas it is expedient to amend the said Act in other particulars hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

Short title.

Commencement.

1. This Act may be called "The Administrator-General's Act, 1881:"
and shall come into force at once.

Amendment of sections 16, 17, 18, and 64 of Act No. II. of 1874.

2. In sections 16, 17, 18, and 64, respectively, of the said Act, between the word "Muhammadan" and the words "or Buddhist," wherever they occur, the word "Pársí" shall be inserted.

New section inserted after section 23 of same.

3. After section 23 of the same Act, the following section shall be inserted.

"23A. Probate or letters of administration granted by the High Court at Calcutta, Madras, or Bombay to the Administrator-General of the Presidency of Bengal, Madras, or Bombay, as the case may be, shall have effect over all the property and estate, moveable or immoveable, of the deceased throughout such Presidency, and shall be conclusive as to the representative title against all debtors of the deceased, and all persons holding property which belongs to him, and shall afford full indemnity to all debtors, paying their debts, and all persons delivering up such property, to such Administrator-General: Provided that the High Court may direct, by its grant, that Effect of probate or letters granted to Administrator-General.

* Act IX. of 1881 has been declared, under the Scheduled Districts Act (XIV. of 1874), to be in force in the following Scheduled Districts in the Chutia Nagpur Division: The Districts of Hazáribágh, Lohárdaga, and Mánbhum, and Pargana Dhálbhum, and the Kolhán in the District of Singbhum.—See Gazette of India, Oct. 22, 1881, Pt. I., p. 504.

Act IX. of 1881. such probate or letters of administration shall have like effect throughout either or both of the other Presidencies.

"Whenever a grant of probate or letters of administration is made by a High Court to the Administrator-General, with such effect as last aforesaid, the Registrar of such Court shall send to each of the other two High Courts a certificate that such grant has been made, and such certificate shall be filed by the Court receiving the same."

New section substituted for section 28 of same.

4. For section 28 of the same Act, the following section shall be substituted :—

Distribution of assets.

"28. When the Administrator-General has given such notices as would have been given by the High Court in an administration-suit, for creditors and others to send in to him their claims against the estate of the deceased, he shall, at the expiration of the time therein named for sending in claims, be at liberty to distribute the assets or any part thereof in discharge of such lawful claims as he knows of, and shall not be liable for the assets so distributed to any person of whose claim he had not notice at the time of such distribution; and no notice of any claim shall affect him unless proceedings to enforce such claim are commenced within one month after the giving of such notice and prosecuted without unreasonable delay.

"Nothing herein contained shall prejudice the right of any creditor or other claimant to follow the assets or any part thereof in the hands of the persons who may have received the same respectively."

5. [Repealed by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. I.]

Amendment of section 38 of same.

6. In section 38 of the same Act, for the words "such certificate" the words "certificate under section 36 or 37," shall be substituted.*

New section inserted after section 55 of same.

7. After section 55 of the same Act, the following section shall be inserted :—

Commission on assets collected beyond Presidency.

"55A. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, an Administrator-General of a Presidency obtaining probate or letters of administration operating in another Presidency shall be entitled to the same rate of commission in respect of the collection and distribution of assets collected in such Presidency as the Administrator-General of such Presidency would have been entitled to if such assets had been collected and distributed by him, and to no higher rate."

New section inserted before section 61 of same.

8. Before section 61 of the same Act, the following section shall be inserted :—

Power to examine on oath.

"60A. The Administrator-General may, whenever he desires, for the purposes of this Act, to satisfy himself regarding any question of facts, examine upon oath or affirmation (which he is hereby authorized to administer or take) any person who in willing to be so examined by him regarding such question."

Saving of letters and certificates already granted.

9. Nothing herein contained shall affect any probate, letters of administration, or certificate granted or vested under the said Act before the passing of this Act.

* In s. 6, certain words, repealed by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. I., have here been omitted.

ACT X. OF 1881.

THE CORONERS ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 25TH FEBRUARY 1881.

An Act to amend the Coroners Act, 1871, and for other purposes.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Coroners Act, 1871, in manner hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:*—

Short title. Commencement.

1. This Act may be called "The Coroners Act, 1881," and shall come into force on the passing thereof.

2—4. [Repealed by Act V. of 1889.]

5. In section 8 of the Coroners Act, 1871, for the words "is informed," the words "has reason to believe" shall be substituted.

Act IV. of 1871, section 8, amended.

Section 17 of same Act amended.

6. For the first two clauses of section 17 of the Coroners Act, 1871, the following shall be substituted, that is to say:—

[See Vol. I., p. 891.]

7. To section 20 of the Coroners Act, 1871, the following clause shall be added, that is to say: "For the purposes of section 26 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, a Coroner shall be deemed to be a Magistrate."†

Addition to section 20 of same Act

ACT XI. OF 1881.

THE MUNICIPAL TAXATION ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 25TH FEBRUARY 1881.

An Act to give power to prohibit the levy of municipal taxes in certain cases.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to empower the Governor-General in Council to prohibit, in certain cases, the levy of municipal taxes payable by persons in the military service or by the Secretary of State of India in Council; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Municipal Taxation Act, 1881."

Local extent. Commencement.

It extends to the whole of Brtish India: and shall come into force at once.

"Municipal Committee" defined.

2. In this Act "Municipal Committee" includes a Municipal Corporation or a body of Municipal Commissioners constituted by or under the provisions of any enactment for the time being in force.

---

* This preamble has been substituted by Act V. of 1889.

† Ss. 8 & 9 (which are omitted) have been repealed by Act X. of 1882.

Act XI, of 1881.

Power to prohibit levy of tax.

3. Notwithstanding anything contained in any enactment for the time being in force, the Governor-General in Council may, by an order in writing, prohibit the levy by a Municipal Committee of any specified tax—

(a) payable by any person subject to the Army Discipline and Regulation Act, 1879, or the Indian Articles of War, who is compelled by the exigencies of military duty to reside within the limits of a municipality; or (b) payable by the Secretary of State for India in Council.

The Governor-General in Council may, by a like order, rescind any such prohibition.

Secretary of State in Council to pay taxes referred to in section 3, clause (a).

4. So long as any order made under section three, prohibiting the levy of a tax on any person mentioned in clause (a) of that section, remains in force, the Secretary of State for India in Council shall be liable to pay to the Municipal Committee mentioned in the order the amount which otherwise would have been payable to such Committee by such person:

Provided that the said Secretary of State in Council shall not be liable to pay any sum in respect of any horse which such person is bound, by the regulations of the service to which he belongs, to keep.

Payments to be made in lieu of taxes referred to in section 3, clause (b).

5. So long as any order made under section three, prohibiting the levy of any tax payable by the Secretary of State for India in Council, remains in force, the said Secretary of State in Council shall be liable to pay to the Municipal Committee, in lieu of such tax, such sums (if any) as an officer from time to time appointed in this behalf by the Local Government may, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, from time to time, determine to be fair and reasonable.

Decision of questions, arising under this Act.

6. If any question arises whether any duty is military duty within the meaning of this Act, the decision of the Governor-General in Council thereon shall be conclusive.

If any question arises whether any person is compelled as aforesaid to reside within the limits of a municipality, or is bound as aforesaid to keep any horse, the decision thereon of such authority as the Governor-General in Council may, from time to time, appoint in this behalf, shall be conclusive.

ACT XII. OF 1881.

Act XII. of 1881.

THE N.-W. P. RENT ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 11TH MARCH 1881.

An Act to amend the law relating to the recovery of Rent in the North-Western Provinces.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to the recovery of Rent in the North-Western Provinces of the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal; it is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The North-Western Provinces Rent Act, 1881:"

Local extent.

It extends in the first instance to the territories for the time being under the Government of the Lieutenant-Governor of the North-Western Provinces, except those specified in the second schedule hereto annexed. But the Local Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, extend the whole or any part of this Act to all or any of the territories so excepted, and when any part of the North-Western Provinces Rent Act, 1873,* has been extended to any such territory; such part shall be repealed therein, and the corresponding part of this Act shall extend thereto.

Save as provided by sections 171 and 172, nothing herein contained applies to land for the time being occupied by dwelling-houses or manufactories or appurtenant thereto, so long as such land is not let to agricultural tenants.

Commencement.

This Act shall come into force on the first day of April 1881.

Act No. XVIII. of 1873 repealed.

2. The North-Western Provinces Rent Act, 1873, is hereby repealed. But such repeal shall not legalize any practice which, immediately before the passing of that Act, was unlawful.

Rules, &c., under repealed Act.

All rules and appointments made, notifications and proclamations issued, authorities and powers conferred, leases granted, rents fixed, rights acquired, liabilities incurred, and places appointed, under that Act, shall, so far as may be, be deemed to have been made, issued, conferred, granted, fixed, acquired, incurred, and appointed hereunder.

Acts amended.

Illustration (a) to the Indian Penal Code, section 19,† shall be read as if, for "Act X. of 1859,"‡ the words and figures, "the North-Western Provinces Rent Act, 1881," were substituted. And in all Acts passed after the said North-Western Provinces Rent Act, 1873, all references to that Act shall be read as if made to this Act.

---

* Act XVIII. of 1873 has been repealed by s. 2 of this Act.

† Here certain words, being repealed, have been omitted.—See Act IX. of 1887, s. 2.

‡ Act X. of 1859 has been repealed in the N.-W. P. by Act XVIII. of 1873.

Act XII. of 1881.

Interpretation-clause.

3. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context—

'Mahál.'

(1.) 'Mahal' means—

(a) any local area held under a separate engagement for the payment of land revenue, and for which a separate record-of-rights has been framed;

(b) any local area of which the revenue has been assigned or redeemed, and for which a separate record-of-rights has been framed:

'Tenant:'

(1A) 'Tenant' includes a thekadar and a katkanadar:—

'Rent;'

(2) 'Rent' means whatever is to be paid, delivered, or rendered by a tenant on account of his holding, use, or occupation of land.

'Landholder:'

(3) 'Landholder' means the person to whom a tenant is liable to pay rent:

'Sir-land;'

(4) 'Sir-land' means—

(a) land recorded as sir at the last settlement or revision of settlement of the district in which it is situate, and continuously so recorded since:

(b) land continuously cultivated for twelve years by the proprietor himself with his own stock, or by his servants, or by hired labour:

(c) land recognized by village-custom as the special holding of a co-sharer, or treated as such in the distribution of profits or charges among the co-sharers:

'Collector of a District:'

(5) 'Collector of a District' means the chief officer in charge of the Revenue Administration of a District:

'Commissioner of a Division:'

(6) 'Commissioner of a Division' means the chief officer in charge of the Revenue Administration of a Division:

'Board:'

(7) 'Board' means the Board of Revenue for the North-Western Provinces:

'Civil Jail:'

(8) 'Civil Jail' means the civil jail of the district, and includes any place appointed by the Local Government for the confinement of prisoners under sentence of any Court constituted under this Act.

CHAPTER II.

RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES OF LANDHOLDERS AND TENANTS.

Intermediate holders of land at rates unchanged since permanent settlement

4. When any permanent and transferable interest in land in a district or a portion of a district which has been permanently settled has been held otherwise than under a terminable lease by any person intermediate between the proprietor of the mahál and the occupants, and by the predecessors in interest of such person, from the time of the permanent settlement, at the same rate of rent, such person shall have a right to hold such interest at that rate.

5. When any land in a district, or portion of a district, which is permanently settled has been held by a tenant and his predecessors in interest from the time of the permanent settlement, at the same rate of rent, such tenant shall have a right of occupancy at that rate.

Tenants at fixed rates.

A tenant having such right is hereinafter called a "tenant at a fixed rate."

6. When, in any suit to which the provisions of section 4 or section 5 apply, it is proved that the land has, for a period of twenty years next before the institution of the suit, been held by the present holder and his predecessors in interest at the same rate of rent, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that it has been held at such rate from the time of the permanent settlement.

Presumption when 20 years' holding at fixed rate is proved.

7. Every person who may hereafter lose, or part with, his proprietary rights in any mahál shall have a right of occupancy in the land held by him as sír in such mahál at the date of such loss or parting, at a rent which shall be four annas in the rupee less than the prevailing rate payable by tenants-at-will for land of similar quality and with similar advantages.

Ex-proprietary tenants.

Persons having such rights of occupancy shall be called "ex-proprietary tenants," and shall have all the rights of occupancy-tenants.

If there are two or more sharers in any sír-land, and one of them becomes an ex-proprietary tenant, the share which previously belonged to such ex-proprietary tenant shall, on his application, or on the application of the person entitled to receive the rent, be divided off by the Collector, and the rights of the ex-proprietary tenant shall be limited to the land comprised in such share.

8. Every tenant who has actually occupied or cultivated land continuously for twelve years has a right of occupancy in the land so occupied or cultivated by him.

Occupancy-tenants.

Such tenants shall be called "occupancy-tenants."

The occupation or cultivating of the father or other person from whom the tenant inherits shall be deemed to be the occupation or cultivating of the tenant within the meaning of this section:

Tenants barred from right of occupancy.

Provided that no tenant shall acquire, under this section, a right of occupancy—

(a) in land which he holds from an occupancy-tenant, or from an ex-proprietary tenant, or from a tenant at fixed rates;

(b) in sír-land;

(c) in land held by him in lieu of wages:

Time excluded from reckoning period necessary for acquiring right of occupancy.

Provided also that, when a tenant actually occupies or cultivates land under a written lease, without having a right of occupancy in such land, the period of twelve years necessary for acquiring a right of occupancy therein by him, or any one claiming under him, shall begin on the expiration of the term of such lease. If during the currency of such lease he ceases to occupy the land comprised therein, and sub-lets it to another, no right of occupancy in such land shall be acquired by the sub-lessee during the currency of the lease.

Act XII. of 1881.

Rights under sections 7 and 8 when transferable.

9. The right of tenants at fixed rates may devolve by succession, or be transferred.

No other right of occupancy shall be transferable in execution of a decree or otherwise than by voluntary transfer between persons in favour of whom as co-sharers such right originally arose, or who have become by succession co-sharers therein.

When any person entitled to such last-mentioned right dies, the right shall devolve as if it were land: Provided that no collateral relative of the deceased who did not then share in the cultivation of his holding shall be entitled to inherit under this clause.

Determination of class of tenure of tenant.

10. On the application of any tenant to have his class of tenure determined, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector shall determine the class to which he belongs, namely—whether he is a tenant at fixed rates, or an ex-proprietary tenant,

or an occupancy-tenant, or whether he is a tenant without a right of occupancy.

Bar to enhancement of rent of tenants at fixed rates.

11. The rent paid by tenants at fixed rates shall not be liable to enhancement, except as provided by section 18.

Enhancement in case of ex-proprietary and occupancy-tenants.

12. The rent paid by ex-proprietary or occupancy-tenants shall not be liable to enhancement, except—

(a) by a written agreement registered under the Indian Registration Act, 1871,* or the Indian Registration Act, 1877, or recorded before the kánúngo: or

(b) by order of a Settlement-officer passed under the law for the time being in force: or

(c) by order under this Act.

Grounds of enhancing rent of occupancy-tenants which has not been fixed by order.

13. (a) Where the rent of any occupancy-tenant has not been fixed by order of a Settlement-officer under the North-Western Provinces Land-revenue Act, 1873, or by an order under this Act;

(b) or where the rent has been fixed by any such order, but the term for which it has been fixed has expired,

(c) or where ten years from the date on which an order fixing the rent has taken effect have expired,

(d) or where, by order of the Local Government, the assessment of the district has been revised before confirmation,

(e) or where the period of settlement of the district has come to an end, the landholder may apply to enhance the rent of such tenant on one of the following grounds, and on no others:—

(f) that the rate of the rent paid by such tenant is below the prevailing rate payable by the same class of tenants for land of similar quality with similar advantages;

* The Indian Registration Act (VIII.) of 1871 has been repealed by Act III. of 1877.

(g) that the value of the produce has, or the productive powers of the land have, been increased otherwise than by the agency, or at the expense, of the tenant; Act XII. of 1881.

(h) that the quantity of land held by the tenant has been proved by measurement to be greater than the quantity for which rent has been previously paid by him.

Enhancement of rent of ex-proprietary tenants which has not been fixed by order.

14. (a) Where the rent of any ex-proprietary tenant has not been fixed by order of a Settlement-officer under the North-Western Provinces Land-revenue Act, 1873, or by an order under this Act, or where the rent has been fixed by such order, but the term for which it has been fixed has expired, or where any of the events mentioned in section 13, clauses (c), (d), and (e), has occurred, the landholder may apply to enhance or determine the rent of such tenant as if he were an occupancy-tenant: Provided that his rent shall be four annas in the rupee below the prevailing rate for land of a similar quality with similar advantages held by tenants-at-will.

Selection of land for comparison.

(b) Whenever the district or tahsíl or other local area in which such land is situated has been divided by the Settlement-officer into circles of like capacity and soil, the land of similar quality, with similar advantages, shall, for the purposes of this section and section 13, be selected from the same circle.

(c) When the Settlement-officer has not so divided the district or other local area as aforesaid, the land regarding which the application has been made shall be compared with land of similar quality and similar advantages, in the same tahsíl or in a tahsíl immediately adjacent.

Abatement in like cases.

15. Where the rent of any ex-proprietary tenant or occupancy-tenant has not been fixed by order of a Settlement-officer under the North-Western Provinces Land-revenue Act, 1873, or by an order under this Act, or where the rent has been fixed by such order, but the term for which it has been fixed has expired, or where any of the events mentioned in section 13, clauses (c), (d), and (e), has occurred, the tenant may apply for an abatement of his rent on one of the following grounds, and on no others:—

(a) that the area of the land held by him has been diminished by diluvion or otherwise:

(b) that the value of the produce has, or the productive powers of such land have, been decreased by any cause beyond his power.

Time of enhancement or abatement where rent of ex-proprietary or occupancy-tenant has been fixed by order under this Act.

16. Where the rent of any ex-proprietary or occupancy-tenant has been fixed by an order under this Act, such rent shall not be liable to be enhanced or abated until the occurrence of any of the events mentioned in section 13, clauses (c), (d), and (e), whichever first occurs.

Act XII. of 1881.

Grounds of enhancement and abatement where his rent has been fixed by order of a Settlement-officer or under this Act.

17. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 16, where the rent of any ex-proprietary or occupancy-tenant has been fixed by order of a Settlement-officer under the North-Western Provinces Land-revenue Act, 1873, or by an order under this Act, the landholder may apply to enhance the rent of such tenant during the currency of the term for which the rent has been so fixed, on one of the following grounds, and on no others :—

(a) that the area of the tenant's holding has been increased by alluvion or otherwise :

(b) that the productive powers of the land held by the tenant have, since the date of the order, been increased otherwise than by the agency, or at the expense, of the tenant :

And the tenant may apply for abatement of his rent on one of the following grounds, and on no others :—

(c) that the area of the land held by him has been diminished by diluvion or otherwise ;

(d) that the productive powers of such land have been decreased by any cause beyond his control.

Grounds of enhancement or abatement of rent of tenant at fixed rates.

18. In the case of a tenant at fixed rates, the landholder may apply to enhance his rent on the ground that the area of the land in his holding has been increased by alluvion, or otherwise ; and the tenant may apply for abatement of his rent on the ground that the area of the land in his holding has been diminished by diluvion or otherwise.

Day before which applications for enhancement or abatement must be made.

19. Applications for enhancement or abatement of rent must be made on or before the thirty-first day of August next before the year commencing on the first day of July from which the rent is to be enhanced or abated ;

Orders when to take effect.

and every order for enhancement or abatement shall take effect from the first day of July next following the date of such order, unless for some reason, to be stated in writing, the Court thinks fit to order otherwise.

Consideration of caste and class of tenant in determining rate of his rent.

20. In determining, under this chapter, the rate of rent payable by any tenant, his caste shall not be taken into consideration, unless it is proved that, by local custom caste is taken into account in determining such rate ; and whenever it is found that, by local custom or practice, any class of persons, by reason of their having formerly been proprietors of the soil or otherwise, hold land at favourable rates of rent, the rate shall be determined in accordance with such custom or practice.

Tenants-at-will.

21. No tenant-at-will of land shall be liable to pay rent in excess of the rent (if any) payable by him in the previous year ending on the thirtieth day of June, unless the landholder and tenant have agreed as to the rent to be paid to the former by the latter, and such agreement has been recorded by the kánúngo of the pargana in which such land is situate.

Rent of ex-proprietary or occupancy-tenant fixed by agreement.

22. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, when the rent of any ex-proprietary or occupancy-tenant has been fixed by agreement between the parties, such rent shall not be liable to enhancement or abatement for such term as may be agreed on.

Applications to survey land.

22A. When any land is held of a landholder by a tenant, such landholder or tenant may, in the absence of a written contract to the contrary, apply to the Collector of the District to have such land surveyed. The Collector, on receiving such application, may estimate the cost of such survey, and, by order in writing, require the applicant to deposit the amount of such estimate.

If the applicant deposits such amount within fifteen days from the date of the order, the Collector of the District shall issue a notice to the other party or parties to the tenancy to show cause, at a time and place specified in such notice, why the survey should not be made; and, if no such cause is so shown, may, by an order in writing, direct the survey to be made by such person, and at such time, as he thinks fit.

A copy of such order shall be served on all the parties to the tenancy; and, if any party fails to attend at the appointed time, it shall not thereafter be open to him to question the correctness of the survey made in his absence.

If any party, on being called upon to show cause as aforesaid, makes any objection to the survey, and such objection is overruled, he shall be liable to pay the costs (if any) occasioned by such objection.

Nothing in this section shall affect any power conferred by law to compel the attendance of any person at a survey.

Power to remit or suspend payment of rent when payment of revenue remitted or suspended.

23. Whenever, for any cause, the Local Government remits or suspends for any period the payment of the whole or any part of the revenue payable in respect of any land, any officer empowered by the Local Government in this behalf may, subject to such rules as to appeal, confirmation, or otherwise, as may, from time to time, be prescribed by the Board, order that the rent of such land shall be remitted or suspended for the period of such suspension or payment of revenue, as the case may be, to an amount which shall be equal to double the amount of the revenue of which the payment has been so remitted or suspended, or shall bear the same proportion to the whole of the rent payable in respect of the land as the revenue of which the payment has been so remitted or suspended bears to the whole of the revenue payable in respect of such land; and, subject to the same rules, the landholder shall be bound by such order.

(A.)—Leases.

Contents of lease to which every tenant is entitled.

24. Every tenant is entitled to receive from the landholder, and may, at any time during the continuance of his holding, apply for a lease containing the following particulars:—

(a) the quantity of land held by him, and, where the fields have been numbered in a Government survey, the number of each field:

(b) the amount of annual rent payable for such land:

(c) the instalments in which, and the dates on which, such rent is to be paid:

Act XII. of 1881.

(d) any special conditions of the lease:

(e) if the rent is payable in kind, or is calculated on a valuation of the produce, the proportion of produce to be delivered, the mode of valuation, and the time, manner, and place of delivery.

Leases to which tenants at fixed rates are entitled.

25. Tenants at fixed rates are entitled to receive leases at such rates.

Leases to which ex-proprietary and occupancy-tenants are entitled.

26. Ex-proprietary and occupancy-tenants are entitled to receive leases at the rates determined in accordance with the law for the time being in force, or, where no rates have been so determined, at the rates actually paid by them when they demand such leases.

Leases to which other tenants are entitled.

27. All other tenants are entitled to leases only on such terms as may be agreed upon between them and the landholders.

Landholder granting lease entitled to reciprocal engagement.

28. Every landholder who grants a lease is entitled to receive a reciprocal engagement from the tenant, executed by the tenant, and conformable with the terms of the lease.

The tender to any tenant of a lease, such as he is entitled to receive, shall entitle the landholder to receive a reciprocal engagement from such tenant.

Lease for period exceeding term of landholder's engagement.

29. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 22, when any lease is granted, or any agreement is entered into, by any landholder under engagement with Government for his land, fixing the rent of land for any period exceeding the term of such engagement, and such term expires, such lease or agreement shall,

(a) when, on the expiration of such term, the revenue payable in respect of such land is enhanced—be voidable at the option of the landlord, unless the tenant agrees to pay such rent as a Settlement-officer or other person duly empowered in this behalf may, on the application of the landlord, determine to be fair and reasonable; and

(b) when such land-revenue is, on the expiration of such term, reduced—be voidable at the option of the tenant, unless the landlord agrees to accept such rent as a Settlement-officer or other person duly empowered in this behalf may, on the application of the tenant, determine to be fair and reasonable.

Resumption of rent-free grants.

30. (a) And whereas all grants (whether in writing or otherwise) for holding land exempt from the payment of rent which have been made since the first day of December 1790, by any authority other than that of the Governor-General in Council, were declared by Bengal Regulation XIX. of 1793, section 10, to be null and void, and like provisions have been, by divers Regulations, applied to the several parts of the territories to which this Act extends, and the said Regulation XIX. of 1793 also provided that no length of possession should be considered to give validity to any such grant, either with regard to the property in the soil or the rents of it, it is hereby further enacted as follows:—

Applications to resume.

(b) Applications by the proprietor to resume such grants, or to assess rent on the land, shall be made to the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector, and, subject to rules to be made by the Local Government, shall be dealt with as other applications under this Act.

(c) Grants of land held under a written instrument, by which the grantor expressly agrees that the grant shall not be resumed, shall be held valid as against him (but not as against the representatives after his death) during his continuance of the settlement of the district in which the land is situate, which is current at the date of the grant.

Validity of grants which grantor has expressly agreed not to resume.

(d) Where any land, having been, for fifty years next before the twenty-second day of December 1873, held rent-free, and by at least two successors to the original grantee, was so held on that day, such holding shall be deemed to have conferred on the holder a proprietary right.

When rent-free tenure confers proprietary right.

(e) Nothing in the Indian Limitation Act, 1877, shall bar the right to make an application under this Act to assess to rent land held rent-free.

(f) Nothing in this section shall apply to either of the following cases:—

(1) Where land was, previously to the passing of the North-Western Provinces Rent Act, 1873,* held rent-free under a judicial decision:

(2) Where, previously to the passing of that Act, land held rent-free had been purchased for a valuable consideration, and resumption thereof had been barred under Act No. X. of 1859,† section 28, or under the Indian Limitation Act, 1871,‡ Schedule II., No. 130.

(B.)—Relinquishment and Ejectment.

31. Every tenant not holding under a lease shall continue liable for the rent of the land in his holding for the ensuing year, unless, on or before the first day of May in any year, he gives notice in writing to the landholder, or his recognized agent, of his desire to relinquish such land on the thirtieth day of June next ensuing, and relinquishes it accordingly, or unless it is let to any other person by such landholder or agent:

Relinquishment of land by tenant not holding under a lease.

Provided that, whenever an order for the enhancement of the rent of any land held by any such tenant is passed, and the tenant, within fifteen days of the date of such order, gives to the landholder or his recognized agent notice in writing of his desire to relinquish such land at the commencement of the period in respect of which such enhancement takes effect, and relinquishes such land accordingly, he shall not be liable for the rent payable for such land in respect of any period subsequent to such relinquishment.

Proviso.

Explanation.—No notice can be given under this section in respect of a portion only of any land held under the same lease or engagement.

32. If the landholder or his agent refuses to receive any notice under section 31, or if he receives it, but refuses to sign and deliver a receipt for the same, the tenant may, before the expiration of the period limited for giving such notice, make an application to the tahsildár, who shall thereupon cause the notice to be served on such landholder or agent, the tenant paying the costs of service.

Service through tahsildár of notice of relinquishment.

33. The notice shall, if practicable, be served personally on the landholder or his agent; but, if the landholder or his agent cannot be found, or if he evades service of the notice, service may be made by affixing the notice at his usual place of

Mode of serving notice.

* Act XVIII. of 1873 has been repealed by s. 2 of this Act.

† Act X. of 1859 has been repealed in the N.-W. P. by Act XVIII. of 1873.

‡ Act IX. of 1871 has been repealed by Act XV. of 1877.

Act XII. of 1881. residence, or, if he does not reside in the district wherein the land is situate, at the chaupál, or other conspicuous place in the village where the land is situate.

Where the delay in serving the notice is owing to the fault of the landholder or his agent, the notice shall be deemed to have been served at the first attempt to serve it.

33A. When any such notice has been received by, or served on, a landholder or his agent, he may, within fifteen days from such receipt or service, apply to the Collector or Assistant Collector to have such notice declared invalid, and the Collector shall thereupon determine the question between the parties.

Application by landholder to set aside notice.

If the landholder or his agent does not so apply within such period of fifteen days, he shall be deemed to have accepted the notice.

34. (a) When an arrear of rent remains due from any tenant, he shall be liable to pay interest on such arrear at one per cent. per mensem; and if the arrear remains due on the thirtieth day of June, to be ejected from the land in respect of which the arrear is due.

Liability of tenant to pay interest on arrear and to be ejected.

(b) No tenant shall be ejected otherwise than in execution of a decree or order under the provisions of this Act.

Bar to ejectment without decree.

(c) No ejectment of a tenant or forfeiture of a lease shall be decreed on account of any act or omission of the tenant—

Ejectment not to be decreed for certain acts or omissions.

(1) which is not detrimental to the land inhis occupation, or inconsistent with the purpose for which the land was let, or

(2) which, by law, custom, or special agreement, does not involve the forfeiture of the lease.

Explanation.—In clauses (a) and (b) the word 'tenant' does not include a thékádár and a katkanadár.

35. If the landholder desires to eject a tenant at fixed rates, an ex-proprietary tenant, an occupancy-tenant, or a tenant holding under an unexpired lease, against whom a decree for arrears has been passed, and remains unsatisfied, he may, after the expiration of the year, ending on the thirtieth day of June, in which such arrears accrued, apply to the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector to eject the tenant.

Ejectment of tenant at fixed rates, ex-proprietary, with right of occupancy, or holding under unexpired lease.

Such officer shall, on receiving such application, cause a notice to be served on the tenant, stating the amount due under the decree, and informing him that, if he does not pay such amount into Court within fifteen days from receipt of the notice, he will be ejected from his land.

If such amount be not so paid, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector may eject the tenant.

36. If the landholder desires to eject a tenant not having a right of occupancy, or any other tenant holding only for a limited period, after the determination of his tenancy, he shall cause a written notice of ejectment to be served on such tenant under the provisions of this Act.

Service of notice on tenant for limited period.

Language and contents of notice,

37. The notice of ejectment shall be written in the vernacular language and character of the district: Act XII. of 1881.

it shall specify the land from which the tenant is to be ejected; and it shall inform him that he must vacate such land; or that, if he means to contest the right to eject him, he must apply to the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector for that purpose.

Mode of serving notice.

38. The notice shall be issued and served through the office of the tahsildár on application made to him between the first day of January and the first day of April in each year, and the landholder shall pay the cost of service; it shall be served personally on the tenant, if practicable; but, if he cannot be found, service may be made by affixing the notice to his usual place of residence.

Effect of failure of tenant to institute suit to contest liability to ejectment,

39. (a) The tenant on whom such notice has been served may, within thirty days next after the service, make an application to the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector, contesting his liability to be ejected.

(b) When such an application is made, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector shall proceed to determine the question between the parties.

(c) On the determination of such question adversely to the tenant, or, where no application under this section has been made within the said period of thirty days, on the expiration of such period, the tenancy of the land in respect of which the notice has been served shall cease:

Provided that, when such question has been determined, or such period has expired, as the case may be, before the first day of May next following the making of the application under section 38, the tenancy shall continue until, and cease upon, that day:

Provided also that the tenancy shall not cease under this section when, after the service of the notice, the landholder authorizes the tenant to continue in the occupation of the land.

Procedure to enforce ejectment.

40. If the landholder require assistance to eject the person whose tenancy is alleged to have ceased under the provisions of section 39, he may, within fifteen days from the date of such cessation, apply to the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector for such assistance, and the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector shall order the ejectment of such tenant if he is satisfied—

(a) that the notice was duly served on such tenant under section 38;

(b) that he has not been authorized by the landholder to continue in occupation;

(c) that the tenant has not made the application mentioned in section 29, clause (a); or

(d) that, if such application has been made, the question has been determined adversely to the tenant:

Provided that no such application for the ejectment of a farmer on the determination of a lease shall be received if the lease be of the kind in which an advance has been made by the leaseholder, and the proprietor's right of reentry at the end of the term is contingent on the repayment of such advance,

Act XII. of 1881.

either in money or by the usufruct of the land. In all such cases the landholder must proceed by suit in the Civil Court.

Notice of ejectment when void.

41. If the landholder expressly authorize the tenant, on whom the notice of ejectment has been served, or against whom any proceedings in ejectment under section 40 have been taken, to remain in occupation of the land, and to prepare it for the harvest, the proceedings shall become void.

Rights of ejected tenant.

42. (a) Any tenant ejected in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall be entitled to any growing crops or other ungathered products of the earth belonging to the tenant, and growing on the land at the time of his ejectment, and to use the land for the purpose of tending and gathering in such crops or other products paying adequate rent therefor:

Effect of tender by landholder of payment for crops.

(b) Provided that, if the landholder desire to purchase such crops or other products, he may tender their price to the tenant; and thereupon the right of the tenant to such crops and other products, and to use the land for the purpose aforesaid, shall cease.

Power to determine rent and price.

(c) In the case of a dispute under this section, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector may, on the application of the landholder or tenant, award the rent and price so payable; and the amount of such award, or of any tender accepted under this section, shall be recoverable as an arrear of rent by suit under this Act.

Set-off of rent.

(d) The rent, if any, payable to the landholder by the tenant at the time of his ejectment, may be set off against the price of the said crops or other products.

Application for officer to divide produce or appraise crop.

43. (a) Whenever rent is taken by division of the produce in kind, or by estimate or appraisement of the standing crop, or other procedure of a like nature, requiring the presence both of the cultivator and landholder, either personally or by agent, if either landholder or tenant, personally or by agent, neglect to attend at the proper time, or if there is a dispute as to the amount or value of the crop, an application may be presented by either party to the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector, requesting, that a proper officer be deputed to make the division, estimate, or appraisement.

Procedure on such application.

(b) On receiving such application, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector shall issue a written notice to the opposite party or his agent to attend on the date and at the time specified in the notice, and shall depute an officer before whom such division, estimate, or appraisement shall be made.

(c) If, on or before the date appointed, the dispute has not been amicably adjusted, three residents of the village or neighbourhood shall be appointed assessors, one by each of the parties, and one by the officer deputed to divide the grain, or estimate or appraise the crops, and the officer deputed shall decide the amount of rent payable by their award, and shall give to the party applying a written authority to divide the grain or cut the crops:

(d) Provided that, if either party fail to attend, the officer deputed shall nominate an assessor on his behalf. Act XII. of 1881.

(e) The officer deputed shall report his proceedings to the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector, who shall determine the amount of costs properly incurred under this section, and the share of the costs to be paid by either party.

(C.)—Compensation for Improvements made by Tenants.

Tenant's right to compensation for improvements.

44. If any tenant or any person from whom he has inherited or purchased, make any such improvements on the land in his possession as are hereinafter mentioned, neither he nor his representative shall be ejected from the same land without payment of compensation for such improvements.

Explanation.—In this section the word "tenant" does not include a thékadár or a katkanadár, and the word "improvements" means works by which the annual letting-value of the land has been, and at the time of demanding compensation continues to be, increased, and comprises—

(a) tanks, wells, and other works for the storage, supply, or distribution of water for agricultural purposes,

(b) works for the drainage of land, or for the protection of land from floods or from erosion or other damage by water,

(c) the reclaiming, clearing, or enclosing of lands for agricultural purposes,

(d) the renewal or re-construction of any of the foregoing works, or alterations therein, or additions thereto.

Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, no tenant, other than a tenant at fixed rates or an occupancy-tenant, shall be entitled to compensation in respect of any improvement made without the consent of the landholder after this Act comes into force.

Mode of making compensation.

45. Such compensation may, at the option of the landholder or his representative, be made—

1st, by payment in money;

2nd, by a rent to be charged on the land;

3rd, by the grant of a beneficial lease of the land, by the landholder or his representative to the tenant or his representative;

4th, partly by one or by any two of the said ways, and partly by the others or other of the same ways.

Settlement of difference as to amount or value of compensation.

46. In case of difference as to the amount or value of the compensation tendered, either party may apply to the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector, stating the matter in dispute, and requesting a determination thereof.

On receiving such application, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector shall—

(a) cause notice thereof to be served on the other party,

(b) take such evidence as the parties or either of them may adduce,

Act XII. of 1881.

(c) make such further inquiry as the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector may deem necessary, and (d) determine the amount of the payment in money, and the amount and incidence of the rent-charge, and the terms of the lease, or any of such matters.

Consideration in determining compensation.

47. In determining the amount or value mentioned in section 46, or the terms of such lease, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector shall take into account any assistance given to the tenant by the landholder either directly in money, material, or labour, for the purpose of making such improvements, or indirectly by allowing the tenant to hold at a favourable rate of rent.

(D.)—Compensation for Wrongful Acts and Omissions.

Right of tenant to compensation for exactions in excess of rent, or for withholding receipt.

48. Every tenant from whom any sum is exacted in excess of the rent specified in his lease or payable under the provisions of this Act, and every tenant, from whom a receipt is withheld for any sum of money paid by him as rent, shall be entitled to recover from the landholder compensation not exceeding double the amount so exacted or paid.

Contents of receipt.

Receipts for rent shall specify the period or crop on account of which the rent is acknowledged to have been paid; and any refusal to make such specification shall be held to be a withholding of a receipt.

Explanation.—In this section the word "tenant" does not include a thékadár or katkanadár.

Damages for extorting payment of rent by duress.

49. If payment of rent, whether the same be legally due or not, is extorted from any tenant by illegal confinement or other duress, he shall be entitled to recover from the person guilty of such extortion such further compensation, not exceeding the sum of two hundred rupees, as the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector thinks reasonable.

Liability to punishment for extortion not affected.

An award of compensation under this section shall not bar or affect any penalty or punishment to which the person guilty of such extortion may be subject under the Indian Penal Code.

(E.)—Deposit of Rent in Court.

Deposit of amount tendered by tenant and refused.

50. If any tenant tenders to the landholder full payment of the rent due from him, and if the amount so tendered be not accepted, and a receipt for the amount forthwith granted, the tenant may thereupon apply to the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector for leave to deposit such amount in his Court to the credit of the landholder.

Form and verification of application.

51. The application to the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector shall be, as nearly as may be, in the form (A) in the first schedule hereto annexed, and shall be verified in the manner hereinafter prescribed for the verification of plaints.

And the person making the verification shall be punishable, if the application contain any averment which he knows or believes to be false, or does not know or believe to be true. Act XII. of 1881.

Penalty for false statement.

52. The Collector of the District or Assistant Collector shall receive the amount which the tenant desires to deposit, and shall thereupon issue to the person to whose credit it has so been deposited a notice in English or vernacular language of the district, in the form (B) in the first schedule hereto annexed, or to the like effect.

Notice to issue on deposit being made.

And such deposit shall, in all questions between the landholder and the tenant, be deemed to be a payment made by the tenant to the landholder on account of the rent.

53. Such notice shall be served through the tahsildár upon the person to whom it is addressed, or upon his recognized agent:

Mode of serving notice.

In their absence, the notice shall be affixed at the chaupál, or other conspicuous place in the village in which the land for which the rent is due is situate.

54. If, at any time before the expiration of three years from the date of the deposit, the person on whom such notice is served, or his recognized agent, appears, and applies that the money in deposit be paid to him, it shall be paid accordingly, unless it has been repaid, or paid in accordance with the provisions next hereinafter contained.

Payment to person served with notice on his application.

55. If no application be made by such person or his recognized agent, the sum shall be repaid to the depositor on the expiration of three years from the date of the deposit.

Refund to depositor.

And at any time before the expiration of such period, on the joint application of the depositor and the person to whose credit the said sum was deposited, such sum shall be paid in such manner as the joint applicants desire.

55A. When, owing to the death of the landlord or other cause, two or more persons severally claim the right to collect the rent from a tenant, the tenant may apply to the Collector of the District or the Assistant Collector for leave to deposit in Court the full amount of rent due from him, and such deposit, if made with the leave of the Collector or Assistant Collector, shall, in all questions between the landholder and the tenant, be deemed to be a payment made by the tenant to the landholder on account of the rent.

Deposit in Court of rent claimed by two or more persons.

The Collector of the District or Assistant Collector may, after such inquiry as he thinks necessary, direct payment of the amount deposited to such one of the persons claiming such rent as appears to him entitled to receive the same, or may order the same to remain in deposit pending decision by a competent Court.

No suit shall lie against the Secretary of State for India in Council or against any officer of Government in respect of any payment made under this section, but nothing herein contained shall affect the right of any Act XII. of 1881. person entitled to such payment to recover the amount thereof from any other person to whom it has been paid.

CHAPTER III.

DISTRESS.

Produce of land hypothecated for rent.

56. The produce of all land in the occupation of a cultivator shall be deemed to be hypothecated for the rent payable in respect of such land; and until such rent has been satisfied, no other claim on such produce shall be enforced by sale in execution of decree or otherwise;

Recovery of arrears by distress.

and when an arrear of rent is due from any cultivator, the person entitled to receive rent immediately from him may, instead of suing for the arrear as hereinafter provided, recover the same by distress and sale of the produce of the land in respect of which the arrear is due, under the rules contained in this chapter:

Distress of produce barred by security given for rent.

57. Provided—

(a) that, when a cultivator has given security for the payment of his rent, the produce of the land for the rent of which security has been given shall not be liable to be distrained;

Sharer when entitled to distrain.

(b) that no sharer in any mahal shall have power to distrain upon any cultivator unless he is entitled to collect the whole rent from such cultivator?

Distress by manager.

(c) that no sharer in a joint undivided mahal shall exercise such power otherwise than through a manager authorized to collect the rents of the whole mahal on behalf of all the sharers therein;

Distress in pattidári mahals.

(d) that in pattidári mahals distress shall be made only through a lambardár, or, where the rent of a pattí is not collected by a lambardár, through the patídár who is entitled to collect the rent.

No distress for over-due arrear, nor, without agreement, for excess over past year's rent.

58. A distress shall not be made for any arrear which has been due in respect of any land for a longer period than one year;

nor for the recovery of any sum in excess of the rent payable for the same land in the preceding year, unless the rent has been enhanced under the provisions hereinbefore contained, or by order of a Settlement-officer, or unless the cultivator has agreed to pay such excess, and such agreement has been attested before the kánungo.

Distress by managers under Court of Wards, &c.

59. The power to distrain conferred by sections 56 and 57 may be exercised by managers under the Court of Wards and other persons lawfully entrusted with the charge of immoveable property; and also by the agents employed by such persons as aforesaid in the collection of rent, if expressly authorized by power-of-attorney in that behalf.

If any wrongful act is committed by any such agent under colour of the exercise of the said power, such agent and his principal shall be jointly and severally liable to make compensation for such act.

Liability for illegal act.

60. When any person, empowered to distrain property under section 56, section 57, or section 59, employs a servant or other person to make the distress, he shall give him a written authority for the same, and the distress shall be made in the name of the person giving such authority.

Written authority to servants employed to distrain.

61. Standing crops and other ungathered products of the earth, and crops or other products when reaped or gathered, and deposited in any threshing-floor, or place for treading out grain, or the like, whether in the field or within a homestead, may be distrained by persons invested with power to distrain under the provisions of this Act.

Standing crops, and crops gathered, liable to distress.

But no such crops or products other than the produce of the land in respect of which an arrear of rent is due, or of land held under the same engagement, and no grain or other produce after it has been stored by the cultivator, and no other property whatsoever, shall be liable to be distrained under this Act.

Exception.

62. Before or at the time when a distress is made under this Act, the distrainer shall cause the defaulter to be served with a written demand for the amount of the arrear, together with an account exhibiting the grounds on which the demand is made.

Defaulter to be served with written demand and account.

The demand and account shall, if practicable, be served personally on the defaulter; or, if he abscond or conceal himself, so that they cannot be so served, shall be affixed at his usual place of residence.

Mode of service.

63. Unless the amount of the demand is immediately paid or tendered, the distrainer may distrain property as aforesaid equal in value, as nearly as may be, to the amount of the arrear and the costs of the distress; and shall prepare a list or description of the said property, and deliver a copy of the same to the owner, or, if he be absent, affix it at his usual place of residence.

Distress to be proportionate to arrear.

List of property to be prepared, and copy served on owner.

64. (a) Standing crops and other ungathered products may, notwithstanding the distress, be reaped and gathered by the cultivator, and he may store the same in such granaries or other places as are commonly used by him for the purpose.

Standing crops, &c., when distrained, may be reaped and stored.

(b) If the cultivator neglect to do so, the distrainer shall cause the said crops or products to be reaped or gathered, and in such case shall store the same either in such granaries or other places as aforesaid, or in some other convenient place in the neighbourhood.

(c) In either case the distrained property shall be placed in the charge of some person appointed by the distrainer for the purpose.

(d) Crops or products which, from their nature, do not admit of being stored, may be sold before they are reaped or gathered, under the rules hereinafter provided;

Sale of products which cannot be stored.

Act XII. of 1881. but in such case the distress shall be made at least twenty days before the time when the crops or products, or any part of the same, are fit for reaping or gathering.

Assistance to distrainer opposed or apprehending resistance.

65. If a distrainer is opposed, or apprehends resistance, and desires to obtain the assistance of a public officer, he may apply to the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector, who may, if he thinks necessary, depute an officer to assist the distrainer in making the distress.

Distress to be withdrawn on tender of arrear and expenses before sale.

66. If at any time after property has been distrained and before the day fixed for putting it up to sale as hereinafter provided, the owner of the property tenders payment of the arrear demanded of him, and of the expenses of the distress, the distrainer shall receive the same, and shall forthwith withdraw the distress.

Application for sale.

67. Within five days from the time of the storing of any distrained crops or products, or, if the crops or products do not, from their nature, admit of being stored, within five days from the time of making the distress, the distrainer shall apply for sale of the same to the officer for the time being authorized by the Local Government to sell distrained property within the tahsil in which they are situate.

Contents of application.

68. The application shall be in writing, and shall contain—

(a) an inventory or description of the property distrained,

(b) the name of the defaulter, and his place of residence,

(c) the amount due, and the date of the distress, and (d) the place in which the distrained property is.

Fee for service of notice.

Together with the application, the distrainer shall deliver to the said officer the fee for the service of a notice upon the defaulter as hereinafter provided.

Procedure on receipt of application.

69. Immediately on receipt of the application, the said officer shall send a copy of it to the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector, and shall serve a notice in the form (C) contained in the first schedule hereto annexed, or to the like effect, on the person whose property has been distrained, requiring him either to pay the amount demanded, or to institute a suit to contest the demand before the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector, within the period of fifteen days from the receipt of the notice.

He shall, at the same time, send to the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector, for the purpose of being put up in his office and in the office of the tahsildar, a proclamation fixing a day for the sale of the distrained property, which shall not be less than twenty days from the date of the application; and shall deliver a copy of the proclamation to the peon charged with the service of the notice, to be put up by him in the place where the distrained property is deposited.

The proclamation shall contain—

(a) a description of the property, and shall specify—

(b) the demand for which it is to be sold, and (c) the place where the sale is to be held.

Suspension of sale on receipt of Collector's certificate of institution of suit.

70. If a suit is instituted before the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector in pursuance of the aforesaid notice, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector shall send to the officer referred to in section 67, or, if so requested, shall deliver to the owner of the distrained property, a certificate of the institution of such suit; and on such certificate being received by, or presented to, the said officer, he shall suspend the sale.

Suit to contest distrainer's demand before issue of notice of sale.

71. A person whose property has been distrained in manner hereinbefore provided may, immediately after the distress, and before the issue of notice of sale, institute a suit to contest the demand of the distrainer.

When such suit is instituted, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector shall proceed in the manner prescribed in the last preceding section.

If, thereafter, application for the sale of the property is made to the said officer, he shall send a copy of the application to the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector, and suspend further proceedings pending the decision of the case.

Distress when to be withdrawn.

72. The person whose property has been distrained may, at the time of instituting any such suit as aforesaid, or at any subsequent period, execute a bond with a surety, binding himself to pay whatever sum may be adjudged to be due from him, with interest and costs of suit; and when such bond is executed, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector shall give to the owner of the property a certificate to that effect, and, if so requested, shall serve the distrainer with notice of the same;

and upon such certificate being presented to the distrainer by the owner of the property, or served on him by order of the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector, the property shall be released from distress.

When sale may be proceeded with.

73. If the institution of a suit to contest the demand of the distrainer has not been certified, in manner hereinbefore provided, to the said officer, on or before the day fixed in the proclamation of sale, he shall, unless the said demand, with such costs of the distress as are allowed by him, be discharged in full, proceed, in manner hereinafter mentioned, to sell the property or such part of it as may be necessary to satisfy the demand with the costs of distress and sale.

Place of sale.

74. The sale shall be held at the place where the distrained property is, or at the nearest place of public resort, if the said officer is of opinion that it is likely to sell there to better advantage.

Manner of sale.

The property shall be sold by public auction, in one or more lots as the officer holding the sale may think advisable;

Act XII. of 1881.

and if the demand, with the costs of distress and sale, be satisfied by the sale of a portion of the property, the distress shall be immediately withdrawn with respect to the remainder.

Withdrawal of distress when demand and costs satisfied.

75. If, on the property being put up for sale, a fair price (in the estimation of the officer holding the sale) be not offered for it, and if the owner of the property, or some person authorized to act on his behalf, apply to have the sale postponed until the next day, or, if a market be held at the place of sale, the next market-day, the sale shall be postponed until such day, and shall be then completed, whatever price may be offered for the property.

If fair price be not offered, sale may be postponed, and shall be then completed.

76. The price of every lot shall be paid for in ready money at the time of sale, or as soon thereafter as the officer holding the sale thinks necessary;

Payment of purchase-money.

and, in default of such payment, the property shall be put up again and sold, and the deficiency in price (if any) which may happen on such second sale and all expenses attending such second sale shall, at the instance either of the distrainer or the owner of the property, be recoverable from the defaulter under the rules hereinafter contained for the execution of a decree for rent.

Re-sale on default.

When the purchase-money has been paid in full, the officer holding the sale shall give the purchaser a certificate describing the property purchased by him and the price paid.

Certificate to purchaser.

77. From the proceeds of every sale of distrained property under this Act, the officer holding the sale shall make a deduction at the rate of one anna in the rupee on account of the costs of the sale, and shall send the amount so deducted to the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector.

Deduction, from proceeds, of costs of sale.

He shall then pay to the distrainer the expenses incurred by the distrainer on account of the distress, and of the issue of the notice and proclamation of sale prescribed in section 96, to such amount as, after examining the statement of expenses furnished by the distrainer, he thinks proper to allow.

Payment of distrainer's expenses.

The remainder shall be applied to the discharge of the arrear for which the distress was made, with interest thereon up to the day of sale;

Discharge of arrear with interest.

and the surplus (if any) shall be delivered to the person whose property has been sold.

Surplus.

78. Officers holding sales of property under this Act, and all persons employed by, or subordinate to, such officers are prohibited from purchasing, either directly or indirectly, any property sold by such officers.

Sale-officers and employés prohibited from purchasing.

79. Officers holding sales under this chapter are required to bring to the notice of the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector any material irregularities committed by distrainers under colour of this Act:

Report of irregularities by distrainer.

and if, in any case, on proceeding to hold any such sale, the officer holding it find that the owner of the property has not received due notice of the distress and intended sale, he shall postpone the sale, and report the case to the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector, who shall thereupon direct the issue of another notice and proclamation of sale under section 69, or pass such other order as he thinks fit.

Postponement of sale, and report to Collector when owner has not received due notice.

Order of Collector.

80. When an officer goes to any place for the purpose of holding a sale under this Act, and no sale takes place, either for the reason stated in section 79, or because the demand of the distrainer has been previously satisfied without any intimation of such satisfaction having been given by the distrainer to such officer, the charge of one anna in the rupee on account of expenses shall be leviable, and shall be calculated on the estimated value of the distrained property.

Levy of charge when sale officer attends, and no sale takes place.

If the distrainer's demand be not satisfied until the day fixed for the sale, the charge for expenses shall be paid by the owner of the property, and may be recovered by the sale of such portion thereof as may be necessary.

Recovery from owner.

In every other case it shall be paid by the distrainer, and may be recovered by attachment and sale of his property under the warrant of the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector:

Recovery from distrainer.

Provided that in no case shall a larger amount than ten rupees be recoverable under this section.

Limit to charge.

81. When a suit has been instituted to contest the demand of a distrainer, and the distrained property has not been released on security, if the demand or any portion of it is adjudged to be due, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector shall issue an order to the officer authorizing the sale of such property;

Order of sale when amount adjudged due.

and, on the application of the distrainer within five days from the receipt of such order by the officer, such officer shall publish a second proclamation in the manner prescribed in section 69, fixing another day for the sale of the distrained property, which shall not be less than five nor more than ten days from the date of the proclamation;

Second proclamation of sale.

and, unless the amount adjudged to be due with the costs of distress be paid, shall proceed to sell the property in the manner hereinbefore provided.

Sale on failure to pay debt and costs.

82. (a) In all suits instituted to contest the distrainer's demand he shall be required to prove the arrear in the same manner as if he had himself brought a suit for the amount under the provisions hereinafter contained.

In suit to contest his demand, distrainer to prove arrear.

(b) If the demand or any part thereof is found to be due, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector shall make a decree for the amount in favour of the distrainer, and such amount may be recovered by sale of the property, as provided in the last preceding section, if the distress has not been withdrawn;

Recovery of amount decreed in favour of distrainer.

and, if any balance remain due after such sale, by execution of the decree against the person and any other property of the defaulter; or, if the property have been released on security, by execution of the decree against the person and property of the defaulter and of his surety.

Act XII. of 1881.

(c) If the distress is adjudged to be vexatious or groundless, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector, besides directing the release of the distrained property, may award such compensation to the plaintiff as the circumstances of the case require.

Compensation in case of vexatious distress.

83. (a) If any person claim, as his own, property which has been distrained for arrears of rent alleged to be due from any other person, the claimant may institute a suit against the distrainer and such other person, to try the right to the property, in the same manner and under the same conditions as to the time of instituting the suit and to the consequent postponement of sale as a person whose property has been distrained for an arrear of rent alleged to be due from him may institute a suit to contest the demand.

Suit by person claiming property distrained for arrears alleged to be due from another.

(b) When any such suit is instituted, the property may be released upon security being given for the value of the same.

Release of property on security being given.

(c) If the claim is dismissed, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector shall make an order for the sale of the property, or for the recovery of the value thereof, as the case may be, for the benefit of the distrainer.

Order of Collector when claim dismissed.

(d) If the claim is upheld, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector shall decree the release of the distrained property with costs, and such compensation (if any) as the circumstances of the case require:

Decree for release and compensation when claim upheld.

(e) Provided that no claim to any produce of land liable to distress under this Act, which at the time of the distress may have been found in the possession of a defaulting cultivator, shall bar the prior claim of the person entitled to the rent of the land, nor shall any attachment in execution of a judgment of any Civil Court prevail against such prior claim.

Saving of prior claim of person entitled to rent of land.

84. If, in any case in which property has been distrained for an arrear of rent, and a suit has been instituted to contest the demand, the right to distrain for such arrears is claimed by, or on behalf of, any person other than the distrainer, on the ground of such other person being actually and in good faith in the receipt and enjoyment of the rent of the land, such other person shall be made a party to the suit, and the question of the actual receipt and enjoyment of the rent by him before and up to the time of the commencement of the suit shall be enquired into, and in deciding the suit the result of such inquiry shall be taken into consideration:

Procedure where right to distrain is claimed by person other than distrainer.

Provided that the decision of the Collector of the District or Assistan Collector shall not affect the right of any person who may have a legal title to the rent of the land to establish his title by suit in the Civil Court if instituted within one year from the date of the decision.

Saving of right to sue in Civil Court.

85. If any person whose property has been distrained for the recovery of a demand not justly due, or of a demand due or alleged to be due from some other person, is prevented by any sufficient cause from bringing a suit to contest the demand or to try the right to the property, as the case may be, within the period allowed by section 69 or 83, and his property is in consequence sold, he may, nevertheless, institute a suit under this Act to recover compensation for such distress and sale. Act XII of 1881.

Persons prevented from suing in time to save property from sale may sue for damages.

Wrongful acts of distrainer.

86. If any person empowered to distrain property, or employed for the purpose under a written authority by a person so empowered, distrain or sell, or cause to be sold, any property for the recovery of an arrear of rent alleged to be due, otherwise than according to the provisions of this Act, or if any distrained property is lost, damaged, or destroyed by reason of the distrainer not having taken proper precautions for the due keeping and preservation thereof, or if the distress is not immediately withdrawn, when it is required to be withdrawn by any provision of this Act, the owner of the property may institute a suit under this Act to recover compensation for any injury which he has thereby sustained through any act or omission mentioned in the former part of this section.

Suit by owner against person distraining or selling without authority.

87. If any person not empowered to distrain property under section 56, 57, or 59, nor employed for the purpose under a written authority by a person so empowered, fraudulently distrains or sells, or causes to be sold, any property under colour of this Act, the owner of the property so distrained or sold may institute a suit under this Act to recover compensation from such person for any injury which the plaintiff has sustained from the distress or sale, and the defendant shall be held to have committed criminal trespass.

Penalty in addition to damages.

and shall be subject to the penalties provided for that offence by the Indian Penal Code, in addition to any damages which may be awarded against him in such suit:

Limitation of suits under sections 85, 86, 87.

88. Provided that every suit instituted under any of the three last preceding sections shall be commenced within the period allowed by section 94.

Procedure in case of resistance of distress.

89. (a) If any person resists a distress of property duly made under this Act, or forcibly or clandestinely removes any distrained property, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector in charge of the sub-division, upon complaint being made within fifteen days from the date of such resistance or removal, may cause the person accused to be arrested and brought with all convenient speed before the Collector or Assistant Collector, who shall, if possible, proceed forthwith to try the case.

(b) If the case cannot be at once heard, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector may, if he think fit, require the party arrested to give security for his person, and, in default of such security, may commit him to the civil jail until the case is tried; and, if the offence be proved, and the offender be the owner of the property concerned, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector may order him to be imprisoned in the civil jail for a term not exceeding six months, unless the whole arrear due to the distrainer, with all reasonable expenses and costs, is, previously to the expiration of such term, paid or levied under warrant of the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector by distress and sale of the property of the offender.

Act XII. of 1881.

(c) If the offender be not the owner of the property concerned, he shall make good to the distrainer the value of the same, and shall further be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or, in default of payment thereof, to imprisonment in the civil jail for a term which may extend to two months.

Proceedings of officers subject to revision and orders of Collector.

90. All proceedings of officers distraining, or assisting distrainers, or holding sales under this chapter, shall be subject to the revision and orders of the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector in charge of a sub-division of the district.

CHAPTER IV.

PROCESS.

Mode of serving process.

91. (a) Every process issued by a Collector of a District or Assistant Collector under this Act shall be under his seal and signature, and shall be served or executed by the Nazir, or by such other officer as the Collector of the District or the Assistant Collector may direct, at the cost of the party at whose instance it is issued.

Deposit before issue.

(b) The amount of such cost, and, in the case of summons to a witness, the sum required for his travelling expenses, shall be deposited in Court before the process is issued:

Power to direct service gratis.

(c) Provided that, if in any case the Collector of the District or the Assistant Collector is satisfied that a party is unable to pay the cost of any necessary process, he may direct such process to be served free of charge.

Punishment for resisting process.

92. Any resistance or opposition to the lawful process of a Collector of the District or Assistant Collector under this Act may be punished by him according to the provisions of the law for the time being in force for the punishment of resistance or opposition to the processes of the Courts of civil justice.

Power to issue summons and warrant.

When, in any such case, the offender is not present, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector may summon him to answer to the charge, and, if, after due service of the summons, he fails to attend, may issue a warrant for his arrest.

CHAPTER V.

JURISDICTION OF COURTS.

Suits cognizable by Revenue Courts only.

93. Except in the way of appeal as hereinafter provided, no Courts other than Courts of Revenue shall take cognizance of any dispute or matter in which any suit of the nature mentioned in this section might be brought, and such suit shall be heard and determined in the said Courts of Revenue in the manner provided in this Act, and not otherwise;

(a) suits for arrears of rent, or, where rent is payable in kind, for the money-equivalent of rent, on account of land, or on account of any rights of pasturage, forest-rights, fisheries, or the like;

(b) suits to eject a tenant for any act or omission detrimental to the land in his occupation, or inconsistent with the purpose for which the land was let; Act XII. of 1881.

(c) suits to cancel a lease for the breach of any condition binding on the tenant, and which, by law, custom, or special agreement, involves the forfeiture of the lease;

(cc) suits for compensation for or to prohibit any act, omission, or breach, mentioned in clause (b) or clause (c);

(d) suits for the recovery of any over-payment of rent, or for compensation under section 48 or 49;

(e) suits for compensation for withholding receipt for rent paid;

(f) suits for contesting the exercise of the powers of distress conferred on landholders and others by this Act, or anything purporting to be done in the exercise of the said power, or for compensation for wrongful acts or omissions of a distrainer;

(g) suits by lambardárs for arrears of Government revenue, payable through them by the co-sharers whom they represent, and for village-expenses and other dues for which the co-sharers may be responsible to the lambardár;

(h) suits by recorded co-sharers for their recorded share of the profits of a mahál, or any part thereof, after payment of the Government revenue and village-expenses, or for a settlement of accounts;

(i) suits, by muáfídárs or assignees of the Government revenue, for arrears of revenue due to them as such;

(j) suits by taluqdárs and other superior proprietors for arrears of revenue due to them as such;

(k) suits by recorded co-sharers to recover from a recorded co-sharer who defaults arrears of revenue paid by them on his account.

Limitation of suits under this Act.

94. Suits for arrears of rent or revenue, or for a share of the profits of a mahál, or "for village-expenses"* or other dues, shall not be brought after three years from the day on which the "arrears, share, expenses, or dues,"* became due.

Suits relating to distress, not being suits to contest the demand, or to try the right to the property, shall not be brought after three months from the day on which the right to sue accrued.

All other suits must be brought within one year from the day on which the right to sue accrues, unless otherwise specially provided for in this Act.

The day on which the arrears become due, or the day on which the right to sue accrues (as the case may be), shall be excluded in computing the periods of limitation prescribed by this section.

In the absence of any express agreement among the co-sharers, and of any order by the Settlement-officer under the North-Western Provinces Land-revenue Act, 1873, section 65, clause (g), the Board may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, make rules for fixing the dates on which profits shall be divisible by the lambardárs.

Applications cognizable by Revenue Courts only.

95. No Courts other than Courts of Revenue shall take cognizance of any dispute or matter on which any application of the nature mentioned in this section might be made; and such applications shall be heard and determined in the said Courts in manner provided under this Act, and not otherwise:—

* In s. 94 the words quoted have been substituted for the original by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. II.

Act XII. of 1881.

(a) Application to determine the nature and class of a tenant's tenure under section 10.

(b) Application by a landholder, or his agent, to compel a patwarí to produce his accounts relating to land.

(c) Application to resume rent-free grants under section 30, or to assess to rent land previously held rent-free.

(d) Application from a landholder to eject a tenant under section 35, or to have a notice of ejectment issued and served under section 38.

(e) Application made by a tenant, under section 39.

(f) Application from a landholder, under section 40, for assistance to eject a tenant.

(g) Application from a tenant or landholder to determine the value of any standing crop or ungathered products of the earth belonging to the tenant, and being on the land at the time of his ejectment, under section 42.

(h) Application by a landholder to determine rent payable for land used by a tenant for the purpose of tending or gathering in the crop under section 42.

(i) Application by a landholder or tenant for assistance in the division or appraisement of a standing crop under section 43.

(j) Application by a landholder or tenant to determine compensation for improvements of land.

(k) Application by a tenant for leave to deposit rent.

(l) Application for enhancement or determination of rent.

(m) Application for compensation for wrongful dispossession.

(n) Application for the recovery of the occupancy of any land of which a tenant has been wrongfully dispossessed.

(o) Application for abatement of rent.

(p) Application for leases or counterparts, and for the determination of the rates of rent at which such leases or counterparts are to be delivered.

(q) Application under section 7 to have the holding of an ex-proprietary tenant divided off.

(r) Application under section 22A to survey land.

(s) Application under section 33A to have a notice of relinquishment declared invalid.

(t) Application to take out of deposit any amount deposited under section 55A.

"For the purposes of the Court-fees Act, 1870, the amount of fee payable in the cases next hereinafter mentioned shall be computed as follows:—

"(i) in applications under clause (c), and in appeals from orders passed on applications under that clause as in a suit for possession of the land to which the application or appeal relates;

"(ii) in applications under clauses (l), (n), (o), and (p), and in appeals from orders passed on applications under clauses (d), (e), (f), (l), (n), (o), (p), (q), and (s), according to the rent of the land to which the application or appeal relates payable for the year next before the date of presenting the application, or if in any case the fee cannot be so computed, then according to the annual letting value of the land as estimated by the applicant or appellant, as the case may be;

"(iii) in applications under clause (m), and in appeals from orders passed on applications under clauses (j), (m), and (t), according to the amount claimed in the application or in the petition of appeal, as the case may be."* Act XII. of 1881.

Limitation of process of execution on applications.

95A. When any order has been made on an application under this Act, no process for the execution of such order shall be issued on an application made after the lapse of one year from the date of such order, except when special provision is otherwise made in this Act.

Points of procedure relating to applications under section 95.

96. (a) All applications under section 95 shall be made in the district in which the land, crops, or products referred to, is or are situate.

(b) All orders passed on applications under section 95 shall be proved in the same manner, and, when proved, shall have the same effect, as if they were judgments of the Civil Courts.

(c) In cases wherein a specific sum of money is adjudged to be due, or any costs or damages are awarded, all such orders may be executed by any process in use for the recovery of an arrear of revenue or rent.

(d) In cases wherein possession of immoveable property is adjudged, the officer making the award may deliver over possession in the same manner, and with the same power, in regard to contempts, resistance, and the like, as may be lawfully exercised by the Civil Courts in execution of their own decrees.

(e) Applications under clauses (m) and (n) of section 95 shall not be brought after six months from the date of the wrongful dispossession.

Reference to arbitration.

96A. All suits and applications under this Act may, with the consent of the parties, be referred to arbitration under section 220 to section 231 (both inclusive) of the North-Western Provinces Land-revenue Act, 1873.

Power to invest officers with Assistant Collector's powers, and withdraw them.

97. The Local Government may invest any officer with the powers of an Assistant Collector of the first or second class under this Act, and may at any time withdraw such powers.

Suits and applications cognizable by Assistant Collectors.

98. Assistant Collectors of either class shall have, as such, power to try suits and applications of the following descriptions :—

(a) suits for arrears of rent or the money-equivalent of rent on account of land, or on account of any rights of pasturage, forest-rights, fisheries, or the like ;

(b) suits for compensation for withholding receipts for rent paid, under section 48 ;

(c) suits to contest the exercise of the powers of distress conferred on landholders and others by this Act, or anything purporting to be done in exercise of the said powers, or for compensation for wrongful acts or omissions of a distrainer ;

(d) suits by lambardárs for arrears of Government revenue, payable through them by the co sharers whom they represent, and for village-expenses and other dues, for which the co-sharers may be responsible to the lambardár ;

* In s. 95 the paragraph quoted has been substituted for the original paragraph by Act XIV. of 1886, s. 2.

Act XII. of 1881.

(e) suits by muáfídárs or assignees of the Government revenue for arrears of revenue due to them as such;

(f) suits by taluqdárs or other superior proprietors for arrears of revenue due to them as such;

(g) applications by a landholder, or by an agent employed by a landholder, to compel the production of accounts by patwáris;

(h) applications by a tenant or landholder to determine the value of any standing crops or ungathered products of the earth, and being on the land at the time of his ejectment, under section 42;

(i) applications by a landholder to determine the amount of rent payable by a tenant using land for the purpose of tending or gathering in crops, under section 42;

(j) applications by a landholder or a tenant for assistance in the division or appraisement of standing crops, under section 43;

(k) applications by tenants for leave to deposit rent;

(l) suits under section 93, clause (k), to recover arrears of revenue;

(m) applications under section 22A to survey land.

Additional suits and applications triable by Assistant Collectors, first class.

99. Assistant Collectors of the first class, in addition to the suits and applications specified in section 98, shall have power to try suits and applications of the following descriptions:—

(a) suits to eject a tenant for any act or omission detrimental to the land in his occupation, or inconsistent with the purpose for which the land was let;

(b) suits to cancel a lease for any breach of any condition binding on the tenant;

(bb) suits for compensation for or to prohibit any act, omission, or breach mentioned in clause (a) or clause (b);

(c) suits for the recovery of any over-payment of rent or for compensation, under section 48 or section 49;

(d) suits by co-sharers for their shares of the profits of a mahál or any part thereof, after payment of the Government revenue and village-expenses or for a settlement of accounts;

(e) applications by a landholder to eject a tenant, under section 35;

(f) applications under section 39 by a tenant contesting notice of ejectment;

(g) applications by a landholder under section 40, for assistance to eject a tenant on whom notice of ejectment has been served,

(h) applications for compensation for wrongful dispossession;

(i) applications by a landholder or tenant to determine the amount to be paid as compensation for improvements;

(j) applications to recover the occupancy of any land from which a tenant has been wrongfully dispossessed by the landholder;

(k) applications under section 30 for the resumption of rent-free grants or for the assessment to rent of land hitherto held rent-free;

(l) applications under section 7 to have the holding of an ex-proprietary tenant divided off;

(m) applications under section 33A to have a notice of relinquishment declared invalid; Act XII. of 1881.

(n) applications to take out of deposit amounts deposited under section 55A.

Additional applications triable by Assistant Collector, first class, with special powers.

100. In addition to the powers specified in sections 98 and 99, an Assistant Collector of the first class, specially empowered by Government in this behalf, shall have power to try the following applications:—

(a) applications for enhancement or determination of rent;

(b) applications for abatement of rent;

(c) applications for leases or counterparts, and the determination of the rates of rent at which such leases or counterparts are to be delivered;

(d) applications to determine the nature or class of a tenant's tenure.

Power of Board to transfer business.

100A.* The Board may, on cause shown to its satisfaction, transfer any suit, application, or appeal, or class of suits, applications, or appeals, from any Court of Revenue to any other Court of Revenue competent as regards the nature of the case or class of cases to deal therewith under the provisions of this Act.

Commissioners may transfer appeals.

100B.* (1) The Commissioner of a Division may, with the sanction of the Local Government, transfer any appeal or class of appeals pending before himself to any Collector of a District within his Division.

(2) The order passed by a Collector on an appeal transferred to him by the Commissioner under sub-section (1) shall be subject to appeal and revision in the same manner as if it had been passed by the Commissioner, and no otherwise.

(3) The Local Government may by order recall any appeal transferred to a Collector under sub-section (1), and refer it for disposal to the Commissioner of the Division by whom it was transferred.

Power to make over cases.

101. The Collector of the District, or any Assistant Collector in charge of a sub-division of a district may make over any case or class of cases for inquiry and decision, from his own file, to any of his subordinates competent to deal with such case or class of cases under the provisions of this Act.

Power to withdraw cases.

102. Collectors of Districts and Assistant Collectors in charge of sub-divisions of districts may, respectively, withdraw any case or class of cases from any officers subordinate to them, and may deal with such case or class of cases themselves, or refer it for disposal to any other such Revenue-officer competent to deal with the same under the provisions of this Act.

Powers exercisable by Collector of District.

103. The Collector of the District may exercise—

(a) all powers given by this Act to Collectors of Districts,

(b) all powers which by this Act are conferred, or can be conferred, on Assistant Collectors.

---

* Ss. 100A and 100B have been inserted by Act XIV. of 1886, s. 3.

Act XII. of 1881.

Investment of officer in charge of sub-division with powers of Collector of District.

The Local Government may invest any officer in charge of a sub-division of a district with all or any of the powers conferred by this Act on a Collector of a District.

Mode of conferring powers.

In conferring powers under this Act, the Local Government may empower persons specially by name, or classes of officials generally by their official titles.

CHAPTER VI.

PROCEDURE IN SUITS UP TO JUDGMENT.

Place of instituting suits.

104. Suits under this Act shall be instituted in the district in which the subject of the suit, or some part thereof, is situate, Plaint.

and all such suits shall be commenced by presenting to the Court a plaint, which shall contain—

(a) the name, description, and place of abode of the plaintiff;

(b) the name, description, and place of abode of the defendant, so far as they can be ascertained;

(c) the subject-matter of the claim and its amount or value computed according to Court-fees Act, 1870; and (d) the date on which the right to sue accrued.

Managers of mahâls to be, for purposes of litigation, deemed landholders.

105. For the purpose of suing or being sued under this Act, the managers of mahâls, whether held under the Court of Wards or under direct management, shall be deemed to be landholders.

Suits by co-sharers in undivided property.

106. No co-sharer in an undivided property shall, in that character, be entitled separately to sue a tenant under this Act, unless he is authorized to receive from such tenant the whole of the rent payable by such tenant; but nothing in this section shall affect any local custom or any special contract.

Plaint by whom presented.

107. The plaint shall be presented by the plaintiff, or by an agent duly authorized on his behalf, who has personal knowledge of the facts of the case, or by an agent accompanied by a person who has such knowledge.

Verification of plaint.

The plaint shall be subscribed and verified at the foot by the plaintiff or his agent in the manner following, or to the like effect:—

"I, A. B., the plaintiff named in the above plaint, do declare that what is stated therein is true to the best of my knowledge and belief."

False averment.

If the plaint contains an averment which the person making the verification knows or believes to be false, or does not know or believe to be true, he shall be punishable according to the law for the punishment of giving or fabricating false evidence.

Document relied on by plaintiff to be presented with plaint.

108. If the plaintiff rely in support of his claim on any document in his possession, he shall deliver the same to the Court at the time of presenting his plaint.

Unless such document be so delivered, or its non-production be sufficiently excused, or unless the Court see fit to extend the time for producing the same, it shall not afterwards be admitted.

Admission afterwards.

109. If the plaintiff require the production of any document in the possession or power of the defendant, he may, at the time of presenting his plaint, deliver to the Court a description of the document, in order that the defendant may be required to produce the same.

Procuring production of document in possession of defendant.

110. If the suit be for the recovery of an arrear of rent or revenue, or of a share of profits or village-expenses, or other dues, under section 93, the plaint shall specify the name of the village and estate, and of the pargana or other local division, in which the land is situate;

Plaint in suits for arrears of rent.

and, if the suit be for an arrear of rent alleged to be due from any tenant, the plaint shall also specify the quantity of land and (where fields have been numbered in a Government survey) the number of each field and yearly rent of the land; the amount (if any) received on account of the year for which the claim is made; and, in all cases coming under this section, the plaint shall specify the amount in arrear, and the time in respect of which it is alleged to be due.

111. If the suit be for the ejectment of a tenant from any land, the plaint shall describe (as circumstances may require) the extent, situation, and designation of the land; and, if necessary for its identification, shall set forth its boundaries.

Plaint in suits for ejectment.

112. If the plaint do not contain the several particulars hereinbefore required to be specified therein, or be not subscribed and verified as hereinbefore required, the Court may, at its discretion, return it to the plaintiff, or allow it to be amended.

Return or amendment of plaint.

112A. The Court may, on or before the first hearing, upon the application of either party, and on such terms as the Court thinks just, order that the name of any party, whether as plaintiff or as defendant, improperly joined, be struck out;

Court may dismiss or add parties.

and the Court may at any time, either upon or without such application, and on such terms as the Court thinks just, order that any plaintiff be made a defendant, or that any defendant be made a plaintiff, and that the name of any person who ought to have been joined, whether as plaintiff or defendant, or whose presence before the Court may be necessary in order to enable the Court effectually and completely to adjudicate upon and settle all the questions involved in the suit, be added.

No person shall be added as a plaintiff without his own consent thereto.

Consent of person added as plaintiff.

All parties whose names are so added as defendants shall be served with a summons in manner hereinafter mentioned, and the proceedings as against them shall be deemed to have begun only on the service of such summons:

Defendants added to be served.

Provided that, when a defendant dies, and the suit is continued against his legal representative, it shall, as regards him, be deemed to have been instituted when it was instituted against the deceased defendant.

Act XII. of 1881.

112B. Where a defendant is added, the plaint, if previously filed, shall, unless the Court directs otherwise, be amended in such manner as may be necessary, and an amended copy of the summons shall be served on the new defendant and the original defendants.

When defendant added, plaintiff to amend.

112C. All objections for want of parties, or for joinder of parties who have no interest in the suit, or for misjoinder as co-plaintiffs or co-defendants, shall be taken at the earliest possible opportunity, and in all cases before the first hearing; and any such objection not so taken shall be deemed to have been waived by the defendant.

Time for taking objections as to non-joinder or misjoinder of parties.

112D. If the plaint be admitted, the plaintiff shall present as many copies on plain paper of the plaint as there are defendants, unless the Court, by reason of the plaint or the number of the defendants, or for any other sufficient reason, permits him to present a like number of concise statements of the nature of the claim made, or of the relief or remedy required in the suit, in which case he shall present such statements.

Procedure on admitting plaint.

Concise statements.

113. If the plaint be in proper form, the Court, except as otherwise hereinafter specially provided, shall direct the issue of a summons to the defendant;

Issue of summons.

and, if the plaintiff require the personal attendance of the defendant, and satisfy the Court that such attendance is necessary, or the Court, of its own accord, require such attendance, the summons shall contain an order for the defendant to appear personally on a day to be specified in the summons.

Order for personal attendance or appearance by agent.

If the plaintiff or the Court does not require the personal attendance of the defendant, the summons shall order the defendant to appear either personally or by an agent duly authorized on his behalf, who has personal knowledge of the subject, or is accompanied by a person who has such personal knowledge.

114. The day to be specified in the smmons shall be fixed with reference to the state of the file and the distance that the defendant may be, or be supposed to be, at the time from the place where the Court is held;

Fixing of day to be specified in the summons.

and the summons shall order the defendant to produce any document in his possession or power of which the plaintiff demands inspection, or upon which the defendant relies in support of his defence.

Order to produce documents.

Order to bring witnesses. It shall also direct him to bring with him his witnesses, if they are willing to attend without issue of process.

Form of summons. And it shall be in the form (D) contained in the first schedule hereto annexed, or to the like effect.

Copy or statement annexed to summons. It shall be accompanied with one of the copies or concise statements mentioned in section 112D.

115. The summons shall be served by delivering a copy thereof to the defendant personally when practicable;

Mode of serving summons.

or, if the copy cannot be delivered to the defendant personally, by affixing a copy of the summons to some conspicuous part of his usual residence, and also affixing a copy of the same in the Court.

Endorsement on summons.

116. If the summons be served by delivering a copy to the defendant personally, the Nazir shall endorse on the summons the fact of such service.

If personal service be not effected, the Nazir shall endorse on the summons the reasons of not serving it personally, and how it has been served.

Service of summons in another district.

117. If the usual residence of the defendant be in another district, the summons shall be sent by the public post to the Collector of such district, who shall issue the summons, and return the same, after service, with the prescribed endorsement, to the officer by whom it was transmitted to him.

Service when defendant resides out of British India, and has no agent to accept service.

117A. If the defendant resides out of British India, and has no agent in British India empowered to accept the service, the summons shall be addressed to the defendant at the place where he is residing, and forwarded to him by post if there be postal communication between such place and the place where the Court is situate.

Service through British Resident or Agent of Government.

117B. If there be a British Resident or Agent of Government in or for the territory in which the defendant resides, the summons may be sent to such Resident or Agent by post or otherwise for the purpose of being served upon the defendant; and, if the Resident or Agent return the summons with an endorsement under his hand that the summons has been served on the defendant in manner hereinbefore directed, such endorsement shall be conclusive evidence of such service.

Deposit of cost of serving summons or warrant.

118. The amount of the cost of serving the summons, or, if a warrant be issued as provided in the next following section, of serving the warrant, shall in all cases be deposited in Court by the plaintiff within such time before the issue of such summons or warrant as is fixed by the Court issuing the process.

Effect of failure to deposit.

If the said amount be not so deposited (except where the Court, in exercise of the discretion reserved to it in section 91, allows the summons to be served gratis), the case shall be struck out of the list of pending suits;

but in such case the plaintiff may present another plaint at any time within the period allowed by the rules herein contained for the limitation of suits.

Procedure when plaintiff desires issue of warrant of arrest.

119. (a) If, in any suit against a tenant for the recovery of an arrear of rent, or in any suit for the recovery of an arrear of revenue, or a share of profits or village-expenses or other dues, the plaintiff desires a warrant of arrest to be issued against the defendant, such defendant being resident within the district in which the suit is instituted, the plaintiff shall present, with his plaint, an application for the issue of such warrant.

Act XII of 1881.

(b) When such application is presented, the Court shall examine the plaintiff or his agent, and inspect the documents adduced by him in support of his claim; and, if primâ facie it appear to the Court that the claim is well founded, and that, if a summons be issued, the defendant will abscond instead of appearing to answer the claim, the Court may issue a warrant for his arrest.

(c) The Court shall fix a reasonable time for the return of the warrant, and the officer entrusted with the service thereof shall, at the time of arresting the defendant, deliver to him one of the copies or concise statements mentioned in section 112D, and a notice requiring him, if he contest the claim, to bring with him any document upon which he relies in support of his defence.

(d) Every warrant issued and notice delivered under this section shall be respectively in the forms (E) and (F) in the first schedule hereto annexed, or to the like effect.

Procedure after arrest of defendant.

120. If a defendant be arrested under the warrant of arrest, he shall be brought with all convenient speed before the Court.

Procedure when defendant is brought before Court under warrant.

121. When a defendant is brought before the Court under warrant, the Court shall, with all convenient speed, proceed to try the case in the manner hereinafter provided; and, if the suit cannot be at once adjudicated, the Court may, if it think fit, require the defendant to give security for his appearance whenever the same may be required at any time whilst the suit is pending, or until execution of the final decree which may be passed thereon, and may commit him to the civil jail to be there detained until he furnishes such security, or deposits such sum, as the Court orders.

Form of security-bond.

The security-bond shall be in the form (G) contained in the first schedule hereto annexed, or to the like effect.

Procedure when defendant cannot be arrested under warrant.

122. If the defendant cannot be arrested under the warrant, the Court, on the application of the plaintiff, shall either postpone the case for such period as to it seems proper, in order that the plaintiff may apply within the said period for another warrant to be issued for the arrest of the defendant, or shall forthwith issue a proclamation, to be affixed in its own office and at the residence of the defendant, appointing a day for the hearing of the case, which shall not be less than ten days from the date of the publication of the notice, at the residence of the defendant.

If the defendant appear in pursuance of the proclamation, he shall be dealt with as provided in the last preceding section.

Compensation for arrest applied for without reasonable cause.

123. If it appear to the Court that the arrest of the defendant was applied for without reasonable cause, the Court may, in its decree, award to him such sum, not exceeding one hundred rupees, as it may deem a reasonable compensation for any injury or loss which he has sustained by reason of such arrest, or of his detention in jail during the pendency of the suit.

Consequence of neither party appearing on day fixed.

124. If, on the day fixed by the summons or proclamation for the appearance of the defendant, or on any subsequent day to which the hearing of the case may be adjourned prior to the recording of an issue for trial as hereinafter provided, neither of the parties appear in person or by an agent, the case may be struck off, with liberty to the plaintiff to bring a fresh suit, unless precluded by the rules herein contained for the limitation of suits. Act XII. of 1881.

125. If, on any such day, only the defendant appears, the Court shall pass judgment against the plaintiff by default, unless the defendant admits the plaintiff's right to the relief which he claims, in which case the Court shall proceed to give judgment for the plaintiff upon such admission without costs:

Judgment by default.

Judgment upon admission of claim.

Provided that such judgment, if there be more than one defendant, shall be only against the defendant who makes the admission.

Proviso.

126. If on any such day the plaintiff only appear, the Court, upon proof that the summons or proclamation has been duly served according to the provisions of this Act, shall proceed to examine the plaintiff or his agent, and, after considering the allegations of the plaintiff and any documentary or other evidence adduced by him, may either dismiss the case, or postpone the hearing of it to a future day for the attendance of any witness the plaintiff may wish to call, or may pass judgment ex parte against the defendant.

If plaintiff only appear, Court may proceed ex parte.

127. If the defendant appear on any subsequent day to which the hearing of the suit is postponed under the last preceding section, the Court may, upon such conditions, if any, as to costs or otherwise as it thinks proper, allow the defendant to be heard in answer to the suit as if he had appeared on the day fixed for his attendance.

If defendant appear on adjourned hearing, Court may allow him to be heard in answer.

128. (a) No appeal shall lie from a judgment passed ex parte against a defendant who has not appeared, or from a judgment against a plaintiff by default for non-appearance.

No appeal from judgment ex parte or by default;

(b) But in all such cases, if the party against whom judgment has been given appears either in person or by agent, if a plaintiff, within fifteen days from the date of the Court's decree, and if a defendant, within fifteen days after any process for enforcing the judgment has been executed, or at any earlier period, and shows sufficient cause for his previous non-appearance, and satisfies the Court that there has been a failure of justice, the Court may, upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks proper, revive the suit, and alter or rescind the judgment according to the justice of the case.

but Court may revive suit, and alter or rescind judgment.

(c) But no judgment shall be reversed or altered without previously summoning the adverse party to appear and be heard in support of it.

Adverse party to be summoned.

129. When both parties appear in person or by agent on the day named in the summons, or upon any subsequent day to which the hearing of the case may be adjourned for sufficient reason to be recorded by the Court, the Court shall proceed to examine such of the parties as may be present, and either party or his agent may cross-examine the other party or his agent.

Examination.

130. If either of the parties be not bound to attend personally, any agent by whom he appears, or any person accompanying such agent, may be examined and cross-examined in like manner as the party himself would have been if he had attended personally.

Act XII. of 1881.

Defendant may file written statement.

131. At the time of the examination, the defendant may, if he think fit, file a written statement in his defence.

Such written statement shall be subscribed and verified in the manner hereinbefore provided for subscribing and verifying plaints, and, if it contains any averment, which the person making the verification knows or believes to be false, or does not know or believe to be true, he shall be punishable according to the law for the punishment of giving or fabricating false evidence.

Verification of written statement
False averment.

132. The examination of the parties or their agents, or such other persons as aforesaid, shall be according to the law for the time being in force relative to the examination of witnesses in the Civil Courts.

Mode of examination.

The substance of the examination shall be reduced to writing in the mother-tongue of the presiding officer, and shall be filed with the record.

Witness produced may be examined.

133. If either of the parties produce a witness on such day, the presiding officer may take the evidence of such witness.

Document relied on by defendant to be produced at first hearing.

134. If the defendant rely on any document in support of his defence, he shall deliver the same into Court at the first hearing of the suit; and, unless such document be so delivered, or its non-production be sufficiently excused, or unless the presiding officer see fit to extend the time for delivering the same, it shall not afterwards be admitted.

Decree after examination if no further evidence is required.

135. If, after the examination required by section 129, and also the examination of any witness who may attend to give evidence on behalf of either of the parties, and after a consideration of the documentary evidence adduced, a decree can be properly made without further evidence, the Court shall make its decree accordingly.

Party to attend in person when his agent is unable to answer.

136. If, on such examination as aforesaid, either party is absent, and his agent is unable to answer any material question relating to the case which the Court is of opinion that the party whom he represents ought to answer, and is likely to be able to answer if interrogated in person, the Court may postpone the hearing of the case to a future day, and direct that the party whose agent was unable to answer as aforesaid shall attend in person on such day; and, if such party fails to appear in person on the day appointed, the Court may pass judgment as in case of default, or make such other order as it deems proper in the circumstances of the case.

Judgment or order if he fail to appear.

Procedure when parties at issue on question requiring evidence.

137. If, on such examination as aforesaid, it appear that the parties are at issue on any question upon which it is necessary to hear further evidence, the Court shall declare and record such issue, and shall fix a convenient day for the examination of witnesses and the trial of the suit; and the trial shall take place on that day, unless there be sufficient reason for adjourning it, which reason shall be recorded by the Court.

Parties to produce witnesses or procure attendance by summons.

138. The parties shall produce their witnesses on the day of trial, and if either party require assistance to procure the attendance of a witness on such day, either to give evidence or to produce a document, he shall apply to the Court in sufficient time before the day fixed for the trial, to enable the witness to be summoned to attend on that day; and the Court shall thereupon issue a summons requiring such witness to attend.

Provisions regarding attendance, examination, &c., of witnesses.

139. The law and rules for the time being in force relating to the evidence of witnesses, for procuring the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents, and for the examination, remuneration, and punishment of witnesses, whether parties to the case or not, in cases before the Civil Courts, shall, except so far as may be inconsistent with the provisions herein contained, apply to suits under this Act.

Case to be struck off if neither party appears.

140. If, on the day fixed for the trial of any issue, neither of the parties appear, the case may be struck off, with liberty to the plaintiff to bring a fresh suit.

Trial of issue ex parte.

If on any such day one only of the parties appear, the issue may be tried and determined in the absence of the other party, upon such evidence as may be then before the Court.

Provisions to apply when suits are instituted or defended on behalf of landholders by agents.

141. When suits under this Act are instituted or defended by agents employed in the collection of rent or management of land, in the name and on behalf of the landholders by whom they are so employed, all the provisions of this Act, by which the personal appearance or attendance of parties to a suit is or may be required, shall be applicable to such agents; and anything which by this Act is required or permitted to be done by a party in person may be done by any such agent as aforesaid.

Processes served on such agents.

Processes served on any such agent shall be as effectual for all purposes in relation to the suit as if the same had been served on the landholder in person; and all the provisions of this Act relative to the service of processes on a party to the suit shall be applicable to the service of processes on such agent.

Personal attendance of female plaintiff or defendant when not required.

142. A female plaintiff or defendant shall not be required to attend in person, if she is of a rank or class which, according to the custom and manners of the country, would render it improper for her to appear in public.

Parties may employ agents.

143. Any party to a suit may employ an authorized agent to conduct the case on his behalf;

Personal attendance when not excused.

but the employment of such agent shall not excuse the personal attendance of the plaintiff or defendant, in cases where his personal attendance is required by the summons, or any order of the Court;

Fee for agents not chargeable as costs.

and no fee for any agent shall be charged as part of the costs of suit in any case under this Act, unless the Court certifies that, under the circumstances of the case, such fee is proper to be allowed.

Court may grant time or adjourn hearing.

144. The Court may in any case grant time to the plaintiff or defendant to proceed in the prosecution or defence of a suit,

Act XII. of 1881.

and may also, from time to time, in order to the production of further evidence, or for other sufficient reason to be recorded by the Court, adjourn the hearing of any case to such day as to it may seem fit.

Court may cause local enquiry and report, or may itself enquire.

145. The presiding officer may, at any stage of a case, cause a local enquiry and report respecting the matter in dispute to be made by any officer subordinate to him, or by any other officer of Government, with the consent of the authority to whom such officer is subordinate, or may himself proceed to the spot, and make such local enquiry in person.

Provisions applied to such enquiry.

The provisions of the law for the time being in force relative to local enquiries by Amins or Commissioners, under orders of the Civil Courts, shall apply to any local enquiry made by any officer under this section, and, so far as they are applicable, to enquiries made by the presiding officer of the Court in person.

Record in case of enquiry by Court.

In the latter case the presiding officer, after completing the enquiry, shall record such observations as appear to him appropriate, and the observations so recorded shall form part of the proceedings in the suit.

Defendant may pay admitted debt and costs into Court.

146. The defendant in any suit under this Act may pay into Court such sum of money as he thinks a full satisfaction for the demand of the plaintiff, together with the costs incurred by the plaintiff up to the time of such payment, and such sums shall be paid to the plaintiff.

Plaintiff chargeable with subsequent costs if he proceed and recover no further sum.

If the defendant deposit less than the sum claimed, and the plaintiff elect to proceed in the case, and ultimately recover no further sum than has been paid into Court, the plaintiff shall be charged with any costs incurred by the defendant in the suit after such payment.

No interest to plaintiff after date of deposit by defendant.

147. No interest shall be allowed to a plaintiff on any sum paid by the defendant into the Court from the date of such payment, whether such sum be in full of the plaintiff's claim, or fall short thereof.

In suits where right to receive rent is disputed, third person who has received it may be made a party.

148. When, in any suit between a landholder and a tenant under this Act, the right to receive the rent of the land or tenure cultivated or held by the tenant is disputed on the ground that some third person has actually and in good faith received and enjoyed such rent before and up to the time when the right to sue accrued, such third person may be made a party to the suit, and the question of such receipt and enjoyment of the rent by such third person may be enquired into, and the suit shall be decided according to the result of such enquiry:

Saving of right to sue in Civil Court to prove title to rent.

Provided that the decision of the Court shall not affect the right of either party entitled to the rent of such land to establish his title by suit in the Civil Court, if instituted within one year from the date of the decision.

149. Whenever a decree is given for the ejectment of a tenant, or the cancelment of his lease, on account of any act or omission by which the land in his occupation has been damaged, or which is inconsistent with the purpose for which the land has been let, the Court may, if it think fit, allow him to repair such damage within one month from the date of the decree, or order him to pay such compensation, within such time, or make such other order in the case, as the Court thinks fit, Act XII. of 1881.

Court may allow tenant to repair damage caused by certain acts or omissions.

and if such damage be so repaired, or compensation so paid, or order obeyed, the decree shall not be executed.

Delivery of judgment.

150. Every judgment under this chapter shall be pronounced in open Court.

151. The judgment shall be written in the mother-tongue of the presiding officer, and shall contain the reasons for the same, and shall be dated and signed by the presiding officer at the time it is pronounced :

Its language and contents.

Provided that, where his mother-tongue is not English, the judgment may be written in English, if he is able to write a clear and intelligible decision in that language.

When it may be in English.

151A. The judgment shall direct by whom the costs of each party are to be paid, whether by himself or by any other party to the suit, and whether in whole or in what part or proportion.

To direct payment of costs.

151B. Except as hereinbefore provided, the Court shall have full power to give and apportion costs of every suit in any manner it thinks fit ; and the fact that the Court has no jurisdiction to try the case is no bar to the exercise of such power ; but if the Court directs that the costs of any suit shall not follow the event, the Court shall state its reasons in writing.

Power of Court as to costs.

151C. The Court may direct that the costs payable to one party by another shall be set off against sums admitted or found in the suit to be due from the former to the latter.

Costs may be set-off.

151D. Except as hereinbefore provided, the Court may give interest at any rate not exceeding six per cent. per annum on any sum decreed or found to be due or on costs.

Power to give interest.

152. Every officer invested with powers under this Act may hold a Court for hearing and determining suits under this Act in any place* within the limits of the district to which he is appointed.

Power to hold Court in any place within district.

Every hearing shall be in open Court, and the parties to the suit or their authorized agents shall have due notice to attend in such place.

CHAPTER VII.

Procedure in Execution of Decrees in Suits.

153. If the decree be for the ejectment of any tenant from land occupied by him, the decree shall be executed by giving the possession or occupancy of the land to the person entitled by the decree thereto.

Mode of executing decree for ejectment of tenant.

* As to the places where the Board of Revenue may sit, see Act XX. of 1890, s. 63.

Act XII. of 1881.

Magistrate to give it effect in case of opposition.

If any opposition is made to the execution of the order for giving such possession or occupancy, by the party against whom the order is made, the Magistrate, on the application of the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector, shall give effect to the same.

Power to order detention in, or commitment to, civil jail in certain cases.

154. If the decree be for the payment of arrears of rent or revenue, or of money, and the defendant has been committed to jail, or appear in Court pursuant to the conditions of any security bond given under section 121, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector may order that he be detained in, or committed to, the civil jail, unless he immediately pays into Court the amount of the decree with costs, or otherwise complies with the terms of the decree.

Process against surety on failure to deliver judgment-debtor in to custody.

155. If the judgment-debtor has given security for his appearance, and is not present when judgment is pronounced, and the surety fails to deliver him into custody when required so to do, process of execution may be taken out against the surety in the same manner as if a decree for the amount due by the debtor had been passed against the surety.

Process of execution against person or property, but not both.

156. (a) A writ of execution may be issued against either the person or the property of a judgment-debtor;

but process shall not be issued simultaneously against both person and property.

Applications on which it may issue.

(b) Such writ may be issued on the oral application of the judgment-creditor or his agent, made at the time the decree is passed, or thereafter, upon the written application of the judgment-creditor or his agent.

Form of writ of execution.

(c) Writ of execution against the person or moveable property of a debtor shall be in the form (H) or (I) contained in the first schedule hereto annexed, or to the like effect.

Execution against moveable property.

157. Any moveable property required to be seized under an execution shall, if practicable, be described in a list to be furnished by the judgment-creditor;

but, if the creditor is unable to furnish such list, he may apply for a general attachment of the debtor's effects, to the amount of the judgment and costs.

In either case, the property to be seized shall be pointed out to the officer entrusted with execution of the process by the creditor or his agent:

Articles exempted from attachment.

Provided that no implements of husbandry, or cattle actually employed in agriculture, or tools of artisans, or necessary wearing apparel of the judgment-debtor, his wife, or children, shall be attached under this section.

Date and duration of writs.

158. Every writ of execution shall bear date on the day on which it is signed by the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector, and shall continue in force for such period as he may direct (not being more than sixty days) calculated from such date.

Act XII. of 1881.

Second and successive writs.

159. Second and successive writs of execution may be issued by order of the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector on the application of the judgment-creditor, after the expiration of the period fixed for the continuance in force of a previous warrant.

After one year execution not to issue without notice to party concerned.

160. Process of execution shall not be issued upon any judgment, without previous notice to the party against whom execution is applied for, if, when application for the issue of the process is made, a period of more than one year has elapsed from the date of the judgment, or from the date of the last previous application for execution.

Execution not to issue against heir or representative of deceased party without notice.

161. Execution on a judgment shall not issue against the heir or other representative of a deceased party, unless notice to appear and be heard has been previously served on such heir or other representative.

No process of execution after three years, unless judgment be for sum exceeding 500 rupees.

162. No process of execution shall be issued on a judgment under this Act, when the application for the issue of such process is made after the lapse of three years from the date of such judgment, unless the judgment be for a sum exceeding five hundred rupees;

Regulation of period in such case.

in which case the period within which execution may be had shall be regulated by the general rules in force in respect to the period allowed for the execution of decrees of the Civil Court.

Procedure in execution of writ against person.

163. If a writ issues for taking any person in execution, the officer charged with the execution of the writ shall bring him with all convenient speed before the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector.

If such person does not then deposit in Court the full amount specified in the writ, or make such arrangement for the payment of the same as is satisfactory to the judgment-creditor, or satisfy the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector that he has no present means of paying the same amount, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector shall send him to the civil jail, there to remain for such time as may be directed by a warrant addressed to the keeper of the jail, unless in the meanwhile he pays the full amount for the payment of which he is liable under the decree:

Provided that the time for which a debtor may be confined in execution of a decree under this Act shall not exceed six weeks when the amount decreed (exclusive of costs) does not exceed fifty rupees, or six months in any other case.*

No person to be imprisoned a second time under same judgment.

164. (a) Any person once discharged from jail shall not be imprisoned a second time under the same judgment.

---

* This proviso has been substituted for the original by Act VI. of 1888, s. 10 (a).

Act XII. of 1881.

(b) If the amount due under the decree does not exceed one hundred rupees, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector may declare him absolved from further liability under that decree, and such liability shall thereupon be extinguished.

When further liability extinguished.

(c) In other cases the discharge shall not extinguish the liability of the discharged person under the decree, or exempt any property belonging to him from attachment in execution of the same.

When not extinguished.

165. Every person applying for the issue of a warrant of arrest under section 119, or suing out process of execution against the person of any judgment-debtor, shall deposit in Court, when the warrant issues, diet-money for thirty days, at such rate, not exceeding two annas per diem, as the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector may direct, unless for any special reason he directs that deposit be made at a higher rate, which shall not exceed four annas per diem.

Diet-money to be deposited at time of issue of warrant.

166. Payment of diet-money at the same rate shall be made previously to the commencement of each succeeding month of the imprisonment, on failure of which the party confined shall be discharged.

Effect of non-payment of diet-money in advance during imprisonment.

167. All diet-money spent in providing subsistence for any prisoner shall be added to the costs in the suit, Diet-money spent to be costs in suit.

and any diet-money not so spent shall be returned to the person who deposited the same.

Refund of remainder.

168. In executing a writ of execution against the moveable property of a debtor liable under this Act, the officer charged with the execution of the writ shall prepare a list of the property pointed out by the judgment-creditor, and shall publish a proclamation, specifying the day upon which the sale is intended to be held, together with a copy of the said list, at the intended place of sale and at the residence of the debtor.

Procedure in executing writ against moveable property.

A copy of the said proclamation and list shall be sent to the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector, and shall be affixed in his office.

169. No moveable property taken in execution under this Act shall be sold before the expiration of ten days next after the day on which such property is so taken.

Time to elapse before sale of moveable property.

Until such sale the property shall be deposited in some fit place, or it may remain in custody of some fit person approved by the officer executing the writ.

Custody meanwhile.

The provisions of sections 74 to 78 (both inclusive) and section 80 shall, so far as they can be made applicable, apply to the sale of the property as if the terms 'distress,' 'distrained property,' and 'distrainer,' included respectively the execution of a writ against moveable property, moveable property taken in execution of a writ, and a judgment-creditor.*

Provisions applied to sale.

170. No irregularity in publishing or conducting a sale of any moveable property under an execution shall vitiate such sale.

Sale not vitiated by irregularity.

* This paragraph has been substituted by Act XIV. of 1886, s. 4.

But any person injured by such irregularity may recover compensation for such injury by suit in the Civil Court:

Right to sue for compensation.

Limitation.

Provided that such suit be brought within one year from the date of sale.

171. In the execution of any decree for the payment of arrears of rent or revenue, or of money, under this Act, if satisfaction of the judgment cannot be obtained by execution against the person or moveable property of the debtor, the judgment-creditor may apply for execution against any immoveable property belonging to such debtor, except the materials of buildings actually occupied by a debtor who is an agriculturist.

In executing decrees for money, when execution may be applied for against immoveable property.

172. If the immoveable property against which execution is applied for be other than a mahál, or share of a mahal, process shall be issued in the same manner as for the attachment and sale of moveable property: and the provisions of sections 168, 169, and 170, shall be applicable.

Process when the immoveable property is not a mahál.

In the event of the sale of such property being completed, possession thereof shall be given to the auction-purchaser by the Collector of the District in which such property is situate.

Possession to be given to auction-purchaser.

173 When such property is a mahál, or a share of a mahál, the decree shall be sent for execution to the Collector of the District in which such property is situate,

Procedure when it is a mahál.

and if the judgment-debtor satisfies the Collector of the District that there is reasonable ground to believe that the amount of the judgment-debt may be raised by mortgage of the property, or by letting it on lease, or by disposing by private sale of a portion of the property or any other property belonging to the judgment-debtor, the Collector of the District may, on the application of the judgment-debtor, postpone the sale for such period as the Collector of the District thinks proper to enable the judgment-debtor to raise the amount:

and if the judgment-debtor satisfies his creditor, the execution shall be stayed, and the Collector of the District shall report the fact to the Court by which the decree was made.

174. If the judgment-debtor obtaining a postponement of the sale fails to satisfy his creditor within the period so fixed, or, if the judgment-debtor does not apply for, or applies for but does not obtain, a postponement of the sale, and the Collector of the District considers that the sale of the mahál or share is inexpedient, and that satisfaction of the decree may be made by means of a temporary alienation of the property,

Procedure where judgment-debtor fails to satisfy creditor within further time, or Collector thinks sale inexpedient.

the Collector of the District shall cause an accurate rent-roll of the property to be prepared, and ascertain the annual income derivable therefrom.

If, in the opinion of the Collector of the District, such income is sufficient to pay off the judgment-debt with interest at six per cent. per annum, within any period not exceeding fifteen years from the date of the decree, he may transfer the property to the judgment-creditor, or if the judgment-creditor refuse to take it, to some other person, or he may hold it under his own management, for such period, not exceeding fifteen years, as may be sufficient for the recovery of the debt with interest as aforesaid, and on such conditions as to the payment of such debt and interest as he deems expedient.

Power to hold property under management.

Orders passed under this section and section 173 shall be subject to revision by the Commissioner of the Division and the Board, but shall not be open to appeal to the Civil Court.

174A. When the property of a judgment-debtor which is transferred or held under management under section 174 includes any sír-land of such debtor, he shall, until such property is restored to him, be treated as an ex-proprietary tenant of such sír-land under section 7.

Proprietor to be treated as ex-proprietary tenant of sír-land.

175. If, in the opinion of the Collector of the District, the recovery of the debt under section 174 is impossible, or if the sale of the property appear to him advisable on other grounds, he shall report, through the Commissioner of the Division, the case for orders to the Board.

Report of case to Board.

176. On the receipt of such report, the Board may make, or cause to be made, such further endeavours for the recovery of the debt under the provisions of section 174, as to it may seem practicable.

Procedure on receipt of report.

177. If it appear to the Board that the debt cannot be recovered under section 174, or if the sale of the property appear to it advisable on other grounds, it shall order the property to be sold, in which case the sale shall be made under the rules in force for the sale of land for arrears of land-revenue, but without prejudice to the incumbrances (if any) to which such property may be subject.

Power to order sale of property.

178. If, before the day fixed for any sale of any property under this Act, a third party appear before the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector, and claim a right or interest to or in any of the property, he shall examine such party or his agent, according to the law for the time being in force relative to the examination of witnesses;

Examination of third party claiming interest in property.

and, if he see sufficient reason for so doing, may stay the sale of such property.

Stay of sale.

179. The Collector of the District or Assistant Collector may adjudicate upon such claim, and make such order as he thinks fit between the claimant and the plaintiff and defendant in the original suit.

Adjudication of such claims.

In trying such claim, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector shall be guided by the rules contained in this Act, so far as they may be applicable.

Rules applied.

180. If the claimant fail to establish his right to the property taken in execution, the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector may, at the time of disposing of the case, order him to pay to the judgment-creditor the costs of the proceedings on the claim, and also such sum as the Collector or Assistant Collector thinks sufficient to cover any loss of interest or damage which the judgment-creditor may have sustained by reason of the postponement of the sale of the property. Act XII. of 1881.

Compensation awardable against claimant failing to establish right.

No appeal from order under section 179 or 180.

181. (a) No appeal shall lie from any order passed under section 179 or section 180 by the Collector of the District.

Right to sue in Civil Court.

(b) But the party against whom the same is passed may institute a suit in the Civil Court to establish his right at any time within one year from the date of the order;

Proviso.

(c) Provided that, if the order be for the sale of the property taken in execution, and the property is moveable, the suit shall not be for the recovery of such property, but shall be for compensation from the judgment-creditor by whom it was brought to sale.

CHAPTER VIII.

APPEAL, RE-HEARING, AND REVIEW.

(A.)—From Decrees in Suits.

Judgment of Collector of District or Assistant Collector of first class when final.

182. In suits under this Act, tried and decided by a Collector of a District or an Assistant Collector of the first class, his judgment shall be final.

Appeal from decision of Assistant Collector of second class.

183. All decisions of the Assistant Collector of the second class in suits mentioned in section 93 shall be applicable to the Collector of the District whose order thereon shall be final.

Time for presentation.

184. The petition of appeal shall be presented to the Collector of the District within thirty days from the date of the decree.

Procedure on appeal.

185. The Collector of the District may either dismiss the petition, or may fix a day for hearing the appeal; and in that case he shall cause notice of the same to be served on the respondent in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for the service of summons.

If, on the day fixed for hearing the appeal, or any other day to which the hearing may be adjourned, the appellant does not appear in person or by an agent, the appeal may be dismissed for default.

If the appellant appears, and the respondent does not appear in person or by an agent, the appeal may be heard ex parte.

Re-admission of appeal.

186. If an appeal be dismissed for default of prosecution, the appellant may within fifteen days from the date of the dismissal, apply to the Collector of the District to re-admit the appeal; and if it be proved to the satisfaction of the Collector of the District that the appellant was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing when the appeal was called on for hearing, the Collector of the District may re-admit the appeal.

Act XII. of 1881.

Judgment in appeal.

187. After hearing the appeal, the Collector of the District shall give judgment in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for giving judgment in original suits.

Re-hearing of suits not open to appeal.

188. In suits in which the judgment of the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector is final, as provided in section 182, he may, upon the application of either party, if preferred within thirty days from the date of the decision, order the re-hearing of a suit, upon the ground of the discovery of new evidence or matter material to the issue of the case, which the applicant had no knowledge of, or could not produce, at the time of trial.

Appeal to District Judge.

189. Notwithstanding anything contained in sections 182 and 183, an appeal shall lie to the District Judge from the decision of the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector of the first class in all suits mentioned in section 93, in which the amount or value of the subject-matter exceeds one hundred rupees, or

"in which the rent payable by the tenant has been a matter in issue, and has been determined, or"*

in which the proprietary title to land has been determined between parties making conflicting claims thereto:

Provided that, where the amount or value of the subject-matter of the suit exceeds five thousand rupees, the appeal shall lie to the High Court.

Appeal to High Court.

Rules as to time of presentation, &c., to apply.

190. The rules for the time being in force in regard to the time within which appeals from the decisions of Civil Courts may be received, and to the manner in which such appeals are heard and determined, and to all proceedings which may be had in respect of such appeals, shall be applicable to appeals to the District Judge or High Court under this Act.

Special appeal to High Court from District Judge.

191. The decisions of District Judges passed in regular appeal under this Act shall be open to special appeal to the High Court, in the same manner, and subject to the same rules, as the decisions of District Judges passed in regular appeal are open to special appeal under the Code of Civil Procedure† and the Indian Limitation Act, 1877.

(B.)—From orders on Applications or relating to the Execution of Decrees.

(1) Assistant Collectors of the Second-class.

Appeal from Assistant Collector of second class.

192. An appeal to the Collector of the District shall lie from all orders passed under this Act by an Assistant Collector of the second class.

(2) Assistant Collectors of the First-class.

Appeal from orders of Assistant Collectors of first class on certain applications.

193. An appeal to the Commissioner of the Division shall lie from all orders passed by an Assistant Collector of the first class,

* The words quoted have been inserted by Act XIV. of 1886, s. 5.

(a) on applications under section 99;*
(b) on applications under section 100.

Appeal from other orders of Assistant Collector of first class.

194. An appeal to the Collector of the District shall lie from all† orders passed under this Act by an Assistant Collector of the first class, except—

(a) orders on applications mentioned in section 98;
(b) orders on applications mentioned in "sections 99 and 100;" ‡
(c) orders passed in the course of a suit and relating to the trial thereof.

Final orders of Assistant Collector of first class.

195. § The orders of an Assistant Collector of the first class on applications mentiond in section 98 shall be final.

(3) Collector of the District.

Appeal from certain orders of Collector of District.

196. An appeal to the Commissioner of the Division shall lie from orders passed by the Collector of the District,

(a) under section 99;‖
(b) under section 100.

In all other cases orders under this Act passed by the Collector of the District shall be final.‖

(4) Commissioner of the Division.

Finality of orders of Commissioner of Division.

197. Save as provided by section 198, the orders of the Commissioner of the Division on appeals shall be final.‖

Appeal to Board from his decisions on appeals against orders on applications mentioned in section 100.

198. An appeal from the decisions of the Commissioner of Division, on appeals against orders passed by the Collector of the District or Assistant Collector on the applications mentioned in "sections 99 and 100," ¶ shall lie to the Board, except where the Commissioner of the Division dismisses the appeal.

In such case the provisions of section 199 shall apply.

Power of Board to call for cases, and pass orders thereon.

199. The Board may, "notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained," at any time call for any case (other than a suit mentioned in section 189) which has come before any Commissioner of a Division, or any Court subordinate to him, and pass such orders thereon consistent with this Act, as the Board thinks fit.

Act XII. of 1881.

Time for appealing.

200. No appeal shall be brought to the Collector of the District after the expiration of thirty days, or to the Commissioner of the Division after the expiration of sixty days, or to the Board of Revenue after ninety days, from the date of the order complained of.

Admission of appeals after prescribed period.

201. Any appeal under this Act may be admitted after the period of limitation prescribed therefor, when the appellant satisfies the officer to whom he appeals that he had sufficient cause for not presenting the appeal within such period.

No appeal shall lie against an order under this section admitting an appeal.

(5) Review.

Power of Board to review its orders.

201A. The Board may review, and may rescind, alter, or confirm any order made by itself, or by a single member, on the application of one of the parties to the case, if preferred within ninety days from the passing of the order.

Reviewing of applications not open to appeal.

201B. In the case of any application in which the order of the Commissioner, Collector of the District, or Assistant Collector, is final, as provided in sections 195, 196, and 197, such Commissioner, Collector, or Assistant Collector, as the case may be, may, upon the petition of either party, if presented within thirty days from the date of the decision, review his order upon the ground of the discovery of new evidence or matter material to the issue of the case which the applicant had no knowledge of, or could not produce, at the time of trial.

CHAPTER IX.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Time to be excluded in computing limitation-period.

202. In computing the period of limitation prescribed for any suit under this Act, the day on which the right to sue accrued shall be excluded.

In computing the period of limitation prescribed for any appeal under this Act, the day on which the judgment or order complained of was pronounced, and the time requisite for obtaining a copy of the decree or order appealed against, shall be excluded.

Rule as to last day for presentation or deposit, when Court is closed on such day.

203. Whenever a Court is closed on the last day of any period provided in this Act for the presentation of any memorandum of appeal, or for the deposit or payment of any money in or into Court, the day on which the Court re-opens shall be deemed to be such last day.

Power to state case involving point of law for opinion of District Judge.

204. (a) If in any suit instituted, or on any application made, under this Act, it appears to the presiding officer that any question in issue involving a point of law is more proper for the decision of a Civil Court, such officer, if a Collector of a District, or the Collector of the District on the representation of such officer, may cause a case to be stated for the opinion of the District Judge, who shall hear the case in such manner, as nearly as may be, as is prescribed for the hearing of cases by the High Court by section 619 of the Code of Civil Procedure.*

* This reference to s. 619 of Act X. of 1877 should now be read as applying to s. 619 of Act XIV. of 1882.—See s. 3 of the latter Act.

(b) If the District Judge finds that the case is insufficiently stated, he may return it to the Collector of the District for amendment. Act XII. of 1881.

(c) Subject to any limits of value or time provided by law for cases falling under the Code of Civil Procedure,* an appeal shall lie from the judgment of the District Judge to the High Court.

(d) The District Judge shall return the case with the opinion of the Civil Court to the Collector of the District, and the Revenue Courts shall decide the suit or application in accordance with such opinion.

(e) The costs attending such case shall be dealt with as costs in the suit or on the application in the Revenue Court.

205. (a) If in any suit instituted, or on any appeal presented, in a Civil or Revenue Court, the Judge or presiding officer doubts whether he is precluded by this Act from taking cognizance of the suit or appeal, he may refer the matter to the High Court.

Power to refer to High Court question as to jurisdiction.

(b) On any such reference being made, the High Court may order the Judge or presiding officer, either to proceed with the case, or to return the plaint or appeal for presentation in such other Court as it may in its order declare to be competent to take cognizance of the suit or appeal.

(c) The order of the High Court on any such reference shall be final, and shall not be questioned by the same parties in the same suit.

206. In all suits instituted in any Civil or Revenue Court, in which an appeal lies to the District Judge or High Court, an objection that the suit was instituted in the wrong Court shall not be entertained by the Appellate Court, unless such objection was taken in the Court of first instance; but the Appellate Court shall dispose of the appeal as if the suit had been instituted in the right Court.

Procedure where objection that suit was instituted in wrong Court was not taken in Court of first instance.

207. If in any such suit such objection was taken in the Court of first instance, but the Appellate Court has before it all the materials necessary for the determination of the suit, it shall dispose of the appeal as if the suit had been instituted in the right Court.

Procedure where such objection was taken in Court of first instance.

208. If in any such suit the Appellate Court has not before it the materials necessary for the determination of the suit, it shall proceed under the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure* relating to appeals; but if it remands the suit, or frames and refers issues for trial, or requires additional evidence to be taken by the Court of first instance, it may direct its order either to the Court in which the suit was instituted, or to any other Court competent to entertain the suit, Procedure where, in such cases, the Appellate Court has not materials for determining the suit.

and the objection that the order of a subordinate Appellate Court has been directed to a Court which was not competent to entertain the suit shall not be taken on special appeal.

208A. If, in any suit or application pending before a Revenue Court exercising original, appellate, or revisional jurisdiction under this Act, it appears to such Court that any question in issue is more proper for decision by a Civil Court, such Revenue Court may, by order in writing, require any party to such suit or application to institute, within such time as it may appoint in this behalf, a suit in the Civil Court with a view to obtaining a decision of such question; and, if he fails to comply with such requisition, shall decide such question against him:

If he institutes such suit, the Revenue Court shall dispose of the suit or application pending before it in accordance with the final decision of the Civil Court of first instance or appeal (as the case may be) upon such question.

Suits by co-sharer against lambardár for share of profits.

209. In any suit brought by a co-sharer against a lambardár for a share of the profits, the Court may award to the plaintiff, not only a share of the profits actually collected, but also a sum equal to the plaintiff's share in the profits which, through gross negligence or misconduct, the lambardár has omitted to collect.

Tenant's power to implead persons claiming through landholder.

210. In any application made by a tenant against a landholder to recover possession of a holding, the plaintiff may join as a defendant any other person in possession of the holding, who may claim title through the landholder.

Landholder's power to implead persons claiming through tenant.

In any suit instituted, or application made, by a landholder to eject a tenant, the plaintiff may join as a defendant any other person in possession of the holding, who may claim title through the tenant.

Power of Local Government to make rules.

211. The Local Government may, from time to time, make rules consistent with this Act—

(a) for the guidance of officers in determining, under sections 13, 14, 15, 17, 18, and 20, the rent payable by tenants,

(b) for the guidance of officers assessing rent under section 30,

(c) as to the dates on which instalments of rent shall fall due,

(d) as to the procedure to be followed on all applications under section 95, (e) as to the transfer of appeals to Collectors under section 100B.*

All such rules shall be published in the local official gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

Power of Board to make rules.

The Board, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, may, from time to time, make rules, consistent with the provisions herein contained, for the guidance of all persons in matters connected with the enforcement of this Act.

Instalments when to be deemed in arrear.

212 When the Local Government has made a rule fixing the date on which any instalment of rent shall fall due, no such instalment shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be in arrear, unless it remains unpaid after the date fixed by such rule.

Act XIII. of 1881.

ACT XIII. OF 1881.

THE FORT WILLIAM ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 11TH MARCH 1881.

An Act to provide for the Better Government of Fort William.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to give power to make rules for the better government of Fort William in Bengal, and to provide for the establishment of a Court within the said Fort for the trial of persons charged with breaches of such rules; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Fort William Act, 1881;"

Commencement.

and it shall come into force on the first day of April, 1881.

But nothing herein contained shall be deemed to confer jurisdiction over any persons (other than artificers, labourers, sutlers, and followers) to whom the Army Discipline and Regulation Act, 1879, or the Indian Articles of War, 1869, is or are applicable.

"The Fort."

2.* The Governor-General in Council may, from time to time, by notification in the Gazette of India, define, for the purposes of this Act, the limits of Fort William in Bengal; and in this Act the expression "the Fort" means the area so defined.

Commander-in-Chief may make rules.

3. The Commander-in-Chief in India may, from time to time, with the sanction of the Governor-General in Council, make rules, to be in force within the Fort, in regard to the matters specified in the schedule hereto annexed, and other matters of a like nature, and may by such rules prescribe, as penalties for the infringement thereof, fine which may extend to fifty rupees, or imprisonment for a term which may extend to four days, or both.

When a sentence of fine is passed under any such rule, the term for which the Court directs the offender to be imprisoned in default of payment of such fine may extend to, and shall not exceed, four days.

When any rule is made under this section, a copy thereof, in English and such other languages as the Governor-General in Council may from time to time direct, shall be exhibited in such conspicuous places within the Fort as the officer commanding the Fort may from time to time direct.

Governor-General in Council may invest officer with power to try breaches of rules.

4. The Governor-General in Council may invest any commissioned officer in Her Majesty's Army with power to try persons charged with any infringement of the rules made under section 3.

The officer so invested is hereinafter called the Fort Magistrate.

Procedure to be followed.

5. In all cases under this Act, the Fort Magistrate shall, except as herein otherwise provided, exercise within the Fort the powers, and, as nearly as may be, follow the procedure, conferred on, and prescribed for, a Presidency Magistrate by the Presidency

* Under s. 2 the limits of the Fort have been defined in Notification No. 498, dated Sep. 12, 1884.—See Gazette of India, 13th idem, Pt. I., p. 326.

Magistrates Act, 1877; and, subject to the power conferred by the High Courts Criminal Procedure Act, 1875, section 147, every finding, sentence, or order of such Magistrate under this Act shall be final. Act XIII. of 1881.

Power to arrest without warrant.

6. Any police-officer, or any other person empowered in this behalf by the Governor-General in Council, by name or as a member of a specified class, may arrest without warrant any person who in his sight commits an offence punishable under this Act.

Power to police-officer to release in bail.

Every person so arrested shall be taken to the police-station within the Fort, and shall be detained there until he gives to the police-officer in charge of such station a bond, with or without sureties, as such officer may require, for a sum not exceeding one hundred rupees, to appear before the Fort Magistrate at a time to be specified in such bond, or until he can be brought before such Magistrate.

Jurisdiction of Presidency Magistrates and prosecutions under other laws saved.

7. Nothing in this Act or in any rule made hereunder shall affect the jurisdiction of the Magistrates appointed under the Presidency Magistrates Act, 1877, or shall prevent any person from being prosecuted under any other law for any offence punishable under this Act, or from being liable to any other punishment than is provided for such offence by this Act: Provided that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence.

Limitation of time for prosecutions under Act.

8. No prosecution for any offence under this Act shall be commenced after the expiration of three months next after such offence has been committed.

9. [Repealed by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. I.]

An Act to amend Bengal Regulation VII. of 1828.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend Bengal Regulation VII. of 1828 (for amending the Provisions of Regulation XV. of 1795, and for defining the Authority of the Rajah of Benares in the Mahâls therein referred to) in manner hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Benares Family Domains Act, 1881:"

Commencement of Act.

And it shall come into force on such day as the Lieutenant-Governor of the North-Western Provinces may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint in this behalf.

2. [Repealed by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. I.]

New section substituted for section 3 of same Regulation.

3. In the same Regulation, for section 3, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"3. The superintendence of the said mahâls shall be vested in the Commissioner of the Benares Division, hereinafter called 'the Superintendent.'

Superintendence of mahâls vested in Commissioner.

"The Lieutenant-Governor of the North-Western Provinces may, from time to time, appoint a Deputy Superintendent of the said mahâls, and confer upon him all or any of the powers of the Superintendent, to be exercised by him subject to the general control of the Superintendent."

Amendment of same Regulation, section 7.

4. In the same Regulation, section 7, for the last twenty-two words, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"The orders thus passed by the Superintendent shall be subject to appeal to, and revision by, the Board of Revenue, whose order thereon shall be final, unless altered or set aside by the said Lieutenant-Governor."

Amendment of same Regulation, section 9.

5. In the same Regulation, section 9, for the words "the Regulations at present in force within the Province of Benares" the words "the enactments for the time being in force in the North-Western Provinces" shall be substituted, and after the word "applicable" the words "and the Local Government with the concurrence of the Mahárájá may direct" shall be inserted.

Clause added to section 10 of same Regulation.

6. To section 10 of the same Regulation the following clause shall be added, namely:—

"The Mahárájá may delegate to one or more of his officers the exercise of all or any of the powers vested in him under this section in the whole or any part of the said mahâls."

Amendment of same Regulation, section 11.

7. In the same Regulation, section 11, for the words and figures "Regulation XI., 1822," the words "the enactments for the time being in force in the North-Western Provinces" shall be substituted.

Act XIV. of 1881.

Amendment of same Regulation, section 12.

8. In the same Regulation, section 12, for the words "Boards of Revenue" the words "Commissioners of Divisions and the Board of Revenue" shall be substituted; and, for the words "towards the Board" the words "towards the Commissioner" shall be substituted.

Amendment of same Regulation, section 13.

9. In the same Regulation, section 13, for the words "Governor-General in Council" the words "Board of Revenue" shall be substituted.

Amendment of, and addition to, same Regulation, section 16.

10. In the same Regulation, section 16, for the words "a Native Commissioner shall be maintained by the Rajah in each of the pergunnahs referred to in Regulation XV., 1795," the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"A Native Commissioner, or two or three Native Commissioners, as the said Lieutenant-Governor may, from time to time, direct, shall be maintained by the Mahárájá."

And to the same section the following shall be added, namely:—

"The local limits of the jurisdiction of the Native Commissioners shall be determined by the Mahárájá, and may be altered by him from time to time."

Amendment of same Regulation, section 21.

11. In the same Regulation, section 21, for the words and figures "contained in Regulation XXIII. of 1814" to the end of the section, the following shall be substituted, namely:—"prescribed by the said Lieutenant-Governor under section 22 of this Regulation."

Sections substituted for sections 22 to 26 of same Regulation.

12. For sections 22 to 26, both inclusive, of the same Regulation, the following sections shall be substituted, that is to say:—

Power to make rules.

"22. The said Lieutenant-Governor may, from time to time, make rules consistent with this Regulation—

"(a) to regulate the procedure and powers of the Native Commissioners, and to determine the cases in which, the mode in which, and the authority to or by which, the orders and decisions of such Commissioners shall be subject to appeal or revision, and

"(b) to regulate, in matters not hereinbefore provided for, the administration of the Family Domains in so far as it is entrusted to the Mahárájá;

"such rules shall, when published in the local Gazette, have the force of law:

"Provided that no such rules shall be so published until the opinion of the Mahárájá thereon has been taken and considered by the Lieutenant-Governor.

"In matters not otherwise provided for by the rules made under clause (a), the Code of Civil Procedure shall apply.

Procedure in case of doubt as to Judge's jurisdiction.

"23. If, in any suit instituted or appeal presented under this Regulation in any Court, the Judge or presiding officer doubts whether he has jurisdiction, he may refer the matter to the Board of Revenue; and, on any such reference being made, the said Board may order the Judge or presiding officer either to proceed with the case, or to return the plaint or appeal for presentation in such other Court as it may in its order declare to be competent to take cognizance of the suit or appeal. Act XIV. of 1881.

"The order of the said Board on any such reference shall be final.

Operation of general Acts.

"24. Except as provided by or under this Regulation, or any other enactment for the time being in force,

"(a) the administration of the Family Domains, in so far as it is entrusted to the Mahárájá, shall be regulated by the principles and spirit of the enactments for the time being in force in the North-Western Provinces, and

"(b) the administration of the said Domains, in so far as it has not been so entrusted, shall be regulated by those enactments.

Interpretation-clause.

"25. In this Regulation, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

'Board of Revenue:'

"'Board of Revenue' means the Board of Revenue of the North-Western Provinces, or such officer or officers as may hereafter be lawfully appointed to exercise, within the Province of Benares, the powers of such Board.

'Regulations.'

"'Regulations' includes Acts for the time being in force in the North-Western Provinces."

Validation of past orders, &c.

13. All orders heretofore passed by the Governor-General in Council, or the Lieutenant-Governor of the North-Western Provinces, or any other authority, regarding revisions of settlement or other matters connected with the revenue-administration of the tracts of territory mentioned in the preamble to Bengal Regulation VII. of 1828, shall be deemed to have been passed in accordance with law; and no order or decision purporting to have been passed by any civil or revenue authority under the provisions of that Regulation shall be called in question in any Court.

14. [Repealed by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. I.]

Clause added to Act XV. of 1874, s. 8.

15. In the Laws Local Extent Act, 1874, section 8, after clause (j), the following shall be inserted, namely:—

'(jj) extend to Pargana Bhadohi or Pargana Kera Mángror in the Mirzápúr District, or to Pargana Kaswár Rájá in the Benares District, any law not now in force therein."

Act XV. of 1881.

ACT XV. OF 1881.*

THE INDIAN FACTORIES ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 15TH MARCH 1881.

An Act to regulate labour in Factories.

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient to regulate labour in factories; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Preliminary.

Short title and local extent. 1. This Act may be called "The Indian Factories Act, 1881."

It applies to the whole of British India.†

Interpretation-clause. 2. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

'factory:' "factory" means any premises (other than indigo factories or premises situated on, and used solely for the purposes of, a tea or coffee plantation) wherein is carried on, for not less than four months in the whole in any one year, any process for, or incidental to, making, altering, repairing, ornamenting, finishing, or otherwise adapting for use, transport, or sale, any article or part of an article; and

(a) wherein steam, water, or other mechanical power is used in aid of any such process; and

(b) wherein, subject to the provisions of section 20, not less than fifty persons are on any day simultaneously employed in any manual labour in, or incidental to, any such process; and‡ every part of a factory shall be deemed to be a factory, except any part used exclusively as a dwelling:

"child:" "child" means a person under the age of fourteen§ years:

"mill-gearing:" "mill-gearing" includes every shaft, whether upright, oblique, or horizontal, and every wheel, drum, pulley rope, driving strap, or band by which the motion of the first moving power is communicated to any machine:

"employed." a person‖ who works in a factory, whether for wages or not,¶ in a manufacturing process or handicraft, or in cleaning any part of the factory used for any manufacturing process or handicraft, or in cleaning or oiling any part of the machinery, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to, or connected with, the manufacturing process or handicraft, or connected with the article made or otherwise the subject of the manufacturing process or handicraft therein, shall be deemed to be employed therein within the meaning of this Act. Act XV. of 1881.

Inspectors and certifying surgeons.

Inspectors.

8. The Local Government may in its discretion, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint, "by name or by office,"* such persons as it thinks fit to be Inspectors of factories within such local limits as it may assign to such Inspectors, and may suspend or dismiss any person so appointed.

The District Magistrate shall, in virtue of his office, be an Inspector of all factories, if any, in his district.†

Such Inspectors shall be deemed public servants within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code, and shall be officially subordinate to such authority as the Local Government may from time to time indicate in this behalf.

Powers of Inspector.

4. An Inspector of factories may, within the local limits for which he is appointed,—

(a) enter, with such assistants (if any) as he thinks fit, any factory whenever he has reason to believe that any person is employed therein;

(b) make such examination of the premises and machinery, and of the registers hereinafter prescribed, and take on the spot or otherwise such evidence of any person as such Inspector may deem necessary for carrying out the purposes‡ of this Act;

(c) order that any person shall not be employed in a factory when he has reason to believe that such employment would be in contravention of this Act,— until the age of such person has been certified, in the manner hereinafter provided, to be above nine§ years, or for more than the time allowed by this Act for the employment of children, until his age has been so certified to be above fourteen‖ years.

Certifying surgeons.

5. The civil surgeon or such other person practising medicine or surgery as the Local Government may from time to time appoint in this behalf for any local area (hereinafter called the certifying surgeon) shall, at the request of any person employed or desirous of being employed in a factory situate in such local area, or of the parent or guardian of such person, "and on payment by such person of such fee, if any, as may from time to time be prescribed by the Governor-General in Council by notification in the Gazette of India,"¶ examine such person and

All Operatives.‡

Limited stoppage of work daily in certain circumstances.

5A. (1) In every factory, except a factory in which a system of employment in shifts or sets approved by the local Inspector is in force, there shall, between noon and two o'clock in the afternoon, be a stoppage of work for a full half-hour:

(2) Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to any factory of a class to which the Governor-General in Council has, by notification in the Gazette of India, declared this section not to apply.

Holidays.

5B. (1) No person shall be employed in any factory on a Sunday:

(2) Provided as follows:—

(a) any manager, foreman, mechanic, artisan, or labourer, may be employed in a factory on a Sunday in examining or repairing, or in supervising or aiding in the examination or repair of, any machinery or other thing whatsoever necessary for the carrying on of the work performed in the factory;

(b) any person may be employed in a factory on a Sunday if he has had or will have a holiday for a whole day on one of the three days immediately preceding or succeeding the Sunday;

(c) the Local Government may from time to time, by notification in the official Gazette, declare sub-section (1) of this section not to apply to any factory or class of factories (the factory or class being described in the notification) in which the work performed—

(i) necessitates continuous production for technical reasons, or

(ii) supplies the public with articles of prime necessity which must be made every day, or

(iii) by its nature cannot be carried on except at stated seasons or at times dependent on the irregular action of natural forces; and

(d) the Governor-General in Council may from time to time, by notification in the Gazette of India, declare sub-section (1) of this section not to apply to factories of any class described in the notification.

Women.

Employment of women.

6. (1) No woman shall be employed before five o'clock in the morning, or after eight o'clock in the evening, in any factory in which a system of employment in shifts or sets approved by the local Inspector is not in force.

(2) No woman shall be actually employed in any factory in any one day for more than eleven hours.

---

* The word "nine" has been substituted for the word "seven."—See Act XI. of 1891, s. 9.

† The word "fourteen" has been substituted for the word "twelve."—See Act XI. of 1891, s. 5.

‡ The portion commencing from the heading "All Operatives" to the end of s. 11 has been substituted.—See Act XI. of 1891, s. 10

(3) Every woman shall be allowed an interval or intervals of rest amounting in the aggregate to at least an hour-and-a-half in the day when she is actually employed for eleven hours, and to a proportionately less time when she is actually employed for less than eleven hours. Act XV. of 1881.

(4) The Governor-General in Council may from time to time, by notification in the Gazette of India, declare all or any of the foregoing sub-sections of this section not to apply to factories of any class described in the notification or to women employed in any process so described.

Children.

Employment of children.

7. (1) No child shall be employed in any factory if he is under the age of nine years.

(2) No child shall be employed in any factory before five o'clock in the morning or after eight o'clock in the evening.

(3) No child shall be actually employed in any factory for more than seven hours in any one day.

(4) Every child who is actually employed in any factory for six hours in any one day shall be allowed an interval or intervals of rest amounting in the aggregate to at least half-an-hour.

Prohibition of employment of child in certain dangerous work.

8. No occupier of a factory shall allow any child to clean any part of the mill-gearing or machinery of such factory while the same is in motion, or to work between the fixed and traversing parts of any self-acting machine while such machine is in motion by the action of the steam-engine, water-wheel, or other mechanical power, as the case may be.

Register of children in a factory.

9. The Local Government may direct any occupier of a factory to keep, in such form and with such particulars as such Government may from time to time prescribe, registers of the children (if any) employed in such factory, and of their respective employments.

Women and Children.

Provisions supplementary to sections 6 and 7.

10. (1) The occupier shall set up and maintain, in some conspicuous place in the factory, a printed or written notice, in English and the languages of the district in which the factory is situated, showing the times at which such intervals as are required by section 6, sub-section (3), and section 7, sub-section (4), to be allowed to women and children, respectively, shall be allowed, and the length of each interval.

(2) A woman or child shall not be deemed to be actually employed within the meaning of section 6 or section 7 during any such interval as aforesaid.

Prohibition of employment of woman or child in two factories on same day.

11. No occupier of a factory shall employ therein on any day any woman or child who has to his knowledge already been employed on the same day in any other factory.

Fencing.

Fencing.

12. (a) Every fly-wheel directly connected with a steam-engine,* water-wheel, or other mechanical power in any part of a factory, and every part of a steam-engine or water-wheel,

* Here the word "or" has been omitted, having been repealed.—See Act XI. of 1891, s. 11.

Act XV. of 1881.

(b) every hoist or teagle near which any person is liable to pass or be employed, and

(c) every other part of the machinery or mill-gearing of a factory which may, in the opinion of the local Inspector, be dangerous, if left unfenced, and which he may have ordered to be fenced, shall, while the same is in motion, be kept by the occupier of such factory securely fenced.

Any order under clause (c) may be set aside, on appeal or otherwise, by the Local Government or such authority as it may appoint in this behalf.

Notices.

Notice to be given of accidents.

13. When any accident occurs in a factory causing death or bodily injury, whereby the person injured is prevented from returning to his work in the factory during forty-eight hours next* after the occurrence of the accident, the occupier of such factory, or, in his absence, his principal agent in the management of such factory, shall send such notice of the† accident to such authorities in such form and within such time as the Local Government may from time to time by rule direct.

Person beginning to occupy factory to give notice.

14. Every person shall, within one month after he begins to occupy a factory, send to the local Inspector a written notice containing the name of the factory and of‡ the place where it is situate, the address to which he desires his letters to be addressed, the nature of the work performed in such factory, the nature and amount of the moving power therein, and the name of the person§ under whom the business of the factory is to be carried on.

Penalties.

Penalties.

15.‖ (1) Any person who, in breach of this Act or of any order or rule made thereunder,—

(a) employs any person in any factory;

(b) allows any child to perform the work forbidden by, or to work in contravention of, section 8;

(c) neglects to keep a register in manner prescribed under section 9;

(d) neglects to set up or maintain the notice required by section 10, sub-section (1);

(e) neglects to fence any machinery or mill-gearing in any factory;

(f) neglects to maintain a supply of water for the use of persons employed in any factory;

(g) neglects to ventilate any factory, or to keep any factory in a cleanly state and free from effluvia arising from any drain, privy, or other nuisance;

§ Here the words "(if any)" have been omitted, having been repealed.—See Act XI. of 1891, s. 13 (2).

‖ S. 15 has been substituted.—See Act XI. of 1891, s. 14.

(h) suffers any factory to be so overcrowded, while work is carried on therein, as to be injurious to the health of the persons employed therein; or Act XV, of 1881.

(i) neglects to send any notice or furnish any return, shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees: Provided that—

(i) no prosecution under this sub-section shall be instituted except by, or with the previous sanction of, the local Inspector; and

(ii) no person shall be liable under this sub-section to more than one penalty for any one description of offence committed on the same day, except where two or more persons are employed contrary to the provisions of this Act, in which case one penalty may be imposed in respect of each person so employed.

(2) Any person who corruptly uses, or attempts to use, as a certificate granted to himself under section 5, a certificate granted to another person under that section, or who, having procured a certificate under the said section, corruptly allows it to be used, or an attempt to use it to be made, by another person, shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty rupees.

Burden of proof as to age.

16. Where an act or omission would, if a person were under nine* or fourteen† years of age, be an offence punishable under this Act, and such person is, in the opinion of the Court, apparently under such age, it shall lie on the accused to prove that such person is not under such age.

A declaration in writing by a certifying surgeon, that he has personally examined a person employed in a factory, and believes him to be under or over the age set forth in such declaration, shall, for the purposes of this Act, be admissible as evidence of the age of that person.

Occupier primarily liable for breaches of Act or orders or rules thereunder.

17.‡ Every occupier of a factory shall be deemed primarily liable for any breach therein of this Act or of any order or rule made thereunder; but he may discharge himself from such liability by proof that such breach was committed by some other person without his knowledge or consent, and in that case the person committing such breach shall be liable therefor.

Miscellaneous.

Power to make rule.

18.§ (1) Subject to the control of the Governor-General in Council, the Local Government may from time to time make rules consistent with this Act to provide for—

(a) the fencing of machinery and mill-gearing in factories;

(b) the water-supply to be maintained for the use of persons employed in factories;

---

* The word "nine" has been substituted for the word "seven."—See Act XI. of 1891, s. 9.

‡ S. 17 has been substituted.—See Act XI. of 1891, s. 15.

§ S. 18 has been substituted.—See Act XI. of 1891, s. 16.

Act XV. of 1881.

(c) the ventilation of factories and their cleanliness (including lime-washing, painting, varnishing, and washing) and freedom from effluvia arising from any drain, privy, or other nuisance;

(d) the prevention of such overcrowding of factories, while work is carried on therein, as is likely to be injurious to the health of the persons employed therein;

(e) the inspection of factories;

(f) the manner in which appeals under this Act are to be presented and heard; and (g) otherwise carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) The Governor-General in Council may from time to time make rules requiring occupiers of factories to furnish such returns, occasional or periodical, as may be necessary for the effectual carrying out of this Act.

(3) Such rules shall be published in the local official Gazette or the Gazette of India, as the case may be, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

(4) Before making rules under clause (b), clause (c), or clause (d) of sub-section (1) of this section the Local Government, and before making rules under sub-section (2) of this section the Governor-General in Council, shall publish, in such manner as may in its or his opinion be sufficient for giving information to persons interested, a draft of the proposed rules, with a notice specifying a date (not less remote than two months from the publication of the notice) at or after which the draft will be taken into consideration, and shall consider any objection or suggestion which may be received from any person with respect to the draft before the date so specified.

Crown factories.

19. This Act shall apply to factories belonging to the Crown: provided that, in case of any public emergency, the Governor-General in Council or the Local Government may, by an order in writing, exempt any* factory from this Act to such extent and during such period as the Governor-General in Council or the Local Government, as the case may be, thinks fit.

Power to Local Government to extend definition of "factory."

20.† Notwithstanding anything in clause (b) of the definition of the word "factory" in section 2, the Local Government may from time to time, by notification in the official Gazette, declare any premises, or premises of any class, which fulfil the other conditions of the said definition, to be a factory for all the purposes of this Act, or for such of those purposes as may be specified in the notification, if the number of persons simultaneously employed in the premises on any day in any manual labour in, or incidental to, any such process as is referred to in the said clause (b) is less than fifty, and not less than twenty.

(2) The Local Government may, by such notification, fix any number below fifty, and not below twenty, as the number of persons whose simultaneous employment as aforesaid is to be held to subject premises, as a factory, to all or any of the provisions of this Act and of the orders and rules made thereunder.

ACT XVI. OF 1881.

THE OBSTRUCTIONS IN FAIRWAYS ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 15TH MARCH 1881.

An Act to empower the Government to remove or destroy Obstructions in Fairways, and to prevent the Creation of such Obstructions.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to empower the Government to remove or destroy obstructions to navigation in fairways leading to ports in British India, and to prevent the creation of such obstructions; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

Commencement.

1. This Act may be called "The Obstructions in Fairways Act, 1881;" and it shall come into force at once.

But nothing herein contained shall apply to vessels belonging to Her Majesty or hired by Her Majesty or by the Secretary of State for India in Council.

Local Government empowered to remove or destroy obstruction in fairway.

2. Whenever, in any fairway leading to any port in British India, any vessel is sunk, stranded, or abandoned, or any fishing-stake, timber, or other thing is placed or left, the Local Government of the part of British India in which such port is situate may, if in its opinion such thing is, or is likely to become, an obstruction or danger to navigation,

(a) cause such thing or any part thereof to be removed; or,

(b) if such thing is of such a description or so situate that, in the opinion of the Local Government, it is not worth removing, cause the same or any part thereof to be destroyed.

Government entitled to expenses incurred in removing obstruction.

3. Whenever anything is removed under section 2, the Government shall be entitled to receive a reasonable sum, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, for the expenses incurred in respect of such removal.

Dispute concerning such expenses.

Any dispute arising concerning the amount due under this section, in respect of anything so removed, shall be decided by the District Magistrate* or Presidency Magistrate having jurisdiction at the place where such thing is, upon application to him for that purpose by either of the disputing parties; and such decision shall be final.

Notice of removal to be given by Local Government.

4. The Local Government shall, whenever anything is removed under section 2, publish in the local official Gazette a notification containing a description of such thing, and the time at which and the place from which the same was so removed.

Things removed may, in certain cases, be sold.

5. If, after publishing such notification, such thing is unclaimed, or if the person claiming the same fails to pay the amount due for the said expenses and any customs-duties or other charges properly incurred by the Local Government in respect thereof,

---

* See Act X. of 1882, s. 3.

Act XVI. of 1881.

the Local Government may sell such thing by public auction, if it is of a perishable nature, forthwith, and if it is not of a perishable nature, at any time not less than six months after publishing such notification as aforesaid.

Proceeds how applied.

6. On realizing the proceeds of such sale, the amount due for expenses and charges as aforesaid, together with the expenses of the sale, shall be deducted therefrom, and the surplus (if any) shall be paid to the owner of the thing sold, or, if no such person appear and claim such surplus, shall be held in deposit for payment, without interest, to any person thereafter establishing his right to the same:

Provided that he makes the claim within one year from the date of the sale.

"Vessel" to include tackle, cargo, &c.

7. For the purposes of this Act, the term "vessel" shall be deemed to include also every article or thing or collection of things being or forming part of the tackle, equipment, cargo, stores, or ballast of a vessel, and any proceeds arising from the sale of a vessel and of the cargo thereof, or of any other property recovered therefrom, shall be regarded as a common fund.

Power to make rules to regulate and prohibit the placing of obstructions in fairways.

8. The Governor-General in Council may, from time to time, by notification in the Gazette of India, make rules to regulate or prohibit in any fairway leading to a port in British India, the placing of fishing-stakes, the casting or throwing of ballast, rubbish, or any other thing likely to give rise to a bank or shoal, or the doing of any other act which will, in his opinion, cause, or be likely to cause, obstruction or danger to navigation.

Penalty for breach of such rules.

9. Whoever is guilty of any act or omission in contravention of the rules made under section 8 may be tried for such offence in any district or presidency-town in which he is found, and shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

Compensation payable in certain cases for damage caused under this Act.

10. Whenever the maintenance or creation of an obstruction in any fairway has become lawful by long usage or otherwise, and such obstruction is removed or destroyed under section 2, or its creation is regulated or prohibited under section 8, any person having a right to maintain or create such obstruction shall be entitled to receive from the Secretary of State for India in Council reasonable compensation for any damage caused to him by such removal, destruction, regulation, or prohibition.

Every dispute arising concerning the right to such compensation, or the amount thereof, shall be determined according to the law for the time being in force relating to like disputes in the case of land needed for public purposes* and not otherwise; and for the purposes of such law the fairway from or in which such obstruction was removed or destroyed, or in which its creation was regulated or prohibited, shall be deemed to be a part of the presidency-town or district in which the port to which such fairway leads is situate.

Certain action of the Government previous to passing of this Act to be deemed to have been taken hereunder.

11. Whenever any obstruction in a fairway leading to a port in British India has been removed or destroyed, or whenever the creation of any such obstruction has been regulated or prohibited, by an order of the Governor-General in Council or a Local Government, previous to the passing of this Act, such removal, destruction, regulation, or prohibition shall be deemed to have been effected under this Act.

* See Act X. of 1870.

12. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to prevent the exercise by the Government of any other powers possessed by it in this behalf.

Saving of other powers possessed by Government.

ACT XVII. OF 1881.

THE PORTUGUESE CONVENTION ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 25TH MAY 1881.

An Act to give effect to the Convention between the Governors-General of British India and Portuguese India regarding their respective systems of moneys, weights, and measures.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by the fifth Article of a Treaty of Commerce and Extradition executed at Lisbon on the twenty-sixth day of December 1878, and ratified on the sixth day of August 1879, between His Most Faithful Majesty the King of Portugal and the Algarves and Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, it was provided that the High Contracting Parties should use their best endeavours to establish between their respective systems of moneys, weights, and measures the harmony desirable for the development of commercial relations between their respective dominions:

And whereas by the same Article it was further provided that the detailed measures to be adopted should form the subject of a separate Convention between the Governors-General of British India and Portuguese India, to be executed within two years from the date when the said Treaty came into force:

And whereas the said Treaty came into force on the fifteenth day of January 1880:

And whereas, in pursuance of the said recited Article, the Convention set forth in the schedule hereto annexed has been made:

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Portuguese Convention Act, 1881."

Local extent.

It extends to the whole of British India.

Commencement and continuance.

It shall come into force at once, and shall remain in force until the expiration of one year from the date of any notice which may be given under the fourteenth clause of the said Convention.

Provisions of Convention enacted.

2. The provisions of the said Convention, so far as they are binding upon the Government of British India, shall be deemed to have the force of law:

Act XXIII. of 1870 to apply to coin and bullion made and brought for coinage to mint under Convention.

3. The provisions of the Indian Coinage Act, 1870, or any other law for the time being in force relating to coinage and the mint, shall, so far as they are consistent with the said Convention, apply to all coin made, and bullion brought for coinage to the mint, under the said

Act XVII. of 1881.

Convention, as if such coin and bullion were respectively made and brought for coinage to the mint under the said Act.

THE SCHEDULE.

WHEREAS, by the fifth Article of a Treaty of Commerce and Extradition, executed at Lisbon on the twenty-sixth day of December 1878, and ratified on the sixth day of August 1879, between His Most Faithful Majesty the King of Portugal and the Algarves and Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, it is provided that the High Contracting Parties shall use their best endeavours to establish between their respective systems of moneys, weights, and measures the harmony desirable for the development of commercial relations between their respective dominions; and whereas by the same article it is further provided that the detailed measures to be adopted shall form the subject of a separate Convention between the Governors-General of British India and Portuguese India, to be executed within two years from the date when the said Treaty comes into force; and whereas the said Treaty came into force on the fifteenth day of January 1880:

In pursuance of the said Article, the following Convention has been made:—

1. The Governor-General of Portuguese India shall adopt, in the Portuguese possessions in India, the monetary system of British India, for the time being in force, provided that the coins shall have on one side the effigy of the King of Portugal, with the legend Ludovicus I., Portugaliæ et Algarbiorum Rex, around it, or such other effigy and legend as the said Governor-General may from time to time desire, and on the other side the value of each coin, the year of the Christian era, and the words India Portugueza.

2. Subject to the provisions of clause 7, so long as this Convention remains in force, the following coins and no others shall be struck for Portuguese India:—

Silver.—Rupee, weighing 180 grains troy;
Half-rupee, weighing 90 grains troy;
Quarter-rupee, weighing 45 grains troy;
Eighth of a rupee, weighing 22½ grains troy.

The standard fineness of the said silver coins shall be eleven-twelfths of fine silver and one-twelfth of alloy, subject to a remedy not exceeding the following:—

	Remedy in weight.	Remedy in fineness.
Rupee	Five thousandths.	Two thousandths.
Half-rupee
Quarter-rupee	Seven thousandths.	Three thousandths.
Eighth of a rupee	Ten thousandths.

Copper.—Half tanga weighing 200 grains troy, and corresponding with the double pice or half-anna of British India;

Act XVII. of 1881.

Quarter tanga, weighing 100 grains troy, and corresponding with the pice of British India;

Eighth of a tanga, weighing 50 grains troy, and corresponding with the half-pice of British India;

Real, or twelfth of a tanga, corresponding with the pie of British India.

In the making of copper coins, a remedy shall be allowed not exceeding one-fortieth in weight.

The value in copper of one Portuguese rupee will be sixteen Portuguese tangas, sixty-four quarter tangas or pices, or one hundred and ninety-two reales or pies.

3. The Portuguese silver and copper coins established by this Convention shall be issued by the authority of the Government of Portuguese India, and shall be coined on behalf of the said Government by the Government of British India, and by no other agency whatever.

The Governor-General of Portuguese India engages that, while this Convention continues in force, no coins other than those established by this Convention shall be coined in or imported into Portuguese India.

4. With the view of obtaining in the shortest possible time the desired uniformity of coinage throughout the respective Indian possessions of the High Contracting Parties, the Governor-General of British India engages that the Government of British India shall—

(a) forego, for the period of three years from the date on which this Convention comes into force, all duty or other charge for melting, cutting, refining, or recoining any coin of the existing Portuguese Indian silver currency tendered for recoinage into Portuguese Indian coin;

(b) deliver, for the period of five years from the date of this Convention, copper coins of the Portuguese copper currency established by this Convention in exchange for copper coins of the existing Portuguese Indian copper currency which may be brought to the said mint for the purpose of such exchange, at the value represented by such last-mentioned coins in the existing Portuguese currency. The relative representative value of the old and new coin to be thus exchanged on equal terms, and without charge for manufacture, shall, if the Governor-General of Portuguese India so desires, be determined, once for all, by a mixed commission appointed in the manner provided in the sixteenth Article of the above-cited Treaty;

(c) advance to the Governor-General of Portuguese India, in the Portuguese currency established by this Convention, such sums in such denominations of coin and in such instalments (if any), as the said Governor-General of Portuguese India may require: provided—1stly.—That the amount of such advances outstanding at any time shall not exceed in the whole ten lákhs of rupees.

2ndly.—That an interval of two months shall be allowed for compliance with any such requisition, and that no such advance shall be made after the expiration of eighteen months from the date on which this Convention comes into force.

Act XVII. of 1881.

3rdly:—That every such advance shall be, within two months, repaid in coin of the existing Portuguese Indian currency, equivalent thereto in intrinsic value ascertained upon assay at Her Majesty's mint, or in copper coin of the existing Portuguese Indian currency valued as prescribed in clause (b).

5. The Governor-General of British India engages that the Government of British India shall,—

(a) on presentation by or on behalf of the Governor-General of Portuguese India of any silver bullion or coin at the mint at Bombay, or at such other mint as the said Government, from time to time, appoints, deliver to the said Governor-General or his agent, after such interval as in the judgment of the Mint Master is necessary for the process of coinage, the produce of such silver bullion or coin, in the silver coin established by this Convention, subject always to the same duty, charges, fees, and regulations as are for the time being in force for the conversion into British Indian currency of bullion and coin, presented at the said mint: provided that, save as provided in clause 4, the said Government shall not be bound thus to deliver more than four lákhs of rupees in any one year;

(b) coin for the Governor-General of Portuguese India, the copper coins established by this Convention, to such amounts and in such denominations as the said Governor-General may require, upon payment of the value inscribed upon such coins in the silver coin established by this Convention or in British Indian rupees: provided that, saving as engaged in clause 4, the said Government shall not be bound thus to coin more than twenty thousand rupees worth of such coin in any one year.

In lieu of any seignorage or profits which the Portuguese Government might otherwise claim on account of the coinage on their behalf provided by this clause, the Governor-General of British India engages to pay the Governor-General of Portuguese India an indemnity of four thousand rupees per annum, commencing from the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and continuing as long as this Convention remains in force.

6. All silver and copper Portuguese coins, coined under the provisions of this Convention, shall, while this Convention remains in force, be legal tender in payment or on account throughout British India to the same extent, and subject to the same exceptions in the case of coin which has been called in, or is under weight, or has been clipped, filed, or defaced, as in the case of the corresponding silver and copper coins issued by the authority of the Government of British India for the time being in British India.

All silver and copper coin, which has been issued by the authority of the Government of British India, shall, to the said same extent, and subject to the same exceptions, be a legal tender in payment or on account throughout Portuguese India.

7. The Governor-General of Portuguese India agrees that, if at any time while this Convention continues in force, the Government of British India should recall the whole body of British Indian coin corresponding to any description of Portuguese coin issued under this Convention, or change the monetary system of British India, he will, if requested by such Government so to do, recall all Portuguese coin of that description, or change in like manner, as the case may be, the monetary system of Portuguese India: provided that the expense incurred in recalling such coin or making such change shall be defrayed by the Government of British India. Act XVII. of 1881.

8. When any silver coin, purporting to have been issued under the provisions of this Convention, is tendered to any officer of the Government of British India, authorized by that Government to act under this clause, and is deemed by such officer to be counterfeit, or to have been reduced in weight otherwise than by reasonable wearing, he may, by himself or another (subject to the rules which the said Government prescribes in this behalf), cut or break such coin, and return the pieces to the person tendering the same, and the loss caused by such cutting and breaking shall be borne by such person.

9. When any such silver coin which has been called in is tendered to any officer of the Government of British India authorized by that Government to act under this clause, he may cut or break such coin, and shall receive it at the rate of one rupee per tola; but the expense thus incurred shall, except when such coin has been recalled under clause 7, be borne by the Portuguese Government.

10. In like manner, when any British Indian coin which has been called in is tendered to any officer of the Government of Portuguese India authorized by that Government to act under this clause, he may cut or break such coin, and shall receive it at the rate of one rupee per tola; and the expense so incurred shall be borne by the Government of British India.

11. The Governor-General of Portuguese India engages to appoint an officer who will receive, while this Convention continues in force, from any person tendering the coin next hereinafter mentioned, all silver coin issued under this Convention which may have lost, by reasonable wearing, more than two per cent., and shall pay for the same at the rate of one rupee per tola.

12 Nothing in this Convention shall be held to limit the powers of His Most Faithful Majesty the King of Portugal and the Algarves to establish a any time such system of paper currency as he may deem fit.

The Governor-General of Portuguese India has the power for the present to issue the following paper money:—

Five-rupee notes, payable in copper.
Ten-rupee notes, payable in silver.
Twenty	ditto.
Fifty	ditto.
One hundred	ditto.
Five hundred	ditto.

The amount of paper money issued will never be above four per cent. of the value of the money in circulation, the Portuguese India Government notes being guaranteed by the Portuguese Government, and payable to the bearer.

13. The Governor-General of Portuguese India engages that, whenever the Government of British India exercises in respect of British India generally, or of all the territories adjacent to Portuguese India, the powers conferred on it under a certain Act of the Governor-General of British India in Council, called "The Indian Weights and Measures of Capacity Act, 1871," then he, the said Governor-General of Portuguese India, will enforce throughout Portuguese India provisions similar to those of that Act.

Act XVIII. of 1881.

14. This Convention shall come into force on the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and shall remain in force until the expiration of a year counting from the day on which one or other of the Contracting Parties shall have given notice to the other of its intention to put an end to it: provided that no such notice shall be given until four years after the date on which the Convention comes into force.

15. The Governor-General of Portuguese India undertakes that, in the event of this Convention being put an end to under clause 14 or otherwise, no coins resembling any of the coins struck under this Convention shall be struck in or imported into Portuguese India, or shall be struck under the authority of, or with the sanction of, His Most Faithful Majesty in any other place.

Done at Pangim on the twelfth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

ACT XVIII. OF 1881.

THE CENTRAL PROVINCES LAND-REVENUE ACT.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 8TH JUNE 1881.

An Act to consolidate and amend the Law relating to Land-revenue and the Powers of Revenue-officers in the Central Provinces.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to Land-revenue and to the powers of Revenue-officers in the Central Provinces; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

PART I.

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Central Provinces Land-revenue Act, 1881:"

Local extent.

It extends to all the territories for the time being under the administration of the Chief Commissioner of the Central Provinces;*

---

* Here the words, "except those specified in Part VI. of the First Schedule of the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874," repealed by Act VI. of 1889, s. 3, have been omitted.

and it shall come into force on such day* as the Chief Commissioner, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, may direct by notification in the local official Gazette.

Commencement.

2. [Enactments repealed.] Repealed by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. I.

3. [Pending proceedings.] Repealed by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. I.

Interpretation-clause.

4. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

"Assistant Commissioner."

(1) "Assistant Commissioner" includes also "Extra Assistant Commissioner:"

"Legal Practitioner."

(2) "Legal Practitioner" means an advocate, vakil, or attorney of any High Court, a pleader, mukhtár, or revenue-agent:

"Village-cess."

(3) "Village-cess" means any cess which a person resident or holding lands in a village pays or renders to the proprietors as such of the village, "or to their transferees or assignees as such, or to the patel,"† and includes service rendered, or things furnished, as well as money paid:

"Recognized agent."

(4) "Recognized agent" means a person authorized in writing by any party to a proceeding under this Act to make appearances and applications, and to do other acts on his behalf in such proceeding, and also belonging to any class which the Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, by notification in the official Gazette, declare in this behalf:

"Agricultural year:"

(5) "Agricultural year" means the year commencing on the first day of June, or on such other date as the Chief Commissioner may, in the case of any specified district or districts, from time to time, appoint:

"Sír-land:"

(6) "Sír-land" means—

(a) land which was recorded as 'sír' in the papers of the last preceding settlement of the local area in which the land is situate;

(b) land which was not so recorded, but which, at the commencement of the Central Provinces Land-revenue Act, 1889, was occupied by, and had been cultivated by, the proprietor or one of the proprietors thereof for a period of not less than twelve consecutive years;

(c) waste-land which has been broken up by the proprietor or one of the proprietors thereof, and cultivated by him for a period of not less than six consecutive years;

and includes also in the Sambalpur district land which was recorded as 'bhogra' in the papers of the last preceding settlement of the local area in which the land is situate.

Explanation I.—Land (other than bhogra) which, at the commencement of the Central Provinces Land-revenue Act, 1889, was unoccupied by such proprietor, and which had, after the date of such settlement, or the expiration of such period of twelve years, or six years (as the case may be), been so unoccupied for a period of six consecutive years, is not sír-land. Land is occupied by the proprietor when it is leased out by him with an express reservation of his sír-rights.

* Nov. 4, 1881.—See Central Provinces Gazette, 1881, Pt. II., p. 176.

† In s. 4, cl. 3, the words quoted have been inserted by Act XVI. of 1889, s. 4.

Act XVIII. of 1881.

Explanation II.—In this definition the word 'proprietor' includes an assignee of proprietary rights, and land is said to be cultivated when it is allowed to lie fallow in accordance with the usual practice of cultivation.

Explanation III.—When by any local custom land is liable to exchange or re-distribution among the cultivators thereof, land, which is not sír-land, and which is taken in exchange for sír-land, becomes sír-land, and the sír-land given in exchange for that land ceases to be sír-land :*

"Survey-number :"

(6*a*) "Survey-number" means a local area held by, or intended to be settled with, a raiyat under a separate assessment of land-revenue in a village or estate which is the property of the Government :†

"Mahal :"

(7) "Mahál" means any local area held under a separate engagement for the payment of the land-revenue direct to Government, and includes also any local area declared, under the provisions of this Act, to be a mahál, "but does not include a survey-number :"‡

"Village :"

(8) "Village" includes any tract of land which, at the last settlement of such land, has been recognized as a village, or which the Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, declare to be a village for the purposes of this Act :

"Proprietor :"

(8*a*) "Proprietor," except in section 4, clause (6), and in sections 61, 62, 63, and 69, includes a gaontia of a Government village in the Sambalpur district : §

"Málguzár :"

(9) "Málguzár" means a person who, under the provisions of this Act, has accepted, or is to be deemed to have accepted, the assessment of a mahál, and includes his representatives and assigns, and also any person with whom a settlement has been made before this Act comes into force, and his representatives and assigns :

"Málik-makbúzá :"

(10) "Málik-makbúzá" means any person owning one or more plots of land separately assessed with revenue in a mahál, and who is not a málguzár, inferior proprietor, or member of the proprietary body of the mahál : ‖

"Lambardár :"

(11) "Lambardár" means a person appointed in manner prescribed by this Act to represent the proprietary body of a mahál in its relations with the Government :

"Sub-lambardár :"

(12) "Sub-lambardár" means a person so appointed to represent the inferior proprietary body of a mahál in its relations with the superior proprietors :

"Mukaddam :"

(13) "Mukaddam" means the executive headman of a village, appointed in manner prescribed by this Act :

"Patél :"

(13*a*) "Patél" means a person appointed in manner prescribed under this Act to represent a body of Government raiyats in their dealings with the Government : ¶

(13*b*) "Pattí" means the lands allotted to any sharer or body of co-sharers in a mahál by an imperfect partition under this Act:*

"Pattí:"

(14) "Tenant" means a person who holds land of another person, and is, or, but for a special contract, would be, liable to pay rent for such land to such other person; but it does not include a farmer, mortgagee, or thekadár of proprietary rights.

"Tenant:"

Explanation I.—An inferior proprietor is not, as such, a tenant.†

Explanation II.—The holder of a survey-number in a village let in farm by the Government, or held by a gaontia in the Sambalpur district, is a tenant of the farmer or gaontia for the time being.†

Explanation III.—A person who is not an absolute occupancy-tenant or an occupancy-tenant, and who holds land from a málik-makbúzá or from the holder of a survey-number, is a sub-tenant of that land:†

(15) "Rent" means whatever is paid, delivered, or rendered, in money, kind, or service, by a tenant on account of the use or occupation of land let to him:

"Rent:"

(16) "Absolute occupancy-tenant" means, in reference to any land, a tenant who, at a settlement of such land made before this Act comes into force,‡ or after such a settlement, but before this Act comes into force, was recorded by order of a Revenue or Settlement-officer in respect of such land as an "absolute occupancy-raiyát," or in terms equivalent thereto:

"Absolute occupancy-tenant:"

(17) "Record-of-rights" includes the supplementary administration-paper prepared at or after the time of making a settlement before this Act comes into force.‡

"Record-of-rights."

Assistant Commissioners ;

Tahsildárs ;

Náib-tahsildárs.

(2) All Revenue-officers are subordinate to the Chief Commissioner ; all Revenue-officers in a division are subordinate to the Commissioner of the division ; and all Revenue-officers in a district are subordinate to the Deputy Commissioner of the district.

(3) An officer in charge of a village-survey in a district which is not under settlement may be invested by the Chief Commissioner with the powers of a Revenue-officer of any class, and, when so invested, shall be subordinate to such officer or officers as the Chief Commissioner may direct.

Appointment, suspension, and removal of Commissioners, Deputy and Assistant Commissioners.

7. Subject to the control of the Governor-General in Council, the Chief Commissioner shall appoint, and may suspend or remove, Commissioners, Deputy Commissioners, and Assistant Commissioners.

Appointment suspension, and removal of Tahsildárs and Náib-Tahsildárs.

8. The Chief Commissioner shall appoint, and may suspend or remove Tahsildárs ; and may also make rules for regulating the appointment, duties, suspension, and removal of Náib Tahsildárs.

Persons holding office when Act comes into force.

9. All Commissioners, Deputy Commissioners, Assistant Commissioners, Tahsildárs, and Náib Tahsildárs holding office as such in the territories to which this Act extends when this Act comes into force, shall be deemed to have been appointed hereunder.

Power to appoint additional Commissioners, Deputy Commissioners, and Tahsildárs.

10. The Chief Commissioner may appoint any person to be an additional Tahsildár in any tahsil, or, with the sanction of the Governor-General in Council, to be an additional Commissioner or additional Deputy Commissioner in any division or district, and may suspend or remove any person so appointed, but subject, in the case of an additional Commissioner or additional Deputy Commissioner, to the like sanction.

The Chief Commissioner may invest any additional Commissioner, Deputy Commissioner, or Tahsildár appointed under this section, with all or any of the powers conferred by this Act on a Commissioner, Deputy Commissioner, or Tahsildár, as the case may be.

Chief Commissioner may invest Assistant Commissioner with powers of Deputy Commissioner.

11. The Chief Commissioner may invest any Assistant Commissioner attached to a district with all or any of the powers conferred by this Act on Deputy Commissioners.

Officers transferred to retain powers with which they were invested.

12. Whenever any Assistant Commissioner, Tahsildár, or Náib-Tahsildár is transferred from one district or tahsil to another, he shall, unless the Chief Commissioner otherwise directs, exercise in the district or tahsil to which he is transferred all the powers with which he was, under any provision of this Act, invested by the Chief Commissioner in the district or tahsil from which he is transferred.

Provision for discharge of duties of Deputy Commissioner dying or being disabled.

13. When a Deputy Commissioner dies or is disabled from performing his duties, such officer as the Chief Commissioner may by rule direct shall take executive charge of his district, and shall be deemed to be a Deputy Commissioner under this Act, until a successor to the Deputy Commissioner so dying or disabled is appointed, and such successor takes charge of his office, or until the person so disabled resumes charge of his office.

Chief Commissioner may alter limits of district or tahsil,

14. The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, by notification in the official Gazette, alter the limits of any district or tahsil, create new districts or tahsils, and abolish existing districts or tahsils.

Power to invest Revenue officers,—

15. The Chief Commissioner may, subject to the control of the Governor-General in Council, invest any Revenue-officer with any of the following powers :—

with power conferred by Code of Civil Procedure; for the purpose of disposing of cases under this Act, any power conferred by the Code of Civil Procedure* on a Civil Court ; with power to delegate powers.

power to delegate to any Revenue-officer subordinate to him the exercise of any power or performance of any duty conferred or imposed on him by this Act ;

and, subject to the like control, may determine the Revenue-officer by whom any case or class of cases for which no express provision in this behalf is made in this Act shall be disposed of.

Power of Deputy Commissioner to distribute work.

16. Subject to any rules which the Chief Commissioner may make in this behalf, a Deputy Commissioner may—

(a) refer any case to any Revenue-officer subordinate to him for investigation and report, or, if such officer has power to dispose of such case, for disposal ; or

(b) direct that any Revenue-officer subordinate to him shall, without such reference, deal with any case or class of cases arising within any specified area, and either investigate and report on such case or class, or, if he has power, dispose of it himself.

The subordinate Revenue-officer shall submit his report on any case referred to him under this section for report to the Deputy Commissioner, or otherwise, as may be directed in the order of reference ; and the officer receiving such report may, if he has power to dispose of the case, dispose of the same, or may return it for further investigation to the officer submitting the report, or may hold such investigation himself.

Power of superior Revenue-authorities to withdraw and transfer cases.

17. The Chief Commissioner, the Commissioner, or the Deputy Commissioner, may withdraw any case pending before any Revenue-officer subordinate to him, and either dispose of it himself, or refer it for disposal to any other Revenue-officer subordinate to him, and having power to dispose of the same.

---

* The reference in s. 15 to Act X. of 1877 should now be read as applying to Act XIV. of 1882.—See s. 3 of the latter Act.

Act XVIII. of 1881.

Power of Revenue-officers to enter on land, &c.

18. All Revenue-officers and persons acting under their orders may, in the performance of any duty under this Act, enter upon and survey land; and demarcate boundaries, and do all other acts necessary to the business in which they are engaged.

Power for Revenue and Settlement-officers to require attendance of persons and production of documents.

18A.* (1) Any Revenue-officer or class of Revenue-officers and any officer appointed to make a settlement may, if specially empowered in this behalf by the Chief Commissioner, order all persons whose presence may be, in the opinion of the officer making the order, necessary for any of the purposes of this Act, to attend either in person or by authorized agent at any specified time and place, and may also direct them to produce any written document in their possession, and all such persons shall be legally bound to obey the order.

(2) The power to require the attendance of parties in person shall, so far as may be, be subject to the provisions of section 176 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Power to make rules to regulate procedure.

19. The Chief Commissioner may, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, make rules consistent with this Act for regulating the procedure of Revenue-officers in cases for which a procedure is not prescribed by this Act, and may, by any such rule, direct that any provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure† shall apply, with or without modification, to all or any classes of cases before Revenue-officers.

Persons by whom appearances and applications may be made before and to Revenue-officers.

20. All appearances before, applications to, and acts to be done before, any Revenue-officer under this Act, may be made or done—

(a) by the parties themselves; or,

(b) with the permission of the officer, by their recognized agents or any legal practitioner:

Provided that the employment of a legal practitioner or recognized agent shall not excuse the personal attendance of a party to any proceeding in cases where such attendance is required by any order of the Revenue-officer.

Obligation of parties to attend in person.

Legal practitioner's or agent's fees not allowed unless for special reasons.

21. The fees of a legal practitioner or recognized agent shall not be allowed as costs before any Revenue-office unless such officer considers, for reasons to be recorded by him in writing, that such fees should be allowed.

Appeals.

22. An appeal shall lie against every decision or order‡ under this Act—

(a) when such decision or order is passed by any Revenue-officer subordinate to the Deputy Commissioner, except an Assistant Commissioner, exercising the powers of a Deputy Commissioner,—to the Deputy Commissioner;

---

* S. 18A has been inserted by Act XVI. of 1889, s. 13.

† The reference in s. 19 to Act X. of 1877 should now be read as applying to Act XIV. of 1882.—See s. 3 of the latter Act.

‡ See s. 38, infra, for certain exceptions.

(b) when such decision or order is passed by a Deputy Commissioner, or by an Assistant Commissioner exercising the powers of a Deputy Commissioner, whether in the first instance or on appeal,—to the Commissioner of the division; Act XVIII of 1881.

(c) when such decision or order is passed on appeal or otherwise by the Commissioner of a division,—to the Chief Commissioner:

Provided that in no case shall a third appeal be allowed.

Limitation of appeals.

23. No appeal shall lie—

(a) in the Court of the Deputy Commissioner or an Assistant Commissioner exercising the powers of a Deputy Commissioner—after the expiration of thirty days from the date of the decision or order complained of; or

(b) in the Court of the Commissioner—after the expiration of sixty days from such date; or,

(c) in the Court of the Chief Commissioner—after the expiration of ninety days from such date.

In computing such periods of limitation, and in all respects not herein specified, the provisions of the Indian Limitation Act, 1877, shall apply.

Powers of revision of Commissioner and Deputy Commissioner.

24. Any Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner may at any time, for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the legality or propriety of any order passed by, and as to the regularity of the proceedings of, any Revenue-officer subordinate to him, call for and examine the record of any case pending before, or disposed of by, such officer, and may pass such order in reference thereto as he thinks fit: Provided that he shall not, under this section, modify or reverse any order affecting any question of right between private persons, without having given to the parties interested reasonable notice to appear and be heard in support of such order.

Powers of revision of Chief Commissioner.

25. The Chief Commissioner may at any time call for and examine the record of any case pending before, or disposed of by, any Revenue-officer, and may pass such order in reference thereto as he thinks fit:*

Provided that no order affecting any question of right between private persons shall be passed under this section unless the Chief Commissioner has given the parties interested an opportunity of being heard.

Review of orders.

26. Every Revenue-officer may, either on his own motion or on the application of any party interested, review, and, on so reviewing, modify, reverse, or confirm orders passed by himself, or by any of his predecessors in office:

Provided as follows—

(1) when a Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner thinks it necessary to review any order which he has not himself passed, and when an officer under the rank of a Deputy Commissioner proposes to review any order, whether passed by himself or by any predecessor, he shall first obtain the sanction of the officer to whom he is immediately subordinate:

(2) no order shall be modified or reversed unless reasonable notice has been given to the parties interested to appear and be heard in support of such order:

---

* As to restriction on record-of-rights, see s. 84, infra.

Act XVIII. of 1881.

(3) no order against which an appeal has been preferred shall be reviewed while such appeal is pending:

(4) no order affecting any question of right between private persons shall be reviewed except on the application of a party to the proceedings; and no application for the review of such an order shall be entertained unless it is made within ninety days from the passing of the order, or unless the applicant satisfies the Revenue-officer that he had sufficient cause for not making the application within such period.

For the purposes of this section, the Deputy Commissioner shall be deemed to be the successor in office of any Revenue-officer, who has left the district or has ceased to exercise powers as a Revenue-officer, and to whom there is no successor in office.

PART III.

OF SURVEY AND SETTLEMENT.

CHAPTER III.

PRELIMINARY.

Notification of revenue-survey.

27. Whenever it appears to the Chief Commissioner that a Revenue-survey should be made in any local area, he shall publish a notification in the official Gazette directing that such survey be made, and cause translations of such notification in the language of the district to be posted up in conspicuous places in such area;

Effect thereof.

and thereupon all officers in charge of such survey, their assistants, servants, agents, and workmen, may enter upon the lands to be surveyed, and erect survey-marks, and do all other acts necessary for making the survey.

Notification of settlement.

28. When any local area is to be settled, the Chief Commissioner may, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, issue a notification of settlement,* and in such notification shall—

(a) define the local area to be settled;

(b) specify the operations which are to be carried out in the settlement;

Power to amend notification.

and may, from time to time, with the like sanction, amend, alter, or cancel such notification.

Every such notification, amendment, alteration, and cancellation, shall be published in the local official Gazette.

Power to appoint Settlement-officers;

29. The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, appoint one or more officers (hereinafter called Settlement-officers) to make the settlement of such area; and when he appoints more than one such officer, he shall appoint one of them (hereinafter called the Chief Settlement-officer†) to control such settlement, and all other officers appointed for the purposes of such settlement shall be subordinate to the Chief Settlement-officer.

---

* As to duration of settlement-operations, see s. 39, infra.

† Notwithstanding anything contained in s. 29, the Chief Commissioner shall be deemed to have, and to have had, authority to assign to the Settlement-officer the title "Assistant Settlement-officer," and to the Chief Settlement-officer the title "Settlement-officer."—See Act XVI. of 1889, s. 40, infra.

and to suspend and remove them.

The Chief Commissioner may suspend or remove any officer appointed under this section. Act XVIII. of 1881.

30. During the progress of the settlement of any local area, the Chief Commissioner may invest any Settlement-officer within such area with all or any of the powers of a Deputy Commissioner under this Act, to be exercised by him in such classes of cases as the Chief Commissioner may from time to time direct.

Settlement-officer may be invested with powers of Deputy Commissioner.

31.* The provisions of section 11 and sections 15 to 26, both inclusive, shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to Settlement-officers and to proceedings before them, the expression "Settlement-officer" being read for the expressions "Assistant Commissioner" and "Revenue-officer," and the expression "Chief Settlement-officer," for the expression "Deputy Commissioner," wherever those expressions occur:

Certain provisions of Chapter II. applied to Settlement-officers.

Provided that an appeal from any appealable order passed by a subordinate Settlement-officer shall lie to the Chief Settlement-officer if preferred within sixty days from the date of such order:

Provided also that no appeal shall lie from any decision of a Chief Settlement-officer which can be called in question in a Civil Court.

Appointment of Settlement-Commissioner;

32. The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council,

(a) appoint a Settlement-Commissioner, and transfer to him, within any local area under settlement, all or any of the powers which the Commissioner of the division, if the land to be settled were wholly situate within such division, would otherwise exercise under this Act in matters connected with such settlement; and delegation to him of Chief Commissioner's powers.

(b) delegate to the Settlement-Commissioner such of his own powers in regard to matters connected with such settlement as he thinks fit.

33. When any local area is under settlement, the Chief Commissioner may invest any subordinate Settlement-officer with the powers of any of "the last five classes"† of Courts described in section 4 of "the Central Provinces Civil Courts' Act, 1885,"† and the Chief Settlement-officer with the powers of a Court of a Deputy Commissioner described in the same Act, "section 7,"† for the trial in the first instance of any of the following classes of suits instituted within such area, namely:—

Power to invest Settlement-officers with Civil Court powers.

---

* S. 31 does not apply to suits and appeals or other proceedings before, or determined by, Settlement-officers in pursuance of powers conferred upon them under ss. 33-35. —See s. 37, infra.

† In s. 33 the words quoted have been substituted for the original by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. II.

Act XVIII. of 1881.

(a) suits for arrears of rent due on account of any right of pasturage, forest-rights, fisheries, or the like;

(b) suits by lambardárs for arrears of revenue payable through them by the proprietors whom they represent;

(c) suits by proprietors for their share of the profits of an estate or any part thereof after payment of the revenue and village-expenses, or for a settlement of accounts;

(d) suits by muafidárs or assignees of revenue for arrears of revenue owing to them as such muafidárs or assignees;

(e) suits by superior proprietors for arrears of revenue due to them as such superior proprietors;

(f) suits by proprietors and others in receipt of the rent of land against any agents employed by them in the management of land or collection of rents, or against the sureties of such agents, for money received or accounts kept by such agents in the course of such employment, or for papers in their possession;

(g) suits regarding any matter which a Settlement-officer is required to decide or to enter in the record-of-rights, and of which Civil Courts can take cognizance;

(h) suits relating to land, or the rent, profits, or occupation of land.

Chief Settlement-officer to have powers of Deputy Commissioner.

34. When the Chief Commissioner invests any subordinate Settlement-officer with the powers of a Civil Court for the trial of any of the suits mentioned in section 33, the Chief Settlement-officer to whom such Settlement-officer is subordinate shall have the powers of the Court of a Deputy Commissioner described in "the Central Provinces Civil Courts' Act, 1885, section 16 and section 17, sub-section (1), and the powers of a Court of a Commissioner described in the same Act, section 15, sub-section (1),"* with reference to proceedings before, or decrees and orders of, such Settlement-officer in such suits.

Appeals in suits specified in section 33 when to lie to Chief Settlement-officer.

35. When any local area is under settlement, and Settlement-officers have been invested with the powers mentioned in section 33 in such local area, the Chief Commissioner may, with respect to all or to any of the suits specified in that section, declare that all or any of the decrees and orders passed in exercise of the powers of Courts of "the last four classes"† aforesaid, by Assistant Commissioners or Tahsildárs not being Settlement-officers, shall be appealable to the Chief Settlement-officer, and not to the Deputy Commissioner of the district.

Division of civil work between Settlement-officers and ordinary Courts.

36. When any local area is under settlement, and the Settlement-officers therein have been invested with powers under section 33, the Chief Commissioner may withdraw from the jurisdiction of the ordinary Civil Courts within such area the classes of suits which Settlement-officers have power to dispose of under that section, or he may direct that, in respect of such suits, the Settlement-officers shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the ordinary Civil Courts:

---

* In s. 34 the words quoted have been substituted for the original by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. II.

† In s. 35 the words quoted have been substituted for the original by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. II.

Provided that no proceedings which have been inadvertently or erroneously taken before the Civil Court shall be deemed to be invalid merely on the ground that, by the Chief Commissioner's order, they should have been taken before a Settlement-officer. Act XVIII. of 1881.

Provisions of section 31 not to apply to certain suits.

37. Nothing in section 31 shall apply to suits and appeals or other proceedings instituted before, or determined by, Settlement-officers in pursuance of powers conferred upon them under section 33, 34, or 35.

Appeal, reference, and revision.

38. Except as provided in sections 33, 34, and 35, the decrees and orders of a Settlement-officer passed, whether in the first instance or on appeal, in exercise of the powers of a Civil Court of any grade, shall, for the purposes of appeal, reference, and revision, be deemed to be decrees and orders of a Civil Court of such grade, and no appeal shall lie under the provisions of section 22 from such decrees or orders.

Duration of settlement-operations.

39. Every settlement notified under section 28 shall be deemed to be in progress until the Chief Commissioner, by notification in the official Gazette, declares that it is completed.

Cases pending at close of settlement-operations.

When the settlement of any local area has been notified as completed, all the powers exercised by the Settlement-officers in such area shall cease, and all suits and applications pending before such officers shall be transferred to such of the Courts ordinarily having jurisdiction in such cases as the Commissioner of the Division directs; or, if there are no such Courts, shall be disposed of in such manner as the Chief Commissioner directs.

CHAPTER IV.

OF DEMARCATION.

Unowned Lands.

Settlement-officer to invite claims to lands appearing to have no owner.

40. When any local area is under settlement, the Settlement-officer shall make lists of all lands in such area which appear to him to have no lawful owner, and shall thereupon issue a notification, declaring his intention to demarcate such lands as the property of the Government, and inviting every person having claims to or over them to present in his Court, within three months from the date of the notification, a petition in writing, setting forth such claims and the respective grounds thereof.

Application of Act XXIII. of 1863.

41. Every such notification shall be deemed to be an advertisement under Act No. XXIII. of 1863 (to provide for the adjudication of claims to waste lands), section 1; the demarcation of such lands shall be deemed to be a disposition of them within the meaning of that Act;

the Settlement-officer shall exercise all the powers vested in the Collector by that Act; and claims to or over the land comprised in such notification shall be dealt with as nearly as may be in the manner prescribed in that Act.

Act XVIII. of 1881.

Procedure when limited right over land established.

42. Whenever a claim to the exercise or enjoyment of any right (not amounting to the right of exclusive possession) in, to, or over, any land comprised in such notification, is established, either before the Settlement-officer or before the Court constituted under the said Act No. XXIII. of 1863, section 7, the Settlement-officer may assign to the claimant as his property a definite portion of such land, or, with the sanction of the Chief Commissioner, he may otherwise compensate the claimant; and such assignment or compensation shall be held to extinguish all claims on account of such exercise or enjoyment.

Mahâls.

Power to form mahâls.

43. The Settlement-officer may declare any local area to be a mahâl.

Excluded Lands.

Settlement-officer may exclude any town or land from settlement-operations.

44. For the purpose of excluding from all or any of the operations of the settlement any town or any land from which the owner can derive no profit, the Settlement-officer may mark off the site, and determine the limits of such town or land:

Provided that no land in respect of which land-revenue is payable at the date of the notification issued under section 28 shall, under this section, be exempted from assessment without the sanction of the Chief Commissioner.

Boundary-marks.

Erection of new, and repair of existing, boundary-marks.

45. When any local area is under settlement, the Settlement-officer may order all persons who have proprietary rights in the land comprised in such area, "or who are in possession of the whole or any part of the land as gaontias or as thikadârs of Government land, or as raiyats who have accepted the assessment of a survey-number,"* to erect boundary-marks of such description and at such places as he thinks necessary in order to define the limits of the mahâls, fields, or other lands in their possession, or to repair boundary-marks already existing; and may fix a reasonable time for obeying his order; and, if his order is not obeyed within such time, may cause such marks to be erected or repaired under his own orders, and may recover the cost of such erection or repair from the persons against whom his order was made, in such proportion as he thinks fit.

CHAPTER V.

OF THE ASSESSMENT OF LAND-REVENUE.

Separate sum to be assessed on every mahâl.

Progressive assessments.

46. On every mahâl a definite and separate sum shall be assessed as land-revenue; but the sum so assessed may be reduced in such manner, and to such extent, as the Chief Commissioner thinks fit, for any period not exceeding ten years from the date on which the assessment takes effect.

* In s. 45 the words quoted have been inserted by Act XVI. of 1889, s. 14.

Act XVIII. of 1881.

Provided that the Chief Commissioner may declare that any mahál which consists wholly or principally of forest is a forest-mahál, and may direct that the assessment shall be a specified share of the gross or net annual value of the produce of the mahál, to be determined from time to time for each year, or part of a year, or that the assessment shall be in the form of rates chargeable on the produce of the mahál in each year or part of a year.*

Matters as to which Chief Commissioner is to instruct Settlement officer.

47. The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, give instructions to the Settlement-officer as to the principle on which land-revenue is to be assessed, and as to the sources of miscellaneous income to be taken into account in the assessment.

What land taken into account in assessing mahál.

48. In assessing a mahál all land situate therein shall be taken into account except the following, that is to say:—

(a) land purchased free from revenue under any rules for the time being in force to regulate the sale of waste-lands;

(b) land in respect of which the revenue has been redeemed under any rules for the time being in force;

(c) land excluded from assessment under section 44;

(d) land in respect of which a claim to hold it free from revenue as against the Government is established under the provisions hereinafter contained;

(e) land which the Chief Commissioner, subject to the control of the Governor-General in Council, may, from time to time, exempt from assessment.

Assessment to whom to be offered.

49. The assessment of every mahál shall be offered to the entire proprietary body of such mahál: provided that, when superior and inferior proprietary rights co-exist in the same mahál, the Settlement-officer may, subject to such rules as the Chief Commissioner may make in this behalf, determine whether the assessment shall be offered to the superior or to the inferior proprietors.

Subject to such rules as the Chief Commissioner may make in this behalf, the Settlement-officer may determine the manner and proportion in which the proprietary profits of the mahál shall be allotted between the superior and the inferior proprietors.

When a proprietor has mortgaged his rights in any mahál, and the mortgagee has entered into possession, such mortgagee, so long as he is in possession, shall, for the purposes of this section, stand in the place of the mortgagor.

Sub-settlement to be made with inferior proprietors when settlement is made with superior.

50. When in a mahál in which superior and inferior proprietors co-exist, the Settlement-officer makes a settlement with the superior proprietors, he shall make on their behalf a sub-settlement with the inferior proprietors, by which such inferior proprietors shall be bound to pay to the superior proprietors an annual revenue equal to the land-revenue with which the mahál is assessed and to the profits to which the superior proprietors are entitled under section 49.

* In s. 46 the proviso has been added by Act XVI. of 1889, s. 15

Act XVIII. of 1881.

Power to give directions as to payment of certain profits of superior proprietors.

51. When in any such mahál the settlement is made with the inferior proprietors, the Settlement-officer may direct that the profits to which the superior proprietors are entitled under section 49 shall be paid by the inferior proprietors direct to such superior proprietors, or that such profits shall be collected as if they were land-revenue, and shall be paid to the superior proprietors from the Government Treasury.

Power to make rules for reporting assessment for sanction.

52. The Chief Commissioner may make rules prescribing the manner in which the Settlement-officer shall report for sanction his rates and method of assessment; and no assessment shall be offered without the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner.

Offers of assessment to be made subject to revision and confirmation.

53. In making any offer of assessment, the Settlement-officer shall state that it is made subject to confirmation by the Governor-General in Council, and also to revision by the Chief Commissioner at any time before such confirmation is received.

Option to accept or refuse assessment.

54. It shall be in the option of the persons to whom an assessment is offered to accept or refuse the same.

Mode of acceptance.

If they are willing to accept it, they shall make and sign an acceptance in writing, in such form as the Chief Commissioner may from time to time prescribe in this behalf, and deliver the same to the Settlement-officer.

Proprietor not accepting in manner prescribed may be deemed to have accepted.

55.* Any proprietor who, within such reasonable period as may be specified by the Chief Commissioner, fails to make, sign, and deliver such acceptance, or to inform the Settlement-officer that he refuses the proposed assessment, shall, if the Settlement-officer by an order in writing so directs, be deemed to have accepted such assessment.

Effect of acceptance of assessment.

56.* Whenever the assessment of a mahál has been accepted under this Act, the persons who have accepted it shall be bound to pay the amount thereof from such date and for such term as the Chief Commissioner may appoint in this behalf, or, if at the expiry of that term no new assessment has been made and is ready to take effect, until a new assessment has been made and is ready to take effect: Provided as follows:—

Assessment may be rescinded by Chief Commissioner;

1st—any assessment may be rescinded by the Chief Commissioner at any time before it has been confirmed by the Governor-General in Council; or by Governor-General in Council.

2ndly—the Governor-General in Council may rescind any assessment submitted to him for confirmation;

Málguzárs may object to continuance of assessment beyond term of settlement.

3rdly—if all the málguzárs of a mahál, six months before the expiry of the term fixed under this section, apply in writing to the Deputy Commissioner stating that they are unwilling that the assessment should continue in force beyond the expiry of such term, the assessment shall, on the expiry of such term, cease to be in force. Act XVIII. of 1881.

* As to the application of ss. 55 and 56 to raiyatwari settlements, see s. 67G.

When assessment is in form of rates, Deputy Commissioner to publish record of amount payable.

56A.* (1) If the assessment accepted is a specified share of the produce of a forest-mahál to be determined from time to time, or in the form of rates chargeable on the produce of a forest-mahál, the Deputy Commissioner shall, from time to time, as the conditions of the assessment may require, notify to the málguzár, on or before such date, or at such intervals as the Chief Commissioner may prescribe, the amount payable in respect of the forest-mahál.

(2) The Deputy Commissioner and his subordinates may at any time enter on the forest-mahál, and do all acts necessary for ascertaining the amount payable in respect thereof.

Procedure when assessment is refused.

57. Where there is but one class of proprietors in a mahál, and all refuse to accept in manner required by section 54 the assessment offered, the Settlement-officer may, with the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner, exclude them from settlement for a period not exceeding thirty years from the date of such exclusion, and may either let the mahál in farm, or take it under direct management.

Procedure when only some proprietors accept assessment.

58. If some of the proprietors consent, and some refuse, so to accept the assessment offered, the Settlement-officer may, with the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner, if the interest of the recusant proprietors in the lands taken into account in the assessment consists entirely of lands held by them separately from the other proprietors, exclude such recusant proprietors from settlement for a period not exceeding thirty years from the date of such exclusion, and either let their lands in farm or take such lands under direct management.

In other cases the assessment of the entire mahál shall be offered to the proprietors who consented to accept the assessment when originally offered, and if they refuse it, the mahál shall be dealt with under the provisions of section 57.

When the recusant proprietors are excluded under this section, the lands of the proprietors who consented to accept the assessment originally offered shall be deemed to be a separate mahál, and shall be assessed as such; and such assessment shall be offered to the proprietors so consenting; and if the lands of the recusant proprietors are let in farm, the farm shall be first offered to the proprietors who consented to accept the assessment originally offered.

Procedure on refusal of assessment in village in which superior and inferior rights co-exist.

59. When an assessment is offered in a mahál in which both superior and inferior proprietors co-exist—

(a) if all the proprietors of the class with which the Settlement-officer proposes to make the settlement refuse to accept as aforesaid the assessment offered, the assessment shall be offered to the proprietors of the other class; and if all such proprietors refuse the assessment, the Settlement officer shall proceed as provided in section 57;

(b) if some only of the proprietors of the class with which the Settlement-officer proposes to make the settlement refuse the assessment, he may either proceed as if all had refused it, or may deal with the mahál under section 58;

* S. 56A has been inserted by Act XVI. of 1889, s. 16.

Act XVIII. of 1881.

Provided that if, in the case contemplated by clause (b), the proprietors who consented to accept the assessment when originally offered refuse to accept it, such assessment shall be offered to the other class of proprietors.

Procedure on refusal of assessment by inferior proprietors.

60. If all or any of the inferior proprietors refuse any assessment offered under section 50, the Settlement-officer may exclude them all from the sub-settlement, and assign the proprietary management and profits of the mahál to the superior proprietor for any term not exceeding the term of settlement.

Allowance to excluded proprietors.

61. Any proprietor excluded from settlement under section 57 or section 59, clause (a), shall be entitled to receive from the Government an annual allowance, the amount of which shall be fixed by the Chief Commissioner, but which shall not be less than five per cent., or more than ten per cent., on the amount of the assessment offered to him by the Settlement-officer.

Excluded proprietors to have occupancy-rights in their sír-land.

62. Any proprietor excluded from settlement or sub-settlement under sections 57 to 60, both inclusive, shall be entitled to retain possession of his sír-land (if any) as if he were an absolute occupancy-tenant, and the rent to be paid by him for such land during the term of his exclusion shall be fixed by the Settlement-officer accordingly.

Aggregate amount of allowance granted to, and deduction from rent allowed to, excluded proprietor.

63. The aggregate amount of any allowance under section 61, and of the difference between the rent fixed under section 62 and the rent which the excluded proprietor would be liable to pay if he were a tenant-at-will, shall not be less than five or more than fifteen per cent. on the amount of the assessment offered to him by the Settlement-officer.

Sub-settlement with málik-makbúzás and other like holders of land.

64. The Settlement-officer may make, on behalf of málik-makbúzás or other like holders of land, such a sub-settlement as shall secure to them from the málguzárs of the mahál their existing rights; and may provide that, in addition to the land-revenue payable by them, they shall pay to the málguzárs such percentage thereon, not exceeding twenty per cent., as may, in his opinion, be sufficient to compensate the said málguzárs for their responsibility in respect of the land-revenue, and to provide for the fees of lambardár and mukaddams.

Revenue payable under sub-settlement to be first charge on land.

65. The amount of revenue payable under a sub-settlement shall be a first charge upon all the land comprised in such sub-settlement.

Power to inquire into the claims of thekadárs, gaontias, or farmers.

65A.* The Settlement-officer may inquire into the claim of any person holding from a proprietor a village or part of a village as thekadár, gaontia, or farmer, and may, with the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner, provide in the terms of settlement for the protection of such thekadár, gaontia, or farmer against arbitrary enhancement or ejectment:

Provided that the protection of a thekadár, gaontia, or farmer shall not be provided for under this section unless he or those from whom he has inherited was or were in possession of the village at the last settlement of the local area in which the village is situate, or unless it is proved to the satisfaction of the Settlement-officer that he or those from whom he has inherited has or have established the village or substantially improved it at his or their own cost. Act XVIII. of 1881.

Settlement-officer to apportion assessment over lands held in severalty:

66. When the whole of the land comprised in a mahál is held in severalty, the Settlement-officer shall apportion to the several holdings the amount with which such land is assessed under a settlement or sub-settlement.

When only part of the land comprised in a mahál is held in severalty, the Settlement-officer shall apportion such amount to the part held in common and the part held in severalty, and shall further apportion to the several holdings the amount to which they are liable under the former apportionment.

to re-distribute land according to custom.

67. When by established custom the land held by each proprietor in any mahál is subject to periodical re-distribution, the Settlement-officer may, in his discretion, on the application of the proprietors, make such re-distribution according to such custom.

*Procedure in Raiyatwári Settlements.

Assessment of raiyatwári villages.

67A.* (1) The Chief Commissioner may make rules for the assessment of land held by raiyats direct from the Government.

(2) Such rules may provide for the subdivision of occupied and unoccupied land into survey-numbers, on each of which a separate assessment shall be made:

Provided that no such survey-number shall include land occupied in separate interests by more raiyats than one at the time of its formation.

(3) Where the lands of a village have been divided into survey-numbers on each of which a separate assessment has been made, the village may be declared by the Chief Commissioner to be a regularly settled raiyatwári village.

(4) The assessment made on a survey-number may be either fixed or progressive, or in the form of rates chargeable according to the results of each year or harvest.

Assessment to whom to be offered.

67B.* (1) The assessment of each survey-number in a regularly settled raiyatwari village shall, in the first place, be offered to the raiyat (if any) holding the survey-number.

(2) If such raiyat refuses to accept the assessment, he may be ejected as if for non-payment of revenue, and the assessment may be offered—

(a) to any co-partner of the ejected raiyat, and, if he also refuses,

(b) to any other person.

Assessment of unoccupied survey-numbers.

67C.* A survey-number formed from unoccupied land in a regularly settled raiyatwári village may be allotted by the Settlement-officer at the time of settlement or by the Deputy Commissioner during the currency of the term of settlement to any person who accepts the assessment made upon it.

Responsibility of raiyats for assessment.

67D.* (1) A raiyat who has accepted the assessment of a survey-number in a regularly settled raiyatwári village, and his representatives and assigns, shall be responsible for the payment of the land-revenue assessed on such survey-number during the term of settlement, unless he or they has or have relinquished the survey-number by presenting at the tahsil office a written notice of relinquishment.

Act XVIII. of 1881.

(2) Such notice of relinquishment shall take effect from the first day of April next following the date of the presentation thereof.

Right of raiyat inheritable, but not transferable.

67E.* (1) The right of a Government raiyat in a survey-number held by him shall devolve as if it were land, but is not transferable except to a person who, if he survived the raiyat, would inherit his right, or to a co-sharer in such right, or, with the permission of the Deputy Commissioner, by a lease to a sub-tenant cultivating under the raiyat.

(2) The right of a raiyat in a survey-number held by him shall not be sold in execution of a decree.

(3) A raiyat is not entitled to claim partition of a survey-number, but the Deputy Commissioner may, with the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner, partition a survey-number, and apportion the assessment between the holders thereof.

(4) Nothing in this section shall affect the rights of raiyats on whom proprietary rights in survey-numbers held by them have been conferred by special orders.

Power to make rules for survey-numbers.

67F.* The Chief Commissioner may make rules—

(a) prescribing the procedure under which unoccupied survey-numbers may be allotted to raiyats during the currency of the term of a settlement;

(b) providing for the appointment, in the case of survey-numbers held by two or more raiyats in co-partnership, of one of such raiyats to be primarily responsible for the payment of the land-revenue assessed on such survey-numbers;

(c) providing, in cases in which the assessment is in the form of rates chargeable according to the results of each year or harvest, for the manner and time in and at which the amount chargeable is to be notified to the raiyat.

Provisions of sections 55 and 56 applicable to raiyatwári settlements.

67G.* The provisions of sections 55 and 56 shall, so far as they can be made applicable, apply to raiyatwári settlements made under this Act.

Land-revenue now payable by raiyats to be deemed to be fixed under this Act.

67H.* The land-revenue payable at the commencement of the Central Provinces Land-revenue Act, 1889, by raiyats holding survey-numbers in villages declared to be regularly settled raiyatwári villages, shall be deemed to have been assessed under the provisions of this Act.

Raiyats holding Government land not included in raiyatwári villages.

67I.* Raiyats who hold Government land not included in a regularly settled raiyatwári village, and who are not tenants within the meaning of this Act, shall be liable for the payment of such land-revenue as may be assessed in accordance with rules made under this Act on the land held by them:

* Ss. 67A to 67I have been inserted by Act XVI. of 1889, s. 18.

Provided that such a raiyat shall not be compelled to pay revenue for land which he has vacated before the first day of April next before the commencement of the agricultural year on account of which the claim for such revenue arises. Act XVIII. of 1881.

CHAPTER VI.

OF CERTAIN INVESTIGATIONS BY THE SETTLEMENT-OFFICER AND THE PREPARATION OF THE RECORD-OF-RIGHTS.

Settlement-officer to ascertain proprietors.

68. The Settlement-officer shall ascertain the persons who are in possession as proprietors of the land comprised in each mahál.

Determination and record of sír-land.

69.* (1) The Settlement-officer shall ascertain and determine the extent of all the land held as sír-land as defined in section 4, clause (6), in each mahál, and shall record the same as sír-land, and shall also record as sír-land all land which is at the time of his inquiry cultivated by the proprietor or one of the proprietors thereof, and has been so cultivated for a period of not less than twelve consecutive years:

Provided that land so cultivated shall not be recorded as sír-land if it was recorded in the papers of the last preceding settlement of the mahál in which it is situate as tenant's land, or as land held by a tenant, or in terms equivalent thereto, and if by recording it as sír-land the total area of sír-land in the mahál will amount to more than a quarter of the cultivated area of the mahál.

(2) When a part of the land so cultivated has under this section to be omitted from the record of sír-land, the proprietor shall have the right to choose the particular fields which are to be omitted.

Settlement-officer to decide disputes among shareholders regarding management of mahál;

70. The Settlement-officer shall ascertain the customs or rules by which the proprietors in each mahál are mutually bound as to the granting of pattás, the ejectment of tenants, the realization and distribution of rents and other profits, the payment of land-revenue, village-expenses, and other charges, and generally as to the control and management of the mahál; and shall decide all disputes and record all agreements regarding the matters mentioned in this section.

to determine through what lambardárs revenue shall be paid;

71. The Settlement-officer shall determine through which of the lambardárs or sub-lambardárs the amount of revenue payable by each proprietor, sub-proprietor, or málik-makbúzá, shall be paid.

to ascertain status and rents of tenants.

72. The Settlement-officer shall ascertain, and record for each mahál the status of all tenants occupying land therein, the lands respectively held by them, the conditions on which they respectively hold such lands, and the rents (if any) payable by them respectively.

Enquiry into claims to hold free from revenue as against Government.

73. The Settlement-officer shall investigate all claims against the Government to hold land free from revenue or at less than a full assessment, or to receive the whole or part of the land-revenue assessed on land which is not free from revenue.

* S. 69 has been substituted for the original by Act XVI. of 1889, s. 19.

Act XVIII of 1881.

Power of Chief Commissioner to make rules.

The Chief Commissioner may, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, make rules determining the principles by which the Settlement-officer shall be guided in the disposal of claims coming under this section.

Enquiry as to claims to hold free from revenue as against málguzárs.

74. When any land not being land which any person is entitled to hold free from revenue as against the Government is held by a proprietor, whether himself a málguzár or not, who claims to hold it wholly or partially free from revenue as against the other málguzárs of the mahál, the Settlement-officer shall decide whether the claimant is entitled to be exempted from paying the whole or any part of the revenue which would otherwise be payable in respect of such land, and, if he decides that the claimant is so entitled, shall also determine the conditions under which, and the term for which, the claimant is entitled to such exemption:

Provided that no decision under this section shall exempt any land from the payment of revenue, when the mahál in which such land is comprised is sold for arrears of revenue.

Chief Commissioner may make rules for disposal of such cases.

The Chief Commissioner may make rules for the guidance of Settlement-officers in dealing with cases under this section.

Time from which orders under sections 73 and 74 take effect.

75. When the Settlement-officer decides, under section 73 or section 74 that land which has been held free from revenue, or at less than a full assessment, is liable to pay revenue, or to pay the same at enhanced rates, such decision shall take effect from the first day of the agricultural year next ensuing; unless the Chief Commissioner directs that the amount payable in respect of such land on account of the revenue accruing due within any one or more of the last preceding twelve years shall be realized.

Settlement-officer to decide what village-cesses are leviable;

76. The Settlement-officer shall determine and record the village-cesses, if any, which are leviable in accordance with village-custom, and the persons by and from whom, and the rates at which, they are leviable; and such cesses shall, if sanctioned by the Chief Commissioner, be leviable accordingly.

to determine certain disputes.

77. The Settlement-officer may determine disputes regarding any of the following matters (namely):—

(a) the right of any lambardár, mukaddam, patwárí, village watchman, or other village-servant to any customary dues or other remuneration, and his liability to render any customary service in return for such dues or remuneration;

(b) the rights of persons resident in the village, or holding lands comprised in the mahál, in or to the common land of the mahál and its produce, and the village-site;

(c) any customs relating to irrigation or to rights-of-way and other easements;

(d) any other rights and customs which the Chief Commissioner directs to be recorded in the administration-paper.

Act XVIII. of 1881.

Procedure in cases under sections 68, 69, 70, 72, and 77, clauses (b), (c), and (d).

78. If a dispute arises regarding any matter mentioned or referred to in sections 68, 69, 70, 72, and 77, clauses (b), (c), and (d), the Settlement-officer shall decide it summarily after making such enquiry as he thinks fit, and shall not be bound to hear any party to such dispute, or to receive any evidence tendered by any such party; but in the case of every such dispute he shall record a proceeding stating the nature of such dispute, his decision thereon, the grounds of such decision, and such other particulars as he thinks fit.

Record-of-rights.

79. The Settlement-officer shall prepare for every mahál, or, if he thinks fit, for any group of neighbouring mahals, a record-of-rights, and shall include in it—

(a) the results of the inquiries made under this chapter; and

(b) any other matters which the Chief Commissioner may, by rules in this behalf, direct to be entered in such paper.

Chief Commissioner may make rules regarding record-of-rights.

80. The Chief Commissioner may make rules prescribing the language in which the record-of-rights shall be drawn up, the form of the papers of which it shall consist, and the manner in which such papers shall be signed and attested by the Settlement-officer and the parties interested in the matters to which they refer.

Record-of-rights to be made over to Deputy Commissioner.

81. When the Settlement-officer has completed a record-of-rights in manner hereinbefore prescribed, he shall, subject to any order issued by the Chief Commissioner in this behalf, make it over to the Deputy Commissioner for custody.

Effect of entries in record-of-rights.

82. When the record-of-rights is duly made and attested, all entries therein shall be presumed to be correct until the contrary is shown.

Suits to contest certain settlement decisions or entries.

83. Any person, deeming himself aggrieved by any decision under section 78, or by any decision of the Chief Settlement-officer in appeal therefrom, or by entry made in the record-of-rights as to any matter referred to in that section, may institute a suit in the Civil Court to have such decision set aside, or such entry cancelled or amended:

Provided as follows:—

When any suit under this section is instituted for the cancellation or amendment of an entry, the Government, if it so desires, and all persons interested in the entry, shall be made parties to the suit:

No persons by whom the record-of-rights was signed, and no persons claiming through or under them, shall, without the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner, institute any suit with a view to modify or set aside any entry relating to any matter mentioned in section 70 or section 77, clause (b), (c), or (d).

Revision of record-of-rights by Chief Commissioner.

84. After an assessment has been confirmed by the Governor-General in Council, the Chief Commissioner shall not exercise in respect of any entry of the descriptions referred to in section 83, duly made in a record-of-rights prepared in connection with such assessment, and duly attested, the power of revision conferred by sections 25 and 31, unless it is proved that such entry was made inadvertently.

Act XVIII. of 1881.

Proceedings regarding lands the property of Government.

85. In respect of lands declared to be the property of Government, the Settlement-officer shall, instead of proceeding as hereinbefore provided, conduct such operations, and prepare such record, as the Chief Commissioner may direct.

CHAPTER VII.

OF SETTLEMENTS MADE BEFORE THIS ACT COMES INTO FORCE.

Former settlements deemed to have been made under this Act.

86. Settlements made before this Act comes into force shall be deemed, so far as may be, to have been made hereunder; and the provisions of this Act in regard to proceedings taken and records prepared by Settlement-officers in the making of settlements hereunder shall apply in like manner to proceedings taken and records prepared before this Act comes into force.

Effect of awards of proprietary rights at such settlements.

87. When a Settlement-officer or Settlement-Court has, at any settlement made before this Act comes into force, made an award of proprietary rights in any land, all claims which, after consideration by such officer or Court, may have been expressly decided by him or it to be invalid, or inferior to the claims of the persons in whose favour the award was made, shall be barred both as against Government and as against the persons last mentioned; and no suit shall lie for the enforcement of such claims in any Civil Court.

The award at any such settlement of proprietary rights in land to a widow shall be deemed to confer on her those rights only which, in accordance with the personal law to which she is subject, she would enjoy in land inherited by her from her husband.

When suits for proprietary rights will lie in Civil Courts.

88. Any person whose claim to proprietary rights in any land was not expressly decided by such officer or Court may sue in a Civil Court to establish such claim; and if he can prove that, when proprietary rights in such land were awarded by such officer or Court to other persons, she was entitled to interests therein of the same nature as those upon consideration of which the award was made, the Civil Court may declare him entitled to a proprietary right of such nature and extent in the land as it may deem just.

Chief Commissioner may allot waste-land to málik-makbúzás entitled thereto.

89. When, at any settlement made before this Act comes into force, málik-makbúzás have been declared entitled to a portion of the waste-lands comprised in any mahál, the Chief Commissioner may, notwithstanding anything contained in the record of such settlement, prescribe the extent of such portion and the mode in which the same shall be assigned to them; and may determine the nature and extent of their interests therein and the conditions on which they may hold it.

PART IV.

OF REVENUE-ADMINISTRATION.

CHAPTER VIII.

OF THE COLLECTION OF LAND-REVENUE.

Power of Chief Commissioner to regulate payment of land-revenue.

90. Notwithstanding anything contained in the record-of-rights of any village, the Chief Commissioner may fix the number and amount of the instalments, and the times, places, and manner at and in which land-revenue, whether payable direct to the Government or not, shall be paid.

Until the Chief Commissioner otherwise directs, all such payments shall be made on the dates, in the instalments, in the manner, and at the places on, in, and at which, they are payable when this Act comes into force.

"Arrear." "Defaulters."

91. When any sum payable under a settlement or sub-settlement, "or otherwise under an assessment made in accordance with this Act,"* is not paid within the time at which it is payable under section 90, such sum shall be deemed to be an arrear, and all the persons with whom such settlement or sub-settlement "or such assessment"* was made, their representatives and assigns, shall thereupon become jointly and severally liable for it, and shall be deemed to be defaulters within the meaning of this Act.

Realization of Revenue from Málguzárs.

Tahsildar's statement of account to be conclusive evidence of arrear.

92. A statement of account, authenticated by the signature of the Tahsíldár, shall, for the purposes of this chapter, be conclusive evidence of the existence of any arrear payable direct to the Government, of its amount, and of the persons who in respect thereof are defaulters.†

Notice of demand.

93. The Deputy Commissioner or any officer empowered by him in this behalf may, if he thinks fit, before any of the processes hereinafter referred to are issued for the recovery of such an arrear, cause a notice of demand to be served on any of the defaulters.

Processes for recovery of arrears.

94. An arrear payable directly to Government may be recovered by any one or more of the following processes:—

(a) by arresting the defaulter and imprisoning him in the civil jail;

(b) by attaching and selling his moveable property;

(c) by attaching the mahál in respect of which the arrear has accrued or the share or land of any málguzár who has not paid the portion of the revenue which, as between him and the other málguzárs, is payable by him, and taking the same mahál, share, or land under direct management;

---

* In s. 91 the words quoted have been inserted by Act XVI. of 1889, s. 29.

† But see s. 114, infra, as to payment under protest

Act XVIII. of 1881,

(d) by transferring the share or land of any málguzár who has not paid such portion to any málguzár who has paid the same, or if every such málguzár declines to accept such share or land, to any person having a mortgage or charge upon the same, and who consents to accept it;

(e) by annulling the settlement of the mahál in respect of which the arrear has accrued, and taking such mahál under direct management or farming the same;

(f) by selling such mahál, or the share or land of any málguzár who has not paid the portion of the revenue aforesaid;

(g) by selling immoveable property belonging to the defaulter other than the land in respect of which the arrear has accrued:

(h) in the case of a raiyat who has accepted the assessment of a survey-number, by ejecting him from his holding:*

Provided as follows:—

(1) the process mentioned in clause (a) shall not be issued against any female, minor, lunatic, or idiot;

(2) the processes mentioned in clauses (d), (e), (f), and (g), shall not be enforced without the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner;

(3) no land shall be sold, and the settlement of no land shall be annulled, on account of an arrear accruing in respect of land whilst it is under attachment, or under charge of the Superintendent of Government Wards, or held under direct management, or let in farm in accordance with any of the provisions of this Act.

The processes specified in clauses (a), (b), and (g), may be enforced either in the district in which the default has been made, or in any other district.†

Arrest and imprisonment for recovery of arrear.

95. The process mentioned in section 94, clause (a), may be executed by issuing a warrant directing the officer named therein, if the defaulter fails to pay the arrear by a date to be fixed in the warrant, to bring him to the tahsíl.

If, when the defaulter arrives at the tahsíl, the arrear is still unpaid, the Tahsíldár may order him to be taken before the Deputy Commissioner, or may keep him under personal restraint at the tahsíl for a period not exceeding ten days, unless within such period the arrear is paid, and may then, if the arrear is still unpaid, cause him to be taken before the Deputy Commissioner.

Imprisonment of defaulter in civil jail.

96. If the arrear is not paid when the defaulter arrives before the Deputy Commissioner, the Deputy Commissioner may issue an order to the officer in charge of the civil jail of the district, directing him to confine the defaulter in such jail for such period, not exceeding three months from the date of the order, as the Deputy Commissioner may think fit, unless within such period the arrear is paid.

Procedure in sales of moveable property.

97. Attachments and sales of moveable property made under this chapter shall be conducted as nearly as may be according to the law for the time being in force for the attachment and sale of moveable property under the decree of a Civil Court.

---

* Cl. h has been inserted by Act XVI. of 1889, s. 21.

† As to procedure for enforcement in another district, see the Revenue Recovery Act (I. of 1890).

98. After causing any attachment to be made under section 94, clause (c), the Deputy Commissioner shall issue a proclamation declaring the attachment to be in force, and shall take the attached mahál, share, or land under his own management, or place it under the management of any agent whom he may appoint for the purpose.

Management of mahál, share, or land attached under section 94 (c).

99. During the continuance of an attachment under section 98 the defaulters shall be excluded from possession of the land attached, and the Deputy Commissioner or the agent appointed by him shall have all their rights to manage the land, and to realize the rents and profits arising therefrom, and shall be bound by all their liabilities as málguzárs or proprietors to any subordinate proprietors or tenants of such land.

Effect of attachment.

100. The surplus profits of such land, after defraying the cost of attachment and management, shall be applied, first, to the payment of any revenue becoming due in respect of such land during the attachment, and, next, to discharging the arrear for the recovery of which the attachment was made.

Profits of land how applied.

101. The attachment shall continue until the arrear is paid or realized from the profits of the land attached, or the Deputy Commissioner reinstates the defaulters in possession:

Attachment when to cease.

Provided that no attachment shall continue beyond five years from the first day of the agricultural year next following its commencement.

102. When it is proposed to execute the process mentioned in section 94 clause (d), the persons to whom the share or land in respect of which the arrear is due is to be transferred shall be required to pay such arrear, or to secure its payment, to the satisfaction of the Deputy Commissioner.

Transfer under section 94 (d).

No such transfer shall be made for a term exceeding fifteen years from the first day of the agricultural year next after the date on which it is sanctioned by the Chief Commissioner.

No proceedings taken under this section shall affect the joint and several liability of the málguzárs of the mahál for arrears accruing in respect of such mahál subsequently to the transfer of the share or land, except that, as regards all such arrears, the transferee shall stand in the place of the málguzár whose share or land is transferred.

Joint and several liability not affected by transfer.

103. When the Chief Commissioner sanctions the annulment of the settlement of any mahál, the Deputy Commissioner shall proclaim such annulment, and may then exclude the defaulters from the possession of the mahál, and either manage the mahal or any portion thereof himself or through an agent, or let the mahál or any portion thereof in farm for such term and on such conditions as the Chief Commissioner directs:

Procedure after receipt of sanction to annulment of settlement.

Provided that no management or farm under this section shall continue for a longer period than fifteen years from the first day of the agricultural year next after the proclamation of annulment of settlement.

Act XVIII. of 1881.

After the date of such proclamation no liabilities shall accrue under the settlement so annulled; but such annulment shall not affect anything done or any liability incurred under the settlement before such date.

Case of a portion of a mahál being managed or farmed.

104. When a portion only of the mahál is managed or let in farm under section 103, the rest of such mahal shall be separately re-settled with the proprietors thereof for the remainder of the term of settlement.

Settlement on expiry of management or farm.

105. As soon as the management or farm of any mahál or portion thereof has come to an end, the Deputy Commissioner shall offer, to the persons entitled, under section 49, to an offer of assessment, a new assessment of the land, on such conditions as the Chief Commissioner may direct, for the remainder of the term of the settlement of the mahál; and, if such offer is refused, may, with the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner, let such mahál or portion in farm for the remainder of the term of settlement to some other person, or manage it himself, or through an agent for such period.

Effect of annulment of settlement.

106. No leases, liens, or other incumbrances created by the defaulters, or by any person through or under whom they claim, of or upon any land managed or let in farm under this Act, shall, during such management or farm, be binding upon the Deputy Commissioner or Settlement-officer, his agent, or lessee.

Saving of rights in sír-land.

107. No defaulter shall be deprived of the possession of his sír-land in the execution of any of the processes mentioned in section 94, clauses (c), (d), and (e); but every such defaulter shall, while such process is being enforced, be entitled to retain possession of, and liable to pay rent for, such land as if he were an absolute occupancy-tenant, at such rent as may be fixed by the Deputy Commissioner.

Nature of estate taken by purchaser of land sold for arrears due thereon.

108. Unless the Chief Commissioner, in sanctioning the sale, otherwise directs, a purchaser of any land sold for arrears of revenue due in respect thereof acquires the full proprietorship or superior or inferior proprietorship of it, as the case may be, free of all leases, liens, and other incumbrances, and all grants or contracts previously made by any person other than the purchaser in respect of such land, shall become void as against such purchaser.

Nothing in this section shall—

(a) affect the rights of any proprietor, superior or inferior to the defaulters, or of any málik-makbúzá or occupancy-tenant who does not derive his rights as such proprietor, málik-makbúzá, or tenant from express contract with such defaulters or any person through whom they claim; or

(b) apply to lands held under leases at fair rents for the erection thereon of dwelling-houses, places of worship, or manufactories, or for working mines, minerals, coals, and quarries, or for laying out and maintaining gardens and burial-grounds, or for constructing tanks and canals, so long as the lands continue to be used for the purposes specified in such leases respectively; or

(c) deprive any defaulter whose property is sold of the rights in respect to his sír-land conferred by any law for the time being in force,

The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, determine what rents shall be deemed to be fair rents within the meaning of this section.

Rules for sale of immoveable property.

109. When immoveable property is sold under this Act, the rules prescribed in sections 287, 288, 293, and 306 to 316, both inclusive, of the Code of Civil Procedure,* shall be followed, except in the following particulars (that is to say):—

(a) The defaulter may pay the arrear in respect of which the land is to be sold at any time before the day fixed for the sale, and on such payment the sale shall be stayed.

(b) The proclamation directed by the said section 287 shall, when the sale is under clause (f), section 94 of this Act, declare that, subject to the provisions of section 108, the full proprietorship, or superior or inferior proprietorship, as the case may be, is to be sold free from all leases, liens, and other incumbrances, and the certificate mentioned in section 316 of the said Code shall contain a similar statement.

(c) The last two clauses of the said section 287 shall not apply.

(d) An appeal from any order under section 312 of the said Code for confirming or setting aside the sale shall lie to the Commissioner of the division, and an appeal from the Commissioner's order on such appeal shall lie to the Chief Commissioner.

(e) The Deputy Commissioner may, from time to time, postpone any sale which he has proclaimed, reporting such postponement to the Commissioner of the division.

(f) Section 309 of the said Code shall be read as if, after the words "for such payment," the words "and every sale of such property made after a postponement" were added.

(g) Section 313 of the said Code shall not apply to sales under section 94, clause (f), of this Act.

(h) Section 316 of the said Code shall be read as if the words, "The Deputy Commissioner shall place the purchaser in possession of the lands which he has purchased," were added thereto.

Pre-emption at sales.

110. In the course of a sale under section 94, clause (f), if the property is knocked down to a stranger, the following persons may claim to take it at the sum last bid in the following order:—

(a) any málguzár who has paid the revenue which as between him and the other málguzárs is payable by him;

(b) if the superior proprietorship is sold, the inferior proprietor;

(c) if the inferior proprietorship is sold, the superior proprietor:

Provided that such claim is made before the officer conducting the sale closes the sitting at which the sale is held, and that the claimant undertakes to fulfil all the conditions of the sale binding on the purchaser.

Application of proceeds of sale of immoveable property.

111. The proceeds of every sale in execution of any process mentioned in section 94 shall be applied, first, in satisfaction of the arrear on account of which the sale was held, and

* These references to Act X. of 1877 should now be read as applying to Act XIV. of 1882.—See s. 3 of the latter Act.

Act XVIII. of 1881.

of the expenses of such sale; secondly, to the payment of any other arrear due to Government by the defaulter; and the surplus, if any, shall then be payable to him, or, where there are more defaulters than one, to such defaulters according to their respective shares in the property sold.

Costs recoverable as part of arrear.

112. The costs of serving a notice of demand under section 93 and of enforcing any process mentioned in section 94 shall be recoverable as part of the arrear in respect of which the notice was served and the process was issued.

Matters as to which Chief Commissioner may make rules.

113. The Chief Commissioner may make rules—

(a) for the guidance of Revenue-officers in issuing notices of demand under section 93 and executing the processes mentioned in section 94;

(b) defining the classes of officers by whom the processes mentioned in section 94, clauses (a) and (b), may be enforced;

(c) prescribing the agency by which any of the processes issued under section 94 shall be executed.

Remedies open to person denying that sum demanded as an arrear is due.

114. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 92, when proceedings are taken under this Act for the recovery of an arrear, the person against whom such proceedings are taken may, if he denies that the arrear or any part thereof is due, pay the same under protest made at the time of payment and duly signed by him or by his agent, and institute a suit in the Civil Court for the recovery of the amount which he denies to be due.

Realization of Revenue by Málguzárs.

Limitation of right to set-off, &c., in suit for arrears.

115. In a suit for the recovery of an arrear of revenue not being revenue payable directly to Government, and in a suit brought by a lambardár to recover the amount of any revenue payable to Government through him, the defendant shall not, except with the permission of the Court,—

(a) set-off against the plaintiff's demand any sum of money recoverable by him from the plaintiff; or

(b) claim credit for any payment purporting to have been made on account when such payment was made before the date on which the amount thereof became due.

Recovery of arrear through Deputy Commissioner instead of by suit.

116.* Any lambardár or sub-lambardár entitled to recover an arrear, or any málguzár to whom such an arrear is due under a sub-settlement, may, before instituting a suit for the recovery thereof, apply to the Deputy Commissioner to recover such arrear on his behalf as if it were an arrear of revenue payable directly to Government.

The Deputy Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, comply with such application, but shall, before compliance therewith, give to the persons who would

---

* As to the application of s. 116 to the recovery of contributions for patwáris, see s. 146A (2), infra.

be defendants if a suit were instituted for the recovery of such arrear, opportunity to show cause against the order which he proposes to make. Act XVIII of 1881.

The Deputy Commissioner shall not be made a defendant to any suit instituted under section 114 in respect of an arrear as to which an order has been made under this section.

No person on whose account the Deputy Commissioner proceeds under this section to recover an arrear shall thereby be relieved of his responsibility for such arrear.

Saving of right of málguzár to demand revenue of land assessed to revenue and held free.

117. Nothing in the Indian Limitation Act, 1877, and no agreement made after this Act comes into force, shall bar the right of the málguzárs of any mahál assessed with land-revenue to demand revenue in respect of any land, which, having been taken into account in such assessment, has been held by any person without payment of revenue.

The Chief Commissioner may, in his discretion, exempt any case from the operation of this section.

Limitation in suits for revenue.

118. No suit for the recovery of revenue payable under a settlement or sub-settlement shall be instituted after three years reckoned from the date on which such revenue becomes payable.

In other respects the limitation of such suits shall be governed by the Indian Limitation Act, 1877.

Interest on Arrears.

Interest on arrears.

119. Interest shall not be charged on an arrear of revenue unless the Chief Commissioner, by general or special order, so directs; provided that the Court may award interest at such rate as it thinks fit on sums payable under a sub-settlement.

CHAPTER IX.

OF REVENUE AND VILLAGE RECORDS.

Correction of record-of-rights.

120. Any entry in the record-of-rights may, after such record has been made over to the Deputy Commissioner, be corrected by the Deputy Commissioner on the application of any person interested, or of his own motion. Such correction may be made on one or more of the following grounds, and on no others :—

(a) that all persons interested in such entry wish to have it corrected; or

(b) that by a decree in a suit brought under s. 83 it has been declared to be erroneous; or

(c) that, being founded on a decree or order of a Civil Court, or on the order of a Revenue or Settlement-officer, it is not in accordance with such decree or order; or (d) that, being founded on such decree or order, the order or decision has subsequently been modified on appeal or review, or has been revised by the Chief Commissioner.

Revision of record in accordance with provision therein contained.

121. The Deputy Commissioner may revise a record-of-rights when such revision is provided for in such record.

Act XVIII. of 1881.

Powers of Deputy Commissioner as to correction of entry or revision of record.

122. When the Deputy Commissioner takes proceed tion of any entry in the record-of-rig revision of such record-of-rights, he sha for the purpose of such correction or re the powers which the Chief Settlement-officer might have exercise proceedings had been taken whilst the settlement was in progress.

Power to direct that rule or custom entered in record-of-rights shall be enforced by Government.

123. The Chief Commissioner may, in his discretion, by notificat the official Gazette, direct that any specified custom, or condition, duly entered in the reco rights of any specified village, shall be enforce the Government.

Punishment of violation of such rule or custom.

If any of the persons with whom a settlement or sub-settlement has b made violate or neglect any rule, custom, or co tion with respect to which the Chief Commissio has made a direction under this section, the Deputy Commissioner may, if penalty is provided by any law for the time being in force for such violation o neglect, recover from such person a penalty not exceeding two hundred rupees

Suit to set aside proceedings under section 123.

124. Any person against whom proceedings have been taken under sec tion 123 may institute a suit against Government to s aside such proceedings on the ground that no ru custom, or condition was, in fact, violated or neglected. If the Court fi that no rule, custom, or condition has been violated or neglected, it may, its order, annul such proceedings, and direct that any penalty paid by t plaintiff be refunded; and may also award to him such costs as he has nece sarily incurred in the proceedings, and such further sum as compensation it thinks fit.

Powers to control management of forests.

124A.* (1) When, under any record-of-rights or sanad or any agreeme with the Government, the proprietor or the superior inferior proprietor of any forest-land included withi or forming a mahál is bound to manage such forest-land in accordance wit rules or instructions prescribed by any Government officer, the Chief Commis sioner may make rules regarding the control and management of such fores land.

(2) If the proprietor or the superior or inferior proprietor, as the case may be, fails to observe the rules so made, the Deputy Commissioner may issue a notice calling on him to show cause, within a reasonable time to be specified in the notice, why he should not be excluded from the possession of the forest-land.

(3) If no sufficient cause is shown, the Deputy Commissioner may, with the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner, exclude such proprietor from the possession of the forest-land, and assume the direct management thereof for a term to be fixed by the Chief Commissioner.

(4) The costs of management shall be borne by the proprietor, or by the superior and inferior proprietors in such proportions as the Chief Commissioner may direct with reference to the amount of their respective interests in the forest or mahál, and shall be realizable as land-revenue.

(5) The profits of such forest-land, while under direct management, shall be paid to the proprietor, or to the superior and inferior proprietors in the proportions in which the costs of management are borne by them.

* S. 124A has been inserted by Act XVI. of 1889, s. 22.

(6) No leases, liens, incumbrances, or contracts created or made by the proprietor, or by any person through or under whom he claims, of, upon, or with respect to, the forest-land held under direct management, shall be binding upon the Deputy Commissioner during such management. Act XVIII. of 1881.

(7) The Deputy Commissioner may confiscate any timber or other forest-produce cut or removed in contravention of the rules made under sub-section (1).

(8) On the expiration of the period fixed for the direct management, the forest-land shall be restored to the proprietor, or superior or inferior proprietor, as the case may be.

Powers of Chief Commissioner as to registration of changes after preparation of record-of-rights.

125. The Chief Commissioner may—

(a) direct that the mukaddam of each village shall, for the purpose of showing the changes occurring therein "from time to time"* subsequently to the preparation of the record-of-rights, prepare, or, where there is a patwárí, cause to be prepared, and furnish, annually for such village, papers in such form, at such time, containing such particulars, and attested in such manner, as the Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, prescribe;

(b) lay down the procedure to be followed in order to ascertain that a change has occurred in the village, and the nature of such change.

All changes referred to in this section shall be recorded in such registers as the Chief Commissioner appoints, and not in the record-of-rights, and the Chief Commissioner may direct that, before any specified changes are recorded, the order of a specified Revenue-officer shall be obtained in this behalf.

Possession of proprietary rights to be notified.

126. All persons lawfully entering into possession of proprietary rights and interests in any land shall, within a reasonable time, give notice of such entry to the Tahsíldár of the tahsíl in which such land is situated.

If any question arises whether any right or interest is a proprietary right, or interest within the meaning of this section, the decision thereof by the Chief Commissioner shall be final.

Notice to be given by guardian in case of minority or idiocy.

If the person so entering is a minor, lunatic, or idiot, the guardian or other person who has charge of his property shall give the notice required by this section.

Fine for neglect to give notice of possession.

127. Any person, neglecting to give the notice required by section 126, shall be liable, at the discretion of the Deputy Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner, to fine which may extend to fifty rupees for each day during which such neglect continues.

Obligation to aid in preparation of village-papers.

128. All persons being in possession of proprietary rights in land shall, on being so required by the Deputy Commissioner, prepare, or cause to be prepared, such papers, and furnish such information, as may be required for the preparation of the village-papers prescribed under section 125.

Fees for recording changes.

129. The Chief Commissioner may direct that fees shall be leviable when changes are recorded under the last clause of section 125, and may fix the amount of such fees.

*In s. 125 (a) the words quoted have been inserted by Act XVI. of 1889, s. 23.

Act XVIII. of 1881.

from whom leviable. All fees so leviable shall be levied from the person in whose favour the change is made.

130. The Deputy Commissioner shall, in each year, make enquiry regarding all cases in which land has been granted by Government, conditionally or for a time, free, wholly or in part, from the payment of revenue.

Annual enquiry regarding and held free from revenue.

If it appears to the Deputy Commissioner that the conditions of any grant have been broken by the grantee, he shall report the case through the Commissioner of the division for the orders of the Chief Commissioner, who may direct that the land be assessed, or may pass such other order as he thinks fit.

Procedure on breach of conditions of grant.

If it appears to the Deputy Commissioner that the term of any such grant has expired, or (when the grant is for a life or lives), if the person last entitled to hold the land comprised in the grant, free from revenue, or at less than full revenue-rates, has died, he shall assess the same, and shall report his proceedings through the Commissioner of the division for the sanction of the Chief Commissioner.

Procedure on expiry of term of grant.

131. All records kept under this Act shall be open to public inspection at such times, and on such conditions as to fees or otherwise, as the Chief Commissioner, from time to time, directs.

Inspection of revenue-records.

CHAPTER X.

OF CERTAIN ADDITIONAL POWERS AND FUNCTIONS OF REVENUE-OFFICERS.

132. The Deputy Commissioner shall, when a settlement is not in progress, exercise the powers conferred by this Act on Settlement-officers for the following purposes :—

Purposes for which, when settlement is not in progress, Deputy Commissioner shall exercise Settlement-officers' powers.

(a) causing boundary-marks to be erected or repaired, and recovering the cost of such erection and repair ;

(b) assessing land-revenue on lands which are liable to assessment, but have not been assessed ;

(c) declaring any local area to be a mahál ;

(d) settling lands from which the proprietors were excluded at settlement, and to which they have been or are about to be re-admitted ;

(e) settling mahálsin respect of which an application has been made under the third proviso to section 56 ;

(f) dealing with claims to hold land wholly or partially free from revenue as against the málguzárs ;

(g) assessing lands gained by alluvion ;

(h) ascertaining and recording village-cesses which are levied when this Act comes into force, but have not been recorded at the settlement ;

(i) enquiring into the claims of thekadárs, gaontias, or farmers, and protecting them.*

* Cl. i has been added by Act XVI. of 1889, s. 24.

Purposes for which officers may be invested with Settlement-officers' powers.

133. The Chief Commissioner may, during the currency of a settlement, invest any officer with the powers conferred on a Settlement-officer by sections 40, 41, and 42; or, Act XVIII of 1881.

with the sanction of the Governor-General in Council, with any other of the powers which are by this Act conferred on a Settlement-officer; but not so as to enable him to enhance the amount of an assessment in force under section 56.

Cognizance of, and penalty for, offence of injuring boundary-marks.

134. Any person wilfully erasing, removing, or damaging a boundary-mark, may be ordered by the Deputy Commissioner, or by a Tahsíldár or Náib Tahsíldár empowered by the Chief Commissioner in this behalf, to pay to the officer making the order, in addition to any fine to which such person would be liable under section 434 of the Indian Penal Code, such sum, not exceeding fifty rupees, as may, in the opinion of such officer, be necessary to defray the expense of restoring the same, and of rewarding the person (if any) who gave information of such erasure, removal, or damage.

Procedure when person injuring cannot be found.

135. Whenever the person erasing, removing, or damaging such mark cannot be discovered, or if, for any other reason, it is found impracticable to recover from him the sum which he has been ordered to pay, the mark shall be re-erected or repaired at the cost of the proprietors, mortgagees, or farmers, "or, in the case of regularly-settled raiyatwarí villages, of the raiyats,"* of such one or more of the adjoining lands as the Deputy Commissioner thinks fit.

136. [Partition of a mahál into two mahals.] Repealed by Act XVI. of 1889, s. 26.

CHAPTER X.-A.†

PARTITION.

Perfect and Imperfect Partition.

Perfect and imperfect partition.

136. (1) Partition is either perfect or imperfect.

(2) Perfect partition means the division of a mahál into two or more maháls.

(3) Imperfect partition means the division of a mahál into two or more pattís jointly responsible for the revenue assessed on the whole mahál.

Persons entitled to imperfect partition.

136A. Any recorded co-sharer of a mahál, and any person in whose favour a decree has been passed awarding to him a proprietary interest in a mahál, whether such interest consists of a fractional share in the whole mahál or a part of the mahál, or of specific lands, is entitled to claim at any time imperfect partition of his share.

Persons entitled to perfect partition.

136B. Any recorded co-sharer in a mahál, not being a mahál

(a) in the Sambalpur district, or

(b) held by superior and inferior proprietors, and which the Chief Commissioner by rule declares to be incapable of perfect partition,

* In s. 35 the words quoted have been inserted by Act XVI. of 1889, s. 25.

† Ch. X.-A has been inserted by Act XVI. of 1889, s. 26.

Act XVIII. of 1881.

whose share, saving such part of it as may be impartible, has been completely separated from the rest of the mahál, and is held by him in severalty, is entitled to claim perfect partition of his share at the time of settlement of such mahál.

Jurisdiction of Civil Court barred as to partition.

136C. No Civil Court shall entertain any suit or application for the imperfect or perfect partition of a mahál.

Imperfect Partition.

Applications for imperfect partition to be made to Deputy Commissioner.

136D. (1) Applications for imperfect partition shall be made in writing to the Deputy Commissioner of the district in which the mahál is situate.

(2) If the mahál is situate in two or more districts, the application may be made in any one of those districts, and the partition shall be made by such one of the Deputy Commissioners of those districts as the Chief Commissioner may direct.

Procedure on receipt of application.

136E. (1) The Deputy Commissioner, on receiving an application for imperfect partition, shall, if the application be in order, and not open to objection on the face of it, publish a notification of the same at his office, and at some conspicuous place on the mahál to which the application relates, and shall serve a notice on all such of the recorded co-sharers in the mahál as have not joined in the application, requiring any co-sharer in possession, who may object to the partition, to appear before him to state his objection, either in person or by a duly-authorized agent, on a day to be specified in the notice, not being less than thirty, or more than sixty, days from the date on which such notice was issued.

(2) Where, from any cause, notice cannot be personally served on any co-sharer, the notification shall be deemed sufficient notice under this section.

Objection to partition.

136F. If, on or before the day specified, any objection is made to the partition by any co-sharer in possession, and the Deputy Commissioner, on a consideration of such objection, is of opinion that there is good and sufficient reason why the partition should be absolutely disallowed, he may refuse the application, recording the grounds of his refusal.

Objection raising question of title.

136G. (1) If the objection raises any question of title or of proprietary right which has not been already determined by a Court of competent jurisdiction, the Deputy Commissioner may either decline to grant the application until the question in dispute has been determined by a competent Court, or may proceed to inquire into the merits of the objection.

(2) In the latter case the Deputy Commissioner, after making the necessary inquiry, and taking such evidence as may be adduced, shall record a judgment declaring the nature and extent of the interests of the party or parties applying for the partition, and of any other party or parties who may be affected thereby.

(3) The procedure to be observed by the Deputy Commissioner in trying such cases shall be that laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure for the trial of original suits, and he may, with the consent of the parties, refer any question arising in such case to arbitration, and the provisions of Chapter XXXVII. of the same Code, relative to arbitration, shall apply to such references.

Act XVIII. of 1881.

136H. (1) All decrees and orders passed by the Deputy Commissioner under the last foregoing section, deciding the rights of parties, shall be held to be decrees and orders of a Court of Civil Judicature, and shall be open to appeal as if passed by the Court of the Deputy Commissioner acting as a Court of Civil Judicature of first instance under the Central Provinces Civil Courts Act, 1885.

Effect of Deputy Commissioner's orders in such cases and appeals therefrom.

(2) Upon such appeal being made, the Court of appeal may issue a precept to the Deputy Commissioner, directing him to stay the partition pending the decision of the appeal.

136I. From any decree or order passed under the last-foregoing section by a Commissioner sitting as a Court of Appeal a second appeal shall, where a second appeal is by law allowed, lie to the Court of the Judicial Commissioner under the law for the time being in force relating to second appeals to that Court.

Second appeal in such cases.

136J. When it has been decided to make a partition under this chapter, the Deputy Commissioner may give the parties the option of making the partition themselves or of appointing arbitrators for the purpose, or he shall make the partition himself.

Option to parties to make partition themselves, or appoint arbitrators.

136K. Before commencing to make the partition, the Deputy Commissioner shall record a proceeding specifying the lands held in severalty, if any, and the land held in common, and laying down the principles to be followed in making the partition, with particulars of the method on which such principles are to be applied.

Proceeding to be recorded by the Deputy Commissioner before making partition.

136L. (1) The pattí of each sharer shall be made as compact as possible:

Each pattí to be made as compact as possible.

Provided that, so far as may be compatible with fairness of partition, lands held in severalty shall be left in the possession of the parties holding the same.

(2) No partition shall be disallowed solely on the ground of incompactness.

136M. (1) If, in making the partition, it be necessary to include in any pattí the land occupied by a dwelling-house or other building in the possession of another co-sharer, such other co-sharer shall be allowed to retain it, with any buildings thereon, on condition of his paying a reasonable ground-rent for it to the sharer into whose pattí it may fall.

Rule when house of one sharer is included in the pattí of another.

(2) The limits of such land and the rent to be paid for it shall be fixed by the Deputy Commissioner.

136N. (1) No sír-land belonging to any co-sharer shall be included in the pattí assigned on partition to another co-sharer unless with the consent of the co-sharer who cultivates it, or unless the partition cannot otherwise be conveniently carried out.

Sír-land belonging to one sharer not to be included without his consent in the pattí of another sharer.

(2) If such land be so included, and after partition such co-sharer continue to cultivate it, he shall be recorded as an occupancy-tenant in respect of such land, and his rent shall be fixed by order of the Deputy Commissioner.

Act XVIII. of 1881.

136O. (1) Tanks, wells, water-courses, and embankments, shall be treated as attached to the land for the benefit of which they were originally made.

Rule as to tanks, wells, and other irrigation-works.

(2) Where, from the extent, situation, or construction of such works, it is found necessary that they should continue the joint property of the proprietors of two or more of the pattís into which the mahál may be divided, the Deputy Commissioner shall determine the extent to which the proprietors of each patti may make use of the said works, and the proportion of the charges for repairs of such works to be borne by such proprietors respectively, and the manner in which the profits, if any, derived from such works shall be divided.

136P. (1) Places of worship and burial-grounds held in common previous to the partition of a mahál shall continue to be so held unless the parties otherwise agree among themselves.

Rule regarding places of worship and burial-grounds.

(2) In such cases they shall state in writing the agreement into which they have entered, and such writing shall be filed with the record.

136Q. (1) If the costs to be paid by the applicant for partition are not paid within a time to be fixed by the Deputy Commissioner, the case may be dismissed.

Deputy Commissioner may dismiss case for non-payment of costs, or may quash proceedings.

(2) If, at any stage of the proceedings, there appears to be any reason for stopping the partition, the Deputy Commissioner may stay the partition, and order the proceedings to be quashed, recording his reasons for so doing.

136R. On completion of the partition, the Deputy Commissioner shall submit the proceedings to the Commissioner, who may either uphold the partition proposed, or modify it, or quash the proceedings; and a partition shall not take effect until it has been sanctioned by him.

Commissioner's sanction to partition necessary.

136S. (1) On a partition being sanctioned by the Commissioner, the Deputy Commissioner shall publish a notification of the fact at his office, and at some conspicuous place in the village or villages of the mahál of which the partitioned pattís formed part.

When partition sanctioned, notification to be published.

(2) The partition shall take effect from the first day of the agricultural year next after the date of such notification.

Perfect Partition.

136T. (1) Applications for perfect partition shall be made, in such form as may be prescribed by the Chief Commissioner, to the Settlement-officer charged with the settlement of the area in which the mahál is situate.

Applications for perfect partition to be made to Settlement-officer.

(2) Such applications must show that the share which it is desired to have formed into a separate mahál is already held in severalty, saving such portion of it as may be impartible. An application failing to show this shall be rejected.

136U. (1) Subject to any rules which may be made by the Chief Commissioner, the Settlement-officer, if he is satisfied of the truth of the matters stated in the application, may, if he thinks fit, declare the share to be a separate mahál, and may assess it separately to land-revenue:

Settlement-officer may declare shares in mahals to be separate mahals.

Provided that no share shall be declared to be a separate mahál till the proprietors of other shares in the mahál have been given an opportunity of objecting to its perfect partition. Act XVIII of 1881.

(2) Except with the sanction of the Commissioner, an incompact estate shall not be declared to be a separate mahál.

Supplemental Provisions.

Power to make rules regarding partition-proceedings.

136V. The Chief Commissioner may make rules regarding—

(a) the form in which applications for partition shall be made;

(b) the procedure to be followed in referring matters to arbitrators, and in giving effect to the award of arbitrators;

(c) the costs of partition, and the mode in which costs are to be apportioned; and,

(d) generally, for carrying out the provisions of this chapter.

136W. [Repeal of Act XIX. of 1863.] Repealed by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. I.

CHAPTER XI.

VILLAGE-OFFICERS AND PATWARIS.

Power to make rules as to officers.

137. The Chief Commissioner may make rules regulating the appointment, remuneration, suspension, and removal of lambardárs, sub-lambardárs "mukaddams, and patéls:"*

Provided that, except with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, proprietors, other than málik-makbúzás, shall not be liable to pay, on account of the aggregate remuneration of lambardárs or sub-lambardárs and mukaddams, a sum exceeding five per cent. on the land-revenue which is assessed on their land, or which, when their land is free from revenue, would, in the judgment of the Deputy Commissioner, be assessed on their land if it were subject to assessment.

In framing rules for the appointment under this section of lambardárs and sub-lambardárs for any mahál, the Chief Commissioner shall have regard, among other matters, to local custom and hereditary claims, and to entries on the subject in the record-of-rights of such mahál.

The lambardár of the village shall ordinarily also be the mukaddam. When a lambardár who does not reside in the village is appointed mukaddam thereof, he shall, subject to the approval of the Deputy Commissioner, appoint an agent to perform the duties of a mukaddam. If there are resident co-sharers in the village, the non-resident lambardár shall appoint one of them to be his agent, unless the Deputy Commissioner for special reasons allows him to appoint some other person. If a mukaddam fails within a reasonable time to appoint an agent with the approval of the Deputy Commissioner, the Deputy Commissioner shall himself appoint an agent, and shall fix the amount of his remuneration, which shall be paid to him by the mukaddam.†

* In s. 137 the words quoted have been substituted for the original words by Act XVI. of 1889, s. 27 (1).

† In s. 137, the last four paragraphs have been substituted for the original paragraph by Act XVI. of 1889, s. 27 (2).

Act XVIII. of 1881.

An agent appointed under this section shall be deemed to have the powers conferred on, and to be responsible for the performance of the duties prescribed with regard to, mukaddams by this Act and the rules made hereunder.*

Any fine imposed on such agent for a breach of the provisions of this Act or the rules made hereunder may be recovered from the mukaddam whose agent he is by the Deputy Commissioner.*

In a raiyatwári village the patél shall ordinarily be the mukaddam.*

Duties of lambardárs.

138. It shall be the duty of every lambardár and sub-lambardár—

(a) to collect and pay into the Government Treasury so much of the land-revenue, as may under section 71, be payable through him, either solely or jointly with other lambardárs or sub-lambardárs;

(b) to collect and pay to the mukaddam, or into the Government Treasury as the Deputy Commissioner may direct, all sums of money payable through him, either solely or jointly with other lambardárs or sub-lambardárs, by the proprietors whom he represents, on account of the remuneration of the mukaddam, patwáris, or village watchmen, or on account of any expenses which the mukaddam is authorized to recover from the lambardárs or sub-lambardárs of his village;

(c) to assist the mukaddam in obtaining all particulars which he is bound to enter in the annual village-papers, or to report under this Act.

Lambardárs may recover fees and other charges from proprietors.

139. Together with the land-revenue, lambardárs and sub-lambardárs may recover from the proprietors whom they respectively represent—

(a) any remuneration to which they are entitled as such; and

(b) the sum which, under section 138, they are bound to pay to mukaddams:

Provided that no such recovery shall be made from málik-makbúzás, paying a percentage which includes remuneration to mukaddams and lambardárs.

Deputy Commissioner may alter channel through which málik-makbúzá pays revenue.

140. On the application of any málik-makbúzá or other like holder of land, or of the lambardár or sub-lambardár through whom such málik-makbúzá or other holder of land pays the revenue assessed on his holding, the Deputy Commissioner may, for sufficient cause shown, order that such revenue be paid through any other lambardár or sub-lambardár, or that it be paid into the Government Treasury.

Effect of order for payment of revenue direct to Government.

When the Deputy Commissioner orders such payment to be made into the Government Treasury, such portion of the percentage fixed under section 64 as the Deputy Commissioner, subject to the control of the Chief Commissioner, may determine, shall be so paid, and the málik-makbúzá or other person shall pay the rest to the mukaddams on account of their fees and the other village-expenses.

Duties of mukaddams.

141. It shall be the duty of every mukaddam—

* In s. 137, the last four paragraphs have been substituted for the original paragraph by Act XVI. of 1889, s. 27 (2).

(a) to control and superintend the village-patwári and village-watchmen; to report their deaths or absence from duty; to maintain them in the possession of any lands appertaining to their office; to recover and pay to them any cash allowances to which they may be entitled; and to take such steps as may be necessary to compel them to perform their duties; Act XVIII. of 1881.

(b) to furnish reports regarding the estate of his village, at such places and times as the Deputy Commissioner fixes in this behalf;

(c) to report and, if possible, to prevent encroachments on the public paths and roadways in his village;

(d) to preserve such stations and marks erected in his village by Government-surveyors as may be made over to his care;

(e) subject to any rules issued by the Chief Commissioner, to keep his village in good sanitary condition;

(f) to report violations of any rules which the Chief Commissioner may make for the preservation of underwood, forests, and trees growing on the village-lands, and for securing to persons entitled to cut wood and enjoy other privileges in the waste-lands of the village the rights to which they are entitled;

(g) to collect, or aid in the collection of, all payments due to Government in his village;

(h) to report all births and deaths taking place in his village.

The Chief Commissioner may make rules—

(1) adding to the list of duties which a mukaddam is required to perform under this section; and

(2) regulating the liability of persons residing in any village for charges necessarily incurred by mukaddams in the performance of the duties specified in clause (e) in respect of such village, and for apportioning such charges among such persons; and

(3) determining the officers to whom reports under this section shall be made.

Liabilities imposed by law on landholders to attach to mukaddams.

142. When, by any enactment for the time being in force, any public duties are imposed on, or public liabilities are declared to attach to, landholders, their managers, and agents, and the like, such duties shall be deemed to be imposed on, and such liabilities shall be held to attach to, mukaddams appointed under this Act:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall discharge landholders, their managers, or agents, or the like, from any liabilities imposed upon them by law.

Power of mukaddams to recover certain expenses incurred.

143. Every mukaddam may recover from the lambardárs or sub-lambardárs of the village to which he is appointed his own remuneration, together with any expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of his duties.

Duties of patél.

143A.* It shall be the duty of every patél, in addition to his duties as mukaddam,—

(a) to collect and pay into the Government treasury the land-revenue assessed on the survey-numbers or holdings of his village;

* S. 143A has been inserted by Act XVI. of 1889, s. 28.

Act XVIII. of 1881.

(b) in respect of his village to report the abandonment of survey-numbers or holdings, the encroachment of raiyats on waste-land not included in their survey-numbers or holdings, and the non-payment of revenue, or any facts which indicate that default will be made in the payment thereof;

(c) to assist the patwári and village-watchman of his village in the recovery of dues to which they are entitled;

(d) to prevent the unauthorized cutting of wood in Government forests included in or adjoining his village, and to report any such unauthorised cutting in such forests.

Chief Commissioner may make rules as to patwáris.

144. The Chief Commissioner may make rules—

(a) providing for the appointment of patwáris in tracts where they have not been already appointed;*

(b) regulating the manner in which patwáris are to be selected; prescribing the conditions under which they may be appointed; and fixing the limits of their circles, and the nature, mode, and amount of their remuneration;

(c) prescribing the conditions under which substitutes may be appointed for persons having hereditary claims to the office of patwári, when such persons are unable to act;

(d) prescribing the fines which may be imposed on patwáris and their substitutes for neglect of their duty, and stating the circumstances under which they may be suspended or removed:

145. [Chief Commissioner may make rules for guidance of Deputy Commissioners in certain matters.] Repealed by Act XVI. of 1889, s. 30.

Chief Commissioner may define duties of patwáris.

146. The Chief Commissioner may make rules prescribing the duties of patwáris—

(a) towards the Government; and may, in such rules, determine the registers, returns, or other papers which they shall keep or furnish, the forms and language in which such registers and returns are to be prepared, the mode of their preparation and attestation, and the dates on which they are to be furnished;

(b) towards the members of the village-community.†

Patwáris' papers to be public documents.

All records and papers which patwáris are required to prepare or keep by any rule made by the Chief Commissioner under this section shall be deemed to be public documents within the meaning of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, and to be the property of Government.

Power to fix amount to be paid by proprietors, tenants, and raiyats for patwáris.

146A.‡ (1) The Chief Commissioner shall fix the nature and amount of the contributions to be made by proprietors and tenants in every mahál or in any specified local area and by raiyats in every raiyatwári village towards the remuneration of patwáris and the defraying of any charges incurred on account of the proper supervision, maintenance, and correction of the patwáris' records, and may direct that any or all of such contributions be paid into the Government treasury through the lambardár of the mahál or the patél:

Provided that, except with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, no proprietor shall be compelled to contribute under this section a sum exceeding six per cent. on the revenue for the time being assessed on his land, or which, when his land is wholly or partially free from revenue, would, in the judgment of the Deputy Commissioner, be assessable on his land if it were liable to a full assessment.

(2) The contributions fixed under sub-section (1) may be recovered in the same manner as an arrear of revenue payable directly to the Government, and the provisions of section 116 shall be applicable in the case of a lambardár or patél through whom the contributions are payable.

Patwáris to produce papers for inspection, and to allow copies to be made.

147. Patwáris shall produce at all reasonable times, for the inspection of all persons interested therein, all records and papers which they are so required to prepare or keep, and shall allow such persons to make copies of such records and papers.

Power to make rules regarding village-watchmen.

147A.* The Chief Commissioner may make rules regarding village-watchmen, and may in the rules—

(a) provide for and regulate their appointment, suspension, or removal prescribing the number of village-watchmen who may hold office at one time in a single village, and providing for the appointment of a single village-watchman for two or more villages, where such villages would be unable to support separate village-watchmen;

(b) determine the character and amount of the remuneration which village-watchmen shall be entitled to demand from the members of the village-community;

(c) define the duties and the mode of supervision of village-watchmen.

Existing officers confirmed.

148. All existing lambardárs, sub-lambardárs, mukaddams, "patwáris, and village-watchmen,"† shall, unless the Chief Commissioner in any specified case otherwise directs, be deemed to have been appointed under this Act.

Lambardárs' and other officers' dues recoverable as arrears.

149. Any sums which lambardárs, sub-lambardárs, mukaddams, and "village watchmen,"‡ are entitled to recover or demand under this chapter, may, if the Deputy Commissioner so directs, be recovered in the same manner as an arrear of revenue payable directly to the Government.

Holders of sír-land in Sambalpúr to provide for remuneration of mukaddams.

150. In each village of the district of Sambalpúr all persons holding sír-land, other than mukaddams, are bound to provide for the due remuneration of the mukaddam of the village; and the Chief Commissioner may make rules for the enforcement of this obligation.

PART V.

CHAPTER XII.

MISCELLANEOUS.

151. Unless it is otherwise expressly provided in the records of a settlement or by the terms of a grant made by the Government, the right to all mines, minerals, coals, and quarries, and to all fisheries in navigable rivers,* shall be deemed to belong to Government; and the Government shall have all powers necessary for the proper enjoyment of such rights :

Right to mines and quarries.

Provided that, whenever, in the exercise by the Government of the rights herein referred to over any land, the rights of any persons are infringed by the occupation or disturbance of the surface of such land, the Government shall pay to such persons compensation for such infringement, and the amount of such compensation shall be determined, as nearly as may be, in accordance with the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1870.

152. Except as otherwise hereinbefore provided,—

(a) no Civil Court shall entertain any suit instituted, or application made, to obtain a decision or order on any matter which the Governor-General in Council, the Chief Commissioner, or a Revenue or Settlement-officer, is, by this Act, empowered to determine or dispose of; and in particular, Exclusive jurisdiction of Revenue-authorities.

(b) no Civil Court shall exercise jurisdiction over any of the following matters :—

Matters excepted from jurisdiction of Civil Courts.

(1) any matters provided for in sections 40, 41, 42, and 89, as to waste-lands :

(2) the claim of any person to have an assessment offered to, or sub-settlement made with, him :

(3) the amount of revenue or rate to be assessed on any mahál, share, or portion of a mahál under this or any other Act for the time being in force :

(4) questions as to the validity of any engagement with Government for the payment of land-revenue or of any agreement entered into by superior or inferior proprietors in a settlement or sub-settlement :

(5) claims connected with or arising out of any process enforced on account of refusal to accept the assessment offered in a settlement or sub-settlement by the Settlement-officer or Deputy Commissioner :

(6) the amount of the allowance or rent fixed under section 61 or 62.

(7) the re-distribution, according to established custom, by a Settlement-officer, of land comprised in a mahál :

(8) the formation of the record-of-rights,

the preparation, signing, or attestation of any of the documents contained therein, or the notification of settlement;

---

* In s. 151, certain words, repealed by Act XVI. of 1889, s. 36, have here been omitted.

(9) any matters provided for or referred to in section 73, 74, or 130 as to lands held or claimed to be held free from revenue, except rights arising under any contract between the Government of India and grantees of land: Act XVIII. of 1881.

(10) claims connected with, or arising out of, the collection of revenue, or any process enforced on account of an arrear of revenue or on account of any sum which is under this or any other Act realizable as revenue:

(11) claims to set aside, on any ground other than fraud, sales for arrears of revenue:

(12) corrections of entries or revisions of records under sections 120, 121, and 122;

(13) questions connected with, or arising out of, the exclusion of a proprietor from forest-land, and the direct management of such land under section 124A;*

(13*a*) the distribution of the land or allotment of the revenue of a mahál by partition; or the determination of the rent to be paid by a co-sharer for land held by him after the partition in the mahál or the pattí of another co-sharer.*

(14) claims to the office of patwárí, lambardár, sub-lambardár, "mukaddam, patél, or village-watchman,"† or in respect of any injury caused by exclusion therefrom, or to compel the performance of the duties thereof:

(15) claims to compel the performance of any duties imposed by this Act on any Revenue or Settlement-officer.

In all the above cases jurisdiction shall rest with the Revenue-authorities only.

For what village-cesses suit lies.

158. No suit shall lie in any Civil or Revenue Court for the recovery of any village-cess which has not been sanctioned by the Chief Commissioner and also either recorded at a settlement or under section 132, clause (h).

Limitation of claims for compensation in case of waste-land demarcated as property of Government.

154. Whenever, at any settlement made before this Act comes into force, waste-lands have been demarcated as the property of Government, no claim of any person to, or in respect of, such lands shall be entertained by any Civil Court after the expiration of three years from the date of such demarcation.

Restriction on Revenue and Settlement-officers trading and holding land.

155. No Revenue or Settlement-officer, and no person employed in any Revenue or Settlement office, shall, except with the express permission of the Chief Commissioner,—

(a) engage in trade, or be in any way concerned, directly or indirectly, in any commercial transaction, or in the purchase or hiring of land, in the district to which he is appointed, or in which he is employed;

Act XVIII. of 1881.

(b) purchase or bid for, either in person or by agent, in his own name or in that of another, or jointly or in shares with others, any property which may be sold by order of any Revenue-authority in such district.

The Chief Commissioner may delegate to Commissioners of divisions or to Deputy Commissioners, the power of granting the permission mentioned in this section in the case of any specified class of officers.

Nothing in this section shall be deemed to preclude any person from becoming a member of a company incorporated under the Indian Companies Act, 1882.*

When mahál managed or farmed, or upon proclamation under section 98 or 103, rent payable to Deputy Commissioner.

156. When any mahál is managed or let in farm under section 57 or 58 or when either of the proclamations mentioned in sections 98 and 103 has been made, all sums due to the proprietor in respect of the mahál, share, or land mentioned in any of the said sections shall be payable only to the Deputy Commissioner or Settlement-officer, his agent or lessee; and no payment made to such proprietor in anticipation of the usual period for such payment shall, without the sanction of the Deputy Commissioner or Settlement-officer, be credited to the person making the same in account with the Deputy Commissioner or Settlement-officer, his agent, or lessee.

Payment to proprietor in anticipation of due date.

Recovery of balances due by farmers.

157. When any land has been let in farm under the provisions of this Act, any revenue due from the farmer in respect of such land may be recovered from him or his surety as an arrear of revenue payable directly to Government.

Recovery of revenue due when Act comes into force; and of money payable under Act.

158. All land-revenue due when this Act comes into force and all penalties or other moneys payable to, or recoverable by, an officer of Government under this Act, shall be recovered from the persons from whom they are due, and from the sureties (if any) of such persons, as if such land-revenue, penalties, or moneys were an arrear of revenue, payable directly to Government, due under this Act by such persons and their sureties.

Past proceedings for collection of revenue legalized.

159. All proceedings taken before this Act comes into force for the collection of the land-revenue or the realization of arrears there of shall be deemed to have been taken in accordance with law.

Chief Commissioner may empower persons by name or confer powers on classes.

160. In conferring powers under this Act, the Chief Commissioner may empower persons by name or classes of officials generally by their official titles.

Chief Commissioner may vary or cancel orders.

161. The Chief Commissioner may vary or cancel any order conferring powers under this Act.

Penalty for failure to perform duty or abuse of authority by mukaddam or agent.

161A.† Any mukaddam, or agent of a mukaddam, who, without reasonable excuse, fails to perform any duty imposed on him by this Act or the rules made thereunder, or abuses any of the powers conferred upon him by this Act or any such rule, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and, in the case of a continuing failure, to a fine of ten rupees for each day during which the failure continues. Act XIX. of 1881.

161B * Any person who neglects or disobeys a reasonable order made by a mukaddam or agent of a mukaddam in pursuance of the duty imposed upon him by s. 141, clause (e), shall be punishable with fine which may extend to twenty rupees, and, if the neglect or disobedience is continued, shall also be liable to a fine of five rupees for each day during which the neglect or disobedience is continued.

Penalty for neglecting or disobeying orders of mukaddam or agent.

162. The Chief Commissioner may, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, make rules consistent with this Act for carrying out its provisions, and may attach to the breach of any such rule, or of any other rule made by him under this Act, a penalty which may extend to two hundred rupees, or, when such breach is a continuing breach, to fifty rupees for each day during which such breach continues.

Chief Commissioner may make rules and attach penalty to breach thereof.

All powers to make rules conferred by this Act on the Chief Commissioner shall be exercised subject to the control of the Governor-General in Council, and may be exercised from time to time as occasion requires.

No rule made by the Chief Commissioner under this Act shall take effect until it has been published in the local official Gazette.

All such rules, when so published, shall have the force of law.

SCHEDULE.

ENACTMENTS REPEALED.

[Repealed by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. I.]

ACT XIX. OF 1881.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 31ST AUGUST 1881.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Forests, Forest-produce, and the Duty leviable on Timber in Lower Burma.†

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to forests, forest-produce, and the duty leviable on timber in Lower Burma†; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

1. This Act may be called "The Burma Forest Act, 1881:"

Short title.

* S. 161B has been inserted by Act XVI. of 1889, s. 39.

† The territories are now known as Lower Burma.—See Act XX. of 1886, s. 2 (1) (b). The Chief Commissioner is styled Chief Commissioner of Burma.—See Proclamation dated Sep. 25, 1886, Gazette of India, 25th idem, Pt. I., p. 539.

Act XIX. of 1881.

Local extent.

It extends to all the territories for the time being administered by the Chief Commissioner of Lower Burma;* provided that the Chief Commissioner may, by notification in the official Gazette, exempt any place from its operation, but not so as to affect anything done, or any offence committed, or any fine or penalty incurred, or any proceedings commenced in such place before such exemption; and

Commencement.

it shall come into force on such day as the Chief Commissioner may, by notification in the official Gazette, direct.†

2. [Repeal of enactments.] Repealed by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. I.

Interpretation-clause.

3. In this Act, and in all rules made hereunder, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

"Forest-officer."

"Forest-officer" means all persons appointed by name or as holding an office by or under the orders of the Governor-General in Council or the Chief Commissioner to be—

Conservators, Deputy Conservators, Assistant Conservators, Sub-Assistant Conservators, Forest-rangers, Foresters, or Forest-guards, or to discharge any function of a Forest-officer under this Act or any rule made hereunder:

"tree:"

"tree" includes palms, bamboos, stumps, brushwood, and canes: ‡

"timber:"

"forest-produce:"

"forest-produce" includes—

(a) the following, whether found in, or brought from, a forest or not, that is to say:—

timber, charcoal, caoutchouc, catechu, wood-oil, resin, natural varnish, bark, lac, mahua flowers, and myrabolams, and

(b) the following, when found in, or brought from, a forest, that is to say:—

(i) trees and leaves, flowers and fruits, and all other parts or produce not hereinbefore mentioned of trees,

(ii) plants not being trees (including grass, creepers, reeds, and moss), and all parts or produce of such plants,

(iii) wild animals and skins, tusks, horns, bones, silk, cocoons, honey and wax, and all other parts or produce of animals, and

(iv) peat, surface-soil, rock, and minerals (including limestone, laterite, mineral oils, and all products of mines or quarries): §

"forest-offence:"

"forest-offence" means an offence punishable under this Act or any rule made hereunder:

---

* The territories are now known as Lower Burma.—See Act XX. of 1886, s. 2 (1) (b). The Chief Commissioner is styled Chief Commissioner of Burma.—See Proclamation dated Sep 25, 1886, Gazette of India, 25th idem, Pt. I., p. 539.

† The Act came into force on July 1, 1882.—See Burma Gazette, March 25, 1882, Pt. I., p. 125.

‡ This definition of "tree" has been substituted by Act V. of 1890, s. 15 (1).

§ This definition of "forest-produce" has been substituted for the original by Act V. of 1890, s. 15 (2).

"cattle" includes also elephants, buffaloes, horses, mares, geldings, ponies, colts, fillies, mules, asses, pigs, rams, ewes, sheep, lambs, goats, and kids:

"cattle:"

"river:" "river" includes also streams, canals, creeks, and other channels, natural or artificial:

"land at the disposal of Government:" "land at the disposal of Government" means

(a) land in respect of which no person has acquired the status of a land-holder under section 7 of the Burma Land and Revenue Act, 1876,

(b) land in respect of which no person has acquired any right created by grant or lease made by, or on behalf of, the British Government:

"Magistrate" means a Magistrate of the first or second class, and includes a Magistrate of the third class when he is specially empowered by the Chief Commissioner to try forest-offences.

"Magistrate."

4. Nothing in the Burma Land and Revenue Act, 1876, shall be deemed to affect or ever to have affected any right by which one person is entitled to remove and appropriate, for his own profit, any part of the soil belonging to another person or to the Government, or anything growing in, or attached to, or subsisting upon, the land of another person or of the Government.

Saving of rights of profit from the Burma Land and Revenue Act, 1876.

CHAPTER II.

OF RESERVED FORESTS.

5. The Chief Commissioner may constitute any land at the disposal of Government a reserved forest in manner hereinafter provided.

Power to reserve forests.

6. Whenever it is proposed to constitute any land a reserved forest, the Chief Commissioner shall publish a notification in the official Gazette—

Notification by Chief Commissioner.

(a) specifying as nearly as possible the situation and limits of such land;

(b) declaring that it is proposed to constitute such land a reserved forest;

(c) appointing an officer (hereinafter called "the Forest-Settlement-officer") to inquire into and determine the existence, nature, and extent of any rights claimed by, or alleged to exist in favour of, any person in or over any land comprised within such limits, and any claims relating to the practice within such limits of toungya cultivation, and to deal with the same as provided in this chapter.

The officer appointed under clause (c) of this section shall ordinarily be a person other than a Forest-officer; but a Forest-officer may be appointed by the Chief Commissioner to assist the Forest-Settlement-officer in the inquiry prescribed by this chapter.

7. When a notification has been published under section 6, the Forest-Settlement-officer shall publish in the language of the country, at the head-quarters of each township in which any portion of the land comprised in such notification is situate, and in every town and village in the neighbourhood of such land, a proclamation—

Proclamation by Forest-Settlement-officer.

Act XIX. of 1881.

(a) specifying as nearly as possible the situation and limits of the proposed forest;

(b) setting forth the substance of the provisions of section 8;

(c) explaining the consequences which, as hereinafter provided, will ensue on the preservation of such forest; and

(d) fixing a period of not less than three months from the date of publishing such proclamation, and requiring every person claiming any right or making any claim referred to or mentioned in section 6 either to present to such officer within such period a written notice specifying, or to appear before him within such period and state, the nature of such right or claim.

Bar of accrual of forest-rights.

8. During the interval between the publication of such proclamation and the date fixed by the notification declaring the forest to be reserved as hereinafter provided, no right shall be acquired in or over the land comprised in such notification, except by succession or under a grant or contract in writing made or entered into by, or on behalf of, the Government or some person in whom such right, or power to create the same, was vested when the proclamation was published; and, on such land, no new house shall be built or plantation formed, no fresh clearings for cultivation or for any other purpose shall be made, and no trees shall be cut for the purpose of trade or manufacture, except as hereinafter provided.

Prohibition of building, clearing, &c.

Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit any act done with the permission in writing of the Forest-Settlement-officer, or any clearings lawfully made for toungya cultivation by persons in the habit of practising such cultivation on such land.

Inquiry by Forest-Settlement-officer.

9. The Forest-Settlement-officer shall take down in writing all statements made under section 7, and shall inquire into all claims made under that section, and the existence of any right or practice mentioned in section 6 in respect of which no claim is made. The Forest-Settlement-officer shall, at the same time, consider and record any objection which the Forest-officer (if any), appointed under section 6 to assist him, may make to any such claim or to the existence of any such right or practice.

Powers of Forest-Settlement-officer.

10. For the purposes of such inquiry, the Forest-Settlement-officer may exercise the following powers (that is to say):—

(a) the powers of a demarcation-officer under the Burma Boundaries Act, 1880; and (b) the powers conferred on a Civil Court by the Code of Civil Procedure* for compelling the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents.

Claims relating to practice of toungya cultivation how dealt with.

11. In the case of a claim relating to the practice of toungya cultivation, the Forest-Settlement-officer shall pass an order specifying the particulars of such claim, and permitting, or refusing to permit, such practice wholly or in part.

If such practice is permitted wholly or in part, the Forest-Settlement-officer may—

* See Act XIV. of 1882, s. 3, and Ch. XIV.

(a) alter the limits of the proposed reserved forest so as to exclude land of sufficient extent, of a suitable kind, and in a locality reasonably convenient for the purposes of the claimants; or Act XIX. of 1881.

(b) cause certain portions of the reserved forest to be separately demarcated, and give permission to the claimants to practice toungya cultivation under such rules and conditions as he may prescribe.

No right to practice toungya cultivation shall be deemed to be conferred by an order under this section permitting such practice, and, except with the sanction of the Chief Commissioner, such cultivation shall only be practised by the person to whom such permission is granted.

Power to acquire land over which right is claimed.

12. In the case of a claim to a right in or over any land other than the following rights:—

(a) a right of way,

(b) a right to a water-course, and to use of water,

(c) a right of pasture, or to forest-produce, the Forest-Settlement-officer shall pass an order specifying the particulars of such claim, and admitting or rejecting the same wholly or in part.

If such claim is admitted wholly or in part, the Forest-Settlement-officer may (1) come to an agreement with the claimant for the surrender of the right; or (2) exclude the land from the limits of the proposed forest; or (3) proceed to acquire such land in the manner provided by the Land Acquisition Act, 1870.

For the purpose of so acquiring such land—

(i) the Forest-Settlement-officer shall be deemed to be a Collector proceeding under the Land Acquisition Act, 1870;

(ii) the claimant shall be deemed to be a person interested and appearing before him in pursuance of a notice given under section 9 of that Act;

(iii) the provisions of the preceding sections of that Act shall be deemed to have been complied with; and

(iv) the Collector, with the consent of the claimant, or the Court, with the consent of both parties, may award compensation in land, or partly in land and partly in money.

Order on claims to rights of way, water-course, pasture, and to forest-produce.

13. In the case of a claim to rights of the kind specified in clauses (a), (b), and (c) of section 12, the Forest-Settlement-officer shall pass an order specifying the particulars of such claim, and admitting or rejecting the same wholly or in part.

When a claim to any such right is admitted, if the right is for the beneficial enjoyment of any land or buildings, he shall record the designation, position, and area of such land, and the designation and position of such buildings.

Where the right is a right to forest-produce, he shall also record whether the forest-produce obtained by the exercise of such right may be sold or bartered, and such other particulars as may be necessary in order to define the nature, incidents, and extent of the right.

Provision for rights of pasture or to forest-produce admitted.

14. When the Forest-Settlement-officer has admitted wholly or in part, and recorded under section 13, a claim to a right of pasture or to forest-produce, he shall, as far as possible, provide for the exercise of such right—

Act XIX of 1881.

(a) by altering the limits of the proposed reserved forest so as to exclude land of sufficient extent, of a suitable kind, and in a locality reasonably convenient for the purposes of the claimant;

(b) by recording an order continuing to the claimant a right of pasture or to forest-produce (as the case may be), subject to such rules as may be prescribed by the Chief Commissioner.

The order passed under clause (b) shall record, as far as practicable, the number and description of the cattle which the claimant is from time to time entitled to graze, the local limits within which, and the seasons during which, such pasture is permitted; or the quantity of timber or other forest-produce which the claimant is authorized to take or receive, the local limits within which, the season during which, and the mode in which, the taking of such produce is permitted; and such other particulars as may be required in order to define the extent of the right which is continued, and the mode in which it may be exercised.

Commutation of such rights.

15. Whenever any right of pasture or to forest-produce admitted under section 13 is not provided for in one of the ways prescribed in section 14, the Forest-Settlement-officer shall, subject to such rules as the Chief Commissioner may prescribe in this behalf, commute such right by paying a sum of money in lieu thereof, or, with the consent of the claimant, by the grant of land, or in such other manner as such officer thinks fit.

For the purpose of granting land under this section, the Forest-Settlement-officer shall be deemed to be an Assistant Commissioner in charge of a sub-division.

Appeal from order passed under foregoing sections.

16. Any person who has made a claim under this chapter may, within three months from the date of any order passed on such claim by the Forest-Settlement-officer under section 11, 12, 13, 14, or 15, present an appeal from such order to such officer of the Revenue Department, of rank not lower than that of a Deputy Commissioner, as the Chief Commissioner may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint by name, or as holding an office, to hear appeals from such orders.

Appeal under section 16.

17. Every appeal under section 16 shall be made by petition in writing, and may be delivered to the Forest-Settlement-officer, who shall forward it without delay to the officer competent to hear the same.

Hearing of appeals.

Every such appeal shall be heard in the manner prescribed for the time being for the hearing of appeals in matters relating to land-revenue, and the order passed thereon by such officer shall be final, except as hereinafter provided.

Notification declaring forest reserved.

18. When the following events have occurred (namely):—

(b) if such claims have been made, the period fixed by section 16 for appealing from the orders passed on such claims has elapsed, and all appeals (if any) presented within such period have been disposed of by the appellate officer, and the Chief Commissioner may publish a notification in the official Gazette, specifying the limits of the forest which it is intended to reserve, and declaring the same to be reserved from a date fixed by such notification.

(c) all lands (if any) to be included in the proposed forest, which the Forest-Settlement-officer has, under section 12, elected to acquire under the Land Acquisition Act, 1870, have become vested in the Government under section 16 of that Act, Act XIX. of 1881.

From the date so fixed, such forest shall be deemed to be a reserved forest.

Extinction of rights not claimed.

19. Rights in respect of which no claim has been preferred under section 7, and of the existence of which no knowledge has been acquired by enquiry under section 9, shall thereupon be extinguished, unless, before the publication of such notification, the person claiming them has satisfied the Forest-Settlement-officer that he had sufficient cause for not preferring such claim within the period fixed under section 7.

Publication of translation of such notification in neighbourhood of forest.

20. The Deputy Commissioner of the district in which the forest is situate shall, before the date fixed by such notification, cause a translation thereof in the language of the country to be published in the manner prescribed for the proclamation under section 7.

Power to revise arrangement made under section 11, 14, or 17.

21. The Chief Commissioner may, within five years from the publication of any notification under section 18, revise any arrangement made under section 11, 14, or 17, and may rescind or modify any order made under this chapter, and direct that any one of the proceedings specified in section 14 be taken in lieu of any other of such proceedings, or that the permission granted under section 11, or rights admitted under section 13, be commuted under section 15.

No right acquired over reserved forest except as here provided.

22. No right of any description shall be acquired in or over a reserved forest, except by succession, or under a grant or contract in writing made by, or on behalf of, the Government, or some person in whom such right, or the power to create such right, was vested when the notification under section 18 was published.

Rights not to be alienated without sanction.

23. Notwithstanding anything herein contained, no right continued under section 14 shall be alienated by way of grant, sale, lease, mortgage, or otherwise, without the sanction of the Chief Commissioner: provided that, when any such right is continued for the beneficial enjoyment of any land or house, it may be sold or otherwise alienated with such land or house without such sanction.

No timber or other forest-produce obtained in exercise of any right so continued shall be sold or bartered except to the extent defined by the order recorded under section 14.

Power to stop ways and water-courses in reserved forest.

24. Any Forest-officer may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner or of any officer duly authorized in that behalf, stop any public or private way or water-course in a reserved forest; provided that, for the way or water-course so stopped, another way or water-

Act XIX. of 1881. course which, in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner, is equally convenient, already exists, or has been provided or constructed by such Forest-officer.

Penalties for trespass or damage in reserved forests.

25. Any person who in a reserved forest—

(a) trespasses, or pastures cattle, or permits cattle to trespass,

(b) causes any damage by negligence in felling any tree, or cutting or dragging any timber,

(c) strips off the bark or leaves from or otherwise damages any tree,

(d) in contravention of any rules made by the Chief Commissioner, hunts, shoots, fishes, poisons water, or sets traps or snares, shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, or when the damage resulting from his offence amounts to more than twenty-five rupees, to double the amount of such damage.

Acts prohibited in such forests.

26. Any person who—

(a) makes any fresh clearing prohibited by section 8, or

(b) sets fire to a reserved forest, or, in contravention of any rules made by the Chief Commissioner, kindles any fire, or leaves any fire burning, in such manner as to endanger such a forest,*

or who, in a reserved forest,

(c) kindles, keeps, or carries any fire except at such seasons and in such manner as a Forest-officer specially empowered in this behalf may from time to time notify,

(d) fells, girdles, lops, taps, or burns any tree,

(e) quarries stone, burns lime or charcoal, or collects, subjects to any manufacturing process, or removes, any forest-produce,

(f) clears or breaks up any land for cultivation or any other purpose, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both, in addition to such compensation for damage done to the forest as the convicting Court may direct to be paid.

Acts excepted from prohibition contained in sections 25 and 26.

27. Nothing in section 25 or section 26 shall be deemed to prohibit (a) any act done in accordance with any rule made by the Chief Commissioner, or with the permission in writing of a Forest officer specially empowered to grant such permission; or (b) any practice of toungya cultivation permitted under section 11; or (c) the exercise of any right continued under section 14, or created by grant or contract in the manner described in section 22.

Penalty for offences committed by persons having rights in reserved forests.

28. Whenever fire is caused wilfully or by gross negligence in a reserved forest by any person having rights in such forest, or having permission to practise toungya cultivation therein, or by any person in his employment, or whenever any person having rights in such forest contravenes the provisions of section 23, the Chief Commissioner may (notwithstanding that a penalty has been inflicted under section 26 in respect of such fire) direct that in such forest or any specified portion thereof the exercise of all or any of the rights of pasture or to forest-produce shall be extinguished or suspended for such period

* Cl. b of s. 26 has been substituted for the original by Act V. of 1890, s. 16.

as he thinks fit, and may withdraw any permission to practise toungya cultivation in such forest or portion. Act XIX. of 1881.

Power to declare forest no longer reserved.

29. The Chief Commissioner may, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, by notification in the local official Gazette, direct that, from a date fixed by such notification, any forest or any portion thereof reserved under this Act shall cease to be reserved.

From the date so fixed, such forest or portion shall cease to be reserved; but the rights (if any) which have been extinguished therein shall not revive in consequence of such cessation.

Forests reserved under former rules.

30 Any forest which has been declared a reserved forest under any rules in force previous to the day on which this Act comes into force shall be deemed to have been reserved hereunder; and all questions decided, orders issued, and records prepared in connection with the reservation of such forest shall be deemed to have been decided, issued, and prepared hereunder, and all provisions of this Act relating to reserved forests shall apply to such forest.

CHAPTER III.

OF VILLAGE-FORESTS.

Constitution of village-forests.

31. The Chief Commissioner may by notification in the official Gazette constitute any land at the disposal of Government a village-forest for the benefit of any village-community or group of village-communities, and may, in like manner, vary or cancel any such notification.

Every such notification shall specify the limits of such village-forest.

Teak trees in village-forest the property of Government.

32. All teak trees in a village-forest shall be deemed to be the property of Government; and no person shall cut, mark, lop, girdle, or injure by fire or otherwise, any such trees without the permission in writing of a Forest-officer specially empowered to grant such permission.

Power to make rules for village-forests.

33. The Chief Commissioner may make rules* for regulating the management of village-forests, prescribing the conditions under which the community or group of communities for the benefit of which any such forest is contituted may be provided with timber or other forest-produce or with pasture, and their duties in respect of the protection and improvement of such forest.

The Chief Commissioner may, by such rules, declare any of the provisions of Chapter II. of this Act to be applicable to village-forests.

Saving of private rights.

34. Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to affect any existing rights of any person in or over any village-forest.

* As to rules under this Act, see foot-note to s. 75.

Act XIX. of 1881.

Power to inquire into, and deal with, such rights.

The Chief Commissioner may in any case direct that all claims to any such rights, other than the rights of the village-community or group of village-communities for the benefit of which such village-forest is constituted, shall be inquired into, recorded, and provided for in the manner prescribed by Chapter II. of this Act.

CHAPTER IV.

OF THE PROTECTION OF CERTAIN TREES AND NATURAL PRODUCE.

Reserved trees.

35. All teak trees standing on any land not included in a reserved or village-forest shall be deemed to be the property of Government, and shall be reserved trees.

The Chief Commissioner may, by notification in the official Gazette,—

(a) declare that any other trees or any specified class of other trees standing on any land at the disposal of Government shall, from a date to be fixed by such notification, be reserved trees;

(b) vary or cancel any such notification;

(c) declare that any teak trees standing on land other than land at the disposal of Government shall, from a date to be fixed by such notification, cease to be the property of Government, and to be reserved trees.

Protection of reserved trees.

36. No person shall cut, mark, lop, girdle, tap, or injure by fire or otherwise, any reserved tree, except as provided by rules made by the Chief Commissioner in this behalf, or with the permission in writing of a Forest-officer specially empowered to grant such permission.

Whoever cuts, marks, lops, girdles, taps, or injures by fire or otherwise any reserved tree in contravention of this section shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty rupees, or, when the damage resulting from his offence amounts to more than ten rupees, to double the amount of such damage.

Power to make rules generally.

37. No person shall make use of the pasturage or of the natural produce of any land at the disposal of Government, and not included in a reserved or village-forest, except in accordance with rules* which may be prescribed by the Chief Commissioner. Such rules may, with respect to such land,—

(a) regulate or prohibit the cutting of toungyas or the issue of grants or leases by Government with respect to land on which teak trees are growing;

(b) regulate or prohibit the kindling of fires, and prescribe the precautions to be taken to prevent the spreading of fires;

(c) regulate or prohibit the cutting, sawing, conversion, and removal of trees and timber, and the collection and removal of natural produce;

(d) regulate or prohibit the quarrying of stone, the boiling of cutch, or the burning of lime or charcoal;

(e) regulate or prohibit the cutting of grass and pasturing of cattle, and regulate the payments (if any) to be made for such cutting or pasturing;

(f) regulate or prohibit hunting, shooting, fishing, poisoning water, and setting traps or snares;

* As to rules under this Act, see foot-note to s. 75.

(g) regulate the sale or free grant of timber or other natural produce; and Act XIX. of 1881.

(h) prescribe, or authorize any Forest-officer to prescribe, subject to the control of the Chief Commissioner, the fees, royalties, or other payments for such timber or other natural produce, and the manner in which such fees, royalties, or other payments shall be levied, whether in transit, or partly in transit, or otherwise.

The Chief Commissioner may, by such rules, prescribe, as penalties for the infringement thereof, imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or both.

Penalties for acts in contravention of rules.

The Chief Commissioner may exempt any person or class of persons or any local area from the operation of any such rule, and may cancel such exemption.

38. Nothing in this chapter or in any rule made under this chapter shall be deemed to prohibit any act done with the permission in writing of a Forest-officer specially empowered to grant such permission, or in the exercise of any right.

Nothing in this chapter to prohibit acts done in certain cases.

CHAPTER V.

OF THE DUTY ON TIMBER AND OTHER FOREST-PRODUCE.*

39. The Chief Commissioner may levy a duty, in such manner, at such places, and at such rates, as he may prescribe by notification in the official Gazette, on all timber "or other forest-produce"† which is brought into British Burma from any place beyond the frontier of British Burma.

Power to impose duty on timber "or other forest produce."†

In every case in which such duty is directed to be levied ad valorem, the Chief Commissioner may, by like notification, fix the value on which such duty shall be assessed.

Power to fix value for ad-valorem duty.

40. On all teak timber cut within the limits of the Attaran Forest, and floated down the Attaran river, duty shall be levied at the following rates, that is to say:—

Duty on certain timber floated down the Attaran.

	Rs.	As.	P.
On logs above five feet in girth	4	0	0	per log.
Ditto below ,, ,, ...	2	0	0	,,
On stem pieces	0	9	0	per piece.
On ship crooks	0	4	0	per crook.

These rates shall not apply to timber for which special rates have been fixed by any agreement entered into with Government.

Power to exempt timber "or other forest-produce"† from duty.

41. The Chief Commissioner may exempt any timber "or other forest-produce"† from the duty to which it is liable under section 39 or section 40, and revoke such exemption.

Provisions of chapter not to limit purchase-money or royalty.

42. Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to limit the amount (if any) chargeable as purchase-money or royalty on any timber "or other forest-produce."†

* This heading has been substituted for the original by Act V. of 1890, s. 17 (1).

† In ss. 39, 41, and 42, the words quoted have been inserted by Act V. of 1890, s. 17 (2).

Act XIX. of 1881.

CHAPTER VI.

OF THE CONTROL OF TIMBER AND OTHER FOREST-PRODUCE IN TRANSIT.*

Power to make rules to regulate transit of timber "or other forest-produce."‡

43. The control of all rivers and their banks as regards the floating of timber, as well as the control of all timber in transit by land or water, is vested in the Chief Commissioner, and he may make rules† to regulate the transit of all timber "or other forest-produce."‡

Such rules may (among other matters)—

(a) prescribe the routes by which alone timber "or other forest-produce"‡ may be imported into, exported from, or moved within, British Burma;

(b) prohibit the import and export or moving of such timber "or other forest-produce"‡ without a pass from an officer duly authorized to issue the same, or otherwise than in accordance with the conditions of such pass;

(c) provide for the issue, production, and return of such passes;

(d) fix, or authorize any Forest-officer to fix, subject to the control of the Chief Commissioner, the fees payable for such passes;

(e) in the case of timber formed into a raft or fastened to the shore, prohibit the loosening or the setting adrift of such timber by any person not the owner thereof, or not acting on behalf of such owner or of the Government;

(f) provide for the stoppage, reporting, examination, and marking of timber "or other forest-produce"‡ in transit in respect of which there is reason to believe that any money is payable to Government, or to which it is desirable, for the purposes of this Act, to affix a mark;

(g) establish, or authorize any Forest-officer to establish, subject to the control of the Chief Commissioner, stations to which such timber "or other forest-produce"‡ shall be taken by those in charge of it for examination, or for the realization of such money, or in order that such mark may be affixed to it; and the conditions under which such timber "or other forest-produce"‡ shall be brought to, stored at, and removed from, such stations;§

(h) provide for the management and control of such stations, and for regulating the appointment and duties of persons employed thereat;

(i) authorize the transport of timber the property of Government across any land, and regulate the compensation to be paid for any damage done by the transport of such timber;

(j) prohibit the closing up or obstruction of the channel or banks of any river used for the transit of timber "or other forest-produce"‡ and the throwing of grass, brushwood, branches, and leaves into any such river, or any other act which tends to cause the obstruction of such channel;

(k) provide for the prevention and removal of any obstruction in the channel or on the banks of any such river, and for recovering the cost of such prevention or removal from the person, or by the sale of any timber "or other forest-produce"‡ causing such obstruction;

---

* This heading has been substituted for the original by Act V. of 1890, s. 17 (1).

† As to rules under this Act, see foot-note to s. 75.

‡ In s. 43 the words quoted have been inserted by Act V. of 1890, s. 17 (3).

§ In cl. g this word has been substituted by Act XII. of 1891, Sch. II., for the word "station."

(l) prohibit absolutely, or subject to conditions within specified local limits, the establishment of sawpits, the converting, cutting, burning, concealing, marking, or supermarking of timber, the altering or effacing of any marks on the same, and possession or carrying of marking-hammers or other implements used for marking timber; Act XIX. of 1881.

(m) regulate the use of property-marks for timber and the registration of such marks; declare the circumstances in which the registration of any property-marks may be refused or cancelled; prescribe the time for which such registration shall hold good; limit the number of such marks that may be registered by any one person, and provide for the levy of fees for such registration.

The Chief Commissioner may direct that any rule made under this section shall not apply to any specified class of timber or other forest-produce, or to any specified local area.*

Penalties for breach of rules made under section 43.

44. The Chief Commissioner may, by such rules, prescribe, as penalties for the infringement thereof, imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or both.

In cases where the offence is committed after sunset and before sunrise, or after making preparation for resistance to the execution of any law or any legal process, or where the offender has been previously convicted of a like offence, the convicting Magistrate may inflict double the penalty prescribed for such offence.

All persons bound to aid in case of accident at station.

45 In case of any accident or emergency involving danger to any property at any such station, every person employed at such station, whether by the Government or by any private person, shall render assistance to any Forest-officer or Police-officer demanding his aid in averting such danger, and securing such property from damage or loss.

CHAPTER VII.

OF THE COLLECTION OF DRIFT, STRANDED, AND OTHER TIMBER.

Certain kinds of timber to be deemed property of Government until title thereto proved.

46. All timber found adrift, beached, stranded, or sunk, all timber bearing marks which have not been registered under rules made under section 43, all timber which has been supermarked, or on which the marks have been obliterated, altered, or defaced by fire or otherwise, and in such areas as the Chief Commissioner directs, all unmarked timber, shall be deemed to be the property of Government unless and until any person establishes his right thereto as provided in this chapter.

Power to collect the same.

Such timber may be collected by any Forest-officer or other person entitled to collect the same, and may be brought to such stations as a Forest-officer specially empowered in this behalf may, from time to time, notify as stations for the reception of drift-timber.

* This paragraph in s. 43 has been added by Act V. of 1890, s. 17, (4).

Act XIX. of 1881. The Chief Commissioner may, by notification in the official Gazette, exempt any class of timber from the provisions of this section, and withdraw such exemption.

Notice to claimants of drift-timber.

47. Public notice shall from time to time, as occasion may require, be given by a Forest-officer specially empowered in this behalf of timber collected under section 46. Such notice shall contain a description of the timber, and shall require any person claiming the same to present to such officer, within a period not less than one month from the date on which such notice is given, a written statement of such claim.

Procedure on claim preferred to such timber.

48. When any such statement is presented as aforesaid, the Forest-officer may, after making such inquiry as he thinks fit, either reject the claim after recording his reasons for so doing, or deliver the timber to the claimant.

If such timber is claimed by more than one person, the Forest-officer may either deliver the same to any of such persons whom he deems entitled thereto, or may refer the claimants to the Civil Court, and retain the timber pending the receipt of an order from such Court for its disposal.

On rejection of claim to such timber, claimant may institute suit.

Any person whose claim has been rejected under this section may, "within three months"* from the date of such rejection, institute a suit to recover possession of the timber claimed by him; but no person shall recover any compensation against the Government or against any Forest-officer on account of such rejection or the detention or removal of any timber, or the delivery thereof to any other person under this section.

No such timber shall be subject to process of any Civil Court until it has been delivered, or a suit brought under this section has been decided.

Disposal of unclaimed timber.

49. If no statement is presented in the manner and within the period prescribed by the notice issued under section 47, or, where such statement having been so presented, and the claim having been rejected, the claimant omits to institute a suit to recover possession of such timber within the further period mentioned in section 48, the ownership of such timber shall vest in the Government free from all incumbrances; or, when such timber has been delivered to another person under section 48, in such other person, free from all incumbrances not created by him.

Payments to be made by claimant before timber is delivered to him.

50. No person shall be entitled to recover possession of any timber collected or delivered as aforesaid until he has paid to the Forest-officer, or other person entitled to receive it, such sum on account thereof as may be due for salving, collecting, moving, storing, and disposing of the same.

Power to make rules and prescribe penalties.

51. The Chief Commissioner may make rules† to regulate the following matters (namely):—

(a) the salving, collection, and disposal of all timber mentioned in section 46;

(b) the use and registration of boats used in salving and collecting timber;

---

* In s. 48 the words quoted have been substituted for the words, "within two months," by Act V. of 1890, s. 18.

† As to rules under this Act, see foot-note to s. 75.

(c) the amount to be paid for salving, collecting, moving, storing, and disposing of such timber; and Act XIX of 1881.

(d) the use and registration of hammers and other instruments to be used for marking such timber.

The Chief Commissioner may, by such rules, prescribe, as penalties for the infringement thereof, imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or both.

CHAPTER VIII.

PENALTIES AND PROCEDURE.

Seizure of property liable to confiscation.

52. When there is reason to believe that a forest offence has been committed in respect of any timber or forest-produce, such timber or produce, together with all tools, boats, carts, and cattle used in committing any such offence may be seized by any Forest-officer or Police-officer.

Report to Magistrate.

Every officer seizing any property under this section shall place on such property, or the receptacle (if any) in which it is contained, a mark indicating that the same has been so seized, and shall, as soon as may be, make a report of such seizure to the Magistrate having jurisdiction to try the offence on account of which the seizure has been made:

Provided that, when the timber or forest-produce with respect to which such offence is believed to have been committed is the property of Government and the offender is unknown, it shall be sufficient if the officer makes, as soon as may be, a report of the circumstances to his official superior.

Procedure thereupon.

53. Upon the receipt of any such report, the Magistrate shall take such measures as may be necessary for the trial of the accused and the disposal of the property according to law.

Timber, forest-produce, tools, &c., when liable to confiscation.

54. When any person is convicted of a forest-offence, all timber or forest-produce in respect of which such offence has been committed, and all tools, boats, carts, and cattle used in committing such offence, shall be liable, by order of the convicting Magistrate, to confiscation.

Such confiscation may be in addition to any other punishment prescribed for such offence.

Disposal, on conclusion of trial for forest-offence, of produce in respect of which it was committed.

55. When the trial of any forest-offence is concluded, any timber or forest-produce in respect of which such offence has been committed shall, if it is the property of Government, or has been confiscated, be taken possession of by a Forest-officer specially empowered in this behalf; and in any other case may be disposed of in such manner as the Court may order.

Procedure when offender not known or cannot be found.

56. When the offender is not known or cannot be found, the Magistrate enquiring into the offence, if he finds that an offence has been committed, may, on application in this behalf, order the property in respect of which the offence has been committed to be confiscated and taken possession of by a Forest-officer specially empowered in this behalf, or to be made over to such Forest-officer or other person as the Magistrate considers entitled to the same:

Act XIX of 1881.

Provided that no such order shall be made until the expiration of one month from the date of seizing such property, or without hearing the person (if any) claiming any right thereto, and the evidence (if any) which he may produce in support of his claim.

The Magistrate shall either cause a notice of any application under this section to be served upon any person whom he has reason to believe is interested in the property seized, or shall publish such notice in any way which he thinks fit.

Procedure as to perishable property seized under section 52.

57. The Magistrate may, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, direct the sale of any property seized under secton 52 and subject to speedy and natural decay, and may deal with the proceeds as he might have dealt with such property if it had not been sold.

Appeal from orders under sections 54, 55, and 56.

58. Any person claiming to be interested in property seized under section 52 may, within one month from the date of any order passed under section 54, section 55, or section 56, present an appeal therefrom to the Court to which orders made by such Magistrate are ordinarily appealable, and the order passed on such appeal shall be final.

Property when to vest in Government.

59. When an order for the confiscation of any property has been passed under section 54 or 56, and the period limited by section 58 for presenting an appeal from such order has elapsed, and no such appeal has been presented, or when, on such an appeal being presented, the Appellate Court confirms such order in respect of the whole or a portion of such property, such property or portion, as the case may be, shall vest in the Government free from all incumbrances.

Saving of power to release property seized.

60. Nothing hereinbefore contained shall be deemed to prevent any officer empowered in this behalf by the Chief Commissioner from directing at any time the immediate release of any property seized under section 52 and the withdrawal of any charge made in respect of such property.

Punishment for wrongful seizure.

61. Any Forest-officer or Police-officer who vexatiously and unnecessarily seizes any property on pretence of seizing property liable to confiscation under this Act shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

Any fine so imposed, or any portion thereof, shall, if the convicting Magistrate so direct, be given as compensation to the person aggrieved by such seizure.

Penalty for counterfeiting or defacing marks in trees and timber, and for altering boundary-marks.

62. Whoever, with intent to cause damage or injury to the public or to any person, or to cause wrongful gain as defined in the Indian Penal Code,—

(a) knowingly counterfeits, upon any timber or standing tree, a mark used by Forest-officers to indicate that such timber or tree is the property of the Government or of some person, or that it may lawfully be cut or removed by some person, or

(b) unlawfully affixes, to any timber or standing tree, a mark used by Forest-officers, or Act XIX of 1881.

(c) alters, defaces, or obliterates any such mark placed on any timber or standing tree by or under the authority of a Forest-officer, or

(d) alters, moves, destroys, or defaces any boundary-mark of any forest or waste-land to which any provisions of this Act apply, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine, or with both.

Power to arrest without warrant.

63 Any Forest-officer or Police-officer may, without orders from a Magistrate and without a warrant, arrest any person reasonably suspected of having been concerned in any forest offence punishable with imprisonment for one month or upwards, if such person refuses to give his name and residence, or gives a name or residence which there is reason to believe to be false, or if there is reason to believe that he will abscond.

Every officer making an arrest under this section shall, without unnecessary delay, take or send the person arrested before a Magistrate having jurisdiction in the case, " or to the officer in charge of the nearest police-station."*

Power to prevent commission of offence.

64. Every Forest-officer and Police-officer shall prevent, and may interfere for the purpose of preventing, the commission of any forest-offence.

Operation of other laws not barred.

65. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to prevent any person from being prosecuted under any other law for any act or omission which constitutes a forest-offence, or from being liable under such other law to any higher punishment or penalty than that provided by this Act or the rules made hereunder :

Provided that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence.

Power to compound offences.

66 † (1) The Chief-Commissioner may, from time to time, by notification in the official Gazette, empower a Forest-officer by name, or as holding an office,—

(a) to accept from any person against whom a reasonable suspicion exists that he has committed any forest offence, other than an offence specified in section 61 or section 62, a sum of money by way of compensation for the offence which such person is suspected to have committed, and,

(b) when any property has been seized as liable to confiscation, to release the same on payment of the value thereof as estimated by such officer.

(2) On the payment of such sum of money, or such value, or both, as the case may be, to such officer, the suspected person, if in custody, shall be discharged, the property, if any, seized shall be released, and no further proceedings shall be taken against such person or property.

(3) A Forest-officer shall not be empowered under this section unless he is a Forest officer of a rank not inferior to that of a ranger, and is in receipt of a monthly salary amounting to at least one hundred rupees, and the sum of

* In s. 63 the words quoted have been added by Act V. of 1890, s. 19.

† S 66 has been substituted for the original by Act V. of 1890, s. 20.

Act XIX. of 1881.

money accepted as compensation under sub section (f), clause (a), shall in no case exceed the sum of fifty rupees.

Presumption that timber or forest-produce belongs to Government.

67. When, in any proceedings taken under this Act, or in consequence of anything done under this Act, a question arises as to whether any timber or forest-produce is the property of the Government, such timber or produce shall be presumed to be the property of the Government until the contrary is proved.

CHAPTER IX.

CATTLE-TRESPASS.

Cattle-trespass Act, 1871, to apply.

68. Cattle trespassing in a reserved forest or in a village-forest shall be deemed to be cattle doing damage to a public plantation within the meaning of the eleventh section of the Cattle-trespass Act, 1871, and may be seized and impounded as such by any Forest-officer or Police-officer.

Power to alter fines fixed by that Act.

99. The Chief Commissioner may, by notification in the official Gazette, direct that, in lieu of the fines fixed by the twelfth section of the Act last aforesaid, there shall be levied, for each head of cattle impounded under section 68 of this Act, such fines as he thinks fit, but not exceeding the following (that is to say):—

	Rs.	A.
For each elephant	10	0
For each buffalo	2	0
For each horse, mare, gelding, pony, colt, filly, mule, bull, bullock, cow, or heifer ...	1	0
For each calf, ass, pig, ram, ewe, sheep, lamb, goat, or kid	0	8

CHAPTER X.

OF FOREST-OFFICERS.

Chief Commissioner may invest Forest-officers with certain powers.

70. The Chief Commissioner may invest any Forest officer by name, or as holding an office, with the following powers (that is to say):—

(a) the powers of a demarcation-officer under the Burma Boundaries Act, 1880;*

(b) the powers of a Civil Court to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents;

(c) power to issue search-warrants under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882;†

(d) power to hold enquiries into forest-offences, and in the course of such enquiries to receive and record evidence;

(e) power to notify seasons and manner in which fire may be kindled, kept, or carried in a reserved forest;

* See supra, p. 43.
† Now Act X. of 1882.—See s. 3 of the Act.

(f) power to grant any permission referred to in section 26, 32, 36, or 38 ; Act XIX. of 1881.

(g) power to notify stations for the reception of drift-timber ;

(h) power to give public notice of timber collected under section 46 ;

(i) power to take possession of property under this Act ;

(j) power to direct the release of property or withdrawal of charges ;

(k) Repealed by Act V. of 1890, s. 21.]

and may withdraw any powers so conferred.

Any evidence recorded under clause (l) of this section shall be admissible in any subsequent trial before a Magistrate of the alleged offender :

Provided that it has been taken in the presence of the accused person, and recorded in the manner provided by section 355, section 356, or section 357 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882.*

Forest officers deemed public servants.

71. All Forest-officers shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code.

Indemnity for acts done in good faith.

72 No suit or criminal prosecution shall lie against any public servant for anything done or omitted by him in good faith under this Act.

Forest-officers not to trade.

73. Except with the permission in writing of the Chief Commissioner, no Forest-officer shall, as principal or agent, trade in timber or forest-produce, or be or become interested in any lease or mortgage of any forest, or in any contract for working any forest, whether in British or foreign territory.

CHAPTER XI.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Additional powers to make rules.

74. The Chief Commissioner may make rules consistent with this Act—

(a) to declare by what Forest-officer or class of Forest-officers the powers or duties conferred or imposed by or under this Act on a Forest-officer shall be exercised or performed ;

(b) to regulate the procedure of Forest-Settlement-officers ;

(c) to regulate the rewards to be paid to officers and informers from the proceeds of fines and confiscations under this Act or from the Public Treasury ; and

(d) generally to carry out the provisions of this Act.

Rules when to have force of law.

75. All rules made by the Chief Commissioner under this Act shall be published in the official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.†

Act XIX. of 1881.

Powers of Chief Commissioner exercisable from time to time.

All powers conferred by this Act on the Chief Commissioner may be exercised from time to time as occasion requires.

Persons bound to assist Forest-officer and Police-officer.

76. Every person who exercises any right in a reserved forest or a village-forest, or who is permitted to take any forest-produce from, or to cut and remove timber, or to pasture cattle, or to practise toungya cultivation in, such forest, and every person who is employed by any such person in such forest, and every person in any village contiguous to such forest who is employed by the Government, or who receives emoluments from the Government for services to be performed to the community,

shall be bound to furnish, without unnecessary delay, to the nearest Forest-officer or Police-officer, any information he may possess respecting the occurrence of a fire in or near such forest, or the commission of, or intention to commit, any forest-offence; and shall assist any Forest-officer or Police-officer demanding his aid—

(a) in extinguishing any fire occurring in such forest;

(b) in preventing any fire which may occur in the vicinity of such forest from spreading to such forest;

(c) in preventing the commission in such forest of any forest-offence; and

(d) when there is reason to believe that any such offence has been committed in such forest, in discovering and arresting the offender.

Recovery of money due to Government.

77. All money, other than fines, payable to the Government under this Act, or under any rule made hereunder, or on account of the price of any timber or forest-produce, or of expenses incurred in the execution of this Act in respect of such timber or forest-produce, may, if not paid when due, be recovered under the law for the time being in force as if it were an arrear of land-revenue.

Lien on forest-produce for such money.

78. When any such money is payable for, or in respect of, any forest-produce, the amount thereof shall be deemed to be a first charge on such produce; and such produce may be taken possession of by a Forest-officer specially empowered in this behalf, and may be retained by him until such amount has been paid.

Power to sell such produce.

If such amount is not paid when due, such Forest-officer may sell such produce by public auction, and the proceeds of the sale shall be applied first in discharging such amount.

The surplus (if any), if not claimed within two months from the date of the sale by the person entitled thereto, shall be forfeited to Government.

Government and its officers not liable for loss or damage in respect of certain timber.

79. The Government shall not be responsible for any loss or damage which may occur in respect of any timber while at a station established under a rule made under section 43 or while detained elsewhere for the purposes of this Act, or in respect of any timber collected under section 44; and no Forest-officer shall be responsible for any such loss or damage unless he causes the same negligently, maliciously, or fraudulently.

80. Whenever it appears to the Chief Commissioner that any land is required for any of the purposes of this Act, such land shall be deemed to be needed for a public purpose within the meaning of the Land Acquisition Act, 1870, section 4.

Land required under this Act to be deemed to be needed for a public purpose under Land Acquisition Act.

81.* When any person, in compliance with any rule under this Act, binds himself by any instrument to perform any duty or act, or covenants by any instrument that he, or that he and his servants and agents, will abstain from any act, the whole sum mentioned in such instrument as the amount to be paid in case of a breach of the conditions thereof may, notwithstanding anything in section 74 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872, be recovered from him in case of such breach as if it were an arrear of land-revenue.

Recovery of penalties due under bond.

ENACTMENTS REPEALED.

[Repealed by Act XII. of 1891. Sch. I.]

ACT XX. OF 1881.

RECEIVED THE G.-G.'S ASSENT ON THE 7TH SEPTEMBER 1881.

An Act to amend the law providing for the relief of Jágirdárs and Zamindárs in Sindh.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law providing for the relief of Jágirdárs and Zamindárs in Sindh; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

1. This Act may be called "The Sindh Incumbered Estates Act, 1881;" and it shall come into force on the passing thereof.

Short title.
Commencement.

2. Act No. XIV. of 1876 (to relieve from Incumbrances the Estates of Jágirdárs and Zamindárs in Sindh) is repealed; but all applications, appointments, and rules made, all notices published, and all other things duly done under the said Act shall be deemed to have been respectively made, published, and done under this Act.

Repeal of Act No. XIV. of 1876

3. In this Act—

Interpretation-clause.

"Jágir land" includes also a share held hereditarily of the revenues of a Government village, but does not include siri or mámul or garden grants:

"Jágir land:"

* S. 81 has been added by Act V. of 1890, s. 22.

Act XX. of 1881.

"Jágirdár:" "Jágirdár" means a person who, or whose ancestor, was found in possession of jágir land in Sindh on the seventeenth day of February 1843, and to whom the said land, or a portion of the same, or other land in lieu thereof, has been continued, by the British Government, and to whom, or to whose ancestor, a sanad has been, or hereafter may be, granted confirming such continuance:

"Zamindár:" "Zamindár" means a person holding lands in Sindh on the aggregate of which he or his ancestor has been assessed by the Government, on account of land revenue for any one of the five revenue years next before the fourteenth day of September 1876, a sum not less than three hundred rupees; "and a person holding lands in Sindh which having been comprised in the jágir lands of a jágirdár, and having ceased to be jágir lands, are assessed by the Government on account of land-revenue at a sum not less than three hundred rupees per year, and, where a joint-family or any other body of co-sharers holds lands of either of those descriptions, each member of that family or body who would be entitled to demand a partition of the lands:"*

"Commissioner:" "Commissioner" means the Commissioner in Sindh.

CHAPTER II.

OF THE APPLICATION AND PRELIMINARY INQUIRY.

Application for the benefit of this Act.

4 At any time within six months after the passing of this Act, any jágirdár or zamindár, or any person who would be sole heir or one of the heirs to such jágirdár or zamindár if he then died intestate, may apply, in writing, to the Commissioner, stating that such jágirdár or zamindár is subject to debts or liabilities, other than debts due, or liabilities incurred, to Government, or that his immoveable property is charged with debts or liabilities other than as aforesaid, and requesting that the provisions of this Act be applied to his case.

When any jágirdár, zamindár, or other person entitled to make an application under this section is a minor, or of unsound mind, or an idiot, such application may be made on his behalf by the guardian or other legal curator of his person, or by the legally constituted administrator or manager of his estate.

Order to inquire.

5. When any such application is made by or on behalf of a jágirdár, or the person who would be his sole heir if he then died, the Commissioner shall direct an inquiry to be made by such officer as he thinks fit into the nature and amount of such debts and liabilities, and the sufficiency of the debtor's property, whether moveable or immoveable, to discharge the same.

When such an application is made in any other case, it shall be in the discretion of the Commissioner, subject to any general rules which may, from time to time, be made by the Governor of Bombay in Council in this behalf, either to reject such application or to direct an inquiry to be made as aforesaid.

* The words quoted in the definition of "Zamindár" have been added by Act XI. of 1884, s. 2.

5A* When the Commissioner has directed an inquiry under section 5, he may, if he thinks fit, further direct that, until he dismisses the application, or appoints an officer under section 7,— Act XX. of 1881.

Interim order of protection.

(a) all proceedings then pending in any Civil Court or Revenue Court or Office in British India in respect of any of the debts and liabilities to which the debtor is subject, or which are charged on the whole or any part of his immoveable property, shall be stayed, and the operation of all processes, executions, and attachments then in force for or in respect of such debts and liabilities, shall be suspended; and

(b) no fresh proceedings, processes, executions, or attachments, shall be instituted in or issued by any Civil Court or Revenue Court or Office in British India in respect of such debts and liabilities.

6 When an inquiry has been directed under section 5, the applicant shall, within a period to be fixed by the Commissioner, submit to the officer appointed to make such inquiry a statement duly verified by the said applicant, or by some other competent person, in the manner required by law for the verification of plaints, and containing, so far as may be practicable, such details as to the debts and liabilities, and as to the sufficiency of the debtor's property, whether moveable or immoveable, to meet the same, as the Commissioner, or the said officer, subject to his control, may require.

Verified statement to be submitted.

If any such statement contains any averment which the person making the verification knows or believes to be false, or does not know or believe to be true, such person shall be deemed to have intentionally given false evidence within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code.

False averments in statement.

7. The officer so appointed, after making inquiry, shall submit a report of the proceedings to the Commissioner.

Report of inquiry and proceedings thereon.

On receipt of such report, the Commissioner may (a) direct a further inquiry; or (b) dismiss the application; or (c), by order published in the Sindh Official Gazette, appoint an officer (hereinafter called the manager) to manage the immoveable property of the debtor, and to arrange for the liquidation of his debts in manner hereinafter provided.

CHAPTER III.

OF THE ORDER OF MANAGEMENT.

8 Such order (hereinafter called "the order of management") shall extend to all immoveable property, "including any interest in joint immoveable property," † of or to which the debtor is on the date of its publication possessed or entitled in his own right, or which he is entitled to redeem, or which may be acquired by or devolve on him during the continuance of the management, and to all debts and liabilities to which he is subject, or which are charged on the whole or any part of his immoveable property on the said date, and to the amount of any loan which may be received by the manager from Government in the manner hereinafter provided.

"Order of management;" to what it extends.

* S. 5A has been inserted by Act XI. of 1884, s. 3.

† In s. 8 the words quoted have been inserted by Act XI. of 1884, s. 4.

Act XX. of 1881.

Commencement of management.

The management shall be deemed to commence from the date on which the order is published.

Effect of order of management.

9. On the publication of the order of management the following consequences shall ensue :—

Stay of pending proceedings, &c.

First, all proceedings then pending in any Civil Court "or Revenue Court or Office"* in British India in respect to the debts and liabilities mentioned in section 8 shall be stayed; and the operation of all processes, executions, and attachments then in force for, or in respect of, such debts and liabilities shall be suspended;

Bar of fresh proceedings.

Secondly, so long as the management continues, no fresh proceedings, processes, executions, or attachments shall be instituted in or issued by any Civil Court "or Revenue Court or Office"* in British India in respect of such debts and liabilities;

The debtor incompetent—

Thirdly, so long as the management continues, the debtor shall be incompetent—to contract debts,

(a) to enter into any contract involving him in pecuniary liability, or to encumber or alienate property under management,

(b) to mortgage, charge, lease, or alienate the property under management or any part thereof, or to grant receipts for rent thereof,

(c) to grant valid receipts for the rents and profits arising or accruing therefrom :

Provided that nothing contained in this clause shall be deemed to preclude the manager from letting, and the debtor from taking, the whole or any part of such property on such terms consistent with this Act as may be agreed upon between the parties;

Fourthly, so long as the management continues, no person other than the manager shall be competent to mortgage, charge, lease, or alienate such property or any part thereof.

10. The manager shall, during the management of the property, have

Manager to have powers of owner, and to receive rents and profits, all powers which the owner thereof might, as such, have legally exercised, and shall receive and recover all rents and profits due in respect of the property under management, to have powers of a Collector for their recovery.

and for the purpose of recovering such rents and profits shall have in addition to any powers possessed by a jágírdár or zamíndár, as the case may be, all the powers possessed by a Collector under the law for the time being in force for the recovery of land-revenue due to Government :

Provided that he shall not, before the liquidation-scheme hereinafter mentioned has been sanctioned, demise the property under management or any part thereof, for any term exceeding two years, to take effect in possession.

Manager to pay therefrom—

11. From the sums received or recovered under section 10, the manager shall pay—costs of management and repairs,

First, the costs of the management, including the costs of necessary repairs;

---

* In s. 9 the words quoted have been inserted by Act XI. of 1884, s. 5.

Secondly, the Government revenue and all debts and liabilities for the time being due or incurred to Government in respect of the property under management;

Government revenue, &c.,

Thirdly, the rent (if any) due to the jágirdár or other superior holder in respect of the said property;

rent due to superior holder,

Fourthly, such periodical allowances as the Commissioner may, from time to time, fix for the maintenance of the debtor and his family; allowance for maintenance of debtor,

Fifthly, the cost of such improvements of the said property as he thinks necessary, and are approved by the Commissioner.

cost of improvements, &c.

The residue shall be retained by the manager for the liquidation, in manner hereinafter provided, of the debts and liabilities mentioned in section 8 other than those so due or incurred to Government, and also for the repayment, either before or after the liquidation of such debts and liabilities, of any loan received from Government by the manager under this Act.

Residue how disposed of.

CHAPTER IV.

PROOF OF DEBTS AND SCHEME FOR LIQUIDATION.

12. On the publication of the order of management, the manager shall publish in the Sindh Official Gazette a notice in English and Sindhí, calling upon all persons having claims against the debtor or the property under management, to notify the same in writing to such manager within six months from the date of the publication.

Notice to claimants against debtor.

He shall also cause copies of such notice to be exhibited at the mukhtiárkárs' kachahrís in the district in which the said property lies, and at such other places as he thinks fit.

Copies of notice to be exhibited.

13. Every such claimant shall, along with his claim, present full particulars thereof.

Claim to contain full particulars.

Every document on which the claimant founds his claim, or on which he relies in support thereof, shall be delivered to the manager along with the claim.

Documents to be given up.

If the document be an entry in any book, the claimant shall produce the book to the manager, together with a copy of the entry on which he relies. The manager shall mark the book for the purpose of identification, and, after examining and comparing the copy with the original, shall return the book to the claimant.

Entries in books.

If any document in the possession or under the control of the claimant is not delivered or produced by him to the manager along with the claim, the manager may refuse to receive such document in evidence on the claimant's behalf at the investigation of the case.

Exclusion of documents not produced.

14. Every such claim (other than claims of the Government) not notified to the manager within the time and in the manner required by such notice shall, except as provided in Claim not duly notified to be barred.

Act XX. of 1881. section 19, clause (d), be deemed for all purposes and on all occasions, whether during the continuance of the management or afterwards, to have been duly discharged:

Provision for admission of claims within further period of six months.

Provided that, when proof is made to the manager that the claimant was unable to comply with the provisions of section 12, the manager may receive such claim within the further period of six months from the expiration of the original period of six months.

Determination of debts and liabilities.

15. The manager shall inquire into the history and merits of every claim received under sections 12 and 14, and shall, in accordance with the rules to be made under this Act, determine the amount of the debts and liabilities (if any) justly due to the several claimants.

Power to rank debts and to fix interest.

16. If such amount cannot be paid at once, the manager shall then proceed to rank such debts and liabilities according to the order in which they shall be paid, and to fix the interest (if any) to be paid thereon, respectively, from the date of the final decision thereon to the date of the payment and discharge thereof.

Scheme for liquidation.

17. When the total amount of the debts and liabilities (including those due and incurred to Government) has been finally determined, the manager shall prepare and submit to the Commissioner a schedule of such debts and liabilities, and a scheme (hereinafter called the liquidation scheme) showing the mode in which it is proposed to pay and discharge the same, whether from the income of the property under management, or with the aid of funds raised under the powers hereinafter conferred, or partly in one of such ways and partly in the other.

Provisions of scheme.

Every such scheme shall further provide for the continuance of the payments to be made by the manager under section 11, and for the repayment of the money (if any) which the manager proposes to borrow from Government under this Act; and may provide for the improvement of the property under management either from the said income or with the aid of the funds raised as aforesaid, or partly in one of such ways and partly in the other.

Proceedings of Commissioner on submission of scheme.

18. The Commissioner may—

(a) as often as he thinks fit send back such scheme to the manager for revision, and direct him to make such further inquiry as may be requisite for the proper preparation of the scheme, or

(b) sanction any liquidation-scheme or any revised liquidation-scheme submitted to him, either as it stands, or subject to such modifications as he may deem expedient.

Power to relinquish management.

19. At any time before he has sanctioned a liquidation scheme under section 18, the Commissioner may, by an order published in the Sindh Official Gazette, direct that, on a date fixed by such order, the management shall be relinquished.

On the date so fixed—

(a) the management shall terminate;

(b) the owner of the property under management shall be restored to the possession thereof, subject to any leases made under section 10;

(c) any residue of the rents and profits of the said property retained under the last clause of section 11 shall be paid to him; and

(d) the proceedings, processes, executions, and attachments stayed and suspended under section 9, and the debts and liabilities barred by section 14, shall revive.

In calculating the periods of limitation applicable to suits to recover and enforce debts and liabilities revived under this section, the time during which the management has continued shall be excluded.

CHAPTER V.

OF THE PROCEEDINGS SUBSEQUENT TO SANCTION OF THE LIQUIDATION-SCHEME.

Effects of sanctioning scheme.

20. When the Commissioner sanctions the liquidation-scheme, he shall notify the fact of such sanction at such places and in such manner as the Local Government may from time to time by rule direct; and thereupon—

1st, all proceedings, processes, executions, and attachments stayed or suspended under section 9 shall be for ever barred, and

2nd, every debt or liability due or owing to any person which was proveable before the manager shall be extinguished; and such person shall be entitled to receive under the liquidation-scheme the amount (if any) finally awarded to him under Chapter IV. of this Act in respect of such debt or liability.

Power to remove mortgagee in possession.

21. If the property under management or any part thereof be in the possession of a mortgagee or conditional vendee, the manager, at any time after the liquidation-scheme has been sanctioned as aforesaid, may, by an order in writing, require such incumbrancer to deliver up possession of the same to him at the end of the then current revenue year.

If such incumbrancer refuse or neglect to obey such order, the manager may, without resorting to a Civil Court, enter upon the property and summarily evict therefrom the said incumbrancer and any other person obstructing or resisting on his behalf.

Nothing in this section shall be held to affect the right of any incumbrancer to receive, under the liquidation-scheme, the amount (if any) awarded to him under Chapter IV. of this Act.

Power to inquire into consideration given for leases.

22. If the property under management or any part thereof be in the possession of any person claiming to hold under a lease dated within the three years immediately preceding the commencement of the management, the manager, with the sanction of the Commissioner, may inquire into the sufficiency of the consideration for which the lease was given; and if such consideration appear to him insufficient, may by order, at any time after the liquidation-scheme has been sanctioned as aforesaid, either set aside the lease or require the person so in possession to pay such consideration for the said lease as the manager thinks fit; and in default of such payment the lease shall be cancelled.

Power to lease.

23. Subject to the rules made under section 31, the manager, after the liquidation-scheme has been sanctioned as aforesaid, shall have power to demise all or any part of the Act XX. of 1881. property under management for any term of years not exceeding twenty years absolute, to take effect in possession, in consideration of the payment to him of any fine, or without fine, and reserving such rents, and under such conditions, as may be agreed upon.

Power to raise money by mortgage or sale.

24. At any time after the liquidation-scheme has been sanctioned as aforesaid, the manager, with the previous assent of the Commissioner, shall have power to raise any money which may be required for carrying out such scheme—

(a) by demising by way of mortgage the whole or any part of the property under management for a term not exceeding twenty years from the publication of the order of management; or

(b) by selling, by public auction or by private contract, and upon such terms as the manager thinks fit, such portion of the said property as may appear expedient; or

(c) by borrowing money from Government at such rate of interest as appears reasonable to the Local Government.

Separation of part of jágir land subject to lapse.

24A.* When jágir land under management is held on this condition, that on the happening of a certain event a share of the land shall lapse, but that it shall be in the discretion of the person then entitled as jágirdar to divide off and relinquish in respect of the lapse such part of the land, being a fair equivalent of that share, as he thinks fit, the manager may, if he deems it convenient for the better exercise of the powers conferred by sections 23 and 24, at any time, after such consultation with persons interested as he thinks necessary, allot by written order, for relinquishment on the happening of the event, such part of the land as he thinks fit; and thereupon that part and no other shall, on the happening of the event, be relinquished.

Manager's receipt to be a discharge.

25. The manager's receipt for any moneys, rents, or profits raised or received by him under this Act shall discharge the person paying the same therefrom and from being concerned to see to the application thereof.

Termination of management.

26. When the debts and liabilities mentioned in the liquidation-scheme and the amount of any loan received from Government under clause (c) of section 24, together with the interest (if any) due thereon, have been paid and discharged, the manager shall publish in the Sindh Official Gazette a notice fixing a date for the termination of the management.

Restoration of owner.

On the date so fixed the management shall terminate, and the owner shall be restored to the possession and enjoyment of the property under management, or of such part thereof as has not been sold by the manager under the power conferred by section 24, but subject to the leases and mortgages (if any) granted and made by the manager under the powers conferred by sections 10, 23, and 24.

Death of debtor during management.

27. If the debtor dies after the publication of the order of management and before the management has been terminated in either of the modes hereinbefore provided—

* S. 24A has been inserted by Act XI. of 1884, s. 6.

1st, the management shall continue and proceed in all respects as if such debtor were still living;

2ndly, any person succeeding to the whole or any portion of the property under management shall, while such management continues, be subject in respect of such property to the disabilities imposed by clauses (b) and (c) of section 9; and 3rdly, no Civil Court "or Revenue Court or Office"* in British India shall, during the continuance of the management, issue any attachment or other process against any portion of the property under management for or in respect of any debt or liability incurred by any such person whether before or after his said succession.

Mortgages, &c., made by restored jágirdár valid only for his life.

28. When a jágirdár or zamindár has been restored under section 26 to the possession of any property, no mortgage, charge, lease, or alienation of such property, or of any part thereof, made by such jágirdár or zamindár, shall be valid as to any time beyond his natural life.

CHAPTER VI.

Of Appeal and Revision.

Appeal.

29. An appeal against any decision or order under sections 14, 15, 16, and 22, and imposing a fine or imprisonment in exercise of the powers conferred by section 35, shall lie to the Commissioner, if preferred within six weeks from the date of such decision or order.

There shall be no appeal against the decision of the Commissioner on such appeal.

Power to call for proceedings, and pass order thereon.

30. The Commissioner may, of his own motion or on the application of any person concerned, call for the proceedings in any case under this Act, and pass such order thereon consistent with the provisions of this Act as he thinks fit.

CHAPTER VII.

Miscellaneous.

Power to make rules.

31. The Commissioner, with the previous sanction of the Governor of Bombay in Council, may, from time to time, make rules consistent with this Act—

(a) to regulate the security to be required from subordinate officers under this Act;

(b) to regulate the procedure in all cases under this Act;
